

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2114

Chapter 2114

“Avery, we’re not married yet, you see what you told me, we’re already familiar with it.” Emilio teased.

Avery glared at Emilio again: “If you want to help, don’t forget if you don’t want to. I don’t believe Travis can follow Margaret to the toilet.”

Emilio: “Who said this well? My dad hired a few bodyguards today to protect Margaret’s safety. Maybe she is going to the toilet, and there are female bodyguards following her.”

Avery’s face suddenly stiffened.

“When Margaret gets the award, her worth will soar. If I were my dad, I would be so careful.” Emilio said, and the two came to the second row.

Avery saw Travis standing in front of the first row at a glance, chatting with several judges.

“Avery, sit here!” Emilio pointed Avery to a seat.

“Where is your dad?” Avery asked.

Emilio showed her the position on the other side of him.

She took a deep breath and sat down beside Emilio.

“Where’s Margaret? Why didn’t I see her?” After Avery sat down, she began to look around.

“She came with my dad.” Emilio replied, “I saw her standing with my dad just now.”

Emilio’s voice was settled, and Margaret walked in from the side door next to him.

“She may have gone to the bathroom.” Emilio couldn’t help teasing, “It’s a pity that your plan failed before it even started.”

Avery stared at Margaret and whispered, “Even if this method doesn’t work, I have another way.”

“What other way?” Emilio asked.

Avery said, “I could send her a message. If she wanted to see me, she would naturally find a way to meet me alone.”

“Since you have her number, why don’t you contact her directly?” Emilio was puzzled. “Thank you for being able to come up with such a smelly way to block her in the bathroom.”

“I sent her a message before, but she didn’t reply to me.” If Avery wasn’t forced to, how could she think of blocking people in the bathroom?

“Since Margaret didn’t answer you, it means she doesn’t want to see you. Avery, you should give up. I don’t know if Margaret and my dad really love each other, but they seem to be in harmony on the surface. When she wins the award and marry my Dad, the two of them will definitely take advantage of this opportunity to make money...even if it’s just to make money from a partnership, they can live in harmony.”

What Emilio said, Avery didn’t think about it.

Margaret walked to Travis’s side, and after chatting with them for a while, Margaret walked towards Avery.

Margaret also sat in the second row. Her position was beside Travis.

It was equivalent to the positions of Avery and Margaret, separated by Travis and Emilio.

“Emilio, let’s change positions.” Before Margaret came over, Avery got up and pulled Emilio to change positions.

When the two of them changed positions, Margaret came over, passed in front of Avery, and sat down after a vacant seat.

“Ms. Gomez, congratulations on winning the March Medical Award.” Avery took the initiative to talk to Margaret.

Margaret: “Avery, there are too many people to congratulate me, and you are not inferior.”

“You said that you would not embarrass me and Elliot. Does that count? I didn’t take the initiative to provoke you.” Avery said humbly, “You said as long as I don’t take the initiative to provoke you...”

“What are you talking about?” Margaret frowned, looking puzzled.

“If Travis wants you to threaten me and Elliot, will you listen to Travis?” Avery asked, “you are going to marry Travis tomorrow. I have been having nightmares these days.”

“Hahaha! What’s the matter! You are so brave!” Margaret laughed happily, then stared at Avery and Emilio, “I see... No wonder Travis wants to save a place for you next to Emilio! Isn’t Travis trying to match the two of you?”

Avery and Emilio remained silent.

Margaret laughed even happier when she saw the two of them acquiesce.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2115

Chapter 2115

It seems that watching Avery shriveled can make Margaret very happy.

Travis was curious about what they were talking about, so he walked over quickly and took a seat between them.

“What are you talking about?” Travis said, looking at Margaret, “Looking at how happy you are laughing.”

Margaret chuckled: “I think Avery and Emilio are quite a couple.”

“Haha! They have similar eyes. And Emilio and Avery are still classmates.” Travis looked at Avery, and continued, “Avery, is Elliot okay recently? Why do you keep guarding a useless man? If you are with Emilio, the Jones family’s beauty and medicine will definitely be more powerful than your dream maker group!”

Travis added, “Of course, if you marry Emilio, there will be no difference between you and me. We are a family. I will be marry Margaret tomorrow. If you marry Emilio, you will have to call Margaret a mother in the future. If you want to keep Elliot alive, Margaret will definitely help you without hesitation!”

Travis had already begun to threaten. And the threat was quite obvious.

Margaret smiled and watched all this like a bystander watching a good show.

“Avery, you stay for the evening celebration banquet and celebrate together.” Travis invited.

Avery: “My son left school early tonight. If I came home late, my son would be worried.”

Travis: “Is your son in his teens? He is already so old, you don’t need to worry about him “

“Well, I don’t care about him very much, but he prefers to care about me.” Avery casually found an excuse, “I’m going to the bathroom.”

Avery got up and went to the bathroom after finishing speaking.

From the conversation with Travis and Margaret just now, Avery already understood their thoughts.

Travis made no secret of it, while Margaret had nothing to do with him.

Once the two of them get married, Margaret will completely obey Travis, and then she can throw the blame, saying that it is Travis's meaning, and it has nothing to do with her.

Half an hour later, Avery did not return to her seat.

And the award ceremony was about to begin.

Emilio called Avery and asked, "Why haven't you come back yet?"

"I've already left." Avery replied, "You have seen Margaret's attitude. She has the same heart as your father. Even if I beg her, she will never be soft-hearted. So there's no need to find her alone."

"Well. Then you go back and have a good rest. Will you come to my dad's wedding tomorrow?" Emilio asked.

Avery: "Probably!"

After talking on the phone, Emilio told his father, "Avery's left."

Margaret sat next to Travis, and the smile on her face faded a little when she heard this.

...

Avery came out of the hotel and didn't go home.

She wanted to confess to Elliot, but she didn't have the courage.

She needed alcohol to embolden herself.

"Ali, please accompany me for a few drinks!" Avery said to the bodyguard.

Ali was stunned: "Boss, do you want to drink?"

Avery: "Well."

"I can't drink with you. I have to stay awake at all times. If I drink, Mike will definitely scold me to death." Ali didn't even think about it and rejected her, "Why don't you find someone else? If you can't find someone else, you can make a video call for your best friend and let her video watch you drink.”

Avery: “...”

Chapter 2116

Hotel, the scene of the March Medical Award.

When the guests announced Margaret's name on the stage, the spotlight suddenly hit her.

In the warm applause of everyone, Margaret got up and walked towards the stage.

“I finally stood on this stage. When I was 63 years old, I got my dream trophy. I thought I would never get this award in my life. Because to get this award, The effort required and the reward may not be proportional.” Margaret held the microphone in one hand and the trophy in the other, with an excited smile on her face, “But I waited.”

There was thunderous applause from the audience.

After the applause stopped, Margaret took a deep breath and said again: “Here, I would first like to thank my alma mater and my mentor for cultivating me. Second, I would also like to thank one person, this person is my fiance, Mr. Travis Jones.”

Margaret said, and a spotlight hit the audience and fell on Travis.

Travis's smiling face was projected onto the big screen of the stage.

“During my long work over the years, it was he who provided me with uninterrupted financial support. Without his support, I might not be able to persist now. So I would like to thank him in particular.” Margaret expressed gratitude to Travis, “Secondly, there are members of my research team who have paid silently. When they joined my team, we signed a non-disclosure agreement, and they could not tell anyone about our research, including now that we have succeeded, but everyone don't know their names. They were supposed to be on this stage with me...For their protection, I'm standing here today and accepting this honor.”

“I'm really happy today, so there are a lot of words... I hope you don't mind.”

The host smiled and said: “Ms. Gomez, we can understand your joy. We are also happy for you. I heard that your alma mater has awarded three winners of the March Medicine Prize. Do you know them?” People just wanted to find a topic to chat with Margaret, and didn't do much homework, so they didn't know the grievances between Margaret and Professor James Hough.

After asking this question, the smile on Margaret's face suddenly froze.

Under the stage, Emilio saw the smile on his father's face disappear instantly.

"The first two winners of the March Medicine Prize have passed away. I don't know the first winner, because the age gap is still quite large. As for the second one, I am quite familiar with him." Margaret said these words always had a decent smile on her face.

Avery was sitting by the window of a restaurant, and the wine she ordered had not yet arrived. So she took her phone to watch the March Medical Prize presentation live.

In fact, Avery didn't want to watch the live broadcast. It was the news that popped up the live broadcast link, and she clicked on it.

As soon as she entered, she saw the host asked Margaret that question.

The last time she mentioned Professor James Hough in front of Margaret, Margaret was furious and very angry.

She thought that Margaret would turn her face this time, but she didn't expect Margaret to answer the question with a smile instead of being angry.

"James Hough is my senior but he passed away so long. I almost forgot what he looked like but I will not forget his influence on me. When he won the March Medical Prize, I swear in my heart. I, Margaret, will also work hard to get this award." Margaret said and relieved, "Now I have done it. It's a pity that James Hough will never know."

... The waiter held a bottle of wine to Avery's table.

After a while, the dishes she ordered were also on the table.

Ali sat opposite her, looking at the wine and dishes on the table.

"Boss, are you sure you want to drink?" Ali beat a drum in his heart, "Will Mike get angry when he finds out?"

"Ali, I usually never let him drink. If he dares to control me, I will scold him." Avery hasn't started drinking yet, but her eyes and tone seem to be drunk.

Chapter 2117

"Okay, drink it! I'll use water instead of wine to accompany you to drink." Ali picked up the kettle and poured himself a glass of water.

Avery picked up the bottle and poured a glass of wine into the glass.

After the two clink glasses, they each drank.

Seeing her drinking so much, Ali worried that she would soon get drunk.

"Boss, I know why you want to drink. It must be because of Elliot, right?" Ali picked up the wine glass and poured her a small glass of wine.

According to the stance Avery filled herself with, within three cups, it is estimated that she would have to lie down.

“What does it have to do with Elliot? All my pain was never because of him.” Avery held the wine glass with her fingers, and her voice was crying, “I only feel happy when I am with Elliot. My pain is because of someone wants to break us up.”

“That Travis, right? That old man looks very treacherous and hard to deal with.” Ali filled himself with water and continued to drink with her, “Boss, I can’t give you any good advice, after all Elliot’s life is now in their hands. If you want to get rid of their control, you can only rely on you to find a way to save Elliot’s life.”

“Yeah. Look how awake you are!” Avery smiled and cheered to the bodyguard...

Ali: “What’s the use of being sober, and I can’t help you.”

“I’ll be very happy if you drink with me. I really thought about making a video call for Tammy just now... But thinking about it now, don’t bother her anymore. If she sees me drinking, she will definitely worry to death.”

“Boss, drink it! If you are drunk, you don’t want to worry so much.”

Two hours later, Ali returned home with Avery who was so drunk.

When the nanny saw Avery drinking like this, she panicked: “Ali, why did Avery drink like this? Who made her drink like this?”

Ali blushed: “Who else can she drink by herself.”

The nanny: “Ah?”

“Is Elliot at home?” Ali watched Avery walking towards the master bedroom.

“At home. Mr. Foster is in the room.” After the nanny finished, the door to the master bedroom opened.

The moment Elliot opened the door, he could smell alcohol coming from Avery.

The bodyguard passed Avery in front of him and strode into the room.

After putting Avery on the bed, Ali exhaled and walked to Elliot: “Mr. Foster, my boss drank too much. I can’t wake her up now. She might be drunk when she wakes up, be careful. Come on!”

Avery has never been so drunk before, and Ali doesn’t know how her wine tastes.

“Who did she drink with?” Elliot asked in a dark voice.

“Uh... She drank it herself. I didn't drink a drop of alcohol.” Ali distanced himself.

“Did she say why she was drinking?” Elliot actually understood why she was drinking, but he couldn't help but ask.

Ali scratched his head, thought for a moment, and decided to be kinder: “I think she might be jealous when Margaret won the March Medical Prize!”

“Mr. Foster, don't think too much. You should rest at home. Now, my boss will definitely be able to solve your problem.” Ali said this wisely, then walked away.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2118

Chapter 2118

Elliot entered the master bedroom and closed the door. In the bedroom, the smell of alcohol spread from Avery.

He walked over to the bed and took the shoes off Avery's feet.

Avery was lying on the bed, motionless and unaware.

Elliot knew that Avery was not a good drinker, but after knowing her for so many years, it was the first time he saw Avery so drunk that she was unconscious.

How sad Avery must be to drink so much alcohol.

Elliot sat on the edge of the bed, looking at Avery's blushing face, his eyes gradually moistened.

He didn't want to be her burden the most, but now, he was holding her breathless.

Seeing Avery in so much pain, his heart hurt even more.

If Elliot hadn't been resurrected by Margaret, if he had died a long time ago, Avery might have come out now, and she wouldn't have to be tortured like this.

Not long after, the nanny cooked sober soup and knocked on the door.

Elliot opened the door.

“Mr. Foster, why don’t you wake Avery and ask her to drink some soup? I’m afraid she’s alcohol poisoned.” The nanny said worriedly, “Dinner is ready, why don’t you go eat first! I’ll wake her up.”

Elliot couldn’t bear to wake Avery up, so he walked out of the room.

He sat down in the dining room, turned on his phone, and the notification bar posted several news related to today’s March Medal Award.

He casually opened one, and saw Margaret wearing a white dress, holding a trophy, standing on the stage, dazzling.

The smile on her face, the look in her eyes, shone with the light of a winner.

Because Margaret became popular, the media also interviewed her fiance Travis.

Travis made his first response to the scandal that appeared on the LED of the Dream Maker Group Building a few days ago.

He said it was all about his former bodyguard slandering him. He didn’t do those things and couldn’t do them.

He said that the scandalous video of him appeared on the Dream Makers Group Building, not because he had a grudge against the Dream Makers Group boss, but because hackers infiltrated the Dream Makers Group’s network that night.

He also said that he has a good relationship with the boss of the Dream Makers Group, and the two companies may have surprising cooperation in the future.

Elliot wanted to drink after reading the news.

Everything had become so magical.

Since Elliot was rescued from this accident and opened his eyes, everything has been out of his control.

He has become a puppet, and can only watch his loved ones sad and helpless for his situation, but he can’t do anything about it. Although he is still alive, but this life is better than death.

After the nanny fed Avery a few mouthfuls of soup, she refused to drink it because of the headache.

The nanny came out with a bowl, and Elliot had already finished dinner.

“Mr. Foster, do you only eat so much?” The nanny saw that the dishes on the table didn’t move much. “Are you worried about Avery? She drank two sips of soup just now. When she wakes up from sleep, she should be much awake.”

“Well.” Elliot walked towards the master bedroom. He entered the master bedroom and closed the door.

On the big bed, Avery frowned, her arms were on top of her head, and her breathing was particularly heavy. She should not be sleeping soundly.

Elliot walked over to the bed and sat down, looking at her face, recalling the bits and pieces with her.

After a while, Avery suddenly opened her eyes.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2119

Chapter 2119

Avery saw Elliot’s face and thought she was hallucinating.

She reached out and touched Elliot’s cheek.

“Awake?” Elliot whispered.

Hearing Elliot’s voice, Avery was terrified.

“I... My head hurts... Elliot, my head hurts!” Avery patted her head with her palm, trying to ease the pain.

Elliot immediately held her hand and prevented her from continuing to shoot.

“Elliot...is it the same when you have a headache?” Avery gasped, frowning tightly.

“you didn’t know how to drink and you drank so much.” Elliot sighed helplessly, “Don’t drink it next time.”

“...But I see everyone else is drinking. I want to drink.” Avery rubbed her temples and paused, “Elliot, I seem to have something to tell you... Let me think... I suddenly can’t remember.”

Elliot looked at her drunk and still in pain, and his heart was twisted.

“Think slowly, don’t worry.” Elliot squeezed her hand and waited patiently for her.

“Elliot...What am I going to say?” Avery gasped, the more she tried to remember, the less she could remember, “I have something very important to tell you. Really, I really have something to tell you ... but I can’t remember anything now.”

Avery said with words in her mouth, the more anxious, and the end cried.

And the more she cry, the more she sad, and the more uncontrollable it becomes.

As long as she still has a sense of reason, she can control herself not to be so sad in front of Elliot.

She has held on for so long, she can continue to hold on. But now the alcohol controls her consciousness, and all her words and deeds are out of control.

Elliot watched her cry into tears, and the tears fell out of control. He wanted to say something to comfort her, but couldn’t say a word.

Avery saw that Elliot seemed to be crying too, so she took his arm and struggled to sit up.

“Elliot, don’t cry... It breaks my heart to see you cry.” Avery was slightly awake, plunged her head into his arms, and wiped the tears off his shirt, “I...I cried just now, I was angry with myself, I drank too much... I can’t remember anything, I am anxious... It has nothing to do with you... It really has nothing to do with you...”

Avery was obviously drunk, but she was still worried that Elliot would find out that she was so sad because of him.

“Elliot, I’ll just sleep... When I sleep, I’ll be able to remember what I’m going to say to you...” She leaned against his chest, Smelling his familiar and unique breath, his heart was floating in the air, and he calmed down a little, “Elliot, you hold me... I want you to hold me... I’m so sleepy.”

Elliot hugged her according to her words.

She closed her eyes with satisfaction and fell asleep in his arms.

Two hours later, Mike and Hayden returned home.

Chad and Elliot were sitting in the living room and seemed to be waiting for them.

“Chad, why are you here? When did you come here? You didn’t say anything.” Mike complained, “Where’s Avery? Didn’t she come back? But I see Ali smoking in the yard!”

Chad: “Avery is drunk and sleeping in the room. I’m here to pick up my boss.”

“Drunk?” Mike raised his eyebrows, “Why is Avery drunk? Also, where are you going to pick up Elliot?”

“I’ll take my boss to a party. I’ll be back in about two days.” Chad said blankly, “If Avery wakes up, just tell her that.”

“Oh. Why is it so sudden?” Mike scratched his head and looked at Elliot, “Can’t you wait for Avery to wake up and tell her?”

“She’s going to the Jones family’s wedding tomorrow, and she doesn’t have time to accompany me.” Elliot replied.

His answer was watertight.

“That’s right!” Mike accepted his explanation, but was worried, “But why are you suddenly going to the entertainment? Can you be entertained with this body?”

Elliot’s eyes fell on Hayden’s face, but he didn’t listen at all what Mike said.

He waited until now just to see his son Hayden one last time.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2120

Chapter 2120

Hayden felt that his eyes were bold and direct, which made people very uncomfortable. His usual eyes were much more reserved.

“My mother won’t promise to let you go out to socialize.” Hayden looked directly at Elliot, trying to stop him from going out. Otherwise, my mother will be anxious when she wakes up and sees that you’re not at home.

“Your mother supports my work.” Elliot didn’t expect his son to take the initiative to speak up, which was a bit unexpected, but he would not change his mind, “Hayden, your mother rarely makes video calls for your younger siblings recently, so you have to make video calls for them often.”

Elliot, what are you talking about? You asked Hayden to make video call for them, can’t you make it yourself? Don’t you have a mobile phone now?” Mike said, he felt strange, “Did you quarrel with Avery? Otherwise why does Avery get drunk? She doesn’t like drinking.”

“Mike, please accompany her to the Jones’s wedding tomorrow!” Elliot looked at Mike and explained, “It’s safer to go with her alone.”

Mike: “...”

"I've already eaten dinner, you guys go have it!" Elliot had already explained everything he wanted to explain, so he was about to leave.

If Elliot didn't leave, he was afraid that something would happen.

He glanced at Chad, and Chad immediately received his meaning.

"Let's go first." After Chad said this to Mike, he left with Elliot.

Mike watched them leave, turned around, and looked at Hayden: "Do you think your father is a little weird? I can't tell you what's weird... It feels weird everywhere."

Hayden didn't know how to answer. He also thought Elliot was weird.

Especially the way Elliot looked at Hayden was a little scary.

"I think Hayden must have quarreled with your mother." Mike said firmly.

At this time, Ali walked in.

"No. They didn't quarrel." Ali explained, "How could my boss quarrel with Mr. Foster? Mr. Foster is her treasure now, and it's too late for her to take care of her carefully! Even if Mr. Foster takes the initiative to quarrel with her, she will only bear it, and she will never quarrel with him."

"You mean that Elliot took the initiative to quarrel with Avery?" A chill appeared in Mike's eyes.

"No, no!" Seeing Mike's misinterpretation, Ali blushed anxiously, "Mr. Foster has been recuperating at home. If he took the initiative to quarrel with my boss, you would have known it. You don't have to wait for me to tell you."

"Oh, let me just say, how dare he quarrel with Avery now that he is taking care of Avery?" Mike breathed a sigh of relief, and after a few seconds, frowned again, "You have been following Avery, do you know why she drinks?"

Ali: "This..."

"If you don't know, then don't do it! How could you not know about such an important thing?" Mike threatened.

Ali: "It's not about Elliot. When she wakes up, you can ask her! If she has any worries, she won't tell me. But I guessed it right away."

Elliot and Chad went to the hotel.

“Boss, you’re not going back tonight?” Chad cautiously opened his mouth to break the silence, “Avery is drunk, don’t you take care of her? If she wakes up at night and sees you not there, she will definitely be anxious.”

“Chad, I want drink.” Elliot’s eyes were as deep as ink, looking out the window, “You accompany me to a bar!”

Chad: “Okay. But you can’t drink too much, I’m afraid your body can’t stand it.”

The two went to a restaurant near the hotel.
