

My Love, Enlighten me novel

Her half-blooded elder sister, Anne Taylor didn't want to marry that ugly and disabled man. So her biological mother knelt down to beg her, "She deserves a better man. Please, help her."

Those words broke her heart. Being hurt deep, she decided to marry that ugly and disabled man instead of her elder sister.

On the day of wedding, the handsome man frowned, saying with disgust, "You are too ugly."

She thought they would be like this and live like strangers in a house, however, this man tore her mask and teased her with smiling eyes while staring at the gorgeous face, "I think we have too many misunderstandings."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 1 You are too ugly.

In front of the dressing mirror, Gloria was waiting for the makeup artist.

Suddenly, the door was opened, and Tina came in in a hurry.

Seeing Gloria's messy hair and long gray cotton padded jacket, she scolded, "Clarke's are all here. Why don't you change your clothes?"

Gloria pushed the black framed glasses on her nose, looking dull with drooping eyelids, "Mom, do you really want me to marry my sister's fiance?"

Thinking Gloria regret, Tina's face turned pale because of anxiousness.

The Clarke's were waiting outside. Even a small change would destroy Taylor family!

She was so anxious that she knelt down in front of Gloria. "Gloria, please. Your sister deserves a better man. Help her!"

Gloria's dull eyes became cold gradually. Although Tina was her own mother, she gave all her love to the two children left by her father's deceased ex-wife.

Therefore, even if Tina knew that her younger sister, Anne's fiancé was ugly and had impotence, she still insisted on letting her, Gloria marry that impotent man!

Outside the door, there was a cry from the servant, "Madame, Lady Gloria, the Clarke's are coming upstairs."

Gloria didn't reach out to help Tina, but said coldly, "get up. I'm leaving."

At this time, she had lost all her hopes.

She opened the door and saw a group of strange bodyguards standing outside. These were sent by the Clarke family to pick her up.

There was wedding but no groom. She was getting married today.

"Let's go." She walked in front and took the lead downstairs.

Clarke family was the top-ranking family in Huyang city and its only heir in line, Kenny Clarke, who was kidnapped more than ten years ago, was disfigured and was hurt in his sexual function.

Since then, Kenny had never appeared in public.

It was said that he was cruel and ugly. Every woman who was sent to his house didn't come out alive.

Despair is the greatest sorrow. Even if Kenny was a devil, she didn't care now.

When she arrived at Kenny's villa, the bodyguards took her into the room and left.

It wasn't until the sky outside the window was getting dark that the door was open again.

Gloria turned around, and saw a tall and upright man coming in.

He closed the door and turned on the light.

The light suddenly on, which offended to Gloria's eyes. So she subconsciously blocked in front of her eyes. And then she just looked up at the man.

She froze at a glance.

It was not because man was ugly but because he was too handsome.

The dark suit wrapped his tall and strong body. He strode over.

His facial features were deep and perfect, like a fine work of art. He was good-looking, but he gave people a strong sense of oppression.

Kenny looked at Gloria for a few seconds. He frowned slightly. "You are so ugly."

His calm tone had no superfluous emotions.

Gloria collected herself at once. She didn't care much about his rude words but just looked at him warily, "Who are you?"

His dark pupils radiated a sharp light, "Don't you know whom you marry today?"

As he got closer, the cold breath made Gloria shiver.

She was slightly smothered by the powerful atmosphere, but she still straightened her back, "of course I know that the man I marry is Kenny Clarke!"

Hearing the words, the sharpness in Kenny's eyes disappeared gradually, and then he understood. It seemed that she also believed the hearsay.

She married a "ugly and impotent" man, but her expression seemed too calm. He was a little interested in her calmness.

He smiled, pretending to be a giddy man. "You are my cousin's wife. I'm Leon, the cousin of Kenny. On the night of his new marriage, I think you don't want to be with an impotent man."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 2 As Doing Good.

He deliberately stressed the word "impotent".. The a low ending had a sense of temptation.

The man closed to her on purpose. The cold breath was more strong.

Gloria felt uncomfortable and moved aside. After a short doubt, she believed his words.

After all, the villa of Kenny was not accessible to ordinary people.

"He's your cousin. Please don't say that about him." Even he said his cousin like this. She thought Kenny must live a bad life.

Gloria felt the sympathy to him from the bottom of her heart.

Even if Clarke family was a top-ranking family, according to Kenny's condition, he must have had a hard time these years.

There was a surprise in Kenny's black eyes. He had no idea that this ugly woman would say that.

He couldn't help looking at her again.

She had messy hair, black frame glasses and long cotton padded clothes. The heavy bangs on the forehead almost covered the eyes, and a few small spots were on the dark yellow face. It was really disgusting to see more.

There was no doubt that this ugly woman was not his beautiful fiancée.

But those people in the Clarke family didn't care whether the woman married him was ugly or beautiful. As long as she was a woman who can have babies, they won't pursue even if she was changed.

Kenny's eyes flashed a dark light. He reached out his hand and pushed the Gloria to the bed. His tone had undisguised contempt and malice. "There's no one else here. You don't need to pretend. If you grow up like this, you must not be a serious woman. I'll take it as doing good to satisfy you."

With that, he reached directly into her clothes...

"Pa!"

Gloria slapped in his face with all strength, "Not all the people are as dirty as you. Your cousin hasn't come. You should leave immediately. I can regard as nothing happening."

Although she had tried to keep calm, her trembling hands betrayed her.

On her way here, she just imagined how ugly Kenny was, but she did not expect such a thing.

Kenny's face was terrible and he became cold "No woman ever dare to hit me."

Because of the struggle, her glasses have fallen off, showing a pair of clear and pure eyes unexpectedly. The constantly shaking eyelashes showed her tension and fear.

Kenny stopped. He didn't know why he was soft-hearted now.

He stood up, straightened his skirt and gave her a cold look. "You can continue to wait for that useless man here."

Bang!

Until the door was closed, she was relaxed a little.

Outside.

A bodyguard saw the red mark on Kenny's face and said, "young master, your face..."

Kenny touched his face and said expressionless, "I was hit by the door."

What door can bump five finger marks on the face?

But the bodyguard did not dare to ask more. He only respectfully handed in a document, "this is the lady's personal data."

Kenny opened the document and saw the name on it: Gloria Taylor.

That ugly girl looked very bad but her name was "Gloria"?

Her own mother was a little interesting. She treated her stepson and stepdaughter like pearls. She was really cruel to her own daughter.

Next, he frowned and asked the bodyguard, "is she a fool?"

The bodyguard nodded.

Kenny said without expression, "check again."

When Gloria talked, the words were clearly organized.

Besides, he had never seen a fool who was against and slapped him in that situation.

Thinking of it, his face was bad. He threw the information to the bodyguard's arms, "If you can't find satisfying information, you can leave!"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 3 The Next Morning

The next morning.

Gloria woke up suddenly, against the bedhead, only to find that it was already dawn.

Kenny didn't come back last night.

She was a little relaxed and worried.

The feeling was like a knife hanging on her head, which was there all the time. It made her nervous.

...

After Gloria bathing and washing, a bodyguard came to take her to the dinning hall.

The dinning hall and the kitchen were close. As soon as she entered, she saw a tall and upright figure coming out of the kitchen with breakfast.

Seeing that the man was "Leon", she turned around and wanted to leave, but unexpectedly the man said, "good morning, cousin."

His voice was sexy, but giddy.

The bodyguard on one side trembled. Was this a role play with the young lady?

Gloria felt sick to see him. She didn't know what he wanted to do, staying at his cousin's house every day.

"Good morning." She pushed her glasses, and said stiffly. She turned to look at the bodyguard behind her. "Isn't your young master here?"

The bodyguard glanced at Kenny carefully who was expressionless and said, "young master is not feeling well recently. He is in hospital."

Gloria looked silly, just because of being suppressed by Tina since childhood. She can't be better than elder brother and elder sister, so she hid her real aspects.

Such a obvious lie from the bodyguard can't deceive her naturally.

But she nodded, "Oh, can I see him then?"

"Not very convenient these days." The bodyguard continued to lie.

It seemed that Kenny didn't like her very much. He didn't even want to see her.

Kenny put the breakfast on the table, saying in a light tone, "have breakfast."

When Gloria went downstairs, she found that there was no servant in the villa. Did he make this breakfast?

"Why? Are you afraid I'll spike your breakfast?" Kenny was close to her. His eyes were full of gloom making people terrified.

Gloria stepped back involuntarily, "thank you for breakfast, but I am not hungry."

With that, she turned around and went out in a hurry.

She met a bodyguard in the hall who went to pick her up yesterday. "Would you please take me down the mountain? I want to go back to Taylor family and get something. "

When she came yesterday, she didn't bring anything. She had to go back to get some clothes and other things. She noticed that the villa was built on the middle of the mountain yesterday. If she wanted to leave, she had to pass the mountain road, which was far away.

Instead of answering her immediately, the bodyguard looked behind her.

When she looked back, she saw that "Leon" had followed her at some time.

He put his hands in the pockets of the suit pants, and came to her casually. "Cousin want to go home to get something? Let me send you. There is no need to bother others. "

The voice fell, and his arm went round her shoulder.

Gloria felt disgusted and threw off his hand, "No."

She didn't understand that the man said she was ugly yesterday but he was pestering her today.

"Madam, let young...Let Mr. Leon send you." Said the bodyguard at the right time.

...

Finally, it was "Leon" who Gloria back to Taylor family.

Because, he approached her ear and said, "Your skin is smooth..."

She was afraid that he would do anything unusual, so she had to follow him to get in the car...

In the quiet car, Gloria grasped the safety belt tightly and looked at the front, without giving "Leon" any attention.

Seeing her like this, Kenny was interested in her more.

Although the newly married wife was a little ugly, she was quite decent.

Originally, he just wanted to tease her yesterday, but her reaction was so interesting that he wanted to continue playing this game.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 4 Don't Wear Glasses.

The black car stopped in front of Taylor villa.

Gloria was about to untie the safety belt when Kenny leaned over. The slender and beautiful fingers gently pressed on the buckle of the safety belt. Pa! The safety belt was released.

His handsome face was close at hand. Even if Gloria was calm, she can't help but blush and her heart beat very fast. There was a panic in her dull eyes.

His face was enough to make all women love him.

But thinking of his bad behavior yesterday, Gloria calmed down again.

He was just a rich playboy who teased his sister-in-law. He wasted his good face.

She raised her head and pushed her glasses. She looked a little dull. Her eyes framed her silliness. "I'm going to get off the car."

The eyes of Kenny were slightly shrunk, and the his atmosphere suddenly burst out, and he was a danger man now.

Gloria felt his changes. She opened the door to get off right now, but he stopped her hand at first.

This strong man used his long arm in front of her. From the outside, he seemed to hold her in his arms.

He looked at her clear eyes through her glasses and said meaningfully, "I'm kind enough to send my sister-in-law back. Don't you thank me?"

She lowered her head, with a little coward expression, and murmured, "thank you."

Those people of Taylor family felt bored when they saw her like this. She hoped "Leon" would feel the same.

Looking at her slightly pressed pink lips, Kenny's eyes darkened. "Your thanks is so insincere. I have to take my own thank-you gift."

Obviously, it was a face with dark skin, but she had such a pink lips, which made him have the impulse to kiss.

Since she was his wife, why should he control his desire?

Thinking of it, he leaned over and kissed her on the lips.

Gloria felt a soft object on her lips.

She stared at the big face in front of her eyes. She wanted to reach out to push him away, but found her hands had been tightly clasped by him.

Kenny was very satisfied with her reaction. He took off her glasses with one hand. Her clear and bright eyes showed.

She looked better now.

Gloria's cheeks were red because of anger. This man is too presumptuous to insult her at the door of Taylor family!

At the end of the kiss, he left her lips but he still longed for more. He ordered "You can't wear glasses. Otherwise, when I see that once, I'll kiss you."

It was warm and sweet. She wanted to try again if he had a chance.

Saying the second half of the sentence, he deliberately lowered the voice but stressed the tone. He looked at her recklessly.

He was like a fierce beast patrolling its territory, full of invasion.

Gloria just wanted to scold him shameless, a female voice broke the quiet in the car.

"Gloria?"

Hearing that, Gloria suddenly turned round to look at outside through the half open window.

Tina opened her eyes in shock with surprise and anger. "How are you here?"

Gloria clenched tightly. The eye flashed a little flustered quickly.

On the first day of marriage, she let her mother see such a scene in front of the house...

After all, Tina also cared about the dignity. Looking around, she found that there was no one, so she said coldly, "get off."

Gloria opened the door and went off.

As soon as she went down, Tina pulled her into the villa.

But unexpectedly, Kenny in the car stuck his face out of the window at this time, rubbed his lips with his fingers, and said casually, "Sister-in-law, I wait for you here."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 5 Like A Servant

When Tina heard "sister-in-law", her face became heavy and she glared at Gloria

Gloria bit her lips. Did "Leon" want to kill her?

Tina pulled Gloria in the hall of the villa and threw off her hand coldly.

She looked at Gloria with a livid face. "Did that man just call you sister-in-law? Is he the cousin of Kenny? "

Gloria nodded, "Yes."

"Pa!"

Tina slapped her in the face heavily, causing her ears buzzing.

"Shameless. You pester with your husband's cousin on the first day of marriage. You want to bring us a big trouble?! If you want to die, don't implicate Taylor family! "

Gloria looked down, reached out to touch her painful numb face. She looked at Tina indifferently, "why don't you ask me I am voluntary or not?"

Every time, she scolded her at first and taught her a lesson, but never asked the reason.

"One is a useless impotent man whose face was destroyed. The other is a normal and healthy man. Everyone knows how to choose. You were with this cousin last night, weren't you?"

Woman's delicate voice came from the stairs, soft and gentle, but full of malice.

As soon as Tina saw Anne going downstairs, she hurried up and asked, "Anne, are you better?"

"Mom, I'm much better." Anne smiled softly at Tina, and came to Gloria. "Gloria, although I can understand you, you also need to consider for Taylor family, and you should control yourself a little."

Just upstairs, she saw Gloria and a man kissing in the car through the window. She didn't expect that Gloria, who usually looked stupid and ugly, had the ability to flirt with man.

With that, she turned to look at Tina, and said childishly, "Mom, am I right?"

Tina smiled, "of course, Anne is right."

Gloria clenched tightly and pressed the lip to say nothing.

People who didn't know them may think Anne and Tina were mother and daughter.

For those years, Tina has been trying to stand firm in Taylor family and tried her best to please every in Taylor family. Her own daughter seemed to have been adopted by her.

Tina stopped smiling and looked at Gloria with a serious face. "Gloria, since you have married into Clarke family, you have to guard your duty and don't let Taylor family humiliate."

Gloria looked and covered the sarcasm at the bottom of her eyes. On the surface, she looked like a doormat. In a calm voice, she said, "you remind me that if I am not happy one day and do something bad, I don't know if the Clarke family will be angry so that the whole Taylor family will be dealt."

Anne didn't expect that Gloria who was stupid and coward all the time would say that. She frowned and said, "what do you mean?"

"That's what my sister understand." Gloria looked up. Her empty and dull eyes was as same as usual.

Did they think she would be bossed around like a servant?

It was because she had expectations for her mother, Tina before. After she forced herself to replace her sister to marry into Clarke family, she had no expectations at all.

"You!"

Anne was used to boss around Gloria. This was the first time that Gloria was against her.

She glared at her and turned to look at Tina. "Mom, I'm kind to give advise to Gloria. How can she do this!"

Of course, Tina understood the threat in Gloria's words, but when she thought that Gloria would compromise on anything before. She said sternly as an identity of her mother, "Gloria, apologize to your sister."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 6 Take Me Away, Quickly.

Gloria stared at Tina with cold eyes, "apologize? No way. "

In Tina's memory, this daughter was really smart and beautiful when she was a child, but as time went by, she became more uglier and more stupid. This is the first time that she saw such a sharp eyes of Gloria, which made her cold all over.

She swallowed her saliva, turned her head and whispered to Anne, "Anne, let her go today. In case that she..."

Anne was not willing, but she can only forget it.

If Gloria really did some bad things, the Clarke family could get angry and implicate Taylor family. How can she still live the rich life as Lady Anne?

Seeing that they were shocked by her words, Gloria turned and went upstairs to tidy up her things.

She has lived in Taylor house for 20 years, but she had few things. She was like a guest.

When she went downstairs carrying the suitcase, nobody was in the hall.

Gloria hesitated for a moment, then went to the back door and left.

Although she didn't know why the cousin of Kenny was interested in her, she knew that it was right to stay away from him.

...

Kenny has been waiting for a long time in the front door of Taylor villa, but he didn't see Gloria coming out, and his face became bad.

Thinking of the information yesterday, he frowned slightly. That ugly woman would not be bullied by Taylor family, right?

As soon as the thought came out, he could not help but reach out and touch his face that she had beaten. He snorted coldly. She didn't seem to be easily bullied.

"Would you like to come in, sir?"

Soft female voice came, Kenny turned his head and saw a delicate woman standing beside the car through the car window.

Anne was stunned when she saw his face.

Before, she saw a man kissing Gloria in the car upstairs, but she didn't expect that this man was so good-looking and charming.

How can such an excellent man take a fancy to the stupid and ugly woman?

It seemed that her decision of going out was right.

Kenny understood her thoughts clearly.

He sneered, "who are you?"

"I'm Gloria's sister. My name is Anne." She didn't mind the coldness of Kenny at all.

Anne?

Kenny remembered. One of the two daughters of Taylor family, besides Gloria, was his fiancée.

In the eyes of ordinary people, she was really beautiful. But in his eyes, he even thought that the ugly face of Gloria was more pleasant.

He didn't have the patience to talk to her. He asked without expression, "Where is Gloria?"

"She...She should still be packing in the room. She asked me to invite you in. " Anne didn't want to let go of this opportunity. The man who was related to Clarke family must be rich, let alone looked pretty.

Seeing through her mind, Kenny can't help sneering. Gloria let him coming in?

She must run away secretly now!

He didn't even looked at Anne again. He lowered the window and drove away.

Anne has never been treated so coldly by a man, and her face was blue for a while.

Gloria went back to the small room she rented.

After going to university, she has been living in the school, and after graduation and having practice, she rented a house outside.

If it wasn't Tina forced her to marry into Clarke family recently, she would not have stepped into Taylor house.

Anyway, Kenny didn't live in the villa and didn't want to see her. What was the matter if she didn't go back?

It was already afternoon after tidying up her things. She planed to go out and buy something.

She lived in a famous slum in Huyang City, with poor transportation and all kinds of people.

As soon as she turned into an alley, she heard a loud bang.

It seemed...the gun shot?

She looked up and saw a white van like a mad wild dog, running towards her uncontrollably.

She ran to one side in a minute. As the van passed her, the van door suddenly opened and a tall man jumped out of it.

He just rolled to Gloria, protecting his head with his hands.

She was about to step back but the man suddenly jumped up and put a cold object on her temple. The man's pleasant voice was familiar with her. "Take me away, quickly."

When Gloria looked up to see the man's face, she exclaimed subconsciously "Leon!"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 7 Take It out for Me

Kenny also didn't expect to meet Gloria here.

He followed the man to this place, but was attacked unexpectedly.

There were many houses and the terrain was complex. He can't distinguish the direction at all. He wanted to threaten a man to take him away, but he didn't expect to encounter Gloria.

He didn't know why, when he saw the stiff face of Gloria, he had an inexplicable sense of trust in his heart.

He put the gun away, and stared at her with his deep eyes. His voice was low and cold: "what are you doing here?"

"I live here." Gloria was frightened by the gun in his hand, and she was obedient to tell the truth.

There was a surprise in the eyes of Kenny. The third Lady of Taylor family lived in such a place?

But soon he became normal and ordered, "take me where you live."

"No way." She would rather be killed than take this man to the place where she lived.

"Heh heh." The Kenny already expected that she would have this reaction. He sneered and his voice was terrifying as a ghost: "want me to tell my cousin you tempt me?"

He threatened her again!

Gloria clenched hands tightly. Her small face was red because of anger but she can't do anything to this shameless man.

At last, she turned around and walked where she came, "you come with me."

It was only half a minute for them to talk here.

As soon as they left, two men in black came up.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, Kenny hurried into another alley with Gloria alertly, and went in after finding a house.

When the two men left, he took Gloria out.

Gloria was so nervous. She didn't know who was offended by "Leon", but she also knew that it was not the time to ask.

...

Two people hurriedly returned to the small single room of Gloria.

Gloria stood at the door and looked around like a thief. Then she came into the room.

"What are you..."

She closed the door, turned around and was about to ask "Leon" who had been offended by him. Before she could finish, she saw him suddenly fall down.

"What's the matter?" Gloria's face changed, hurriedly walking to help him.

But Kenny was tall and muscular. She was too weak to help him up, but the blood stained one of her hand.

Only then did she find that the face of "Leon" was extreme pale. Because he was wearing black clothes, the blood could not be seen.

Looking at her flustered face, Kenny suddenly reached out and grabbed her hand. He said with thin lips, "what are you afraid of? Don't worry. They will let you accompany me when I die."

His tone was so indifferent that it was hard to tell whether he was serious or joking.

Gloria did not have the mood to listen to his words. She thought of the gunshot that heard before, saying with a serious face: "you let me go. I will take the cell phone to call an ambulance for you!"

His face suddenly sank and his voice was cold: "no ambulance."

Gloria feeling he aggravated strength, her one hand was hurt. His cold face gave a lot pressure on her so that she dare not refute.

She said tentatively, "well...I'll bandage the wound for you? "

Kenny directly ignored her words and said in a deep voice, "blades, a lighter, candles, bandages, towels."

Gloria understood that he was to want to take out bullet by himself.

She shook her head in fright. "No, you can't take out your bullet by yourself. You'll die."

"Who said I would take it out by myself?" Looking at her, Kenny's dark eyes were as deep as the black whirlpool which can make people in.

When she was attracted by his eyes, she heard him say quietly, "take it out for me."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 8 A Clever and Kind Woman.

"What?" Gloria was frightened, "I can't!"

Although she hated the man, she feared life.

Even though she was born, it was only the trouble caused by Loren and Tina's contraceptive failure and Anne boss her around like a servant in Talyor family these years, she still worked hard to live.

She did not know why "Leon" could say such a matter of life and death so lightly, but she would not agree with him.

"Do you want to accompany me to die?" Kenny raised up his eyebrows

The tone was still indifferent, but it showed an unquestionable firmness.

Gloria's face was face, and she got things helplessly.

She felt that from the moment she married into Clarke family, her life had already collapsed to be irreparable. It didn't matter if it got worse.

She even thought that if "Leon" really died when she took out the bullet for him, it would not be too bad for her to accompany such a charming man to die.

...

Gloria has been trying to keep calm, but still can not control her hand shaking.

She used a blade to peel off the flesh on the edge of his wound while paying attention to the condition of "Leon".

She found that except for his pale face and sweat on his forehead, he had no special reaction, even his eyebrows frowned slightly.

The special thing was that he has been looking at her.

She could feel he was weak now, but his eyes burned her.

Gloria couldn't bear, "You don't look at me."

In fact, Kenny was not as calm as he had shown. He suffered from wounds and excessive blood loss. He almost fainted.

However, when he watched Gloria, the pain was miraculously decreased.

"Don't be nervous. I won't die. I believe you." The voice of Kenny was light but firm.

Gloria has never been trusted like this. She ground and more focused on taking out bullet for him.

...

Gloria felt it's been a century long.

When she finally took the bullet out, she was already sweating.

She washed her hands in the nearby basin and asked Kenny with concern, "how do you feel?"

Her impression of "Leon" was a "playboy" before, but after taking out the bullet, she could not help admiring him.

During the whole process, he didn't cry out for pain or pass out. She only saw this kind of non-human perseverance in the movie.

At the same time, she also felt that this man had a kind of profound mystery, but also he was terrible.

"Get a pen and I'll make a list for you." Although the Kenny's face was pale, he was very intimidating when he spoke.

Gloria wrote down the medicine list and went out to buy medicine for him.

She ran several drugstores very cautiously to buy all the medicine.

...

When Gloria came back, Kenny noticed that she was carrying several plastic bags printed with different names of drugstores, and the corners of his lips were slightly raised.

What a clever and kind woman.

He can see that Gloria hated him.

Or, what she hated was "Leon".

She probably thought that he was being chased by his enemies. She bought medicine at several different stores to cure his injuries for fear of causing suspicion.

Gloria took out medicine and squatted down in front of him: "I will give you medicine. If it's hurt, you let me be gentle."

Until she finished the medicine, Kenny didn't moan at all.

Just as she was about to get up, the man suddenly reached for her, pressed her lips and kissed her.

"I said, no glasses."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 9 He Wanted to Kiss Her.

Gloria looked particularly gentle who put on the medicine for Kenny. This gentleness made Kenny move a little.

Then, he wanted to kiss her.

She was his wife, and it was right to do anything.

But for Gloria, he was "Leon", the cousin of Kenny.

He teased her and kissed her again and again, far beyond her endurance.

Gloria pushed him away fiercely, far away from him, and said with cold face, "Leon, I am your sister-in-law! Please show respect! "

After taking out the bullet just now, she didn't hate "Leon" so much. Unexpectedly, he was still so unbridled.

Kenny rubbed his lips like recalling the feeling just now, and his pleasant voice was full of temptation: "sister-in-law, you are only a widow with my cousin. Don't you consider me?"

Gloria refused directly and simply: "No."

She looked like a little old woman with cold small face and ugly dress. She was no charming.

Kenny thought that Gloria was very lively.

Gloria felt that she can't wait any longer, which would only make "Leon" more unbridled.

"Call someone to pick you up, or I'll call for an ambulance, and then other people will know you've been shot."

Her voice was soft. Even if she said threatening words, people would not be afraid.

Kenny glanced at her, as if he didn't hear her, and then closed his eyes to rest.

Gloria: "..."

She bit her lips, looked at his pale face, and could not bear to wake him up and drive him away.

Taking advantage of the time when "Leon" had a rest, Gloria went to the vegetable market.

Although she was the third Lady of Taylor family, she didn't enjoy a rich lady's life. Most of the time, nobody care whether she was ill, hungry or suffering from pain.

So, she had a strong ability to live.

She indeed hated "Leon", but she could not ignore him at the risk of letting he die here.

She lived very seriously and worked very hard. She didn't want to let him die or accompany him to die.

So, she still made soup for him reluctantly.

...

It was night until Gloria woke up "Leon".

"Are you hungry? I've made soup. Would you like some? " She stood two steps away from him for fear that he would act recklessly again.

Looking up at her, Kenny spited out a word,"yes."

Gloria got some soup and put it on the small table in front of the bed, and went back far away all of a sudden.

But her cubicle was too small.

In addition to the partition of the small kitchen and bathroom, a one point five meter bed, a small folding table, a single small sofa, semi new bookshelf...these things have occupied most of the room.

No matter how far she jumped, she could not be out of the sight of Kenny.

Kenny took a look at her, got up straight slowly, then opened the quilt expressionless, exposed the blood stained gauze on his chest, and said casually, "the wound is cracked."

With the casual tone, he seemed to talk about other people's things instead of the fetal wound of himself.

Gloria just wanted to ignore him, but she can't bear that.

She could only walk to him slowly. Her one hand held soup bowl and the another hand held the spoon to his lips.

Kenny said nothing at this time. He looked down and swallowed the soup she had given him.

The small room was quiet, only the light sound of the spoon touching the edge of the bowl. The wordless ambiguity spread out like this.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 10 Regard Her as a Springboard

The next day.

Gloria was woken up by the ring of her mobile phone.

In order to meet the setting of the bumpkin, when everyone around used smart phones with beautiful appearances and full functions, she still used the old machine that can only make phone calls and send messages.

Taking the cell phone, and looking at the remarks, she suddenly woke up.

She hesitated for a moment before she got through: "Dad."

Loren's voice was always serious: "did you go home yesterday? Who sent you back? "

He as a father called a newly married daughter, but just asked such a trivial question. Gloria only felt cold.

Usually, Loren seldom called her. He called to ask about this suddenly. Gloria doubted his intentions.

But she still told the truth: "it's the cousin of Kenny."

Loren pondered for a moment at that end, and then said, "when you have time, take your sister to Clarke family and introduce some suitable young men to her to let her make more friends."

The meaning of his words was clear.

After she left the villa of Taylor family yesterday, "Leon" and Anne may have met.

Anne was likely to like "Leon", so she wanted her to create chances to meet each other for her.

These father and daughter had a good thought.

It were Kenny and Anne who made a marriage agreement, but in the end she married Kenny.

Then, they used her as a springboard to find another excellent man to be Anne's husband.

Everyone in the Shanghai knew that except Kenny, his cousins were all capable.

A trace of self mockery appeared in Gloria's eyes. Anne was his own daughter but She was his own daughter as well.

How can they be inclined so much?

Gloria endured the grievance and tried to keep the voice calm: "I would like to take my sister to Clarke house, but I haven't seen Kenny until now."

Loren became angry immediately, hearing that she didn't even see Kenny.

"You even haven't even seen my husband. You are useless. You still have the face to go home?"

Gloria felt sad, bearing the tears . her tone didn't change at all."you can send elder sister to Clarke house, maybe Kenny would like to see her? I'm not his real wife. Why does he want to see me? "

Kenny who came out of the bathroom just heard her.

She sat on the bed. Her hair was dark and thick like seaweed, and her fingers were holding her mobile phone. He could see the raised blue blood vessels because of too much force. Her watery eyes were full of tears but she was stubborn and the tears did not flow out. The delicate figure made him want to comfort her.

Kenny squinted his black eyes and found that the new wife looked more and more pleasant.

The person at the other end of the phone said something. Gloria's face turned white. She didn't talk or hang up.

Kenny went straight to her, grabbed her cell phone and hung up.

Oh, this woman even used this kind of mobile phone.

Then, he looked down at Gloria. She couldn't know his emotion from his indifferent voice "If you do not want to listen, You could just ignore."

Gloria looked up in a hurry, tears still in her eyes. She felt that his face was not clear.

But strangely, she heard comfort in his words.

But at the next moment, she widened her eyes "how am I in bed?"

She gave up her bed to the injured man. And she slept on the sofa last night!

"You got on the bed by yourself." Kenny said without expression. He went to the bed and lay down beside her.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 11

Original appearance

Gloria Taylor never sleepwalked.

She blushed and turned to look at him: "You ..."

"I am an injury." Kenny Clarke turned to look at her, and his voice sounded cold.

Gloria Taylor had never been in bed with a man together. The cold breath from him was too strong, and his powerful aura made her extinguished utterly.

She bit her lips nervously and pulled the quilt to get out of bed, but she was caught by the man beside her.

Kenny Clarke's eyesight fell on her face, and he looked at her with an exploration: "Why are your hands so pale and your face so dark"

Gloria Taylor was shocked to withdraw her hand, and whispered: "It's inborn."

Then, she jumped out of bed like a rabbit and went to the bathroom.

Kenny Clarke's eyes were full of interests.

In the bathroom.

Gloria Taylor looked at herself in the mirror that her face was sallow, her eyes flashed self-deprecation.

She took out makeup remover from the cabinet under the sink and started removing makeup.

A beautiful woman with fair face and bright eyes appeared in the mirror.

If she didn't rent a house outside after graduation, she needed remove every day that she might forget what she was like.

The mother would be happy if her daughter was beautiful.

Tina Walker always counted her when she was a child that she grabbed Anne Taylor's limelight and did not buy her beautiful clothes.

At that time, she tried her best to please Tina Walker.

She dropped the tailender from the first place in the grade and became an ugly girl without friends from the school beauty...

But Tina Walker did not care it at all.

She didn't want to believe that Tina Walker didn't love her at all.

She disguised herself again and left the bathroom half an hour later.

Kenny Clarke leaned on the bed and held his mobile phone to watch something. The impeccable expression looked a little ascetic.

After thinking for a while, she said:"I'm going out. Call somebody to pick you up by yourself."

Kenny Clarke did not respond.

Gloria Taylor also didn't care, and she took the bag to leave.

She finished last job in a hurry because Tina Walker ordered her to prepare to get marry at home.

She had to find a new job to feed herself.

Morning passed quickly.

Suddenly, a black car stopped in front of her.

The car window came down, a young man smiled at her and said: "Gloria, where are you going?"

A flash of light flashed on Gloria Taylor's eyes, and there was an inscrutable joy in her voice: "Colin Hall? Why are you here?"

"Get in the car first, I can't stop here for long." Colin Hall said, and opened the door for her.

Gloria Taylor got in the car, as soon as she closed the car door, she heard Colin Hall said, "I have an appointment with your sister for dinner, let's eat together."

Anne Taylor?

She should have thought about it.

A long time ago, it was said that Anne Taylor and Colin Hall were golden boy and jade girl.

But they had not been together, so she could hide her thought and continued to be friends with Colin Hall.

She twitched her lips stiffly: "I am not free, so I could not..."

"It's long time for us not to eat together, just listen to me." Colin Hall's attitude was tough and did not give her opportunity to refuse.

Arrived in the restaurant soon.

Anne Taylor had arrived. She saw Gloria Taylor and Colin Hall coming together, and her face was suddenly cold.

But Colin Hall didn't realize it: "Anne, I met Gloria on the way, so I take her here, don't you mind?"

Anne Taylor smiled and said softly, "Of course, I don't mind."

"I'll go to the bathroom, you two talk first." Colin Hall dropped words with a smile, and turned away.

As soon as he left, the smile on Anne Taylor's face disappeared: "The loser of the Clarke family can't satisfy you, so you want to hook up Colin?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 12

Believed It or Not

Gloria Taylor was disgusted with Anne Taylor's unkind face, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"You know very well what nonsense I'm talking about." Anne Taylor snorted coldly, "Dare you say that you don't like Colin?"

Gloria Taylor bowed her head. She was silent.

She dared not say it.

Because, she liked Colin Hall all along.

Suddenly, Anne Taylor exclaimed in surprise, "Colin?"

Gloria Taylor looked up. She didn't know when Colin Hall came back.

She looked at Colin Hall nervously and wondered how much he had heard.

However, Colin Hall tilted his head away. He didn't even bat an eye on her.

She knew that Colin Hall must have heard them.

Anne Taylor looked at Collin Hall's reaction with satisfaction. She comforted Collin Hall with a smile, "Collin, don't think of it as a burden. Gloria is married. We can be together in peace."

Anne Taylor thought that it was a normal reaction that that ugly and stupid Gloria Taylor deserved. She didn't know why their cousin, Kenny Clarke, tangled with her.

Perhaps, it was nothing but an occasional excitement.

"Gloria, are you married?" Collin Hall turned his head and looked at Gloria Taylor.

"Yes. She told me before that even if she wanted to get married, but she knew she wouldn't have much good options. So, she wanted to marry into the Clarke family. I advised her, the Clarkes are indeed rich and powerful, but that kind of husband..."

Anne Taylor paused and shook her head sadly.

However, Gloria Taylor knew that Anne Taylor was about to say she married the Clarke for their money.

Collin Hall frowned. He looked disappointed, "Anyway, thank you for marrying the Clarkes on Anne's behalf."

Anne Taylor was also grateful, "Yes. If you didn't marry the Clarkes for me, I wouldn't be able to get together with Collin."

Gloria Taylor bit her lower lips and tried to defend herself, "It's not like what she said."

Although it was impossible for her to be with Collin Hall all her life, but she didn't want to be misunderstood as a gold digger.

Collin Hall frowned, "Gloria, you don't have to explain it to me. I can understand. Kenny, even though he is not in his best condition, but the Clarkes will surely treat you well."

Gloria Taylor calmed herself down.

Suddenly, her phone buzzed.

She took it out and opened the message. A list of menu and nothing else.

She didn't know who sent it to her, but she would just excuse herself to leave.

"If you'll excuse me." she stood up and looked at Collin Hall with a straight face, "I used to like you, and I won't deny it. But, how I ended up marrying the Clarke family, Anne knew best. Believe it or not, it's up to you."

She used to like Collin Hall because he was the man who didn't abandon her and cared for her very much.

But now, it seemed that it was just a false sympathy.

The Taylor and the Hall were friends for years. How could he not know her conduct?

Oh, right. Even Tina Walker, her own mother didn't believe her, why would Collin Hall, an outsider believe her?

After that, she strode out of the room.

When the door was closed, she heard Collin Hall said to Anne Taylor, "I used to think that she was warm and kind, but I didn't expect her to be like this."

Anne Taylor pretended to be sad, she said, "Me too."

Gloria Taylor clenched her hands. She sipped her lips and left the restaurant.

The phone inside her pocket ringed. She pressed the connect button without looking.

"Buy the dishes in the menu, wrap them, and take them back home." said the familiar deep voice in the phone.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 13 I'm Poor

Gloria Taylor was stunned for a moment, and reacted that this voice was "Leon Clarke's".

"Why haven't you left yet?"

The answer to her was the sound of hanging up.

She looked at the hung-up phone, held her head and squatted irritably.

Why did everyone embarrass her?

Loren Taylor and Tina Walker gave birth to her, but they did not love her at all.

She was forced to marry with the Clarke, but Kenny Clarke hated to see her.

She didn't want to cause trouble, but "Leon Clarke" always bothered her.

However, if she ignored him, he might really tell Kenny Clarke that she seduced him?

Thought of this, Gloria Taylor took a deep breath and stood up.

Although she threatened Tina Walker and Anne Taylor by this way, if "Leon Clarke" really spoke nonsense in front of Kenny, the Clarke would definitely sacrifice her to preserve the reputation of family regardless of truth.

Gloria Taylor did not pack the dishes mentioned by "Leon Clarke", but went to the supermarket to buy food and went back.

She opened the door and saw huge body of "Leon Clarke" nested in her single sofa.

The handsome man leaned against the sofa, his two long legs overlapped, and maintained a free and comfortable posture. If he did not look too pale and calm, it was hardly to find out that he was a person who got gunshot wound.

Even so, he still seemed to be at odds with her narrow, humble single room.

After all, he was the young master who was spoiled and grown up in the rich family. Even if his characters were a little poor, his pride and elegance could not be hidden.

She put down food and bent over to take off her shoes.

Suddenly, the cold breath approached.

She looked up and saw the man who was still leaning on the sofa before had approached her and was looking down at the food she had brought.

Kenny Clarke saw the vegetables she bought, and raised his eyebrows: "This is you packed?"

Gloria Taylor had changed shoes, turned to take the vegetables, and her tone was calm: "Cooked was too expensive, I am poor."

Kenny Clarke looked at the clothes she wore, and it looked cheap and old.

His newly-wed was really miserable and shabby.

Gloria Taylor didn't care about his thoughts, took the vegetables and went to the partitioned kitchen.

An hour later, Gloria Taylor prepared the dishes.

Kenny Clarke put down cell phone and glanced at her, then looked at on the dishes she made.

The dishes were very good in appearance. It looked very light, very suitable for the patient.

Gloria Taylor put the rice in front of him, and did not care about him any more.

After a casual glance, she found that "Leon Clarke's" face suddenly darkened after eating a few and his expression looked a little gloomy.

Gloria Taylor was nervous.

What's wrong?

She offended him by dishes?

Kenny Clarke put down his chopsticks darkly, got up and walked out.

The pace was steady, not weak at all.

Gloria Taylor paused the action of eating rice, but she still did not follow him.

Outside the door.

Kenny Clarke tried to find a cigarette in his pocket irritably, and then thought of he did not have for a long time.

The familiar taste just reminded him of his mother.

Although his gentle and elegant mother sprung from noble ancestors, she was very gentle and virtuous and liked to cook.

But, in the end ...

He thought of the wet and dirty basement, he clenched his fists and punched on the wall hard with a "bang" sound.

Even Gloria Taylor, who was sitting in the room could heard it.

Gloria Taylor hesitated for a while, but still not assured, put down the bowl and opened the door: "What's wrong? "

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 14 Kenny Clarke's Father

Gloria Taylor stared at the gloomy and hazy "Leon Clarke" in front of her. She caught a glimpse of his wounded hand and stared in surprise, "You..."

She didn't put anything strange to the food. Why did he go out hurting himself like that?

Kenny Clarke ignored her. He just walked past by. Suddenly, his phone rang.

He glanced the strange number and immediately hung up the phone.

He looked up at Gloria Taylor, "Go in." he said coldly.

He sounded depressed and gloomy.

Gloria Taylor felt that "Leon Clarke" was being scary. She walked into the room. She was holding the door handle hesitating whether she should close the door and shut the man out or not.

This time, a number appeared on his screen and it was not a strange one. It was from Shi Ye.

He didn't hesitate to pick up the phone. He didn't care that Gloria Taylor was there. He asked, "Why is he looking for me?"

"He wants you to take his daughter-in-law home for dinner tonight." Said the man across the phone.

"Oh!" Kenny Clarke sneered, "You don't need to take his call again next time."

Shi Ye was convinced, "Right. He doesn't even pay me."

He hung up the phone and looked up at Gloria Taylor who was still standing by the door, hesitating.

"Are you eavesdropping?"

Gloria Taylor shook her head and hurriedly replied, "No."

She felt that she better not provoke him right now.

"Why don't you go inside?" he asked as he approached her. He slightly nodded his head to look at her, "Or, have it think it through that you're willing to give up my cousin and get together with me?"

When Gloria Taylor heard him speaking like that, without hesitation, she turned around and closed the door.

Kenny Clarke looked flatly at the ruthlessly closed door.

He would stay here for the next two days. He also wanted to find out whether the person he chased the other day would be here or not.

It turned out that the person was not here, so no need for him to bother Gloria Taylor.

This newly married wife of his was smart and kind. She also wouldn't bother him doing anything he wanted. So, for now, he would just ignore her.

At the end of the alley, Kenny Clarke saw Shi Ye. He was waiting for him there.

When he saw Kenny Clarke, he approached him. He looked worried, "Boss, how is your body?"

Kenny Clarke shook Shi Ye's hand. Then, he brushed off Shi Ye's hand who was going to support his, "It's okay."

Shi Ye opened the car door for him. He got inside the car and leaned his head back. He asked indifferently, "Shi Ye, has he been calling you these past two days?"

Shi Ye knew what his boss was talking about. He nodded, "Mr. Clarke said that you blacklisted his number. He tried to call you, but you didn't answer. So, he asked me to call you."

"Hm."

That was not the first time.

“Just now, Mr. Clarke called again. He said that if you didn’t take her for dinner, he would call her himself.”

So, his father was going to call Gloria Taylor himself to invite her for a dinner at the Clarke residence?

Shi Ye waited to a long time before he heard Kenny Clarke said indifferently, “Let’s have it his way.”

Gloria Taylor returned to her room to finish her meal and wash the dishes when she heard her phone ringing.

It was a strange number.

She hesitated for a while. It could be a scam, but who knew?

“Hello, I’m Gloria Taylor.”

“I’m Kenny Clarke’s father, Randy Clarke.”

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 15 Act dumb

Kenny Clarke's father?

The rich and noble man, who had made countless women in Huyang City attracted when he was young, Randy Clarke?

Gloria Taylor was stunned for a few seconds before reacted, and said nervously: "Hello."

She couldn't call him 'daddy' at all.

"If you have time, let's have dinner together." Randy Clarke's voice was calm and thick, it revealed a peace after suffering. Although his tone was a little command, it was not repulsive.

Gloria Taylor understood that although Randy Clarke was asking her, she couldn't refuse.

She answered humbly: "Yes."

"I order the driver to pick you up, see you later."

He finished speaking slowly and hung up.

From the beginning to the end, Randy Clarke's tone was very peaceful, but there was an unquestionable feeling.

Gloria Taylor dropped the mobile phone and quickly went out to take a car to Kenny Clarke's villa.

Randy Clarke said that driver would pick her up, so the driver definitely went to Kenny Clarke's villa.

Gloria Taylor stood at the gate and looked up at the villa.

The villa was built on a hillside, and there were few people. The white villa built in the woods and it looked a little weird.

She did not pay much attention to this villa when Gloria Taylor was picked up last time. The more she looked, the more she felt weird.

A chill rose from the feet.

Gloria Taylor was cold and her face looked so pale in the winter.

She stifled back her feet. Just wait at the gate.

A black car stopped at the gate of the villa soon.

Gloria Taylor looked curiously and saw a gentle middle-aged man getting off the car.

When he saw Gloria Taylor's face clearly, there was a flash on his eyes, but he didn't show it at all.

He stood in front of Gloria Taylor, nodded slightly, and showed respectfully: "I am Leng Xu. Mr. Clarke let me to pick you up,lady."

It was the driver that Randy Clarke sent to pick her up for dinner.

"Thank you." Gloria Taylor smiled at him, she had a inane grin, and looked a little dull.

The expression on Lengxu's face was slightly stunned, but he returned to nature fast.

He turned and opened the door: "please get in the car, lady."

Then he went around to the front and drove away.

When the car drove away, there was only a slit curtain on the second floor of the villa. It was vigorously opened.

Shi ye looked at the direction of the car, and asked unpredictable Kenny Clarke stood beside him : "Boss, you really let lady meet Mr. Clarke?"

"so what?" Kenny Clarke's eyes looked dark and he put his hands in the pockets of his suit pants, said calmly: "She is just a stupid and ugly woman, what can Randy Clarke do?"

"But she was acting."

"It's a skill to act to convince everyone."

He turned and left after speaking.

Gloria Taylor was sent to an upscale restaurant.

Leng Xu led her to the door of the box and reached out to make a gesture: "Mr. Clarke is waiting for you."

"OK." After that, she spoke slowly: "Thank you,Mr. Leng."

Leng Xu watched her entering. After closing the door, he shook his head slightly and thought of something.

An elegant middle-aged man was looking at the menu.

Hearing the sound, he put down the menu and looked up at her.

Gloria Taylor thought she would make him frown or dissatisfied at least because of her ugly dressing, but he just said to her, "Are you Gloria Taylor?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 16 "Mr. Clarke is waiting for you in the study."

Gloria Taylor did not expect that such a powerful and wealthy man could be such a kind person. She was stunned for a moment before she said, "I'm...Gloria Taylor."

She was really surprised this time.

"Relax, Gloria, you are a member of our family after you married Kenny and also my daughter." Randy Clarke filled her a glass of water while he saying. Loren Taylor looked down on her when she was at home and Tina Walker only cared about Anne Taylor and her brother. Gloria Taylor had never been treated so gently by an elder, feeling extremely flattered.

"Thank you!" Gloria Taylor took the glass.

"You can call me dad like Kenny." Randy Clarke looked at her silently while he said. In his eyes, Gloria Taylor was not beautiful and smart but she was pure and polite.

"Dad..."

Randy Clarke smiled apologetically, "My pity girl, I'm really sorry for that there was no wedding ceremony for you and Kenny. And it's time for you and Kenny go back the old house to have dinner together. But you know what? Kenny can't let go because of his mother and has been reluctant to go back to the old house. I hope you can enlighten him more in the future."

Clarke family was a family that had passed on for hundreds of years and had the tradition of following three generations. It was said that the old house of Clarke family was priceless and someone made a tentative bid of 100 billion to buy it but he became a joke in the end. Gloria Taylor knew a little about the thing that Randy Clarke referring to Kenny Clarke's mother. In the kidnapping of more than ten years ago, not only Kenny Clarke was kidnapped but also his mother. However, only Kenny Clarke was rescued. As for his mother, there were many statements. Someone said she was dead but someone said she was still alive. Even someone said that she was defiled by the kidnappers.....

Gloria Taylor looked up at Randy Clarke and hesitated, "But I haven't seen him until now."

She said lowly and noticed that Randy Clarke changed his expression slightly. Randy Clarke did not ask more about Kenny Clarke but asked something about Gloria Taylor and she answered honestly and sincerely one by one. Randy Clarke asked Leng Xu to send her back to the villa of Kenny Clarke when she was about to leave.

.....

Leng Xu left after watching Gloria Taylor enter the villa. At this time, Gloria Taylor realized that Randy Clarke was testing her before but it seemed that he was testing Kenny Clarke more. Although she had not seen Kenny Clarke, she could feel that the father and son were not in good relationship and there were many conflicts.

Randy Clarke said that Kenny couldn't let go of himself because of his mother who was kidnapped more than ten years ago. Was it because of the kidnapping that he had a suspicion with Randy Clarke?

"Mrs. Clarke."

Gloria Taylor looked up at the bodyguard who picked her up at Taylor house that day.

"Mr. Clarke wants to see you." the bodyguard said.

Gloria Taylor was surprised and asked, "Mr. Clarke? You mean Kenny Clarke?"

"Yes, he is waiting for you in the study."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 17 "I mind that you're ugly."

Gloria Taylor was a little surprised that Kenny Clarke finally was willing to see her. She felt it was dreaming when she knocked on the study door. She stepped into and heard a hoarse male voice as she had not seen clearly what was inside.

"Shi Ye, who is it?"

The man who was standing by the desk replied, "Mr. Clarke, it's Ma'am."

At this time, Gloria Taylor noticed that a man who was sitting with his back to her at the chair behind the office table. She could see his head protruding from the back of the chair and the arm resting on the armrest, which seemed to be a tall man. Was he Kenny Clarke?

Shi Ye looked at Gloria Taylor, "Mrs. Clarke."

"Shi Ye?" she had just heard his name. Shi Ye nodded and said nothing.

At this time, Kenny Clarke, who was sitting with his back to her, said, "Have you seen Randy Clarke?"

Gloria Taylor stunned for a moment before realizing that he was talking to her. Although she already knew that their relationship was not good, she was surprised to hear that Kenny Clarke called his father as his name.

"Yes." She did not know why he asked about it but she vaguely felt that he did not want her to see his look.

"What did he say?"

"We talked a little and also talked about you..." Gloria Taylor said, "He cares about you very much."

All the words that Randy Clarke said might have a purpose, but it was true that he was concerned about Kenny Clarke. Gloria Taylor envied him as he had a father who cared about him so much. Kenny Clarke sneered, "I heard Leon that you are get along well?"

Hearing he referring to 'Leon', Gloria Taylor quickly said, "We just met in the villa."

Thinking that he turned his back on her, she said again, "We are not familiar."

For some reason, she deliberately concealed that Leon Clarke was injured and stayed for one night at her house that she rent.

"Really?"

She was scared by him. Did 'Leon Clarke' say something to him?

"Well, you can go now." Kenny Clarke said with a little impatient tone.

Gloria Taylor could not see his face but she could feel that he was an indifficult person. The reason why she married him was that she was forced by her mother and the other reason was that she was willing to marry him because she was disappointed to her family. She had never thought to get divorced after she married Kenny Clarke and she planned to be his wife all her life. She plucked up her courage and stepped forward, "Kenny Clarke, could you please...turn around?"

She would see his face when he turned around.

The moment she finished saying, the atmosphere here suddenly cooled down.

"I just think that we are going to be with each other in the future and we will see each other sooner or later, I really don't mind.....your physical status."

Kenny Clarke's heart paused for a second, as if he never thought she would say that.

He then lifted his lips, saying a sentence full of disgust and spite, "But I mind that you are ugly."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 18: Out of Expectation

Gloria was stunned for a moment, then reached out and pushed the glasses on her nose, and replied: "Okay."

In her cognition, Kenny Clarke originally hated her.

Therefore, when Kenny said that she was ugly directly, she did not feel angry and sad.

"If there's nothing else, I will go out first."

When Gloria finished talking, seeing Kenny did not speak, she turned and went out.

The door was closed, and Kenny turned his chair and faced the direction of the door.

This ugly woman was really ... funny.

...

Because it was still early, Gloria did not intend to sleep.

She sat down on the sofa in the hall and turned on the TV.

There was an inexplicable excitement in her heart.

Although Kenny hated her, he was willing to see her and did not make trouble for her.

This point was much better than the Taylor family.

After a while, a whistle suddenly sounded behind her.

Gloria turned back and saw "Leon Clarke" walking towards her lazily.

Her eyes widened in shock, how could he be here?

Kenny looked at the shock flashed in her eyes, he was satisfied. His eyes flicked up, revealing a light smile: "Gloria, do you forget me so quickly? We just haven't seen each other."

She looked at "Leon Clarke" with vigilance: "What are you doing here?"

"My mother is my cousin's aunt. I just stay at my cousin's house for a few days. Is there any problem?" Kenny approached Gloria while talking.

"Leon Clarke" lived in Kenny's house, of course there would be no problem.

The problem was her.

She couldn't take the "accident" that "Leon Clarke" teased her before as nothing, and now Kenny was also in this villa. She did not doubt all that something ridiculous would must happen according to the personality of "Leon".

Gloria didn't want to allow him to do absurd things, she said perfunctorily: "No."

Then she stood up and walked upstairs with her head down.

However, she still underestimated the shamelessness of "Leon".

She didn't walk away and her wrist was grabbed by him, his thumb flicked on her delicate wrist, leaning over to her ear and saying, "I haven't eaten dinner, can you bear that I'm suffering hunger? I'm still hurt."

Too many things happened at night, Gloria had almost forgotten the injury of "Leon".

Kenny deliberately reached out and touched her head, his thin lips almost touching her ears: "Go and prepare some food for me, I'll wait for you."

Gloria stiffened and was about to push him away. She glanced that Shi Ye who had come down from the upper floor. She was shocked and changed her expression slightly. Then she pushed "Leon" away immediately.

"Leon" was not angry, with a smile on his face: "Gloria, hurry up, I'm very hungry."

Seeing the appearance of Kenny, the corner of Shi Ye's mouth twitched and turned his head to the side.

Kenny raised his eyebrows and glanced at Shi Ye: "What expression did you show?"

"Nothing..." He just felt that what his boss did wasn't masculine at all.

He was so boring so that he had to pretend to be his cousin and go to play with his wife.

Was it to find the forbidden-taboo stimulus?

The next moment, he rejected this idea.

He had followed Kenny for so many years, and he had never treated any women like that.

Although his wife was ugly, she... she was indeed different for the boss.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 19 The Ugly Always Make More Troubles

Seeing Shi Ye wasn't looking at her, Gloria thought he probably didn't see the intimate contact between her and Leon. So she fled to the kitchen.

Kenny watched her enter the kitchen and sat down on the sofa leisurely.

He couldn't figure out what his boss was thinking.

.....

In the kitchen, Gloria opened the refrigerator and saw that there were vegetables and meat in it. They were all fresh. After thinking about it, she took out some.

Suddenly, she thought that Kenny made breakfast that morning, that was to say, he could cook?

She didn't understand why he, a rich young master, could cook, but since he could cook, why did he ask her to make dinner for him?

Was she a pushover in his eyes?

Gloria sneered and shoved the ingredients into the fridge one by one.

She went to the hall and took a look at "Leon" who was sitting on the sofa and looking down at his mobile phone. Then she looked around for a moment, arched her back and walked upstairs.

She thought that because she was used to compromise easily, "Leon" could threaten her so readily.

"Leon" could live in Kenny's house, which meant that they must be very close to each other.

Since they were close, how could 'Leon' tell Kenny that she seduced him and caused unnecessary enmity between them?

The more she thought about it, the more she felt that it was less likely that Leon would threaten her.

She simply became decisive and directly ran upstairs back to the room.

She had had dinner anyway.

Kenny waited a long time in the living room, but didn't see Gloria come to him.

He took a look in the direction of the kitchen. Suddenly, as if he thought of something, he got up and strode towards the kitchen.

The kitchen was empty, and there was no Gloria's figure at all!

Oh, good for you, Gloria.

.....

All night, Gloria was immersed in the joy of put "Leon" on the spot, imagining that he was too angry but he couldn't come to her and argue with her. Then she had a beautiful dream.

The next morning, she was woken up by the ringtone of her mobile phone.

She took it over and found that it was her good friend, Edith, who was filming abroad and had been abroad for three months.

Gloria's voice was filled with joy: "Edith, are you coming back?"

Edith at the other end said in a very grumpy tone: "I'm coming back to cut you into pieces!"

Gloria stretched out her hand and put the phone far away from her ear, in case her eardrum would be pierced by the high voice of Edith.

she asked with fear after Edith scolded her for a while, "What happened?"

"Read the news on the microblog yourself. I have only been away for three months, and you've become 'an ugly woman who wants to marry into a powerful family by making troubles and unfair means!'"

Edith's voice sounded a little excited.

Gloria was stunned, and her expression darkened. She appeased Edith first: "Don't be angry, I'll see what happened."

"I'm already at the airport!"

"..." Gloria was a little surprised at Edith's executive ability.

After hanging up the phone, Gloria logged in her microblog.

The topic on the front page of microblog was that "The ugly always make more troubles."

She clicked and opened a post that ranked first.

It talked about the Taylor family by means of gentle allusions and ambiguous phrases.

It implied that in order to marry into the Clarke family, she used improper means to replace her sister Anne.

Several posts that ranked top all implied that Anne was a kind girl who doted on her sister, but her sister schemed against her and took away her fiance.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 20: Got The Goods On Gloria

Gloria searched the news online, thinking of it in a positive way, fortunately she did not have a microblog account, otherwise she would have been scolded by those netizens who were angry.

Seeing those vicious abuses, it was impossible not to be angry.

Gloria still couldn't hold it back, so she took out her phone and called Anne.

It took a long time for the phone to get through before being connected.

"How do you remember calling me? Is there anything?" Anne's voice was gentle and calm, as if she didn't know anything online.

Gloria sneered, but restrained the anger in her heart, making her voice sound normal.

"Hot search on microblog, news on the Internet, what's going on?" She had just read it online, not only on microblog, but also from various media outlets.

Many people were glad to see the grievances and hatred of such giants, of course, the entertainment media would not let go.

Anne's voice sounded a little more careless: "What news? I'm busy at work. Before my brother returns from studying abroad, I have to help him manage my dad's company. We are different, you have nothing to do. You can sit idle and watch Entertainment News, but I can't."

The light tone of the understatement showed her superiority everywhere.

As soon as Anne graduated from university, she entered the Taylor group to manage the company.

And when Gloria graduated, not to mention managed the company, even she took the initiative to tell Tina that she wanted to start at the Taylor group's grassroots, Tina directly denied her: "You are not as capable as your sister, and you can do nothing anything in the company. Just go find a job outside. "

Loren never even cared about her studies and work.

Thinking of these, Gloria's fury flame jumped higher.

Her voice was cold, and the words were sharp: "Be honest, okay? I know you did it. I don't know what you want to do, but what I do know is that it's useless even if you did these on me. Now I am the lady of the Clarke family. Even if they don't like me, they won't allow anyone to ruin my reputation. "

Anne, who was at the other end of the phone, changed her expression suddenly.

In her impression, Gloria had always been a stupid woman, but after marrying into the Clarke Family, she somehow became less stupid.

Although she didn't know why Gloria became smarter, for Anne, this cleverness was nothing.

Because ... she had the 'lifeblood' of Gloria in her hand.

She raised her lips, her voice soft and confident: "How about Tina Walker? Don't you care about her at all?"

In the past, every time she ordered Gloria to do things, as long as Tina said a sentence, Gloria would do it immediately like an obedient dog.

So she knew that Gloria cared most about Tina.

As soon as Gloria heard Tina, she tightened the hand holding the phone bit by bit. She squeezed her lips tightly and said lightly, "She? As you wish."

After she finished speaking, she hung up the phone.

As soon as she put down her phone, she felt someone watching her.

As soon as she looked up, she saw that the door was opened, and the man was leaning on the door frame with his arms crossed, it was "Leon Clarke".

"You ... how did you come in!" Gloria was so scared that her face was pale. When she was sleeping, she locked the door!

Kenny flicked the key in his hand and raised his brow slightly, his tone was careless: "What do you think?"

Gloria blushed: "Get out of my room!"

No one knew how this damn man had the key to her room!

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 21: I'm A Family Member of The Clarke Family

Kenny looked at her angry red face, the expression on his face was still calm, and his tone was faint: "Having troubles?"

Gloria pinched the quilt and looked at him coldly: "It's none of your business."

With her cold face, she still had no threats for Kenny.

"It's really not my business, but if you beg me, I might consider helping you." Kenny looked at her deeply, without concealing his conscience.

Gloria certainly would not beg him.

He gave her a deep look, then turned around and went out.

He walked just two steps, then he met Shi Ye.

Shi Ye nodded slightly and asked: "Boss, how to deal with the news about Mrs?"

Kenny thought of what Gloria had said before, and lifted his lips, the smile he showed was cold, and the voice was indifferent: "What does it have to do with me? You want to help her? It also depends on whether she want your help, huh!"

Kenny went straight to the studying room after he finished talking.

Looking at his back, Shi Ye realized afterwards that the boss's last "huh" seemed to be a bit angry.

...

Gloria did not intend to care about the news on the Internet.

She didn't know the reason why did Anne do this suddenly, and she didn't want to pay attention to it.

She only knew that Edith already knew that she married Kenny. Next, Edith might tear her apart directly.

Even if she knew she wanted to tear her apart, she still had to have a meet with her.

The two asked for a relatively remote cafe.

After all, Edith was now a small actor with seven or eight hundred fans, and she would also worry about being recognized.

When she arrived at the cafe, Edith had arrived.

Edith wore the mask, her hair was ponytailed, and she wore a very ordinary white down jacket, looked clean and neat. Coupled with her attractive appearance, she got many guests attention here.

From school, Edith was like this. Wherever she went, she would become the focus, and she could easily attract the attention of others.

Gloria sat down opposite her with an apologetic tone: "Sorry, I'm late."

Edith leaned her arm on the sofa and gave her a glance, then slowly said, "You are a young lady of a rich family, someone like me should be waiting for you."

Gloria: "..."

Edith saw that Gloria didn't speak, and she didn't bear to speak harshly.

She tossed her mask away and tossed it aside, saying angrily: "Your mother is like being witched, and has spoiled other people's daughter for so many years. She never thought about you. I told you that you should be careful. Now, okay, you were married into the Clarke family!"

After Edith finished speaking, she picked up the water next to her and drank up it.

Gloria pushed the glasses on the bridge of her nose to remind her: "Drink slowly."

Edith glared at her: "Did they embarrass you?"

"No, the people of the Clarke family ... is fine." Except for "Leon" who always entangled her, everything else went smoothly.

Edith thought about the business and became serious, "Do you know why Anne bought the trending topic online and said that you rob her fiance?"

"How do you know it was Anne?" Gloria was giving her water and her action stopped when she heard Edith's words.

Edith looked at her like looking at a fool: "Who cares about framing on you? Because it is profitable."

"What profit?" Gloria was really a little confused, why did Anne do this?

Edith sneered and said, "Before I got on the plane, I asked the paparazzi friend to inquire. Why Anne did this, because she wanted to be with Colin brightly, and she just lacked a stepping stone and that is you."

Listening to Edith said so, Gloria naturally understood.

Although the Clarke Family didn't care whether Anne married Kenny, the Clarke Family had absolute influence, so that no one dared to be with Anne easily.

At this time, Anne needed to get rid of the identity of Kenny's fiancée.

So she bought a trending topic online, stepped Gloria on her feet and framed her, and made herself into a kind sister.

Gloria pursed her lips and said, "It's a perfect idea."

"So? What are you going to do?" Edith finished and asked her as if she remembered something: "Tell me, you married Kenny with this face, you ..."

"He thinks I'm ugly, and we get along well, just respect each other as strangers..." Gloria knew what she was about to ask, and she said it directly.

"What? Don't pretend to be ugly anymore. Just wear normal clothes and make up, and blind his damn eyes!" Edith's recent scenes were of the revenge type, so she liked it very much for this play.

Gloria laughed: "No, I'm fine now."

It's good to respect each other, without interfering with each other.

...

Soon, Edith was called away by the agent.

She rushed to pay before she left.

Gloria couldn't always pay the bill when she had meal with this girl.

Although Edith was usually carefree, she still had a delicate mind on small matters. She knew that Gloria was not economically affluent. When they went out to eat, she would find ways to pay the bills first.

Gloria felt very warm, and felt a little sad in her heart.

Edith knew all her secrets and was very clear about the Taylor family's affairs.

Long ago, Edith said, let her not have expectations for everyone in the Taylor family, especially Tina Walker.

But she didn't believe it until she was forced to marry the Clarke Family.

However, even at this point, they were not dissatisfied, but still used her.

Did they think that she could be used so easily?

Gloria received a call from Tina when she was about to take a taxi back to Kenny's villa.

Tina's voice was gentle rarely: "Gloria, come home for dinner tonight."

At this juncture, Tina called her with such a gentle attitude, the purpose was clear.

Gloria refused aloud, her tone was very cold: "I'm busy."

Tina didn't expect that she would directly refuse, and the tone could not help but become tougher: "You don't even have a job now, what are you busy with? Just come back for a meal, the family is ..."

"Oh, but I am a family member of the Clarke family now." Gloria directly interrupted her.

Tina was completely angry this time, and the volume was turned up: "Watch your tone! I'm your mom!"

She had never spoken to Tina in such an indifferent tone before, and Tina never spoke to Anne in this impatient tone.

After all, it was because Tina didn't care about her at all.

Tina didn't care about her, so she treated her biological daughter whatever she wanted.

She didn't care about Tina now, so naturally she couldn't be enthusiastic.

"Then you can go to contact Anne, she is more filial, gentler than me, she is the excellent one compared with me." Gloria hung up the phone first when she finished speaking.

Apologized to Anne Taylor

Gloria Taylor was busy with her social media on her way back home.

'Ugly people do more mischief' remained a trending topic.

Most of the people were scolding Gloria Taylor.

She sneered. She was the victim. Why did the innocent accept the abuse and Anne Taylor, the bad guy, could achieve fame and fortune?

Gloria Taylor sent a message to Edith Hall.

"Can you introduce me to a reliable marketing account?"

"What are you going to do?!"

Through the screen, she could feel Edith Hall's excitement.

"I don't want to be scolded in vain."

"That's good! You should end the mad princess Anne. I'll help you contact a friend of mine who has more fans than me."

Edith Hall hated Anne Taylor bossing around and that everyone had to listen to her. Edith Hall had always addressed her as the mad princess Anne.

Gloria Taylor was helpless, but Edith Hall was excited.

However, since this matter blew up, Gloria Taylor had no intention to calm things down. On the contrary, she intended to fuel the commotion.

Since Anne Taylor had decided to strip herself off of her good values, then Gloria Taylor should play along.

However, whether Anne Taylor could survive her white washing period or not, that was not certain.

Three o'clock in the afternoon was the perfect time for an afternoon tea and a chat.

Moreover, it's 3 PM in the weekends.

However, a simple word as 'sorry' on the social media was suddenly a hit.

Within two hours, the comments on the post had exceeded ten thousand.

The post was sent by Gloria Taylor with her own account.

She asked the marketing account to forward the screenshots and attached them to the tagline of 'ugly people do more mischief'.

At that time, the internet was a riot.

There were countless comments saying 'death for the whole family member' and 'hit by a car'.

Edith Hall was furious and immediately called Gloria Taylor, "Gloria, are you dumb or something? You asked me for a marketing account only to apologize to the mad princess Anne? Will you believe me if I say I can come over and finish you now?"

"I don't believe it." Gloria Taylor said calmly.

Edith Hall was discouraged, "What are you going to do?"

When she saw the trending topic on microblog, she couldn't believe that it was Gloria Taylor who sent it, but when she opened it, that post was send by Gloria Taylor's own account.

She was angry, for sure, but soon she calmed down.

Gloria Taylor had endured so many humiliations at the Taylors, but it didn't mean that she couldn't blow up necessarily.

"I'm going to give Anne a big gift." Gloria Taylor paused and said in a low voice, "A big gift that makes people curse on her for the first time in her life."

Edith Hall's family was more powerful than the Taylors. She wanted to end Anne Taylor a long time ago, but Gloria Taylor wouldn't let her.

This time, Gloria Taylor did it herself. She was extremely excited, "Alright. If you need anything from me, just call."

Suddenly, the door of the study was pushed opened.

Shi Ye stormed inside with a tablet in his hand. He put the tablet on the desk and said, "Boss, madam had apologized to Anne Taylor on her microblog."

Kenny Clarke was busy dealing with an official business. Although he had not officially taken over the Clarke Company yet, he had his own private industry.

He looked up the microblog page opened on the tablet.

He lowered his head and asked calmly, "There is no name on it. Why did you say she apologize to Anne Taylor?"

"Boss, what do you mean?" Shi Ye's impression of Gloria Taylor was 'mediocre' and 'unresponsive'. So, when he saw this on the microblog, he didn't really know what it meant.

"Don't interfere. Just let me know if there is any progress."

He met Anne Taylor once, but he could directly see through that Anne Taylor was being spoiled by her family. She was also lacking on the brain capacity.

When she was talking to him, it was clear that she didn't even use her brain.

However, Gloria Taylor grew up in a relatively harsh family, without applause and encouragement, but with rejection by all her relatives. Therefore, she was far more mature and stable compared to her peers.

He believed that if Gloria Taylor wanted to fight back, she would succeed.

If it didn't work...

Well, if she asked him, he would be willing to help her.

However, the possibility of this ugly woman to come and beg him was—
Buzz.

The vibration from his phone interrupted his thought.

He took the phone and saw the number on it. He sighed heavily.

It was an international number.

He didn't immediately pick up, he said to Shi Ye, "You can go now."

His eyes were still rested on the screen of the phone. But, Shi Ye who was so familiar with him, already guessed who the called was.

After Shi Ye left the room, he picked up the call.

The next thing he heard was a woman's voice, "Kenny, what is it with the news on the internet? I've seen it all abroad. What happen at home? Do you really marry a stupid and ugly woman? Your body is fine. Why do you keep letting people misunderstand you? You even let that woman become your wife and step inside the Clarke's house..."

The woman was getting more and more offensive. Kenny Clarke frowned and shouted angrily, "Aurora!"

"Watch your tone. I'm your sister!"

"Well, I was only born two minutes later than you."

Aurora Clarke was Kenny Clarke's twin sister.

Aurora Clarke calmed herself down for a moment and continued, "Kenny, I don't call to argue with you. I really don't understand why you pretend to be sick all these years. Now, even a woman from a poor and humble family dares to step on you. Why are you doing this? Dad will retire in two years, don't you want to—"

Kenny Clarke was irritated suddenly like a cat's tail was stepped. He said coldly, "Because the one who saw our mother be bullied and humiliated was not you. So, you can live peacefully abroad, but I can't! I will not feel at ease until I find out who killed mother!"

Aurora Clarke refuted, "The kidnappers were already executed!"

Kenny Clarke said gloomily, "No. the real killer has not been caught yet. That morning, we changed our route. Without some information from the Clarke family, the kidnappers wouldn't have found and kidnapped us in such a short time."

Every time he thought of that day, hatred and anger staggered back into his chest.

He didn't have anything else to say to Aurora Clarke. He immediately hung up the phone.

He would quarrel with her about it every single time.

Knock, knock!

Somebody knocked the door and greeted warmly, "Kenny Clarke, are you there?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 23: A lame excuse

Kenny was in a rage, bellowing petulantly. "Get out of here!"

Gloria, who was standing outside the door, froze when she heard his words, and then left.

After a while, Kenny felt better.

Kenny looked up, asking as if thinking of something. "Is Gloria back?"

Shi Ye silently put the documents on his desk, cleared his throat and said. "Madam came back a little while ago, she seeming to have come... for you....."

Then, Kenny remembered there was a woman knocking at the door just now.

The only woman living in this villa was Gloria.

Why would she come to him?

She couldn't handle the news on the Internet, so she came to ask him for help?

With a gleam of interest in his dark eyes, Kenny leaned back in his chair, saying. "You call her here."

Shi Ye went out, soon coming over with Gloria.

Gloria opened the door, coming in, while Kenny was sitting in his executive chair behind his desk, just as he had been the last time.

She could see nothing but his arm on the arm rest and his head on the back of the chair.

Kenny asked her directly. "What do you want with me?"

That was what she should ask, wasn't it? Gloria thought.

As she came to him earlier, he just told her to get out, while now he asked her to come. Was he just asking her what she wanted?

Gloria wasn't embarrassed, either, and she just said what she was coming for. "I want to move out."

When she finished speaking, she saw that Kenny didn't respond, so she explained. "I have to go to work in a short time, and it's very inconvenient for me to go to work if I live here."

The man answered her concisely. "Well."

Well?

Did he agree or disagree?

Kenny was feeling terrible.

This ugly woman, who said so sweetly that she didn't mind his "poor health" yesterday, she actually wanted to move out of the villa today!!

She was daydreaming!

When Gloria saw that he was still silent, she said in a puzzled voice.
"You..."

Kenny interrupted her coldly. "Do you think my place is like a vegetable market for you? You can come in and go out as you please."

Gloria heard the anger in his voice.

She didn't quite understand what she had done to make him angry.

Well, she couldn't move, so she might as well stay.

On second thought, she thought she might have upset Kenny by asking to move out.

After all, for someone like Kenny who was "physically handicapped", he was very sensitive, and could be easily upset by others.

When Gloria thought that, her voice softened unconsciously. "I see. If you have nothing else to say, I will go out first."

It was the first time Kenny had ever heard her speak in such a soft voice.

After Kenny thought about the reason, Kenny's face darkened.

"Get out!"

Gloria thought to herself that Kenny really had a bad temper.

Kenny turning around, just threw the documents, which he hadn't put back, on his desk.

When Shi Ye saw his reaction, Shi Ye felt confused. The boss often lost his temper for no reason recently.

After a while, Kenny seemed to think of something, asking Shi Ye. "I remembered on Gloria's profile, Gloria graduated from film school?"

Shi Ye. "Yes, madam majored in drama, film and television literature."

A smile flashed over Kenny's face, while like a wild animal's triumph over its prey, he said in a deep voice. "So she works as a scriptwriter?"

Shi Ye froze for a moment, then nodded.

People thought Kenny was a loser with losing his sexual function, but no one knew that over the years, Kenny was also the behind-the-scenes boss of domestic's largest entertainment Group, Sheng Ding entertainment Group.

In just eight years, Sheng Ding entertainment Group had become the leading company of the film and television industry.

As Sheng Ding Group was a company that all film practitioners wanted to join, if Gloria really wanted to become a famous scriptwriter, she would definitely send out her resume to Sheng Ding Group.

Shi Ye understood the meaning of Kenny's words, nodding. "I'll do it now."

Gloria had sent out her resume to almost every film and television company in Huyang City.

However, she deliberately skipped Sheng Ding Group.

Why did she do it?

Sheng Ding Group and the film and television company that had signed with Edith, they were deadly foes.

And she certainly wouldn't be hired.

Before waiting for news of her interview, she had to deal with the negative news that Anne had brought out.

She thought for a while before she dialed Anne's number.

"Tell me what you want." Anne's voice still sounded proud and triumphant.

Gloria pinched her nose, and her nasal voice sounded like she had been crying. "Sister, it was my fault, don't be mad at me, and shall we meet outside? Please don't hurt my mother."

"Do I have to come out to see you because you asked me to? Who do you think you are?"

Gloria knew Anne, so she spoke haltingly, begging. "Please."

"Speak up, I can't hear you."

"I beg you..."

"All right, then."

Gloria put down the phone, her eyes looking cold.

Anne, you must be very proud now.

But pretty soon, you couldn't be proud anymore.

Before, Edith gave her not only the contact information of several marketing accounts, but also the contact information of several paparazzi.

The news that she "robbed" Anne's fiancé was still hot, so there's a lot of people out there who wanted to follow up on this and got good stories.

She intuitively picked one of the paparazzi, contacted him, sent him the address and time, and went out for the appointment.

As soon as Gloria left the house, Shi Ye went to the study, telling Kenny. "Madam has gone out."

Kenny looked up at Shi Ye, his eyes looking indifferent, which meant that "what does this have to do with me?"

Although Shi Ye was used to being stared at by Kenny with his cold eyes, Shi Ye still swallowed in fear.

"I suppose madam has something to do with Anne." He was a little curious about what madam was going to do with Anne, while he was sure the boss was just as curious as he was.

But Kenny only responded indifferently. "Well."

Shi Ye was confused, was he wrong?

The next minute, Kenny stood up, took his coat and walked out. "Since I haven't seen elder brother for a long time, I have to have a meal with him together."

Shi Ye. " ... "

If he remembered correctly, Kenny's elder brother had not returned from abroad.

The boss needed a reasonable excuse...

Even if Kenny's excuse was so lame, Shi Ye dared not directly debunking it.

Kenny driving the car, he followed Gloria to a restaurant.

He sitting in the car, watched Gloria enter the restaurant, and twenty minutes later, Anne arrived.

Then another man, dressing in ordinary clothes but acting suspiciously, entered the restaurant.

As the behind-the-scenes boss of the entertainment Group, Kenny was sure that the man following them was a paparazzo.

It was worth waiting in the car for so long, since it looked as if there would be a good show to see.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 24: Divorce Kenny

The restaurant

Anne put her bag on the table, she disdainfully raised her chin and looked at Gloria. "Quickly, as I have an appointment with Colin later."

She said, raising her hands to admire her new manicure.

Anne pretended to glance at Gloria casually, who had been dressed the same way for ten years. As Gloria wore a plain padded jacket, with her sallow skin and black-rimmed glasses, she was unbearably ugly.

An ugly woman like Gloria, wanted to win over someone she liked?
Daydream!

Only those idiots on the Internet would believe it.

Gloria looked down, holding the glass in her hand, as she rubbed her hands helplessly on the side of the glass. While out of the corner of her eye, she glimpsed a man dressed in plain clothes sitting down at the back table.

She quietly sent out the text she had edited: You can get started.

She did this with the utmost care, so Anne didn't find out.

Gloria looked up carefully at Anne, murmuring. "I already apologized on microblog, so don't mess with my mom."

She winced, looking the same as before.

Anne sniffing, she knew that Gloria had been stupid since childhood, so how could she be so smart all of a sudden.

"You want me not to make trouble for Tina, and I can promise you, but I only have one condition." Anne folded her arms, smiling triumphantly.

"What... What condition?" Gloria's voice sounded pleased and worried.

"Fool, I don't know why you care so much about Tina, since she never treats you like a daughter."

Gloria's hand tightened on her lap, her face turned pale, and she looked a little sad, speaking. "She's my mother anyway, and even if it could all be done over again, and even though I knew she was begging me to marry Kenny for you, I'll do the same."

Anne despised Gloria, timid and incompetent. As a child, when Gloria was better at school and prettier than she was, she hated Gloria, her younger sister.

Then Gloria suddenly became stupid and ugly, and she hated her younger sister even more.

She was ashamed to have a younger sister like Gloria.

But, fortunately, Gloria was as obedient as a dog, so Gloria could be used by her.

Anne raised her lips, smiling. Her voice sounded soft, but what she said was very malicious. "You're a bitch like your mother."

There was a flicker of sarcasm in Gloria's eyes, as after Tina got married, Tina came to the Taylor's for more than twenty years. She was very kind to Anne, but in the end, instead of thanking Tina, Anne called her the bitch.

"You can scold me all you want, but please don't scold my mother like that. She is really good to you." Gloria pretending to be sad, she persuaded Anne in a low voice.

How could Anne have listened to Gloria? She glanced at her, shouting. "Shut up! It's none of your business. Now, there's only one thing you need to do, as you need to divorce Kenny."

"Divorce him?" Gloria's eyes widened in shock.

She was both shocked and pretended to be shocked.

Gloria knew Anne's intentions.

The Clarke's didn't care who married Kenny, but the Clarke's certainly wouldn't tolerate Gloria if she went back on her words, especially that she's "ugly and stupid", being a disagreeable woman.

If she said she wanted to divorce Kenny, it's like slapping the Clarke's in the face.

The people of the Clarke's were not going to let her go!

Anne was really vicious as she said this. She wanted the Clarke's eyes to be drawn to Gloria, letting the people of Clarke's vent their hatred toward Gloria. As a result, her own negative image in the eyes of the Clarke's was greatly reduced, allowing her to live with Colin without any pressure.

Anne pretended to stroke her hair close to her ear casually, while a little pink mark appeared on her white neck.

"As long as you do this, I won't make trouble for Tina."

Gloria knew what had happened, even if she hadn't slept with anyone else.

The pink mark on Anne's neck, it was clearly a hickey.

Was Anne showing off to her?

Gloria took a sip from the water glass, feeling a little overwhelmed.

She was not sad because Colin and Anne were together, while she was sad that she had a crush on the man for so many years, but he turned out to be just an ordinary man.

"But the Clarke's wouldn't let me divorce Kenny..." Even if the two of them had to divorce, it would have to be Kenny who wanted to divorce her.

"That's your business, and I warn you, you'd better listen to me like a dog, or I'll make life miserable for you and your mother."

Anne was too impatient to talk to Gloria any more. She took out a mirror, fixed her lipstick, and then she called Colin, saying softly. "Colin."

Gloria looked stunned for a while.

Anne was pleased with her reaction.

Although Gloria was no threat to her, she felt a sense of accomplishment when she saw Gloria, who looked like a drowning dog.

Through the restaurant window, Gloria watched Anne drive away, then turned to look at the table behind her.

The man shook his phone with his hand, Gloria looked down, and her mobile phone showed new message.

"I'll copy the video and send it to you when I get back."

Gloria replied. "Thank you."

Putting down the phone, she slowly ate the cold food on the table.

She really didn't know how Anne got to be like this, and when she was a child, she actually liked Anne.

Anne was a pretty girl, and children like beautiful sisters, so she always liked to hang out with Anne, playing with her.

But Anne didn't seem to have any conscience.

For more than twenty years, Tina had been taking good care of Anne, but Anne still called Anne a bitch, not to mention Gloria, whom Anne had always disliked.

She thought Anne was at least a little grateful to Tina, but...

Gloria was upset and the cold food was not good, so she got up, leaving.

Kenny came out of the private room on the other side, stopping the paparazzo in the doorway.

The paparazzo saw Kenny, and as Kenny was tall and handsome, he felt a little frightened. "What do you want to do?"

"Show me the video." Kenny looked at the paparazzo's bag, his voice sounding cold.

"I don't know what you're talking about." It's the latest story he's been following, and it's going to be the headline for tomorrow, so of course he's not going to show it to anyone.

"Is that so? Believe it or not, I can make it impossible for you to work in Huyang City as well as the entire entertainment industry."

The expression on Kenny's face did not change, his voice sounding calm and emotionless.

The paparazzo realized that the man in front of him was not only handsome and looked indifferent, but also wore the haute couture suit, which indicated that this man either rich or high in status. What was more significant was that this man not only had a strong aura, but also brought the sense of oppression to people, making people want to surrender to him unconsciously.

He did not doubt Kenny's words, so he obediently showed the video to Kenny.

In the video, the pictures and sounds were very clear, while he listened to the conversation between the two women without missing a word.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 25: Reversal

When Gloria came out of the restaurant, she got a call from Edith.

"You come quickly, as I am in the red car across the road." Edith just said this and hung up.

When Gloria looked up, she saw a red car across the road. As she looked, she heard someone suddenly honk the horn of the car for twice.

Gloria looked around, walked quickly across the street, pulled open the car door near the passenger seat, and sat in.

As Edith started the car, she said to Gloria. "How's it going? Did it go well?"

Since Edith had a movie coming out recently, the movie was rather niche but it's a big seller, and she could be recognized everywhere she went, so she just waited outside for Gloria.

Gloria smiling, said. "Yes, it did."

Anne had been bullying Gloria for so many years that Anne did not pay any attention to Gloria. So Anne, of course, took it lightly, as she had no idea there would be a plot.

"However, our plans may change."

"What do you mean?"

"Anne wanted me to divorce Kenny, in order to make the people of the Clarke's angry at me, letting them turn all the blame on me, and then the Clarke's would ignore Anne, Kenny's real fiancée, so she'll be able to stay with Colin fair and square."

When Edith heard that, she smacked the steering wheel in anger. "I don't know if they have a bottom line!"

"There is no bottom line as long as it is in their own interest." Gloria knew Anne well.

She was originally going to look for the paparazzo tomorrow morning, asking him to send the video of her and Anne directly.

Now it seemed that she could go one step further in her plan.

...

The topic of " The ugly people always make more troubles " on Twitter finally dropped from the popular search, and then the topic of " Are you still planning to spend the New Year together if you don't get divorced " quickly sprang up.

"According to the gossip, Miss Anne's sister is under pressure to divorce Kenny..."

Just a vague message, but it led to a heated debate among a group of Internet users.

"Under pressure? I think it was her conscience that troubled her!"

"She's crazy about money, as she knows that young master of the Clarke's is disabled, but she still wants to marry him, being like a widow..."

"For the person who have just spoken, please don't talk nonsense."

This topic immediately became the most popular search, but it was quickly removed.

There's been a lot of discussion online about the removal of this popular search, but Gloria knew it must have been someone of Clarke's who asked for it to be removed.

After all, as for a famous family like the Clarke's, they couldn't let the Clarke's heir be talked about online like this.

In the morning, on twitter, an Internet celebrity sent a video, with only one sentence: I will not speak for others easily anymore, as I felt a pain in my face because of shame.

This Internet celebrity happened to be the one who had openly mocked Gloria in a previous post on Twitter.

Someone opening the video curiously, the image of the video was clear enough to identify that one of the people in the video was Anne.

These were the key phrases in the video. "I have already apologized, so please don't make trouble for my mother", "You're as obedient as a dog" and "My mom asked me to marry Kenny." When these key phrases were linked together, the truth was revealed.

Those, who had cursed Gloria before, fell silent because of the abrupt reversal.

Since then, some people have posted an apology to Gloria on Twitter, while some have simply ignored the video, continuing to abuse Gloria, but these are just a few people.

From the wee hours to early morning, with just six or seven hours, Gloria gained an additional 50,000 followers on her twitter account.

...

After successfully threatening Gloria, Anne exulted, she went on a date with Colin, and she stayed at Colin's house all night.

As a result, she was unaware of the popular search on Twitter.

Early in the morning, she was woken by Loren's call.

Anne snuggled in Colin's arms, impatiently taking the phone. "Dad, what's up?"

"Look yourself on the Internet, seeing how much trouble you've caused. How dare you stay out all night? Come back at once!" Loren has never been so angry with her.

Anne suddenly had a bad feeling.

When she got off the phone, going online to watch the news, she found out that her conversation with Gloria at the restaurant had been photographed by the paparazzo.

Her face suddenly changed, she biting her lips fiercely. "Those bitches!"

"What's the matter?" Colin kissed her on the cheek, asking her in a low voice.

Anne put away her cell phone, saying softly. "Dad called me. I have something to do at home and I need to go home first."

On the way back, the more she thought about it, the more she realized that Gloria must have something to do with that her conversation with Gloria had been photographed.

Maybe Gloria set her up on purpose, trying to trick her into saying that?

Anne looking gloomy, she called Gloria, but no one ever answered the phone.

...

Gloria, on the other hand, glanced at the word "sister" flashing on the screen of her cell phone, laughed, put the phone aside, stood up, and poured a glass of water.

When she came back, the phone was still ringing.

Anne must be going crazy right now, trying to tear her apart.

"What makes you so happy?"

Gloria raised her lips, smiling, but it all disappeared. She did not have to look back, but she also knew that the person who spoke suddenly was "Leon".

She put her phone on silent mode, put it in her pocket, held her water glass, and got up to walk upstairs.

Unfortunately, "Leon" was right in the middle of the stairs.

"Leon" seemed to be against her on purpose. When she went to the left, he went to the left, and when she went to the right, he went to the right...

Gloria's good mood was suddenly ruined by him. She glanced up the stairs, lowered her voice, and asked "Leon". "What do you really want to do?"

"Did you know that what happened to the Taylor's on the Internet has shocked the Clarke's?"

"Leon" looking at her with a fake smile, there was a serious look in his eyes, as if he were looking for something in her face.

"Oh." Gloria looking down, she responded to him without expression, then passed over him and continued up the stairs.

Kenny squinting a little, there was a subtle inquiry in his voice. "You don't look scared at all."

Gloria didn't want to talk to him, whereas she couldn't help but retort. "I have done nothing to be ashamed of, so what am I afraid of?"

Kenny didn't think that she'd say that and she was so calm.

Gloria said this, then turned and walked away, his eyes darkening as he looked after her. This woman was not pretending to be stupid now?

Back in the room, Gloria did not have the calmness with which she had when faced "Leon."

She knew that the Clarke's were trying to block some of the news, and she was a little worried because she didn't know what the Clarke's were thinking.

She taking out her cell phone, the screen showed several missed calls, all of which were from the people of Taylor's.

Gloria raising her lips sarcastically, dialed Tina's phone number.

Just as she expected, as soon as Tina answered the phone, Tina spoke directly to her. "Come back at once."

"I'll be right back..." Gloria lowered her voice, trying to make her voice sound nervous.

Of course she was going back to the Taylor's to get a good look at their flustered faces.

Gloria wanted to go back to see Anne, who went crazy as she had been reviled by others for her plot being revealed.

However, Gloria knew very well that people of the Taylor's weren't going to take it so easily.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 26: More Obedient Than A Dog

Gloria returned to the Taylor family by car.

The servant saw her and respectfully greeted: "Miss."

It was not difficult to understand why the attitude of the servant changed.

After all, she now married Kenny Clarke, and Anne was now plagued with negative news, who might make herself finish if she was not careful.

"Are they all here?" Gloria asked slowly, she was a good-tempered woman.

The servant's attitude was more moderate: "Everyone is here, they are waiting for you in the studying room."

...

Gloria reached the entrance of the studying room, and had not entered, she stopped because of the dialogue inside.

"Anne, why are you so impatient! Just call her at home if you have something to do with her. You are photographed outside. Now it is very troublesome to handle it."

This was Loren's voice.

Although he was scolding Anne, he didn't feel anything wrong with Anne's approach.

Anne's tone sounded very wronged: "How can I know this will happen, dad, Gloria must have planned it! Otherwise, how could I happen to be photographed that way."

At this time, Tina hurriedly defended: "Anne, I know Gloria best. Since she was a child, she was too stupid to even pass the exam. How could she possibly do such a thing, it's certainly not her, she could not do such a thing. "

"Stupid? She was admitted to the Huyang Film Academy without using father's relationship, do you still say she is stupid?"

The Huyang film Academy is the top art academy in this country.

"She's just lucky, don't be angry ..."

Gloria felt Anne was right, Tina was indeed a bitch.

In the video, Anne scolded her a bitch, but Tina not only did not argue with Anne, but now she was so laborious to please her, fearing Anne would be angry.

Anne was probably really upset by this incident. She usually maintained the peace with Tina on the surface, but now she gave up pretending.

She shouted directly: "Shut up, you and your daughter are both the same, you are useless."

Gloria was about to push the door in, but she stopped when she heard the next words.

She wanted to know Loren's attitude.

The room was quiet for a while, and Loren said in a deep voice: "Quiet. The top priority is to handle this matter well, Gloria should be coming soon."

Behind the door, Gloria could not see Tina's expression, but she knew that her expression must be very exciting at this time.

After Loren spoke, the room was quiet.

Gloria sorted out her expression and slightly lowered her head, then she opened the door.

She looked around, lowered her eyes, and whispered: "Dad, Mom."

Then she turned her attention to Anne: "Anne."

"Huh!" Anne snorted coldly, and the expression on her face was cold: "Why do you stand so far, come here!"

Gloria pretended to be afraid and walked slowly.

She used to go to see Tina's expression.

However, Tina turned her head directly to one side and did not look at her.

Gloria felt lost and was about to sit down on the sofa.

Suddenly, Anne stood up and raised her hand and slapped Gloria.

A crackling sound snapped and echoed in the studying room.

Gloria was beaten, her face was hot, she reached out and touched her face, it was completely numb.

Anne tried hard enough this time.

She looked at Gloria's appearance of being stupid, but still felt not relieved, then raised her hand, she wanted to hit her again.

Gloria narrowed her eyes, and the hand on her side moved manually, intending to fight back.

At this moment, Loren who had not spoken suddenly said: "Enough! Let's talk about the matter first!"

"Dad!" Anne looked at him: "I'm angry when I see her. If it weren't for her, I wouldn't be like this now. Just now many friends have sent text messages to ask me what's going on with the news online "

Loren raised his hand slightly, instructing Anne to be calm.

To say, in this family, Anne was always obedient to Loren's words.

As the head of the family, Loren was still very prestigious.

He frowned and looked at Gloria: "Gloria, tell me, what's going on with the online video?"

Gloria felt bitter at the bottom of her heart. When she was just outside, he was talking about her indifferently, but now he was intimate instead.

She looked up and looked so sad that she looked pitiful and her voice was small: "Dad, I don't know what's going on with the online video ..."

Speaking of this, her voice choked a little, and she sniffed her nose, and tears burst out of her eyes.

But she still endured the cry, and explained to Anne with grievance: "Sister, please believe me, how can I do that kind of thing, how can I hurt you, we are a family ..."

Anne looked at Gloria with suspicion, trying to find traces of lying from her face.

However, Gloria's sad expression could hardly be found any trace of fraud.

She had to turn her head to look at Loren.

Loren was also looking at Gloria.

He always felt that this daughter, he had not paid much attention to, seemed to be different from the day she married Kenny Clarke.

But at the moment, the one stood in front of him, was still the ugly and coward girl.

Even if Anne wanted to slap her the second time, she didn't even know to hide. How could a normal person's reaction be so slow?

In this way, Loren believed most of Gloria's words.

It's easy to control a fool.

Loren leaned back on the chair and said to Gloria in a serious tone: "Yes, we are a family, so we must consider our family whenever we are. Now those people on the Internet have misunderstood your sister and what you have to do is explaining to them clearly the misunderstanding. "

The misunderstanding?

Anne called her and Tina as bitches, called them dogs, and they all forced her to marry Kenny together, were they all misunderstandings?

People in the world say that there is no rape and no business, but they are right. Loren's ability to reverse black and white was very powerful.

Gloria pretended to be surprised and gave Anne a worried look: "I ... I will explain it clearly, sister, don't worry."

Anne smiled, and there was a trace of contempt in her eyes.

She was more obedient than dogs.

Tina on the side was not as optimistic as they were. She frowned slightly, and she always felt that Gloria was strange.

Loren showed a smile at the corner of his mouth, and his voice softened: "Next, we will hold a press conference. At that time, you just need to say what we tell you."

"Well." Gloria nodded obediently.

Loren's eyes flashed with satisfaction: "Fine, there's nothing else now. Stay here, let's have dinner together."

Gloria lowered her eyes, covering sarcasm in her eyes: "Okay."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 27: Obey Him

Tina Walker stood up: "I'll let the servant prepare meals."

Anne Taylor didn't even look at her, and Loren Taylor just nodded at her.

Tina Walker looked a little bad, but she didn't say any more.

She stopped and whispered "Come out" seriously when she passed Gloria.

Loren Taylor and Anne Taylor had already sat together, talking something in a low voice.

She glanced at them and went out with Tina Walker.

Tina Walker took her into her former bedroom and looked at her seriously as soon as she closed the door: "Did you make the video?"

Gloria Taylor was stunned. She didn't expect that Loren Taylor had already believe her while Tina Walker didn't believe her.

In her impression, Tina Walker was a woman who was completely attached to a man and pinned all her hopes on Loren Taylor. She was flabby and a pushover.

"No"

Gloria Taylor shook her head like a rattle, and her eyes were clear and bright.

Tina Walker was indeed a softhead, but she was Gloria Taylor's biological mother, there was always a telepathy between mother and daughter. So Tina felt that it was not simple.

"Your dad and your sister trust you very much, don't lie to them." Tina Walker frowned and said in all earnestness.

Tina Walker's family was not good when she was young. However, she was a beauty and she was very caring, so Loren Taylor married her.

She didn't understand when she was a child. But when she grew up she realized that Loren Taylor married Tina Walker because he needed a woman to help him take care of the two children left by his dead wife.

It was inappropriate to say that she was just a nanny who warmed the bed.

She couldn't understand what charm with Loren Taylor so that he could make Tina Walker so determined.

"I'm hungry." Gloria Taylor bowed her head and looked at Tina Walker again. She did not make sure what she would say.

After Tina Walker forced her to marry Kenny Clarke, her patience with Tina Walker was wearing thin.

Tina Walker also felt that she was a bit excessive when she saw Gloria Taylor's look.

She looked at Gloria Taylor, and said a little softly: "You go down first."

As soon as Gloria Taylor walked out of the room, the cowardly grievance on her face disappeared thoroughly.

After she married Kenny Clarke, she didn't want to be involved with them anymore, she just wanted a peaceful life.

However, they refused to let her go.

In that case, just wait and see.

As she passed the study, she found that the door was half-closed, and there was no one in it.

They two went downstairs?

Gloria Taylor just walked up to the stairwell, and she vaguely heard someone talking downstairs. In addition to Anne Taylor and her daddy, there seemed to be other man's voice.

Who would come here to as a guest at this time?

She walked upstairs and was curious. When she finally saw his face, she was startled.

Loren Taylor had already seen her, and he beckoned to her to signal her come. The tone was uncharacteristically warm: "Gloria, come here. Kenny entrust his cousin come to pick you up."

Gloria Taylor didn't expect to see 'Leon Clarke' here, the surprise on her face could not cover up.

He wore a neat suit today, and it looked very expensive in tailoring. A faintly discernible smile hung on his handsome face. He sat casually, but exuded a strong aura.

Probably he felt her gazing, he also looked up at her: "Cousin let me pick you up."

As he spoke, the smile on his lips deepened a little, and his low and unemotional voice sounded a little ambiguous.

Gloria Taylor opened her mouth and said difficultly: "Well."

But Anne Taylor seemed to think of something suddenly, leaned over to Loren Taylor, whispered something, and looked at Gloria Taylor while talking.

She could guess that Anne Taylor must say something bad to her even without listening.

Kenny Clarke looked at Gloria Taylor by this gap, and his dark eyes flashed malice quickly when he swept her red face, and his hand on the sofa tightened unconsciously.

Even she was ugly, Gloria Taylor was his wife!

He never hit her, but these people dared to hit her.

Kenny Clarke glanced at Loren Taylor and Tina Walker, they were sitting over there, he turned his head to Gloria Taylor, and his tone was low: "Come and sit."

Gloria Taylor didn't want to sit there, but Leon Clarke's unscrupulous behaviors made her worried. She didn't know what he was going to do today, so she decided to follow him first.

She did not believe that Kenny Clarke would let 'Leon Clarke' pick her up.

As soon as she sat down, he turned his head to look at her and said with a gloomy tone: "Sister-in-law's face is too swollen to recognize."

Gloria Taylor thought of she was slapped by Anne Taylor just now, her face was swollen for a long time. Anne Taylor hit very hard. She was so numb that she forgot about it.

When Kenny Clarke was talking about it, he took a look at the direction of Anne Taylor and Loren Taylor intentionally or unintentionally.

Anne Taylor was a little afraid of Kenny Clarke's powerful aura, and he asked about Gloria Taylor's face now. Her heart trembled, throwing a threatening eyesight at Gloria Taylor.

Gloria Taylor moved her eyebrows, looked very fear, pursed her lips, and explained to 'Leon Clarke': "I accidentally ... fell down."

Such a clumsy lie can be broken without any scrutiny.

Kenny Clarke narrowed his eyes slightly, leaned forward to Gloria Taylor, and said meaningfully: "Really?"

Gloria Taylor didn't dare to stare at him, her head bowed guiltily: "... Yes."

Kenny Clarke chuckled and stopped talking.

Gloria Taylor read three words from his laughter: You are gullible.

'Leon Clarke' came in the name of picking her up. From another aspect, it also showed that Kenny Clarke valued Gloria Taylor.

No matter whether he was sent by Kenny Clarke, Gloria Taylor knew that if she told 'Leon Clarke' that her face was beaten by Anne Taylor, he would definitely revenge for her.

Gloria Taylor felt that she could handle these people. On the other hand, it was because 'Leon Clarke' was too dangerous. She didn't want to have too much involvement with him.

Loren Taylor was very satisfied with Gloria Taylor's answer, and his tone became more gentle: "Mr. Clarke specially come to my home, so let's eat together before leaving."

Kenny Clarke leaned on the sofa and said casually, "Okay."

For Loren Taylor, it was indeed an unexpected joy.

Although 'Leon Clarke' was only a side-master of the Clarke, it was not bad to please him.

The servant took Loren Taylor's mobile phone and said that he had a call to pick up. Loren Taylor went out to answer the phone while Anne Taylor sat nervously and found an excuse to leave.

There were only Gloria Taylor and Kenny Clarke in the sitting room now.

Gloria Taylor looked around and frowned, and asked him in a low voice: "What are you doing here?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 28

Whatever You Think

Hearing this, Kenny looked at her with his head slightly aslant. The expression on his face was still leisurely, "I came to pick you up."

Gloria pressed her lips and whispered in a low voice, "Don't be kidding."

"Whatever you think." Kenny chuckled and didn't seem to care what she thought.

It was true that he didn't come specifically to pick up Gloria.

He just wanted to meet the people of the Taylor family. The matter that was online was making a bit of a fuss, and while it didn't affect him much, it was troublesome.

Gloria was not a troublesome wife, but if the Taylor family was too troublesome, he didn't mind solving it by himself.

Gloria was still trying to say something when she saw Tina and Loren coming down the stairs, followed by Anne.

She didn't know what they said. They looked at Gloria with a less than friendly look.

"Anne, come and chat with Mr. Clarke." Loren finished speaking, and then turned to Gloria, "Gloria, dad wants to talk to you about something. Come with me."

Gloria glanced at Anne, got up and followed him.

Anne went to Kenny's side and was about to sit where Gloria had sat before. Unexpectedly, Kenny suddenly said coldly, "Stay away from me."

Anne's look stiffened. She thought of the last time when she saw this man, she invited him to the villa. This man also refused resolutely.

This man was simply not amenable to reason!

She didn't know what was so good about that redneck Gloria that he even bothered to come and pick her up.

.....

Gloria followed Loren to the study.

Loren asked her seriously, "What's your relationship with Leon Clarke?"

"We have nothing to do with each other." Gloria shook her head and looked innocent.

"Last time when you went back home, your Mom and Anne saw what you two did in the car!" Loren slapped the table angrily.

The loud "bang" made Gloria crumple her neck in shock.

"Since you have married Kenny, you should be the young mistress carefreely. Why did you hook up with his cousin?"

Gloria sneered in her heart. She had never seen Loren care so much about her before.

When she raised her head, she put on an innocent expression again, "I didn't."

Loren looked at Gloria, and her eyes fell on her face, and a hint of disdain rose to the bottom of his eyes.

He and Tina were both good-looking. How could they have a daughter as ugly as Gloria?

If it wasn't for the DNA test, he would have suspected that Gloria wasn't his biological daughter.

She had such an appearance. It was true that she really had no advantage to hook up with men.

Naturally, he would not let out these thoughts in his mind, after all, Gloria was still useful to him.

"It's good if you didn't. Show your sister around Clarke's house when you have time. Help her make more friends." Then, he said casually, "Kenny's cousin is good."

Loren had said the same thing before. Gloria asked him with a confused face, "Doesn't she have many friends? She has Colin."

"You know nothing!" Loren gave her a cold glance, "Go."

"Okay."

Gloria shrunk her neck, looking frightened, and turned to go downstairs.

.....

At the dinner table, Loren kept asking Kenny about his position in the company and who his parents were in the Clarke family.

"I never saw you in Huyang City before. Have you just come back from abroad?"

Kenny raised his eyelids, glanced at Loren, and said slowly, "I just returned home and got a leisure job in the company."

A cunning light flashed in Loren's eyes. She smiled softly, "What about your parents? Still abroad?"

Kenny ignored him and handed the bowl to Gloria, "Gloria, please help me with the soup."

Gloria looked up and saw a bowl being handed in front of her.

His fingers were clean and slender, and they looked very nice on the edge of the white porcelain bowl.

Gloria was dazzled. She realized once again that 'Leon' was a real aristocratic man with pride from head to toe.

She took the bowl and raised her eyes. Then she saw that there was a faint impatience in his inky eyes.

She said nothing, got up and filled the bowl with soup. Then she put it in front of him.

"Thank you." The corners of his lips lifted as if he was smiling, but there was no obvious curvature.

Gloria looked at him in surprise, "Not at all."

Was this kind of aristocratic childe capable of playacting like this?

Loren's words were ignored by Kenny. He didn't look very good.

He vaguely saw that "Leon" seemed to be a little close to Gloria. Therefore, he felt that it was the right way for Gloria to be the matchmaker for Anne and Leon.

As for Anne's boyfriend Colin, he's just a rebound guy.

When Loren had this idea, he was about to spit it out.

Kenny glanced at Loren quietly and said to Gloria before he could open his mouth, "I'm full. Let's go."

He finished speaking, stood up, and said, "Thank you for your hospitality."

Although he said thank you, he looked like he was giving orders.

Aura was something innate.

And his look of being supercilious was arrogant.

But also fascinating.

Gloria thought she might have been slapped silly by Anne, otherwise why would she think "Leon" the dandy was so charming?

"Dad, then I'm leaving. " Gloria had long wanted to leave, but she had to finish her whole playacting.

Loren didn't have chance to say what he wanted to say, so he was a little frustrated. Gloria happened to ignite his anger.

He glared at Gloria and yelled at her angrily, "Hurry up!"

Gloria lowered her head in patience and headed out the door with her handbag in hand.

Loren and the others came out to see them off.

It had to be said that power was a good thing. Even if "Leon" embarrassed Loren just now, Loren still saw him off with a smile.

The three of them stood at the gate of the villa, "Mr. Clarke, see you next time."

Kenny looked at them with a faint smile, then turned to Gloria, who was standing in front of the car. He said with a deep voice, "Are you not getting in?"

On hearing that, Gloria tried to pull open the back seat door to get into the car, only to find that it wouldn't open at all.

She looked at 'Leon' in surprise.

Kenny frowned with impatience flashing in his dark eyes, "Fool, you want me to be your driver?"

She just didn't want to sit next to him!

But he said so, so she had to open the passenger's door and sit in it.

The car drove out slowly, and it was quiet in the carriage.

Gloria had always felt that it was inexplicable for Leon to come to the Taylor family.

"Was it really Kenny who asked you to come and get me?" Thinking about it, she couldn't think of any other purpose for his visit to the Taylor family.

Kenny looked at the front of her, replying with a cold tone, "What else? You think I wanted to come?"

"I see." That's good.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 29: Flirted With Her On Purpose

Gloria had been acting foolishly in the Taylor family for so many years. They had been completely confused by the stupid appearance she showed.

But a centenary family like the Clarke family, even a servant, was very smart, not to mention the pair of cousins Kenny Clarke and "Leon Clarke".

She couldn't pretend to be stupid when she faced them, so she didn't plan to pretend to be stupid from the beginning.

Therefore, as soon as she walked out of the door of the Taylor family, she no longer covered up.

Kenny turned his head, and the expression of relief on her face naturally was seen by him.

She seemed to be afraid of having a relationship with "Leon Clarke".

Although he knew that she hated his cousin "Leon" he pretended, he was still inexplicably agitated.

squeak--

The car braked suddenly and the tires rubbed against the ground to make a harsh sound.

Gloria leaned forward, reflexively, and was then bounced back onto the chair.

Suppressing her anger, she turned around and looked at "Leon": "What are you doing?"

Kenny's expression was calm, and he said with ease: "Hand sliding."

"You ..." His insincere explanation made Gloria speechless.

What can she say besides enduring such a master? After all, she can't afford the result if she offended him.

Kenny looked at her face, and a smile flashed in his eyes.

Gloria felt that she and "Leon" must be enemies in their last life. Every time she met him, bad things would happen. And she was more determined that she should stay away from him.

...

The car stopped at the entrance of Kenny's villa.

Gloria said "Thank you", opened the door and ran towards the villa.

She asked the bodyguard standing at the door: "Is your young master here?"

She dared to go back to the Taylor family because she was confident to retreat, but Kenny was willing to let "Leon" pick her up, she was still full of gratitude.

The bodyguard glanced at Kenny, who was holding up with the car key, and said without a serious face: "Young Master went out to work, and has not returned."

"Well ..." Gloria paused and said, "If he comes back, please tell me."

She wanted to thank Kenny in person.

The bodyguard respectfully replied: "I see."

Kenny walked up and stared at Gloria's back, but the words were to the bodyguard: "What did she say?"

"She asked if you are at home. When you come back, I will let her know."
The bodyguard told him honestly.

Gloria returned to the room and logged in the mailbox to see if there was an interview invitation.

There were several small companies issued interview invitations.

After she went to college, she didn't ask the Taylor family for money. She just graduated this year and her salary was not high, just enough to support herself.

She married Kenny. The Clarke Family must have given the Taylor Family a lot of benefits, but she didn't even see a penny, and she lost her job because of her marriage. So she did need a job.

She glanced at the companies that sent the invitations, their companies were not big, but it's not bad for her who had just graduated. So she planned to interview.

Turning off the computer, she walked out of the room to the stairs and glanced into the hall, and found that there was still no one in the hall.

She hadn't heard the sound of the car just now. Kenny shouldn't be back.

She had to go back to the room and wait.

She waited until the night came, and Kenny did not come back home yet.

Gloria thought about it and went to the kitchen.

Kenny should come back for dinner, right? She thanked him via cooking.

From the time she moved here to the present, there were only these several bodyguards coming and going in the villa. She ate very few times in the villa. So Kenny's food was usually cooked by these bodyguards?

He must be a grumpy man, he even didn't hire the servant.

Sure enough, as soon as she entered the kitchen, a bodyguard walked in: "Is Madam hungry? We can do whatever you want."

"I'll cook for you young master, it's okay, I'll do it myself." Gloria opened the refrigerator while talking.

The bodyguard heard the words and did not force her: "If you need anything, just call us."

Gloria smiled at him: "Thank you."

The ingredients in the refrigerator were very rich, there were all kinds of meat, green vegetables and melons, there was everything she needed.

She was not quite sure what Kenny loved to eat, and was planning to go out to ask the bodyguard, then she heard a low male voice behind her: "Beef stew, Element mixed sea food ... a little more pepper, less oil."

As soon as Gloria turned around, she saw "Leon" standing behind her.

He changed into a dark-colored home clothes, copied his hands into the pockets of his pants, and stood there still. Even if he didn't say anything, it was hard to ignore him.

He looked down at Gloria and added: "Oh, one steamed egg, this does not need to put pepper."

Gloria: "..."

So he started ordering? Did he treat her as a waiter in the restaurant?

When he had finished speaking, he would leave. Gloria stopped him quickly and asked, "What kind of food does your cousin like to eat?"

Kenny stopped and looked back at her with full leisure: "He likes everything I said."

"Really?" How could she feel that these were Leon's favorite, not Kenny's?

Kenny narrowed his eyes slightly, stretched his hand over her hair, and slid his palm down, holding her back of her head, forcing her to stare at him.

He matched her height and leaned over to look at her, with no expression on his handsome face: "Do you think I need to lie to you for a meal?"

The faces of the two were very close. When he talked, the exhaled heat spattered on her face, and her face started to get hot.

She could see her face reflected in his dark eyes.

She didn't feel much about her face before, but now it looked ... ugly and silly.

Suddenly she felt that "Leon" was so good at enduring. A wealthy young man like him who was so accustomed to beauty could even kiss her face!

Kenny saw that she was with a dull look, hooked her lips, and slid his hands to her delicate neck, inch by inch, sensational-touching: "Looking at me like this, you do want to leave the cripple and stay with me? "

His fingers were slightly cool, but it seemed to carry electric current, causing her to shudder involuntarily.

Gloria suddenly reacted, and pushed away "Leon": "What are you talking about!"

Kenny was unprepared and was pushed back by two steps to stabilize his body, but he was not embarrassed at all, and he looked calm like nothing happened: "Trust me, that is Kenny's favorite dishes. I have a date tonight. "

He threw her a meaningful look and slowly walked away from the kitchen.

As soon as his figure disappeared, Gloria stretched her hand to hold the refrigerator door, panting to stabilize her figure.

She stretched her hand slightly to touch her neck, and when she touched it, she retracted her hand like suffering an electric shock.

After calming down, Gloria could be sure that "Leon" had just deliberately flirted with her.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 30: It's not good to hug when my cousin is at home

She ran to the bathroom and looked at her ugly face in the mirror, she couldn't figure out why would "Leon" come to flirt her.

She had heard that in the circle of high society, some people had very special hobbies.

Was it really because she was his cousin's wife, so there was "the taboo-taboo stimulation" for him?

As soon as this idea came up, she felt chills.

When she first met with "Leon", she thought that he was a playboy.

However, when he suffered a gunshot wound, she changed her view of him completely.

He looked handsome, had a great family background, and had perseverance beyond ordinary people. With these, she can be sure that he was not a simple man.

And this man who was not so simple, always came ... to flirt her?

Why?

...

Because she was thinking about this thing, Gloria was also a little absent-minded when she was cooking.

After wasting two pieces of beef, she took her minds off.

She still intended to believe in "Leon" one more time and cooked the dishes he said.

As soon as she finished cooking, she heard the sound of the car engine.

Was Kenny back?

Could she see him now?

Thinking this way, she was a little nervous.

When she took off her apron and went out, she found that there was only one person and that was Shi Ye.

He walked into the hall holding a cardboard box. When he saw Gloria, he froze for a moment, then nodded slightly and respectfully greeted: "Mrs."

Gloria nodded and asked him: "Kenny is back?"

"Master has gone upstairs." After so many days, Shi Ye could help Kenny lie calmly.

Gloria was a little surprised, but she didn't think about it carefully: "He hasn't eaten yet? I just finished cooking."

Shi Ye was a smart person, he naturally understood the meaning of Gloria's words.

"I'm going to send documents to the young master now. I will ask him if he would go downstairs to eat or just eat in his room."

"Thank you."

...

Holding a box of documents, Shi Ye went to Kenny's studying room.

Kenny was calling.

Hearing the door push behind him, he knew it was Shi Ye without looking back.

When Kenny finished the call, all the documents in the carton were taken out and placed neatly on the desk.

When he saw that Shi Ye hadn't left, he asked, "Is there anything else?"

"Mrs said that she prepared dinner for you."

Kenny heard the words and didn't answer immediately. He twisted his fingers inexplicably, and then replied, "Oh, I see."

Shi Ye felt that since master married, he was even weirder.

...

Gloria waited for a long time, and Shi Ye didn't come downstairs at all.

She was about to go upstairs, but she saw "Leon" walking slowly downstairs.

Gloria looked at him cautiously, and took two steps back preparatively, still unable to hold back and asked, "Didn't you say there was a date at night?"

"Yeah," Kenny responded and walked past her directly towards the restaurant.

There were several dishes on the table that looked very well. In addition to the three dishes he said before, Gloria also made a spicy chicken meat.

Gloria frowned and followed him: "Why don't you leave yet?"

"Did I say that I will go there?" Kenny sat down and glanced at her calmly.

However, Gloria felt that he was proud now!

Kenny didn't eat much at noon. He was already hungry. He took up chopsticks and started eating.

Gloria walked towards him and wanted to grab the chopsticks in his hand: "This is not for you ..."

He had long been known that she would come to grab the chopsticks. Kenny raised his long arm, she can't touch the chopsticks at all. Her center of gravity was unstable and fell straight forward.

She unconsciously reached out to protect her face and head. When she fell into a solid hug steadily, the narrow voice of "Leon" sounded from above: "My cousin is still at home. It's not good for us to have a such hug, right? "

Gloria loosened the hands protecting her face and head, and as soon as she opened her eyes, she faced Leon's smiling face.

"Leon" was still sitting on the chair, and Gloria was sitting on his lap, the whole person was held in his arms!

The posture of the two was too close if they were seen ...

Gloria's expression changed with fright, struggling to get up, but Shi Ye entered the restaurant at this time.

"Master said he ..." A surprise flashed across his serious face as Shi Ye saw the situation in the restaurant.

But good adaptability made him to quickly return to his normal look: "The young master said he was not hungry."

Then he turned and slipped quickly.

What did he see?

The young master and his wife were in the restaurant ...

No, the current identity of the young master was his cousin "Leon". As Kenny's staff, did he just react too calmly?

Should he go back ... Forget it, he dared not go back and disturb the good thing of the young master.

However, the taste of the young master was quite strange ...

...

In the restaurant.

Gloria watched Shi Ye come in and go out, she was stunned.

Kenny watched her expression change, the interests flashed in his eyes and quickly disappeared. He slowed down: "Do you think that Shi Ye will tell my cousin the matter about us?"

Gloria directly refuted him: "There's nothing happened between us!"

She struggled to get up, but Kenny didn't let her go. He looked like he didn't work hard, but she couldn't escape.

She was angry and anxious and her ears were red: "Leon Clarke! You are too excessive!"

Kenny noticed that her ears were flushed, but he couldn't see any change in her face. He lowered his head slightly closer and saw that something was covering her face.

He narrowed his eyes slightly and wiped her face with his fingers.

The spot where he wiped it happened to be a freckle on her face. When he raised his hand, he found that the freckle he had wiped on her face disappeared, and the small piece of skin became whiter.

How was this going?

Gloria took advantage and slammed away from him, leaving his arms and covering her face to stand aside, her face was covered with horror.

With empty arms, Kenny reacted.

He looked down at his fingers, a layer of waxy-colored powder sticking to his fingertips,

His dark eyes were darker and his eyesight became sharper. He slowly stood up and walked towards the direction of her.

He walked very slowly, and every step made Gloria tremble with fear. When he took a step, she stepped back a little.

Until she retreated to the wall, and then there's no way for her to retreat, the man stretched his finger to her, and his voice was low: "What is this?"

Because of her guilty conscience, Gloria involuntarily raised the volume: "Don't you know the cosmetics used by women?"

Kenny naturally would not give up.

His sharp eyesight seemed to have seen her through, and said with a sneer: "Your women love to apply makeup with this dull color?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 31 Let Her Admit She Is Hying.

Gloria avoided his sharp eyes, and said coldly."It's none of your business."

"Whose business is it?"

Kenny stared at her. His large and broad body directly blocked her and didn't give her a chance to escape.

Gloria can clearly smell his unique clear air, and felt his extremely oppressive aura.

Her heart thumped, and she felt that every word she said was a flaw.

"Leon" was not a normal young master. He was much smarter and penetrated than she imagined.

"No talking?" Kenny suddenly stepped back.

Gloria thought that he was finally going to let her go, but at the next second, she became nervous again.

Kenny looked at her and said quietly, "Go wash your face."

Gloria bit her lips and suddenly looked at the door of the dinning room in surprise. She called,"Dad?"

Kenny didn't believe her."This little trick is too childish."

There was no embarrassment showing on the Gloria face. Instead, she frowned, in a dilemma.

Kenny was suspicious and turned to look back, only to find nobody.

Taking advantage of this, Gloria started to run.

Kenny was stunned for two seconds. He had meant to catch up with her, but he stopped.

He didn't need to be hurried. They had a lot of time.

He turned to sit at the chair and continued to eat.

It was much better than what those people did.

...

Gloria ran back to her own room, leaned on the doorplate, panted and squatted down.

She was almost scared to death by "Leon" just now.

Although she didn't mean to be ugly, there was always unnecessary trouble to explain it.

After this incident, "Leon" was already a super dangerous person in her mind. Either did he move away, or must she find a way to move out.

After bathing and lying in the bed, she received Edith's call.

"Gloria, the official blog of Taylor group said that tomorrow they will make a public explanation for the video. What do they want to do?"

Gloria sneered. "They want me to come out and explain the misunderstanding to the media."

"That video is a smoking gun. How can you explain it? You're forced to hold the bag? " There was anger in the Edith tone.

Gloria said casually: "Then just carry."

She appeased Edith, then logged in the micro-blog on the computer, and found that Taylor's official micro-blog actually posted a message, saying they would clarify the video.

Taylor family should visit her tomorrow.

Sure enough, in the morning of the next day, Loren called Gloria.

"It has a new product launch today of Taylor group. You go on the spot and explain the video by the way."

Gloria agreed cleverly, "good."

...

When Gloria opened the door, she looked around cautiously and found that there was no "Leon", so she was relieved and went out boldly with her bag.

She ate something casually on the way and went to the place where Taylor group's new product conference was held.

Tina stood at the door looking around, probably waiting for her.

As soon as she saw Gloria, Tina came and said, "Why did you come so late and wear a mask? "

Gloria kept a low voice, and let herself voice sound a little hoarse: "I have a little cold."

Tina didn't ask too much, and then she took her to a meeting room.

Loren and Anne were here.

Anne threw her a speech which had been prepared already, " It was all written on it about what you should say when the reporter ask you."

Gloria looked over, ridicule flashing in the eye.

The content of the speech was letting Gloria take all the responsibility from the topic "ugly people do more mischief" on micro-blog to the later video events and she must admit that she was hyping.

They considered well. After all, she would be a screenwriter in the future. Although she was only behind the scenes, she was also a member of the entertainment circle. It can be said to hype.

Soon, Loren's assistant knocked on the door and came in: "General manager Taylor, all are ready."

"Well." Loren looked at Gloria and said sternly, "Have you memorized the contents of the speech? It doesn't matter if you can't remember. You just need to know that everything is your fault. "

"I see." Gloria nodded, very obedient.

The door of the conference room was opened and a group of reporters came in.

She knew that these journalists were bribed by Loren already. If her words were different from those in the speech, they would not be broadcast.

Gloria was studying at the film academy. She knew a lot about the entertainment industry. At a glance, she found that some familiar signs on the microphones. If she remembered correctly, it was a company of Shengding media.

Shengding media was the largest comprehensive group in the entertainment industry. It was rich and powerful, and its founder had a fierce vision. Even the company's employees were very headstrong. For example, they were not easy to be bribed.

At the beginning of the interview, the microphones with Shengding media logo were directly in front of Gloria.

"Miss Taylor, is what you and your sister Anne said in the video true? Are you forced to marry into the Clarke family? "

Gloria didn't take off the mask, looked at that reporter several seconds, then responded slowly, "No. It is me who want to marry into Clarke house."

Her reaction was seen by these reporters. Before they heard that the third lady of Taylor family was a little silly, it seemed that it was true.

Loren and other two people were satisfied with Gloria's words.

"You want to marry into a rich family, so that you married into Clarke family instead of your sister?"

"She is your sister. How can you do this to her? You are not beautiful. Even if you married into Clarke family, the young master of Clarke family doesn't like you, right? "

"You robbed your sister's fiance so shamelessly. No wonder your mother doesn't care about you..."

"Have you been psychologically distorted since you were a child?"

The reporters' questions had come one after another. They were almost personal attacks.

A bold reporter asked her: "Is Mr. Clarke impotent as the rumor saying? Will you be a gross widow forever for money? Will you cuckold him in the future?"

In order to gain more attention, unscrupulous media people had no conscience at all.

Gloria looked at the reporter. The mask covered half of her face. The heavy bangs covered her forehead, only showing a pair of eyes, so clear and bright.

The reporter was scared by her eyes.

At this time, Gloria said slowly, "Even if you have the interest of prying into the couple's affairs, I can't let the public know the affair of my husband and me. After all, I am not as shameless as you."

When the voice fell, other reporters couldn't help laughing.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 32 You Cross the Road to Blackmail?

The meaning of Gloria's words was to satirize the reporter's shameless behavior of asking others about their marital affairs in public.

The reporter who asked this question understood as well.

The present reporters were bribed by Loren. They mainly wanted to take this opportunity to whitewash Anne. So most of them just led the questions to Gloria. But only this reporter, in order to get more attention, asked about Kenny.

Clarke family was powerful and couldn't be offended by ordinary people, but there were also some people who had fluke minds, taking risks to provoke Clarke family.

This reporter was laughed by other people, his face was pale. However, he threw the handle after the blade, saying maliciously, "You are so ugly. If Kenny is not impotent, could you still marry into Clarke family? You don't have to explain. A woman like you who rob your sister's fiance in order to marry into a rich family is bound to cuckold! "

Although Gloria hadn't seen Kenny until now, subconsciously, she didn't want to involve Kenny in these troubles.

The strange characters of Kenny were related to his previous experience. Whether he was impotent or not, it should not be discussed by these people in public.

"Cuckold? Is there a more richer man in Huyang City than Kenny? " Gloria laughed. Her eyes were bent into crescent shape. Her tone was light:

"Our sex life is in harmony. If you don't believe it, you can ask my husband, Kenny."

"You..."

In the expectation of the reporter, Gloria should scold him to vent, but he had nothing to say after hearing Gloria's words.

As for asking Kenny?

They even didn't have the qualification to meet Kenny let alone asking him. Even if they met Kenny, they must flatter him. How dare they ask such a question?

Other journalists, who were eager to interview, realized that they were interviewing not only the third lady in a small business who was not loved by her parents, but also the young madam of the Clarke family.

Although the young madam just married into Clarke family and seemed she was not accepted by Clarke family. they weren't exactly sure what would happened in the future.

As a result, these journalists changed their sharp tone and asked some tactful questions.

"Do you have a good relationship with your sister Anne?"

Gloria smiled. "When I was a child, I liked her very much." I didn't like her when I grew up.

"Your mother loves both of you very much?"

"Well, she's kind." Tina was very kind to Anne.

" ... "

It wasn't until the end that the reporters remembered that they had gotten money from Loren. So they talked about the video. "Some netizens said that you deliberately angered your sister, and then let the paparazzi to record it on purpose. In fact, you are for hype?"

Gloria was silent for nearly half a minute, then nodded: "yes."

...

When the reporter left, Anne came angrily: "We asked you admit that you are hyping, but why do you hesitate for so long? Do you mean it? "

With that, she lifted her hand and was about to slap Gloria with anger.

Gloria had been paying attention to Anne's movements for a long time. She pretended to step back inadvertently and didn't be slapped.

Anne was more angry, staring at Gloria: "You dare to dodge?"

"Anne!" Loren stopped Anne's action of slapping Gloria again.

When Anne saw Loren, she walked to him with grievance: "Dad, just now the reporter asked her if she was hyped, but she hesitated for so long!"

Loren took a look at Gloria with scrutiny.

Just now, he heard Gloria refuted the report. A fool can't say such clever words.

Gloria looked at Loren, uncovered the mask, bit her lips and said in fear: "Dad, I haven't eaten breakfast, I'm a little hungry. I can..."

"OK." Loren turned to look at Tina and said, "Follow her and buy her something to eat."

...

Gloria and Tina went out of the building one after another.

"Gloria." Tina suddenly came forward to hold Gloria.

Gloria turned round. Her eyes were calm: "Mom, what's the matter?"

"Kenny, he..." Tina seemed to be in a bit of a dilemma, hesitated for a moment and said, "Is he the same as the rumor? Or is he healthy?"

Gloria was stunned slightly, then lowered her head to make a shy look: "Mom, how do you ask such a question..."

Seeing her like this, Tina frowned slightly and said, "You should tell mom the truth. Is there any problem with Kenny's body? If he is healthy, you can't match him. Your elder sister is the fiancée originally designated by the old Mr. Clarke..." Gloria was really shocked.

If she didn't get it wrong, in Tina's words, she should divorce Kenny and let Anne marry him when Kenny was healthy.

Gloria was angry but she laughed, "if Kenny is not disfigured and is healthy, it is impossible to get Anne and me in turn!"

In order to make Tina happy these years, she was very tired to pretend at Taylor family. Now she didn't want to pretend.

"She's your sister." Tina was not satisfied with her calling Anne's name directly.

Gloria just asked her: "Am I your own daughter?"

Tina frowned tightly, "Gloria, how can you say that? You used to be different."

That was because she used to be willing to be silly and cooperate willingly.

But now, she didn't want to cooperate, and be aggrieved.

She didn't want to talk to Tina. Instead, she turned around and left. Tina called her behind. She quickened her pace and soon disappeared in the crowd.

After all, Tina was her own mother. Although she comforted herself not to care, she was still sad.

She walked at the back of the crowd and crossed the road absently.

All of a sudden, the car whistled. She looked up, didn't pay attention to her feet, and suddenly tripped over by something.

Although she dressed a lot in winter, she was still hissed with pain when she landed on her knee.

The sound of opening the door came. Before she could see who the man was, she heard a familiar voice: "Gloria, cross the road? Injury Feigning?"

Gloria fixed eyes to him. The man in front of her, dressing in a suit, was "Leon"?

She was in a bad mood at the moment, and didn't want to see this man.

She stood up from the ground, and turned to leave. A big hand grabbed her wrist, and his voice was indifferent and deep: "Hurt?"

Gloria was silent and wanted to get rid of his hand, but failed.

The next moment, she was carried in the arms of "Leon".

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 33 Your Boyfriend Is Worried about You.

Gloria reached out to cross his neck, her mind was blank for a few seconds and knew what situation was now.

She struggled in his arms: "Leon, you let me go!"

Kenny carried her firmly. He didn't take her struggle seriously and directly put her on the passenger seat.

Gloria wanted to get off when she was just on the car.

Kenny had expected that. He held the car door with one hand and supported on the door frame with the other hand. He looked at Gloria with a smile, "If you dare to get out of the car, I will kiss you."

Gloria compressed her lips, "Shameless!"

Kenny closed the door and walked to the other side of the car and drove.

Gloria turned the head to one side, because she didn't want to look at all at the man next to her. She was sick of him.

Kenny didn't look at her either. He looked straight ahead, and his tone was very light: "You haven't answered my question yet."

Gloria, stunned for a while, remembered his sarcastic tone to ask her whether to feign injury.

Gloria glared at him: "I think it's you who feign injury."

Kenny glanced at her, raised up his lips, and said meaningfully, "Your husband is the most promising man in Huyang, how dare I blackmail you?"

It sounded like a joke, but he was a little proud.

In short, Gloria thought that "Leon" was very strange.

She looked at "Leon" carefully, and found nothing unusual.

But, "Leon" saw her interview so soon. Did Kenny also see it?

She felt a little uneasy, thinking of it.

The attitude of Clarke family was obvious from the beginning. After they dealt with several hot searches related to Kenny, they didn't take any action. That was to say, as long as Kenny was not involved, they would not care about the resentment of Gloria and Taylor family.

In today's interview, the reporter asked questions about Kenny, which were all a bit excessive. Would her self righteous answers make Kenny feel disgusted?

Gloria organized her words, and decided to sound out "Leon's" view, "Your cousin...Did he see the interview? "

Kenny heard the hesitation in her tone and looked at her a little surprised. His eyes flashed and said, "Yes."

"Then he..." she asked tentatively

Kenny said naturally, "He is very angry."

Gloria's heart thumped and she was more uneasy.

She looked out of the window and found that it was not the way back. She asked cautiously, "Where are you going? I want to go back to the villa. "

As if he didn't hear her, Kenny ignored her and stopped in front of a clinic beside the road.

He got off the car and opened the door for her. "Could you get off? Or...I carry you? "

After hearing this, she bent down to get off the car in a hurry.

"You want some medicine?" Gloria, seeing him go straight to the clinic, asked curiously.

The man walking in front of her didn't answer, but went inside.

Gloria followed up, and heard him say to the doctor: "She had her leg hurt. Please, have a look."

She was surprised.

"Leon" drove her to the clinic just to cure her legs.

That doctor listened to his words, looked at Gloria and said mildly:
"Come in. I will help you. Where is the injury?"

"My leg didn't hurt. It's ok..." As Gloria said, she could not help looking up at "Leon".

There was no expression on his face. When he was silent, there was a little sharpness between his handsome eyebrows and eyes. He didn't look like a dandy at all, but he was like a king.

Such a "Leon" made her panic.

The doctor listened to Gloria's words, looked at Kenny again, smiled and said: "Your boyfriend is worried about you. Just let me check it."

she retorted."We are not that kind of relationship!"

Kenny hooked up his lips, pointing to a woman doctor not far away: "Let the woman doctor check for her."

The doctor smiled again, showed an understanding look, and called the woman doctor come.

When the woman doctor came over, she blushed at the first sight of Kenny, and rolled Gloria's trousers to see her knee gently.

Her legs were white, slender and straight. Even the woman doctor can't help but praise her: "Your legs are very beautiful."

When Gloria thought of the "Leon" here, she was embarrassed and put her trousers down.

Her knee was a little red and swollen. This kind of injury was not bad for her. She didn't know why "Leon" made a fuss.

Inadvertently, she turned around, and saw "Leon"'s eyes.

He took a casual look at her leg and said, "You are very stubborn."

At that time, he watched her fall straight to the ground and she didn't stand up for a long time, thinking that her leg was seriously injured.

It was hardly there was no irony in his words but an exclamation.

...

Although she was fine, the doctor gave her some liquid medicine and asked her to use it back.

Out of the clinic, Kenny walked straight to open the door, and suddenly turned around. He found Gloria standing at the door of the clinic and did not follow.

He squinted his eyes to look at Gloria. "What? You can't walk because of the pain in you legs. Do you want me to carry you?"

Gloria felt that her temper was not good in essence, but she had never met a man like "Leon" who was so shameless and easy to make her angry.

She said seriously, "Thank you today. If you have something to do, just leave. I'll take a taxi myself."

Kenny appreciated her endurable face. Leaning on the car, he said in a light tone: "I'm not busy. I'm just going to eat with my friends. Go with me"

Gloria turned to leave.

She knew that the man was unreasonable, and she didn't know why he kept pestering her.

Did he like woman who was ugly?

She walked a few steps, then heard the voice of "Leon" coming from behind.

He seemed to talk on the phone.

"I'm outside. Well, I met my sister-in-law and we will have a meal and then come back. Cousin, you don't mind, right? My relationship with her...After all, we meet every day...We..."

Gloria stopped and looked back. She saw "Leon" staring at her with a smile. The threat was obvious.

She had no doubt that if she continued to step forward, he would say "sister-in-law lures me".

She clenched tightly and walked to "Leon" with patience.

His eyes flashed a trace of satisfaction: "Sister-in-law, you get on the car first. I have something else to say with my cousin."

Watching Gloria on the car, he took his cell phone to the front. The screen showed a lock screen, not on the call screen.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 34 He Is Weird.

The car stopped at the door of a high-end club with high privacy.

Gloria was about to take off the safe-belt but she stopped. She looked at "Leon"suspiciously: "Here?"

He didn't come here to play?

Kenny looked at her and opened the door to get off.

Gloria had no idea but followed him.

They walked towards the door one after another. When Kenny walked at the door, the waiter bowed down respectfully and said "welcome". But when it was Gloria's turn, she was stopped.

The waiter looked at her arrogantly. His eyes flashed with contempt: "What are you doing here?"

Gloria looked at her dress which was indeed a little shabby, but she was still very calm and said: "Eat."

With that, she was about to go in, but the waiter still wouldn't let her in: "It's a high-end club. Not everyone can enter."

He saw a lot of material girls who came here to look for the rich man, but most of them were beautiful. Gloria looked so ugly and shabby. Putting her in was pulling down the level of the club.

Gloria pouted. She didn't want to go in, in fact.

After entering, Kenny found that Gloria didn't follow. When he turned to find her, he happened to hear the waiter's words.

He walked over, pulled Gloria to his back. He looked at the waiter with a cold face: "What's your name?"

Most of the people in this club were rich and powerful. The waiters here were very discerning.

Kenny was tall and had strong aura. The waiter was immediately coward and stammered, "A...A Bing. "

Kenny just glanced at him coldly, pulled Gloria in, and no one dared to stopped them at this time.

He walked fast with his high legs. Gloria was much shorter than Kenny, so she was half a step behind him.

Different from his unbridled and playful characters, his palm was so broad and warm that let people feel at ease. Gloria looked up and stared at his broad shoulder.

Except for Edith, this was the first time someone had protected her like this.

Ding——

The sound of opening the elevator door made her back.

She looked up, only to find that Kenny stopped sometime and looked at her unfathomably.

Gloria, like attacked by the electric, took her hand back at once, and flustered into the elevator.

Her hand was held by "Leon" all the way...

After Kenny entered the elevator, Gloria stood in the farthest corner from him.

Kenny glanced at her indifferently, and his voice was deep: "Why do you stay so far? Can I eat you?"

Gloria turned her head and ignored him.

...

Finally, they got to the box. Gloria thought she could relax at last, but she didn't expect that a man was in the box.

This man in a striped suit, wearing very elegant gold frame glasses, had handsome facial features, gentle eyebrows and eyes, outstanding temperament. He was not a normal person.

As long as the people in the entertainment industry knew this man. He was the CEO of Shengding media - Carl Cook!

Carl seemed to feel her eyes, looked up at her and smiled gently.

Kenny went to the dining table, pulled out the chair, pressed Gloria on the chair, looked up to Carl, and said concisely: "My sister-in-law."

Carl seemed to be stunned for a moment, as if he had listened to something interesting. The smile in his eyes was a little deeper, but his tone was serious. "Mrs. Clarke."

Gloria felt something strange, but still said politely, "Mr. Cook."

Did the ugly woman know Carl?

Kenny raised up his eyebrows and directly threw the menu to her, and said with a cold voice: "Take your order."

Gloria didn't know why he was angry again. But Carl was here. Instead of refuting, she lowered her head to look at the menu seriously.

Didi——

It was the ring of SMS.

Kenny took out his mobile phone and found that it was Carl who sent him a text message: "Are you having a role-playing with your wife?"

Kenny was unhappy because Gloria knew Carl. After reading the message, he raised his long leg and kicked Carl directly.

"Hum..." Carl didn't expect that Kenny was so cruel. He groaned with pain. But because of Gloria, he could only resist it.

Feeling the table shake, Gloria looked up to Kenny curiously.

"Have you done?" Kenny leaned over, and put his arm on the back of her chair directly. This gesture was intimate.

Gloria didn't feel good. She said "Yes" and put the menu far away.

Fortunately, during the meal, "Leon" didn't do anything beyond. He kept chatting with Carl.

They must have a good relationship.

Gloria buried in eating. After finishing, she found an excuse to go out.

As soon as she left, Carl relieved, took off his glasses, changed the gentle image before, and said helplessly, "You go home and play role-playing with your wife happily, leaving me work in the company busily. And I must wear a pair of glasses every day, pretending being mature and stable. Anyway, I want a vacation! "

Kenny was indifferent: "What vacation does the president of Shengding media take? Even Gloria, a bumpkin knows you. Shouldn't you work harder? "

"Bah! There are tens of millions of followers on my blog. Many people know me. Besides, you are the big boss of Shengding media! I'm the one who works for you! "

Carl was more angry: "If you don't return to work in the company, I will jump off from the building of Shengding media to make a big news for you."

Carl said this threat three times a day, which didn't have any impact on Kenny.

He drank the water slowly, and then asked: "The personnel department really didn't receive the application resume of Gloria?"

Carl said with some wonder: "I let the Secretary to ask every day. No."

Finish saying, he asked Kenny curiously: "Your wife looks like that, can you still bear to kiss her?"

Kenny looked at him coldly: "Look like what?"

Carl swallowed his saliva and said pleasantly, "She is beautiful, radiant and generous..."

Kenny: "Are you blind?"

Carl: "..."

He didn't let him say Gloria was ugly nor beautiful. What did he want him to do?

He felt that since he married, Kenny was weird.

Before leaving, Kenny seemed to think of something suddenly, and told Carl, "Fire the waiter in the club, who is called A Bing."

...

When they returned to the villa, it was already afternoon.

Gloria and Kenny went into the villa one by one.

When she came in, she asked, "Is your young master at home?"

"No." After this period of exercise, the bodyguards had no psychological pressure when they lied.

Back to the room, Gloria lay in the bed, thinking about how to explain the interview when Kenny came back.

But unexpectedly, she thought of "Leon".

He was very strange today, and was very nice to her suddenly...

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 35 She Can't Whitewash.

After the interview, Gloria was pestered by "Leon" and had not seen her interview.

She turned on her computer and found that many media had issued the press articles, and there were also many influencers who reprinted.

Most people were scolding her, and some relatively rational netizens analyzed her answers in depth.

"I've guessed that she was hyping. Do those who said that she was poor have pain in their faces?"

"Her affections of wearing the mask annoyed me."

"Only I think this woman is so cool when she fought against the reporters?"

"I found that she didn't admit that she robbed her sister's fiance from beginning to end..."

Seeing the comment at the last, Gloria couldn't help chuckling.

She was deliberately avoiding answering that question. Once she admitted that she robbed Anne's fiance, Anne might take it to make troubles for her in the future.

It was rare for Gloria to have the good mood and continue to look at these comments.

"Is the play of the year a series? I don't have enough melons. I'll buy some more...Looking forward to the next episode. "

" ... "

When Gloria understood the true minds of Taylor family clearly, she didn't intend to obey them as before, so it was not over.

In a short time, the comments on the internet about Gloria's interview changed. Most of people began scolding her.

Gloria knew that these were paid posters whom Anne looked for.

She didn't care about that.

Anne was not a kind woman. They lived together before. It was too easy to get dirt on Anne.

Let Taylor family be proud one day. She would release all dirt tomorrow.

She wouldn't let Anne whitewash herself!

After reading for a while, Gloria logged in the email and found that there was an unread email.

When she opened it, she was stunned.

The invitation of Shengding media!

Did she send her resume to Shengding media?

She went to the mailbox several times and confirmed that she didn't send her resume to Shengding media. She was very puzzled. Suddenly, she remembered that "Leon" had taken her to have dinner with Carl...

She took a look at the time when the email was sent. It was nine o'clock in the morning. At that time, she was interviewed.

After thinking about it, she decided to ask "Leon".

...

In the hall, Kenny sat on the sofa and played games.

Shi Ye stood behind him and answered the phone and put on speaker.

Carl's crazy voice came, "I just went out to have a meal with you. When I went back to the company, those directors would ruin my office. You told him that if he doesn't come over, I would really jump from the rooftop."

At that time, Shi Ye took a look at the Kenny who was playing the game and said calmly, "Young master is very busy."

Of course, Carl didn't believe it: "Impossible! What is he doing? You video me to see him! "

At this time, Kenny said. "OK."

Shi Ye was chocked. Young master wanted to irritate Mr. Cook!

He had to turn on the video and turned on the rear camera.

As soon as Carl saw that Kenny playing game, he almost jumped up and said angrily, "I'm going to be killed by those old guys in the company, while you stay at home and play a game!"

"Yes." Kenny responded. He found that Gloria came down from upstairs.

He immediately gave a look at Shi Ye. Shi Ye understood and turned off the speaker, "Mr. Cook, I'll hang up first."

Carl just saw Gloria coming down in the video. Now he was so curious about Gloria and Kenny's affairs. He immediately threatened Shi Ye, "If you dare to hang up, I would die."

It was clear that even if he hung up, Carl would not really die. But for the first time, he did not hang up and turn off the video.

Gloria saw "Leon" in the hall who was on the corridor of the second floor, so she came down to find him. Only when she came near did she see that Shi Ye was here as well.

But Shi Ye was typing on his mobile phone all the time, very attentive, and didn't look here. Gloria walked towards "Leon".

She sat down opposite Leon and said, "I have something to ask you."

Kenny just raised up his eyelids, then lowered his head and continued playing the game: "What?"

"You know Mr. Cook of Shengding media very well?" she said carefully.

Kenny stopped for a while. Because of the pause, the character controlled by him in the game was killed by the enemy.

He threw his mobile phone aside casually and looked at Gloria with a cold smile: "Well, you fell in love with him?"

Gloria frowned, "Can you not be ironic?"

Kenny stretched out his arms and put them on the back of the sofa. The whole man leaned back and looked a little playful: "Come to sit next to me first."

"Forget it." Gloria got up to leave.

After two steps, she heard the low voice of Kenny: "You are looking for a job recently. You came to me because of the invitation?"

Gloria stopped instantly, and looked at him surprisingly, "How do you know?"

"Carl told me that the company needs fresh blood to join, so some college graduates have been selected to join the company."

Kenny said, fixing on her with a pair of black eyes. He looked her up and down, and then frowned: "Do you also receive their company's interview invitation?"

Although there was no change of his expression, Gloria read a word from his face clearly: "contempt".

She compressed her lips, and simpered, "I'm not willing to go."

After that, she left.

Kenny looked at her figure disappearing at the stairway entrance with his eyes narrowed. For a long time, he maintained this posture.

How did this ugly woman dare to challenge him?

Shi Ye who was familiar with the Kenny, obviously felt the atmosphere was not good. The young master seemed to be angry.

He was nervous and wanted to hang up the phone, but found that Carl took the first to hang up.

The next moment, a cell phone ring rang in the hall.

Kenny took a look at his cell phone and found that it was Carl.

Kenny answered the phone and said coldly, "If you want to jump from the building, go ahead. Don't inform me."

However, Carl burst out a very weird laugh like a freak: "ha ha ha ha ha...You deserve it. You open a back door with your wife, but she is not willing to enter. Are you very angry now? Hahaha... "

"I'm so happy to think that you are so angry now. I can't stop laughing..."

Kenny raised up his lips and said: "Before my wife works in Shengding media, I will not go to the company."

Carl was suddenly upset , "I'm wrong..."

The response was his call was hung up.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 36 She Is like a Bus. Who Dare Want Her?

In the Taylor villa.

Anne leaned on the sofa and played on her mobile phone. She spent money in stirring up heat of the Gloria's to the top of the topic list, and buying a large number of paid posters to scold Gloria. Even the previous netizens with different opinions began to turn their position.

She always thought that the thing she was photographed by paparazzi before must have something to do with Gloria.

Now she was so happy to see Gloria be scolded.

It didn't matter even if she was photographed by paparazzi. Their conversation content in the video can't become the proof. But Gloria admitted that she was hyping in front of the media.

That ugly woman can't win her!

Anne went to bed contentedly after she surfed the Internet for a while.

But in the middle of the night, something changed.

Her good friend called her: "Anne, someone just posted some of your videos and photos, which have been to the top of the list. What's the matter? Did you offend anyone? "

When Anne heard "videos and photos", she had an unknown premonition.

She grabbed her hair impatiently and turned on her cell phone to surf the Internet.

Every netizen was talking about her.

Photos and videos of her have been reprinted broadly on the Internet.

Although Taylor family was nothing in front of Clarke family, it was also a famous enterprise. There were many women with good family background in Anne's friends circle who were playing crazy.

On the surface, they looked like ladies. In fact, they had toy boys, took drugs and did everything.

Anne's hands trembled and she murmured, "how could this happen..."

Many netizens sent her private messages and scolded her.

"Bitch! You are shameless! "

"You dare to let your sister carry the bag for you!"

She trembled with rage and fought back.

Suddenly, she thought of Colin.

It was midnight now. Colin could not watch these videos and photos.

If they were seen by Colin, they must break up.

She put on her clothes and knocked on Loren's door: "Dad, please help me depress the trending topic..."

On the other side, Gloria held the computer in the bed and chatted with Edith through video.

When Edith was in school, she was a big sister. Now she had become a star. On the surface, she was cautious about what she said and what she did. But her nature remained the same.

She read the comments of the netizens excitedly.

"I knew Anne was not a good woman. There were so many people who helped her whitewash!"

"She's quite a lady. I didn't expect she is so dissolute!"

"I have a conspiracy theory. I think the reason why her sister married into Clarke family is that Clarke family knows that Anne is playing the field outside. I heard that her sister is not good-looking, but she is clean. Even Anne looks good but she is a bus who can be fucked by everyone. Who dare want her?"

Edith also thought that this comment was reasonable: "Gloria, I think this netizen is very reasonable. Do you think Clarke family really knew Anne's stories already?"

Gloria frowned slightly. She did not think of this before.

She smiled and said, "Anyway, this is what Anne wants. She can be with Colin without any pressure."

Edith had a little relationship with Colin. She sneered, "Although Colin is mentally retarded, he doesn't like to marry a bus."

...

Because she chatted with Edith in the middle of the night. At the next morning, Gloria got up a little later than usual.

Turning on the computer to surf the Internet, she found that the trending topic of Anne's indecent photos and hot video had been removed.

The previous topic labels were all black.

Without thinking, she knew it must be because of Loren.

Since Gloria was young, Loren hardly talked with her. But he really loved Anne.

It didn't work. Many netizens who were gawkerstalkers had already taken screenshots. This can't be pressed.

As soon as she washed and changed the clothes, she got a call from Edith.

Edith's voice showed her anger, "The trending topic of Bus has been removed. I'm going to buy one and send her back!"

Edith changed the name of Anne to Bus.

Gloria comforted him: "Don't be impulsive. Anne can't whitewash now. You have a new movie released recently. The attention will definitely increase. If you are found you buy a trending topic, it would have a bad impact on you."

Edith said reluctantly: "Well. You come out to have a meal with me. I will return to the crew tomorrow. I am going to pick you up."

"OK."

...

When Gloria passed by Kenny's study, she could not help stopping.

Yesterday she did not see Kenny and she didn't know it was true or not that "Leon" said Kenny was angry.

Suddenly, the study door was opened from inside.

Gloria stepped back instinctively and then looked up at the expressionless face of "Leon".

She was stunned and asked, "Your cousin...Is he there? "

"What?" Kenny closed the door and leaned against the door frame to look at her.

His face was a little pale, and seemed to be tired, but his dark eyes were still deep.

Gloria shook her head: "Nothing."

With that, she turned and went downstairs.

All of a sudden, there was a dull sound of a heavy object hitting the ground behind.

Gloria looked back and saw "Leon", who was standing steadily before, have fallen to the ground.

Gloria ran to him and wanted to help him up: "Leon, what's wrong?"

Although she hated him very much, she couldn't leave him alone.

Approaching him, she found that his face was white and frightening. His eyes were closed, and his long eyelashes were fanned out to cast a shadow at the bottom of his eyes. He looked obedient.

She reached for his forehead, which was very hot.

"Leon" was about one point nine meters. She can't help him at all. She ran to the stairway and shouted, "is there anyone? Hurry up! Leon fainted."

Immediately, a bodyguard came and took the Kenny to the room.

Soon a doctor came to see him.

Gloria stood by and watched them come and go. She didn't see Kenny. She thought she can't help them and wanted to leave.

Shi Ye came from outside hurriedly. Seeing Gloria want to leave, he stopped her immediately, "Madam, can you stay to take care of young master?"

This "young master" sounded strange, but she didn't think much about it.

"But I have something else to do." Gloria looked at the time. She guessed that Edith was also coming soon.

"Mom! No! Please..."

Suddenly Kenny in bed began to be delirious.

Gloria turned and saw the panic and bewilderment on his face. His jaw was tight and looked frail.

At last, she nodded in a weak moment.

There were no maids in the villa. These bodyguards were careless and could not take good care of him.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 37 I Want to Eat What You Cook.

The doctor gave Kenny an injection to reduce his fever, and his condition has been stabilized.

When Gloria got a towel to wipe Leon's sweat, the rest of the room was gone.

She felt a little strange. That day, in the restaurant, she fell into the arms of "Leon" and was seen by Shi Ye. But Shi Ye didn't say anything. Now, he even let her take care of "Leon".

"Mom..."

"Leon" began to talk again. Gloria wiped his sweat and was about to leave. But he grabbed her hand.

Gloria tried hard to break, but found that his hand like an iron tongs held her tightly, letting her completely unable to go.

She looked at him angrily: "I am not your Mom. Let me go!"

But the fainted man couldn't hear her at all. He just held her hand tightly. His eyebrows became loose and his breath became smooth.

Edith's phone call came at this time.

"Edith, do you arrive?"

"I'm at the gate of the villa. How about you?"

Gloria looked down at the "Leon" who was sleeping soundly in the bed. She tried to pull her hand back, but she was grasped tightly by him. She had no choice but to ask Shi Ye to bring in Edith.

As soon as Edith entered, she was shocked, "Do the people say that Kenny is ugly? This is so-called ugly? "

Standing behind Gloria, Shi Ye was nervous and explained. "This is Mr. Clarke's cousin, Leon."

"Cousin?" Edith gave Shi Ye a look, "Then why is he holding Gloria's hand? She is his sister-in-law. They should keep distance, shouldn't they?"

Shi Ye was choked by her question.

Hearing this, Gloria also looked at Shi Ye. This was exactly what she wanted to ask.

Shi Ye thought for a long time, and then squeezed out a few words: "As the saying goes, sister-in-law is like a mother."

Gloria simpered, "So this is why he just called me mother?"

"..." Young master, wake up quickly. I can't bear it!

Finally, Shi Ye found an excuse to go out.

"Have a sit down first, and we'll go out for dinner later." Gloria clapped the chair beside her.

After Edith sat down, she went to see "Leon".

Even Edith had seen countless men and women who were good-looking in the entertainment circle, when she saw his face, she couldn't help exclaiming, "Wow! Is Clarke family's gene so good? He is like a masterpiece. He is a real person, isn't he? "

As she said, she wanted to reach out to pinch his face.

As a result, before her hand had touched his face, the man in the bed who had closed his eyes, suddenly opened his eyes. His dark eyes showed a little confusion for a short time. But the confusion disappeared cleanly very soon, and was replaced by a coldness and fierceness.

Edith shuddered because of his eyes, took back her hand, swallowed the saliva, and said difficulty, "Waaaake up?"

When Gloria saw that Kenny's fierce eyes, she stood in front of Edith and said to him, "What are you doing? This is my friend! "

When Kenny looking at Gloria, his tight face eased a little, and the coldness in his eyes disappeared. His voice was hoarse: "Water."

Gloria raised the hand that was held by him. She said angrily, "You must let go of me first!"

Kenny looked at the hands they held together, stared at her deeply, and let go of her hand.

Gloria was about to go out when she heard someone talking outside.

"I'll go to see if he's dead."

"Young master is really ill."

The two voices were familiar but Gloria could only know that the latter one was Shi Ye.

The next moment, the door was opened.

Carl stood at the door while Shi Ye was behind him.

Carl didn't expect to see Gloria. He was stunned at first. Then he took out his glasses and put them on calmly. He said politely and gently, "Mrs. Clarke, you are also here?"

Gloria: "... Yes. "

The speed of face changing was quite fast.

"I heard that Leon was ill, so I came to see him. He..." Carl was interrupted before he finished speaking.

"Carl!"

Gloria turned around and saw Edith rolling her sleeve and going to Carl. She went to Carl and punched him on his stomach.

Carl took two steps backward when she punched him. It must be painful. However, Carl didn't be angry or fight back.

Gloria was shocked. What happened?

After a few seconds of silence in the room, Carl chuckled and said in a low voice, "Edith, you punched me so hard. Do you want to raise me if I'm hit to be disabled?"

Edith's face was cold. "I said, When I see you every time, I would hit you!"

Gloria never saw Edith like that, and she even saw hate in Edith eyes.

Edith turned to look at her. "I'll wait for you outside."

Gloria nodded.

As soon as Edith left, Carl, like nothing had happened, went to the bedside and stared at Kenny for a while before saying, "Are you really sick?"

Kenny originally said that he would go to the company today, so when Carl heard that he was ill, Carl thought it was fake.

"Stay away from me." Kenny frowned and did not hide his dislike for Carl.

He looked at Gloria in silence.

Gloria understood the meaning that he wanted to express: "Let Shi Ye take water for you."

She was a little worried about Edith, so she went out.

Kenny looked at Shi Ye coldly and said, "Go out."

"I'll get you water right away," he nodded

Gloria said calmly, "I don't want to drink."

Shi Ye: "... " Young master, was getting more and more strange.

...

As soon as Gloria went out, she took Edith downstairs and said, "Did you know Carl before?"

"Yes." Edith paused, and added: "That man owes me. Even if I kill him, he will not fight back."

It sounded that Edith and Carl had deep grudges.

Gloria did not ask again, and did not tell her about the interview invitation.

The two went out to eat together. The dishes just served on the table. Gloria received the call of "Leon".

She didn't keep his number, so she didn't know it was "Leon".

"When will you be back?" Although the voice of "Leon" sounded weak due to illness, it had a high degree of recognition, which was recognized immediately by Gloria.

"What's up?" she asked

After a little silence, he said, "I haven't eaten yet."

"If you can't eat, let the doctor give you the infusion, I have..."

She didn't finish saying when she was interrupted: "I want to eat what you cook."

His voice sounded weak which formed a sharp contrast with the arrogant tone before. It was not pleasant to hear for Gloria.

Gloria did not know how to answer for a while. She just hung up the phone directly.

When Gloria talked on the phone, Edith listened the conversation.

She shook the juice in her glass and laughed meaningfully: "That handsome cousin called you?"

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 38 It Become the Hottest Topic Again.

As for the adjective that Edith used to describe "Leon", Gloria was unconvinced: "It's just appearance."

Edith shook her head, with an enigmatic look: "I don't believe that you have not been fascinated by the appearance of Leon, even a little..."

Edith reached out and made a gesture of "a little". She looked like a rogue.

Fascinated by his look?

She would enjoy the beautiful flowers along the side, let alone "Leon" this kind of good-looking man with outstanding temperament.

"In fact, I haven't seen Kenny until now. They are all Clarke family members. If he hasn't been disfigured, he must be a very good-looking person."

Gloria really felt sorry for the husband Kenny, who had never met before.

"Haven't you seen him yet? You are fake couple, right? You have married into Clarke family for two or three months, haven't you?" Edith drank a big glass of water to press her shock.

As if thinking of something, she said: "I think that Leon is very unusual to you. When he looks at me, his eyes are cold and cruel, which frightened me to death. But he is much gentler to you."

Was Leon gentle to her?

Gloria shook her head: "I am afraid that you're a fool."

Edith discontented and wanted to argue, but her cell phone rang.

It was her agent.

Hanging up the phone, she said reluctantly, "I must go to the company to have an emergency meeting. Gosh, it's really difficult to have a peaceful meal with you."

Gloria comforted her: "Then you go first. I'll treat you when you come back from the shooting."

...

Saying goodbye to Edith, Gloria went back to the villa directly.

As soon as she entered, she saw "Leon" in the hall.

His face was still very pale. He was in home clothes, a laptop was in front of him, with a glass of water next to him. His face was serious and was reading something.

Gloria sighed in the heart. This man was really stubborn.

Last time, he dared to let her take the bullet out for him. This time, he fainted because of fever, but after waking up and taking the injection, he continued to work as usual.

It seemed that he felt someone was looking at him. Looking up, he saw into Gloria's eyes.

"You are back." His voice was still a little hoarse, but it didn't weaken his powerful aura at all.

Gloria took a look at the computer in front of him and asked him three or four meters far away, "Are you working? How do you feel? "

Except for his bad face, he didn't look like a patient.

"I am fine." He clicked the computer keyboard a few times. Suddenly he raised his head, and fixed on her: "I am a little hungry."

Thinking of the phone call he made before, Gloria said, "You..." You can let bodyguards cook.

"Leon" seemed to know what she was going to say, and directly interrupted her: "It tastes bad."

He said without reason, but Gloria understood he said that the food made by bodyguards was bad.

At that time, Shi Ye came over with the medicine and heard Kenny say, "It taste bad."

His mood could only be expressed by one word: affected.

He had never heard that the young master said that their cooking was terrible. Since he married madam, he had always been making a scene.

To be honest, apart from her especial ugly appearance, he didn't see anything special of her.

But young master didn't dislike madam, and even he liked her. Therefore, he as a subordinate, naturally respected madam.

Gloria looked at the time. It was almost two o'clock in the afternoon.

Seeing Shi Ye here, she was stunned and asked him: "Kenny is at home?"

"Yes." The answer came from "Leon".

Gloria was some surprised: "Then has he eaten?"

Kenny's hand of holding water stopped. He glanced at Shi Ye and drank water.

"The young master hasn't eaten either." Shi Ye admired his ability to cope with the situation.

Gloria was happy. "Then I'll go to the kitchen to cook and send it to him later."

With that, she went to the kitchen in high spirits.

Last time she wanted to cook for Kenny, but later it was eaten by Leon.

Her reaction made Kenny jealous of "Kenny".

At that time, Shi Ye gave the medicine to Kenny.

Kenny didn't look, turned his head and asked Shi Ye seriously: "Do you think she is really stupid? How can she always try to ingratiate a useless man instead of flattering me, a man who is normal in body and appearance? Or, she's pretending?"

At that time, Shi Ye thought in his heart that the young master was usually a cold man but, after madam married him, the young master always went to provoke her when he was free. He had some doubts about the taste of the young master.

But in fact, he only dared to say in a tender way: "Young master, you seem pay much attention to madam."

"Hum."

Kenny was so smart. Of course, he could understand the meaning of Shi Ye at once.

When he sneered, Shi Ye said hurriedly and earnestly, "Madam should not be silly. The plan she calculated Anne was quite meticulous."

"Meticulous..."

If he hadn't helped her to deal with some things secretly, the Clarke family who cared about the family's honor would make trouble for her when she did that on the Internet as the madam of Clarke family.

...

Gloria didn't believe that "Leon" said that Kenny liked spicy food, so she cooked a pot of vegetable porridge and made vegetarian dishes for health preservation.

No matter what flavor Kenny liked, it was right to make some light healthy dishes.

She cooked the meal, putting each dish in a tray at first, and then putting the rest on the table.

Shi Ye took a look at the door of the dining room, walked in, smiled and said, "Madam, give me the dishes of the young master."

Gloria handed the tray to Shi Ye, and asked: "Does he go out in the afternoon?"

"I don't know." Every day, Shi Ye lived in a lie and felt desperate. When would this day of lying end?!

As soon as Shi Ye left, "Leon" entered the dining room.

He sat at the table and looked at the light green porridge and some plain vegetables on the table. He frowned and said, "So bland?"

Gloria poured a cup of hot water to put hard in front of him. Her tone was some bad: "What? Do you want to eat spicy pot even if you are a patient? If you die, I would be blamed? "

Then she felt as if she shouldn't have said that.

She shouldn't care about him!

However, "Leon" didn't lose his temper, but picked up chopsticks and began to eat slowly.

Gloria stood by and watched him constantly eating porridge and vegetables. His appetite was so good that he didn't look like a patient at all.

Perhaps for "Leon", only life and death can affect him except illness and injury. He was indeed strong.

When he finished eating, someone would clean up the kitchen. So Gloria went straight back to the room.

Turning on the computer, she found that the hottest topic of "Anne's indecent video" which was pressed down in the morning became the trending topic again!

After she searched it several times and made sure she was not wrong, the first thing she thought about was that Edith paid for it.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 39 I Can't Admit What I Haven't Done

Gloria called Edith directly.

"You bought the hottest topic?"

"You don't want me to buy it, do you? Have you changed your mind now? " Edith was very excited.

Gloria explained hurriedly: "No. I just saw Anne's topic was hot again."

"Really?" then Edith's side rustled for a while, and Gloria guessed that she went to log in Micro-blog.

Sure enough, after a while, she heard Edith say, "I just went to have a look. She deserves it! Bitch always gets the punishment from the god."

But Gloria felt it was a little strange.

Who did it? Anne offended others?

It was possible. Anne had always looked down upon everyone. She had a bad temper, and many people were offended by her.

Gloria didn't think about it too much. After looking at the time, she guessed that Kenny should have finished his meal, so she got up to look for him.

Anyway, she should talk to Kenny about the things on the Internet.

...

The door of the study was closed. Gloria raised her hand and knocked on the door.

A man's hoarse voice came from inside, "Come in."

Gloria pushed the door in and saw the person behind the desk with his back to her at a glance.

She was a little puzzled in her heart. Kenny didn't want her to see his face, but he even went out.

In her thoughts, Kenny was an extremely self closed person who didn't go out, didn't care about things, and didn't like to talk to people.

Kenny took the lead in asking her, "What's the matter?"

Gloria looked at him curiously: "Do you know what happened on the Internet recently?"

Kenny was silent for a moment, and said coldly and seriously: "Don't mention the things which have happened. As a young madam of Clarke family, you'd better be clever a little."

Gloria thought that this tone was very similar to "Leon", maybe because they were cousins.

When she went out, she felt relieved.

Kenny was a strange person, but fortunately, he was not like some traumatized people, or her life would be hard.

She didn't know why she went downstairs to the dining room.

Not only was there no "Leon" in the dining room, but also the tableware on the dining table has been cleaned.

...

In the morning of the next day, Gloria wore a slightly formal dress and went out for the interview.

These days, because of Anne's business, a lot of time has been delayed.

She graduated from one of the top-list Schools. She did well in school and her resume was well done. She interviewed two companies and they all expressed the willingness to hire her directly.

She was a little excited. Before, because of Tina, she graduated and didn't work in her professional field. Now she finally didn't have to care about her. After she had choices, of course, she should think carefully.

She went to a restaurant for lunch and studied the company information to be interviewed in the afternoon.

She just sat down for a short time. Suddenly, a woman wearing a mask and a cap came up to her, took up the water in front of her, and poured directly above her head.

Later, someone gnashed and called her name angrily, "Gloria!"

Gloria closed eyes, reached out to wipe the water on the face, and looked at the person.

After a careful looking, she found that the woman in front was Anne!

Yes, with her current "fame", it was easy to be recognized if she didn't cover her face before going out.

"If you have something to say, just say it. Sister, what is it for?" Gloria looked at her calmly.

Anne's eyes were full of anger, she lowered her voice and said fiercely, "Gloria! The video on the Internet is played by you, right? I won't let you go!"

Gloria was a little surprised. She didn't know Anne's intuition was so good.

But she wouldn't admit it.

Gloria said in surprise, "What video?"

"You've been pretending for so many years at Taylor family! You are not stupid at all! " Anne's eyes began to turn ferocious.

Gloria smiled: "Sister know me better than my parents."

Loren and Tina still thought that she was a fool.

After all, they chose to give up her when she was young, so they would rather believe that she was a fool than admit that they were played around by their daughter who had been given up by them.

"Bitch!" Anne was going to hit Gloria.

Gloria was about to dodge, but she saw a familiar figure come.

Her eyes flashed and then she chose to bear this slap.

Colin saw Gloria being slapped. He kept pace and grabbed Anne's wrist.

When he saw that the person who slapped Gloria was Anne, he frowned severely, "Anne?"

"Colin!" A joy was in Anne's eyes, and her voice was soft: "You are finally willing to see me! Listen to me, the video and photos on the Internet are put on by this bitch! She envies me for being with you and calculated me deliberately! "

Gloria covered the face, drooping eyelids and pretending to be tender.

She admired Anne's brain. In Anne's thoughts, maybe all women were jealous of her.

Gloria bit her lips tightly with pale face, and said firmly, "...I didn't. " Yes, she was not jealous of Anne.

Anne said in a sharp voice, "You lie!"

Colin shouted at Anne, "Enough!"

They were louder and louder which attracted the attention of other guests.

Colin didn't want to lose face. He said to Anne coldly, "Go to the box first."

Finish saying, he looked at Gloria. The tone was much softer, "Gloria, you also come."

Gloria wanted to see Anne's miserable scene, so she went with them.

When they arrived at the box, Anne pointed to Gloria and said, "Colin, believe me! This woman did everything. I'm innocent. The videos and photos are synthetic!"

At this time, Anne was still telling such a fake lie.

Colin looked at her carefully, seeming to have known Anne for the first time. He said with disappointment, "You still lie to me!"

Anne was crazy. Suddenly she pulled Gloria to Colin, and said with a sharp voice: "Tell Colin that you want to hurt me. You designed it on purpose."

She thought that Gloria was pretending to be silly, but the scene that Gloria had just been slapped by her was too stupid, which gave her an illusion that Gloria was still easy to bully as before, and she was willing to do anything for her as before.

Gloria looked at Colin and turned. Her back was straight, and the voice was light and firm: "I can't admit what I haven't done."

Colin's impression of Gloria was actually very good. Seeing Anne being force like this, he pulled her behind him: "Anne, you should clean up your mess first. Don't follow me!"

Anne had been contacting him these two days. He didn't want to see her, but he didn't expect Anne would follow him.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 40 What A Circle!

After standing behind Colin, Gloria stepped back and kept the distance with him.

Anne was so angry, "Colin! What do you mean? Are you protecting this ugly woman now? "

"She's your sister." Colin frowned and was some sick of Anne.

Anne was spoiled from young. Instead of listening to Colin, she sneered, "Don't pretend to be kind now. Forcing this ugly woman to admit that she robbed my fiance is your idea!"

Colin was nervous, "That's because I believe your story!"

After listening to their conversation, Gloria felt that she underestimated Colin too much.

The more upright people were on the surface, the more sinister they were.

Fortunately, she had known the characters of Colin for a long time.

"Stop!" Gloria came out behind the Colin and looked at him and said, "Could you please leave first? I want to have a talk with my sister."

Colin believed in the words of Anne and misunderstood Gloria before. Now, as soon as the scandal of Anne came out, he naturally stood by Gloria.

In his opinion, Gloria and Anne were sisters after all. If there was any contradiction between them, it was natural to say secretly. He nodded and left.

As soon as Colin left, Anne threw herself at Gloria, screaming, "You bitch! It's all because of you. You've ruined everything! "

Gloria had expected Anne's actions. She avoided and Anne fell onto the ground directly.

Gloria squatted down, pulled Anne's hair, and her watery eyes were full of coldness, "Anne, you deserve it. You shouldn't force me so hard."

She pulled Anne's hair with great strength. Anne's face was white with pain. She tried hard to lift her head in the direction of Gloria pulling her hair, trying to alleviate some pain.

Anne screamed, "Are you crazy! How dare you do this to me! "

Gloria sneered, slapped her on the face.

Slap!

The crisp and loud slap sounded several times.

"You...I...Tina...Let go... "

Anne's cheek had swollen up. She looked at Gloria unbelievably. There was a fear in her eyes, and she even stammered.

Gloria smiled gently: "These are for you. Do you still want to threaten me with Tina? Whatever, just kill her. I don't care. "

Although she said that, she knew that she could not really be so cruel to Tina.

If she had been so cruel, she would have retaliated against them when she was forced to marry into Clarke family.

But she was soft-hearted. If they didn't use her and frame her, she really didn't want to revenge them.

"In the future, you'd better be clever, and everyone will be safe." Gloria released Anne's hair, stood up, raised his feet to cross Anne, and went out.

Anne got up from the ground. Her face was swollen, and her red eyes were full of fierceness.

Gloria! What I've been treated today, I was sure you would pay for it doubly!

...

After slapping Anne, she felt not happy in her heart.

Anne, after all, was a sister. They had the same genes in their body, but they were doomed to become enemies.

She was not in good mood and the interview in the afternoon was not very smooth.

On the way back, she received Edith's call again.

Edith said directly: "Gloria, have you received the interview invitation from Shengding media?"

"How do you know?" It was a little surprising to Gloria.

Edith and Carl knew each other, so it was Carl told her?

In theory, Carl was such a big boss. How can he handle with such a small thing.

"It doesn't matter. Such a big company sends you an interview invitation. Why don't you go? You're stupid!"

Gloria: "At the beginning, Shengding media also invited you but you didn't sign the contract with them."

Edith was silent for a moment: "I just can't stand Carl. You don't have a feud with him. Why don't you go?"

Gloria was about to say but she heard someone call Edith.

Edith said hurriedly, "Gloria, I will hang up. There is a party tonight. I have to make up and choose a dress."

Doodle——

Instead of waiting Gloria's answer, she hung up directly.

Gloria was a little upset, holding her mobile phone. She said to "Leon" before that she was not willing to work in Shengding media.

However, the slap on her face came so soon.

One of the reasons why she chose to be major in drama literature was because of Edith.

When Edith became an actress, she can write a play for Edith.

But now Edith's company and Shengding media were rival companies. Even if she wrote a good script in the future and wanted to cooperate with Edith, it was not easy.

Now Edith knew this. If she didn't go to Shengding media, Edith would blame herself.

In fact, she also wanted to go to Shengding media.

She could hide "Leon" from the thing that she was going to Shengding media!

...

At the gate of the Villa, when Gloria just got off, she saw a black car slowly driving toward the gate of villa.

When the car stopped at the gate of the villa, she found it was a luxurious Bentley with smooth and beautiful model and a low-key style.

Gloria felt this car was very good, and the owner of the car must also be a low-key calm person.

The next moment, she saw "Leon" come down from the car

When Kenny was still in the car, he saw Gloria. He approached and called out with a quite smile, "Sister-in-law."

Shi Ye got off as well. He felt nervous when he heard that.

"Well." Gloria answered hurriedly and went in.

However, she wondered why "Leon" often stayed with Shi Ye.

This problem didn't bother her for a long time. Knowing that Kenny was also at home, she went to make dinner.

After dinner, she went back to her room and started surfing the Internet.

All of a sudden, she saw a popular blog.

"What a circle! My friend gave me a banquet invitation. I went to see it when I was free. I thought it was a formal banquet, but I didn't expect that it was a group licentiousness..."

A video was below.

When she watched the video, she found Edith. It was her back. If it was not acquaintance, she couldn't be recognized at all.

She thought of Edith saying there was a party in the evening.

She quickly took out her mobile phone and called Edith, but no one answered.

Gloria was very worried and she took her bag and run out.

When she got to the place where the party was held, she managed to get in. The atmosphere in the banquet hall was really strange, and she couldn't find Edith in the whole banquet hall.

When she was extreme nervous, she felt that one hand had grabbed her arm. As she was about to look back, the other arm was also held by someone. Before she could turn back, someone grabbed her chin and poured wine into her mouth.

After drinking a glass of wine, her vision became blurred, and she was weak and supported by the two men, one on the left and one on the right, walking outwards...

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 41 Dared Not Step Forward

Gloria Taylor was still half conscious. She could feel that there were two men holding her.

They were very strong. Her struggle was in vain. She couldn't budge.

"Where are you... taking me?" she wanted to shout out for help, but she was way too weak.

Gloria Taylor felt like she was brought into a room and directly thrown into bed.

She reached out her arms to prop up the sheet, but there was barely any strength left in her.

Then, she heard a conversation.

"Why send this ugly woman?"

"She is ugly but she has a good body. She's okay if you do from behind."
This one was a woman's voice. She paused and her tone became vicious,
"You can have fun with her if you want, but don't kill her."

Gloria Taylor clenched her fists tightly hoping that she would sober up.

When she felt the pain, her sight became clearer and she saw a man and a woman standing the bed talking.

She couldn't hear what they said, but her survival instinct made her roll only to fall off the bed.

Bang!

The sound of her falling attracted the man and the woman's attention.
The man came up and put her back on the bed. He was surprised,
"Damn, this woman is so powerful. She can still move so much under the influence of the drug."

"Should we give her more drugs?"

"It's not fun if she's asleep."

"You can wake her up later."

Gloria Taylor felt her chin pain and a cold liquid slipped from her mouth down to her throat. Then, she was completely unconscious.

Kenny Clarke was dealing with some documents in his study. He was about to go downstairs to pour himself a cup of water.

Gloria Taylor's room was not so far from his study.

As soon as he came out, he subconsciously looked at Gloria Taylor's room and found that the room was half opened.

That ugly woman's usual routine was prim and proper, but why was she still awake with her room opened at this time?

Kenny Clarke strode toward the room. He pushed the door and saw the light was still on, but the bed was empty.

He frowned and raised his wrist. It was almost eleven o'clock.

He saw that her laptop was still open on the sofa.

Her laptop needed password for access, but it was nothing for Kenny Clarke.

He easily gained access to her laptop. The screen displayed a Weibo page she had read before.

After watching the video for two seconds, he turned it off. It was a variety show that rich kids play a large scale game with some celebrities. This was a common thing. Nothing new about it.

However, it was unusual for Gloria Taylor to be outside at this hour.

The bed was neat and her pajamas was on the sofa next to it. It was obvious that she was planning to take a bath and go to bed. What happened that she suddenly went out?

Kenny Clarke thought for a second. Suddenly, his pupil shrank and his complexion changed.

He opened the video again and watched it twice. He took his phone and called Carl Cook.

"Why are you calling me at this hour? Do you want to stop me from getting drunk?" Carl Cook asked.

Although Shengding was a big company and they didn't need to take partners out for meal to get things done, they occasionally did invite them over as a kind gesture.

Carl Cook was the one responsible for this matter.

Kenny Clarke listened to his nagging and asked, "That little star of your, where is she?"

He only remembered that the little star was a friend of Gloria Taylor, but he didn't remember her name.

"Who do you call little star?" Carl Cook said discontentedly, "My Edith Hall is going to be a movie queen and a big star!"

"Oh." Kenny Clarke sneered, "She has to stay in the entertainment industry for a long time to become a movie star."

Carl Cook was not happy hearing this, "What are you talking about? Are you going to bully her?"

Kenny Clarke suddenly had the urge to kick Carl Cook to Africa now. He didn't want such a stupid partner.

"Go to Zijin Club." Kenny Clarke said shortly.

After that, he hung up his phone and stormed out of the room.

Zijin Club was a famous club in Huyang city, but it had a bad reputation. The club was founded by the second bases who only had fun every day. It had many scandals before.

However, because the club was founded by the second bases, no one could uproot the club and it was not a secret for the upper-class circle.

Carl Cook knew about this club. He stood up, picked up his coat, and walked out. As he walked, he called Edith Hall. His hands were shaking.

The restaurant where Carl Cook had his dinner was not far from the club. So, when Kenny Clarke arrived, he was already there.

As soon as Carl Cook saw him coming, he immediately greeted him and asked, "What's going on?"

Kenny Clarke was calm, but his eyes were cold, "Gloria Taylor and your little star is inside."

Hearing this, Carl Cook turned and ran inside.

He was recognized as soon as he entered the club.

"Mr. Cook, have you come to have fun?"

Carl Cook grabbed his collar, "Where is the longue?"

Kenny Clarke had a club under his management, but his club was far more profound compared to Zijin Club. He had never been here, so he had no idea where the longue was.

The man was about to curry the favor with Carl Cook, but seeing him in rage, he just pointed to where the longue was. He dared not talk much.

Carl Cook let go of the man. He turned to talk to Kenny Clarke, but he couldn't find him around.

Kenny Clarke had already on his way to the longue.

The scene inside was beyond chaotic. Man and woman were so close together, feeling each other while flirting. Some of them even did 'it' right on the longue.

Kenny Clarke took a good look around and entered the longue. Women were setting their eyes on him, just like cat seeing a mouse.

A woman tried to strike up a conversation. She put her hand on his shoulder and her chest on his chest, "Handsome boy, are you having fun alone?"

However, before she could place her chest on him, Kenny Clarke pushed her away, "Get out of my way!"

"Ah!" the woman screamed as she fell to the side.

Now, other women dared not approach him.

Suddenly, he saw a man and a woman tangled in a corner.

He could only see her back. She took most of her clothes off as she sat on top of the man while shaking her waist wildly.

She looked familiar. Kenny Clarke abruptly stopped. He dared not to take a step forward.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 42 If You Talked, I Would Scratch Your Face

Carl Cook caught up from behind and saw Kenny Clarke standing still. He looked ahead at his line of sight. He was so surprised that his glasses fell off, "That, that, that... is that Glo—"

He felt a gloomy aura by his side. He paused and said, "It's impossible. I will help you take a look. It's definitely not your wife!"

Kenny Clarke didn't say anything. Carl Cook knew that he agreed.

He was actually a little nervous. He was not that familiar with Gloria Taylor, but that woman's back was way too similar with Gloria Taylor. Moreover, Kenny Clarke and Gloria Taylor knew each other very well. If Kenny Clarke reacted like that, probably she was Gloria Taylor.

Carl Cook was nervous. Judging from his friendship with Kenny Clarke, he knew that his friend was very keen on that woman.

Although Gloria Taylor was not that pretty, Kenny Clarke who was never been closed to woman, had a crush on her inner beauty.

Kenny Clarke stepped forward. He leaned slightly and stretched out his hand to look at the woman's face. He looked at her like he didn't have the gut to, so he looked away in hurry.

Was it Gloria Taylor?

He glanced at her again, then excitedly shouted, "It's not her!"

However, Kenny Clarke's eyes flashed and he strode over to see her face. After a gloomy smile, he grabbed her neck, "Where is Gloria?"

Anne Taylor didn't expect to meet Kenny Clarke's cousin here. She wanted to shrug his hand off, but he was too strong.

Kenny Clarke interrupted her good thing. The man was pissed and was about to call him out, but once Kenny Clarke glanced at him coldly, the man shut up. He looked at Carl Cook beside Kenny Clarke and prepared to leave.

As he left, he said, "Mr. Cook, if you have something to say to her, I'll take my leave."

Shengding Media was the leading company of entertainment industry. They had The Cooks as their backing. Their network was large and complicated. No one dared to provoke Carl Cook.

Anne Taylor was just about to get her peak, but she suddenly was thrown away by that man. So she was limp. Looking at Kenny Clarke who was still holding her neck, she stuttered, "I am prettier than Gloria... You're looking for her... Why aren't you looking for me?"

Kenny Clarke suddenly felt that she was filthy. He let go of her, grabbed a wine glass on the table and smashed it into pieces. He picked the broken sharp glass and raised it to her face, "I will scratch your face if you say that again."

Anne Taylor felt the sharp thing on her face. He could cut her anytime. She was scared, but she was happy.

She laughed strangely, "So what if I say that again? She is now being served to a group of men. Do you want to watch the gang bang and joined them? Have you ever done it before?"

Let alone Kenny Clarke, Carl Cook couldn't even bear to listen to it.

Kenny Clarke banged her on the wall. She didn't cried out in pain, instead, she was smiling.

It's been a while. Gloria Taylor must have been devoured by those men.

Tomorrow morning Gloria Taylor would make the headline. She was happy at the thought.

Kenny Clarke stared at her coldly. He didn't have time for her now. He had to find Gloria Taylor.

Kenny Clarke and Carl Cook went out of the longue after making sure that Gloria Taylor and Edith Hall were not there.

Shi Ye arrived with his men at this time.

"Sir, have you found the lady?" he asked.

"Search room by room. Move quickly." Kenny Clarke said.

They were in a hurry.

Shi Ye knew very well about Zijin club. It had been a long time, the madam might have been...

But, he didn't say anything and proceed according to Kenny Clarke's order.

Kenny Clarke and Carl Cook separately searched.

Zijin Club was not a small place. Kenny Clarke searched the whole first floor, but he couldn't find her anywhere.

When Carl Cook met him again, he saw him standing against the light in the corridor with his face hidden in the shadows.

He had seen this before.

He approached him with a solemn face. He patted him on the shoulder and said, "We have found them."

Kenny Clarke's eyes flashed with a slight light.

Carl Cook took him into the room.

Shi Ye's men packed the room. Inside, several naked men were crouching on the ground. The bed was a mess and atmosphere showed was still in heat.

Kenny Clarke looked at them coldly. He stepped forward slowly imposing a terrifying manner. Those men who were arrogant before dared not say a word.

Shi Ye hurriedly stepped forward and quietly said, "Sir, when we came in, we didn't see the young lady. They said that the young lady had jumped off the balcony earlier and I had sent someone down to look for her."

Kenny Clarke turned to the men on the floor. His eyes were gloomy. One of the man broke down and knelt in front of him, "We didn't touch the woman. She jumped off the balcony. It's really none of our business now. Please, leave us alone."

If they didn't touch Gloria Taylor, what about this smell in the room? Were these men touching each other?

Carl Cook looked at the blood stain on the bed sheet.

At this time, one of the men came up from downstairs, "I can't find the young lady."

The men didn't look like liars. Moreover, when their lives were at stake, they probably dared not lie, but still, it didn't omit the whole possibility.

Even if the men begged for mercy, Kenny Clarke wouldn't let go of them easily.

He walked to the window and looked down.

This was the seventh floor. If she jumped down, she would be paralyzed.

Kenny Clarke looked down and saw rows of balcony under him, "Continue to search the room under this floor." He ordered.

The Taylors hated Gloria Taylor. She grew up in a harsh environment, but she had always lived truly and seriously.

She must have a strong desire to survive. She would be fine.

Carl Cook and Shi Ye took the men to search from floor to floor.

Kenny Clarke went to the third floor.

When his men kicked the door, he went in and walked directly to the balcony.

The people inside were having fun in the bathroom. When they heard the noise, they came out and saw so many people walking inside, "Who are you? What are you doing?" the people inside asked.

Kenny Clarke ordered his men locked them into the bathroom.

The balcony was empty. There was nothing, but there was something behind the curtain next to it.

Kenny Clarke walked over and raised his hand to open the curtain.

In the corner of the curtain, there was a woman curled in into a ball and she was half-conscious.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 43 You Did Everything You Shouldn't Do To Me

Kenny Clarke's nerves who was tensed all night could finally relax.

He crouched down, stretched out his hand, and touched her head. He gently pulled back hairs covering her face. He was a bit stunned, but he said clearly, "Gloria, I finally found you."

Her hair was messy and so was her clothes. Her forehead was beaded with sweat, but fortunately she was fine.

Kenny Clarke stretched out his hand to pull her up. When she felt his hand on her back, she was frightened and refused with struggle. She said weakly, "Don't touch me..."

Kenny Clarke who was already at ease became gloomy again.

He looked at her deeply and after a few seconds, he leaned to her ears and whispered, "I'm Leon Clarke. I'll take you home."

Gloria Taylor stopped pushing and rejecting him. She tilted to him. He was there all along. Finally, their head leaned on each other.

He could feel her burning forehead.

Kenny Clarke hurriedly picked her up and strode out.

The woman in his arms roasted him like a small stove. She seemed to be a little uncomfortable. She frowned slightly as her she breathed hardly, but she was not dumb. She trusted him and leaned her head against his chest silently.

Kenny Clarke was filled with anger and rage.

One of the subordinate informed Carl Cook and Shi Ye. They saw Kenny Clarke bringing Gloria Taylor out of the room.

When Shi Ye saw Kenny Clarke's face at that time, he dared not ask anything. Carl Cook walked to them and asked, "Is she alright?"

"She's alright." Kenny Clarke said heavily. He turned to look at Shi Ye, "We're going to the hospital."

"Yes, Sir." He respectfully replied. He took his phone and made a call.

After getting inside the car, Kenny Clarke seemed to think of something and he asked Carl Cook, "Where is your little star?"

"I just called her. She's not here." Carl Cook was dissatisfied with the way Kenny Clarke call Edith Hall, but he knew now was not the time to fuss over such thing.

Kenny Clarke said nothing. He just looked up at the driver, "Hurry up."

They would exceed the speed limit, but the driver dared not disobey his order.

Fortunately, it was late at night and there were only a few cars on the road.

They went to the nearest private hospital.

The hospital was not very large and there were only a few people inside. The doctor on duty was chatting with his girlfriend to kill time.

The doctor looked up and saw Kenny Clarke with a bunch of people behind. His complexion changed as he hung up the phone.

Kenny Clarke was holding Gloria Taylor in the front. Shi Ye, Carl Cook, followed by the subordinates were right behind him. They looked like a bunch of mafia who came for trouble.

"Excuse me... do you want to see the doctor?" the doctor was pale.

"Hm." Kenny Clarke put Gloria Taylor on the sickbed. Then, he stood aside and looked at the doctor respectfully.

The doctor gulped and stood up to do the examination. He grabbed his stethoscope. He was trembling all over.

Kenny Clarke gave him a cold look, "Do you have an epilepsy?"

"No... no." the doctor hurriedly replied.

He was surrounded by a group of gangster-like men. They looked like they were ready to end him if he made any mistake. It was only natural that he was afraid.

However, it was obvious that woman was drugged illegally. The medicine had an anesthetic effect and it seemed to be a sex drug.

Although the doctor didn't know for sure what medicine this woman was under, but it was not difficult to cure it.

He gave Gloria Taylor an injection and hung the bottle. Gloria Taylor would soon be recovered.

After returning to the villa, Kenny Clarke took Gloria Taylor to his room.

She was sweating so much like she was having a fever. Kenny Clarke got up and went to the bathroom to grab a towel to wipe her face.

He pulled her thick fringe back and wipe her forehead.

Wipe after wipe and Kenny Clarke's hand froze over. It was his first tie doing this kind of thing and unexpectedly, he did quite well.

However, why did Gloria Taylor's face looked different?

Last time he saw her on the restaurant, he found that there was something wrong with her face, but she was too cautious so he didn't have the chance to find out. He didn't care much about her appearance anyway.

Now, the trouble got bigger.

After he squinted and wiped her face clean, he stepped back and slightly looked at her.

Unlike her usual face that was covered in dark spots, her face now looked radiant and fair. It was almost glowing under the light.

Her lips was naturally red and she had a small nose bridge and long, curled eyelashes. Her forehead was fair and her hairline was nice.

Each of her facial features looked good and even looked better when put together.

Kenny Clarke looked at her closely. Suddenly, he laughed in a low voice.

He was fine with pretending to be stupid, but why did she dressed up ugly? It seemed that she had a really rough life before.

When Gloria Taylor woke up, she felt her body was sore all over and her throat dry.

She turned her head left and right. She was confused. It was not her room.

She turned over and sat up. Her head was dizzy. She could hardly remember what happened last night.

At this time, the door was pushed open from the outside.

Kenny Clarke came in with a glass of water. He walked to the bed side to hand her the water, "Drink."

Gloria Taylor took the cup and drank it all.

She found that the man in front of her was wearing a pajamas. She looked at herself and found that she was also wearing a pajamas.

Her memories surged to the surface, too much even. She stuttered, "Kenny! Last night... you and me... we..."

Kenny Clarke sat down beside her. He looked at her deeply and said, "Last night, I went to the Zijin Club to save you. After coming back, you insist to sleep in my room. You also took advantage of me. All you should and shouldn't do, you did it all to me."

"???"

Gloria Taylor was in confusion. The only thing she remembered was that she jumped off a building, she grabbed the floor railings and climbed up to hide behind the curtain. After that, she couldn't remember anything.

But, she remembered that she was left with a little strength and a hope to live when she jumped off the balcony.

Since she was left with a little strength, how did she 'do' that with Kenny Clarke?

"You're lying to me! I don't remember what happened last night, but I'm pretty sure that I have no strength left to do anything to you!"

"Since you don't remember, how can you be so sure that you didn't do anything to me? The drug they gave you was a new type of sex drug and the effect was pretty good." Kenny Clarke leaned closer and closer, his tone was ambiguous, "Besides, I have always loved sister-in-law very much. If you want it, I can't refuse you..."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 44: Isn't it exciting?

Gloria saw that when Leon spoke, he looked very serious, and he didn't look like a liar, so she became nervous, too.

She really had no memory of what happened last night after she lost consciousness, while she was drugged, so it was possible if she accidentally had sex with him...

Gloria feeling her mind going blank for a moment, suddenly she thought of Kenny.

She couldn't stay in Leon's room anymore, since if Kenny found out...

She looking pale, she pulled back the quilt to get out of bed, but Kenny pushed her back into bed.

"You were very tired last night, sister-in-law, so you ought to have a good rest. If you want something to eat, I'll send the servants to cook it for you."

Kenny put his hand on her shoulder, and it did not look as though he had much strength to put his hand on her, but she could not move.

Gloria felt a sudden rush of shame at the thought that she and "Leon" might have had sex last night, she trembling with anger. "Shame on you!"

"Do you think I'm ashamed of myself for doing this to you? That... What if I did this to you?"

As he spoke, he pushed her back into bed with a slight push of his hand on her shoulder. His tall body over hers, he lowered his head, kissing her exactly on the lips.

When Gloria was suddenly kissed by him, she froze, and it also gave Kenny the opportunity to hold her.

He taking her by the wrist, kept kissing her, as he kissed her in a powerful and domineering way.

Gloria's only ever been kissed by him, while the first few times he had kissed her with less intensity, but now his clear and cold breath seemed to wrap her up, making her completely unable to resist.

At the end of the kiss, Kenny kissed her lightly on the lips, as if dissatisfied, and then Kenny straightened himself up from her.

Gloria was lying on her back, her beautiful and clear eyes seemed to be full of mist, and she looked flushed and a little breathless, she looking as weak as if she could not resist.

Kenny had calmed down, but he gasped again. He looking at her with deep eyes, said in a husky voice. "I have a more shameless way, so would you like to try it?"

Gloria was awakened by these words, as she seemed to have come to her senses completely. She looking up, saw his face slowly approaching the top of her head. She raised her hand in anger, trying to slap him hard in the face.

However, Kenny grabbed her hand quickly.

Kenny raised his lips, smiling deeply. He took her palm, put it to his lips, and kissed her soft palm gently. "I like women who look so agile, just like you, sister-in-law."

Gloria."..."

This man was too shameless!

She couldn't take her hand back, as she was under his control, she saying in a sulky tone. "I'm your sister-in-law!"

Kenny didn't seem to recognize the suppressed anger in her voice, as his smile deepened. 'My cousin has gone abroad, and he won't come back for at least ten days or half a month, so during this time, no one would bother us in the villa. Isn't it exciting?"

It's not exciting!

She had no propensity for unfaithful love with her brother-in-law!

Since Kenny saw that her face was becoming pale, he stopped teasing her. He got up, put away his smile, and asked her earnestly. "What do you want, and I'll send the servants to cook for you."

Gloria's face was cold. "I don't feel like eating anything."

All she wanted him to do was get out!

Kenny didn't respond to her cold words, but seemed to say to himself. "Then I'll have the servants cook some rice porridge as well as some dishes of light taste."

As soon as he was out, Gloria jumped out of bed and went to the bathroom.

She's trying to find out whether she and Leon had sex.

Her back was aching, but this was not unusual, while there was no discomfort in any part of her body.

On the other hand, "Leon" may not seem like a nice guy, but she somehow believed that he didn't seem like someone who took advantage of another's perilous state.

She locked the bathroom door and examined herself, and there were no red marks on her body. She jumped a few times without feeling any discomfort in any part of her body.

She knew "Leon" was deliberately deceiving her.

He was so childish, as a grown man like him would tease her like that for no reason. Was it fun to deliberately deceive her?

Gloria was relieved, and she went to the washstand to wash her face, but when she saw herself in the mirror, she was stunned.

The ugly make-up she had put on her face had been removed...

Maybe as so much happened last night, her face looked a little haggard, but since she was young, the haggard look on her face made her look delicate and touching instead of making her look bad.

Gloria had no sooner relaxed than she became nervous again.

...

Half an hour later, Kenny went upstairs, telling her to come down to dinner.

He coming into the room, found nobody in the bed.

He paused in the doorway for a moment, then turned and suddenly he saw Gloria standing behind him.

Gloria looked at him impassively. 'Why can't I open the door?'

She wanted to go back to her room, but even with desperate effort she could not open the door of the room.

"The lock is broken." Kenny's tone was so bland that she could not tell whether he was telling the truth or not.

Gloria looking at him suspiciously, didn't the lock still work when she went out last night?

Seeing that her face became calm, he guessed that she knew that they had not actually had sex.

"Eat first." When he had finished speaking, he went straight downstairs.

She really thought she had sex with Leon before, so she lost her appetite. In fact, she was already hungry.

The dining room

Gloria and Kenny sat face to face while the bodyguards served the meal.

She had always wondered why there were only bodyguards and no maids in the villa. Generally speaking, maids were better at taking care of people.

Gloria tried to ask "Leon". "Does your cousin hate women?"

Kenny paused to stir the porridge with his spoon after hearing her words. Was he so obvious that she could see him so easily?

He put down his spoon, looking up at Gloria. "Why do you ask me that?"

Gloria also put down her spoon. "He never seemed to want to see me, and there was no maid at the villa."

Kenny smiling, said nothing.

Gloria feeling as though she had forgotten something, she reached out her hand, rubbed her head, and sat up suddenly. "Is Edith all right?"

As she finished speaking, she remembered that Kenny had seen Edith, but Kenny might not know Edith, so she added. "Edith is my friend who came to the villa that day, while she and Carl know each other."

Kenny's face darkened a little at the thought of last night. "She's fine."

She was actually worried about someone else, since if he didn't go to Zi Jin Club last night, how could she escape from Zi Jin Club alone?

Gloria was still worried, so she reached for her cell phone, and then she remembered that her cell phone had fallen off just as she was about to jump from the building last night. Her phone may have been smashed to pieces.

When Kenny saw what she was doing, he reached behind him, took a box out, and pushed it right up to her.

"What is it?" Gloria asked curiously, but Kenny didn't say much. Glancing at her, he motioned for her to open the box.

Gloria opening the box, found a cell phone used exclusively by women, which was also the latest model from a famous brand.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 45

Deliberately Leading Her There

Gloria looked up at "Leon" in surprise, "You bought it? "

"How could it be? It was my cousin who bought it for you." Kenny glanced at her and began to eat food.

Gloria felt so speechless. Why did he think that she really wanted "Leon" to buy her something?

Since it was bought by Kenny, she would accept it.

Gloria found a phone card placed next to her phone, the number was what she had used earlier.

She loaded her phone card and called Edith.

Edith's tone was full of worry, "Gloria, are you alright? Are you okay? "

"I'm fine, are you back to film crew now?" Earlier, Edith had said that she would return to the film crew today.

"You've met such a big problem, I'm not going back to the film crew. I'm going out now, let's meet." Edith already started to pack up things.

Gloria also wanted to talk to Edith about last night, and immediately agreed, "Well, I'm eating food now, I'll go out later... "

"You don't need to come out, I will come to you. " Edith directly interrupted her words and hung up the phone after speaking.

Gloria put down her phone and looked up to see the man across from her who was eating food slowly.

In front of her, he always looked unusually arrogant and unrestrained, but he acted in the opposite way, with composure and caution in every way.

"Thank you... " Gloria paused for a while and continued to say, "For the thing last night. "

"Why do you thank me? " Kenny looked up at her, showing a faint smile, "Thank me for pushing you away at a critical time? "

Gloria reacted to the meaning of his words and her face instantly turned red, "Can you talk properly! "

As for what little gratitude she had left in her heart for him, it disappeared cleanly.

Kenny had already finished the congee, and while receiving the towel to wipe his hands, he said, "Your gratitude is so casual and insincere. "

Gloria thought about it for a while, and also felt that there was indeed little sincerity, "Then I'll treat you to dinner? "

"Dinner? Yeah, just go to the clubhouse I brought you to last time. " Kenny's tone was very serious.

That clubhouse...

Gloria pursed her lips, if she remembered it correctly, that club, located in Huyang City, was the top of the pyramid of entertainment clubs, as she just graduated as a rookie, not to mention that she did not have a job now, even if she had a job, according to the standards of "Leon", the rich man, to set a table there, it would cost at least half a year's salary of hers.

She suspected that "Leon" did it on purpose.

Gloria said with a straight face, "Change one, I can't afford it. "

"Leon" looked at her in surprise, "Didn't my cousin give you his secondary card? "

"Why would he give me a secondary card! " Gloria thought that "Leon" was a strange person.

The next moment, "Leon" took out another black card from behind him and threw it in front of her, "Cousin gave it to me, you take it and use it first. "

Gloria didn't go to get the black card, instead, she said with an envious face, "Kenny is really good to you. "

According to the rumors, Kenny was a brutal and paranoid man who never showed up in front of others. But now, he actually let "Leon" live in his villa and gave "Leon" his secondary card.

On the contrary, she, Gloria, and Anne were just like enemies.

Hearing her words, Kenny gave her a deep look, "As long as you are willing to make some effort, maybe he will be better to you than to me. "

He deliberately aggravated his tone with the three words "make some effort" .

Suc an arrogant and shameless man!

Gloria ignored him, stepped down to have her meal, and took the black card again.

It's so good to use Kenny's money to treat "Leon" to dinner.

She originally wanted to thank "Kenny", but because he had intentionally chosen such an expensive place, it was normal that she didn't want to show too much sincerity.

When Edith came, Gloria was still struggling with the door of the room.

It's strange that the door of that room couldn't be opened.

A bodyguard behind her came up and told her, "Young Madam, Miss Hall is here. "

Gloria had to go downstairs to meet Edith first.

As soon as she went down, Edith came to her, "It's good to see that you're okay! "

Gloria smiled at her and asked, "I'm fine, how are you? "

The video posted by that blogger last night was so hot that Edith's agent saw it and sent it to Edith to watch.

Edith had attended a business banquet last night, and her agent was afraid that there would be trouble afterwards, so she asked a few people to take a group photo and send it to Weibo, lest someone blacken her by then.

When she used her mobile phone, she found that there were many missed calls on her phone, and later answered Carl's phone, only to learn that Gloria had thought she was at the Zi Jin Club and went over to look for her.

Hearing Edith's words, Gloria came to understand that it was highly likely that someone had set up a trap to deliberately lure her over.

The only person she had offended recently was Anne.

Her affair with Anne had recently become a rumor on the Internet that were spread so widely, so Anne must have known that she would be online at any time.

Moreover, Anne also knew that Edith was a good friend of hers.

Anne's retaliation against her had really taken some effort.

Seeing that she was in deep thought, Edith asked her, "What's wrong? "

Gloria looked up at her, "It should be made by Anne, I knew before that she used to fool around a lot and was a member of a certain club, but since I haven't been paying attention to that, I didn't know it was the Zi Jin Club. "

If she had known before that the place where Anne often went to play was the Zi Jin Club, she would definitely not have fallen for it.

Although Edith was a bit of a simple, she knew a lot of things deeply, and she wouldn't go to a banquet in that kind of place.

Edith frowned and was about to say something when she heard the familiar ringing of her cell phone.

She looked down and took out her phone, only to find that it was not hers.

Gloria took out her phone and shook it, "It's mine. "

"So you're finally willing to get a new phone?" Edith's eyes were wide open. Before, when she urged Gloria to change a smart phone, she always said that she was afraid of upsetting Tina, so she never changed her phone.

Gloria's eyes lit up, obviously a little happy, as she came up to Edith's ear and whispered, "It was given to me by Kenny. "

She felt that this might be a harbinger of the gradual opening of Kenny's heart to accept her, so she was happy.

It was she who had agreed to marry Kenny in the first place, so naturally she still wanted to get along well with him.

Edith obviously had something else to ask, but Gloria pointed to the phone, "I'll answer it first. "

However, when she saw the number on the screen, her face wasn't so good.

Tina's voice was warm and gentle, "Gloria, I've booked a tea restaurant, come out and have a meal with me at noon. "

By treating Gloria so kindly, Gloria knew that this woman must have some purposes.

Gloria smiled and asked, "Only you and me? "

Tina hesitated for a while and then answered, "Well.. Yes, only you and me. In that way, we can have a peaceful lunch at ease. "

Gloria didn't believe a single word of what Tina had said!

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 46 He Was a Little Jealous of Himself

Gloria Taylor didn't respond immediately. Tina Walker explained, "Gloria, I was so busy that I didn't even have time to have a meal with you. Don't blame me, please."

If it happened before, Gloria Taylor would be happy that her mother took her out for meal.

But, her taking busy as an excuse was lame.

Tina Walker was a rich lady. There were so many servants in the family. What could she be busy about?

She remembered that once she bought two movie tickets for her and Tina Walker who already promised to go.

But, until the movie ended, Tina Walker didn't show up.

When Gloria Taylor arrived home, she found out that Anne Taylor was drunk on a club outside. Tina Walker was busy picking her up and naturally, she would cast Gloria Taylor aside. Tina Walker didn't even call her. She just kept her waiting.

Gloria Taylor said with faint smile, "Okay. Send me the address."

She hung up the phone and found out Edith Hall was looking at her scornfully.

Gloria Taylor was surprised, "What's the matter?"

Edith Hall replied grumpily, "Did your mother invite you to dinner again? Do you really want to go?"

"I'm going." She replied as she took Edith Hall to sit on the sofa, "I have a plan. Do you bring the brick that I asked you?"

"It's in the car. I'll get it for you." Edith Hall replied.

Gloria Taylor couldn't open the door. All of her things were inside. She didn't know how long it took to get the door unlocked. So, she asked Edith Hall to bring her bricks when she came. She smashed the door with that.

Edith Hall's work was on the rise during the past two years. She wanted to help Gloria Taylor smash the door, but her manager called her again.

Before leaving, she reluctantly said, "Gloria, when you smash the door, remember to record a video for me."

"..." Gloria Taylor was speechless. Did her fans know that Edith Hall was a secondary high school student?

Gloria Taylor walked to the door with brick on her hand. She raised her hand and smashed the brick hard to the door handle. She was making quite a noise.

Kenny Clarke heard the commotion. He came up and saw her smashing door. He rubbed his temple and laughed.

This woman was really unstoppable.

He walked over and clasped her wrist. He said with a deep voice, "Cousin is not at home. You can sleep in his room. Why do you have to break the door?"

Gloria Taylor also felt that it was bad to break something. She hesitated, "But, my stuffs are inside."

"When you got married, someone placed a lot of woman's supplies to his room."

In fact, it was him who put the stuff there just recently.

Gloria Taylor didn't even consider that. She directly shook her head and said frankly, "But, I dare not sleep in his room."

'Leon Clarke' would laugh on this. But it was true that she dared not to sleep in Kenny's room.

Kenny Clarke didn't expect her to say so. Wasn't she the one who always contradict him?

"So, I think I'd better smash the door. I believe that he will be okay with that. He shouldn't be stingy after all." after all, he bought her a phone. She didn't see him sue that thing he saw on the internet. She felt that he was better than she had imagined.

Kenny Clarke was helpless. He didn't say anything anymore.

She said that he was a generous man. So, what else could he say?

He had to help her smash the door.

He reached for the brick in her hand and smashed the door twice.

Gloria Taylor felt 'Leon Clarke' seem to be less annoying. She blinked and said, "Thank you."

Kenny Clarke didn't say anything. He didn't even look at her. He just turned around and left. Somehow, he looked a little ...annoyed?

He glanced at him and said, "There is nothing."

The bodyguard immediately turned around and went downstairs, but he was still puzzled.

It was so noisy that the thought the young master was fighting with the young lady. They gambled about the possibility, but it seemed that the young master wasn't fighting with the young lady.

As soon as Kenny Clarke entered the room, he received a message from Carl Cook.

It was voice note, more than 40 seconds long. Kenny Clarke played it and put the phone down on the table.

"Do I bother you if I send you voice note now? Did you have a good time last night? Did the things I sent you come in handy? If you—"

Until here, Kenny Clarke directly pressed the power button and locked the screen.

He walked toward the dressing room.

The dressing room was very large, half of which were man suit and shirts and the other half were woman's skirts and sweaters.

Gloria Taylor was probably tired of him. If she paid more attention to him, she would find that he lived in the master bedroom and she would also find that 'Leon Clarke' and 'Kenny Clarke' had never appeared on at the same time.

Maybe, it was for this reason that she felt Kenny Clarke was not a normal person.

He remembered that one time on the dinner table. When she heard the way she said his name on the phone, her eyes emerged with joy.

At that moment, he was a little jealous of himself.

Gloria Taylor closed the door and went to bed.

The familiar bed was so comfortable. After a short rest, she got up to wash her face and change her clothes.

When she was standing in front of the mirror, she hesitated for a moment. She decided not to dress up ugly. It would be troublesome. Honestly, she didn't really want to have dinner with Tina Walker.

Last night, after 'Leon Clarke' found out her true self, he didn't say much either. Kenny Clarke had never seen that side of hers before. She deliberately dressed up ugly, but it turned out that besides bringing her trouble, it was really useless.

But...

When she thought of the way 'Leon Clarke' kissed her this morning, she blushed and her heart raced.

After coming back to her senses and realized that she was actually longing for the taste of the kiss, her face went white.

'Leon Clarke' was Kenny Clarke's cousin. What was she thinking?

She changed her clothes and went out. She was still sulking.

Coincidentally, she met 'Leon Clarke' again on the stairs.

Kenny Clarke saw her sulking face and frowned, "What's wrong?"

He said while reaching for her forehead.

Gloria Taylor jumped in panic, "I'm fine. I'm okay..."

After that, she quickly ran away.

Kenny Clarke's hand was still hanging on the air. After a while, with distressed face, he took his hand back.

He walked down the stairs to see Gloria Taylor leaving with her handbag. His face darkened, but soon, he was worried that he ran after her.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 47 Men Paid the Bill

Gloria Taylor went out of the villa. After running pretty far, she stopped to catch her breath.

She had to stay away from 'Leon Clarke'. This man was dangerous.

Right after the idea came out, a car stopped beside her. She turned to look at it and just in time, Kenny Clarke was rolling down the window to look at her.

When their eyes met, Gloria Taylor was blank for a moment and quickly ran away with her fastest speed.

Kenny Clarke drove the car just as fast to follow her closely. He kept the car parallel to her. In a low voice, he said commandingly, "Get in the car."

"no." she said and she continued to walk.

Kenny Clarke understood that she was clearly drawing a line with him.

Gloria Taylor continued walking for a while and felt that the car was no longer following her. She stopped and looked back.

She saw Kenny Clarke coming toward her with a cold and aggressive face.

He had long legs. So, he caught up in no time. Without saying anything, he picked her up and shoved her back into the car.

Gloria Taylor was stunned.

She smiled angrily, "Leon! Will you stop humiliating me?"

"Who is the one making trouble?" Kenny Clarke glanced at her coldly. He continued to drive.

"You're making a scene!" Gloria Taylor snapped at him.

Kenny Clarke ignored her. He only said, "Address."

Gloria Taylor didn't reply. Kenny Clarke quickly stretched out his hand to her pocket to take her phone. He opened Tina Walker's message.

"You overheard me talking on the phone, didn't you?" Otherwise, how would he know that she was going to see Tina Walker?

Soon, they arrived at the restaurant Tina Walker had told her.

Before Gloria Taylor got off the car, she saw Tina Walker through the window of the restaurant. She looked like she had been waiting there for a long time.

Tina Walker was sitting by window. She looked at her watch from time to time and occasionally she looked outside. There was no one beside her.

Kenny Clarke looked at Tina Walker, then he looked at Gloria Taylor who was obviously reluctant to meet her, "Are you going to sit in the car and watch her like this?"

Gloria Taylor didn't say anything, she just gave him a look.

She wanted to let Tina Walker know how waiting felt like.

Kenny Clarke looked out of car window and saw a restaurant across the street. Then he started the car and drove to the parking lot of the restaurant across the street. He took Gloria Taylor off the car to the restaurant.

He took Gloria directly to the second floor and chose a table by the window. Looking out from here, they could see Tina Walker across the street.

The waiter came over with the menu and ready to take their order. Kenny Clarke gave the menu to Gloria Taylor.

She looked up at Kenny Clarke. She didn't say anything and he seemed to know what she was thinking.

"What are you looking at? Order."

Gloria Taylor was confused. How did he know she was looking at him? He was looking down his phone all along. Did he have eyes over his head?

Oh, just forget it. Anyway, they had been here. She should be more relaxed. With that, she immediately ordered her meal.

Kenny Clarke ordered two dishes.

Before the dishes were served, Gloria Taylor involuntarily looked at Tina Walker across the street.

After making a scene, 'Leon Clarke' didn't say much.

"This is the first time she asked me to have dinner with her." Soon after, she saw a car stop in front of the restaurant across the street. Then, Anne Taylor came out.

She laughed scornfully, "I know that it's impossible for her to invite me purely for the meal."

Anne Taylor directly went to the table where Tina Walker was sitting. Because of the distance, she couldn't hear what they were saying, but judging from the scene, Anne Taylor was losing her temper and Tina Walker was busy comforting her.

They argued for a while. Tina Walker bowed her head and picked up her phone. Soon, Gloria Taylor's phone rang.

"Hello?" she picked it up.

"Gloria, why haven't you come yet? Didn't you agree to have a meal together?" Tina Walker sounded pissed and impatient.

"I'm still on the car. The traffic sucks." Gloria Taylor said blandly.

Tina Walker breathed a sigh of relief, "Hurry up."

After hanging up the phone, Gloria Taylor saw Tina Walker talking to Anne Taylor. Anne Taylor left the table, but she didn't leave the restaurant.

After what happened last night, Anne Taylor couldn't wait to see how miserable Gloria was. Anne Taylor thought that Gloria Taylor was raped by those men.

If so, should she really show up and hit Anne Taylor?

This moment, the waiter served the food. Kenny Clarke's voice made her return to her senses, "Eat."

Gloria Taylor suddenly remembered the last time when he was sick, he was so confused that he started calling out his mother. She was curious, "You have been living in Kenny's house. Where are your parents?"

Right after she asked the question, 'Leon Clarke' who was stuffing food to his mouth stopped in midair. His face was complicated.

Gloria Taylor felt that she just asked the wrong question. She quickly put some dishes to his plate, "You should eat more."

Then, they finished their meal in silence.

When they were paying the bill, Gloria Taylor stepped in front of him. But, Kenny Clarke pulled her aside with one hand. After paying the bill, he turned to her and said, "It is only natural for man to pay the bill."

"But, I;m your sister-in-law, I should pay the bill." Gloria Taylor replied.

"I have already paid the bill. If you mind..." Kenny Clarke leaned closer and whispered, "You can give me a kiss and that will settle it."

"..." she thought that she better off dead.

Kenny Clarke watched her back as she left and smiled.

In the end, Gloria Taylor didn't go to the restaurant across the street to see Tina Walker. She and 'Leon Clarke' went straight home.

Tina Walker called her repeatedly but she didn't answer.

She thought that the matter was over. But, early in the morning, she received a call from Loren Taylor.

"Gloria, are you looking for a job? Why don't you come to our company to work? You don't have to look for job at other places." Loren Taylor said with great sincerity that Gloria Taylor was almost convinced.

She casually replied, "I already found a job."

Between Taylor Company and Shengding Company, she would naturally choose the latter. She didn't have to consider.

Loren Taylor was silent for a moment as if he was thinking of something, "What about I give you shares if you come here to work?"

Shares?

Gloria Taylor couldn't help sitting up straight. She thought that she heard it wrong.

Anne Taylor and her brother both held shares in the Taylor Company. They received dividend each year. Tina Walker had her shares as well, though not so much, she did have some.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 48 15% Shares

In the entire Taylor family, Gloria Taylor was the only one secluded and did not have any shares.

At that time, she hoped that Loren Taylor would give her some of his shares, even if it was only 1%, but least she could feel that she was the member of the Taylor family.

However, now when she didn't care of the share anymore, Loren Taylor was offering it to her.

She felt ridiculous.

Gloria Taylor laughed. Although Loren Taylor might have other purposes, she still asked, "How many shares does Dad intend to give me?"

Loren Taylor vaguely said, "More than your mother's. Don't worry. Dad will not mistreat you."

More than Tina Walker's? That was very few.

Since Loren Taylor came for her, why didn't she try to bargain?

"I'm the daughter-in-law of the Clarke family now. If you really want to give me the shares, you can consider 15%. If you give too little, you will be laughed at."

Although currently she didn't have any share in that company, she was very clear about the distribution of the share.

Loren Taylor had 30% of shares, Anne Taylor and her brother both had 10%, and Tina Walker had 5% respectively, which added up to 55%.

The rest belonged to other shareholders.

Loren Taylor felt that it would be dangerous to give Gloria Taylor 15% of the shares.

In the next shareholders meeting, they would elect a chairman of the board of directors. If Gloria Taylor didn't vote for him, he would most likely not become the chairman.

15% shares was not a small sum.

Loren Taylor was clear about his stake on the matter. He suppressed his anger and said, "Gloria, Dad is not stingy to you, but you're asking too much."

He was not stingy to her?

Gloria Taylor smiled and said, "Dad, you're old. Don't get angry every single time. It's not good for your health. I'm just saying it casually. It doesn't matter if you can't promise to give me the shares. I can find another job anyway. I have something to do. Bye."

What was happening with her family?

Why did Loren Taylor suddenly lure her with shares and wanted her to work at the Taylor Company? What were they planning?

On the other side, Loren Taylor was so angry that he almost dropped his phone when he hung up.

He clasped his hands behind his back and walked back and forth in his office, "She is getting tough. It's not good!"

Anne Taylor poured him a cup of tea, "Dad, don't be angry about a trivial matter. It's not worth it."

Loren Taylor was so angry that he didn't take the tea Anne Taylor handed to him. He pointed at her and said bitterly, "You! How many times have I told you not to play in those morally corrupt places? If you still want to have fun there, can you at least be careful? The Hall has agreed on the marriage before, but do you think they will still accept you with such shameful things spread out?"

The Taylor Company's financial capital was in crisis. They planned to marry Anne Taylor into Hall family, so that Hall family would invest their money on them. However, after the indecent video of Anne Taylor's leaked, they lost their hope.

Because of that, Loren Taylor was turning to Gloria Taylor.

Gloria Taylor had been married into the Clarke family for two or three months now and she was doing well. He thought that she was getting along well with Kenny Clarke. Now, he tried to lure Gloria Taylor so that he could persuade Kenny Clarke to invest his company's money on them.

"Dad, it was Gloria's doing. She wanted to ruin me." Anne Taylor said, "But, I've already report it back."

Loren Taylor smelt revenge. His face changed as he asked, "What have you done?"

"She ruined me. I wanted the same to happen to her. I tried to ruin her, so I led her to Zijin Club—" she said happily, but before she could finish, Loren Taylor slapped her on the face.

Slap!

It was a loud and hard slap.

Anne Taylor was badly beaten that her head swung to the side. After a while, she looked at Loren Taylor in disbelief, "Dad! Why did you hit me?"

Since childhood, Loren Taylor was rarely mad at her and he had never hit her before.

Loren Taylor was very angry just now. If Taylor Company failed to survive this time, he would have to face bankruptcy or that someone would bought his company. To his surprise, Anne Taylor played her tricks against Gloria Taylor.

Loren Taylor loved his late ex-wife very much. He was also extremely fond of the children she left, especially Anne Taylor because she looked a lot like his ex-wife.

Loren Taylor looked at his hand and sighed deeply, "Anne, Gloria is the daughter-in-law of the Clarke family now. Before you beat a dog, you should pay attention to the owner. You should not rush to deal with her for the time being. She had been married to the Clarke and look, she survives. Perhaps, she will win Kenny Clarke's favor in the future."

Anne Taylor retorted unwillingly, "So what if she wins his favor? He is still a trash!"

Anne Taylor completely disagreed with Loren Taylor right now. Even if Gloria Taylor married to the Clarke, she was still nothing but an unloved child and an ugly trash.

However, she knew that Loren Taylor was still angry. She didn't bring up this matter again.

"Even though Kenny Clarke is a trash, he is the young master of the Clarke family. He is the rightful heir of the Clarke and now, we are short in capital fund. If Gloria can help us persuade Kenny Clarke for a sum of money, our problem will be solved."

Anne Taylor was convinced. She thought that he was reasonable, "Let her ask Kenny Clarke for the money."

Loren Taylor remembered his phone call just now. His face sank. He snorted coldly and said, "I think she's getting tough now. How dare she hang up my call and ask for 15% shares from me!"

"Give it to her then!" Anne Taylor was dismissive, "Don't you want her to work for the company? When the time comes, we can find a chance to let her give back the shares."

Loren Taylor listened to her words. He was lost in thought and finally smiled, "My baby daughter is so smart! Did I hurt you just now? I'm sorry."

"Dad, I'm fine."

No matter how Gloria Taylor thought, she couldn't figure out Loren Taylor's purpose was to want her to ask for investment from Kenny.

Today, she had scheduled interview at the Shengding Company.

Before leaving, she received a phone call from Loren Taylor again.

"Gloria, I have considered your request. I promise to give you 15% shares in the Taylor Company. When will you come to the company?"

Gloria Taylor was puzzled. He really promised to give her the shares.

Loren Taylor wanted her to work for the company, but it was even stranger that he really promised to give her the shares.

Did she want it? Was she going to take it?

15% shares were more than Anne Taylor's. Could she agree on this?

There must be something fishy about it, but she was not afraid.

"I will start to work after you transfer the shares to me."

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 49 My Wife Cut It For Me

Loren Taylor was afraid that she might change her mind, so he immediately said, "Any time is fine. I'm free today."

"I'm not free today. Tomorrow will do." Gloria Taylor said lightly.

When Gloria Taylor was still living with the Taylors, she was way too submissive and everyone in the family including Loren Taylor was used to her that way.

Hearing her casual tone, Loren Taylor became impatient, "You're not working now. What are you busy with?"

"Do you think I'm not taking you seriously? I really have something to do now, Dad. I have to go. I'll send you the address later."

She hung up the phone, took a deep breath, and typed a message for Loren Taylor.

Loren Taylor received the message and saw the address. He frowned.

In his memory, Gloria Taylor was a green and foolish girl. He didn't expect that she would choose Jin Ding.

Jin Ding's prices gave him a headache.

Jin Ding was the place where 'Leon Clarke' took Gloria Taylor for dinner last time. It was an expensive place and Gloria Taylor chose it.

There was another reason. Jin Ding was a formal and high-end club, Loren Taylor dared not make a fuss there.

The only things she needed the most right now was a lawyer.

But, she didn't have one and she couldn't afford it.

Recently, Carl Cook would call Kenny Clarke every night to complain about himself being bullied by seniors in the company.

There were many things happened in the company recently. So, Kenny Clarke decided to go to the company.

After two meetings, he deployed the projects and went back.

He arrived at the villa during lunchtime. As soon as he entered the villa, he smelled an appetizing aroma from the kitchen.

Was she cooking?

Kenny Clarke gave his coat to his assistant and walked toward the kitchen.

In the kitchen, Gloria Taylor was wearing an apron. She tiptoed trying to press the button of the cooker hood.

But, the button was too high that she couldn't reach it. Kenny Clarke walked over and helped her press the button.

Gloria Taylor looked back. She was beautiful even without her makeup. Her previous thick bang now looked a lot thinner. She was holding spatula in her right hand and an apron on her body. Her bright and fair face was soft and gentle.

"You're back! The lunch will be ready soon." Gloria Taylor had a favor for him, so, she behaved as nice as possible.

Kenny Clark had many people who wanted to please him, but he was only interested when it was Gloria Taylor.

He gave a faint reply, "Hm."

Then, with his hands in his pockets, he stood by watching her cook. His face was flat, but his eyes were always on her.

Noise on the frying pan drowned out their breathing sound.

After Gloria Taylor finished cooking her dish, she turned back to see that 'Leon Clarke' was still standing there.

"What are you doing standing there?"

Did he like the oily smoke?

Kenny Clarke turned and walked out, 'Nothing.'

He just thought that she was pleasing to the eye, so he looked at her for a while.

At the dining table, after they finished their meal, she looked at him with a smile, "You and Kenny have private lawyers, right?"

"Hm." Kenny Clarke wiped his mouth with a paper towel and asked, "Why do you ask that? Are you doing something at the court?"

"No." she shook her head, "Do you have a kind of lawyer specialize in business contract? Can you lend me a hand?"

Kenny Clarke looked at her closely showing no expression, but Gloria Taylor traced a slight dissatisfaction.

What was he dissatisfied with?

Kenny Clarke thought that she was treating him nicely for an extraordinary request, but it turned out that she was just borrowing a lawyer.

He was disappointed.

"Yes, there is, but..." Kenny Clarke paused while looking at her.

Gloria Taylor checked herself. Was there something wrong with her clothes? Or did he want to make a shameless condition?

Gloria Taylor immediately crossed her arm against her chest.

When Kenny Clarke saw her reaction, he smiled and covered his mouth pretending to cough.

After he put his hand down, his face was flat again, "You will have to cook later on."

"Later on?" she asked, "How long do I have to cook?"

"Well, it depends on my mood." he said while tilting his head to the side with playful eyes.

"Okay. Deal!" Gloria Taylor replied.

'Leon Clarke' had no obligation to help her. His condition was also within her tolerance. In fact, it was not too much.

Kenny Clarke smiled and said in a commanding tone, "Now, cut the fruit."

"..." Gloria Taylor was stunned. Didn't he say cooking? Why did he command her around like she was a maid?

Although she was confused, she cut the fruit anyway.

After Gloria Taylor cut the fruit for him and served it on a plate, he left.

He just took a picture of it and sent it to Carl Cook.

Carl Cook replied just a few seconds after, "It's just fruits! What's the big deal?"

Kenny Clarke replied, "My wife cut it for me."

Carl Cook replied him with an unconcerned emoji.

When he felt Carl Cook's jealousy, Kenny Clarke was so satisfied and he began to eat the fruit.

In the afternoon, Gloria Taylor took the lawyer she borrowed from 'Leon Clarke' to Jin Ding.

She went out barefaced wearing a white padded jacket and a long denim pants. She also carried a bag on her back. She dressed very commonly.

Jin Ding was an exclusive place that was not accessible to commoners, but Loren Taylor had a large network. He could get in easily. She planned to let Loren Taylor come out to pick her up when she arrived.

However, when she brought her lawyer to the entrance of Jin Ding, the doorman didn't stop her. He even smiled and greeted her enthusiastically, "Welcome."

The style and hospitality of an exclusive club was indeed different.

Gloria Taylor went straight to Loren Taylor's table.

Loren Taylor also brought a lawyer, but he didn't expect that Gloria Taylor would bring one too.

After all, in his opinion, Gloria Taylor was slow in reacting and foolish compared to average people.

Gloria Taylor sat down opposite him, "Dad."

Loren Taylor saw her at the first glance and found that she was different.

She was somehow... prettier.

Although he was puzzled by her appearance, there were outsiders present, so he couldn't ask whether she had a plastic surgery or not.

"Hm." Loren Taylor answered as he tried to focus.

He glanced at the lawyer behind her and quietly gave his lawyer a look, indicating him to trim the sails.

Even if Gloria Taylor brought a lawyer, he bet that she couldn't even find the loopholes in the contract. She had no money. It was impossible for her to afford a good lawyer.

My Love, Enlighten me - Chapter 50 His Time Was More Valuable Than Gold

However, after they viewed the contract, Loren Taylor realized that he was wrong.

The lawyer Gloria Taylor brought was not a crappy one. Instead, the lawyer was very professional and cautious.

The lawyer 'Leon Clarke' lent her called Fu Tingxi. He looked very poised and cautious.

Fu Tingxi could feel that Loren Taylor silently despise him.

When Loren Taylor's lawyer came up with the contract, Fu Tingxi noticed the loopholes.

Loren Taylor was not yet aware, but his lawyer already turned pale. He knew that the lawyer she brought was very good.

He hurriedly explained to Gloria Taylor, "Gloria, our company has been busy recently. It's normal for the contract to have loopholes."

Fu Tingxi sneered, "Is it? These simple loopholes can easily be noticed even by a fresh graduate intern, let alone your legal adviser who has been working for more than three years."

Gloria Taylor was a bit surprised. How did he know that the lawyer brought by Loren Taylor had more than three years of experience?

How was it possible that lawyers' eyes were so attentive?

Gloria Taylor hid her surprise and said softly, "Dad, you should change your lawyer."

Loren Taylor turned his head and scolded his lawyer, "What did you do? You couldn't even write a good contract. You're so useless."

The lawyer quickly bowed his head and said, "I'm sorry, Chairman. I made a mistake. I may have got the wrong contract."

Then, he took a new contract from his briefcase.

Loren Taylor had been fighting in the market for so many years. He was quite skillful and well-prepared, so he had two contracts ready for this time.

One was the flawed contract and the other one was the normal contract.

Fu Tingxi took the contract and read it carefully. He nodded to Gloria Taylor, "No problem."

After done dealing with the contract, Gloria Taylor ordered two packages of afternoon tea set for takeaway.

Of course, Loren Taylor paid for it.

Before they left Jin Ding, she gave one of the afternoon tea set for her lawyer, "Lawyer Fu, thank you for today."

"No need to be so polite, Mrs. Clarke."

Fu Tingxi usually didn't accept such small cases, but he was employed by Kenny Clarke after all. He had a good relationship with him and Gloria Taylor's case was not a difficult one, so he couldn't just shrug it off.

There was another reason though. He wanted to see how ugly the legendary Mrs. Clarke was.

Although she was dressed in a plain clothes, but from the perspective of a grown up man, she was not ugly.

There was a saying that suited her well, beauty lied in the bone, not in the skin.

When she laughed, her eyes were even brighter.

"Thank you so much for helping me. You must be very busy. This afternoon tea set is a little gift for you."

Judging from his sharp style of work, he must be a very good lawyer. The more competent he was, the busier he should be.

Fu Tingxi saw her sincere face and received the gift.

He could take it back and give it to Carl Cook. That man was like a pig, he ate everything.

Gloria Taylor and her lawyer left. Loren Taylor and his lawyer followed.

Loren Taylor was really curious. Where did she find a powerful lawyer like that? He came forward and said, "Sir, can you please stay?"

Fu Tingxi who was about to leave looked at Loren Taylor and asked, "What's the matter, Mr. Taylor?"

Loren Taylor set the table, gently coughed, and asked, "If you don't mind, shall we have a cup of coffee?"

Fu Tingxi smiled, "Sorry, Sir. I don't have time for that."

The old man was not as smart as his daughter. He didn't know that Fu Tingxi's time was more valuable than gold. He couldn't just sit down for a coffee. He was too busy for that.

The lawyer behind Loren Taylor asked politely, "What's your name, Sir?"

"I'm surnamed Fu." He replied shortly and left.

Loren Taylor's lawyer murmured, "Fu, Fu..."

Suddenly, he clasped his hand, "In a big city like Shanghai and he knows well-known lawyers in the industry. He is sharp and fierce. He must be Fu Tingxi!"

Fu Tingxi. Loren Taylor had heard of him.

A few years ago, there was a commercial case that caused a sensation in Shanghai. No lawyer dared to take the case. Finally, Fu Tingxi took it over. It took several years to win the case and he came out glorious.

Gloria Taylor alone would not be able to hire such a powerful lawyer.

Kenny Clarke must have helped her.

At the thought, Loren Taylor had a silent moment for 15% shares that he just gave away.

Kenny Clarke treated Gloria Taylor well. He had a small hope that he could ask Gloria Taylor to persuade Kenny Clarke to invest his money on them.

Fu Tingxi went to Sheng Ding Media with his afternoon tea.

He went directly to the president's office to find Carl Cook.

Carl Cook had been working overtime in the company recently and he was exhausted. He was jealous when he saw others could go out and enjoy their free time.

He knew that even Fu Tingxi had gone out on a trip before. As soon as he see Fu Tingxi coming in, he quickly asked, "Where have you been? Be honest with me or else I will deduct your salary!"

"Do you think you can do that?" Fu Tingxi shrugged him off.

Carl Cook pushed his glasses up to his nose bridge and pretended to lie dead on the desk.

Fu Tingxi was a top tier lawyer. Most people couldn't afford to hire him. Carl Cook could threat him with his salary, but the one who could actually do that was Kenny Clarke.

Fu Tingxi put the afternoon tea set on the table and said, "Eat."

Carl Cook resurrected and frowned, "Did you buy it in Jin Ding?"

Jin Ding was originally a hotel. Kenny Clarke took it over and spent a huge sum of money turning the place into a luxurious club.

Recently, Kenny Clarke hadn't been going to his office. He would spend his time eating in Jin Ding every day. He was so bored that he felt like puking. Most of the time, he had no appetite to eat.

"This is from Mrs. Clarke." Fu Tingxi said.

"Gloria?" Carl Cook was surprised, "She bought you an afternoon tea set out of nothing? Oh my god. Is she having an affair with you? You and Kenny are brothers for years. Is she turning you and Kenny against each other? This is too much! This is vicious!"

Fu Tingxi smiled, "You should enter the entertainment industry to make a movie. Kenny will make you so popular."

Carl Cook was joking. He knew who Gloria Taylor was and intuitively felt that she was not that kind of person.

"You have met Gloria, haven't you? Now, you know how she looks like, but Kenny seems to fall in love with her. He is so attentive to her." Carl Cook had no prejudice against Gloria Taylor. He simply felt that Kenny Clarke had a strange taste.

Fu Tingxi thought for a moment and gave a pertinent comment, "She's beautiful."

"???" Carl Cook was at loss for words.

What did Kenny Clarke and Fu Tingxi do that their opinion became like this?
