

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3888

After speaking, Elaine stretched out his hand to touch the little golden man.

Unexpectedly, at this time Jacob suddenly took out the key and pressed the lock key.

Following Cullinan's prompt, the little golden man suddenly sank into the hood.

Then, a metal cover slid over from the side, completely covering the original position of the little golden man.

Elaine was about to reach out to touch it, seeing jacob suddenly put into the hood, and asked in surprise: "Oh my god, this thing will be hidden? This is amazing too!"

Jacob sarcastically said: "Look at the person you have never seen in the world. This little golden man is worth more than 200,000 yuan. If you are like this anytime and anywhere, if you encounter a guy like you who sees money and is obsessed with money, it must be. Just break it away! So the design of the Rolls-Royce is still very user-friendly. In order to prevent people like you from sabotaging, as long as the car is locked, jacob will automatically take it in!"

Elaine was ridiculed by Jacob for a long time. She would have been anxious if she had to put it in normal times. Maybe she had already dugged out Jacob's face now.

However, this time, she didn't have any seizures at all. Instead, she looked at Jacob with a flattering expression. She was extremely excited and asked with extreme surprise: "Jacob, where did you get this car? Did you borrow it?"

Jacob arrogantly said, "So I don't like to listen when you talk. What is borrowed? This car belongs to me! I belong to Jacob!"

As he said, he took out the Cullinan driving permit from the car, threw it in front of Elaine, and said with a grin: "Come on, look at it clearly, who is the owner of the vehicle on the driving permit!"

Elaine quickly opened the driving permit and looked down at the back of everyone's column. It was indeed written in three characters Jacob. She suddenly exclaimed: "Mom! Jacob! It's really yours?! This...what the hell is this? What's the matter?! How can you afford such an expensive car?!"

Just as he was talking, Claire came back from get off work at this time and just walked into the yard. He saw this Cullinan and asked in surprise: "Dad, this...Where is Cullinan from?!"

Elaine hurriedly took her arm and said excitedly: "Girl, this car is new for your dad!"

"Ah?!" Claire was silly when he heard it, and blurted out: "Mom...Do you know how much this car costs? How can my dad afford it..."

Elaine immediately handed the driving permit to Claire and said, "Look for yourself, it does have your dad's name written on it!"

Claire was stunned when she saw it. Immediately, she asked Jacob, "Dad...you...are you not the car you bought with a loan?!"

Jacob chuckled and asked her: "Good girl, you really look down on your father. Do you think your father can afford the down payment if he buys this car?"

Claire nodded suddenly, and murmured: "It's also...Even if you buy this car with a loan, the down payment will cost you three or four million. Even if you sell your BMW 530, it won't be enough for the down payment. One part..."

Speaking of this, she hurriedly asked: "Dad, where did you get this car?"

Jacob smiled, turned around and looked at Charlie, and said with a fawning expression: “Charlie, my dear son-in-law...this matter today, dad has to explain to you...”

Seeing Jacob’s attitude, Charlie smiled slightly, already having the answer in his heart.

In his opinion, Jacob must have given him this Rolls-Royce Cullinan by Fei Kexin.

However, he deliberately pretended to be puzzled and asked, “Dad, does this matter have anything to do with me?”

Jacob hurriedly came to Charlie, hugged him, and said flatly: “My son-in-law, this matter has a lot to do with you! To put it bluntly, this car is not for me, it should be for you. !”
