

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3972

charlie said that their boss was Bernard Elnor who had just acquired the brand.

The godfather of luxury goods is now the owner of more than half of the world's luxury brands, and his worth has exceeded one trillion yuan.

What's interesting is that this old man just arrived in Aurous Hill today, and he is the one who bought the Presidential Suite at Shangri-La for a big price.

However, how could sales think that the boss charlie said was the biggest boss in their brand.

He thought that the boss charlie was talking about was their store manager.

Hearing what charlie said, he guessed that charlie must be bluffing. Many people came to the store to buy things before, and they always said that they knew their store manager, or knew their regional manager, in order to distribute less goods. However, the vast majority of people who say such things are liars.

So, he said with a bit of disdain: "I'm sorry, our store manager has said long ago that no one mentions his name, unless he comes out to receive him in person, and you say you know our store manager. Don't I call him over, do you guys have a chat in person?"

After listening to charlie, he suddenly laughed.

It seems that this low-ranking person, even if he wears five or six people, still can only mix in the low-ranking.

The salesperson actually thought that the "boss" he was talking about was their store manager, which shows that this person is really small and pitiful.

So charlie waved his hand and said with a smile: “No, no, no, I’m not talking about your store manager.”

With that, charlie didn’t bother to say any more, so he waved his hand and said casually: “Come on, first match me with one million goods, and pick up the batch that you can’t sell in your store and match it with me!”

When the sales heard that charlie said that he would be equipped with one million goods, he was stunned and asked subconsciously: “Sir, didn’t you deliberately want to get me to use it?”

In fact, the distribution price of this bag is around 200,000.

As long as it’s not a particularly tricky sale, even a stranger who has never bought anything in this store, as long as it can match up to 200,000, you can get one.

But charlie said as soon as he came up with one million goods, this was indeed too much beyond the market price.

In other words, even if this group of sales wants to cheat others, they dare not make such a high amount of money.

Seeing him dumbfounded, charlie said with a smile: “I don’t have the idle time to take my wife and come here to get you to get a spin. I can match up to one million goods, but I only have one request. Take out the bag you want and settle with the one million goods.”

The sales were suddenly a little excited, and said quickly: "Then wait a moment, I will prepare now!"

After finishing speaking, he ran into the back storeroom excitedly with his finger at Lanhua.

Claire said at this time: "Husband, you are crazy, buy a bag of more than 100,000 yuan, with a million of goods...this...this is too expensive..."

charlie smiled mysteriously and said: "My wife, I'm not crazy. I just want to take advantage of this good opportunity to make money. Don't worry, every penny I distribute today is an investment. Before tonight, I can even earn money. The profits are earned back."

Claire looked puzzled, and she didn't understand what charlie meant by making money back even with the profits.

However, she knew charlie's routine very well, and since charlie said so, it was definitely not groundless.

So, she couldn't help asking charlie: "Husband, you said that the sales, shouldn't you deliberately cheat us on this matter?"

charlie curled his lips and smiled: "A big man, you don't want to say that you are a mother. What is the English name of Vivian? How courageous do you think this kind of product can be?"
