The Return of the God of War [The Protector]

Chapter 3319

Doctor Dark was carrying dead branches on his back. At this moment, he felt as if he was carrying an unparalleled weapon.

Later, this magical weapon will still shine infinitely.

Kill all these people in the audience.

Doctor Dark only felt that he was light and airy, like a god.

Looking at the various curious eyes of the revenge Hydra organization.

He wanted to laugh a little.

Are you so curious?

But curiosity will kill the cat!

You will die if you see it later!

Ha ha ha ha.....

After Levi Garrison got off the aircraft, he began to look around.

“Not bad! Really good! To put it bluntly, a group of rabble! It’s all gathered from the world! Did you expect to be built to such an extent in a short period of time?”

Levi Garrison is really praising.

This organization developed privately in the name of revenge Hydra.

It got to this point.

It's rising fast.

Everyone in the Vengeful Hydra organization laughed.

Looking at Levi Garrison, they showed strange expressions.

The expression in his eyes seemed to say – this is not to thank you for the resources tricked from you...

"This is the least we do... Otherwise, how can we take revenge on the Hydra!"

No. 1 looked at Levi Garrison and sighed: "Now we have done almost the same in all aspects of work!"

"You probably understand the plan! It is to unite the whole world, disintegrate the Zhanxiong Nation from the inside out, and avenge the Hydra!"

"It is estimated that if we plan to develop well, due to internal and external pressure, Zhanxiong Nation will have to hand over Hydra obediently!"

Levi Garrison smiled: "It's great! It's really good to see your plan is so perfect! Now there is hope for the revenge Hydra!"

Several people from Doctor Dark also started acting.

"Great! Everyone can finally get their revenge!"

"Although the plan is complicated and troublesome! But there is hope!"

"Hey! The main reason is that the War Bear Kingdom is too powerful! We have to use such a plan to deal with it!"

Number one looked helpless.

Everyone looked the same helpless.

But this frustration is true.

After all, they were brought to the door by the Hydra with five thousand gods.

It was really frustrating at the time.

Don't think about revenge.

In the end, you have to kill all your companions to survive.

Really helpless.

But now they have taken refuge in Hydra, and everything is shown to Levi Garrison.

"Huh? Why hasn't the aircraft that transported resources come yet?"

"You don't see anything in the sky?"

"What's the matter? No one asked?"

"Levi Garrison has been here for a while, why is there still no action?"

...

Now everyone is waiting

I haven't seen other vehicles for transporting resources come for a long time.

Everyone couldn't help but talk in a low voice.

Everyone is anxious.

The seven decision makers and confidants are actually more anxious.

They were all itchy all over.

But embarrassed to ask.

A group of people looked at each other, making crazy hints.

I have to ask others to ask Levi Garrison if there are any resources.

In this case, it is impossible for them to send someone to investigate.

It is inevitable that it will not arouse Levi Garrison's suspicion.

After hesitating for a long time, No. 5 couldn't help but say, "Mr. Ye, all our plans have been arranged now! We will wait for your resources to come next!"

As soon as these words came out, everyone else breathed a sigh of relief.

Finally someone asked.

Others asked: "Mr. Ye, where are the resources? Didn't you come with you?"

"We thought it would be close behind? In the end, we didn't see any more aircraft in the sky?"

"Mr. Ye, where are your resources? Could it be delivered in other ways?"

Everyone looked up in the air.

They were really impatient.

It is really forcibly suppressing, and I can't wait to jump up.
