

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2218

After waking up, everything in front of Elliot gradually became clear.

Where was that?

Elliot frowned, breathing hard.

He tried to move his fingers, and the fingers moved. He tried to lift his arm again, but the arm seemed to weigh thousands of pounds, and he couldn't lift it at all, let alone get out of bed.

He didn't dare to close his eyes, because thoughts kept popping up, reminding him of what happened before.

He had surgery to take out the device in his brain, he should be dead, but strangely, he felt alive now in his brain, he should be dead

Because the pain in his brain kept pulling on the nerves in his body rain kept pulling on

As well as the pictures he saw with his eyes, the sounds of instruments he heard with his ears, and the smell of disinfectant he smelled in his nose, all told him that this was the human world.

It felt so good to be alive. Although he didn't have the strength to act now, as long as he was still alive, there was still hope ---hope to recover, hope to see Avery, see children, see friends...

When Elliot found out that he woke up, A nurse immediately went to inform Avery.

Avery cried with joy, with an unreal sense of joy.

"Miss Tate, Mr. Foster is awake, go and have a look!" The nurse urged with a smile.

Avery came back to her senses and quickly followed the nurse to the intensive care unit.

Foster family.

After Hayden brought Layla home, Robert immediately took Layla's hand and pulled Layla to his side, forming a confrontation with his brother Hayden.

Robert had no relationship with his brother Hayden, and his brother was not so affectionate with him, so he must snatch his sister over.

"Robert, have you called your brother?" Layla picked up Robert and gave it to Hayden, "Call your brother quickly, or you won't have the gift."

Robert heard that there was a gift, and didn't even think about it, so he immediately obeyed. Shouting: "Brother!"

The corner of Hayden's mouth twitched unnaturally, and he said truthfully: "I didn't buy you a gift."

Hayden was so anxious to come back, where would he have time to buy a gift. Although he was free during the day, he made up his sleep at home during the day.

When Robert heard that he had been deceived, he hummed and felt aggrieved.

"Little Younger Brother, why are you crying! After dinner, brother Hayden will take us to buy gift!" Layla coaxed Robert very well. "Now think about what gifts you want, and go for it!"

In this way, Layla got rid of her clingy brother.

"Brother, if you don't want to pay attention to those good friends of mine, then ignore them. You don't need to take care of them with my face." Layla knew that for her brother Hayden, they were childish.

At that time, they wanted to add their brother's friend. The brother said that he didn't bring a mobile phone, but they didn't give up. They took out paper and pens from their school bags and took their brother's number away.

They use children's watches at school, but they actually have mobile phones when they return home in private.

"Layla, you're going to junior high school soon, so focus on your studies. Don't think about messy things all day long." Hayden didn't take this matter to heart at all.

Even if those little girls really added his friends, they would be less interested in him before long.

"You always want me to study hard. Even if I study well and get admitted to the best university, what difference will it make when I graduate? After I graduate, I will either invest in entrepreneurship or find a job I like. Even if I don't go to school, when I'm an adult, I can still do this!" Layla asked.

"It is because you don't read enough that you are empty-minded and short-sighted, and say such things. Learning knowledge is not only to enable you to work and earn money after graduation, but also to enrich your spiritual level and vision." Hayden said.

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Layla didn't want to talk about this anymore, because her head was starting to hurt.

"Brother, after dinner, you take my brother Robert and me out to buy gifts."

Layla changed the topic lightly.

"Okay. Think carefully about what gift you want. Go and think about it with Robert! I'm going to dinner." Hayden sent Layla away like Layla sent Robert.

In the Hospital.

Avery met Elliot.

After Elliot saw Avery, his eyes suddenly glowed.

It was not until this moment that he saw Avery and her eyes behind the protective goggles that he deeply understood that he was really alive.

"Elliot, fortunately you are awake, fortunately you are awake!" Avery choked, her eyes filled with tears, "You made such an important decision without hiding it from me, do you know how sad I am?"

The nurse reminded Avery: "Miss Tate, Mr. Foster finally woke up, don't scare him out."

The nurse's reminder made Avery hold back her words.

"Can Mr. Foster be transferred to the general ward?" The nurse asked.

Avery checked Elliot's current physical indicators, and then nodded.

Elliot had been in the ICU for almost a week, and the wounds from his surgery had slowly healed during the days he was in a coma.

was in no danger of life except that his body was relatively weak.

After transferring him to the general ward, Avery called the attending doctor and Wesley respectively to inform them of the good news.

Later, she told Mrs. Cooper the news.

Mrs. Cooper cried excitedly: "I knew Mr. Foster had good looks and would definitely survive! Did you tell Hayden and Layla? The three children went out to play after dinner."

"They went out at night. What are you playing?" Avery thought the children were at home.

"When Hayden came back this time, he didn't buy gifts for Layla and Robert. Layla and Robert wanted gifts, so they took Hayden out to buy them." Mrs. Cooper explained, "Don't worry, the bodyguards will go with you, and everything will be fine. "

Robert wanted gifts, so they took Hayden out to buy them." Mrs. Cooper exp

"Well. It's just that the temperature outside is a little cold." Avery was worried that the children would catch a cold. Especially Robert.

Although Robert looks healthy, he catches a cold if he is not careful.

Probably because of premature birth, even if he has been taking special care of him the day after tomorrow, his physique is still worse than that of ordinary children.

"I don't want him to go out either, but he insisted on going out with his brother and sister to buy gifts. I said he wanted to go out with him, but he didn't want me to follow." Mrs. Cooper smiled helplessly, "At first he was a little hostile to Hayden, but after a while I started sticking to Hayden."

I said he wanted to go out with him, but he didn't want me to follow." Mrs. Cooper smiled

Avery was able to make up the picture that Mrs. Cooper said: "After all, they are brothers, so they must have feelings. Since they are out, let them have a good time!"

“After all, they are brothers, so they must have

After speaking on the phone, Avery has not made call to Hayden.

Elliot was still relatively weak. He didn't say a word since he woke up and closed his eyes to rest again.

When Wesley and the attending doctor came, Elliot fell asleep again.

"He stared at me for half an hour. He only closed her eyes before you came here." Avery spoke to them both.

"Did he say anything uncomfortable?" the attending doctor asked.

"He didn't say anything. I guess he's not very awake yet." Avery said, "But he should have remembered everything. He didn't speak, probably because he was afraid of being scolded by me."

"Hahaha! Miss Tate, since Mr. Foster is out of danger, don't scold him. If he doesn't take risks, we won't know that this is Margaret's scam."

Chapter 2220

“Yeah Avery, since he is awake, there should be no more problems in the future.” Wesley followed the attending doctor Live together to persuade.

Avery glanced at Elliot on the hospital bed, and then asked Wesley to come out to chat.

Wesley knew that she would probably settle accounts with him in the autumn.

“Is Shea okay?” Avery first asked about Shea's condition when she came out of the ward.

“She’s okay. I told her that Elliot would not die, and she slept well in the past two days.” Wesley said, feeling uneasy, “Avery, this is my fault, you blame me!”

Avery: “Brother Wesley, I said I don’t blame you, I won’t blame you. I called you out, not to accuse you. I just want to tell you that if this kind of thing happens in the future, you can actually think about whether there is a better way “

Wesley pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose: “Do you think there is a better way to do this? I thought and thought, but I really can’t think of another way.”

Avery calmly said: “You can tell me. If I knew that he would rather die and have to have surgery, why would I stop him?”

Wesley swallowed: “Avery, do you lack understanding of yourself? I think if you knew about this, You will definitely have a big fight with Elliot, and then stop him from dying.”

Avery: “???”

<https://novelebook.com/when-his-eyes-opened-bd2388.html?dev=tl>

Wesley cleared his throat awkwardly: “If I misunderstood you, could it be that Elliot misunderstood you too? If he begged you to let you let him have surgery, why would he hide it from you? He must have considered the feasibility of telling you later, and he must have chosen to hide it from you because it would not work after telling you. “

Avery: “Brother Wesley, am I so tyrannical?”

“This is not tyranny. Because you love him, you can’t be rational about things related to him.” Wesley understood this.

Avery showed a smile that was uglier than crying.

“Avery, when you go out in the future, remember not to trust outsiders. You must not be fooled by bad people again.”

Wesley still had lingering fears when he thought of their experience this time, “It’s also because of your great fate, and thanks to Hayden’s brilliant intelligence, otherwise there will be nothing left. There is a chance to meet now.”

“I will be careful in the future.” Avery sighed, “Before, we wanted to find Haze too much. This time, such a serious thing happened, I saw it. Elliot should also see it. That child, I can’t find it, shows that she may really be dead. If she was still alive, she would be more than three years old now. If the people who raised her raised her to this age, they would definitely have a relationship.”

“You should have thought so long ago. It’s not that you didn’t look for this child, you have always sent someone to look for it. You have never given up this child. The best you can find, don’t if you can’t find it. So it affects my life.” Wesley comforted, “You haven’t had dinner yet? I invite you to eat out as an apology for you.”

Avery touched his stomach and was indeed a little hungry.

A plane taxied slowly on the airport runway, and after a while, the plane landed smoothly.

Emilio and the bodyguard slowly got off the plane. He came to Aryadelle this time, first to inquire about Elliot’s situation, and second to find Norah.

When he got out of the airport, his phone was turned on, and news about Elliot popped up.

It was Avery who sent him a message: [Elliot woke up.]

In just three words, Emilio's whole body became cold.

Elliot woke up, and Travis's life was not easy.

Travis had a hard time, and he also had a hard time.

The bodyguard hired a taxi from the side of the road.

After the two got into the car, the car drove towards the booked five-star hotel.

Emilio replied to Avery: [Congratulations.]

Avery didn't reply. She has nothing to answer.

From now on, she won't need Emilio's help for anything, and there will be no need for them to contact again in the future.

After a while, Emilio couldn't help but message her again: [I'm coming to Aryadelle. My dad asked me to come to Norah.]
