

Let Me Go, Mr. Hill! by Shallow South Chapter 2240- 2243

Ryan rubbed his eyebrows, fortunately he lost his temper last night and put some eye drops on time. Otherwise, he would really worry about letting her a delicate beauty abroad.

“Well, I will.”

After Freya finished speaking, her two beautiful lips were gently pressed together, and before she could say something, her face was already red, “Ryan, I...

Well, what’s wrong?” Ryan asked softly.

Freya: “It’s nothing, I’m going to work, I’ll hang up.”

Ryan: “Okay, you’ll be busy first.”

After Ryan put down his phone within two minutes he received a Whatsapp message from Freya: “I love you, what I just wanted to say.]

Ryan took a deep breath and replied: [Little goblin, if it wasn’t for Dani, I would definitely take a plane right now to pull you to the bed and love you fiercely.]

Freya: [Stinky hooligan, if you are serious I will ignore you.]

Ryan: [I’m serious too. I miss you.]

Far away in the laboratory in country F, Freya’s face almost went red.

Why didn’t I find that Ryan was such a rogue before, a person who seemed to be so clean. I didn’t expect to say such a thing.

However, she was not disgusted either. On the contrary, her uncontrollable agitation made her want him a little too faintly.

Ahhh... damn, what is Freya thinking? her mind is so dirty.

“What are you talking about with your boyfriend? your face is so red.” Sylvie came over and asked jokingly.

“No...nothing.” Freya quickly put down her phone but her little face was full of spring.

Sylvie sighed with emotion, “You guys are talking too much on Whatsapp during the day and videocall when you go back at night.”

Sylvie remembered that Freya and her boyfriend were spend on videocall for 2 or 3 hours at night before going to bed.

“Are you okay with your husband?” Freya asked.

“Yes, we have been married for a few years and talking about some trivial matters at home.” Sylvie said, “Love has long since become family affection. After a few months of being out, there is nothing to think about my husband.”

Freya For a while, she and Ryan are the exact opposite, it can be regarded as a transition from family love to love.

In the past, Freya liked, relied on and trusted Ryan. After the quarrel last night, the relationship between the two was not affected. Instead, she would feel sorry, miss him, and care about his feelings. This is probably love.

The feeling of falling in love with someone, she hasn't had it for a long time.

When Freya was not married, she thought it was true love to meet Patrick who was two years older than her, so she desperately flew into the fire.

Now, at the age of 26, she met Ryan of the same age and got along with him like warm water. It was he who let her, protected and guided her.

She loves him, already loves him. she deeply realized that this man is worth her.

“I won't go,” Freya shook her head. “My boyfriend is not happy that I went. We had a fight last night.”

“It's not safe to go alone.” Sylvie shook her head and said .

“Yeah, girls should pay more attention.” Freya sighed secretly but fortunately Ryan woke her up in time.

Chapter 2241

Country R not far from country F.

Rodney had just checked into the hotel and the secretary had already handed in a series of itineraries, “Professor Abner has promised us to meet at 3 pm.”

“That's good.”

Rodney nodded, “Get the relevant materials ready. we have to meet with Sarah's CEO at the evening, this trip to R country, we must win Sarah's agency for processing.” The secretary said: “Sarah's CEO temporarily said something...”

Rodney After a pause, a pair of peach blossom eyes looked at him coldly, “Isn’t it settled before?”

“I don’t know how the other party changed his mind temporarily.” The secretary’s scalp was numb as he stared at it.

“Secretary, Why are you still standing here? Don’t go check it out.” Rodney reprimanded with an ugly face.

Rodney kicked the stool in front of him irritably. He put his hands on his waist and couldn’t tell how irritable he was. During this time, Freya and Sarah were overwhelmed by the pressure of his breath. The two-month performance also needs to decline like a collapse. Several executives of the company and the personnel of the research laboratory were racing one after another. At this time, he must shift his strategic goals.

Rodney already has a countermeasure but Osher Corporation has a bad reputation. he can cooperate with foreign high-end brands while looking for top foreign medical professors to improve the quality of products and lay a more stable foundation for Osher Corporation.

So this trip to R country, he is bound to win.

In the afternoon, Rodney finally met at the coffee shop with Professor Abner, a famous biomedical beauty research center in country R.

“Professor Abner, you have seen the detailed introduction of our company. At present, Osher Corporation has a production base of more than 10,000 square meters. At present, our products have covered the entire sales network through all channels, not only in Australia but also exported to different countries. As long as you cooperate with our company, I am willing to offer you a salary of 300 million dollars and hire you for two years. If you bring the team over, the salary can also be raised.”

Professor Abner took a sip of coffee and nodded. “It is indeed a very attractive salary but the top salary in the industry is 3 times your salary in Europe.”

Rodney smiled, “I believe that there is no company in the world that can pay more than me. A higher salary that I will give you.”

“As far as I know, your company’s reputation in Australia is not very good,” Professor Abner said with a half-smiling face.

“I already have a countermeasure. This time I come to R country and plan to win Sarah’s agency processing. Sarah’s sales in Australia have been steadily increasing for the past two years, but unfortunately there is no place of production in Australia. The CEO of the company talked about it and they are very interested in cooperating with us.”

“Oh.”

Professor Abner laughed suddenly, “So Mr. Snow doesn’t know yet.”

Rodney was startled, “What do you know?”

Professor Abner put down the coffee cup and said with a half-smile, “I received the news this morning that Yesterday Sarah has signed an agency contract with the team of Freycatheli Company in your country.”

Chapter 2242

“What are you saying is true?”

Rodney’s heart shuddered fiercely and he couldn’t help but turn his handsome face into an ugly look at this moment.

“The medical beauty circle in R country is so big. Sarah and he has cooperated in the early years. It is the first time to know the news.”

Professor Abner did not go around the detour and told the truth “Mr. Rodey Snow, if you were two Come to me with this salary, I will definitely cooperate with you. Osher Corporation used to be the largest local brand in Australia and the equipment and instruments are all top-notch but when I am in my position, sometimes reputation is more important than salary. if I cooperate with you and develop a product that doesn’t sell well because of my reputation, I can provide you with excellent products but you may not be able to provide me with the best platform.”

Rodney quickly calmed down, “Professor Abner, any company has its ups and downs, Freycatheli has only been established for a few months and its products are very few, and it is not our rival Osher Corporation at all...”

“But the current market in Australia is obviously that Freycatheli and other brands are working together to squeeze Osher Corporation out.”

Professor Abner raised his hand to interrupt Rodney but said unfortunately, “In addition, Osher Corporation’s reputation has been on the rise since the end of last year. After the collapse, Mr. Snow has never been able to regain his reputation which means that your public relations is not as good as before. Although you are the prime minister’s nephew and rely on the Snow Corporation, I heard that a few days ago, Mr. Snow, you remarried and the Snow family did not attend.”

At that moment, Rodney’s cheeks tensed up tightly.

He never expected that the grand wedding because the Snow family was not present. Would also be criticized by others in the shopping mall.

In fact, Rodney should have thought of it earlier. In order to satisfy Sarah's wish, he agreed to her request but forgot the consequences.

Rodney quickly explained, "Professor Abner, my family didn't attend because they didn't like my newly married wife..."

Professor Abner : "Since your family doesn't like it, why do you insist on marrying?"

Professor Abner shook his head, "Those who achieve great things should take a long-term view. This shows that Mr. Snow is easy to be emotional and sometimes being emotional is a good thing but looking at the global market with fierce competition being too emotional will become a weakness. Sorry, I can only refuse Your cooperation."

Professor Abner stood up after speaking.

Rodney got up quickly and said, "Professor Abner, we were on the phone before and you had the intention to cooperate with us but now because Freycatheli and Sarah reached an agency agreement, you have completely denied Osher Corporation, is it too rash?"

"Mr. Snow, your news is very outdated."

Professor Abner said, "One more thing, not long ago, Quel and Freycatheli from country F also had a new cooperation. As far as I know, Freycatheli sent two experts to Quel's research center for a two-month training. I don't need to say more about Quel's status in the international beauty industry. It brings together top experts in the fields of beauty and biology from all over the world. One of them is better than me."

Rodney was shocked. Of course he knew the status of Quel. he also wanted to cooperate with Quel before but with Quel's global status, he never needed to cooperate with any cosmetics company in the past. How could it be with a small company like Freycatheli...?

Professor Abner: "I'm surprised."

Professor Abner smiled, "Don't look at Freycatheli's recent establishment but it can reach a cooperation with Quel and even sign an agency contract with Sarah, which shows that Freycatheli has a strong background and connections. Its rise is imperative."

Professor Abner left.

Rodney sipped the coffee with a cold face and drank it all in one gulp, the intense bitterness spreading in his throat.

Chapter 2243

Coincidentally the secretary called at this time, "Young Master Snow, it's not good, I heard the news Sarah has been with..."

“I know, no need to say more, Find out where the agent from Freycatheli lives.”

“...Okay.”

After leaving the coffee shop Rodney kicked the car tire hard.

After living for more than 30 years, he felt that he was getting more and more aggrieved these days. Just a few months ago, he never thought that Freycatheli would become Osher Corporation's biggest opponent.

Heh, what Freya said at the beginning was that he just wanted to concentrate on beauty, so he worked hard to help her promote it.

As a result, it is not only beauty but also skin care products, shampoo, and hair care. In all areas that Osher Corporation is involved in, Freycatheli also follows closely.

What it meant to shoot himself in the foot, now he fully realized it.

Freya, you are too ruthless so f*cking ruthless.

Are you going to take revenge on me?

Revenge me for failing you.

Far away on the bustling streets abroad, Rodney's eyes were red, full of pain and anger.

Soon, the secretary found out where Freycatheli's company was.

Rodney drove over to the hotel floor and just got out of the elevator.

On the other hand, Catherine, who was wearing a red coat happened to meet him in the corridor.

She was carrying a small brown bag in her hand with delicate and elegant makeup on her beautiful face, fluffy and slightly curly long hair draped over her shoulders, her facial features are bright and vivid.

And behind her, followed by two bodyguards and Assistant Hans Fleming.

The woman who once came out of Melbourne is now more and more like the ruler of the shopping mall with a strong aura.

“Young Master Snow what a coincidence, I didn't expect to meet you in a foreign country.” Catherine greeted her with a sweet smile as she had met an old friend.

Rodney stared at Catherine and assistant Hans coldly and hatefully.

At this moment, everything suddenly became clear.

Rodney remembered that the first time saw Catherine, he looked down on her and thought she was not worthy of Shaun.

Several times, he privately warned and humiliated her.

In just a few short years, this woman has completely transformed. she is still beautiful but has shown her sharp edge.

“Young Master Snow, why are you looking at me like this?” Catherine raised her red lips and smiled softly.
