

Chapter 2421

[I am Freya's college classmate and she is very good. My family was not good at the time, and I was frequently mocked by my classmates for wearing clothes for a long time. Freya also stood up to help me. She was with Catherine at the time. The relationship is excellent. Both have a good family background in Melbourne, but they are both very gentle.]

[I also remember that Freya and Catherine are seem two school flowers of Melbourne University and they don't usually like to go out and play.]

[The identity of Freya's first love has been revealed. It should be correct. People must have heard of Freya after dating for several years, and it appears that she regrets not cherishing it at the start.]

[Rodney, get out of there, don't jump out of the disgusting person.]

[Learn from someone's first love, even if they broke up unhappy, because at the very least you can wake up and not speak ill of your girlfriend.]

[Please don't think about it. Rodney likes crazy women like Sarah; can Rodney be a good person with three points of view?]

[Yeah, I'm not sure what those who spoke for him were thinking.]

...

The online format had already turned to Freya when Ryan was about to release evidence to slap Rodney in the face.

More and more people came out in support of Freya and Ryan.

Ryan was taken aback when he saw it.

He was aware that Freya had discussed a first love for several years, but he didn't expect him to stand up at this time.

Patrick's emergence played a significant reversal role.

Many of Freya's classmates took the initiative to speak for her while she was studying, thanks to Patrick's leadership.

"Master Ryan, netizens' eyes are still sharp." the assistant was relieved.

Because Ms. Freya is so nice and helpful, you shouldn't be so cruel with the people around you and you can only play during key moments and played an important role.

Ryan agreed with a nod.

There are both good and bad people in this world.

There are those who get themselves into trouble, but there are also those who are willing to do justice.

"Please send all of the prepared videos." This online battle should come to an end here."

Ryan's team quickly released two full versions of the videos that Rodney had posted early in the morning. Ryan and Freya were two of them. Freya emerged from the restaurant after dinner, and Rodney rushed out to make a scene.

Netizens noticed Rodney chasing Freya's car at the end of the video.

Another video shows Freya and Ryan having a face-to-face exchange at the dinner party. It is not sure what they were discussing. Freya lowered her head lonely. Ryan touched her head, and quickly withdrew his hand followed by Rodney come over.

Both videos include the shooting date and time.

Ryan's team also publicly issued a lawyer's letter threatening to Rodney for defamation on the Internet.

Simultaneously, Ryan posted his resignation letter online: [As the Prime minister's secretary, I decided to accept responsibility and resign because my personal affairs had a negative impact on society. I hope everyone will stop talking about this.]

The audience is surprised.

A reporter quickly contacted the Prime ministerial Palace's press secretary, who quickly confirmed the situation: "Yes, Secretary Snow submitted a resignation report this morning, and the Prime minister agreed, and new staff will be arranged to take over."

"Where does he plan to take up a job in the future, whether to transfer or..." the reporter inquired.
