Chapter 2319

"Oh, I help Sarah?"

Garrett laughed and said, "I did it to teach Sarah. Why do you think the nanny should tell you about it that I gave her money and you thought you came here? Why did Sarah happen to be in bed with me? why did the reporter happen to come?"

"You play with me." Rodney grabbed his collar.

Garrett sneered, "I'm also Hamel's Second Young Master anyway and no woman has ever dared to cheat me like this. Sarah dared to cheat me as a pick-up man and I'll let her live rather than die. Sarah still wants to coax me into paying give it back to you. It's just a dream and you're insatiable also you should thank me. I let you see sarah clearly. If it weren't for me, you would have been played around by Sarah all your life."

Rodney was dumbfounded and his whole body seemed to be frozen.

Garrett poked at his chest with pity, "Do you know what Sarah said about you in private? She said that you were incompetent in bed and you couldn't satisfy her at all. Also you were very serious about money and you had to look at everything you bought. You look on your face and you told me to take her out of Australia quickly. she really didn't want to stay by your side to act with you at all."

Rodney's graceful thin lips trembled in anger because it was too ugly.

Oh, he takes money very seriously?

She said every once in a while that she was short of money. Even she was extravagant even she felt that her funds were tight but every time a bag was more than 100,000 dollars, a necklace was hundreds of thousands, and a piece of clothing was a new type of luxury goods. She never blinked and in the end, this woman belied herself behind her back.

Sarah has been a good woman for more than ten years but it turns out that she is not as good as a dog.

On the side Catherine hooked her beautiful red lips in agreement and said, "I hate Sarah very much. She was indeed right in what she said, Young Master Snow was taking money too seriously otherwise how could he even get divorced after divorce? I'm reluctant to give living expenses to my children."

"Impossible."

Garrett was stunned, "Didn't he just spend 300 million dollars on Sarah after he married Sarah for a little over 3 months?"

"So many."

Catherine covered her lips in surprise and the contempt in her beautiful eyes became stronger, "I really don't know that I thought Rodney treats all women like this. after all, Young Master Snow treats his daughter every time after his divorce and spend a thousand dollars and buy some clothes, toys, etc."

"Enough, stop talking."

Rodney couldn't listen anymore and said with embarrassment on his face, "I admit that I did not pay Freya and Dani alimony but my parents gave them a little, Dani even has shares in the Snow Corporation every year and I am eligible to enjoy dividends and I have suffered losses as invested in several companies."

Shaun frowned coldly, "Does the shares of the Snow Corporation have anything to do with you? It was left by your seniors from the Snow family and given to your granddaughter by your father, not you. Rodney, you should ask yourself what you gave to Dani."

Catherine also said, "Rodney, you haven't fulfilled as a father's responsibilities and you haven't been deprived of your father's title. I'm still arguing that you are still wrong."

" Okay, I am wrong, I know I am wrong."

Rodney trembled and clenching his fists in pain. He thought about most during this time was Sarah's betrayal, that was right the debt of Freya's mother and daughter.

Thinking that Rodney abandoned such a good wife as Freya and such a lovely daughter as Dani for the sake of a b-i-t-c-h like Sarah and now he wanted to kill in pain.

Rodney was really blind.

How could he be fooled by Sarah again and again?

Does he have a hole in his head?

Chapter 2320

No, it's not.

Rodney's eyes fell on Garrett and his mind flashed, "I... I must also be under Sarah's hypnotism. yes, it must be like Shaun. Shaun, you didn't say that your memory was tampered with by Sarah before and dated Sarah and was hypnotized by her..."

"You shouldn't."

Shaun interrupted Rodney, "I have quarreled with you a few times. If your memory has been tampered with, we would have discovered it long ago."

Catherine said, "Rodney you are not as Garrett, then that's the case. If you know Sarah cheated, you will continue to be brainwashed by her and you won't hit her at all."

Shaun nodded in agreement.

Rodney was stunned and then smiled miserably. He just wanted to find an acceptable reason for himself.

However, Rodney found that other men who had been with Sarah would be deceived only if they had been hypnotized and only himself was deceived simply because he believed in her.

He turned out to be really stupid.

Everyone was right.

"So... Sarah was arrested today, are you the one who called the police?" Rodney stared blankly at Shaun, Catherine and Eliza.

Catherine said: "Sarah once bribed the doctor in the hospital and lied to the doctor that I had a mental illness and put me in a mental hospital for treatment. I have found the doctor who accepted the bribe at the beginning."

Shaun said lightly: "I also was a victim of Sarah's sorcery. I used to have a confused memory and I didn't have any evidence. Now the same thing happens to Mr. Garrett but he has evidence of Sarah's hypnosis. Mr. Garrett provided witnesses."

Eliza said coldly: "As for me, it is for the Neeson family to overturn the case. Since Sarah used hypnotism to deal with men's past, I have reason to suspect that Jennifer died shortly after Sarah came out of the Neeson family's house. If she uses hypnotism, she actually has the opportunity to kill Aunt Jennifer and at the same time she has a criminal motive."

"In addition..."

After a pause, Eliza took a deep breath and let herself calm down, "We have found the ashes buried in the cemetery by Aunt Jennifer and handed it over to the relevant authorities for verification. The ashes inside do not belong to humans at all but belong to some kind of animal. That is to say, Sarah not only suspected of murder and destroying corpses."

Rodney felt a cold breath.

Freya had told Rodney about these things, but Rodney didn't believe it at all and even defended Sarah again and again.

Now, when these evidences are presented one by one, he also begins to believe. Sarah is horrible.

What kind of demon was he provoking?

"More than that..."

Shaun suddenly said: "I have found her only younger brother Thomas, and Thomas has already told the police that it was Sarah who encouraged Thomas to stimulate the disease. Sarah told Thomas that as long as Boris died, everything in the Neeson Corporation belonged to his eldest son. Sarah knew very well that Boris's condition could not withstand stimulation."
