

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 3903

Jacob drove away in the Rolls-Royce Cullinan that Fei Kexin gave him.

The two villas regained tranquility.

On the second floor terrace of Villa A05, Charlie and Claire looked at Jacob's Rolls Royce, and gradually disappeared in the corner.

Claire rubbed his temples, and said helplessly: "The big aunt comes back, I'm afraid I will have to jump again..."

Charlie smiled and said: "It's okay, I think souna's attitude towards our mother is quite friendly, even a little flattering."

"Yes..." Claire pursed his lips, and said melancholy: "What I am most worried about now is that my mother and her get mixed up again... If they join together to deal with my grandmother, then they will definitely not be able to survive. ..."

Charlie smiled slightly and said, "I don't think you need to worry about this. Your mother is right. The old lady has no money and power. In all respects, she cannot be souna's opponent. I am afraid that her life will get worse in the future. It's getting worse."

Claire sighed, and said with emotion: "Uncle and the grandma family, when are the leaders..."

Charlie said casually: "My wife, you don't have to worry about their family. At least they will definitely not trouble us anymore. If they want to fight in their nest, let them fight."

Claire nodded sadly, and turned back to the room with Charlie.

At night, Claire was already asleep, and Charlie was still lying on the bed, thinking about how to deal with the problem of Zhan .

Although he knew that she was here for the Rejuvenation Pill, Charlie has not yet found her true identity, so he is still a little bit unreliable.

Because, he has not yet confirmed whether this Zhan is a threat to himself and the family around him.

If she just wants to establish a better personal relationship with herself, trying to mediate the rejuvenation through this relationship, then although this person is very scheming, but at least not aggressive, naturally there is no danger.

However, if she regards herself as a channel for obtaining Rejuvenation Pills, and even wants to obtain Rejuvenation Pills from her at all costs, then she will become very threatening to her family.

After all, there is a six-star warrior by her side.

Looking at the entire Aurous Hill, no one was the opponent of that six-star warrior except for himself.

Even if the Ten Thousand Dragon Palace soldiers left behind by the abbas Army, the strongest were only five-star generals, that is, five-star warriors.

On the way to martial arts, the gap between each level is an insurmountable gap, so in front of a six-star warrior, a five-star warrior has no chance of winning.

Therefore, Charlie felt that before he was sure that Zhan was an enemy or a friend, the first task was to think of a way to control the six-star warrior next to her.

Doesn't this Zhan like to start from the people around him? Then start with the people next to her!

As long as the six-star warrior loses the threat, even if Zhan is an enemy, it is not enough to be afraid.

At that time, since she wants to play this cat and mouse game, she can continue to play with her.

So Charlie sent a message to Stephen Thompson, asking him to find out all the information of Zhan when he entered the country.

As for how to confirm Zhan 's true identity, he decided to try the information system in Wanlong Palace after he got the information.

...

At the same time, Aurous Hill Shangri-La Hotel.

Smith, who had lost ten pounds in a few days, walked into the hotel door dejectedly.

The failure to meet Liam these days has caused him to suffer a blow.

The son's follow-up magical pill have become less and less, and if he can't get the medicine, his son will face the situation of stopping the medicine.

Smith naturally did not want his son to stop the drug, so he called Liam one day after another, and even sent multiple emails to the official mailbox of Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical on the Internet, asking for a humble request to meet Liam, but all All of his information fell to the ground, and no one paid any attention to him at all.

The person in charge of the intelligence department is similarly devastated.

Not only was he unable to find any information about the missing intelligence personnel, but on the contrary, there were more intelligence personnel who disappeared under his nose.

In desperation, he could only temporarily suspend all agent activities.

Smith originally wanted to go to Jiu Xuan Pharmaceutical to try his luck tonight, and at the same time let Liam see his sincerity in visiting the cottage.

But unexpectedly, Fei Kexin's assistant suddenly called him. Said that Miss Fei had something to ask him for an interview.
