

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4032

As a result, there was an explosion of exclamation from the audience!

Many people have subconsciously stood up, as if they were greatly frightened, and shouted madly in their mouths.

Someone is shouting, this is impossible!

Someone is shouting, he is really good!

Someone is shouting, I must be dreaming!

Someone is shouting, this is not a dream, this is a miracle!

The Middle Eastern rich man who decided to give up at the last minute and did not raise the price, was so regretful at this moment that he burst into tears!

He covered his heart with one hand, and slammed the other to his face, choked and cursed: "Murder! You damned scoundrel!!! What's the use of keeping your money?! What's the use?" Use!!! Are you still going to heaven with your money?!"

After he finished speaking, he covered his swollen face with both hands, and started crying.

At the same time, the person who slapped himself with the palm of his hand is not only the richest person in the Middle East.

Many people who had an attitude of watching a good show before, or who had questioned Huichundan, were completely shocked by this astonishing scene.

In addition to being shocked, it is extremely regretful!

Among them, many people actually got two billion dollars.

Moreover, many people are actually terminally ill, otherwise they would not have come so far to participate in the Huichundan auction.

However, they were like frogs in the well, thinking that this medicine could not be worth so much money.

So, as soon as I came up, I gave up the idea of bidding directly.

Now, they finally realize the magic of Huichundan, but they have missed the only chance to find out!

They thought that the price of 2 billion US dollars had reached a sky-high price, but now they understand that this is a sky-high price. Compared with its unparalleled magical effect, this is simply the price of cabbage!

Because these rich people know best that life is the most precious thing in this world!

What is two billion dollars? As long as you live, everything is possible!

If you don't believe me, look at Steve Jobs!

When Jobs died in 2011, Apple was worth more than $300 billion.

Ten years after Steve Jobs's death, Apple's market value topped $3 trillion.

When Jobs died, all his net worth was counted, which was probably more than 10 billion US dollars, and after his death, the family property was inherited by his wife.

If at that time, he was given a chance to spend 2 billion dollars to prolong his life, then not only would he be able to survive in good health, but his worth would also exceed 100 billion dollars.

Therefore, since the rejuvenation pill has such a miraculous effect, then this account is worth it no matter how it is calculated, and it is a bloody profit!

At this time, even Jian, who had been silent for a long time, couldn't help but feel a surge of excitement!

He finally understands that Huichundan can prolong life by twenty years, and it is by no means just rhetoric!

The more so, the more he is determined to win the last rejuvenation pill!

He felt that as long as he could live for another 20 years, let alone tens of billions of dollars, what if he took out half of his family property?

As long as you live, you can still enjoy the remaining half!

But if he dies, even if his family fortune is 10,000, 100,000,000 times more folded, what the f*ck is he going to do? !

At this time, Travis Lane, who missed the rejuvenation pill and his mentality completely collapsed, was even more shocked.

He also began to regret that at the last critical moment, he did not grit his teeth and continue to increase the price.

Moreover, he was one of the few people in the audience who knew the effect of rejuvenation pills best.

He scolded himself inwardly: "Bastard! What a f*cking bastard! You know that rejuvenation pill has anti-sky effects, but you still put money first! You have the best chance of getting this quarter. A rejuvenation pill turned out to be taken away by others, your brain was eaten by the dog!!!"

And the more he thought about it, the more unbalanced his mind became.

So, he stood up in despair, pointed at the old man on the stage, and shouted hysterically: "Huichundan! This is Huichundan! This is the goddamn Pill! Look at you gangsters! I've seen the world! A quarter of a rejuvenation pill makes you look like a bird? Tell you, I have the honor to take a whole pill of Huichundan! Listen to me clearly, it's a whole pill! You guys Help the spicy chicken to be envious slowly!"
