

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2353 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2353

Rodney was slightly embarrassed. His eyes couldn't help but glance at Shaun's table not far away. There were many familiar people that he knew, including Catherine and Chase.

Even Ryan had a good conversation with his former friends Shaun and Chase.

Rodney suddenly remembered that, these people were obviously not very familiar, especially Chase, who had been in Melbourne and had never met Ryan.

When did it start to change?

Rodney was very uncomfortable and had an indescribable feeling as his former position had been slowly replaced by Ryan.

"Uncle, what happened in the past is my fault? I..."

"Rodney, You said it was in the past, so don't mention it, it's all over." Mr Lynch raised his hand to interrupt and even though Rodney came over in person Apologizing, he didn't feel relieved, because some of the damage was really caused and no matter how much he said, there was no way to erase it.

Mr Lynch thought that the best way was for Rodney to disappear from them wisely, which was good for everyone.

The appearance of Mr. Lynch's made Rodney very uncomfortable.

He would rather Mr. Lynch and Mrs. Lynch reprimand him as before.

"Uncle, can I have a word with my friend?" Rodney suddenly lowered his voice and asked.

"Whatever you want." Mr. Lynch didn't want to entertain him at all, so he turned around and left.

Rodney quickly handed over the gift box in Mr. Lynch's hand.

After Mr. Lynch took it and handed it to Forrest, he turned and left without opening the box.

Rodney was so embarrassed but could only pretend. he didn't see it and walked over to Shaun's table, smiled, "Master Hill, Chase, you are here too..."

Everyone at the table immediately turned their attention to him.

Chase looked at this former friend with a strange look. He really didn't expect Rodney to take the initiative to greet him. After all, he hadn't had much contact with Rodney for several years.

This time he was able to come to the capital because the Lynch family had a very good relationship in Melbourne in the past few years and there will be places for cooperation in the future.

Shaun's thin lips moved slightly before he could open his mouth, Catherine suddenly pinched him on the thigh.

Catherine beside him was smiling but it made Shaun's scalp numb and he could only say in a low voice, "Well, I came with my wife."

"Husband, I want to go to the bathroom." Catherine said lazily.

"Baby, I'll accompany you." Shaun held Catherine's hand and got up immediately.

The couple walked away immediately and completely avoiding Rodney.

Not only the people at this table but also the people at other tables were looked at this dazzling young master of the capital in the past. Rodney was once the high-profile heir of the Snow family and he was held and flattered wherever he went.

It's a pity that he killed himself and played a good hand of cards to a pulp.

It's not that Rodney didn't feel everyone's discussion. If he left so directly, he would only lose face. "Chase, when you came to the capital? tell me."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2354 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2354

Chase picked up a melon seed on the table, peeled it off and said indifferently, "There's nothing to talk about between us."

He was really annoyed.

In the years when Catherine had an accident, he helped her When he was so inclined to say something nice, Rodney would spray him to death, and sometimes his words were particularly unpleasant and he was very chilled at the time.

For a woman, so what?

He didn't come to the capital much after that and even if he did, he wouldn't meet Rodney and the others.

Later, Catherine and Shaun got back together and he slowly recovered his relationship with Shaun and Chester.

A person of his status was not short of money and he had never thought of coming to the capital for development. With a brotherhood, no one had ever thought of pleasing anyone.

Rodney opened his mouth with difficulty, "Chase, look at our college classmates, how good we were at the time..."

Ryan on the side glanced at Chase's indifferent expression and frowning helplessly. He got up and walked over and hugged Rodney's shoulder, "Brother Rodney, I have something to talk to you about. Let's go out and have a few words."

Rodney didn't miss Chase's face but he had already been riding a tiger and it would be embarrassing if he walked away.

Ryan just gave a step. Rondey didn't say a word and went out with him.

The two of them walked out of the banquet hall before Ryan let go of his arms, "Why did you need to come? You knew that the Lynch family didn't welcome you and in the end you couldn't even come down."

Rodney said loudly, "After all, the Lynch family moved so much, Important things..."

Ryan was particularly annoyed, "Brother Rodney, you were divorced and the Lynch family would not welcome you and there were some things in this world that were not a mistake and an apology was enough. Don't bother the Lynch family anymore now. they don't care about your apology and they don't want to see you. Also, your friend, your relationship with you can't be the same as before, understand."

"Ryan, You did not understand."

Rodney said with a pained face: "I love Freya, you know. These days, thinking about the hurt I have done to her. I would rather die than live. why don't I cherish it, in fact, I didn't love Sarah for a long time even after I got married to Sarah. I had her in my mind because of a misunderstanding at that time. I didn't dare to face up to that relationship. You may not believe it, it didn't happen after Sarah and I got married. Over the relationship, as long as I touch her, I will feel sick to my stomach and feel very uncomfortable."

"In that relationship, if I hadn't been drunk, I would definitely not have betrayed Freya. I only knew about Sarah's childbirth when she had a miscarriage." Ryan was stunned for a while and a little surprised. "Brother Rodney, So what? when you don't cherish it, it means you have missed it. If you love her, does she have to love you?"

"That's not what I mean..."

Ryan said impatiently, "If you really love someone, you should make her happy instead of causing her endless troubles and don't pester her anymore."

Rodney's peach blossom eyes gradually narrowed and said, "Ryan, this is You care so much about the things between me and her. It is because you like her too."

"I went in for dinner." Ryan turned around and wanted to leave.

"Ryan."

Rodney said coldly, "You dared to admit it before but now you don't even dare to admit it. it is the matter between me and Freya, and it's none of your business."

Ryan said rudely, "I'm helping you out today, for the sake of relatives. I think you're quite busy, so you might as well think about what you should do in the future."

After that, he went in directly.

Freya walked up to him, "Is Rodney gone?"

"I don't know, anyway, if Brother Rodney comes in again, I won't help him." Ryan said with a frown.

Freya also felt that Rodney was annoying, "By the way, my dad said that Rodney just sent a Pixiu jade over. It should be quite expensive. He wants to drag you back to the Snow family."

"Well, it's definitely impossible . It was sent by my uncle and the others, and it should have been sent by Rodney under the guise."

Daily More New Chapters in www.eBooksCat.com