

Chapter 1701

Hearing this, Fade smiled and asked, "Professor Song is from my country. Don't you think your request is a bit excessive if you force him to stay in Jopeno?"

Moonfox shook her head and answered, "It's not too much. You came to Jopeno to make a big scene and destroyed Mokao Temple, which caused us great losses. You have to pay a price."

"Great losses? You're ridiculous!" Fade snorted, "You kidnapped our scientific researcher and stole our secrets. It only made sense that I destroyed your Mokao Temple."

"Mr. Chen, I don't want to argue with you. What I mentioned just now was a suggestion and also a request. You have no choice but to leave Professor Song here." Moonfox's voice was a little cold, and the fighting spirit in her body rose.

"Really? You're so confident. I'd like to see how powerful the members of the Tsukuyomi Organization are!" While speaking, Fade's aura also soared.

At the same time, he made a gesture to Eilert and Cindy, asking them to protect Professor Song and leave the cockpit.

When Moonfox realized this, she sent a signal to Wolfheart, asking him to stop Eilert and Cindy.

Seeing this, Wolfheart looked a little unhappy, "I'm going to teach this guy a lesson and let him know how powerful I am. Let Lionking stop them. I don't need to deal with these two weaklings."

07:50

Hearing this, Moonfox's expression became grave, and she shouted coldly, "Wolfheart, we're not training, but on a mission. Accept the order and start now."

Under the pressure of the military order, Wolfheart started to chase Eilert and Cindy reluctantly.

Fade's gaze revealed a hint of seriousness. Wolfheart and Lionking were both martial artists at the early stage of Heaven Level, while Eilert and Cindy were both Earth Level martial artists.

Even if the two of them joined forces, they might not necessarily be able to defeat Wolfheart.

Thinking of this, he turned his feet slightly and was ready to block Wolfheart.

However, at this moment, Moonfox, who had been staring at Fade, leaned over and rushed forward. A short blade appeared in her hand. She stabbed at Fade's Dantian abdomen fiercely. "Mr. Chen, I'm your opponent."

When Moonfox was pinning Fade down, Wolfheart rushed out of the cockpit quickly and chased after Eilert and the others.

When he rushed out, he shouted, "Moonfox, don't beat him too hard and kill him. Leave him to me. After dealing with the situation over there, I'll take care of him."

Fade saw Wolfheart rushed out and looked at Moonfox who was attacking. He thought to himself, "It seems that I have to kill these two as soon as possible. Otherwise, it would be terrible if Professor Song and the others were really in danger."

With a decision in his heart, his eyes narrowed, and he stared at Moonfox.

She was smaller and agile. She was fast when she rushed towards him, and all of her moves were fatal. Obviously, she was a killing machine with blood on her hands.

07:50

Facing her flexible movements, Fade did not dodge but stared at her. The aura of the positive energy in his fists was constantly condensing, and he was ready to give her a fatal blow in the shortest time when she approached.

Moonfox, who had almost rushed to Fade's side, felt a sense of danger keenly when she noticed him standing in the same place. The momentum of his body increased.

In an instant, she moved to the side in the air and went around him. She did not attack him.

Moonfox's current goal was not to kill him as soon as possible but to buy time for Wolfheart. As long as he controlled Professor Song, her team would have the opportunity to achieve their goal.

At the thought of this, Moonfox became calm. Relying on her agility, she kept jumping around Fade, searching for his weakness to launch a fatal attack.

He also noticed her movements, and his face darkened slightly. He thought to himself, "Moonfox is very sensitive and sensed my momentum. It seems that she is not in a hurry to attack. She is deliberately stalling for time."

"I can't let her continue. I have to end the battle as soon as possible."

Thinking of this, Fade took a step forward. A wave of positive energy surged out from his feet, and he rushed forward with his body.

The tremendous force bursting out of his legs made his speed reach an unpredictable level. Under this force, there were even two clear footprints left on the hard alloy floor in the cockpit.

When Fade's legs sank and he was about to attack, Moonfox discovered his intention and was ready to retreat and dodge. He rushed out, and she couldn't help but be shocked. His speed was far beyond her expectation. Even if she was alert, she still couldn't dodge it at this moment.

07:50

Seeing that Fade, who was incredibly fast, was about to rush forward, Moonfox felt that the danger was getting closer. It was a huge impact that she couldn't withstand.

Her level was the highest in this group of three people. However, she was the weakest in terms of direct impact. Therefore, it was definitely not rational to confront Fade's attack head-on.

As she retreated hastily, she spoke to the Lionking on the side, "Lionking, stop him and create an opportunity for me."

When Lionking heard it, he rushed out immediately. With a stern cry, his thick arms suddenly became stronger. He was like a fierce beast and faced Fade, who was running toward him.

"Stop!" Lionking's arms pushed forward fiercely with tremendous strength. At the same time, he roared in an attempt to stop him.

Moonfox adjusted her direction immediately. With the help of the instrument in the cockpit, she pushed her right hand gently to change her path and rushed to Fade's back.

The short blade in her hand was shining with chilling light, and there was a deadly aura to it.

Moonfox was ready. When Lionking blocked Fade, she was going to launch a fatal attack to kill him.

Boom!

Fade, who was charging fiercely, collided with Lionking. A massive wave of energy broke out instantly and blew over quite a few things in the cabin, causing a series of clanging sounds.

In the instant of the collision, Moonfox rushed out and launched a fatal attack.

07:50

However, when she rushed to the position and was ready to launch an attack, she realized that something was wrong because Fade didn't stop at the place she had expected.

"What's going on?" Moonfox was puzzled, and she felt a sense of danger. She adjusted her direction quickly and tried to avoid it. At this moment, a voice came from her side. "Trying to hide? Do you think you can hide?"

Chapter 1702

Along with the sound, a heavy punch, with a whistling wind sound, fell viciously.

Although Moonfox tried her best to dodge it, her rapid movements made it extremely difficult for her to adjust herself.

As a result, she felt immense pressure, as if a mountain was falling from the sky, it hit her on the back. The colossal force smashed her to the ground with a loud bang.

In an instant, with a loud noise, the hard alloy floor was twisted and deformed. It even cracked into a huge gap.

Puff!

Moonfox felt that her internal organs seemed to be shattered. She spat out a mouthful of blood and felt a sense of pain.

As she was lying on the ground, she noticed the tall and strong Lionking in the corner of the cabin. His eyes were wide open, and it seemed like they were going to pop out of their sockets. His eyes were bloodshot, and his thick arms were full of blue veins. Some parts of his skin were torn, and blood was gushing out.

From his current condition, it should have been the result of the collision a moment ago due to the impact of tremendous power.

Lionking was already one of the strongest ones amongst the Tsukuyomi Organization. However, Fade's impact was able to injure him heavily with one strike. As for the attack, Moonfox couldn't imagine how strong it was.

However, she did not have to think about it anymore.

07:51

Fade had punched her to the ground with just one blow, but he did not stop. He took another punch and hammered on Moonfox's back heavily, which shattered her heart and made her lose her breath completely.

At the same time, on the splint outside the cruise ship, Wolfheart had caught up with Eilert and the others.

At this moment, he was fighting against Eilert and Cindy.

Although they were powerful and tried their best to fight, it was still challenging for them to face Wolfheart, who was at a higher level than them.

They had already exchanged more than twenty blows. The flexible blade in Wolfheart's hand was like a fairy and left many blood marks on them.

With a 'swoosh' sound, the blade sliced across Cindy's body, leaving a trail of blood behind.

The place where she was cut this time was precisely the spot on her chest.

The sharp blade tore her clothes apart easily, leaving behind a trail of blood, and her fair skin was revealed.

Seeing this, Wolfheart whistled and smiled, "What a nice figure you have! If it wasn't for this, I would have liked to play with you. You're such a cute girl, and you're exactly my type."

"You..." Cindy lowered her head. She gritted her teeth, and it was evident that she was enraged.

Seeing this, Eilert reminded her, "Don't be impulsive. Hold him back. When Mr. Chen arrives, we'll be safe."

Hearing this, Wolfheart laughed. "You don't have to expect Fade to come and save you. Did you hear the loud noise a moment ago? It must be Lionking who did it. I'm afraid that Mr. Chen has become a mass of meat sauce in his hands."

07:51

"Forget it. It's getting late. I can't go on playing with you guys anymore." He glanced at the rumbling cabin and continued, "I have to finish you guys off as soon as possible. Otherwise, if Lionking kills that guy, I won't be able to fight anymore."

With these words, he pounced over with a smile. His attack was fiercer than the previous ones.

The pressure on Eilert and Cindy grew greater. It became more strenuous for them to resist.

"It's good that you're able to survive until now. It's your honor to die in the hands of Wolfheart of the Tsukuyomi Organization," he uttered while attacking.

When Eilert and Cindy felt that the pressure was getting bigger, they were almost unable to bear it.

A deep voice sounded. "Leave the rest to me."

Hearing the voice, Eilert and Cindy were overjoyed. They knew that it was Fade, and they retreated quickly in his direction.

On the other side, Wolfheart was startled. Frowning, he asked, "How could it be that guy? Did Moonfox and Lionking lose the battle?"

"No way, it must be their trick." He shook his head and denied his own thoughts. He turned around and was prepared to chase after Eilert and Cindy.

When he turned around and saw the situation here, the expression on his face became stiff.

That was because the one who walked over was the one Wolfheart thought was impossible, Fade. What was even more terrifying were the two bloody humanoid creatures carried in his hands.

Wolfheart soon recognized the two. They were Moonfox and Lionking.

07:51

Having noticed this, a strong sense of crisis came to him, which made his expression change significantly. He was no longer as arrogant as he was a moment ago. Instead, he turned around and fled wildly.

Even if Wolfheart was cynical and arrogant, he was not a fool. He knew the strength of Moonfox and Lionking when they met each other in the Tsukuyomi Organization. Especially Moonfox, it was definitely not easy for her to become his superior.

At least in terms of their strength, he felt that he was no match for her. The outcome of the battle between him and Lionking was hard to predict as well.

Under such circumstances, both of them were defeated and were held in Fade's hands. No one knew whether they were alive or dead.

Therefore, when Wolfheart saw this scene, he immediately knew that he was no match for Fade. His arrogance disappeared at this moment. There was only one thought left in his mind, which was to escape quickly.

However, how could he escape after being targeted by Fade?

When Wolfheart turned around, Fade threw Moonfox and Lionking aside and rushed out like lightning.

No more than ten meters away from Wolfheart, he felt a gust of wind behind him. Before he could turn around to see what was going on, a blow of energy penetrated his back, and blood gushed out.

Wolfheart hit the splint and rolled forward with a bang. Soon, he hit the side of the ship and was covered in blood. He could not move anymore.

At this moment, Fade walked towards him and looked down at him. With an intense energy in his palm, he patted on Wolfheart's heart and killed him.

07:51

After killing the three members of the Tsukuyomi Organization, Fade handled the bodies quickly and treated Eilert and Cindy.

The captain and crew were all killed by the Tsukuyomi Organization. There was no one on board who could drive the ship. Fortunately, Eilert was trained by special forces, so he knew something about the common cruise ship that was not too complicated. Therefore, he took over the boat.

On the other side, Fade and Cindy dealt with the fighting and blood marks on the ship. They made use of her official identity to comfort the tourists on the boat. There was a lot of noise from the fight a moment ago, and many passengers were aware of it.

Chapter 1703

After stabilizing the ship's condition, Fade checked the corpses of Moonfox and the other two. He did not find anything useful or even anything that could prove their identities.

However, he still kept their corpses. After all, several crew members had died on the ship. Someone must be responsible for this.

Their remaining journey went smoothly without any accidents happening. The following day, they arrived in their hometown.

When Eilert and Cindy were on the ship, they reported their situation using the contact devices.

Therefore, after the cruise ship docked, the police immediately came to ask about the situation.

Fade and the others cooperated and told the police the details of the matter. Of course, Garvet's matter was top secret, which could not be spread casually.

Eilert and Cindy's identities were unique. After the police made the relevant records, the other departments approached them and brought Fade and the others back to report the details of this incident.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, they finally arrived in Capital City.

They had been overseas for almost a month. When they returned to the familiar Capital City, they could not help but breathe a sigh of relief. Their bodies and minds were all relaxed.

Garvet, in particular, seemed a little excited at the moment. After all, he was just an ordinary person, except for his identity as a scientist. After experiencing these spies, guns, fighting, and death... The impact on him was tremendous. He needed some time to calm down.

07:51

After the car drove into an organization similar to a police station, Fade helped Garvet out of the vehicle.

However, before they could steady themselves, a group of people in dark red uniforms came over with serious faces.

The leader, Bellamy, was a man who was about thirty-five years old. He glanced at Fade and the others and took a closer inspection at them. He waved his hand and ordered, "Take them away."

In an instant, more than a dozen uniformed staff behind the man rushed out, grabbed Fade and the others, and were about to take them away.

Fade and the others didn't expect this at all.

Fade's gaze couldn't help but become indifferent. He was about to grab a few of the officers and shake them off. He looked at Bellamy and asked, "What do you mean by this?"

"You guys have something to do with Garvet's treason case. Now, it's time for you to go back with us for investigation," Bellamy answered coldly.

Hearing this, Fade's face darkened, and he explained, "We have investigated the situation. Professor Song did not commit treason. Please be aware of what you're saying."

"It's not up to you to decide whether there is treason or not. The conclusion will only be made after the investigation." Bellamy's tone was hostile and harsh, and he was going to direct his men to arrest them.

07:51

At this moment, Eilert frowned and asked, "Which department do you belong to? Which leader asked you to come over?"

Bellamy turned to Eilert and replied, "We are from the Capital Security Team. As you are all the present suspects, some situations can't be leaked to you, such as who gave the order to capture you."

"Capital Security Team?" Fade was a little unfamiliar with this name.

Eilert instantly understood and commented with a frown, "The Security Bureau has always been responsible for our affairs. When did the Capital Security Team start to intervene in this matter?"

"Captain Hu, please mind your words. This is an important matter that concerns national security, not a matter of which department. You are now engaging in bossism, and that is a mistake," Bellamy warned him sternly.

Without waiting for Eilert to speak, he looked at Fade, "You'd better cooperate with our investigation. Otherwise, your behavior will be deemed as resistance. We have the right to use violence against you."

With Bellamy's words, the team members behind him made a loud noise. They took out their pistols and aimed at Fade and his team.

Fade's expression sank. His expression turned completely solemn, and there was a chill in his gazes.

They had gone through a lot of hardships and returned to their country. Putting aside their contributions for the time being, they had to insist on the difficulties they went through. However, these people did not care at all. Instead, they looked at them as if they were prisoners. They even pointed their guns at them, which made Fade furious.

Eilert sensed Fade's anger and quickly shouted at Bellamy, "Please be mindful of your actions. Mr. Chen is General Xu's licensed investigator. If something goes wrong, can you afford to be responsible?"

07:51

Hearing General Xu's name, Bellamy's expression changed slightly. After hesitating for a moment, he put away his gun, "Everyone is here for the case. Please cooperate with us and understand that."

At that time, his tone was no longer as cold and arrogant as it was previously.

After all, Eilert was an official, and he could understand Bellamy's behavior. He nodded gently. "We will cooperate with the investigation."

Then, he looked at Fade and advised, "Mr. Chen, the army has its rules. We..."

Fade glanced at him, nodded, and agreed, "I can cooperate with your investigation. However, Professor Song has been working hard all the way, and he needs to have a good rest."

"We understand. We'll arrange it," Bellamy answered coldly.

Fade and the others got into the cars of the Capital Security Team.

They drove for about an hour. When Fade got out of the car again, they had already arrived in a strange courtyard.

He looked around and found that it should be somewhere in the suburbs of Capital City.

Without waiting for Fade to take a closer look, the other party urged him, "Go inside."

They entered a small building in the courtyard and went down to the basement by elevator. Fade and the others were taken to an empty room.

Bellamy asked them to take a seat, and he went out.

About a few minutes later, he came back and looked at them, "We will ask some questions about the case this time, and you need to answer it truthfully."

07:51

"Of course." Eilert nodded.

Bellamy pointed at Eilert and directed, "You go first."

The two of them came in and led Eilert out.

About four or five minutes later, Bellamy came in again. This time, he pointed to Cindy, "It's your turn."

She got up. She glanced at Fade and went out.

A few minutes later, he came again and took Garvet out with them.

Finally, Fade was left alone in the room. After twenty minutes, he came back and said to Fade, "Finally, it's your turn. Follow me!"

Although Fade was somewhat dissatisfied with Bellamy's tone, he still followed him out of the room and entered another room similar to an interrogation room.

Bellamy arranged for Fade to sit down on a chair. He pressed a switch, and a metal door appeared in the middle to separate Fade from him.

Chapter 1704

Bellamy did not look like he was cooperating with the investigation, but more like he was interrogating a criminal.

Seeing this, Fade's eyes couldn't help but become cold. He let out a sneer, "What is the meaning of this?"

Bellamy replied, "Mr. Chen, we don't mean much. It's just that this is a matter of great importance, and we have to be careful. I hope you can understand."

Fade held back his anger and sat down. "Let's begin!"

Bellamy did not interrogate him himself. Instead, he went out and gave a signal, then a middle-aged man in his fifties walked in with a serious expression.

The man sat opposite Fade and stared at him with a gloomy expression.

At this time, Bellamy said to Fade, "This is Mr. Yigor Huang from our Capital Security Team. You'd better answer him if he asks you something. Don't hide anything. Do you understand?"

His tone and attitude made Fade frown. He nodded and answered coldly, "Let's begin."

"Tell me, what's going on with the Garvet's treason case this time?" Yigor asked.

Fade told him the whole story.

07:51

Yigor did not say a word during the whole process. After listening to Fade, he was silent for a while. After that, he opened his mouth and asked Fade, "Mr. Chen, you mentioned that Professor Song was kidnapped and was wronged. The culprit was Bald Eagle Pharma in Micovia, who cooperated with Mokao Temple in Jopeno and Filex, the traitor."

"That's true!" Fade nodded.

Yigor continued with a calm face, "Filex is the captain of the investigation team, but you said that he was a mole. Mr. Chen, can you be responsible for your words?"

"I can!" Fade replied, "Filex is an insider. Not only me but Eilert and Cindy, who were present at that time, also knew about it."

Yigor ignored his words and added, "You insisted that Filex is an insider, but I have received another statement."

"What do you mean?" Fade felt that something was wrong and questioned.

Yigor replied, "Someone told me the other truth about the case. He disclosed that the mole was not Filex, but you, Mr. Chen."

"What!" Upon hearing this, Fade's gaze turned icy. He looked at Yigor and asked, "Mr. Huang, what do you mean by that?"

"It's nothing. I just want to hear your opinion." Yigor added, "Some people say that when you arrived in Osko City, you separated with the investigation team and acted alone. The news you got was also very suspicious, which led to the members of the investigation team being attacked twice and putting them in danger."

"Your investigation team has a total of five people. Filex and his man were the only ones who died in the end. All three of you survived. Don't you think it's too coincidental?" Yigor questioned.

"Do you suspect that I killed Filex and his trusted subordinate?" Fade asked coldly.

07:51

Yigor answered, "I have enough reasons to suspect you. You are the mole in this case."

Hearing this, Fade burst into laughter. He stared at Yigor and spoke dispassionately, "I don't know where you heard such absurd news or if you have other purposes. I can tell you that any person in the investigation team may be a traitor, apart from me."

"Apart from you! Mr. Chen, your words are too absolute!" Yigor knocked on the table and questioned Fade.

Fade sneered, "If you say it's too absolute, I'd like to ask you, why should I betray you, and why would I want to be a hidden traitor?"

"It's hard to say. Money, status, martial arts..." Yigor looked at him and went on.

Hearing this, Fade couldn't help laughing. "Mr. Huang, did you investigate my information before interrogating me?"

"Money? The company under my name has tens of billions in assets and is growing rapidly. Do you think I will be short of money?"

He continued, "Status? That's even more ridiculous. I am Fade, the chairman of several big companies and the national Special Contribution Award winner. I am also the National Chinese Medical Doctor, as well as a special instructor of Stealth. Do you think I need any more status?"

"As for martial arts, it's the most ridiculous thing. I'm less than thirty years old, and I've entered the Heaven Level. I'm called the young Martial Arts Master. It's a big lie that I'm willing to betray the country for martial arts."

Yigor was caught off guard. His expression was a little ugly. He slammed the table and shouted, "That doesn't mean that you won't betray the country. Perhaps the other side has something you need."

07:51

"Besides, according to our investigation, you have been in contact with people from Bald Eagle Pharma when you were in Dragonville and Jade City. Later, when you were in Jopeno, you were even close to people from the Hachi Clan," Yigor stated.

"For this, I have to doubt your motivation." He stared at Fade.

Hearing this, Fade smiled and responded, "The so-called contact between Bald Eagle Pharma and me was a conflict with the other side, and I defeated them. As for the contact with the Hachi Clan, that was just me helping my friend."

"Friend? That's just your statement. Perhaps you are a hidden traitor who assisted the Akao family and the Hachi Clan in taking away the prescription of the gene-strengthening liquid," Yigor glared at him and yelled.

Fade immediately laughed when he heard Yigor's speculation. He glanced at him, shook his head, and mocked, "It seems that you really don't know anything!"

"If you knew a bit more about me, you wouldn't have spoken such an absurd and ridiculous reason," he continued.

"Don't change the topic. You haven't responded to my question," Yigor shouted.

Fade scoffed, "Suspicion? Do you know that I provided the initial formula for the gene-strengthening liquid developed by Professor Song?"

"If I wanted to steal the formula, would I need to spend so much effort to kidnap him and conduct the experiment? I could just write down the procedure on my own."

"You took part in the formula? How, how is this possible?" Hearing this, Yigor was shocked. He didn't expect that Fade was actually a confidential participant. "You are lying. You want to escape from the punishment."

07:51

"Lying?" Fade snickered, "I am not lying. You can look for General Xu to verify it, and you will know. He even personally invited me to participate."

"General Xu!" Hearing this word, Yigor couldn't help but be stunned. He couldn't sit still and felt a slight panic.

He stabilized himself and said, "General Xu is not in Capital City now. He went out to perform a task. You are deliberately making this up to make it impossible for me to verify what you say."

Fade replied, "If General Xu is not here, the person in charge of the research and technology department must be there. There were at least dozens of scientific researchers present. You can ask anyone about it, and you will know if I am lying or not."

"As for this, of course, I will find someone to ask. I still can't clear away your suspicion," Yigor responded. He got up and went out anxiously.

Chapter 1705

Fade's eyes darkened as he watched the man leave in a hurry. A hint of iciness appeared in his eyes.

After waiting for a while, he saw that the other party had not opened the iron door to let him go.

He pointed to the iron door and asked coldly, "What does this mean?"

Bellamy glanced at him and answered, "The interrogation is not over yet. You have to stay here!"

After that, he left and closed the thick door. Fade could even hear that the door was locked.

His expression became gloomy. All kinds of thoughts flew in his mind, and he felt the taste of a conspiracy.

At this time, Yigor, who left in a hurry, came to an office not far away. He put down the document, looked anxiously at the man opposite him, "Mr. Donnigan, bad news."

The man sitting opposite Yigor was none other than Donnigan, a member of the Zhao family in Capital City, Ingram's father.

He used to be in the army with Yigor. At that time, he was the squadron leader. Thus, Yigor still called him Mr. Donnigan.

Donnigan turned to the flustered man and asked, "Yigor, why are you flustered?"

"Mr. Donnigan, our plan is going to fail. We can't frame him as the traitor," Yigor notified him.

"How is that so? Didn't you follow our previous plan?" Donnigan questioned.

07:51

Yigor immediately explained, "I have done it all. However, that guy has his trump card. He is the provider of the formula of the gene-strengthening liquid, and he is the one whom General Xu personally appointed."

"What? How could it be!" Mr. Donnigan was also shocked. His face darkened immediately, and he continued, "In this case, the matter of treason in stealing the formula would not be possible to establish."

"That's right. No one will believe this kind of reason! Moreover, once General Xu returns from his mission, our plan will fail!" Yigor added anxiously, "Mr. Donnigan, why don't we just forget about it!"

Hearing this, Donnigan's expression instantly turned stoic, and he snapped, "How can I let it go? That guy is too arrogant. He even bullied my family. Previously, he destroyed Ingram and Domuel's cultivation. He even went so far as to kill Filex. How can I stand it?"

"But our plan won't work. This..." Yigor shrugged his shoulders.

Donnigan's face darkened, and he uttered indifferently, "Who said that the plan won't work? The evidence can't prove that the guy is a mole. What if he admits it himself?"

"It's impossible for him to admit it!" Yigor exclaimed.

"I have my way." Donnigan rolled his eyes and thought for a while. He instructed, "Keep him in check and trigger him. I'll arrange for something and come back soon. At that time, you can act according to my arrangement."

"Mr. Donnigan, you are going to..." Yigor stared at him with an inquiring look on his face.

Donnigan remained expressionless, and he replied, "It's not good for you to know too much."

07:51

"Okay, I got it. I won't ask anymore," Yigor answered in a hurry.

Donnigan stood up and left immediately.

In the next few hours, Fade was locked up in the interrogation room. No one came to interrogate him, and no one gave him food or drinks. It seemed that they were going to hold him until he died.

He couldn't help but be angry. He even wanted to destroy the iron gate and rush out.

However, when he thought that if he did that, he would not be able to explain himself. Thus, he maintained his composure and remained seated.

When night fell, the door of the interrogation room was opened. A man in casual clothes in his thirties came in. His face was very unfamiliar to Fade, and he had never seen him before.

After the man came in, he pressed the switch, opened the iron door, and walked to the opposite of Fade. With a smile on his face, he handed over a bottle of water and asked, "Are you thirsty? Have some water."

Fade took the water, but he did not drink it immediately. Instead, he looked at the man and asked, "Who are you?"

The man disclosed, "Mr. Huang and the others are off duty. I am on duty at night."

"On duty? Why didn't you ask in the afternoon? Why did you have to ask at night?" Fade was puzzled.

The man was stunned for a moment and replied, "I received the order at the last minute."

"Mr. Chen, have some water. Let's finish the task quickly so that we can have a good rest," the other party reminded him.

Fade looked at the water bottle in his hand and glared at the man in front of him. He grabbed the man's throat and shouted, "Who sent you here!"

07:51

The man's expression changed when he saw Fade's action. Without thinking about anything else, he pulled out a dagger from the folder and stabbed Fade in the heart fiercely. "Go to hell!"

Seeing this, Fade was certain that this guy was abnormal.

As soon as this guy came in, he felt the fluctuation of energy of a martial artist from him. It was actually normal for a member of the Capital Security Team to have the energy of a martial artist. However, this guy's aura was not as vast and vigorous as that of the soldier's, but rather ruthless and cruel.

Therefore, he had doubts about him the first time. In addition, the other party deliberately reminded him to drink the water twice, which only confirmed his suspicion that there was a problem with the water and this guy. Thus, he took action decisively.

From this fellow's reaction, it was clear that something was wrong.

It had to be said that the man's movement was immaculate and sharp, and the speed and angle of his action were impeccable. If he stabbed Fade's heart, he would be killed in less than three seconds.

This kind of skill could only be learned from the gruesome experiences of killing another person.

However, these actions of his were not worth mentioning in front of Fade.

He grabbed the dagger directly. His palm held the sharp blade, and it could not move at all. Even Fade's skin could not be cut.

"You..." The man was stunned. He dropped his dagger immediately and turned around. He fled.

How could Fade let him run away? He snorted coldly. He pulled the man back, pressed him on the ground, and asked sternly,

07:51

"Who sent you to kill me?"

The man did not answer him.

Fade was not acting polite at all. He destroyed the man's Dantian abdomen with one palm and questioned again, "Now, can you tell me?"

"I, I don't..." The man hesitated and didn't want to answer.

Fade's gaze darkened. With a move of his right hand, the dagger fell into his hand. The sharp blade stabbed the man's body a few times.

The man wriggled instantly. He felt a tingling sensation running along the meridians in his body. The feeling became more evident and painful, which made him cry out in pain.

Chapter 1706

"If you don't tell me, I will let you know what it means to live a living hell!" Fade's gaze was gloomy and extremely ruthless. Feeling the unspeakable pain, the man finally couldn't stand it anymore and cried out loud, "I talk, I'll talk!"

"Say it!" Fade shouted coldly.

"It was Donnigan who sent me to kill you. Once I kill you, he will give me fifty million yuan as a reward," the man admitted.

"Donnigan, from the Zhao family!" Fade's eyes darkened, and he continued to ask, "What else? Did the Zhao family betray us? Do they have any conspiracies?"

"I, I don't know. I only took the deposit to kill someone. I don't know anything else," the man explained in a hurry.

Suddenly, Fade thought of something, and he questioned in an icy tone, "How did you get in? It's not easy to get in here!"

"This, this... It was Yigor, Mr. Huang, who let me in." The man was a little hesitant. However, he spoke anyway.

Hearing this, Fade snorted coldly. Then with a click, he twisted the killer's neck. He opened the door with a punch and swaggered out.

A warning sound instantly rang in the basement. The sergeants on duty ran over one after another.

At this moment, Fade's gaze was indifferent. Looking at these people who were rushing over, he asked in a monotonous tone,

07:51

"Where is Yigor?"

"Raise your hand and squat down!" A man yelled.

"Don't move. If you move one more step, we'll shoot," another staff member warned.

"Lie down, lie down!"

.....

The staff on duty shouted nervously.

The huge commotion made the other officers in the interrogation room unable to help but notice it, and they were lying prone at the door of the room, looking out through the narrow window.

Someone's figure flickered in several interrogation rooms, followed by cries of surprise.

"Mr. Chen!"

"Mr. Chen, what happened?"

Fade looked in the direction of the voice. Although he could only see half of the figure's face, he still recognized Eilert, Cindy, and the others.

He stepped over, prepared to open the door and ask about the situation.

When the soldiers on duty saw this, they reloaded their guns and aimed them at him. They shouted, "Don't move. If you move again, we'll shoot."

07:51

Fade threw out a few streams of energy. Before the soldiers could react, he knocked them out, and they fell to the ground.

With a few clicks, he opened the three interrogation rooms. The people inside were Eilert, Cindy, and Garvet.

As soon as the three people came out, they looked at Fade with confusion and anxiety. "Mr. Chen, what's going on? Why are you..."

Fade explained immediately, "Yigor, the officer of the Capital Security Team, colluded with Donnigan. He wanted me to admit that I was a mole and sent a killer to assassinate me."

"What!" The three people could not help but be shocked.

Eilert thought of something and said in a low voice, "No wonder the questions during the interrogation were weird. They kept trying to pull the topic towards you, Mr. Chen. It turns out that this is their purpose."

"Me too. The other party even asked me to be their witness to prove that Mr. Chen is a hidden traitor," Cindy replied with a face full of anger.

Garvet also nodded. "They also told me the same thing, but I refused them."

"Thank you!" Fade bowed his head slightly in gratitude.

At this moment, Cindy couldn't help but be worried when she noticed the mess around her, along with the constantly whistling alarm. "Mr. Chen, I'm afraid it's a little hard for us to explain the current situation. If the other party turns against you and says that you broke out of prison and killed people, it will be hard to clarify."

He jeered with a gloomy expression, "If I can't explain, then I won't. If they dare to touch me, I'll kill them."

07:51

Eilert, who was standing aside, was calm. He rushed to the evidence room, found his cell phone, and dialed a number as he informed them, "I'll contact the leader of the Security Bureau and explain the situation to them."

Fade thought for a moment. He also took out his mobile phone and called Baldrick from the Stealth Team. He requested him to send someone to protect Garvet and the other two.

After all, it was tough to distinguish between the enemy and friend in each department.

It seemed that Filex was not the only traitor.

Therefore, for the sake of the safety of Garvet and the others, Fade asked Baldrick to come with him. He believed that Baldrick and the people from Stealth were very powerful. They could be said to be the best people to protect them.

About a quarter of an hour later, Baldrick arrived with the people from Stealth.

Fade handed over Garvet and the others to them. He didn't explain much and was prepared to leave.

Donnigan and Yigor sent people to assassinate him. Thus, he wouldn't let them get away with it easily. Moreover, he had not found out the truth behind the matter.

However, just as Fade was about to leave.

A few large trucks drove over noisily and stopped in the courtyard. A hundred armed soldiers leaped out from the vehicle quickly, surrounding the small building in an instant.

"Stop, don't move!" The other side shouted. The black muzzle was aimed at Fade and others.

Hearing that, Baldrick took out his ID and stepped forward. "Don't shoot. I'm Baldrick, the vice officer of the Stealth Team. Let your chief come out and talk to me."

07:51

Upon listening, a man in his fifties, wearing a military uniform, came out.

He saluted Baldrick, "Hello, Mr. Mu. I'm Zellard Xie, the commander of the Security Special Force Team 2 in Capital City."

Hearing this name, Baldrick was a little surprised. The rank of the commander was not high, but the prefix "Security Special Force Team 2 in Capital City" was very impressive.

After all, Security Special Force Team 2 were the guards of Capital City, which received direct orders from the central authorities. It was also one of the outstanding elite troops.

Although Zellard was only a commander, his position was not low. Even Baldrick had to respect him.

"Commander Xie, this is what happened..." Baldrick explained the matter to the commander quickly, "The Capital Security Team is not safe anymore. Therefore, I came here on purpose to pick up Professor Song and the others to ensure their safety. Commander Xie, please understand."

Upon hearing this, Zellard's face fell slightly and he replied, "Mr. Mu, you can't make statements such as there is a hidden traitor in the Capital Security Team and that it's not safe. Such an accusation is a big deal."

"I have my reasons to say such things," Baldrick answered in a low voice.

Zellard refuted, "Your reason is not evidence. Mr. Mu, your behavior of breaking into the Capital Security Team with your men is already a serious violation of the law. I'm sorry that I can't cooperate."

"Commander Xie, what happened to Professor Song is related to national secrets. If there is an accident, do you think you can afford to bear the burden?" Baldrick retorted.

07:51

Chapter 1707

Zellard responded in a low voice, "I'm taking my mission seriously. Whatever it is, I can be responsible for it."

"Commander Xie, you..." Baldrick was a little furious.

Fade stepped forward at this time. He looked at Zellard and chimed in, "If I remember correctly, the Security Special Force Team 2 is not very close to here. It is almost twice as far from where Mr. Mu is based."

"Yet, Commander Xie and Mr. Mu arrived here almost at the same time. How did you get here so quickly, Commander Xie? Did you know in advance that something went wrong here?" Fade taunted.

Upon hearing this, everyone's faces froze.

Baldrick's face turned frigid. He glared at Zellard fiercely and growled in a low voice, "Zellard, you must give a reasonable explanation for this matter. Otherwise, I have reason to suspect that you are related to the traitor."

Even if Zellard was mentally strong, his face turned pale when he heard the word 'traitor'. "Mr. Mu, I will never betray our country even if I have to die on the battlefield."

"Commander Xie, please explain why you arrived so fast!" Baldrick urged.

Zellard frowned and answered, "Someone called me and told me that something was wrong at the base of the Capital Security Team. He asked me to bring some people here."

07:52

"Who called you and how long ago?" Fade asked.

Zellard paused for a moment and continued, "It was about twenty minutes ago that Mr. Huang from the Capital Security Team made a call."

"It's really Yigor." Hearing the words, Fade's gaze became icy. "Commander Xie, twenty minutes ago, I was chatting with the killer in the interrogation room. However, Mr. Huang called to tell you that something had happened. Does he have the ability to predict the future?"

"This..." At this moment, Zellard couldn't help but frown as he felt that something was amiss. He seemed to have been used by someone else.

"Where does Yigor live?" Without waiting for Zellard to explain further, Fade asked and got the answer from Baldrick. He leaped and rushed out from the encirclement of the Security Special Force Team 2.

Seeing this, Zellard was shocked. He turned around instinctively and ordered his men to chase him. However, Fade had disappeared into the night when he turned around.

"This..." Looking at the direction in which Fade disappeared, Zellard's eyelids twitched. He didn't know if he should chase after him.

Baldrick walked over, patted him on the shoulder, "Don't overthink it, Zellard. Mr. Chen is a person whom General Xu trusts. I believe there will be no problem with him."

Hearing General Xu's name, Zellard was relieved. He nodded immediately. "I understand, but there are some procedures we need to follow. Mr. Mu, could you please bring someone here to do some formalities?"

07:52

Baldrick waved his hand and let his men take care of the formalities.

At this time, Fade had already rushed toward the place where Yigor lived.

He did not live in the dormitory of the Capital Security Team. After he got married, he bought a house in Capital City and lived outside.

At this moment, he was sitting in the study room with a cigarette in his mouth. Looking at the night sky outside the window, he thought to himself, "I helped Mr. Donnigan this time and built a good relationship with the Zhao family. I should be able to be promoted.

"Working in the Capital Security Team sounded nice. However, it was just a special security team. Its power and status could not be compared with those of the regular army, and it couldn't be compared with the companies outside. It's just a position that doesn't cater to both sides," he thought to himself.

"After this mission is completed, I'll bring it up to Mr. Donnigan to see if he can transfer me to the Security Special Force Team 2. That's the official bodyguard team of Capital City. It's much better than staying here."

Thinking of this, the corners of Yigor's mouth could not help but show a hint of joy. He secretly believed that this risk was worth it.

At this moment, he heard a strange sound outside the window. It was as if a figure was moving outside the window.

"Who is it?" He shouted. He opened the drawer, took out the pistol, and pointed it outside.

As soon as he shouted, Yigor shook his head and whispered, "My home is on the eighth floor, and there is no balcony outside the study room. How could there be someone? Am I too nervous that I'm starting to see things?"

07:52

He calmed himself down and reassured himself.

With a bang, the window was knocked open, and a black shadow darted in.

Yigor raised his gun and was about to shoot. However, the other person moved very fast. Before he could react, Fade knocked away Ygior's weapon and pressed him on the table.

"You and Donnigan arranged the assassination, right?" Fade asked coldly.

When Yigor heard his voice, he was shocked. He warned in a low voice, "Fade, do you know what you are doing now? Prison break, assault on police, treason... Any one of them is a big crime."

"Don't talk nonsense. Answer my question!" Fade had no mood to argue with him. He punched Yigor and caused him great pain.

His throat was clasped by Fade's left hand. Thus, he couldn't make a sound because of the pain and it almost suffocated him.

Before he could recover from the pain, Fade lifted him and stretched his arm out of the window. Yigor was hung twenty to thirty meters in the air.

The chilly night wind blew against Yigor outside the window. When he looked down at the traffic stream and the lights, he was so scared that his legs went limp, and he almost wet his pants. He struggled to squeeze out a few words from his throat, "I'll talk, I'll talk. Don't kill me, don't..."

"The killer was arranged by Donnigan. I just cooperated with him," Yigor continued.

"Did you get involved in Filex's betrayal? Is there anyone else in the Zhao family who betrayed us?" Fade shouted.

Yigor shook his head quickly and answered, "I, I don't know. The relationship between the Zhao family and me was not close previously. It was only this time that Donnigan found me and got in touch with me."

07:52

"You really don't know?" Fade questioned disdainfully.

"It's true. It's absolutely true." Yigor's snot and tears were flowing out.

"Besides assassinating me, what else does Donnigan have planned?" Fade continued prying further.

Yigor paused for a moment and then admitted, "I don't know the specific plan. I only heard him vaguely mention it when he called me. He mentioned that he wanted to get a woman as an alternative strategy to make you submissive."

Hearing this, Fade's heart skipped a beat. He thought of something immediately, and his face showed a look of worry.

Soon after, he took Yigor back from the window. With a shake of his arm, he threw him to the ground.

Yigor gasped in large mouthfuls instantly, and his legs trembled. Between his legs, a faint wet patch appeared.

Chapter 1708

With a snort, Fade knocked Yigor out. He leaped out of the study room and disappeared.

In the night wind, he took out his phone and dialed Quin's number. However, the phone was turned off, which made him even more worried.

He dialed the landline in the villa. Yet, no one answered.

At this time, he was even more disturbed and nervous. He dialed Moore's number. "Master Chen, please go to my villa and check if Quin is there."

"Okay, I'll head over right away." Moore didn't ask any more questions and took action instantly.

After putting away his phone, Fade jumped and rushed to the Zhao family mansion quickly.

In the dark night, his expression was frigid. He thought to himself, "Donnigan, you'd better not do anything to Quin. Otherwise, even if I destroy the Zhao family, it will be difficult to solve the hatred in my heart."

About ten minutes later, Moore called back. "Fade, Quin isn't in the villa. Housekeeper Wong fainted in the villa. Someone knocked her out."

"I got it." Fade hung up the phone. His face was gloomy. His speed was already very fast, but at this moment, it increased a little. With the sound of the wind, he flew toward the Zhao family mansion.

07:52

In the Zhao family courtyard, which was constructed like a bunker, Donnigan was sitting in the study room. A few people were sitting by his side, including Ingram, who was sitting in a wheelchair, and Domuel, who had a weak expression on his face.

"Dad, we can finally get rid of Fade this time!" Ingram gritted his teeth.

Donnigan answered, "The person I hired is very professional, and with Yigor's cooperation, there should be no problem. Of course, even if I didn't kill that guy, I still have a backup plan."

Domuel was troubled about Filex's matter. "Donnigan, we must solve the problem about Filex as soon as possible. Otherwise, if it gets worse, the whole Zhao family will be involved. By then, we'll be in big trouble."

Donnigan nodded and replied, "Of course I know that. Therefore, as soon as Fade returned this time, I arranged for the Capital Security Team of Capital City to control them and try to affect the result of the interrogation."

"If that's the case, I'm afraid it's not that safe. After all, that kid seems to know Mr. Xu. Last time in the Ding family, it was Mr. Xu's signature that saved him," Domuel speculated.

Donnigan frowned slightly and answered, "Of course, it's not easy to fool Mr. Xu. Fortunately, he is now on a mission, and he's not in Capital City. Therefore, we have to take this opportunity to determine the case. At that time, even if Mr. Xu comes back, there is no way to reverse the case."

"Donnigan, you are a great planner. It's just me who was overthinking things," Domuel flattered him.

Ingram, who was standing to the side, was a little curious. He asked, "Dad, did Uncle Filex really commit treason? Or, did our Zhao family take part in..."

"Don't talk nonsense!" Donnigan interrupted him before he could finish his sentence.

07:52

Domuel, with a grave expression, also chimed in, "Ingram, this is a big deal. You can't spurt nonsense. Let's not talk about Filex's matter. Not to mention that it's not conclusive yet. Even if there's a confirmation, it's his own business and has nothing to do with our Zhao family."

"I understand. I won't talk nonsense," Ingram replied as he nodded quickly.

Donnigan's face was gloomy. He looked into the distance, and it was uncertain what he was thinking about. As for Filex's treason, only Donnigan would know whether other people in the Zhao family were aware of it.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door, and Donnigan's adjutant came in and reported, "Sir, something happened to the Capital Security Team."

"What's the matter?" Their faces filled with interest, and they raised their eyebrows.

The adjutant answered, "Four people are being locked up. Among them, Fade killed an outsider and escaped from the Capital Security Team. The rest were taken away by Mr. Mu of the Stealth."

"Fade has escaped! Our plan failed!" Ingram exclaimed and looked at his father.

Donnigan's face darkened. Without saying anything, he took out his cell phone immediately and dialed Yigor's number. After a beeping sound, no one answered.

"Dad, what's wrong?" Ingram questioned with some concern.

Donnigan answered, "Something may have happened to Yigor. He must have confessed. Fade might be coming for us."

"What!" Ingram cried out in shock. "Then we should hurry up and get prepared."

07:52

Donnigan glared at him and shouted, "What's there to be nervous about? If he comes to the Zhao family, things will be easier to handle."

"But Dad..." Ingram was still a little uneasy.

Donnigan interrupted in a deep voice, "Think about it. Fade killed someone and escaped from the Capital Security Team. What does this mean?"

"He is coming to us. Suppose we counterattack in self-defense and kill him, Fade's identity as a traitor will be solid. No one will be able to reverse the case."

"I was still frustrated at first. How could I affirm Fade's identity as the hidden traitor? It looks like he fell into our trap. It is as if the heavens are helping me."

After hearing Donnigan's analysis, Ingram calmed down. The panic on his face turned into the joy of revenge. He agreed, "Fade will definitely die this time."

Donnigan looked up at the adjutant and ordered, "Inform the entire Zhao family to prepare for a first-class defense. Bring that woman here."

"Yes!" The adjutant left.

Donnigan stood up with a smile on his face. "Get ready. Today, the Zhao family is going to remove the thorn in our flesh."

.....

The night was getting darker, and the wind seemed to be colder. However, the anger in Fade's heart was burning his whole body, almost to the point of igniting his entire body.

07:52

Looking at the Zhao family courtyard, which was drawing closer, the scorching gaze in Fade's eyes was about to burst into flames. He thought to himself, "Donnigan, you'd better not lay a finger on Quin. Otherwise, I will destroy the Zhao family."

Whoosh!

With a strong rush of wind, Fade rushed to the door of the Zhao family mansion.

The tall and thick walls of the courtyard were all made of pieces of stone that were a meter in length and half a meter in width. Along with the ten-meter outer wall and the electrical monitor at the top, as well as the armed patrolmen, the entire Zhao family's courtyard was a sturdy military fortress. Forget about breaking through this place, even getting near was extremely difficult.

When Fade appeared twenty meters outside the outer wall, the alarm device immediately released an ear-piercing buzzing sound. The patrolling officer closed in quickly, and several dozen pitch-black muzzles were aimed at him.

Chapter 1709

"Stop! Don't get closer." The Zhao family's guards shouted at Fade.

He looked at them and uttered coldly, "I'm Fade. I'm here to look for Donnigan. You'd better get out of the way!"

"No matter who you are, you can't break into the Zhao family's mansion without permission. Leave now!" The man's voice increased, and he yelled with a stoic face. His finger also moved to the trigger.

Seeing this, Fade's eyes narrowed. He snorted coldly and replied in a low voice, "In that case, don't blame me for being rude."

While speaking, he stepped on the ground and rushed out.

The strength of these guards was not bad, especially the leader, who had actually reached the peak of the Black Level. When Fade moved, he gave the order to shoot to stop him immediately.

In an instant, the sound of the gunshots was like raindrops and poured out in Fade's direction.

However, their actions were still much inferior to him.

Fade's speed was so fast that he almost left a residual shadow, and he was constantly approaching the outer wall of the Zhao family's mansion. The bullets only left marks on the ground behind him and did not hit him at all.

Seeing Fade approaching, the leader of the guards commanded immediately, "Guard the entrance and face him head-on!"

07:52

At the same time, dozens of guards rushed to the entrance, blocking the entire entrance without any crack.

All of them held the weapons with solemn faces, trying hard to capture Fade, who was approaching them constantly. They gritted their teeth and prepared to use all their strength to stop him.

When he approached them, they were instantly aware of how ridiculous their idea was.

Their so-called steel defense line was not worth mentioning at all in front of his horrifying speed and impact.

Fade didn't make any fancy moves as he rushed out at a crazy speed. He just dashed forward, knocked the guard in front of him away, and forced a way out.

"Ahh!" With a miserable cry, the bodyguard was sent flying high into the air. Blood spurted out of his mouth. At this moment, Fade had already rushed into the courtyard of the Zhao family's mansion.

As soon as he entered the courtyard, he noticed dozens of martial artists rushing towards him crazily from three directions.

They held weapons in their hands, and the aura of positive energy on their bodies surged. They burst out waves of energy and rushed towards him madly.

Fade paused for a moment. Without further hesitation, his positive energy surged within his body like a great river. The waves surged and collided with these martial artists with a terrifying force.

He was furious. Thus, he wouldn't control his strength.

As a result, dozens of fierce martial artists were crushed by the raging aura of positive energy when they collided with him. Almost no one was able to withstand his blow and they were defeated instantly.

07:52

If one was to look down from a high vantage point on the battlefield in the courtyard, it was as if the battlefield had turned into a colossal grinding wheel.

He was the hole in the millstone's center, and the surrounding martial artists were grinding yellow peas. They approached the hole constantly and were crushed in a split second. There was no way for them to resist at all.

The siege consisted of dozens of people. All of them were defeated by Fade in five minutes, and no one could stand up.

Fade's expression was ruthless, and his face was covered with bright red blood. He glared at the front and shouted furiously, "Donnigan, you coward! Why don't you come out and fight with me, other than sending your men to die here?"

The rumbling sound, like a clap of thunder, echoed throughout the Zhao family's mansion.

At this moment, Donnigan and the others, who were sitting in the Zhao Family's main hall, heard these words. Their faces changed, and their expressions sank.

At the same time, a servant rushed into the living room and reported urgently, "Mr. Zhao, bad news. The second line of defense in the courtyard, our martial artists, have all been defeated. Fade is approaching."

Hearing this, Donnigan couldn't help but frown. Although he believed that those martial artists couldn't stop Fade, he didn't expect that they couldn't even hold on for five minutes.

However, after a slight shock, he immediately calmed down. Waving his hand, he directed in a low voice, "Don't stop him. Let him come over."

"There's no need. The Zhao Family can't stop me." When Donnigan opened his mouth, a cold voice sounded, and a figure stepped into the Zhao family's hall.

07:52

For a moment, all the eyes of the Zhao family members were focused on this figure. When they looked at it again, they found that it was Fade.

Donnigan's face darkened. He glared at him and commented coldly, "Fade, how dare you trespass into the Zhao family mansion. You even injured and killed the guards of the Zhao family."

Domuel also shouted at the side, "Fade, this is a crime against the law. Do you know? The sentence is the death penalty."

Ingram, who was sitting in a wheelchair, glared at him with a face full of resentment. He gnashed his teeth, "Fade, you'll get what you deserve."

Fade didn't pay any attention to their words. He stared at Donnigan and yelled warningly, "Donnigan, hand over Quin. I will spare the Zhao family's life and only kill you."

"How dare you! How dare you talk to Mr. Zhao like that!" Someone thumped the table and stood up immediately, shouting.

"Fade, do you know what you are doing?"

.....

Donnigan narrowed his eyes and looked at Fade. He sat steadily in the seat and did not move. "Fade, I heard that you returned from Jopeno and were suspected to be involved in Professor Song's treason case. You might be a traitor from Jopeno. The Capital Security Team has detained you and asked you to cooperate with the investigation. Why are you here?"

Hearing this, Fade's eyes narrowed slightly. He did not have any intention of arguing with Donnigan at all. He took a step forward. The positive energy on his body was like boiling water, jumping up and down. "What nonsense are you spouting? Don't make fun of yourself."

07:52

"I only have one last sentence for you. Hand over Quin!"

Feeling Fade's fighting desire, Donnigan was slightly surprised. He thought he could chat with him and anger him to do something outrageous to confirm his identity as a traitor.

He didn't expect that Fade didn't say anything and was going to take action immediately.

Nevertheless, this was also good. For the Zhao family, it was a convenient choice. If he killed Fade, he could validate his identity as a traitor.

Therefore, Donnigan patted the chair's handle, and the aura on his body surged. He was full of fighting spirit, "Fade, don't push your luck. This is the Zhao family, not a place where you can mess around."

Chapter 1710

Fade didn't waste any more time talking to them. He stepped on the ground once again, with a strong force, and just like a ferocious tiger, Fade rushed toward Donnigan.

He felt a sense of danger coming toward him. He stood up and dodged quickly.

When he dodged, the expensive mahogany chair he sat on before was smashed into pieces by Fade and turned into countless fragments flying in the air.

Fade was able to force him into such a mess in one move, which made him furious. His face showed rage as he waved his hand and shouted, "Let's attack together and defeat the villain!"

In an instant, dozens of well-equipped martial artists rushed out from both sides of the hall.

These people had abundant vitality, and their martial arts skills were sturdy. One could tell at a glance that they were not ordinary people.

Fade checked out the strength of these people briefly. Among the sixteen people, there were two martial artists at the early stage of the Heaven Level, eight at the peak of the Earth Level, and the remaining six were all at the late stage of the Earth Level.

This kind of strength was enough to support a force even if they were in a province of the country. If they were on the battlefield, they could even fight against an army.

07:52

Even in some small countries, the strength of the Zhao family's reserve guards was comparable to other party's national forces. It must be said that as a family of imperial guards, the Zhao family's martial art reserve was indeed applaudable. However, the appearance of these people infuriated Fade further, causing the aura of positive energy on his body to surge wildly. He was like an enraged lion as he rushed into the encirclement of these martial artists and began to charge at them madly. Soon, these warriors felt his terrifying strength.

The late-stage Earth Level warriors were sent flying with just one strike from Fade. Their mouths were full of blood, and they fell to the ground, wailing incessantly. Those who were stronger could barely stand up, but they had already lost their ability to fight. Those who were slightly weaker had their internal organs damaged and spat blood out as their energy dissipated gradually. Therefore, after two to three minutes of fighting, only two late-stage Earth Level martial artists were left.

Although the number of peak Earth Level martial artists was greater and stronger than the others, there wasn't much of a difference between them in Fade's hands. They were only able to withstand one or two punches. With a series of crackling sounds, groans and screams were heard one after another.

The martial artists at the peak of the Earth Level were injured by Fade continuously. They flew backward with blood all over their faces and fell to the ground, unable to move.

The only ones who could somewhat withstand the attacks were the two early-stage Heaven Level martial artists. They were a realm higher than the rest, and their strength was quite good.

Nonetheless, Fade was angry. The aura of positive energy surged as if it cost nothing. The energy was activated persistently, and it rushed toward the two Heaven Level martial artists.

07:52

Although their movements were flexible, they were still a little flustered after being enveloped by such a fast and intensive energy.

For a moment, there were dozens of gashes on their clothes, and there were many bleeding wounds on their skin.

These were not serious wounds. However, it made them furious. After all, they were Heaven Level experts and were regarded as Martial Arts Masters. They were respected by others whenever they went.

After being beaten so severely by Fade, the two Heaven Level martial artists became displeased instantly.

With a roar, the martial artists shredded their shirts and approached him. They launched a fierce attack, ready to engage him in a life-and-death battle.

Seeing their movements, Fade was not irritated but happy. He spread his hands to disperse the peak of the Earth Level martial artists around him and faced the two Heaven Level martial artists.

If the two Heaven Level martial artists had been attacking from the periphery all the time and curbed Fade from time to time, it would still be a problem that could not be solved in a short time.

However, they came close to fight him at this moment, which was in line with his wish.

"Good to see you!" After he yelled, Fade faced the two Heaven Level martial artists and punched them with both hands.

Seeing this, the other two became even livid.

After all, they were Martial Arts Masters, but they were looked down upon by Fade as he planned to kill them with one hand.

07:52

They gritted their teeth and burst out almost all their martial arts energy, rushing towards him.

However, when their hands collided with Fade's, they instantly understood why he was so arrogant and why he looked down on them so much.

It was because he was qualified to do so.

The strength of the so-called martial artists at the early stage of the Heaven Level and their identities as Martial Arts Master were nothing in front of Fade at this moment. They were crushed swiftly.

Although he only used one hand to fight against them, the surging aura of positive energy on his arm was like a raging wave, rushing straight toward two of them. The two of them felt that their positive energy was as weak as a muddled paper in front of Fade. The moment it collided, it broke apart immediately.

The raging aura of positive energy rushed through their palms into their meridians and shattered them immediately. Their arms were broken.

Not only that, but the impact had also reached their chests, shocking their internal organs. They spat mouthfuls of blood mixed with foreign matter from their mouths. They were then sent flying.

The two Heaven Level martial artists fought with him fiercely. However, they were defeated by him with one move. Even Donnigan didn't expect such a result, and he couldn't help but stand at the side in a daze.

It wasn't until Fade approached Donnigan with heavy steps that the latter felt a sense of danger.

He stepped back and looked at Fade. His voice trembled slightly. "What, what are you going to do?"

07:52

"Hand over Quin! Otherwise, I'll destroy the Zhao Family!" Fade warned in a low voice.

Donnigan felt a chill run through him. He murmured, "Fade, I don't know what you're talking about. Our Zhao family doesn't have Quin."

"You broke into the Zhao family mansion for no reason, injured and killed so many people. Our Zhao family will definitely report this matter back to the higher-ups. I want to see how you will deal with it." Donnigan retorted coldly, "When the time comes, even Baldrick, Galeno, and General Xu won't be able to speak up for you."

At this moment, Donnigan was a little scared. He no longer brought up the matter of fighting. Instead, he used the official force to put pressure on him.

Fade, who was furious, did not care about this at all. He continued to step forward, glared at Donnigan, and reminded, "I will say it one last time. Hand over Quin, or I will destroy the Zhao family!"

After all, Donnigan was a middle stage Heaven Level martial artist. He was also the patriarch of the Zhao family. When had he ever received such a threat? Thus, he was instantly triggered. With a loud yell, he attacked Fade. "Fade, don't push it too far."

In an instant, he dashed out in Fade's direction. Beside him, there was also a black shadow.