Married by Mistake chapter 2150

Daniel saw Ava deep in thought and suddenly grabbed her hand.

"Actually, I know nothing about her. I only want to know more about you." Daniel looked into Ava's eyes solemnly.

Ava was stunned for a while, and she quickly felt Daniel's concern and care for her.

After dinner, Daniel walked with Ava for a while before sending her back to her apartment.

When they were about to part ways, Daniel grabbed the door handle. His eyes were filled with innocence and disappointment.

"Don't ignore my calls again. No matter how hard it's going to get, trust that I won't give up on you."

He promised and suddenly planted a kiss on Ava's forehead.

"Ava, don't take what others say to heart and don't let them affect our relationship, okay?"

Ava knew she had made Daniel sad by ignoring his calls before this, so she nodded quickly.

"Don't worry, Maddie talked to me today and I know I'm the one at fault. I won't be so willful next time. A relationship is a two-way street. I shouldn't let you handle this all by yourself. We should solve whatever difficulties that are thrown at us together."

After he heard this, a relieved smile appeared on Daniel's face.

When Daniel turned around, Ava stood at the door.

Ava only closed the door when Daniel's figure was out of her vision.

The moment she sat down, her phone rang.

It was from Madeline, and Ava quickly swiped her finger across the screen to answer it.

"Maddie, I was about to call you! "

When Madeline heard Ava's happy voice, she knew that the tense situation between Daniel and Ava was resolved after she left.

"You sound happy. Are you and Dan okay now?"

Ava grunted a reply and sighed softly. "Maddie, do you know what's the plan to get the best of both worlds that Danny mentioned?"

"What is it?" Madeline asked curiously as she leaned against Jeremy's body while she played with the little boy who was learning to speak.

When she heard what Ava said, she was very shocked.

"That's the plan he was talking about? Ava, you didn't agree, did you?"

"I wanted to at first, but when I saw Naya, I don't want to anymore, " Ava told Madeline her thoughts.

"I keep feeling that Naya wants to scam Danny into getting engaged to her. In short, I just don't think this is a good plan."

"Since you think that it's not a good plan, don't say yes. I'll support your decision no matter what, Ava.

But you have to trust Dan too."

"Yeah, okay. Don't worry." Ava smiled. She was in a good mood now.

When she was about to talk to Madeline a little longer, the doorbell of her apartment rang.

"Maddie, someone's at the door. I have to go now. "

"Who's at the door when it's so late at night? Be careful." Madeline reminded her. "Hang up after you see who it is."

After Madeline asked that, she did not get Ava's answer even after a few seconds had passed. Hence, she was a little worried. "Ava, who is it? Why aren't you talking? Ava, Ava— "

"Maddie, I'm fine. Don't worry about me." Ava's abnormally calm voice sounded from the other end. " It's just a colleague of mine and she has some questions about work that she needs to ask me urgently. I'm gonna go now. I'll talk to you later.

Bye."

After Ava said that, she hung up the phone.

On the other end, Madeline sat up from Jeremy's embrace and handed the little boy to Jeremy before walking to one side to change.

"What's wrong, Linnie? Where are you going?" Jeremy looked confusedly at Madeline, who had a serious expression on her face.

"I think something's not right with Ava. Someone's at the door of her apartment and she started sounding strange after she opened the door. I'm worried that something has happened to her." Madeline analyzed the situation and put on her coat. "I have to go over."

"Eveline Montgomery, stop right there! "

Jeremy suddenly called out to Madeline when she was about to leave. His tone sounded abnormally domineering and sharp.

Madeline stopped in her tracks and looked at the man who stopped her in confusion.

"Jeremy?"

"I'll go with you." Jeremy's tone suddenly changed, and he was speaking very softly now.

Madeline immediately understood what Jeremy meant and she smiled understandingly. Then, she handed the little boy to Karen before they left together.

The darkness enveloped the sky, and Madeline looked at the man who was focused on driving. There was a soft smile on the corners of her lips.

Right, she was too anxious just now. How could she forget it was dangerous for her to go alone?

Besides, how would this man allow her to put her safety at risk?

More than ten minutes later, Jeremy and Madeline arrived at the lobby of Ava's apartment.

When Madeline saw the lights in Ava's room, the worry in her heart lessened for some reason.

Perhaps she was really overthinking.

Madeline also hoped that she was overthinking.

She and Jeremy quickly got into the elevator and came to the door of Ava's apartment.

However, when they got to the door, Madeline heard a smashing sound from inside. It sounded like glass shattering after it fell on the floor.

Jeremy heard it too. When he was about to lift his hand to knock on the door, he saw Madeline quickly opening the fingerprint lock. Click.

The door was opened.

The people in the living room looked over at the same time when they heard the voice. Madeline and Jeremy were also surprised when they saw the scene in front of them.

"Maddie? Jeremy? Why are you here?" Ava was cleaning up the glass shards on the floor as she asked curiously. However, she quickly remembered why. "Maddie, were you worried about me so that's why you came all the way here in the middle of the night to see if I'm alright?"

Madeline looked at the woman next to Ava and nodded.

"You sounded strange on the phone just now, so I was worried that something had happened. That's why I came over," Madeline explained before smiling at the woman.
"Hello, Mrs. Long."

The woman stood up and showed Madeline a friendly smile.
