Chapter 2087 The Rescuer

Yasmin smiled shyly. She looked so gentle and pure that it was hard for others to see her in a bad light.

"Actually, I'm lucky to have found this job. Chance is very easy to get along with. I'll leave once I find my brother." Nicole smiled.

"Yes, Chance is very easy to get along with."

They met a few times, and Chance gave Nicole a good impression. Nicole watched Chatty from a distance. Although Nicole did not follow Chatty, she did not let down her guard for a moment. Yasmin said a few words to Nicole and went to do other things.

After all, it would arouse suspicion if a nanny talked too much. Nicole stood there for a while before her phone rang. It was Clayton. Clayton knew that Nicole went to Chance's party, but he did not get angry.

At least, he could not blame Nicole for it.

"Let them play for a while and bring them home. Don't stay for too long."

Nicole lowered her head, smiled, and replied, "I know. I'll send them over to my dad's place soon." Clayton said, "Thanks, darling. I'm just worried because my little lamb is in the tiger's mouth." Nicole let out a low laugh.

"Who's a little lamb? Your daughter is a little bully here!"

The two hung up after a short conversation.

Nicole laughed and looked into the distance.

Suddenly, there was a crowd gathered in the area where the dolphins were performing. Her heart sank in an instant.

Nicole was about to run over when she saw Yasmin carrying Chatty while running out. Nicole was shocked and immediately ran over.

"What's the matter?"

Nicole's tone was sharp as she held Chatty.

Chatty's body was completely soaked as the little girl cried in Nicole's arms. She hugged Nicole's neck tightly.

Nicole suddenly panicked. She patted Chatty's back and spoke softly, "Baby, what happened? Tell Mommy!"

Chatty could not say a word. She only sobbed as tears streamed down her face.

Nicole felt heartbroken to see her daughter like this. Yasmin was also soaked as she stood there with a pale face.

"Ms. Sloan accidentally fell into the water just now. Fortunately, nothing happened..."

Mitchell hurried over when he heard the commotion.

"What's wrong?"

Yasmin retold what happened just now.

Chatty was running around the pool naughtily, wanting to play with the dolphins in the water.

Levi chased after her but could not catch up.

That was when Chatty accidentally fell into the water.

Yasmin saw it in time BGj! AULM quickly rescued Chatty without hesitation.

Mitchell was shocked, worried, and afraid.

"What's going on? Isn't there a lifeguard on duty? How could you let a child run around the pool?"

Nicole glanced at them coldly and patted Chatty's back softly. She knew that being involved with the Ferguson family meant bad luck.

Look what happened! Yasmin shook her head innocently, indicating that she did not know anything. Mitchell looked at Nicole and pursed his lips, feeling sorry.

"Ms. Stanton, I'll get the doctor to come over. Don't worry. I'll give you an explanation for this."

Nicole glared at him.

"You'd better do so, Mr. Crawford. Otherwise, don't blame me for being ruthless."

Mitchell was horrified. Levi ran in worriedly like a child who had done something wrong. He looked at Nicole and Chatty nervously.

"Auntie, is Chatty okay?"

Nicole glanced at him.

"Let's go to the doctor first. You're coming with me. Levi did not dare to refuse, so he nodded and left. Chance followed them with fear and complicated emotions in his clear eyes. He wanted to touch Chatty, but he seemed very guilty. Just as Chance was about to touch Chatty's leg, he was suddenly shoved from behind. Chance was pushed to the ground. Fischer stood there angrily. His body was also wet. Nicole frowned in shock.

"Fischer, what's wrong with you?" Fischer pointed at Chance and complained.

"He pushed Chatty!" Nicole's eyes widened in shock. She immediately looked at Chance with vigilance and a complex gaze.

Chance shook his head in a panic. His body was tense as tears welled up in his eyes that flickered with guilt and self-blame.

Nicole frowned.

At that moment, someone sent over two bath towels, so Nicole immediately wrapped the towel around Chatty. Mitchell also keenly wrapped the drenched Fischer with the towel. "Little boy, you can't accuse people like that. Were you mistaken?"

Mitchell's voice was hoarse. He did not believe that Chance would do such a thing.

Fischer snorted coldly and stood there.

"I didn't!" Nicole's eyes turned dark as she looked at Mitchell.

"There should be surveillance cameras there. It won't be good for the Ferguson family if this spreads out, so check the footage now lest the surveillance cameras are found to be broken later."

Mitchell heard the threat in Nicole's words. He hurriedly asked someone to check the surveillance footage. The doctor came over and examined Chatty.

"Ms. Stanton, the child was in shock. She didn't inhale any water, So it's not a big problem."

Nicole breathed a sigh of relief and clicked her tongue. She suddenly remembered that Chatty could swim. Luckily, Clayton found a world-class coach to teach Chatty personally. Chatty was just frightened. Nicole was also scared after thinking about it. Chatty nestled in Nicole's arms and did not speak. She was dispirited.

Mitchell took out an iPad and did not dare to drag this on.

"Ms. Stanton, this is the surveillance footage."

During this time, Yasmin had gone to change out of her wet clothes. Fischer refused to change his clothes and stood next to Nicole, holding Chatty's hand and watching her.

Chance stood there motionlessly as if he had done something wrong. Nicole took the iPad over and watched it patiently. Chatty was running around, and Levi accidentally slipped while chasing her.

Then, Chance went after Chatty. Chatty was playing with the dolphin at the time. She wanted to follow the dolphin when it retreated, but Chance, who was behind Chatty, touched her back in time.

At that time, it looked like Chance was pushing Chatty. It also looked like he could be saving her from falling.

However, it did not look intentional.

At that moment, Fischer, who was opposite them, saw that Chatty had fallen into the water and immediately jumped in to save her. It was a pity that Fischer was still young and swam very slowly.

By the time Fischer swam to the middle of the pool, Yasmin had already jumped in to rescue Chatty. Nicole slowly relaxed. She already knew what happened. She slowly turned her head and looked at Fischer.

"Lil Fish, thank you for jumping in to save Chatty despite the danger."

Fischer shook his head and looked at Chatty with his fair and pitiful face. He just wished that he could suffer for Chatty.

Mitchell stood there.

"Ms. Stanton, it's my fault for not arranging this well. There were too many children here, and the two lifeguards couldn't handle all of them."

He was truly ashamed because he had promised Nicole that he would not allow Chatty to be in danger. However, he was slapped in the face in the blink of an eye. If Eric found out what happened...

Mitchell was immediately frightened because the consequences would be unimaginable. Nicole looked at Mitchell indifferently and took out the earring from her pocket, handing it over to him.

"Mr. Crawford, I hope this is the last time you do this. Don't use these fake things to play the emotional card in the future. I recognize my things. Chance is a good boy, but it has nothing to do with me. It doesn't matter who is at fault today, but I don't want my kid to have anything to do with the Ferguson family. Understand?"
