

Chapter 2433

"Rodney, I'd be very happy if you said this sentence earlier."

A pair of pupils on Rodney's beautiful face paused as Jessica stood a metre away in front of him. Rodney finally opened his mouth to say this after a while.

For a brief moment, Rodney was stunned. He would have stood up if he hadn't been caught up, but he could only struggle with his body at the time. ""What do you mean, sister, I'm your brother, and is it just for this?" Yes, I shouldn't be with my uncle, but think about how I feel: my wife and children were kidnapped by Ryan's son of a bitch, I have nothing now, can you keep quiet?"

Rodney has refused to admit his mistake until now.

Jessica's bottomless eyes glowed with disappointment, helplessness, intolerance, and sadness.

The more Jessica remained silent, the more worried Rodney became.

"Sister Jessica, you understand, I'm not your stumbling block, I didn't think about taking the things from your hand. I only want to deal with Ryan, okay, are you?" He asked and his voice becoming excited. I always respect and love you, my dear sister. Ryan is not close to you and no matter how close he is. Aside from that, Ryan has a sharp mind. He can deal with me today and can deal with you tomorrow.

"It's gone."

Jessica couldn't listen it anymore; how could her brother have turned into such a despicable villain?

"Rodney, I regret it very much. As your sister, I assumed that making you happy was enough, and that you had never carried any burdens since you were a child. You've lived too arbitrarily and your character has become selfish as a result."

"Who is being selfish? Jessica, don't be so grand." Rodney felt more and more sad. "you ask our parents to come over and I have something to tell them."

"I'm so disappointed in you because they won't come here."

"It's either because they're disappointed or because you're attempting to sow discord." Rodney struggled hardly. "I'll say it again, Jessica: I'm not going to take anything from you and you don't have to think of me as a thorn in your side."

The eyes of Jessica flashed. "Do you think I need to treat you like a thorn in my side, Rodney, you are not qualified."

It was simple for Jessica to take away the Snow Corporation. She could have done it a few years ago with her abilities. But she didn't because she didn't want to go against her parents and she was powerless even then.

Rodney said, "Jessica, you don't have to pretend any longer; you've already coveted the position of the Snow Corporation. You've been kind to me on the surface over the years, but you're actually trying to numb me. I don't understand and I don't have anything left. why are you still unwilling to let me go? Do you still have humanity? you're the older sister I care about the most and we're a family. Are rights really that important that your six relatives won't recognise you?"

Rodney's eyes were red with sadness in the back.

"Clap!"

Outside the door, there was a burst of applause.

"Brother Rodney, Your performance is wonderful."

Ryan entered slowly and applauded, followed by two white-coated men.

Rodney's pupils shrank, and the feeling of impending doom in his heart grew stronger.

Ryan said intently, "Look, Brother Rodney, how smart you are actually! You use bitter tactics to try to soften Sister Jessica's heart at the crucial moment, while enraging the other party. It's a shame you don't have to be on the right track to be successful.

"You really colluded with this person, what do you want to do? Murder your own younger brother?" "Let me go, Ryan, You despicable little fellow." Rodney roared angrily.

Chapter 2434

"We never thought about killing you." Ryan spoke softly.

The hair on Rodney's body loosened suddenly as he heard this.

Rodney doesn't want to die.

"Brother, So you're terrified of dying? I thought you were so brave." Ryan said lightly when he saw it in his eyes.

Rodney shook with embarrassment "I'm not afraid to die. I just don't want to perish for no apparent reason. Ryan, if you claim to be fair and honest, you should send me to the police station right now instead of abusing your power here."

Rodney thought about it. In fact, if he has committed a serious crime, it is nothing more than smearing the ministerial Palace. If it's minor, he's just talking about the Internet, and he'll only be detained for a few months at the most.

Ryan furrowed his brows and said, "Brother Rodney, it was unnecessary for me and you to arrive where we are now. You shouldn't do it, and you shouldn't encourage minister Judson to look for help from outside forces."

Rodney heart skipped a beat, "How did Ryan know?"

"Ryan, don't frame me. I have no idea what you're talking about." Rodney knew that no matter how stupid he was, this kind of thing would never be accepted, but he couldn't figure out how Ryan found out.

Is that Minister Judson's said?

But aren't they competitors?

"Minister Judson himself said it." Jessica mumbled weakly.

"Are you feeling sick? Minister Judson claims that he and the Snow family are mortal enemies, but I don't believe him." Rodney roared excitedly. "Isn't Minister Judson trying to provoke our relationship? He wants my father to accompany him.

The uncle is feuding and it's all part of his plan."

Ryan had no expression on his face, "Minister Judson and I had a number of private spats. Minister Judson wanted to run for Prime minister, but he had a deadline to meet. Minister Judson had been contacted by external forces several times, but he refused and shut the door.
Come on, it doesn't matter how he and my father fight, but he isn't allowed to violate the public's interests in any way.
You have influenced his bottom line by encouraging him to contact outside forces, even if you have tarnished my father's reputation this time. Minister Judson will not let you go because it stinks."

Rodney was shocked. He glared angrily at the ground.

Rodney didn't know Minister Judson very well. If he knew about Minister Judson before, he should not have approached him first.

"Rodney, since you dare to do it, is it so difficult to admit it?" Jessica hoped he would calmly admit it. "You at least dared to do it before, but now you don't even dare to do it because you are afraid of death. Why do you keep going? You're doing something."

Rodney's temples throbbed violently, and Jessica's words slapped him across the face, making him violently embarrassed.

Finally, Rodney raised his head. His eyes filled with hatred that could no longer be hidden. "Yes, that's what I did, so what if I did? Born in a place like the Snow family, wasn't it educated to use any means, I used to be too stupid, I didn't do it, are you going to accuse me again now that I've done it?"

"We won't accuse you because you're hopelessly broken."

Ryan calmly shook his head, "The Snow family's education isn't the best. Whatever method you employ, you must always keep the bottom line in mind. Brother Rodney, let me think about it. Are you considering giving in and allowing your parents to send you abroad to start your life again? You may appear to have given up on the surface, but once you leave the country, you will come into contact with outside forces, betray the Snow family, and even betray the whole country."

Chapter 2435

"Say whatever you want."

Rodney's heart trembled, but he mockingly laughed "I have nothing to say if you put your dirty hat on and try to kill me."

His own brother's appearance.

Jessica struggled to turn around.

So dissatisfying.

This Rodney is completely hopeless.

Ryan said, "You can deny it but there are some things we can't take this risk, you know too much."

Ryan turned to face the doctor behind him after finishing his sentence.

The doctor placed a box on the table, opened it, and took out a syringe.

"What are your plans, what are your plans?"

Rodney noticed that his entire body was ill, and he struggled frantically. " Sister Jessica, let go of me and quickly untie me; you really want me to die, Is it?"

Jessica sat motionless with her back to him like a sculpture.

"We never wanted you to die, Brother Rodney." Ryan gave him a cold stare "Don't worry; after taking this medicine, you'll forget about all the bad and painful things of the past, and you'll have nothing to do with them in the future."

Rodney realised and became even more angry, "Why do you deprive me of my memory, I won't forget it?"

"Ryan, you can't do this. I'm your brother, so if you let me go, I promise not to go against you in the future, this time I'm confused, I'm just pissed off, really."

Rodney pleaded.

Ryan sighed quietly.

If Ryan continue to scold and hate
Rodney, he may still be soft-hearted.

What's truly terrifying is Rodney's hatred, which is desperately clinging to life.

This person has evolved into a poisonous snake. If we don't act quickly, he will jump out of the grass and bite hard.

"I'm sorry, I won't believe you." Ryan made a wave.

Rodney, who was struggling violently, was approached by a doctor with a syringe, and a few others came to suppress him.

"You must die, Ryan." Rodney's eyes turned into a poisonous snake, stinging with venom. "Being your brother was my biggest mistake in my life; you will face retribution sooner or later, and I curse Freya for putting a cuckold on you and cursing you, a dog and a man without a complete corpse."

The temple of Ryan jumped violently "I'll say it one last time, Rodney, Freya and I did nothing to harm you, we are innocent. I know you won't listen no matter how much I tell you. You despise Sarah, but in reality, you have evolved into a person who resembles her. Don't always look at others as a human being; instead, consider how many things you have done wrong."

"You don't cherish it as much as you should. Don't think you're the most aggrieved person in the world; consider your parents and grandparents, who love you the most, and why they don't even turn to you."

"Please examine your own behaviour as to why your once best brothers and friends have abandoned you."

"Look at your sister Jessica and Carson; they are both very sad that you have become this way; there are still many people who love you and you do not need to be afraid. Your future life, your family, will protect you."

The words shattered.

Rodney's arm was plunged by the syringe.

His eyes widened.

The lovely peach blossom eyes welled up with tears.

Perhaps because Rodney was about to lose all of his memories. The images of the past suddenly appeared quickly and clearly as a movie in his mind.

Rodney was thinking about many things at the time, including Shaun, Chester, Sarah, Freya, Dani, as well as his parents and grandpa...

He desperately wanted to grab it because there were so many, but a gloom overtook him.

He'd had it with it and couldn't take it any longer.

Until he was gently hugged by a warm embrace.

"Rodney, sleep in peace, your sister promises you. I will protect you like a child and you will always be my dearest brother. You went the wrong way. I will accompany you in the future, and I will not make you wrong again." Jessica said softly in his ear.

Chapter 2436

"Sister..."

Rodney cried out in pain and regret.

Rodney was also curious to find out why he became like that.

However, his world has fallen into darkness.

The doctor said as he drew out the syringe, "Young master Snow, take another dose in two hours and everything will be fine."

"When will Rodney wake up?" Ryan inquired in a complicated mood.

"One day later."

After the injection, send Rodney back to the old house."

Ryan sighed weakly before lightly patting Jessica's back "For him, this may be the most important thing and it's Good ending."

"I understood"

Jessica inhaled deeply, straightened up, and closed her eyes.

It's possible that forgetting something is a relief.

In fact, becoming a fool makes it difficult to avoid heartbreak.

"I requested that the doctor reduce the dosage of the medication." Ryan said abruptly, "Rodney's IQ is about the same as a ten-year-old child."

"Thank you." Jessica said, turning to look at Ryan in surprise.

Rodney is much stronger than a fool, with an IQ of around ten years old. He has the ability to laugh, play, and cause mischief. He is capable of looking after himself in life. He is innocent and pure.

"You're welcome, he...he is, after all, a member of my family."

Ryan was also dissatisfied either.

After all, he and Rodney grew up together, so there was no need for them to get to where they are now.

It's a pity...

Ryan was busy handing over the work.

On the Internet, the situation between Ryan and Freya gradually calmed down.

Ryan returned home after a few days of work to inform his parents "I've already introduced myself to Professor Fleming of Canberra University, and I'll be taking the preliminary exam at the end of the month, so I'm planning to temporarily leave the ministerial Palace to study. Professor Fleming's house is not far from our palace. It's more convenient if you don't know how to get to Professor Fleming's house for consultation."

"I'm afraid that consultation and study are all fake." Nathan snorted coldly. "Ryan,

You just want to move out and live in order to fall in love, right?"

Ryan said, "Dad, I want to study, don't slander me."

After a pause, Nathan added with a smiling, "However, it is very convenient to live outside and fall in love; it is sometimes too far to return to the ministerial Palace for an appointment."

Heidi was well aware of her son's thoughts, so she didn't intervene; instead, she simply asked, "Don't you want to live with Freya?"

"I'd like to live with Freya together..... But my parents won't agree, and neither does Freya." Ryan said, receiving two big looks from his parents after he finished speaking.

Nathan breathed a sigh of relief; he had no desire to. They moved in together at such a young age.

Ryan, It's ideal if you and your partner can talk.

Of course, this was just a rumination in his mind.

Do you want to put a stop to it? He didn't even bother to put a stop to it.

"mom and dad, don't worry; as long as you come to me, I promise to be there with you." Ryan smiled and said, "However, until I am twenty-six years old, I rarely have free time and only use my Ph.D. to my advantage. Have you allowed me to relax on occasion over the last few years?

If not, I'll be tired as well."
