

Chapter 2422

"The Prime minister is implying that his personal affairs have devolved into this, which has had a significant negative impact on the Prime ministerial palace. As Prime minister, he cannot show favouritism due to his son. Secretary Snow will no longer be involved in internal affairs after that. The plan is to return to school to pursue a Ph.D."

"Does the Prime minister support Ryan and Freya together?" A reporter asked.

"The Prime minister has neither support nor opposition; he considers Secretary Snow to be an adult, and love is important when it comes to freedom. Although there is no way to intervene, the Prime minister and his wife have officially ended their relationship with Freya's daughter."

This interview was quickly made available on the Internet.

Freya, who had never been to the company before, was taken aback when she saw it. She didn't expect Ryan to resign without saying anything.

No, it is not silent. Freya stated yesterday in a small article that he is willing to resign.

It's just that Freya assumed Ryan was deceiving netizens.

Freya did not expect.....

Freya was heartbroken because such a good job had been lost, so she quickly contacted Ryan and asked, "You resigned?"

"Well."

"I will have more time to accompany you in the future." Ryan said with a smile.

"Are you insane?"

"Why did you resign? what a great position for the Prime minister's Secretary! and netizens have already sided with us and no one will blame you." Freya snarled.

"Yes, Freya, it's time to take a step back and not to give up but to gain more." Ryan abruptly stated with a smile.

Freya was taken aback.

"I don't know what you're talking about, what you have, how many people are jealous and envious of your position?" Freya said.

"It's just that there are too many people who are jealous, so what others see is my age and your age. My parents are blind to my true abilities."

Ryan smiled and said, "People around you may be aware of this, but the general public will only hear that you rely on your parents to obtain this position, so many people are envious. This time, I resigned, and it appears that I have lost, but what will the public think? I resign now that the online wind commentary has turned to us. In the eyes of the public, I can project an image of walking the walk and taking responsibility, in addition to sympathising with me. This image may even provide my parents brought many advantages, such as being Prime minister, and they have a good way of teaching their children."

Freya was taken aback. She wasn't as complicated as she had imagined.

On the other hand, Ryan's head is incomparable to hers.

"Freya, I can also represent a vast sky. I'm still young and this time when I resign, I won't leave any stains on my body. I'll spend more time with you in the future and then I'll read the Ph.D. and read it aloud to you. After that, I'll be able to return to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. I was in my thirties at the time, and I still have an excellent diploma, so I can go further in the future. A temporary gain or loss is nothing." Ryan said.

Freya was completely speechless.

"Freya, You don't have to feel bad about it. Don't forget, even if I resign, I can still serve as the Prime minister's advisor."

"How could I have underestimated you? you are so strong." Freya sighed.

"Wait for me, I'll see you in the afternoon and we'll have dinner together later that evening. I miss you so much." Ryan said quietly.

"Wait a minute, I just saw you yesterday." Freya stated purposefully.

"Really, but it's been a long time from yesterday to today, and I've experienced a lot."

Freya sighed inwardly. Doesn't she think so, too?

Chapter 2423

Freya hung up the phone. Her's heart, which had been restless since last night, had finally calmed down.

When Freya think about it, a lot has happened since she moved to Canberra.

When she was divorced, she seriously considered whether she was a bad woman.

There has also been despair, resentment, and sadness, but until today, when netizens are on her side, many alumni who were not previously acquainted stood up to speak for her and even Patrick publicly spoke for her.

Freya suddenly realised that she wasn't a failure.

Life is full of things and there are both positive and negative aspects.

The world is still fair as long as she stay true to herself. A fake is a fake, and what it haven't done can't become real.

In the villa of Minister Judson.

Rodney smashed his phone on the spot after he noticed that the majority of the comments on the Internet were scolding him.

He had no idea Patrick would stand up and speak on Freya's behalf.

Patrick and Freya relationship ended a long time ago. Didn't Patrick despise Freya?

To set off Freya's pitiful and Patrick is ill, is it because he has been scolded less frequently?

Ryan, too.

Didn't he let people delete those two videos ahead of time, without leaving a trace?

Didn't expect him to find the full version of the video?

Could it be that he was expecting it?

Ryan also resigned publicly from his position as secretary and went crazy?

Only a shrewd and calculated individual like him would be willing to go to this point for love?

Is he a big fan of Freya?

"Young Master Snow, it appears you are already exhausted."

"The people don't believe what you said at all, and even the navy is completely useless." Minister Judson said as he came over from the dining room after breakfast.

Rodney's heartbeat quickened. Tightly, he said, "Minister Judson, please give it to me again..."

"Enough, I wasted a whole night, not only did I get nothing, even after making you toss, you have completely fulfilled Nathan's good reputation, and you are not the opponent of Nathan's father and son at all." Minister Judson said lightly.

In an instant, Rodney's fist clenched tightly, and blue veins appeared on his forehead.

Why, why did Minister Judson have such a low opinion of himself?

Minister Judson remarked sarcastically, seeing his angry expression, "You still don't understand why, when the Internet's focus has shifted to the ministerial Palace, Ryan chooses to resign. In business terms, the public will perceive the prime minister to be selfless. Nathan did not prevent Ryan from pursuing love privately. Everyone believes that the prime minister is a wise and loving father. What type of prime minister do netizens desire? Young citizens who are open-minded and fair all yearn for the freedom to pursue love, so the prime minister is the father role model that every young person desires."

"So, after a night of trouble, you and I didn't get anything, and even every step of yours has Ryan been counted to death."
Minister Judson smiled.

Rodney's pupils widened, and his handsome face became paler.

His soul and strength were suddenly drained from the entire portrait. He took two steps back and collapsed on the sofa.

Minister Judson said, "So as long as Nathan doesn't make mistakes, he will be re-elected. Ryan resigned because he wanted to go back to study for a few years, so his diploma will be higher and Nathan's status will be more stable. When Ryan comes back, he will be able to walk more solidly, and he won't be at a loss. Ryan also reaped the hearts of the people and everyone will support Ryan and Freya."

Chapter 2424

I knew Ryan was not simple, but I didn't expect him to be so sophisticated at such a young age and I'm afraid he'll go further than his father in the future.

Rodney remained motionless and he was staring at the ground.

I can't believe it, after all that tossing and turning, Rodney not only didn't destroy Freya and Ryan, but he also got the people to rally behind them?

Why is this so?

There is something to be said for being blessed with those two people.

"Minister Judson, I'm sorry. I apologise for our Young master disturbed you last night. "

Footsteps came from the door, and at the same time, a dull voice came from the same direction.

When Hall Master Snow entered, Rodney raised his head sharply, and he brought a few subordinates behind him.

"I should apologise for keeping you waiting at the door all night." "This cup of tea is my apology," Minister Judson said with lightly smiling while holding a tea cup in his hand.

"You're being overly complimentary; I'm just a little hall master."

"But our eldest lady told me to take the person back immediately." the song hall master hurriedly bowed.

"Do it yourself."

Minister Judson shook his head.

"Minister Judson, you forgot what you promised me before, you said..." Rodney stood up in a panic.

"Wait, what did I say?"

Minister Judson said in front of Hall master Snow and smiled "I apologise; Young Master Snow appears to have misunderstood me. I've always supported the prime minister."

"I understand that young people are not very mature, and that they have some issues with their families. Come out and agitate the wind and rain."

Hall master Snow winked at the people behind him, and two people stepped forward. Rodney tried to resist, but the people who came were too strong for him, and he was detained three or two times.

"Leave me.. I'm the Snow family's eldest son and you dare to treat me like this."
Rodney fought valiantly.

Hall master Snow extended his hand and shook it, and the two of them soon took Rodney out first.

"I apologise, Minister Judson." Hall master Snow nodded and turned to walk away.

"Last night, Rodney urged me to find outside forces..." Minister Judson said as he lifted the tea lid.

When Hall master Snow turned around, he was stunned, and his eyes were cold. "I didn't tell a lie." Minister Judson extended his hands.

"Rodney is no longer useful to me. I simply remind the Snow family that Old Master Snow did not properly educate this grandson."

"Thank you..."

He turned and walked away after gave a nod lightly.

After leaving, Hall master Snow got into a car and called Jessica, "Young Master Snow has already caught it, but... Minister Judson said that Young Master Snow encouraged him to find outside forces."

It was quiet for a while over there, until Jessica spoke up, "I see, you need to find a place to lock him up first and don't let him communicate with the outside world."

"Ah, I see."

When Rodney was kidnapped by members of Snowden, it quickly spread to the Snow family's old house.

Jason and his wife hurriedly called back to Jessica.

"Jessica, is this the Rodney that you got back from Minister Judson?" Mr. Snow appeared to have aged significantly this evening. He couldn't understand how the grandson he once adored had devolved into this.

Chapter 2425

"Well."

Jessica lowered her gaze and nodded. The long lashes cast a dark shadow on the lovely and capable face.

"Brother is completely insane." "Minister Judson is uncle's enemy." Carson said angrily.

Jason's face was filled with sadness. He was a failed father who did not properly educate his son. "It's my fault. After Sarah's incident was revealed, I should have used harsh measures to expel Rodney from the country. I thought he was just stupid but didn't expect him..." Jason sighed deeply after speaking.

"That child, Rodney was deceived so badly by Sarah, and his heart was already out of balance." Wendy said, her eyes turning brighter. "I really can't stay abroad this time. Jessica, you should arrange a transfer and send Rodney abroad right away and I will be able to do so in the future and don't let Rodney come back."

Jason and Old master Snow remained silent and they all agreed on this point.

Jessica sat in the chair. Her fingers inadvertently rubbed the armrests and her eyes were alert. "It's getting to the point where I'm wondering if it can be done by sending it out?"

Everyone was taken aback.

Old master Snow paused for a moment before responding, "It is true that this time he is smearing the reputation of the ministerial Palace." Following that, people will believe that the ministerial Palace can be provocative at any time, then... close it for a period of time. Come on, introduce yourself to the second uncle."

No one gave a second thought about it, no matter how serious the situation was or how enraged Nathan was; after all, Rodney was his nephew.

Jessica sighed quietly in her heart. Her family had been living a peaceful life for far too long, and the edges and corners had long been smoothed out. "Grandpa, things have progressed to this point; what do you think...?" Uncle, are you going to let Rodney go abroad? Rodney is going to ruin the uncle this time, and he wants to get rid of him."

Old master Snow's face turned sour when he brought up the matter.

"I know, I'm also very angry." Jason admitted helplessly, "but after all, it's your own son, and that's your own brother, so you can't keep him for the rest of your life."

"Dad, you may not realise it, but Rodney is better than you think. It's a thousand times worse."

"Minister Judson said that Rodney instigated him to find foreign forces."
Jessica stood up and said.

"What?"

"This...impossible, it's right?, it should be Minister Judson talking nonsense." Wendy exclaimed.

"What is he talking about?"

Jessica inquired quietly, "Rodney is already a useless chess piece, and while Minister Judson has ambitions, he also sticks to the bottom line and has never made peace."

The outside forces have made contact, everyone is smart, and it doesn't matter what happens inside when people from the outside are brought in, the nature changes completely."

Everyone in the hall was quiet, except for Jason, who was shaking and barely holding on to his chair, Sit up straight.

"It's terrible, brother, this is to..." Carson murmured.

The next words couldn't go on, but everyone knew it.

Jessica stated coldly, "Uncle can't let Rodney go abroad because he has this heart." Rodney now despises his uncle and even us. He grew up in the Snow family and married into the Snow family over the last few decades. He also worked on energy projects; if some of the secrets in his possession leak, you don't have to tell me the consequences; you should be aware."

Everyone took a deep breath after speaking.

Everyone is not stupid, and if they consider the consequences, they will realise they cannot afford it.

Chapter 2426

Old master Snow appears to have aged dramatically.

Old master Snow thought he was quite successful for a long time, but in retrospect, he failed far too many times, what kind of devil he taught the Snow family.

Jason remained silent. His son is his heart, but he is not perplexed enough to continue interceding.

"Jessica, do we want to watch Rodney die anyway?. After all, he is your own younger brother. Is there any other way? as long as he is still alive, it is enough, I don't think about anything else." Wendy said painfully.

Jessica was in a bad mood, but she could only say calmly. "Let Rodney's uncle and his family decide. This is not something I can decide privately."

Everyone looked at each other and the hall was reopened and quiet has returned.

Ryan's family only learned the afternoon.

Nathan rubbed his brows with a tired face and bitterly smiled, "My Snow family has really produced a good thing, at least I grew up watching it, but how did Rodney's heart become so dark? it's almost as bad as Sarah."

Heidi gave a cold smile "Fortunately, I had not previously forced Rodney to travel abroad. I let a poisonous snake out, and now I have to lock him up and don't let it out again in this life."

Nathan said nothing and just stared at his son "Ryan, what do you think about your uncle pleading? He called me several times, implying...provide him with a means of survival."

"Locking it up is already the most effective means of survival." Heidi remarked lightly, "This type of person will never end as long as they are released.

We are fortunate this time, but we can handle a few tosses."

Nathan sighed. Is this the only way?

Nathan had previously disliked Rodney, primarily because he had to consider his own brother's feelings, and he couldn't get angry at him for this.

After all, Jason had allowed him to grow up from childhood to adulthood.

Ryan looked at his father's expression, paused for a moment and then said,
"There is, in fact, a treatment. People will completely forget their previous memories after the injection and they will be completely forgotten. This is a new invention."

Nathan was taken aback and also thought of this incident, "But I heard that the drug can cause mental deterioration..."

"Dad, why do you have to be so smart? It's enough to be able to eat, drink, and take care of yourself. Let alone not turn into an idiot, but his intelligence will deteriorate. Rodney has a sister above him and a brother below him; even if the uncle and the others are gone in a hundred years, I believe someone will look after him."

Ryan smirked "This is the only option. Otherwise, as Mom predicted, he will be imprisoned for the rest of his life."

Heidi raised doubts, "Wait a minute, you can make Rodney forget his memories but there are memories on the Internet, his intelligence has degraded, and he is not a fool. He is very happy after such a long time. It is simple to find historical events on the Internet. What if Rodney is still aware that Freya is his ex-wife and Dani is his child? To be honest, I wouldn't have objected to Dani's contact with her biological father before, but now...."

"If you really want to marry Freya in the future, there will be some trouble." Heidi said to Ryan.

"Then you mean..."

"Rodney can only be a fool if you increase the potion." Heidi stated matter-of-factly. "To be honest, I don't believe that being imprisoned for the rest of my life is a good idea. If your father abdicates in the future, someone may want to release Rodney. What? He's been in prison for a long time. Rodney will become more vengeful and act in a rash and extreme manner if he does not reflect on himself. Who knows, maybe after we retire, we won't be able to go out with bodyguards all the time."

Chapter 2427

Nathan and Ryan remained silent as they heard the words.

After a long silence, Nathan said helplessly and quietly: "Then do as your mom instructed; I will inform your uncle about this matter, and I believe they will agree; your auntie stated that as long as people are alive, it is sufficient. It's over."

Ryan didn't say anything else, but he was sad and heavy in his heart.

It's okay to be bad, but you must have a plan.

Rodney was already bad and lacked a bottom line, so it was doomed to be this way.

...

It was 5 p.m.

Ryan drove the car toward Freya's house to meet freya.

He can now enter the room as a boyfriend in an open and honest manner. On the way, he also purchased a bouquet of lovely flowers.

When Ryan arrived at Freya's yard, he immediately heard a car, and Freya, who had been waiting for a day, immediately opened the door and fled.

Ryan's handsome face was softened slightly by the orange sunset as he dressed in a white sweater with blue jeans and stood in a long shadow on the grass.

He held a lovely bouquet of pink, white, and yellow flowers in his hand. With that young and fresh appearance, it's not an exaggeration to say he just graduated from university.

Freya's heart was as sweet as honey when she looked at it.

This is her real boyfriend. It's not the same as before. It is open to the public and widely supported.

The Internet is now awash with praise for the two's talent and beauty.

Ryan's gentle eyes mirrored her demeanour. Freya was dressed in pink clothes. Her hair was wrapped into a cute ball head, her little face was also pink, her nose was small and exquisite, and her beautiful big eyes were shining brightly.

This is the woman Ryan likes.

Ryan intends to be nice to Freya from now on.

Ryan was well aware that nothing was going to be easy today.

Ryan's handsome face showed a gentle smile as he walked over with holding the flowers solemnly, "Did you wait for me for a long time?"

"I've been looking at my phone all day, full of Very, who waited for you for a long time."

Freya gave him a smug look.

"For you." Ryan said as he placed the flowers in her arms.

Freya lowered her head to avoid his piercing gaze as she smelt the flowers.

Very fragrant, especially to the heart.

"Ryan has arrived; please enter quickly and do not linger outside the door."

Mrs. Lynch's voice came from inside.

Ryan entered the room quickly.

Chapter 2428

Mr. Lynch, Mrs. Lynch, and Forrest were all present in the living room, but Mr. Lynch's expression was gentle whereas Forrest's face was cold and expressionless.

Ryan didn't take it too seriously. His future brother-in-law had always been like this and Ryan never laughed.

"I'm sorry, uncle and auntie. I've caused you a lot of trouble these two days."

After entering, Ryan apologised "But I adore Freya, and my parents no longer object to us being together. Allow Freya and me to date."

Mr. Lynch snorted purposefully "Even if we disagree, don't you two date? My daughter ran out as soon as she heard the sound of the car and spent the entire day outside. she'll be waiting for you."

Freya, who had been slapped in the face so quickly, blushed and stomped her feet as she glared at her father: "I'm not moved, Dad, Ryan even worked for me and he resigned..."

"Did you really resign, Ryan?" "What a good job!" Mrs. Lynch lamented.

"The job is good, but I'm still too young. I think I should calm down and learn more, get the doctor's certificate, and then take the post-doctoral exam." Ryan explained with a smile, "and...I can spend more time with Freya and Dani. Although we dated in the past and we were so busy that seeing each other once a week would be difficult."

Mr. Lynch smiled and nodded. "Yes, young people should be charged more, but they cannot be addicted to falling in love. Now that you've made the decision to, how about We'll make a good couple when we're together. We should be grateful for what we've accomplished, because it wasn't easy to get here."

"I will, because I adore Freya." Ryan said this while tightly clutching Freya's hand.

Freya's face flushed in front of her parents, but she didn't break free. Her heart was as sweet as honey.

Mr. Lynch and Mrs. Lynch looked at each other helplessly, and could see that their daughter really liked Ryan, which had never been seen before when she and Rodney were married.

Ryan is indeed very good, and what is rare is the courage to be with his daughter.

After all, the two are simply in love, so they don't need to think too hard.

"What happened to Rodney?" Forrest, who had been deafeningly quiet for a long time, quickly said, "He won't continue to make trouble. Also, he smeared my sister in public, and the Snow family should give an explanation."

Freya took a close look at Ryan after hearing this.

Ryan pondered for a while, "What Rodney did this time was more complex, and it will be handled differently. What I can assure you is that he will never again have the opportunity to discredit anyone. That's it."

According to what he said, the Lynch family is comprised of intelligent individuals.

Mr. Lynch smiled and nodded. "This person is far too venomous. If you take it lightly, it will give the impression to others that the ministerial Palace can be provocative at any time."

"I don't know much about it, but Rodney has the ability to jump out and hurt me repeatedly. I don't want to see Rodney have a better time, daughter." Mrs. Lynch exclaimed angrily, "I don't want to deal with your auntie and his family in this matter. I don't like this family anymore."

Ryan listened intently. His gaze drifting to Forrest.

Forrest tensed his body and asked, "What do you see me doing?"

...

I see what you're doing, do you have any points in your heart? Ryan was speechless.

Sister Jessica, on the other hand, is pitiful. The man on this side will not be saved, and the future mother-in-law on the other side will not be welcomed.

"Auntie, in fact, neither my auntie nor the others are aware of what Rodney did. My uncle locked Rodney in the ancestral hall a few days ago, and Rodney ran out by himself." According to Ryan, "Today's Sister Jessica was the one who brought the people back; they are also aware that this matter has caused significant harm to Freya and have agreed to let us deal with it."

"Ryan, I see what you're saying; we're not unreasonable. It's impossible for Rodney to be this way, and it has nothing to do with how his parents were educated, and it makes me uneasy. Why didn't Jason report their own son's unethical behaviour? Persuading my daughter to marry him is like marrying a piece of dog skin plaster."

Mrs. Lynch sighed and said, "Dani will be fine in the future; we'll see what she thinks when she's older, but we still have Freya, and we don't want to lose her. Let's deal with that family once more."

Forrest lowered his eyes. His stern face couldn't tell what the expression was.
