

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2231

When drinking water, Avery turned on her phone and glanced at it.

Last night she sent a message to the head of the March Medical Award jury panel. She told the other party about Elliot, hoping that the other party could explain to the public as soon as possible.

Until this morning when she went out, she hadn't received a reply from the other party.

When she sent a message to the other party last night, it was daytime in Bridgedale.

Clearly, they were trying to avoid it.

Avery looked solemn, put the thermos on the table, and continued to send messages to the other party: [If you don't reply to me today, I don't mind coming forward to reveal this ridiculous lie to the public in person!]

About five minutes later, Avery's cell phone rang.

She immediately got up from the chair and said to Elliot, "I'll go out and answer the phone."

Elliot responded and watched Avery walk out of the ward.

Avery came out of the ward with her mobile phone and walked towards the safe passage not far away.

She took the call, and the voice of the head of the jury immediately came over the phone.

“Avery, I’m sorry. I dropped my phone during the day and took it to replace the screen. I just got it back from the maintenance department.” The other party’s beautiful rhetoric directly suppressed Avery’s emotions, “I was shocked by the news you sent. It’s unbelievable.”

“I also think it’s unbelievable. I thought I was going to prepare for Elliot’s funeral, but he woke up.” Avery’s tone was light, with a hint of teasing, “He is not only awake now, but also conscious, can eat and sleep, and will be discharged from the hospital in a few days.”

“Ah, this is really something to celebrate.” The other party said, “Greet your husband for me.”

“No need. Even if he’s not greeted, he can be fine.” Avery could tell from his tone that he was not a sincere person, “What are you going to do with the awards you give out?”

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2232

Avery hesitated.

Elliot has a strong self-esteem. If the outside world knows about this, he will be discussed all the time.

He has always kept a low profile, and definitely does not want these disgraceful things to spread freely.

“Miss Tate, I implore you to think about it again. I will discuss this matter with the rest of the organizing committee to see if there is a better way to solve it properly. Give us some time, okay? “Seeing that Avery’s mind was shaken, the other party immediately let both sides go down the steps.

“Okay, I hope you can think about it clearly.” Avery hesitated for a while, but her position did not change, “If you still insist on your own opinions, then neither the honor of my teacher nor the face of Elliot will threaten you. Come to me.”

“Okay, I know your determination.”

After the phone call, Avery returned to the ward.

There was not Elliot on the hospital bed.

“Elliot!” Avery exclaimed.

Her exclamation immediately attracted the bodyguards outside the ward.

“Miss Tate, what’s the matter?” The bodyguard asked nervously.

Avery: “Where are the others?”

“The boss didn’t leave the ward!” The bodyguards had been conscientiously guarding the door of the ward, not seeing Elliot went out.

Just when Avery was thinking about it, the door of the bathroom opened and Elliot came out.

Avery and the bodyguard were stunned.

Although Elliot had been operated on for a week, he had only woken up for two days. Everyone thought that he could only rest in bed and couldn’t get out of bed. Unexpectedly, he got out of bed and went to the bathroom by himself...

This gesture of freedom of movement of Elliot seemed to be discharged.

“Avery, who are you talking to?” Elliot preempted her.

If it wasn't for Avery talking on the phone for a long time, Elliot wouldn't have bothered to get out of bed.

Before Avery brought the child to visit him this morning, he still felt weak, lacking strength, and had a headache.

After drinking the soup she fed, and being bathed and changed by her, he felt as if his body had been injected with energy.

First of all, the pain in the head was not so much, and secondly, the physical strength had recovered a lot.

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2233

Elliot heard the words and looked at Avery with deep eyes: "You must be quite disappointed, right?"

Avery smiled: "Only a little bit disappointed. Because I know our children will always leave us."

Avery: "Don't use it like this. Look at this with pessimistic thoughts. They are not leaving us, but to complete their mission in this world."

"When Layla leaves us in the future, I hope you can be so open-minded."

Avery said this sentence After coming out, the calmness on Elliot's face quickly disintegrated.

In the evening, Gwen returned to Ben's mansion with the spoils of the day.

Gwen lived in his house now.

At first, Gwen was too embarrassed to move in. Later, when Ben Schaffer went to Bridgedale, Ben Schaffer's parents called Gwen to come and live with them.

For Gwen, getting married to Ben Schaffer, apart from having a child and giving her a headache, was like the relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law, she never worried about it.

Because Ben Schaffer's parents were very kind and loving to her.

First, she was Elliot's younger sister.

Secondly, her career had improved, and even if she didn't rely on Ben Schaffer, she could live well.

It could be said that if Ben Schaffer missed Gwen, he might not be able to find such a young and beautiful wife in the future.

The two elders were satisfied with Gwen and relieved.

"Gwen, why didn't you let Ben Schaffer go shopping with you? Are you exhausted from carrying so many things?" Juniper Schaffer hurriedly helped Gwen pick up the bag in her hand.

"I went shopping with Tammy today. Tammy didn't bring her husband, and I'm embarrassed to bring Ben Schaffer." Gwen took out the things she bought for the two elders, "Is Ben Schaffer back?"

Juniper: "Go back, he's upstairs! Originally we said we would wait for you to come back for dinner, but he said you were eating out, but we didn't wait for you."

"I ate out with Tammy. Auntie, I went up to find Ben. It's over." Gwen wanted to tell Ben Schaffer about her and Tammy's plans.

When Gwen went upstairs, Ben Schaffer came out of the study, and the two faced each other.

When Ben Schaffer saw Gwen coming back, he quickly finished the phone.

Ben: “Gwen, what did you guys buy so late?”

“Clothes, shoes and bags!” Gwen said lightly, dragging Ben Schaffer into the study on the second floor, “Ben Schaffer, let me tell you something!”

“What’s the matter? It’s so mysterious.” Ben Schaffer began to ponder when he saw that her expression was wrong.

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2234

“I know you won’t have an opinion, but you are going to tell your parents!”

Gwen urged, “And how to implement it, you have to help. Tammy and I are just making ideas, You don’t want us to do everything, do you?”

Ben Schaffer stared at her excited look and asked, “What about our wedding? What are your plans?”

Gwen took out her phone, opened the calendar, and after a bit of flicking, she pointed to a time on the calendar, “Just this day! One week before the Spring Festival. After the wedding, we can go out for a few days for our honeymoon. After the honeymoon is over, we can come back for the New Year. What do you think?”

Ben raised his brows: “Is the honeymoon only for a few days? Gwen, are you too perfunctory? I remember that your second brother and Avery booked a honeymoon for half a month.”

“What are you doing compared to the two of them? Before the two of them I can remember that wedding very clearly. It was unprecedented and unparalleled. If you like to compare with them so much, why don’t you compare the scale of your wedding with them? We are getting married with the arrange of your parents, right? I arranged for my second brother's wedding."

Gwen said confidently, feeling a little sore in her legs, so she sat down in her boss chair.

Ben: "I originally wanted to prepare our wedding myself, didn't you always regret it and couldn't set the wedding date? My parents saw us procrastinating, so they helped us prepare..."

"I don't blame to your parents. My main point is that you don't compare yourself to my second brother. A week's honeymoon is not too short. Why do you have to take half a month? Are you not tired of playing for half a month?" Gwen usually needs to run around for her work. So she just wanted to stay at home on vacation.

Ben: "Why is it tiring on my honeymoon? I haven't had a vacation for a long time. I want to take a good rest while on my honeymoon."

"Yes, we can have a good rest at home. Then we will rest at home." Gwen said.

Ben Schaffer's face was unbelievable: "My parents will not leave until after the Spring Festival. If the two of us have our honeymoon at home, do you think they can agree? My mother told me before that she ordered us a luxury honeymoon package abroad."

Gwen: "New Year's Day My second brother's wedding is for my second brother, and the honeymoon luxury package is also for my second brother!"

Ben: "..."

“If you are afraid of your parents, then we will find a hotel outside and have a good rest.” Gwen didn’t want to embarrass him.

Ben Schaffer: “Okay! You can’t stay at home anyway. Which couple do you see on their honeymoon and rest at home? Gwen, you are too unchaste! This is my first marriage, so you fool me like that.”

“It’s like I’m getting married for the second time.” Gwen thought about it for a second, she was indeed a little ashamed of Ben Schaffer when she offered to give the wedding to her second brother, “The honeymoon will be arranged by you then, okay?”

“It’s not too bad. My parents should have prepared the wedding on New Year’s Day. I’ll go and ask about the situation.” Ben Schaffer started to feel uneasy when he said this.

He didn’t know if his parents would be angry.

“Gwen, why don’t you go with me! If my parents scold me, you can still help me.” Ben Schaffer said humbly.

“You’re such a big man, you’re still afraid of your parents scolding you?” Gwen didn’t dare to go with him, so she encouraged him, “Don’t worry, your parents love you so much, and they definitely won’t scold you.”

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

Chapter 2235

Gwen frowned, took the document, and opened it

“Why is it so troublesome... Is it so troublesome for others to get married?” Gwen looked back, “What are you doing, pick up your relatives? Do you still have to perform talent shows when you are in the middle of the night? What kind of nasty fun is your parents? Do you think my second brother will perform talent shows for you in public?"

Ben Schaffer: "This is the wedding my parents prepared for us."

Gwen: "I know ...But don't you feel ashamed that they let you show off your talents?"

Ben Schaffer: "No! What's the shame. Isn't it just singing, dancing and playing games? I'm very good at playing."

Gwen stared Ben.

"I just checked it out, and when I arrived at the wedding scene, the bride sang love songs." Ben Schaffer took a breath, "Not only that, but the groom appeared in a cartoon dinosaur headgear. When the time comes, he needs to be kissed by his mother. He will become the groom..."

Gwen: "I'll go! Who designed this? It's so childish!"

Ben: "My mother designed it."

"I can't tell, your mother is a showgirl. Just get married. How can it be like acting in a drama!" Gwen shoved the wedding table to him, "The wedding is for my second brother and Avery, it must not be like what your mother planned."

"It's all set. The lighting, music, staff, and the whole package at the wedding venue are all set." Ben Schaffer told Gwen not to worry, "I haven't seen any big scenes with your second brother. It will definitely not be difficult by then."

Foster family.

Avery took Elliot home.

At noon, she took him to the downstairs of the hospital for a walk. Not only was he not tired, but his spirit seemed to be getting better and better.

So she took him for a checkup in the afternoon.

As Elliot said, during the days he was in the ICU, the injury on his head was recovering well. So after a brief thought, Avery allowed him to be discharged.

When the two children came back from school, they danced with joy when they saw their father at home.

“Your Dad can only rest at home now, and he can’t take you out to play.” Avery vaccinated the two children. “On weekends, I can ask your brother Hayden to take you out to play.”
