

Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2341

Freya heart was still very empty when she got into the car,

This kind of secret feeling in the Ministerial palace will torture her soon.

Not long after, Rodney sent a Whatsapp message:[ Freya, I miss you alot...]

That Whatsapp message was like so hot that Freya almost threw the phone out and it was so terrifying.

After arriving at Osher Corporation, an assistant brought her a bunch of flowers in front of her and said, "Manager Lynch, someone gave you a bunch of flowers."

Freya put down the bag in her hand, took off her gloves and held a flower wrapped in pink paper. It was not a fixed one. There were many beautiful flowers such as hydrangea, bellflower, tulip, etc. It was very beautiful ad very fragrant.

There was a small card on it. She opened it and took a look: I miss you, my little princess....

Such sweet words seem to think of no one but one person.

She picked up her phone and took a picture of the flower and sent it to Ryan: [You sent it? ]

Ryan: [Do you like it, my little princess. ]

Ryan: [I like it. ]

Then Ryan sent a kissing emoji over there.

Freya herself put the flowers into the vase.

Colleagues envy: "Wow, these flowers are so beautiful. Your boyfriend gave them."

"Manager Lynch, when will your boyfriend invite us to dinner?"

Freya's fingers froze slightly and she felt a little guilty.

Colleagues in the laboratory have met Ryan but no one knows his identity. If they invite Rodney to dinner and ask about his work, they may be exposed. "There will be a chance in the future. He is very busy at work now."

Indeed, it seems that I haven't seen him pick you up recently. Manager Lynch, what does your boyfriend do?" Colleagues said.

Freya answered them, "Just... ordinary white-collar workers. I hope everyone keeps it a secret, we are just in love at the moment."

"Manager Lynch, we Understood. You are still young and there is no need to rush into another marriage."

This group of colleagues were all studying abroad and were open-minded and they were not urging women to get married early.

“Manager Lynch, someone has brought you flowers again.” The assistant who had just left had returned and this time holding a large bouquet of pink roses.

“Wow, Manager Lynch, I’ve been very charming recently.” The colleagues joked.

Freya forced a smile. After she took the flowers, she saw the card on it that read: If there is a time machine in this world, I will definitely go back to the past and cherish the old you.

A throbbing should come out from the bottom of her heart.

She returned the flower to the assistant without hesitation, “Take it out and throw it away for me.”

The assistant was taken aback for a moment and hesitantly said, “It’s a pity to throw away such a beautiful flower. Can I use it to decorate the office outside?”

“As you like.”

Freya didn’t insist. The flower giver was very annoying but it had nothing to do with the flower as long as it was not disgusting in front of her.

For the next few days, Rodney sent flowers to Freya every day.

Freya really didn’t want to pay attention to Rodney and was not even interested in calling him to scold him.

However, during the meeting on Wednesday, Catherine announced at the meeting: "Osher Corporation has agreed to our acquisition and the contract will be signed this Friday."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2342

"Very good."

The whole room cheered.

The manager of the marketing department said: "We thought this acquisition would take several months but we didn't expect it to be completed in a week which surprised us."

"Osher Corporation was already at the end of his streak and continuing to hold on was nothing more than a waste of more money."

Catherine smiled lightly, "Okay, after Osher Corporation's acquisition is successful, there will be major changes in the company's internal staff. Of course, our Freycatheli status will also be improved to a higher level. The people in the marketing department will make arrangements to let the outside world know about this acquisition, and let the outside world know that Osher Corporation's boss will no longer be Rodney, but our Freycatheli. "

"After the acquisition, will Osher Corporation withdraw from the store in the mall?"

"There is no need to withdraw the counter but the recruitment will be changed to Freycatheli."

After the meeting, after the senior management left one after another, Freya said, "Can't I go to sign the contract this time? You are the person in charge of the company, so you can go. I don't want to see Rodney."

“But you are the founder and legal person of the company. If you don’t go, Osher Corporation has a reason to refuse the visa.” Catherine put her hands on the desk and leaned over to look at her, “Freya, Do you know why the acquisition was so fast, because Snow With the cooperation of Rodney, otherwise there are other companies that want to acquire and the competition will drag on for at least a few months.”

Freya said bitterly, “I used to want to buy Osher Corporation’s face, but now I don’t think it’s necessary. Rodney always wanted to get back with me. To be honest, I’m disgusting. Don’t you have any self-awareness?”

Catherine said,” Freya, Don’t think about this. In short, the acquisition of Osher Corporation will save us a lot of financial and material resources and it will also allow us to rapidly expand the scale of our business. Don’t forget, I was talking about making Freycatheli bigger and going international. “

Freya was silent for a while.

She can’t just because she resents someone and doesn’t face what she should do.

Soon it will be Friday.

Freya and Catherine took the lawyers and assistants from the Freycatheli’s legal department to Osher Corporation.

Probably knowing that Osher Corporation was about to change hands and most of the employees stood at the door and waited anxiously.(This chapter published by desirenovel.com)

Many employees were familiar with Freya.

Freya once worked here and even served as the hostess of Osher Corporation.

Freya and others arrived at the conference room all the way and Rodney and several high-level executives also waited there for a while.

“Freya, sit down...” Rodney walked over quickly and dragging a chair aside. Freya’s beautiful peach blossom eyes were as gentle as water.

“Mr. Snow, please call me President Lynch.

I’m here to sign the contract on behalf of the company today.” Freya dragged another chair to sit down.

Rodney handsome’s face stiffened slightly.

The assistant beside Rodney quickly said: “We have already drawn up a contract with a lawyer, let’s take a look.”

Freya didn’t move but Catherine took over the contract and studied it carefully with the two lawyers as she brought.

An employee brought tea over. Rodney got up and put a cup in front of Freya, “The price has been discussed before, and the rest was just the question of whether the Osher Corporation’s employees will stay.”

“General Manager Jones of our company will handle these.” Freya said lightly, “I’m only in charge of the R&D department.”

Rodney looked at Freya indifferent appearance and couldn’t help but pursed his thin lips, “Dani had a good time with me the day before yesterday, I’ll...”

“Mr. Snow, now we only talk about the company not personal affairs.” Freya interrupted Rodney impatiently.

Rodney clenched his glass tightly, "Then let's talk about business affairs. How do you plan to develop Osher Corporation?"

"It's about Freycatheli's future plans, I'm sorry I can't tell you."

Freya got up after speaking and went the bathroom."

Rodney looked at her back with full of annoyance.

Five minutes later, Freya came back. Catherine and the lawyer also read the document, "No problem, sign it."

After Freya, Catherine and Rodney finished signing, Rodney hurriedly said: "Today is a big day, why don't I invite you to a nearby restaurant for dinner to celebrate the successful acquisition of Freycatheli. ..."

"Then let General Manager Jones of our accompany Mr. Snow. Ms. Lynch, I have important things to do later." Before he could finish speaking, Catherine politely refused.

Mr. Jones, so you don't give me face?" Rodney's expression was a little unsightly, "You should be aware that many companies at home and abroad have the intention to acquire Osher Corporation but I haven't considered it. First of all, I think Even Freycatheli, I didn't deliberately raise the price."

Freya couldn't listen any more and said disgustedly: "Is it to thank you? I still have to eat with you today or do I have to sleep with you at night."

There were other people in the conference room and everyone looked at Rodney with strange eyes.

Rodney didn't expect her to be so bold, "Freya, I didn't mean that. you know, I just wanted to..."

“No, I just want everyone to have a meal together. After all, everyone will cooperate with each other today.” Rodney frowned, “Can you stop thinking about me so badly, I really know what happened in the past.”

“I don’t think this is cooperation.” Catherine shook the document in her hand, “Mr. Snow, your company has been losing money again and again and it can’t continue to operate. We just made an acquisition and yes, I am very grateful to you. It’s refreshing to sign but you have to figure out that as my identity, as long as I speak up, no one dares to compete with me. As long as I maliciously lower the price, you will not accept the acquisition. At that time, Osher Corporation will be helpless and you will loss more and more.”

Catherine words were pearly and her beautiful eyes were the contempt of the superior.

Rodney was stunned gradually. He looked at Catherine. At this moment, he truly realized that she was no longer from before. She was Sheryl’s daughter and someone who was protected by Titus.

Catherine said, “You should thank me. Freya and I have no intention of taking revenge on you. Otherwise, before you sign, I will at least have you peeled off.”

After a pause, Rodney said: “Also, with our current status, how can you be qualified to eat with us, at least, you have to be at the level of your sister.”

After speaking, she and Freya left together.

Rodney looked at the backs of the two. His handsome face turned red.

The executives behind Rodney stared at his back and whispered, “That’s right, we were acquired, okay? Rodney lost a crushing defeat and he still doesn’t understand the situation.”

“Maybe Rodney thought that he was still the eldest son of the Snow family and Osher Corporation’s boss. He didn’t think about who Osher Corporation is dragging down.”

“Yeah, as for the young master of the Snow family? Forget it, Rodney ruined the reputation of the Snow.”

“roll.”

Rodney couldn’t listen any longer. He grabbed the cup on the table and smashed it at the two, “Try one more word and see if I won’t kill you.”

“Sh*t, you really think that you are still Osher Corporation’s boss. It’s also President Catherine and President Freya that we want to please.”

The two high-level executives walked away from him.

Rodney leaned stiffly on the conference table.

Here, it was the country he once conquered, and he didn’t understand why those employees hated him now.

Sometimes, Rodney felt that he had failed so well in his life and wished to die.

Downstairs car park.

Freya gave Catherine a thumbs up in admiration, “Ms. Catherine, you just leaked your domineering side and it turned me over.”

"I'm also very upset by Rodney. He hasn't figured out his situation until now, as he gave us the face that we could acquire Osher Corporation." Catherine closed the car door and got in the car.

"Yeah, how old is he if we want to give him face?"

Freya snorted and put on her seat belt and this time Forrest called her, "Our villa has already set a date for moving. Next Monday, the Lynch family will entertain with some relatives and friends in the capital at the hotel."

"So fast..." Freya was taken aback.

"Didn't you say before that you want to move out quickly? I just asked the decorator to work overtime for the decoration. It has been decorated a long time ago and has been vacant for a while. Come here and have dinner with the family tonight."

"Oh, well, is there anything you want me to help with?" Freya suddenly realized that didn't seem to have any contribution from the Lynch family's new home and it was all done by his brother.

"No, I've got everything done. You tell the president and the others that they've worked hard to take care of them during this time."

"Uh-huh."

Freya nodded, although living in the Ministerial Palace was very comfortable, but she and Rodney had been in a relationship. so they moved out and would both be free and comfortable.

After returning to the Ministerial palace, she told Heidi about this in the evening.

Heidi couldn't give up when she heard it, "As soon as you and Dani leave, this huge Ministerial palace will be more deserted. Otherwise, you should just live here. If you are not here, I'm really not used to it."

Freya hugged Heidi's arm and said, "Godmother, I can't bear to part with you but my mom and dad are too old and I want to spend more time with them and also they moved from Melbourne for me. Also, The security of the Ministerial palace is too strict. If we stay here forever, it will be inconvenient for our relatives to come to see Dani."

"That's true." Heidi suddenly smiled and glanced at her ambiguously, "Also, I'm afraid it's not convenient to find a boyfriend on a date or something."

Freya was ashamed. She lowered her head and said embarrassedly: "This...I didn't think about it."

Heidi said and sighed, "Freya, It's time to think about it. If you find a boyfriend, no one will dare to take you to the door of the Ministerial Palace. Actually, I don't like living here very much but I don't think so."

"next Monday."

Heidi was a little reluctant to give up, "Freya, I guess it will be our family of three to eat in the future."

"Godmother, I will come to accompany you when I have time." Freya felt very sorry in her heart.

After returning to where she lived, she began to prepare what she needed to take away.

When Ryan came over from get off work, Freya was bending over to sort out the books in the study.

“When I come back from get off work in the future, I won’t see you again, and I won’t be able to be with you when I have breakfast.”

Ryan coldly hugged her from behind and buried his face in her neck.

Chapter 2345

Freya put down what was in her hand, turned around, and put her arms around Ryan’s waist, “There’s no way, if you live here all the time, you always... like this, we will be discovered it soon.”

“What?”

Ryan’s muffled voice came from her neck.

Freya blushed, “That’s it, like it is now. Every morning you find an excuse to let me go to your place or you come here after get off work at night, someone will find out soon. Something’s wrong, I moved out and no one is watching us all the time, so it’s more convenient to go out on a date.”

Ryan stared at her for a while and sighed, “But I often have to work overtime and sometimes I didn’t come back from get off work and my dad would know that he went out frequently, they would find clues.”

“what?”

Freya blinked, "Then what should I do, who asked you to do things with your father?"

"Well, I don't want it anymore but I won't be able to transfer for a while." Ryan showed a bitter face.

Freya leaned in Ryan's arms for a while and sighed, "Forget it, don't be ignorant of your blessings. How many people outside envy you?"

"What's there to envy, envy me working overtime? Envy me not being able to accompany my girlfriend? Envy me when I miss my girlfriend..?"

Ryan said and took a bite on the tip of Freya's left ear and said in a low voice that couldn't be lower: "When you think about what you want at night and want to die, you can only rely on yourself."

"boom"

It was as if fireworks exploded in Freya's mind.

She was flushed with shame but didn't know what to do. She could only squeeze his waist hard but after pinching for a long time, she found that there was no fat on Ryan's waist but she didn't squeeze it.

"I'm in good shape." Ryan lowered his head and touched her smooth little face with the tip of her nose, with a hint of pride in her tone.

When Ryan mentioned the figure, Freya remembered the thin waist as she witnessed when he woke up in the morning a few days ago.

So he couldn't help ripping his shirt out of his trousers, lifted it up and touched the thick abdominal muscles with his hands.

Ryan's body tightened and suddenly his strong arms carried her directly to the desk. He unbuttoned all the buttons himself, "Let's take a closer look."

"I'm not interested anymore."

Freya's heartbeat suddenly accelerated. She turned around and wanted to slip away but Ryan pulled her into his arms again with one hand and then lowered her head and kissed her lips domineeringly.

In the quiet study room, her clothes were neat but his shirt had opened. This scene made Freya's hot hands have nowhere to rest.

After a while, when she couldn't breathe after being kissed, she had to put her hand on his chest, "Okay, fasten your buttons, don't catch a cold."

"Come here." Ryan looked down at her hands motionlessly with an ambiguous smile on the corner of his mouth, "I'm looking at you, no woman has buttoned me yet."

A low voice, full of lethality.

"Did your mother deduct it for you?" Freya raised her eyebrows.

Ryan coughed softly and laughed lightly, "How old are you? When you grow up, no woman has ever buckled."

"What a coincidence. It's the first time I've buttoned someone else." Freya said not to be outdone.

Ryan pursed her handsome thin lips and said nothing, and stared at her with a quiet smile, as there was a lot of affection in it.

Ryan stared at her and a wave of heat rushed to his forehead.

In the end, Freya gave in, lowered her head and seriously looked for the button and the symmetrical hole around her mouth.

She was really unfamiliar, a little clumsy, and buckled one grain at a time for a long time.

After the buttoning, Ryan hugged her waist and kissed her again with a vague confession between her lips and teeth, "Oh, I love you."

Freya's body was numb. She didn't understand. She just buttoned a button, why was he so excited.

But being held by him like this and saying love, her blood boiled with ease.

Kissing and kissing, the neck was cold and Freya felt as something was hanging on neck.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2346

Freya looked down and found that Ryan had a diamond necklace hanging around her neck.

"you....."

"A gift for you."

Ryan kissed her forehead and said, "Freya, I've been dating for so long, I haven't given you any gift yet."

“No, you often buy gifts for Dani...”

That didn't count. Buying a gift for my daughter was only natural and buying it for you was also a matter of course.”

Freya was so moved that it was clear that Dani was not his daughter, yet he still said such things....

He really loves himself. But she was still so cowardly and timid.

“When are you going to move there, I'll take you to your new home.” Ryan said.

“I plan to move in tomorrow and Sunday. My parents will move to the capital the day after tomorrow and our family will have dinner in the evening.”

“Well, when the time comes, I will take the opportunity to take you there and then stay there for dinner, okay?” Ryan asked while holding her face.

“You don't want to go to work this afternoon?”

“You can leave a little earlier on Sunday afternoon.”

.....

For the next two days, Freya was busy packing things.

On Sunday afternoon, Ryan got off work at 4p.m., and he came over to help her load her luggage into the big truck.

Aunty Loretta would also help take care of Dani for a while. After Freya and Dani got to know each other, she would still go back to the Ministerial Palace. After all, she was a member of the Ministerial Palace.

The Lynch family's villa is not very far from the Ministerial Palace on the Ring Expressway and it takes 40 minutes to drive there.

This area was a villa area and the security of the community was also very good.

When Freya arrived at the new home, her Mom and Dad had already arrived.

The Lynch family's villa had three floors, Forrest lived on the third floor, Freya lived on the second floor and the second elder of the Lynch family lived on the first floor.

There was also a large toy room on the first floor with many toys.

Dani liked it as soon as she entered.

Ryan moved Freya's big box to the bedroom on the second floor. He found that Forrest was really kind to this sister.

This room should be the best bedroom in the whole building. It faces the garden of the villa. It had more than 50 square meters in it. There was also a cloakroom. There was even a guardrail on the bed to prevent Dani from falling when she slept at night.

"Wow, this bedroom was so beautiful." Freya looked around, and for the first time in Canberra, she really found a home.

“Well, it was really beautiful and big and it would be enough for two people in the future.” Ryan nodded in agreement.

Freya gave him a blank look, “What did you mean?”

Ryan blinked and said, “I mean, after we get married, it will be enough for the two of us to live together.”

“You were dreaming.”

Freya glared at him, her eyes were bulging.

“I’m dreaming.” Ryan said with a bit of sadness, “Miss Lynch didn’t want to get married. I could only dream, but if I didn’t have this kind of dream, then I would be a sc*mbag.”

After all, a man who didn’t want to get married and just wanted to be a hooligan is a sc*mbag.

Freya snorted and had nothing to say.
