

Chapter 2387

"Your faults . ... I haven't found it yet."

Freya thought for a while and said,
"Sometimes I think you're a little too deep in the city to understand, but if you're not a man, you'll be bullied."

"Deep in the city is my weakness."

Ryan said in a low voice, "There are a lot of women who don't like being with men who are too powerful, and they're afraid they'll end up with nothing. So ah, I don't think many women will think about marrying me after they get in serious contact with me, and I am . ... I don't care for brushing my teeth or smelly feet. Well, I have a temper, I drink and smoke, I eat and do nothing, I have a bad temper.. ... ..”

“Stop fooling me. You're not that kind of person.” Freya interrupted him with a smile.

“I'm serious. I'm just not like you. I might be like this to other women.” Ryan said softly.

Freya didn't say a word, as she were choked with cotton, sour and sweet.

"Freya, tomorrow... .. My Mom might come to you, but from what I know about My Mom, she probably won't say anything mean, but... .. I'll advice you to leave me. My Mom is a very nice person but Sometimes even I feel guilty myself... .. ."

Ryan said and smiled bitterly. "Can you hold on for me and not give up? I've reached a proposal with Jessica. There is Jessica who behind me. No one can force me."

"Didn't I promise you tonight? You're trying. I'll try." Freya said very firmly and went to bed early."

Before hung up the phone she said,
"Well, Ryan, good night."

.....

After Freya put down her phone, she suffered from total insomnia.

Her mind is full of twists and turns,
and when Heidi comes to talk to her tomorrow, she'll be absolutely mortified and ashamed.

Freya likes Heidi very much. She even wants to be like Heidi. She doesn't want to fall out with her.

Just thinking about it, She felt asleep in the middle of the night and when she woke up the next day, she had a headache.

When Freya finished her shower, she ran into Forrest coming down from the stairs.

"Good morning, uncle . ... .."

Forrest's eyes softened for a few seconds on Dani's face, and soon, as he looked at his sister, they fell cold again. "Is this the only man in the world who is the Snow family?"

Freya squinted and smiled. "So there's only a Snow woman in the world."

The air stagnated for a few seconds.

With his eyes bent, Forrest yanked his sister against the wall and asked in a deep voice, "Did Jessica say something to you, or did Ryan?"

"Ryan told me something, but... .. I heard you and Jessica quarreling at Snow's house a long time ago."

Freya lifted her long eyelashes and looked defiantly at his brother,

"And the last time, you were drinking and gave a drunken look when Jessica was there."

"Shut up."

Forrest couldn't listen anymore. His face collapsed and his normally stern face was like a statue: "I'm not like you, I'm not married not because of Jessica, because of I didn't meet the person which I wanted to marry"

"Oh, I hope you meet the one you want to marry sooner."

With a wink, Freya got out of his arm.

Chapter 2388

"Stop."

"I'm warning you, Freya, don't talk to your parents about this."

"Then you won't stop me, and I won't go." Freya looked at him with her chin raised.

Forrest watched her quietly for a moment, chuckling, "Even if it doesn't stop you, there are people who will stop you. Let me think that Jessica should be the first to take the brunt, and that's what she likes to do."

"Brother, you're thinking too much. Jessica is with us, and she has known about us for a long time."

Freya shrugged helplessly, "I think you have a big misunderstanding about Ms. Jessica."

"Misunderstanding?"

Forrest's dumb head was haunted.

"Don't you have no vengeance, you forget, if Jessica hadn't switched the contraceptive pill, if she hadn't threatened you, you'd be pregnant by the same stupid woman who married Rodney. That woman would do anything to gain and please her family. She's heartless and selfish."

"Brother, I hated it."

Freya sighed and looked down at Dani.

"But after Dani was born, I don't hate her any more. In any case, she may indeed do whatever it takes. But there are things that someone in the Snow family would have done without her secretly."

"You're pretty open minded."

"It's no wonder Rodney and Sarah and Patrick are bullied."

Freya said with a dark face,

"Brother, you are too much, but I can't. I can divorce Rodney smoothly and Ms. Jessica was behind and had done a lot of help."

Especially when she is in that position, there are people who have no other home."

"You still speak for Jessica?"

"You were brainwashed by Ryan. Yes, Ryan helped our family but what he was planning, you don't know. He is playing with you.

Freya rudely rolled her eyes at her brother, "Brother, isn't it normal that he wants me to like him, but he must be kind to me and good to my family, otherwise I'm trying to figure out what he is. Don't you like other people when you used to go after women, just stand there motionless and like you?"

" ....."

Forrest was sobbed.

"Brother, don't worry. If this relationship drags you down, I'll be separated from Ryan. I won't let my family forget about my relationship.
I understand you are my true backup."

Freya smiled at Forrest for being kind.

Forrest snorted coldly, "You're on your own."

Forrest would turn his head and leave.

"Brother, actually I think Jessica may have helped me this time because of your face." Freya suddenly said it behind his back.

Forrest's tall body pauses, "You looked down on me too much."

Forrest didn't turn around and just left.

Freya was going to the company after having breakfast. Her phone suddenly rang. It was Heidi.

"Freya, do you have a free time? There is a good breakfast restaurant open recently near your company . Would you like to try it together?"

Heidi's voice was as gentle as ever.

However, freya has a feeling of stress.

Chapter 2389

"Okay."

For this moment, Freya's mind was blank, but she responded instinctively.

"Then I'll wait for you."

It wasn't until Freya hung up the phone that she remembered she had just eaten breakfast.

But who wouldn't dare to agree with the Prime minister's wife?

Freya sighed with resignation. It's not that easy to fall in love with a princeling.

50 minutes later, she was at the restaurant and Heidi had booked.

There were probably special people and the breakfast room had been emptied. The guard was at the door, and outsiders were barred to enter the restaurant.

As Heidi sat on a special chair which prepared by manager. The manager of the breakfast restaurant, with his jittery introduction of various early names, is perhaps the most prestigious person he has ever received, and one who can boast for life.

"Godmother"

Freya walked in with a stiff upper lip.

Heidi nodded and said to the manager, "All right, now you go."

After the manager left, there were only two people inside, and Freya awkwardly shrank her slender fingers.

"Let's eat."

Heidi picked up the chopsticks, "I haven't had breakfast outside in a long time, and I've heard people say it tastes good. Have you been here?"

"No."

Shaking her head, Freya holds chopsticks mechanically and forgets she was full even before he has forgotten.

After eating one of the dumplings, Heidi looked at Freya and suddenly laughed.

Freya embarrassed herself, because her performance was so obvious, so superficial, and she didn't want to go on like this, and said directly: “Godmother, if you come to me, just say whatever you want. I am already prepared for this, even if you curse, I... ..”

“You didn't look like you're mentally prepared.”

Heidi took a leisurely sip of warm milk, "even if you seem stressed and suddenly find it harder to fall in love with Ryan?"

As Freya lowered her shoulder, she didn't answer the question:

"Godmother, I'm sorry. You and Godfather have always been so kind to me. I shouldn't cheat you, but I'm afraid that if you know, you will object to us being together ...."

"Why stayed together when you're afraid of opposition?" Heidi asked.

"The emotional thing . ... There was no control."

Thinking for a while, Freya only condensed a few words, "Ryan's good enough that I'm willing to try."

"My son is fine."

Heidi smiled slightly and said, "Ryan's not playing cards, he doesn't smoke, he's not shy, he's modest, he's low key, he's not obsessed with women, he's not hanging out with a bunch of friends and foxes,"

"Before his father ran for Prime minister, most people knew the name Rodney, Carson, Ryan, and many people were unfamiliar with it, because I told him that it's not useful for you to get to the last one."

"Godmother, you've always been wise."

"Actually I also understand that Ryan is very smart, and with the help of two people, he may have a long way to go, but . ... Ryan told me that he didn't want any of that, and I don't think he was that power-hungry person I knew."

"Maybe just because he's young . ...
...""How can he mature, he's only 26 years old, and when he's in love, he's still impulsive, and my son, I know, has ambitions, he's just temporarily hidden."

Freya was dumbfounded but not too surprised., "Then... Mom, did you ever think that his ability to control emotions and power could be in the future?"

Chapter 2390

"Then you know how difficult it is to walk?"

"You're our goddaughter and the ex-wife of Ryan's cousin."

Heidi deeply reminded her.

"It's a fact that will never be erased. Yes, you're just in love. If Ryan is ordinary, no one will accuse you. But he's the Prime minister's son. He's bound to be the center of attention. Even, there will be hundreds of people like Rodney on the Internet. Slowly, under the smear of these people, some will think you really cheated before you got married."

Freya's pretty face changed slightly.

"But for Ryan, it's only career, and for you, it's more scary," Heidi said with a gentle sigh.

"This world is often harsher for girls, and all kinds of nasty language on the Internet can come at you like a tsunami, and it's not good, and it can even affect the reputation of Freycatheli because you're the founder."

Freya felt a heavy breath in her chest.

She's only too aware of the power of cyberviolence to be afraid and fearful.

"Freya, believe me, I didn't mean to embarrass you nor didn't like you because of you and Ryan. We had time. You were a good kid."

"I don't mind that you're married to a woman who still has the right to be happy," Heidi said also adding, "What I'm really worried about is the relationship you two had, a world where it's either black or white or white as you think, and where a lot of people's minds are very dirty."

"I understand."

Freya took a sip from heidi's glass of water, without tasting it carefully.

There's chaos in her mind.

Just like yesterday, when Rodney saw that she and Ryan were dating, she decided that the two had put on a green hat for him.

And many others, too.

They don't believe the truth, they just abuse people with their own ideas.

There was a time when Rodney was disgraced and Osher Corporation was boycotted by everyone.

What if Freya's in a scandal and
What to do with the Freycatheli?

Freycatheli does not belong to her alone, it belongs to everyone.

"Think about it."

Heidi said warmly, "Ryan said,
'You're just in love, and it's not certain if you can get married. He's right. I'd say, just for a relationship and it's worth trying to deal with. Besides, you've just come out of a failed marriage and you probably won't go into another marriage for three or four years."

Freya laughs miserably.

There probably isn't a better mind-bending person in the world than Heidi.

Yeah, other people are trying their best to get married, and they're just trying to be in love.

For the sake of love, it's worth plugging the Freycatheli's reputation and hard-won foundation.

She was dazed.

Today, Freya faces repeated emotional failures, which is why it is clear that a career owned by a woman is the least likely to betray her.

At least when you're abandoned by the world, there's always something in your hands.

After breakfast, Heidi got up. "I have meetings later and have to go. I'd like to do your time at the ministerial palace with Dani."

Chapter 2391

"Okay."

"GodMom, if Ryan and I had to be together desperately, would you hate me?" Freya stood up stiffly.

"I won't hate you, and I won't use any means to break you up; my pride and reputations will not allow me to do so."

"I just want to tell you that there are some things that can't be changed, a decision will change the fate of many people, as for the future, whether it will be bittersweet or a grudge, no one knows." Heidi said solemnly.

Freya sat motionless on the spot.

I'm not sure how long it took, but the box's door was kicked open with force, and Ryan entered anxiously,

"Freya, I'm late, my Mom didn't say anything bad." Freya was her Mom.

A blank stare, take a look at Ryan.
This is who she is now in love with.

Ryan is so young, handsome, intelligent, and smart.

Are they persevering in the face of adversity? Or do you hold a grudge?

"What's the matter with you, talk?
Did my Mom's harsh words hurt you?" When Ryan noticed her dazed expression, he immediately yanked

her up from the chair and carried her into his arms.

"No, didn't you say last night that your Mom wouldn't say hurtful things to you?" Freya put on a brave face. "How come I suddenly don't believe it?"

"She won't, based on what I know about my Mom."

Ryan held her little face up, and Ryan's face was tense. "But my Mom can talk, and I'm afraid she'll persuade you to leave me; I wanted to come over early, but I was caught by the office. The matter is intertwined."

"You seem to be working today. Is it okay to run out like this and go back quickly?" Freya said bitterly in her heart.

"Something is wrong with you." Ryan locked his gaze on her.

"Can't you postpone work for me, Ryan?" Freya simply desired to be alone for a short period of time.

"You are doing your best for the country and the people. You should prioritise work over love."

"Now is an extraordinary time, and you are the first for me."

Ryan clutched Freya's arm tightly and her tone becoming agitated.

"Don't tell me I'm not serving the people; I'm just a civil servant, a worker."

"But you'll make your parents even more disappointed because they'll think I'm interfering with your career. Freya pushed Ryan.

"Let's go, let's get to work."

"I'm not leaving unless you tell me clearly what my Mom just told you."
Freya frowned tightly as Ryan sat directly on the chair, the rogue aura emanating from her body.

"GodMom said... There are many people on the Internet like Rodney, Ryan, even if your family can't do anything about you, how will the outside world perceive us?" Will they think in the same way as Rodney? GodMom thought that I was having an affair with you before I divorced."

"Many people in this world have dirty thoughts and you have never experienced the kind of thing that clearly shows you nothing bad."
Freya said fearfully.

Yes, but no matter how much you argue, that feeling of helplessness and despair is especially unpleasant,

I don't care and for you, I can face it, but I have parents, children, and even I am the founder of Freycatheli. How can I be worthy of admiring them if something goes wrong? There is also a group of ecstatic workers. Even when Dani grows up, she may face accusations from others."

"Freya, you promised me yesterday, and it's not even a day before, so you don't believe me?" Ryan's dark eyes sank gradually.

"Can you then keep your mouth shut on the Internet?" "It's impossible to keep us from spreading the word."

"Sooner or later, people will know, not just me. If you don't do it well, people will say that you seduce married women," Freya said with a pale face.

Chapter 2392

"Do you intend to give up?" Ryan's star eyes became enraged.

"I'm not sure, will you let me relax for a few days?" Freya's red eyes beamed at him, pleading.

"I admit that I am timid, cowardly, and not as strong as you because of what I have been through." There are too many things, I've been betrayed too many times, I'm afraid, and I don't have that much faith."

Ryan looked at Freya for a long time, her eyes filled with pain, disappointment, and a hint of anger.

Ryan appears to have always rushed forward desperately alone in this relationship. He paved the way and extended his arms to her, but she remained curled up in the turtle shell and didn't dare to poke her head out.

For a while, the two stood silently facing each other.

Ryan took two steps back and his face was cold.

"Okay."

"I'll give you time."

Ryan said, "but... if I try to take ninety-nine steps toward you and you still won't take one step, I can't help myself."

Ryan turned around after speaking and slammed the door shut and walked away.

Freya closed her eyes and tears streamed down her cheeks.

It's not that she doesn't want to take that step; she's afraid that if she does, the two of them will be faced with what thousands of people say, and Rodney's ticking time bomb, like yesterday's bizarre appearance, will cause him to give up.

Freya was unsure of anything.

Freya went to the president's office instead of the laboratory after returning to the company in a daze.

Catherine was taken aback by Freya's depressed appearance.

"Cathy knows about Freya and Ryan everthings."

Freya sobbed as she hugged Catherine and told her what had happened, "I can feel Ryan is disappointed in me, but I'm really selfish." I was very happy when I fell in love with him, but I didn't dare to think about the future. I just wanted to enjoy the present but I didn't dare to think about the future."

"Oh, it's natural; you've just gotten divorced and are in a relationship;

who would dare to think about the future, especially marriage?" You should exercise extreme caution in this matter. Actually, your consideration is not incorrect."
Catherine reassured her.

According to Rodney's ecstatic appearance yesterday, he will not give up and may even do something extreme."

"Yeah, I always get the impression that Sarah stimulated him like a different person." Freya shivered suddenly. "What would you do if you were me, Cathy?"

Freya exclaimed but she overthrew herself first, "Forget it. why are you asking? Your Mom is the richest woman in the world and your stepdad is even wealthier than the country, who wants power, money, and money, which man do you want to be with?" When it comes to falling in love, as long as your fingers are crossed, even other parents will want to please you."

Catherine laughed, "If I was you, I would make my relationship public first."

"What... What?" stammered Freya.

Did she have an ear problem, or was she hallucinating?

Chapter 2393

"The question now is what is Rodney thinking about? will he let you get away with it? Have you ever thought that before everyone scolded him and even boycotted him because he cheated first, then if he takes this opportunity to blame the infidelity on you, will he be able to clear his innocence?" Catherine analysed.

"No, it can't be that bad." Freya was taken aback; if Rodney did this, the nature would change completely, becoming ruthless and vicious.

"Who knows, human nature is the most perplexing; before yesterday, you knew that whenever Rodney saw you and Ryan together, he would run up to you and call you a slut out of control, and even completely forgot about the past." Is he ever going to betray you?"

Catherine understood Freya's thoughts, Rodney is a hateful person, but it all stems from his blind love for Sarah, so he hates it.

Man's plight must be pitiful.

But when a person loses everything and falls from the aloof Young master snow to the dust, the company is gone, his parents' love is gone, his friends are gone, and even his ex-wife who wants to remarry is with his cousin. Didn't you like it?
Or to outright hatred?

Catherine was unsure as well.

Rodney, based on his reaction yesterday, did not have any regrets.

As if he had become a victim, he was blaming others.

"I studied psychology after Shaun's accident."

Catherine said, "Some people will subconsciously shirk their responsibilities. They will develop habitual behaviours after a period of time. Consider the case of Rodney. He made you pregnant, then blamed yourself for seducing him and was wanting to marry into a wealthy family. He didn't believe there was anything wrong with him. He spent the entire night with other women and blamed you for not believing him and for not realising he was married. People should pay attention because after you divorce. He doesn't think he did anything wrong, but blamed you for being vicious and deserving of divorce and abandonment."

"Indeed...it seems like this has always been the case." Freya said with eyes widening.

"That's why I asked Garrett to play the part and set up a scene that Rodney could see with his own eyes and couldn't make excuses for."

Catherine said as she sat in h office chair, took out a blank piece of paper, and analysed it with Freya, "No man wants to admit that Rodney is being cuckolded, he would rather find various reasons for Sarah, just as Sarah once abandoned him. Why did Rodney believe her again after a few words? Rodney was unwilling to admit his failure, and Sarah's excuses provided him with an excellent reason. I still believe I am attractive and well-liked by others."

"Very... very profound, in short, you mean that he is very good at shirk responsibility, To escape the problem?" Freya pursed her lips and fell into a complicated confusion.

"Yes."

Catherine nodded, "Did Sarah come to see you after he was imprisoned?" Rodney regrets and irritates, yes, but what he regrets is that Sarah duped him. Is Rodney stupid and didn't see Sarah's true face clearly?"

"That's correct." Freya gave a nod.

"It's very simple, Rodney blamed Sarah and he blamed Sarah for the reason for your broken marriage and didn't realise that he had a big problem. Why didn't Sarah lie to Chester, if you don't lie to other people, just lie to him."

Catherine sneered, "Now, maybe Rodney has found a suitable reason for himself. Oh, it's not that I'm stupid, it's that you women are too vicious, Ryan is too insidious, you want to divorce him a long time ago, even if there is no Sarah, you will not live peacefully with him."

Freya was horrified. It was obviously summer but she felt Chilled her heart.

What happened to her over the course of eight lifetimes to elicit such a magnificent man?

"You don't need to be surprised."

Catherine raised her eyebrows,
"Aren't you curious? Carson and Jessica are not like that and they all came out of the same stomach but why did Rodney change like this?"

"Cathy, Please give me some pointers." Freya exclaimed with admiration.

Chapter 2394

"It's very simple. Rodney was with Sarah for over ten years, then they married and lived together and he was constantly brainwashed by Sarah, who can be washed into black as if she is the best innocent victim."

"You forgot, Sarah abused animals before. How cruel things were, and later stabbed Rodney. Of course he felt that Cruel but he is still suppressed by Sarah and he has been suppressed time and time again and can't let it go." Catherine reminded Freya.

Freya was taken aback. She hadn't given it much thought at the time, but after being reminded by Catherine, she realised that she probably never really knew Rodney as former husband.

Freya hoped, if at all possible, that Rodney would not be so embarrassed.

This is a fact that cannot be changed because Rodney is Dani's father.

Freya sat in the office instead of going to the laboratory in the morning.

"Freya, let's have lunch together?" Wendy asked around noon.

"I only had breakfast with my godMom this morning, Auntie."

Freya didn't want to discuss more, so she got right to the point. "Did you also come to convince me to end my relationship with Ryan?"

"Yes."

"Freya, you can fall in love and start your life again. We are all happy for you, but it shouldn't be Ryan. Let's split up, it's good for everyone." Wendy said helplessly.

Freya felt an indescribable annoyance in her heart. It's fine for Heidi to come to her, but why should Wendy come to her? "Auntie, do I disagree?" Will my uncle and the old master Snow contact me later?"

"Your grandfather did not sleep all night in rage. It's ridiculous, and... Rodney doesn't understand, I'm doing it for you." Wendy lamented bitterly that her son had no control over it.

"Auntie, it's none of your business if I fall in love. I haven't had much contact with you since I divorced Rodney. Even if I try to discourage it, Ryan's parents, not you two, should attend."

"I'm sorry, I'm busy." Freya abruptly hung up the phone.

My heart is not at peace right now.

Rodney was a sh*t thing when she was in love.

Rodney's approval is required for her to fall in love with someone, Why? Freya became increasingly enraged as she pondered the situation. She didn't even go to work in the afternoon, and drove home early.

A black car suddenly rushed towards her from the other side as she was about to drive to the community's gate.

Freya was so terrified that she slammed on the brakes to avoid hitting it.

"How do you drive?" Freya exclaimed angrily as she stepped out of the car.

Chapter 2395

Rodney emerged from the black car before the words could be finished. He had a chin-length beard growing at the corners of his mouth and bloodshot eyes. When Freya's heart began to tremble with the sensation of being choked, she subconsciously turned around and wanted to flee.

Rodney strode up to catch up. He grabbed Freya's collar from behind, and pulled with all of his might.

"what".

Freya was taken completely by surprise. Her entire body was dragged to the ground, and her tailbone and arm were injured as a result of the fall.

"Get up for me."

Rodney dragged her away from the ground, where Freya had fallen out of control. He then dragged her to the black car.

"Please, Rodney, stop what you're doing and allow me to leave." The recall of Catherine's analysis flooded back to Freya, and when she saw Rodney's ruthless appearance, she was terrified that she would not be able to get into the car, even if she died.

Freya was struggling with everything she had.

"You struggle, and then you try another time."

"Freya, I'll give you one last face now, and I'm not sure if it'll be good or bad." Rodney said while squeezing her neck adamantly.

"You're insane, you're mentally ill."

"Help...", Freya shouted with a giddy excitement.

Rodney bowed her head and covered her mouth immediately.

"All right, since you don't want to get in my car, you'll have to get into yours."

Rodney snatched her by the hair.

Freya's painful eyes were red, but she couldn't say anything because her mouth was closed. She could only kick Rodney desperately.

"Stop."

The two of them were about to leave when a grey car pulled up in front of them and two tall bodyguards rushed out of the vehicle.

"Rodney, please release Ms. Freya as soon as possible."

In a flash, a man in a black jacket walked over to give his warning.

In a narrowing of his eyes, Rodney prodded Freya closer to the man.

The man in the jacket rushed over to Freya's side and inquired, "Ms. Freya, are you all right? We were sent by Master Ryan to protect you."

"Quick, quick, call the police."
Freya answered the phone with a grin. "He was wanting to kidnap me."

"When did I kidnap you? I just want to talk to you in the car?" says the kidnapper.

Rodney drew his brows together and flashed a row of pearly white teeth. "You came dangerously close to hitting my car just now. Now, I was only a little enraged at the time that I lost control."

"You..."

Freya was appalled when she saw Rodney, who had taken on this appearance.

It's unbelievable how someone can devolve into something like this.

We've been divorced for a long time, Rodney, so please don't go too far with your behaviour."

Freya screamed uncontrollably, If you could just please stop bothering me, I asked. "I didn't do anything wrong, I didn't cheat in my marriage and I am Freya and completely innocent."

"Which woman would admit to herself that she had cheated on her husband?"

Rodney looked at Freya with a cold expression on his face. "If you didn't divorce me, I wouldn't marry that wicked woman in Sarah, not even you and Ryan.

Freya, I despise you. Do you know that I never considered getting a divorce from you at first, who asked you to divorce me and if you didn't divorce me, I wouldn't marry that wicked woman in Sarah. But not only was I embarrassed, but I was also derailed, and I buckled the dirty pot on myself, which made me well-known. I've deteriorated into this state today, and you must take responsibility."

"It appears that you are ill." When Freya said, "Divorce is also your agreement, it's you who can't wait to marry Sarah, it's none of my business." Freya was on the verge of losing her mind.

Chapter 2396

"Oh, didn't you purposefully blame Eliza in order to make me despise you before you filed for divorce? At first, I thought you were sincere in your efforts to protect your friends, but now I realise that protecting friends is merely a pretence on your part. Simply being with Ryan is what you desire."

Rodney's eyes glowed with bloodthirsty gleam as Freya spoke and she became increasingly animated, "Otherwise, why were you compelled to spend the night in the ministerial palace following your divorce? Freya, you are dreaming if your daughter recognises Ryan as her father. I assure you that this is not the case."

Freya was scared, really scared.
Who was her husband at the time?
"I'll say it again, Rodney: I'm not sorry for anything I did. I'm sorry for everything I didn't do."

Freya exclaimed enthusiastically what was on her mind: "If I'm living in the ministerial palace in order to avoid you, do you think I've changed my mind about this? Quickly, allow me to state that I have not changed my mind, that I only liked you a little bit at the time, that yes, I married you, but that I did not love you at all at the time, that I promised to live a good life with you, and that it is only to provide Dani with a complete home."

"I understand what you're saying."

'I've never loved you, so after I divorce you, I'll fall in love with someone else because I've never loved you.'

As if he were about to suffocate,
Rodney 's pupils constricted violently, and his stimulated chest constricted even more sharply.

"Can you tell me what you said?"
Rodney rushed up to confront her,
his eyes widening in anger.

"Calm down, Young Master Snow."
He was quickly stopped by two bodyguards.

Despite being separated by two bodyguards, Rodney accused Freya.

"I'm so good to you, but you actually said that you didn't fall in love with me. You liar, it was a waste of my life to surprise you every morning. You said you loved me once."

"I don't remember if I said it or not." Freya was also compelled to disregard Rodney's own reasoning
"Even if I did say it, it was only to put a smile on your face. Having said that, I made a promise to you at the time, and I am extremely happy with my decision. I'm sorry, I didn't even like it because you didn't deserve it, and please don't say anything about surprises because your surprises make me sick."

"For the first time in my life, I gave you birth and gave birth to a child for you. I'm afraid your generosity to me does not compare to Sarah's little finger of generosity."

Freya reprimanded, "You never seem to have any. You have shown me respect, but please allow me to love you; why are you so shameless?"

"Freya will not let me go because I want to teach her a lesson. I love her so much, but she tramples on me and hurts me, and Freya will not let her go easily.” Rodney couldn’t take it any longer, and he and the bodyguard slammed into each other with all their might.

“Ms. Freya, hurry up.”

Rodney’s arms were grabbed by bodyguards, but Rodney was already on the verge of bursting out laughing.

“Be careful.”

Freya gave Rodney a cold stare before turning around and walking away.

When Freya returned to the Lynch family villa, her body was still trembling from the anger as she had felt earlier.

"Can you tell me why you returned so early today?" Mrs. Lynch came out of the room and asked.

When Freya got out of the car and saw her Mom, tears streamed down Freya's face, "Mom..."

Freya cried out.

She sobbed uncontrollably as she hugged Mrs. Lynch.

"What exactly is wrong with you, Freya? Who was the bully in your life?" "Did someone from the Snow Family come and bother you?" Mrs. Lynch exclaimed in a panic.

"It's Rodney."

Freya's hatred for her was palpable. "Rodney almost hit me with his car and dragged me."

Freya sobbed, wiping away her tears.

Her elbow began to hurt immediately after she finished speaking, and when she opened her sleeve, she discovered that a large piece of skin had been scraped into the inside of her sleeve and was dripping blood.

"Oops."

"Rodney, this cretin, I'll have your brother contact the police." Mrs. Lynch yelled.

Chapter 2397

Forrest's rage erupted when he received the phone call from his Mom, Mrs. Lynch.

Forrest quickly regained his composure as soon as he held the phone in his hand.

It is pointless to contact the police in this situation. After beating Sarah the previous time, Rodney spent a lot of time at the police station, but he was released not long after. Furthermore, he had no intention of beating Freya and kidnapping her this time. Not to mention the fact that Freya's family members are still at home.

The police would only verbally instruct Rodney on a few basic phrases at the most.

This is an issue that needs to be addressed at its source.

Forrest clenched his fingers as he dialled the phone that had been hidden deep within his heart, but he was unable to connect for the time being, despite his best efforts.

His face fell, and he hurried out of the office and picking up his car keys in the process.

The car proceeded directly to the Snow Family's old residence.

"Mr. Forrest, who are you looking for?" said the security guard at the door when he saw Forrest approaching and opened the door.

I'm looking for Rodney's parents, get out of my way." Forrest walked through the door.

"Mr. Forrest, hold on a second, the snow family are still dining..."

Forrest was being pursued by the security guard.

Forrest didn't even bother to acknowledge him and rushed straight into the restaurant.

After hearing the noise, Old Master Snow and the others who were eating noticed it and looked up to see Forrest, who had entered the room, and frowned.

"Forrest, what's the matter with you?" Jason was the first to rise.

"Rodney, please allow him to leave."
Forrest's cold eyes squinted as she squinted.

It is in the ancestral hall, at the back, that he can be found..."

"Call someone out." Jason said as he turned to face the servant.

"Young master Snow is not here."
the servant exclaimed, astonished.

Jason was taken aback, and his expression changed slightly.

"All right, since Rodney's not here, I'll have to rely on you as parents."

"Your son, on the way home from work, my sister almost hit him with a car and attempted to kidnap and demand money." Forrest said gloomily. There was no one to stop me, my sister had been taken away by him a long time ago, and now Freya's hands have been injured by Rodney. Uncle and auntie, I just wanted to ask you how you discipline your son."

"Ah?"

"Forrest, please accept my apologies. Rodney was provoked by the affair between Freya and Ryan." Wendy was taken aback. Old master Snow gave Rodney a harsh lesson the day before and forcing him to spend the entire night on his knees in the ancestral hall.

"I even had Rodney locked up, so I'm not sure when he got out of the house." Jason explained with a scowl on his face.

Rodney should see a psychiatrist, I request that you do so. "He has a problem here, I don't understand, it's been divorced for so long, why is he still pestering my sister?

When he got married to another woman and got rid of my sister, did our Lynch family bother him, or did you think our Lynch family was outsiders? so you can bully as much as you want, or you won't let it go if you don't cause trouble." Forrest pointed at his head in frustration.

"In my opinion."

Wendy and Jason were both unattractive; after all, they had been chastised for their son's cognitive difficulties.

However, the couple is also extremely irritating, and They really wish that they had never given birth to this son in the first place.

In a solemn voice, Old master snow stated, "It is not impossible to resolve this situation. Rodney will naturally refrain from bothering you as long as Freya and Ryan are no longer together. Furthermore, if he bothers me again, I will personally break Rodney's leg."

"Does my sister have to get his permission before she can date anyone?" Forrest snorted angrily. It's either today or tomorrow that She can't date Ryan, and with other guys or my sister will have to be single for the rest of her life."

Forrest said angrily.

Chapter 2398

Forrest was enraged right there,
"It's true that my Lynch family is hushed, but that doesn't imply that we are afraid of your Snow Family.
Rodney was your Snow family's baby, wasn't it Freya. When Rodney cheated and sent my sister to the hospital, I vowed to your Snow Family that I would cause them as much trouble as I could for a long time. I endured and withheld for Dani's sake, but your Snow Family is improving with every passing day."

"Let me say it again, Whether the Lynch family is your opponent or not, if you do not take good care of your son, it will be a big deal for our Lynch Family to make a big fuss and even if you die, you will be able to fight even if the Lynch family is your opponent. Your reputation is tarnished, you are unable to remain in the capital, and the most significant development is that our Lynch family will return to Melbourne."

After speaking angrily, Forrest marched to the door and before turned around, he said, "Also, my sister has her own business and she wants to be with her. She does not want to be with anyone else. No one has the right to interfere with your relationship even if you break up;

after all, you have had nothing to do with her for a long time; since you have so much time to force her, you might as well force Ryan as well."

The door slammed shut as Forrest said "Bang" and walked out the door.

Old master snow slammed the table in frustration "It is true that no one would dare to enter the Snow house with the intent of causing trouble. It is unreasonable to want to tarnish the reputation of our Snow Family solely on the basis of our reliance on the Lynch family."

"Calm down, Dad. We need to wait until Rodney returns to talk about it before we do anything."

Wendy didn't want to let the trouble continue because, after all, the rabbit would bite if it was in a hurry, and he didn't want to risk it.

"Find that cretin and bring him to justice. They are so enraged that they have lost their appetite for food." Old master snow became enraged and threw his chopsticks.

The phone rang just as Forrest was about to walk out of the Snow Family's old house.

It was the same phone number that had been called before, but no one had answered.

With his dark eyes fixed on the phone, he stared at it for a few moments before pressing the hang up button with a nonchalant expression on his face.

In the arrivals hall of the airport.

Jessica's beautiful brows twitched together unconsciously as she stared at the phone that had been hung up before her eyes.

"Ms. Jessica, your car will be waiting for you at the airport gate."
The secretary had arrived to remind her.

"Yeah."

Jessica nodded, and Ryan's phone rang just as they were about to get into the car.

"Jessica, this afternoon, Rodney went in search of Freya in order to cause her trouble. Freya is safe because I have sent someone to look after her. Otherwise, he may resort to violence in order to remove people from their homes."

With anger concealed, Ryan said:
"Brother Rodney has gone insane. I will not allow him to roam outside.
He will either go abroad for me, or I will have to send him away by force."

"It's no surprise... "

Jessica was taken aback, and her piercing blue eyes were a little distracted by the situation.

"Why?"

"Forrest had contacted me before, but I was on the plane at the time." Jessica stated.

"Forrest should be on the lookout for you in connection with Rodney's affairs. Later, I learned that he had visited the Snow Family, who had not been pleased with grandpa's behaviour." "You should find Rodney and control him as soon as possible."

Ryan yelled angrily. "I'm afraid that he... will get stuck in a rut and join my Dad's competitors."

"Impossible."

Jessica was taken aback. The destruction of the entire Snow Family would be the result if Rodney carried out his threat.

After all, it was Jessica's younger brother who grew up watching Rodney, and Jessica didn't believe that Rodney would become so vicious.

"I don't want to be the one who doubts it."

Ryan pursed his lips together in a complicated manner "However, Rodney has transformed into someone who is completely different from before. From yesterday to today, he has continually boosted my bottom line's performance. If you think about it, keeping Rodney outside would be a ticking time b*mb. Have you ever considered the possibility that if he causes trouble for the Snow Family, this will be his chance to redeem himself?"

Chapter 2399

What a smart person Jessica is!
She was able to decipher Ryan's meaning with a simple mental shift.

Because of those things, is Rodney going to make the entire Snow family miserable?

Without owing anything, The Snow family gave Rodney the best education possible. In the absence of Rodney's love for Sarah and his refusal to cherish to Sarah, everything would in Sarah's hands which are belongs from Rodney.

After some time, Jessica had recalled a conversation with Rodney at home.

Rodney had said, "Sister Jessica, I finally got it. It's fortunate that you took control of the Snow Corporation at the start. If it was up to me, I'd be a complete fool. You're a better than me for this position."

Also Jessica had said to Rodney,
"Everyone falls down, but every time they fall, they have to reflect on the reasons for real progress.
Rodney, you can make a comeback if you're willing to work hard."

It's just that Rodney's thoughts at the time will remain unchanged, right?

"Ryan, I will send someone from Snowden to find Rodney." Jessica said after pondering a while.

Ryan talked with Jessica a few more time then both were hung up their phones normally.

In the Ministerial Palace.

It was evening time. Ryan sat on the balcony with expressionless face. He had a cigarette in his hand. Although he didn't usually smoke, but today he has a heavy heart.

3 minutes later, Ryan put on his coat and went downstairs.

In his attempt to leave the Ministerial Palace by car, a security guard stopped him and said, "I'm sorry, Secretary Snow, no one is allowed to leave the Ministerial palace after evening."

As he tightened his grip on the steering, Ryan thought, "What if I have to leave?"

It's imperative that you understand what will happen if there is a disturbance in the Ministerial Palace. The captain of the guard spoke straightforwardly without any modesty or arrogance.

Ryan sneered, then he made his way back to the main building.

Nathan, Heidi, and the two secretaries were all gathered on the first floor to go over the details.

When Ryan entered between conversation, Nathan quickly frowned and said, "Go out! We're talking about something."

Ryan walked over and said, "Dad, Let me go out to the Ministerial Palace now, please. Freya's hand is scratched and I want to meet and accompany her and want to discuss something else by the way."

"You guys go out first." Heidi instructed to the secretaries.

After the secretaries had left, Nathan stood up and closed the document with a slap and said, "Scratched Freya's hand! It's such a big deal but you were asked to run over at night. Ryan, I don't know why I gave it to you so long ago when you're so busy. The project plan, why you haven't written it to me yet?"

Chapter 2400

"Dad, I can't finish the project in a single day. I'm going to do some research and gather some information. You also let me know, so I'm not worried..."

Nathan became enraged, "If you're not in a hurry, why are you doing things for me the way you are? As far as I can tell, you're merely fantasising about falling in love right now."

"Dad, I'd like to go out tonight."
Ryan argued with his Dad impatiently.

"This afternoon, Rodney was trying to kidnap Freya forcibly and now that he can't be reached and I have no idea where Rodney is hiding now. The consequences of his running off to find your opponent are dire. What I have to discuss with Freya is that our relationship should be made public as soon as possible."

"What's the matter?"

Nathan immediately slapped the table and scolded. "Ryan, you're good but you don't want break up the relationship with Freya and you told me to make it public, you are going crazy."

Dad, at this time, only the one who takes the initiative and speaks up first will get the first crack at this opportunity. Rodney will undoubtedly show his mettle, and if we don't act quickly, he'll destroy everything. we must take action against him first.

Nathan couldn't bear it any longer,
"I grew up watching Rodney and I'm his uncle. How could I opponent? "

Ryan sneered mockingly "I don't think Ryan sees you as his uncle anymore. Dad, do you think that's still the case? Because of the extreme nature of Rodney's thoughts the night before, no one could predict what he would do next. The only thing, we could do was take precautions and fire the first shot. But why did Rodney suddenly disappear? Even we can't get in touch, so what is Rodney going to do next?

"Are his parents aware of what's going on?" Heidi burst out laughing.

"Yeah."

No media would dare to speak up if Rodney went to the media on his own, but if he was looking for Dad's competitors, it would be different. The people really want to see Dad have some scandals during his tenure, so Dad can't get re-elected, and people don't want to wait for him to sit for another four years."

Ryan nodded, "Mom, think about it."

Nathan's expression changed. The more Nathan pondered it, the more irritated he was.

"Son, I warned you long ago, and you are the only one who will cause trouble for me." Nathan slapped Ryan on the back of the head.

No, I didn't mean any harm to you, Dad. It's just your adorable nephew."

Ryan coldly responded, "Freya and I are in a normal and non-romantic relationship, but if Rodney insists on dancing, then so be it. The Prime minister should do this to help outsiders deal with you, so come out and jump and give Freya and me the hat we had before we divorced, which will help us deal with you better. Sc*mbag: Rodney is a liar. When Rodney puts Freya's dirty hat on, the rest of the world will see Rodney's plight. There will be public outrage when it is revealed that the Prime minister helps his own son rob other people's wives while he is in office, as he is repeatedly duped by women."

Nathan's forehead suddenly scalded.

"It's a good thing for Rodney to do this, because his career is a mess now, and it was he who wreaked havoc in the Snow family by trying to calm the storm. Rodney has to think about what his mouth will say in the end. You must send Rodney in to the house if he wishes to return to the Snow family. Sister Jessica's only option is to make a deal."

It's time to stop saying it now.

Rodney's betrayal would have terrifying consequences, but Nathan had to admit it.

If Rodney had no evidence, as Freya's ex-husband, he would have publicly accused the Ministerial palace of bullying the outside world.

Then it is almost impossible for Nathan to be re-elected.

But the problem is that even if Ryan makes his relationship with Freya publicly, no one knows what it will look like.

"Dad, as long as no one sees us because we are not related by blood and we truly love to each other. Regardless of how we proceed, if Rodney says it first, the public will have a preconception of what we're about. If you give it some thought, you may come to doubt what we say."

Nathan sarcastically said, "You have a good idea. No one can stop you from having Freya in your life if you open it up, right? That's something you should know, right? This time, you have no idea how much it has gotten into my head."

"This is something I can handle if you have faith in me, Dad." Ryan said.

Chapter 2401

Also Ryan said with smiling, "If you don't want it, Forget it, and don't expect Freya to tell me anything."
After all, my mom went to her today for ideological work, or my mom has the means to do so right now. The people who received it are in a state of shock, and we nearly split up."

Nathan glanced at his wife suspiciously. He had no idea that it would be so powerful.

It's a shame that Rodney decided to break out.

"Let me think about this matter."
Nathan had a headache.

"Don't even think about it. Ryan, let it go, after this time... I don't want to." Heidi said calmly.

Let Rodney come out in Australia, but don't give him a chance to make a comeback."

Nathan was startled, his thin lips moved.

Rodney is not a fool in the real sense. If he is really stupid, how could he create an Osher Corporation? He hatred Freya and Ryan and he may turn on us and attack our son. The first step is to remove the bug, regardless of whether it bites or not.

While you may have considered getting him out of Australia and resuming your international fighting career, you only need to keep him safe in your own life.” Heidi’s expression was blank as she said this.

Just being a waste who can’t die of hunger.”

Nathan sighed and frowned, “brother Jason must have done something wrong!”

“Rodney become bad and we can’t let him continue If things go on like this. Let alone Rodney. Rodney has even beaten Sarah and now Freya, so I can’t guarantee that Freya will be beaten to death by Rodney.”

Heidi made a decisive decision,
"Ryan, don't go to Freya either.
Let's talk about it with the team right now and make it public before 11 p.m. tonight. Freya is also a cautious person. You must wait for her to agree, discuss with her and persuade her; it may be postponed until tomorrow. I wouldn't give us a chance until tomorrow."

This time, Ryan was also taken aback. After a brief pause, Ryan stated, "Freya will definitely be very angry without her consent."

Heidi looked helplessly at her son, a very intelligent person, how could he be so confused when confronted with feelings.

"Freya's not unreasonable, either, and she'll understand."

"Then I'll go now, Mom." Ryan said.

"It appears that you supported Ryan and Freya's presence." Nathan said helplessly after Ryan left.

"Come on, let's Freya and Ryan get together. I didn't support them at first, but now I'm powerless to stop it. And they are only in love at this moment but it's uncertain whether they can get married or not. Let's not worry about it, maybe they will break up by themselves." Heidi said her husband while shaking her head.

Nathan was speechless for a moment before asking, "What if Ryan and freya get married?"

"Then let's end it."

Heidi said while looking at her husband, "I didn't mind before because I was afraid of the two of them. They will cause problems if they insist on being together. They are now going to make it public. There are only two possibilities if they can persevere to the end. One is that they have the support of the outside world. They can't be separated, and if that's the case, why should I?"

Nathan was speechless.

It makes sense, but Nathan was unable to refute it.

It was 10 p.m.

Mrs. Lynch came up to Freya as she was about to go to bed and said,
"Your hand is injured; why don't I take Dani to sleep at night?"

"You didn't sleep well, Dani would wake you up."

Freya arranged Dani on the bed.

Dani cheerfully jumped up on the bed.

Mrs. Lynch sighed as she observed Dani's carefree demeanour, then remembered the child's father and said, "By the way, your hand is injured. Why didn't Ryan come to visit you? Did he care about you over the phone?"

Freya was extremely uneasy when it came to this subject.

Don't look it as a minor ailment. Ryan used to come here no matter how busy he was, but today... he hasn't even made a phone call.

It's not that Ryan didn't know what he had.

Chapter 2402

What does it mean when there are no condolences?

Are you still irritated by the morning?

When Ryan was so weak in the morning, it was natural for him to be angry.

Ryan had previously sent me a Whatsapp message. "Mom, go to sleep." Freya said vaguely.

"Would you like to make a phone call? Can you really be that concerned about sending Whatsapp message?" "Before Patrick and Rodney, I didn't strictly supervise; this time you fall in love. I must be strict, and I won't let you be deceived by men again." Mrs. Lynch mumbled.

Freya was speechless. Was she really that stupid?

Despite the fact that I met a bad man several times.

But you can't blame her for producing too many bad men.

Freya took Dani to sleep on the bed after finally sending Mrs. Lynch away.

It's just that putting a child to bed isn't always easy. She coaxed her for a long time, and when Dani finally fell asleep in her arms, someone from her group of best friends Made a whatsapp video call to her.

Freya didn't dare to look because she was afraid Dani would wake up if she moved.

The Whatsapp message group kept ringing, despite the fact that no one knew what Catherine and Eliza were talking about.

Dani didn't put the little guy on the bed until she was finally asleep, and then Freya picked up the phone to watch.

Catherine: [I'm going to make it public with Ryan without saying a word. It's awesome. you're scaring me, okay?]

Eliza: [It's only been a short time, but the number of hot searches has skyrocketed. I estimated that reporters from all walks of life will have to work all night tonight to make up for lost time.]

Catherine: [Hehe, not only do the reporters have to stay up all night to work overtime, but Manager Cruz from the PR department just called me and asked if I should stay up all night to deal with this]

Eliza: [Would you like me to lend you my public relations team?]

Catherine: [Look at it for a moment, it's a blast right now, but it's not clear whether it's good or bad.]

Eliza: [Regarding the initiator, hasn't he come out yet?]

Catherine: [I'm not sure where I ran to, but I'm guessing it's a baby.]

Eliza: [It's this time of year and you're still in a good mood, amazing.]

Freya in the role of "initiator": "..."

Bewildered.

What exactly did Freya do? what was high-profile publicity? what was a hot search?

Freya couldn't possibly have a bad premonition.

Freya shivered and opened a hot search platform: [The Prime minister's son is in a relationship],

[The Prime minister's son and Freya are dating?], [They are in love].

Freya felt like she was about to pass out when she saw the fiery word "Boom" written on the back of the three pieces of news hanging on it.

Despite her inexperience, he has been on the hot search several times in a row. Freya is terrified by this sensation.

Click here to see what happened 20 minutes ago when the Prime minister's son posted a photo of himself kissing her.

Where?

Freya searched and searched for a long time before coming across Ryan's Facebook post. Freya hadn't had time to read the lengthy text because Ryan's photo with herself and him kissing was too appealing.

It was the day Sarah was locked up.

Ryan and Freya went to the yacht to celebrate. On the deck, Freya and Ryan posed for a photo. The photo was of him holding her in his arms in the sun and smiling sweetly.

The picture of the photo was Ryan held Freya in his arms and smiled at her as she sat with him.

Chapter 2403

If Freya had known that this photo would be used by Ryan to make it public one day, she would not have taken it.

Even if it's going to be public, could you please say hello to her ahead of time?

What was this to Freya, thunder?

Freya had the sensation that the sky was falling at night.

At this point, Freya felt calm down and read Ryan's words as he posted his FB page.

"We are in love, despite the fact that many people object to our being together, and even many people are shocked that we are together, yes, only I am not shocked."

"Because I've known for two years that I've had feelings for this girl."

"My Mom personally brought Freya to our house the first time we met. My Mom explained that the Snow family owed Freya a favour and requested that my parents accept her as their goddaughter. She will now be my sister and two years older than me. Sibling?"

"I was very dissatisfied at the time. In my heart, I saw her as the opposite s*x of my age. I felt sorry for her. I had heard that she had been conceived by someone, but Brother Rodney had a heart and refused to accept responsibility."

"We basically never talked at first, until later, when I occasionally accompanied my Mom to several banquets with Freya and we got in touch, and I discovered Freya is an optimistic, beautiful, and kind girl. Every time she sat quietly in the corner and I saw others behind her back laughing at her, and she never felt inferior."

"I've never met a girl who came from a small town and walked into the prosperous, but always remained sober, never greedy or delusional."

"I'm sorry that such a girl isn't treasured."

"It's also a shame that I didn't meet her sooner, and that I didn't beat Brother Rodney to it."

"We met too late, and all I could do was stand behind her and watch her."

"Later, in order to provide a complete home for her children as she married Brother Rodney."

"I wish from the bottom of my heart that a person like does not get it, and I will be delighted to see her happy."

"It's just that they had a lot of fights after they got married. I told Brother Rodney that she was a nice young lady. If he didn't know how to cherish her, I'd go out of my way to find her."

"Brother Rodney was so enraged that he almost *ssaulted me."

"But it doesn't matter; as long as my aggressive tactics are useful and show Brother Rodney that he is nervous and concerned, it is also beneficial."

"It didn't take long for their relationship to improve. Freya called me one night and asked me to check on a foreign businessman. She claimed that Brother Rodney and that person spent the night outside discussing business, but she wasn't entirely convinced. When I checked later, I discovered that the foreign businessman had already left the country. When I told her about the investigation's findings, I knew there was something wrong with their marriage."

"It didn't take long for me to go out to run errands. I witnessed her lose her mind on the street and almost get hit by a car. I held her and saw her in despair cry. Only then I learn that Brother Rodney's first love had returned to Australia, and he had frequently lied to her.

There is work to be done at the company. In fact, I rented an apartment and hired a nanny for my first love. I usually stay at my first love's apartment until midnight before leaving."

"Freya wanted to divorce, but brother Rodney opposed it and even blamed her for getting into trouble with her first love and not trusting her."

"Brother Rodney even stated that if he wanted a divorce, the child would not be given to her. She was from a small town, and the child was unable to take over the Snow family."

"She sobbed a lot, she wished she could get a divorce but couldn't. She couldn't be Sarah as her child's stepmom. Sarah was a vicious woman who would inflict harm on her child."

"Everyone should be aware of Sarah's character, and she has been sentenced to death."

"It hurts me to see her in this state."

"So I turned to my parents for assistance and asked them to assist Freya in obtaining a divorce.

Brother Rodney's delay was caused solely by the red flag flying at home and the colourful flags fluttering outside. If this continues, Freya will implode sooner."

"At the same time, I have my own selfishness to contend with. Even if Brother Rodney is unable to provide her with happiness, I will."

"I also know Freya doesn't love me, but as long as I try my hardest to be nice to her, I believe the iron pestle can always be ground into a needle."

Chapter 2404

"They later divorced. My family allowed Freya to live in the ministerial Palace to avoid Brother Rodney's problems with her."

"Freya was very insecure when she had recently divorced. She felt that as a woman and she was subjected to emotional failures on a regular basis. She may not be deserving of happiness, and may not be good."

"I encouraged and consoled her."

"Every day, I text Freya with various tidbits and jokes."

"Every day after work, I would go for a walk in the garden with Freya and the kids."

"I delivered cakes and desserts to Freya in a different manner and claiming that they were given to me by a friend and that I didn't like them, so I gave them to her."

"I was even concerned that being too nice to her would raise her suspicions. I pretended to be gay, even staging a homosexual scandal, in order to make her less defensive of me and make her think of me as her best friend."

"I pretended to be broken-hearted and took her to the playground, rode the Ferris wheel with her to watch fireworks, spent Christmas with her, and also spent Christmas Eve with her."

"I tell Freya that I am with her on all of her lonely days."

"My Mom introduced her blind date partners, and I purposefully slandered those blind date partners."

"When Freya became accustomed to me and reliant on me, I pretended to be on a blind date in order to make her unhappy, jealous, and uncomfortable before confessing to her."

"Freya was shocked and angry at first, then thought it was too absurd to accept my feelings for her, and finally was so terrified that she ran back to Melbourne with the baby."

"On New Year's Eve, I ran after her, confessed to her, swore to her, begged her to give me a chance, and said I didn't care if we were scolded by others when we were together, and it would delay my career; I just want to have a good time with her."

"Freya later gave me a chance, and I realized that her heart was not completely open to me."

"Freya wanted to go until the company sent her abroad, but she was worried about the child, so I encouraged her to go."

"We could only communicate by phone for two months. Every day after work, I arrived home on time to assist her in caring for the child."

"That is not my child, but I love her, and I am willing to love her child as if it were my own."

"I went from someone who couldn't even hold a baby for too long to a man who can change a baby's diaper, bathe it, and even put the baby to bed."

"Freya told me after she returned to Australia that she was ready to fall seriously in love with me."

"So we've fallen in love."

"Prior to that, my parents, family, and everyone else didn't know.

Freya was constantly and frequently concerned. She didn't say anything, but I could tell she was worried. I am the prime minister's son, and I put a lot of pressure on her."

"Freya even believed in her heart that she was unworthy of a second marriage with me."

"In fact, all I want to say to her is, don't put too much pressure on yourself; I'm not as good as you think, and you're also very important to me."

"You are the one I love whether you are married for the second or third time."

"I simply despise myself. I arrived too late. I would not have allowed you to become a second marriage if I had met you earlier."

"If others do not support us, that is fine; I am willing to accept responsibility and resign."

"I just want to talk to you about a love you're willing to love until you're ready to marry me."

Chapter 2405

Originally, Freya was really angry as Ryan has revealed the relationship without consulting her.

However, after reading Ryan's words, her eyes were wet, blinked, and uncontrollable tears fell.

Freya already knew that Ryan liked her. She had been touched as well, but when Ryan wrote it down and even revealed his true feelings, She was in a state of shock.

Nothing beats words for persuasion, and she knew that what Ryan said
was true.

Their previous experiences were vividly remembered.

This man appears cunning sometimes, but his cunning now appears to be filled with love for her.

Freya was suddenly overcome with remorse. She was too cowardly and timid in comparison to Ryan's feelings.

Freya was even blaming herself right now.

What right does Freya have to blame Ryan when Ryan is doing everything for her?

Ryan has always understood Freya very well, but Freya is so timid and uneasy in the presence of such a man who loves her.

At this moment, Freya suddenly wanted to run to the ministerial palace and hugged Ryan tightly. but she couldn't.

Thank you for always being there for me.

Freya wanted to face the future with Ryan, no matter what it holds. She also knew what Ryan would have to deal with after this text was sent.

Freya hurriedly picked up her phone and went outside to the balcony, but she couldn't make a call because there was a call this time.

She was dazed for a while until Catherine called out, "We were talking in the group, but we never received a call from you. I assumed you were sleeping."

"I just noticed it." Freya's voice was hushed.

"Crying?" Catherine gave a small smile.

...

Freya gave a low "um" even though she didn't want to admit she was crying again.

"It's very touching, and I'm moved."

Catherine grinned, "This time, you've actually met a man who adores you. Ryan is brave, but why didn't you tell me ahead of time if you intended to make it public? I can say hello there as well; we've all been caught off guard."

"Ryan didn't tell me, and I only found out recently."

Freya paused for a moment before saying hoarsely, "Perhaps Ryan is afraid that I won't agree. Well, when he came to see me in the morning, I was shaken, and interacting with him was very stressful, and I'm not sure if continuing to communicate will affect the people around me and cause them trouble."

"So, what are your thoughts now?"

Chapter 2406

"What else can I say now that it's all out there?"

Freya looked at the bright moon in the night, and her entire body relaxed quickly. "Actually, Ryan knows me very well, and it's been a pleasure to be with him during this time, but whenever we go out, we either wear masks or cover our eyes and ears." We are extremely cautious. Sometimes we feel as if our happiness has been taken from us. Ryan always tells me about things that will happen in the distant future, but I don't dare to think about it. I'm afraid, I'm not afraid anymore, who cares, let's go with the flow, but if the company's reputation suffers, I sincerely apologise to all of you."

"Don't say that; the masses' eyes are sharp, and even I am touched, not to mention everyone else; there may be some very extreme people, but I believe that your feelings will be strongly supported."

"Freya, in fact, I don't support you very much during the day."

Catherine said from the bottom of her heart.

Rodney blocked everything for Ryan, but no one dares to block it for you, so don't be too afraid; Ryan is very good, and he deserves your efforts; he is not a man who talks about it."

"Thank you."

Freya choked once more.

"All right, now you can go online and respond to Ryan. You can't leave Ryan to deal with it alone. At the very least, you must respond.

Regarding the company's statement tomorrow, Your personal affairs have nothing to do with work and I believe the entire company will be on your side."

"Hmm."

Freya responded quietly.

After a long period of calm, she went to her Facebook and forwarded Ryan's to which she replied: [We are in love, I was not brave enough in the past, and I will work hard for you in the future.]

Not long after, Eliza posted on Facebook: [Support my friends. In fact, in this world, women are not always completely fair. Others take it for granted that men in their second or third marriage can marry a young and charming wife. Many people, however, will criticise a divorced woman for starting over. So, here I want to say that any woman has the right to pursue happiness at any time, as long as we are magnanimous in our hearts.]

Catherine then reposted: [Don't forget to accompany me as a friend just because you are in love.

Remember, a man is not always the one who can accompany you to the end, but I most certainly am.]

Freya couldn't stop laughing when she saw it.

Her heart became warm and moved.

Even if it rains tomorrow, her friends and loved ones will be there for her.

The prime minister's son's love affair with Freya turned the entire country upside down in the middle of the night, and even foreign countries made headlines.

Nathan smashed the cup on the spot in the ministerial Palace after hearing Ryan's public statement.

"Are you insane, Ryan?" I requested that you make it public. You spent so much time discussing it with the team, why is it now so public?"

"What did you write, what are you doing?" Nathan almost fainted as he patted his chest. Is it true that Freya hasn't divorced yet, and that you've been secretly in love with your sister-in-law? You can't write anything like that, can you? You can't write that you live with her in the Presidential Palace and have a long-term relationship with her.

"Dad, I was going to write as you suggested, but I'm still afraid that someone will find a loophole, so it's better to be honest about things like this."

Nathan was taken aback, and his entire face went black. "What loophole? Is it conceivable? What happened to you before Freya divorced?"

"Of course not," you say.

"Dad, am I that kind of person?"
Ryan asked, a black line forming on his brow.

It's only...

Before marriage, I did assist Freya a few times privately. If I wrote as you suggested, Rodney pointed out that if I only liked her after marriage. Why did I treat Freya well before that, so don't leave any gaps in your own words. Besides, even if Freya isn't divorced, having a crush on her isn't wrong. "I'm telling you the truth."

"You...", Nathan said while holding his head.

I'm at a loss for words with you.
True, you have a crush on someone,
but your crush is your sister-in-law,
your parents' goddaughter."
