

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3887

Just when Charlie was surprised by Zhan 's ability, a loud whistle sounded in the yard.

Soon, Charlie heard Elaine cursing loudly in the room on the third floor: "Who, he kept honking his horn in the community. Are you sick?!"

Downstairs, although the sound of the whistle stopped, Jacob's voice was heard again. He shouted: "Elaine, my son-in-law, come down and take a look at my new car!"

As soon as the voice fell, Elaine's footsteps came upstairs, and she limped out of the terrace.

At this moment, Charlie, who was in the bedroom on the second floor, was also attracted by the movement, came to the window and glanced down.

In the courtyard of the villa, Jacob was standing in front of a Rolls Royce Cullinan, his face full of excitement and triumph.

And Elaine was standing on the third floor terrace, watching Jacob standing in front of a huge SUV off-road vehicle she didn't know in the courtyard downstairs, and asked in surprise: "Jacob, is this your new car?"

Jacob said triumphantly: "Yes! Come down and have a look?"

Elaine curled his lips and said, "What's so good about a broken Jeep, how can it compare to a BMW?! You prodigal thing, isn't it because you sold the BMW and bought such a broken thing?"

In Elaine's eyes, all SUVs and off-road vehicles are jeeps.

Even, in the eyes of all middle-aged and elderly people who don't know much about cars, SUVs and off-road vehicles of any brand can be collectively referred to as jeep.

Jacob said indignantly at this time: "Elaine, Elaine, you really have long hair and short knowledge! How the hell is a Jeep! This is Rolls-Royce Cullinan! And it's still a BB version! Rolls-Royce! Do you understand?!"

Elaine was stunned and blurted: "Oh my god, what kind of car do you think this is? Rolls Royce?!"

Jacob pointed to the golden sign on the front of the car, and said with a smug look: "Even if you don't understand cars anymore, can Rolls-Royce still know? Here, look at this little golden man, do you recognize it?"

Elaine blurted out: "Damn! Isn't Rolls Royce all that kind of big cars? When did this kind of jeep come out?"

"Return the Jeep..." Jacob said contemptuously: "This is called an SUV! And this is the most expensive SUV in the world!"

Elaine asked subconsciously: "The most expensive in the world? How expensive is it?!"

Jacob hummed twice: "Humph, how expensive is it? I tell you, at least more than a thousand can't slip away!"

"My goodness!" Elaine exclaimed, "More than a thousand dare not slip away? Isn't that more than ten million?! Damn, you stand there, don't wait for me!"

After all, Elaine limped, ran and jumped quickly down the elevator.

Charlie was also very surprised at the moment. Rolls-Royce Cullinan knew that even if the car was a normal version, it would cost 8 million to go up. The so-called BB version was even more expensive, not more than a thousand. Wan really can't get down.

What he couldn't understand was how could he, the old man, could afford to drive such an expensive car? Jacob doesn't have much money. The income from the Calligraphy and Painting Association may not be enough for his own daily expenses. Where can the money be used to buy a Cullinan?

Thinking of this, Charlie quickly walked out of the room and went downstairs to the courtyard.

At this time, Elaine was lying on the hood of this Rolls-Royce Cullinan, watching the Golden Man in front of the car at close range.

As she watched, she exclaimed in excitement, "My mother, it's really a Rolls Royce! I used to hear people say that just such a golden mark costs one or two hundred thousand...what is this thing? Not pure gold?"
