

“Free transfer? That’s impossible! Cai Guofu would never have made such an idiotic move!”

“Yeah! We’re talking about tens of billions worth of assets. Why would he give it away for free!”

“This is untrue! Definitely untrue!”

At that moment, waves of suspicion fluctuated within the hall. Everyone was in disbelief, from Master Bai Hai and the others to Wu Xuepeng. Yet, they were not the only ones, as Bai Yi was the most baffled of them all.

Bai Yi was utterly confused; her mind had a hard time registering as it seemed too good to be true. “A free transfer? How is that possible!” Bai Yi knew full well of Cai Guofu’s shady intent. Given that he then received a hard slap from her, hatred ran deep between them. With someone like him, the fact that he did not enact revenge on her was a decent enough outcome. It was unthinkable to have him offer up all of his assets to her as if they were in a fairy tale.

“H-Hang on!” All of a sudden, Bai Yi seemed to have recalled something. Her eyes turned to look at Lin Fan. She remembered Lin Fan bringing some of Yunhai City’s prominent figures with him to face off Cai Guofu in the room. During that period of time, even the Cai brothers’ perilous howls could be heard from within.

“Could this be Lin Fan’s doing? He spoke of giving me a surprise; is this what he meant by surprise?” Bai Yi covered her mouth, her gaze toward Lin Fan turning to one full of amazement. She did not understand how it happened, but she was increasingly aware that her husband had changed. He was no longer a useless couch potato, but instead turned into an unfathomable man, as dreadful as the gods. Bai Yi doubted if there was anything at all in the world that Lin Fan could not achieve.

“Everyone shall stop questioning!” Zheng Tian turned to Wu Xuepeng and the others with a cold expression. “Regarding the free transfer of all assets under Mr. Cai’s name, contracts were signed under the witness of an attorney! Other than that, Elder Fei, Elder Qi and Mr. Jin Gang from Yunhai City can all testify for it!”

What?! Upon hearing this, the audience was appalled. Elder Fei, Elder Qi and Jin Gang were all top notch magnates within Yunhai City. With them as witnesses, it proved that none of that could be false.

As if struck by lightning, Wu Xuepeng dazed off and fell onto the ground. He figured that everything was over, for he had even harassed his new employer. That was a blatantly suicide move. Wu Xuepeng’s face was as pale as paper as he dwelled on the subject, nearly fainting on the spot.

However, Lin Fan did not even spare this man a glance. “That reminds me of something, my dear uncle and cousin!” He smiled at Bai Hai and Bai Yifan almost in a playful manner. “I owe you my gratitude for this trip to Yunhai!”

Bai Hai, Bai Yifan and members of the Bai Family froze as Lin Fan mentioned. Gratitude? Had they misheard it? They were intent on stopping him and Bai Yi from purchasing the Blue Ocean Building, and had even paid a hefty amount to Cai Guofu for him to break his legs. They were lef t completely puzzled when he said he wanted to express his gratitude for them.

However, seeing their confused looks, Lin Fan fumbled around in his pockets, took out two bank checks and waved at Bai Hai and Bai Yifan. "Uncle! Cousin! You should be familiar with these?" Upon laying their eyes on the checks, both Master Bai Hai and Bai Yifan felt a smothering sensation in their chest, suffocating to the extent of vomiting blood.

Written checks of one hundred and fifty million! It was the money they paid Cai Guofu. "Lin Fan, t-this money belongs to the Bai Family! Y-You better return it to us now!" Bai Hai stared at Lin Fan intently while gritting his teeth; Bai Yifan on the other hand rushed forward trying to snatch the checks away.

Lin Fan saw his attempts as child's play to be ridiculed and pitied upon. He turned and swiftly dodged Bai Yifan. "What happened? Are you all robbers now? If that's the case, I'll be calling the police, since both checks were gifted to me by Cai Guofu himself! Elder Fei and Elder Qi will be able to testify to it!"

Upon hearing Lin Fan's declaration, the faces of the members of Bai Family frowned and their expressions turned sour. They knew with certainty that as long as Lin Fan brought up the names of Elder Fei and Elder Qi, the Bai Family could only suck it up even if they were wronged.

"Meanwhile, I would like to declare that starting today, all connections between Blue Ocean Building and the Bai Family will be severed!" Lin Fan spoke with a drawn-out but direct tone. “We will have nothing to do with each other anymore!”

All of the members of Bai Family nearly fainted from his words. A hundred and fifty million, all for naught! The collaborations that were discussed were swiftly ended and canceled. It was definitely a huge blow to the Bai Family Group. This trip to Yunhai had apparently been a success for Lin Fan while the Bai Family suffered the losses.

Upon realizing that he was being led on by Lin Fan, Master Bai Hai was surging with rage, and there was a sudden metallic taste in his mouth—

“Urgh—” A mouthful of blood gushed out from between his lips; it was his anger that led to this sudden discharge. The members of the Bai Family were scared silly, prompting them to check on Bai Hai immediately, yet Lin Fan was amused.

He watched Master Bai Hai with a smug expression, drew a smile and chuckled. “Uncle, you are awesome! Women bleed from their private regions, while you can do the same with your mouth! This is such a brilliant display. I’ve never seen anything like it!”

Lin Fan’s words were drenched with mock and ridicule which further aggravated Master Bai Hai’s anger, causing more blood to gush out from his mouth.

The sight of it left everybody speechless. They could hardly imagine how low Lin Fan would stoop, first swindling a hundred and fifty million from the Bai family, then provoking Bai Hai to the point of vomiting blood. This guy was the embodiment of the Devil. Yet, that was not all!

Lin Fan turned to stare at Wu Xuepeng. A mere gaze from him made Wu Xuepeng go numb, making him feel as though he was being watched by a hungry wolf and it spread a dreadful chill across his entire being. “You’re fired!”

Wu Xuepeng’s face paled upon hearing him. Is this it? Is this the end? As he realized he was about to lose the leading position he held and the considerable salary it entailed, resentment began permeating through Wu Xuepeng’s heart.

He saw red and scolded while staring at Lin Fan. “Brat, you’d better take back your orders! Do not fire me, and we will call it even!” He proceeded to point at his broken arm. “Or else, I will be filing a police report in prosecution of your maiming of my person!”

Call the police?

When those from the Bai Family, who were previously hopping mad, heard Wu Xuepeng's declaration, their eyes lit up.

It was true that Lin Fan was very vicious considering he broke Wu Xuepeng's arm. Hence, they could call the police and have him arrested for intentional injury.

When they thought of this, Master Bai Hai and the others were ecstatic, thereupon they said to Wu Xuepeng, "General Manager Wu, that's right, call the police at once. This guy has committed intentional injury, so when the police arrive, they'll arrest him immediately!"

At this moment, those from the Bai Family saw a ray of hope again, and they all urged Wu Xuepeng to call the police.

That was not all.

"General Manager Wu, since he has fired you, you don't have to stay here. As long as you call the police and have this scoundrel arrested, the doors of Bai Family Group will always be open to you; we will welcome you with open arms anytime!"

Wu Xuepeng's eyes lit up at Master Bai Hai's proclamation, and his face contorted with malevolence. "Haha... sure!"

Then, he stared right at Lin Fan and chuckled maliciously. "Kid, did you hear that? I'm going to call the police now. Plus, I'll never agree to an out-of-court settlement, so get ready to languish in prison! Haha..."

Other than Wu Xuepeng, Bai Hai and the others, who were standing at the side, were also incredibly excited and mocked Lin Fan continuously.

Meanwhile, Bai Yi's beautiful face fell and she paled.

That's right, Lin Fan has indeed committed intentional injury, and once he's arrested...When Bai Yi thought of this, her face turned ashen, and she tugged at Lin Fan's sleeve, wanting to ask him to settle this without involving the police.

However, Lin Fan just smirked and taunted Wu Xuepeng, "Go ahead. Call the police now. I'm waiting!"

What?

His words had Bai Yi and everyone else dumbfounded. They never thought that he would be so calm to the extent that he would ask Wu Xuepeng to call the police as if he couldn't wait for him to do so.

This...

Everyone stared at him as though he were a nutcase, finding him incredulous.

"Sure! Kid, you're audacious, I'd give you that! I hope you can be as unyielding as you are now when you're arrested and put in prison later!" Wu Xuepeng smiled evilly and took out his cell phone at once before keying in the relevant numbers and pressing the call button.

Very soon, his call was answered.

Wu Xuepeng quickly retold the incident of how Lin Fan injured him and all his various misdeeds while playing it up.

However, the police officer who was on the other end of the phone went silent for a moment when he heard the name 'Lin Fan', and there were even sounds of heavy breathing coming through.

Hmm?

Wu Xuepeng momentarily froze. From the sound of it, the officer on the other end seemed to have been struck with terror.

Impossible! Why would the police be terrified by Lin Fan's name?

He promptly shook his head to dispel this ridiculous thought from his mind.

"Alright, sir. Please wait for a while. We'll dispatch some officers at once!" After the officer on the other end had finished speaking courteously, he hung up the phone.

At this time, Wu Xuepeng, Master Bai Hai and the others looked at Lin Fan even more scornfully.

"Haha... Lin Fan, since you're so arrogant, we shall see how arrogant you can be at the police station later!"

"Get ready to go to prison! Haha, I'm just afraid that you'll be beaten up in prison!"

"Evil never goes unpunished. It isn't that easy to take Bai Family's money!"

The crowd's taunts rang out successively, but Lin Fan was not at all bothered by any of that.

Rather, he took one business transfer agreement after another from Zheng Tian and the others and had Bai Yi sign them successively until she had signed all the documents.

Woo-woo...

Woo-woo...

The sound of sirens whopping rang out, and everyone saw a police car come to a stop right at the entrance of Blue Ocean Building.

Swoosh!

When the car door was opened, a middle-aged man dressed in a police uniform got out with a few burly policemen.

However, everyone was shocked when they saw the middle-aged officer in the lead because he was no ordinary police officer, but the Police Commissioner of Jiang City—Niu Yunkui.

"Oh my God, Commissioner Niu is personally leading a team. Looks like Lin Fan is in deep trouble!"

"Hmph! That's for sure. Did you think that Wu Xuepeng had no connections to speak of after being that you'll be beaten up in prison!"

"Oh my God, Commissioner Niu is personally leading a team. Looks like Lin Fan is in deep trouble!"

"Hmph! That's for sure. Did you think that Wu Xuepeng had no connections to speak of after being the general manager of Blue Ocean Building for so many years?"

"Just wait and watch the show! This kid is going to get what he deserves!"

Those from the Bai Family scoffed at him, looking smug.

It wasn't only them, for when Wu Xuepeng saw Niu Yunkui, exhilaration bloomed on his face as well. He knew him and had even had a few meals with him, so they were considered acquaintances.

Niu Yunkui leading a team was clearly an act of support toward him, so when Wu Xuepeng thought of this, he hastily greeted him, "Commissioner Niu, thank you so much! I never thought that you'd come in person. I'll certainly repay this debt of friendship next time by treating you to a drink!" His face shone with elation.

However, he didn't see the look of contempt in Niu Yunkui's eyes.

"So, what happened?" Niu Yunkui asked placidly.

When Wu Xuepeng heard that, he repeated everything that he had told the police officer on the phone in great detail, not forgetting to play it up again.

When Niu Yunkui had heard everything, he looked sharply at Wu Xuepeng's arm, his gaze roguish. "Is this the arm he broke?"

"Yes! Commissioner Niu, you must avenge me!" Wu Xuepeng urged, feigning an expression of utter agony and looking extremely pitiful.

Upon seeing this, Niu Yunkui nodded. "Don't worry!" Then, he grabbed Wu Xuepeng's other arm that was perfectly fine and asked curiously, "Is this arm fine?"

Hmm?

Wu Xuepeng and those from the Bai Family were momentarily stunned as they didn't understand why Niu Yunkui wasn't making an arrest but asking about Wu Xuepeng's other arm instead.

"Commissioner Niu! This arm is fine. Now, you should—" Wu Xuepeng wanted to urge Niu Yunkui again, but before he could finish talking...

Snap!

The sound of bones snapping suddenly rang out, and under the crowd's stunned gaze, Wu Xuepeng's other arm, which had been perfectly fine, was now broken.

"Ahh!" Wu Xuepeng screamed, and the pain was so great that his entire body trembled violently. Both his arms were now hanging uselessly at his side, completely twisted.

It hurts! Beads of sweat dripped steadily from his forehead; he was shocked and stunned. "My arm is broken! N-Niu Yunkui, what is the meaning of this? How dare you break my arm?"

Everyone was dumbstruck. At this moment, not only was Wu Xuepeng shell-shock, but even those from the Bai Family beside him, including Bai Yi, couldn't believe what they had just seen.

Didn't Niu Yunkui come to arrest Lin Fan? Why did he also break Wu Xuepeng's other arm as Lin Fan did? This... is unbelievable.

At that thought, everyone was thunderstruck.

However, when Niu Yunkui heard that, he snorted. "Wu Xuepeng, you criminal, how dare you resist arrest? During your tenure as the general manager of Blue Ocean Building, you've raped a total of three ladies, including one underage girl! Other than that, you embezzled company funds totaling 5 million! You're now under arrest!"

“You’re now under arrest!”

When Niu Yunkui’s words rang out, everyone in the foyer was in an uproar, all of them wearing expressions of utter disbelief.

How could this be?

It was Wu Xuepeng who called the police to arrest Lin Fan, but now that the police had arrived, not only did they break his other arm, but they were also arresting him who had made the report in the first place, and charging him with a multitude of crimes.

This went beyond the understanding of everyone here.

“No! C-Commissioner Niu, you must’ve made a mistake! I called the police because I was intentionally injured. You... you all...”

Wu Xuepeng was aghast because he had indeed committed all those crimes Niu Yunkui had listed—rape and embezzlement. Each of them could have him sentenced to more than ten years in prison.

However, he just couldn’t understand why the police didn’t arrest him all this time but chose this precise time when he was reporting Lin Fan to arrest him. This was truly baffling.

Could it be... He suddenly thought of a possibility and shifted his gaze to Lin Fan, staring hard at him. Because of him?

A terrifying thought flashed across his mind—perhaps it was because it was Lin Fan whom he reported and wished to have arrested that the police investigated his crimes and came to arrest him.

Boom!

When this thought came to him, a shiver coursed through him. He couldn't even begin to imagine who Lin Fan was to be this protected by the police.

"Arrest him!" At this time, Niu Yunkui snorted and waved his hand.

At once, the few policemen at the side swiftly came forward and pinned Wu Xuepeng to the ground.

"No! M-Mr. Lin, it's my fault! Please spare me! I truly regret it now. Please have mercy on me and forgive me!" Wu Xuepeng, who was pinned to the ground, abruptly cried out in an earth-shattering voice.

Upon hearing his words, Master Bai Hai and the others couldn't believe their ears.

What's going on? Why isn't Wu Xuepeng denying his crimes but begging Lin Fan instead? Could it be that all of this is Lin Fan's doing? But that's impossible!

It wasn't only Master Bai Hai, but even Bai Yi looked as though she'd seen a ghost. The look in her eyes when she gazed at her husband was filled with incredulity.

However, Lin Fan's expression never changed, and he looked as though all this had nothing to do with him.

Under the shocked gaze of the crowd, Wu Xuepeng, who was once in charge of Blue Ocean Building, was led out of the building by a few police officers like a dog.

It was only then that Niu Yunkui bowed to Lin Fan and Bai Yi cautiously while saying, "Miss Bai, Mr. Lin, we've apprehended the perpetrator! Thank you for your cooperation!"

What?

Bai Yi was mystified as she didn't know how she had cooperated. When she saw the respectful look in Commissioner Niu Yunkui's eyes, she was even more puzzled. She couldn't figure out what was happening.

Then, Niu Yunkui and the other police officers escorted Wu Xuepeng away and left.

Silence.

Blue Ocean Building's entire lobby plunged into silence.

Those from the Bai family stared fixedly at Bai Yi and Lin Fan, their expression mournful and dejected.

It's gone!

In the end, Blue Ocean Building still fell into Bai Yi's hands while the Bai family had incurred a loss of 150 million for nothing. A sense of ominous foreboding pervaded them.

Very quickly, Blue Ocean Building changed its name to New Bai Family Group.

When this news broke out, it shook Jiang City.

When they heard that Cai Guofu had transferred all his assets to Bai Yi without compensation and vanished after that, it shook the entire Jiang City once again; everyone couldn't imagine how she did it. A mere two days' trip in Yunhai City had her receiving assets worth billions. The incredible speed at which she procured money made everyone's eyes pop out of their heads.

From that moment onward, New Bai Family Group was highly regarded by the masses. Also, everyone had a premonition that the sudden emergence of this legendary company was also the beginning of Bai Family Group's decline and downfall.

Meanwhile, at the Bai family, all the elders of the Bai family were gathered, but the atmosphere was stifling to the point of suffocation.

Two men were kneeling in the main hall—Bai Hai and Bai Yifan. At this moment, both their expressions were ashen, and there was a lingering trace of incredulity on their faces.

"Dad, this is too suspicious! Cai Guofu and his brother are known as hardy businessmen in Yunhai City. Why would they suddenly vanish without reason, not to mention transfer their assets that are worth an astounding value to that brat, Bai Yi?" Master Bai Hai looked at Old Master Bai, bitterness apparent on his face.

Meanwhile, Bai Yifan also shook his head wildly and said, "Grandpa, I just feel that all of this has nothing to do with Bai Yi. Rather, it's because of Lin Fan!"

What?

When Old Master Bai heard this, his eyes narrowed. "Yifan, go on!"

At this moment, everyone's gaze rested on Bai Yifan.

Bai Yifan took a deep breath and revealed his mind-boggling presumptions. "Grandpa, I've already investigated the matter thoroughly; while in Yunhai City, there was a conflict between Lin Fan and Cai Guofu's brother, Cai Guoquan, which led to Cai Guoquan's arms and legs being broken. Because of this matter, Cai Guofu was infuriated, and he even sent out assassins to kill Lin Fan, but for some unknown reason, all four assassins were killed. In the end, even Cai Guofu and his brother vanished without a trace!"

When he spoke of this, a shiver ran down his spine, and when Lin Fan's striking face appeared in his mind, he shuddered in fear.

"Also, although the person who benefitted from this is Bai Yi, I think Lin Fan is the mastermind behind this. The person who had Cai Guofu transferring his assets without compensation and who made them vanish from this world is him! The person who terrified Niu Yunkui and had Wu Xuepeng arrested is also him!"

Woah!

When Bai Yifan told them his conjecture, Bai family's main hall went into an uproar.

Every one of them appeared incredulous; after all, they had previously perceived Lin Fan as a useless parasite who only knew how to eat without working for it. But now, almost every baffling incident had Lin Fan's hand in it albeit vaguely, and this made him very mysterious, and his identity all the more difficult to guess.

At this time, even Old Master Bai felt a shiver course through him. "It seems like Lin Fan is no longer as simple as we perceived him to be. However, everything is just speculation at the moment. That is all. Now, we have an even more important thing to do!"

An even more important thing?

Everyone looked at Old Master Bai upon hearing that.

"New Bai Family Group has already become a great rival! So, we urgently need a strong ally, which is Jiangnan's Golden Age Group! In a few days, Golden Age Group's second biggest shareholder's son will be coming to Jiang City. We need to ally ourselves with him no matter the cost!"

Meanwhile, there was a cheerful atmosphere at Bai Yi's house.

Shen Yumei had prepared a table of sumptuous dishes, and the whole family was enjoying the food harmoniously.

This time, not only had the new Bai Family Group successfully taken over Blue Ocean Building, but it had also made them famous, so this was indeed an achievement worth celebrating.

During the meal, Lin Fan and Bai Shan drank some liquor, and even Bai Yi and Shen Yumei drank some red wine.

When they were finally replete with food and drinks, Bai Yi and Lin Fan returned to their room.

After entering the room, Lin Fan finally noticed that Bai Yi's beautiful face was blushing gorgeously, and she looked like a blooming flower, sexy and enchanting.

However, she was staring unflinchingly at him, as if she was scrutinizing and questioning him.

"D-Darling, why are you looking at me like that?" Feeling guilty, Lin Fan asked with a dry laugh.

Upon hearing that, Bai Yi's beautiful face became solemn, and her eyes were filled with a complicated look.

"Lin Fan, how did you actually do that?"

"Huh? Do what? Darling, I don't know what you are talking about." Lin Fan looked even more awkward now.

When Bai Yi saw that Lin Fan was still pretending, she smacked the bed with her delicate hand loudly.

“Lin Fan, stop pretending. I already know all about your identity!”

What?!

This sentence shocked Lin Fan. But after he observed Bai Yi's beautiful eyes carefully and noticed the cunning look in them, he replied with a smile, “Darling, so you've seen through me. Alright, I'll admit it!”

He admitted it!

Lin Fan's words made Bai Yi's heart lift in nervousness.

After three years of marriage, was she finally getting to know her husband's real identity?

Upon the thought of that, Bai Yi's heart was filled with bitterness, struggles, loss, and intense sadness.

“Go on!”

Bai Yi clenched her teeth, forcing herself to remain calm because she knew that what Lin Fan was about to say would possibly turn her world upside down, leaving her in extreme shock.

When Lin Fan saw this scene, he put on a solemn expression then shook his head and said with a sigh, "Darling, actually, I'm the protector of the kitchen and the cleaner of the floor. At the same time, I'm your bodyguard and the guardian of our New Bai Family Group!"

What is this nonsense?

Shock appeared on Bai Yi's beautiful face instantly.

Wasn't he going to reveal his real identity?

What is the protector of the kitchen about?

And what is the cleaner of the floor about?

When Bai Yi noticed the smile on Lin Fan's lips, she finally figured out that she was fooled by this b*stard.

"Lin Fan, h-how dare you play a fool with me, you b*stard!"

After that, Bai Yi pounced on Lin Fan.

However, she had quite an amount of red wine just now, so when she stood up from the bed abruptly, she felt dizzy, causing her to fall into Lin Fan's arms. Then, both of them tumbled onto the bed.

"Ah!"

Bai Yi was shocked. But when she felt the warmth from Lin Fan's chest and the masculine aura he was emitting, her beautiful face flushed red.

"Lin Fan, g-get up! Let me go!"

Bai Yi struggled to get up from Lin Fan.

However, the enticing fragrance of a virgin that was emitting from her body, her heart-throbbing gorgeous face, and her perfectly sexy body made Lin Fan's heart pound.

"D-Darling!" Lin Fan called her softly.

His voice felt like an electric current, causing Bai Yi to shudder vigorously.

Their eyes met, and deep affection could be found in them.

With both of their hearts thumping, Lin Fan lowered his head and inched closer toward Bai Yi's delicate lips slowly.

He was almost there...

Finally, Lin Fan could no longer suppress the emotions in his heart and he kissed Bai Yi's delicate lips passionately.

"Hmm..."

Bai Yi shuddered while her beautiful eyes immediately widened in surprise.

She felt as if streams of electric current were flowing through her body, and it drained all her strength.

Not only that.

At this moment, she had completely sunken into the tenderness of his lips, causing her to be short of breath while her stunning face became even prettier.

"L-Lin Fan, don't..."

Bai Yi was completely aroused.

In their three years of marriage, Bai Yi had always resisted Lin Fan, so they never had any body contact.

However, a few months ago, Bai Yi finally realized that she had fallen in love with this man without her noticing.

Even if he would be a coward or a disappointment forever, Bai Yi knew that she could never leave this man until the end of her life.

"Darling, I love you!"

A smile of happiness bloomed on Lin Fan's face.

Then, his large hand started to explore Bai Yi's delicate body slowly.

Her slender waist, firm and rounded breasts, breath-taking peachy butt, and exquisite legs all added fuel to the flame in Lin Fan's heart, making it burn even more vigorously.

Click!

A button was slowly undone by Lin Fan. At once, Bai Yi's protruding breasts were revealed before his eyes.

However, the sound of unbuttoning struck Bai Yi like thunder.

“No!!”

She pushed Lin Fan away and got up from the bed quickly using the strength she had mustered from who knew where.

At this moment, her hair was messy, and her beautiful face was flushed red like an overly ripe apple. At the same time, she was panting heavily, and her eyes were misty.

“L-Lin Fan, I-I’m sorry!”

When Bai Yi saw Lin Fan’s astonished face, she felt extremely sorry.

“I-I didn’t mean to reject you on purpose, but this is our first time, so I think it’s better if we do it some time later to make it more ceremonious.”

Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan, and her eyes showed a trace of imploration.

She had long fallen in love with this man, so of course she wouldn’t mind giving herself to him.

However, she wanted it to be perfect!

She wanted it to happen in a ceremonious situation so that she and Lin Fan would have neither complaints nor regrets in their lives.

Looking at Bai Yi who looked extremely nervous and was almost at a loss for response, Lin Fan couldn’t help but smile.

"Darling, don't worry. I understand!"

Lin Fan gave her a smile.

He had waited for her for three years, so he wouldn't mind waiting a bit longer.

Upon hearing his words, Bai Yi's heart was immediately coddled with affection.

At this moment, she realized that she was crazily in love with this man.

"Thank you, h-hubby!"

Hubby!

This was definitely the first time Bai Yi had addressed Lin Fan this way in three years.

Right after that, she was instantly overtaken with shyness, causing her beautiful face to blush so red that it seemed like blood was about to drip from it.

When Lin Fan heard her words, his heart was also immersed in warmth.

Glancing at Bai Yi's sexy body, her messy hair and charming beautiful face, he couldn't help but smile.

"Alright, darling. I'll give you a massage, and then let's go to sleep!"

A massage?

Bai Yi was stunned because she didn't know that Lin Fan knew how to give massages.

When she noticed Lin Fan's expectant yet fervent eyes, Bai Yi immediately understood this rascal's evil intentions. However, she didn't reject him despite feeling shy.

"A-Alright. But please be gentle!"

After that, Bai Yi lay on the bed meekly.

It was undeniable that Bai Yi was absolutely a rare beauty. Her beauty was breathtaking even when she was simply laying on the bed, especially with her messy clothes on and charming face that was brimming amorously.

She was like a fairy who was luring his soul.

After taking a deep breath and suppressing his lust to make love to her now, he walked to the bedside.

After that, his large hand pressed on Bai Yi's chest.

Bai Yi was stunned!

She didn't expect that Lin Fan would take advantage of her in such an open and honest manner. This rascal had placed his hand on her chest straightforwardly in the name of giving her a massage.

Erm...

“Lin Fan, you...”

Bai Yi bit her delicate lips.

But at that moment, it was like Lin Fan’s large hand produced electric current, and it flowed from her chest throughout her whole body, causing her to go limp again.

“Darling, relax. This is Lin’s breast enlargement technique!” Feeling guilty, Lin Fan replied after a gulp.

Breast enlargement technique?

What nonsense!

Bai Yi frowned. This was the first time she had received such a shoddy excuse for taking advantage of her.

However, just as she was about to scold Lin Fan, she felt his palms move.

Both his hands started to roam her body continuously with an indescribable warmth.

Bai Yi even felt that there was a stream of cool air in his hands, flowing from his palm and diffusing into her skin.

Trace by trace!

Bit by bit!

This stream of cool air seemed to hold an unimaginable magic, causing Bai Yi to forget about scolding Lin Fan while completely indulging in the nourishment of this air.

“It feels really nice!”

Bai Yi was astonished.

She had gone to countless spas, but she could clearly feel that Lin Fan’s massage technique was indeed extraordinary.

With only a simple touch, she had completely indulged in it.

At this moment, it felt like all the cells in her body were relaxed.

Cells!

Nerves!

Bones!

Bai Yi was addicted to this feeling of relaxation.

Upon witnessing this scene, Lin Fan showed a smile.

He wasn’t lying because this was indeed Lin’s breast enlargement technique.

It was not only effective in enlarging breasts, but it also offered Bai Yi a youth preserving and skin-whitening effect, especially when combined with his Vitality Qi as a nourishment.

However, Lin Fan soon noticed that something wasn’t right.

While his hand roamed Bai Yi's body continuously, he was surprised to see that her beautiful face was getting even redder.

She looked like she was aroused because her body was starting to burn and soften while moans escaped her mouth.

"D*mn it! I forgot that this breast enlargement technique has an erotic effect on a virgin!"

Looking at Bai Yi who was becoming even more aroused, sweat trickled down Lin Fan's forehead immediately.

Bai Yi had said that she wanted her first sex to be ceremonious.

Therefore, Lin Fan couldn't make love to Bai Yi now.

However, Bai Yi's moans were full of charm, and it was a great challenge for Lin Fan to rein himself in.

Torture!

This was great torture!

The more Bai Yi was aroused, the greater the torture Lin Fan felt.

Bai Yi's sensual desire only wore off completely at midnight. It was only after she was sound asleep that Lin Fan wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and smiled bitterly.

"I did not take advantage of her at all. It's clearly a challenge for my willpower!”

When Lin Fan saw the smile of happiness which remained on Bai Yi’s face even though she was fast asleep, he couldn’t help but crouch and kiss her lips passionately.

“Goodnight, darling.”

The night faded gradually.

The next morning, when Bai Yi woke up from her sleep, she felt like her whole body was floating.

She realized that all her tiredness had disappeared and it was like all the impurities in her body had been removed.

“I feel so relaxed! Could it be that it’s the effect of Lin Fan’s massage last night?”

Bai Yi was astounded.

She could confirm that this was the best sleep she had ever had in her entire life.

She even felt that she became a few years younger.

When she turned around and saw Lin Fan who was sleeping soundly beside her, she couldn’t help but recall the bashful scene last night.

“D-Did I get aroused when Lin Fan gave me a massage last night?”

At the thought of that, Bai Yi’s beautiful face flushed red again, and her heart pounded madly.

“I didn’t know that this rascal knew how to give a massage!”

Although Bai Yi was overwhelmed with shyness, her eyes were still full of love when she looked at Lin Fan.

She began to realize that her husband was mighty and versatile.

As she thought of that, she crept forward quietly and covered Lin Fan with the blanket. Then, she left a deep kiss on his forehead before she left the room to wash up.

Later in the morning, Lin Fan finally woke up only to find that Bai Yi had changed into a chef’s attire and made some delicious food.

“Darling, what are you doing?”

Lin Fan was astonished because this was his first time seeing Bai Yi, the astute President, cooking in the kitchen.

When Bai Yi saw Lin Fan, her heartbeat couldn’t help but race. Then, she bowed her head and replied, “You must have been worn out last night, so I woke up and made you breakfast. Come and try it!”

While speaking, Bai Yi’s face blushed. She then quickly walked into the kitchen and continued her cooking.

Looking at Bai Yi who was shy, Lin Fan was happy because he knew that the feelings they had for each other had grown deeper.

When they were having their breakfast, a news report on the television left Lin Fan stunned.

“According to Lop Nur Lake, it is reported that someone discovered the whereabouts of Blood Buddha, who is also known as the most ferocious ultimate Grandmaster in China! Previously, Blood Buddha’s apprentice, Blood Wolf, was severely injured in Jiang City. Could this be a sign that the terrifying ultimate Grandmaster will reappear in public again? The station will continue to follow up on whether Blood Buddha, the ultimate Grandmaster, will resurface!”

What?!

When they saw this news, not only Lin Fan was stunned, even Bai Yi, who was beside him, went pale with fear.

“Isn’t Blood Wolf the killer who assassinated Zhang Yichen? I didn’t know that his master was an ultimate Grandmaster! This is bad. I’m afraid that our mysterious Grandmaster Lin of Jiang City will be in trouble!”

Bai Yi’s beautiful face was overtaken with concerns.

However, Lin Fan just gave her a smile. “Darling, don’t worry. Who knows? Perhaps Grandmaster Lin disparages that guy.”

Lop Nur Lake was known as the most mysterious lake in China!

It was located in the Northwest of China and was known as one of the famous attractions in China.

In recent years, Lop Nur Lake had risen to fame, and the major reason for it was because it was the home of a terrifying being—Blood Buddha!

That name represented sanguinary and death, instilling fear throughout China for years.

After the battle that year where Blood Buddha wiped out four ultimate Grandmasters and decimated their forces with his terrifying power in the Northwest, he vanished from the public eye.

Since then, countless forces tried to hunt Blood Buddha down to get revenge, but they were all defeated at that place.

As a consequence, Lop Nur Lake was also known as Death Lake!

Up until today, four uninvited guests had suddenly arrived at Death Lake.

The four men looked ferocious; all of them were covered in blood and their sharp shiny spears hung on their waist.

If the locals of the Northwest saw them, they would definitely be shocked because these four people were the invincible Northwest Wolves who had been roaming the Northwest desert throughout this year.

The Northwest Wolves were infamous for being violent criminals.

Each of them had achieved the mighty realm of a Grandmaster. Normal people would usually settle for a peaceful life after attaining such power, but these four people were ruthless, and they were used to leading a risky and dangerous life.

They would commit all kinds of crimes including arson, murder, theft, and robbery at the Northwest.

Today, the four of them had arrived near the area of Lop Nur Lake.

“Hahaha... That was such a satisfying battle. Regardless of what bullsh*t that Blood Tiger League claims to be, we still killed all of them!”

“This time, we managed to snatch countless treasures. Perhaps we should rest for a while!”

Vicious smiles appeared on their faces.

To them, common forces were just weak preys waiting to be slaughtered, nothing more.

As their leader looked around their surroundings, he couldn't help but frown. “Brothers, be careful. This seems like Lop Nur Lake, the alleged hideout of Blood Buddha!”

Blood Buddha! Upon hearing that name, the other three wolves frowned in contempt.

“Head Lang, stop worrying. Blood Buddha has disappeared for five years; he's probably long dead by now!”

“Indeed, Head Lang. Now, the land of the Northwest has become our territory! Blood Buddha my a! If he appears in front of us, we’ll kill him in no time.”

“Both of you are right. According to rumors, the Blood Buddha from five years ago was already old and grey. He must have become a pile of dry bones by now!”

The other three wolves didn’t seem to take Blood Buddha seriously at all.

After all, even the notable forces and masters in Northwest would piss themselves in fear as soon as they heard the name Northwest Wolves. Because of that, the four of them became arrogant and domineering.

Upon hearing their words, Head Lang nodded as well. Indeed! After vanishing for five years, even if Blood Buddha was still alive, he would probably be too weak to fight, so there’s nothing to be afraid of.

Then, the four of them continued their journey onward.

They planned to cross the Lop Nur Lake in order to spread their reputation and infamy to the outside of the Northwest of China.

However, just as they approached Lop Nur Lake, they paused at the figure in front of them.

“Head Lang, look! There’s an old man fishing up front!”

Fishing? That sentence caused the other three to frown sli ghtly.

After all, Lop Nur Lake was extremely dangerous, hence fishing at that lake was something unbelievable.

The three others quickly looked up ahead and saw an old man with a bamboo hat sitting alone by the shore of Lop Nur Lake while holding onto a fishing rod.

He was fishing peacefully!

What made the Northwest Wolves even more surprised was that after that old man jerked his fishing rod, a large fish was pulled out of the lake before it landed on the shore.

“Eh? What a special fishing technique!”

The Northwest Wolves were astonished at that scene.

When they recognized the large fish—which the old man had caught—to be the precious Lop Nur Fish, a thought popped up into their minds.

“Head Lang, I heard that that kind of fish tastes fresh and delicious, especially after it’s barbecued. More importantly, it can be sold for up to 10,000 per kilogram and it’s extremely rare in the market!”

“Exactly, Head Lang, I heard that everyone who has tasted it before couldn’t stop praising its excellent taste!”

“Head Lang, I’m kind of hungry now. Why don’t we...”

At that moment, the other three wolves gulped; their faces were overtaken with greediness.

They had been killing and robbing all day and hadn't eaten at all. Therefore, when they saw such a large fresh fish, they couldn't resist.

Upon hearing that, Head Lang nodded. After all, he, too, had been starving since long ago.

"Let's go. We'll approach that man and buy that fish from him!"

"Remember, this place is extremely dangerous. Besides, it's rather unusual that an old man is fishing alone at this place, so all of you mustn't act recklessly. Otherwise, we might get into trouble," Head Lang solemnly chided the other three.

He usually could sense danger from a mile away, and although the old man in front of them looked around 80 years old, he still didn't want to mess with him.

After all, it was rather creepy that an old fisherman appeared out of nowhere in this desolate place.

When the three others heard his warning, they nodded despite feeling contemptuous.

Soon, all four of them arrived at the shore.

Head Lang bowed before saying to the old man, "Old sir, we were just passing by and we're a little hungry. Would you mind selling that fish to us?"

Head Lang's tone was extremely polite.

However, after he posed his question...

One minute!

Five minutes!

It was as if the old man didn't hear him nor did he realize that they were here. He didn't even turn back and reply!

Well...

The Northwest Wolves were stunned, thereupon rage started to simmer in their hearts.

However, Head Lang suppressed the anger in his heart and asked once again politely, "Old sir, we're really extremely hungry. Can you sell that fish to us? Money is not a problem, so you can set the price as you please."

Head Lang's tone became even more respectful.

To their disbelief, the old man in front of him still didn't answer even if his voice was sonorous and radiated inner energy.

The old man seemed like a deaf person, completely ignoring them.

"Damn it! Head Lang, I think this old man is deaf. Why don't we just snatch the fish from him? After all these years, since when did we have to be so humble to get food?!" Er Lang complained with a menacing face.

Not only him, the other two beside him too concurred, "Er Lang is right! I bet that old guy is deaf, so we shouldn't bother to talk to him anymore!"

"Head Lang, just take it! We'll just leave some money with him before we go!"

The other two started urging him to do it.

After listening to the three of them, Head Lang could only nod his head. After all, it was too difficult to search for food in this wilderness.

On top of that, the old guy in front of them looked extremely frail. He reckoned nothing bad would happen even if they took his fish.

At that thought, Head Lang reached out his hand.

Whoosh! To their astonishment, following another swing of the old guy's hand, the fishing line was pulled out from the middle of the lake in an instant.

Another fleshy and huge fish which weighed between 20 to 30 kilograms was heaved out from the lake.

It was another huge fish!

The rest of the members of the Northwest Wolves were instantly consumed by admiration and greed.

Just when the three of them were about to snatch the fish, Head Lang noticed the fishing line which had pulled the fish out from the lake.

“No! Don’t! There’s no fish hook on that fishing line! W-What’s going on?”

What?! As Head Lang’s voice trailed off, the other three were stunned, thereupon they turned to look at the old man’s fishing line.

Only then did they find to their disbelief that there was indeed no fish hook on the fishing line.

How is that possible?! They were completely dumbfounded.

At that moment, the four could feel chills running throughout their body, surging from their feet right to their heads.

That old man managed to catch a fish without using a fish hook!

One would not be able to do something like that without being an ultimate Grandmaster.

In other words, the old man had to be an ultimate Grandmaster!

“Damn it! H-He is Blood Buddha! He is an ultimate Grandmaster! Run!”

At that moment, Head Lang could only feel his scalp tingling with fear. He then let out a shriek before turning around, ready to flee.

When the other three came to their senses, they were terrified.

Instantly, the four of them sprinted away like frightened bunnies. Scared to the bone, they pushed their speed to the limit.

At that moment, the old guy who was fishing behaved as though he had just realized the presence of the four men. Heaving out a lengthy sigh, he said in a raucous voice, "Sigh! Back then, my king once advised me that evil should be totally eradicated and a problem should be nipped in the bud! Are you guys trying to run away? I'm afraid it's too late!"

Rumble! His voice traveled through the air and managed to reach the ears of the Northwest Wolves in an instant. Immediately, the expressions on the four of them morphed into ones of terror; they had the feeling that they had been targeted by a devil.

Not only that, when Head Lang turned around, he discovered to his horror that following a jerk from the old guy's hand, that fishing line without a fish hook was swooping toward the four of them like a flash of lightning.

"Oh no! Look out!" Head Lang let out a high-pitched scream as he hit the dirt.

At that moment, an extremely brutal scene which was going to be etched in his mind for the rest of his life took place.

Whoosh! At an extremely fast speed, the fishing line loomed ahead of the other three members of the Wolves in seconds.

It seemed like immense Inner Energy was channeled into the fishing line, making it as sturdy as a steel wire.

It instantly sliced through the necks of the three members of the Wolves.

“No!!!” Head Lang let out an agonizing scream.

Immediately, he saw the bodies of his three buddies stiffen before their heads fell to the ground from their necks.

Thump!

Because of the inertia from their running, the three headless bodies staggered forward before collapsing to the ground, blood gushing non-stop from their bodies.

They have been beheaded! They're dead! Head Lang felt like his head was about to explode.

Three Grandmasters were killed with a just fishing line; Blood Buddha's mercilessness was way beyond Head Lang's imagination.

At this moment, when he saw the fishing line which had finished off his three buddies coming toward him, he was overwhelmed by an intense fury.

“I don't believe you are that strong!”

Clank!

When the fishing line was about to reach him, he whipped out a spear which had been tied to his waist, using it to defend himself.

Zoom!

To his disbelief, however, his spear cracked into two halves when the fishing line ran through it as though it was made of paper mache.

Whoosh! In the next second, Head Lang felt an iciness in his neck before he heard the sound of his head being sliced off his neck.

His vision darkened as his head fell to the ground.

He caught sight of his fallen body before his skull hit the ground and rolled away.

The entire area of the lake plunged into a deadly silence after the Northwest Wolves were slaughtered.

As blood flowed out from their bodies, the smell of iron permeated the air, giving off an ominous feeling.

Who would have thought that the Northwest Wolves, a bunch of ruthless and sadistic men who had terrorised the wilderness of the Northwest for over a year, would have been slayed within a second.

One would be terror-stricken if they were to witness their demise.

“How pathetic!” At that moment, the old fisherman did not seem like he had just killed four men. Instead, he reacted more like he had just crushed four ants to death.

He shook off the blood on his fishing line before jerking it back.

Swoosh! Once again, the fishing line without a fish hook was thrown forcefully toward the middle of the lake.

He then carried on fishing.

An ultimate grandmaster would be able to see that the old man was doing more than just fishing; it seemed like he was fishing in order to reach a certain level of cultivation!

He was fishing for both life and death.

As time dragged by, the old guy knitted his eyebrows lightly after one hour had passed.

Frowning, he looked up at the bright blue sky.

It was a cloudless blue sky and there were no birds flying around. However, after a minute, a loud rumbling sound was heard coming from the sky.

It was coming from... a helicopter!

The helicopter slowly descended before the cabin door opened.

Thereafter, bodyguards who were dressed in black streamed out from the cabin.

They consisted of both chinese and caucasians. All of them were burly and there was a lump at the area around their waists, showing that they were carrying guns.

The ten bodyguards proceeded to arrange themselves into two rows.

Then, a young man, who looked like his energy had been depleted because of excessive alcohol consumption and sexual activities, slowly alighted the cabin and walked out.

If Zhang Yichen was here, she would definitely recognize the man as he was none other than the Young Master of the Zhang family—Zhang Lei!

He was her cousin who constantly wanted her dead.

“Tsk!What a desolate place!” Zhang Lei spat contemptuously with a frown, then covered his nose after he got off from the helicopter.

When he caught sight of the four bodies on the ground, the resentment on his face grew even more intense and he complained, “There are even bodies here! What a buzz kill!”

Zhang Lei looked just like a rich young guy who led an idle life.

When Mr. Li who stood behind him heard what he said, he exclaimed in astonishment, “Young Master, I think the four bodies belonged to the Northwest Wolves!”

What?! Zhang Lei wasn't the only one startled by what he said; even the ten bodyguards trembled after listening to him.

The Northwest Wolves were notorious gangsters.

On top of that, they had just heard about the shocking crime they had committed in the Northwest area.

As such, how could they suddenly die right here?

"Mr. Li, a-are you sure about that?" Zhang Lei's face turned pale, and cold sweat trickled down his forehead.

When Mr. Li heard him, he nodded his head solemnly. "Young Master, there's no doubt about it! Before this, we considered hiring the Northwest Wolves to deal with that guy with the surname Lin! Hence, I'm sure that they are the Northwest Wolves. Judging from their injuries, they were probably killed by a single attack!"

As Mr. Li explained, Zhang Lei shuddered as the condescension on his face changed to seriousness and terror.

Staring at the figure of the old man who was fishing, a numbness crept over his scalp. "It surprises me that the Blood Buddha is still so cruel and terrifying after five years!"

Zhang Lei could not help but draw in a deep breath. Putting on a respectful attitude, he made his way toward the old guy who was fishing together with his men.

Only when they were not far away from the old guy did they give him a bow.

"Mr. Blood Buddha, I'm Zhang Lei from the Zhang Family, and I would like to invite you to make a comeback!"

Make a comeback! Although there was a trace of fear in Zhang Lei's voice, he still spoke with confidence.

It was as though he was certain that he could convince the old man to make a comeback.

"The Zhang Family?"

After listening to Zhang Lei, the old man's body jolted slightly before his raucous voice rang out, "I know about your family. However, you guys are not qualified to hire me!"

What?! The expression on Zhang Lei and his men stiffened upon listening to him.

Although anger was burning inside them, none of them dared to vent it out.

"Mr. Blood Buddha, I know that you are a highly respected master, and that my family is not qualified to hire you! But, aren't you at least interested to know about the recent condition of your disciple, Blood Wolf?" Zhang Lei said confidently as he stared at the old man unflinchingly.

Blood Wolf! The mention of that name caused the old guy to shudder slightly. It seemed like the name had caused a slight stir in his heart.

"Blood Wolf, that lad? Forget it! Ever since I allowed him to leave, our relationship ended right then and there. Whatever happens after that, he will only have himself to rely on!" Shaking his head, the old man continued fishing as though nothing else could draw his attention.

At that, the expressions of Zhang Lei and his men darkened.

It never occurred to them that Blood Buddha would be so heartless that he did not care the least bit about how his disciple fared.

It was as though he was no longer interested in everything in the mortal world.

At his wit's end, Zhang Lei decided to entice Blood Buddha with money.

Yet, before he could even utter a word, he was stopped by Mr. Li who stood next to him.

Thereafter, Mr. Li scanned the back of Blood Buddha before speaking reverently, "Mr. Blood Buddha, I understand that you are unfazed by the changes in the mortal world! However, I think I should tell you something—your disciple, Blood Wolf, has already become one of the top ten assassins in East Asia! Yet, his cultivation was destroyed by an ultimate Grandmaster with three attacks when he was on a mission in Jiang City."

What?! Obviously, what Mr. Li said had triggered the old man's emotions.

"Three attacks? Are you sure about that?" The voice of Blood Buddha was cold and solemn.

To him, someone destroying his disciple's cultivation with three attacks was something unimaginable.

Noticing there was finally a change in Blood Buddha's expression, Mr. Li, Zhang Lei and his men were overjoyed.

Quickly, Zhang Lei pressed on, "It's true! Not only did that Grandmaster destroy his cultivation, he claimed that you too would not be able to withstand a single attack from him!"

Blood Buddha's body shook even more violently after hearing what he said.

Obviously, Zhang Lei's exaggeration and tattletaling had worked.

After that, Zhang Lei added once more, "Mr. Blood Buddha, other than that, when Grandmaster Lin defeated your disciple, he managed to destroy his tortoise shell vest and crush his Cold Blood Spear into pieces with just a single punch!"

Finally, failing to keep his composure, Blood Buddha sat bolt upright on the ground and turned to face them.

When Zhang Lei and his men were faced with Blood Buddha's appearance, they were taken aback by his face.

He was hideous! That was right, his face was as hideous as a demon.

There were so many scars and blemishes on his face that one could not make out how he originally looked like at all. What was more, his eyes looked so weary it was as though he had experienced all vicissitudes of life, and he gave off an icy aura so cold that it pierced through one's bones.

"Is this Blood Buddha?" Zhang Lei was so spooked that he started trembling.

The way Blood Buddha looked at him made him feel as though he was trapped by a devil, frightening him so much that he nearly fell to the ground.

Not only him, as after witnessing Blood Buddha's icy stare, all ten bodyguards reflexively extended their hands toward the guns at their waists.

Whoosh! At that moment, however, under the ten bodyguards' gazes of disbelief, the fishing line without a fish hook, which was dangling loosely in the beginning, suddenly became as straight as a steel wire. In the blink of an eye, it swooped toward them and stopped just inches away from their necks.

Drip!

Drip!

The fishing line was razor-sharp, and it lightly grazed the skin of four of the bodyguards' neck, thereafter drops of blood dribbled down from the cuts.

The ten men were so horrified that they nearly wet their pants.

If the fishing line went just an inch deeper, they were sure they would end up like the Northwest Wolves—their heads separated from their bodies.

Yet, it was apparent that Blood Buddha did not intend to kill them. With his icy stare, he glared at Zhang Lei intently and said grimly, “Is it true that the man you mentioned just now destroyed the tortoise shell vest and the Cold Blood Spear with a single move?”

Right then, there was not a single trace of vengeful hate in his eyes. Instead, they were brimming with excitement for an oncoming fight.

Intense delight could be seen on his face as he reacted like a seasoned hunter who had just spotted a mouthwatering prey.

“T-That’s right!” Zhang Lei was so terrified that he pissed his pants involuntarily.

Immediately, frenzied elation took over Blood Buddha’s face and he exclaimed, “Hahaha... Interesting! Very interesting indeed! Will I finally be able to meet an opponent as strong as my old buddies in China? How exciting! I look forward to it very much!”

After experiencing the turbulence following the establishment of the New Bai Family Group, Jiang City, a small third-tier city, settled down into a relatively tranquil state.

Yet, the peace did not last for long; a piece of news once again caused an uproar in the small city.

Leng Bufan, the son of Leng Kang who was the President of Golden Age Group, had arrived in Jiang City.

The Golden Age Group! The company was frequently discussed among the upper echelons of the city, hence his arrival instantaneously caused a great furore in the entire city.

Nearly everyone knew that the two huge establishments in Jiang City, Tianlong Group and Golden Age Clubhouse, were subsidiaries of Golden Age Group.

On the other hand, the Golden Age Group was a subsidiary of the Global Group, the scariest conglomerate in the entire world.

The Golden Age Group was labeled as the commercial giant in Jiangnan Province.

Being the son of the President of an extremely rich company, Leng Bufan was so highly respected in society that it was intimidating.

On top of that, rumors had it that Young Master Leng Bufan had sent out invitations to all the young and successful figures in the Jiang City for dinner.

At once, excitement seized many of the rich young men in Jiang City.

Moreover, many rich young ladies started shopping for new clothes, paying great effort in preparing themselves in hopes of pleasing Young Master Leng Bufan during the dinner.

Meanwhile, Bai Yi too had received the invitation to attend on behalf of the New Bai Family Group.

“Darling, are you going to attend the dinner?” Lin Fan asked Bai Yi with a faint smile.

For some unknown reason, after receiving the invitation, Bai Yi’s beautiful face became slightly upset as she pondered over it with concern.

“Lin Fan, do you know who sent this invitation card to me?” asked Bai Yi.

Eh? Slightly taken aback, Lin Fan shook his head.

In response, Bai Yi could not help but let out a lengthy sigh before she continued, “Do you still remember Xu Yanhong?”

Xu Yanhong! Of course Lin Fan remembered her. Back when Bai Yi had just been appointed President of the Bai Family Group, the two of them had visited the Baishi Shopping Centre to shop for clothes.

During that shopping trip, they bumped into a couple; the man was called Huang Tao whereas his companion was Xu Yanhong.

At that time, the married couple made sarcastic comments about Bai Yi, but were later given a slap in their faces by Lin Fan.

Later on, they complained to the master of the Huang Family, Huang Guosheng, and even colluded with a police supervisor in an attempt to sabotage Lin Fan. At last, Liu Zhen, the number one President of the province, and his men personally handled the matter and arrested all the perpetrators.

Yet, Lin Fan could not see how Xu Yanhong who had been jailed had anything to do with the dinner.

“This time, the one who invited me is a lady named Zhou Nan. Back in my school days, she was Xu Yanhong’s bestie and she hated me a lot too! This time, it’s highly likely that she has returned to seek revenge for Xu Yanhong!” Bai Yi could not help but rub the area between her brows before continuing, “What’s more frightening is that Zhou Nan is now Leng Bufan’s partner and she will be the hostess of the dinner!”

I see! After listening to Bai Yi’s explanation, Lin Fan could not help but smile before assuring her with a laugh, “Darling, you don’t have to worry about anything. With me around, no one can hurt you!”

Lin Fan’s tone was extremely confident.

Yet, Bai Yi only forced out a laugh before shaking her head.

In her eyes, Lin Fan was just trying to comfort her.

“Forget it, I’m not going to think about it anymore! Since we can’t afford to offend the Golden Age Group, why don't you attend the dinner with me tonight? The worst case scenario is that we will be humiliated by them, no big deal!" Bai Yi made up her mind at that moment.

However, Lin Fan merely put on a smile in response to her words.

As the owner of the Global Group, the Golden Age Group was only a negligible small subsidiary of his company, that was all.

By extension, Leng Bufan and Zhou Nan were nothing to him.

To him, they were merely bugs who depended on him for a living. He could let them go if they did not give Bai Yi a hard time. However, if they crossed the line, he would not mind letting them have a taste of despair.

...

Very soon, night fell.

Tonight was the night when all the young and rich people in Jiang City were going to have a blast.

One sports car after another was heading in the direction of Caesar Park Hotel.

The biggest hotel in Jiang City was the venue of the dinner held by Leng Bufan.

In the car park, a Mercedes-Benz pulled up from which Lin Fan and Bai Yi alighted.

Bai Yi was dressed in a black evening gown which made her look as graceful as a swan; the dress accentuated her fair complexion and made her skin look as smooth as marble.

Coupled with her extremely gorgeous face, she immediately became the center of attention at the entire car park.

On the contrary, Lin Fan, who stood beside Bai Yi, was dressed casually as usual; his clothes looked slightly battered but they were still considered clean.

When the two walked alongside each other, they looked like complete opposites.

One of them was extremely gorgeous, while the other looked ordinary.

From the crowd's perspectives, it seemed like Bai Yi was way out of Lin Fan's league and not his match at all.

Yet, it did not bother Bai Yi as she had already gotten used to how Lin Fan dressed himself.

In her eyes, the way her husband dressed himself was more dashing and suave than any other man.

Hand in hand, the two of them made their way toward the Caesar Park Hotel.

Just as the two of them walked out of the car park, a sneer was heard, "Hey, isn't that the infamous useless son-in-law of Jiang City? What's going on? Tonight's dinner is only for all the young and successful figures in the city. Why is that useless character here at such a prestigious event?” The voice was laced with hostility and sarcasm.

Bai Yi and Lin Fan put on a slight frown as they recognized the owner of the voice at once.

The two of them turned around and saw a limping young man together with a lady who had heavy makeup on; the two of them were also making their way toward the hotel.

That man was none other than Bai Yi’s class monitor back from her school days—Lin Guangyao.

One had to give it to Lin Guangyao; his will to survive was as tenacious as cockroaches.

His legs had been broken at the Golden Age Clubhouse; he had suffered great humiliation at Li Zhenghui’s birthday dinner; his face had been viciously slapped by Lin Fan back at Mount Teetotum’s circuit track.

Despite all that, he still appeared alive and kicking in front of Lin Fan.

“Tsk! Bai Yi, I can see that your life has been regressing! Let’s not talk about the fact that you don’t want to divorce a good-for-nothing man like him. How could you actually bring him to the dinner hosted by Young Master Leng Bufan? Aren’t you worried that he will get angry?” Lin Guangyao challenged Bai Yi with amusement.

Bai Yi frowned as fury flashed in her beautiful eyes before she retorted, “Lin Fan is my husband, naturally he’ll be with me wherever I go! So it’s none of your business, Guangyao!”

What she said instantly made Lin Guangyao’s face flush red.

After all, he used to pursue Bai Yi for many years back then. Therefore, the jealousy in him grew even more intense when he saw how fervently Bai Yi defended Lin Fan.

Before Lin Guangyao could start another round of disparaging remarks, other sarcastic voices could be heard.

“Why, my cousin, I do agree with what Lin Guangyao said! Bringing your husband with you is just going to ruin the image of your New Bai Family Group!”

Following that remark, a couple approached, and they were none other than Bai Yifan and his female companion.

From the other corner, another voice rang out, “Indeed, Bai Yi, everyone can see that Lin Fan is humiliating your New Bai Family Group!”

Following the voice, another couple walked over; they were Bai Yi’s cousin Shen Jian, the Young Master of the Shen Family, and his female companion.

At the appearance of the three men, Bai Yi’s gorgeous face became more and more upset.

She never expected that the day would turn out to be full of hitches as to bump into three enemies as soon as she arrived at the hotel.

Shen Jian!

Bai Yifan!

Lin Guangyao!

Looking at the three couples, Bai Yi's gorgeous face darkened.

Who would have expected that she would bump into her three enemies before she even stepped into the hotel.

As for Lin Guangyao and the other two, they wore gleeful smiles on their faces after discovering their allies.

Sizing Bai Yi and Lin Fan up, they were especially overjoyed when they noticed the casual attire Lin Fan was wearing.

"Hahaha... Bai Yi, is your new company having financial issues? Just look at Lin Fan. How can he dress so shabbily and attend such an important event?"

As Bai Yifan was talking, he fished out his wallet and took out two red notes from it before tossing them in front of Lin Fan. "Take it! Lin Fan, just use the money to buy some clothes from the roadside stalls! At least, they would be better than what you're wearing now! After all, you are the son-in-law of the Bai Family and you shouldn't become everyone's laughing stock!"

The two red notes floated in the air before they slowly landed beside Lin Fan's feet.

Lin Fan's eyes turned icy in response to his remarks. Before he could reply, Shen Jian and Lin Guangyao started taunting him amidst laughter, "Hahaha... That's right! Lin Fan, in any case, you are the husband of my cousin! Take this, I'll sponsor you 200!"

*"Tsk, tsk!*Lin Fan, since I was Bai Yi's class monitor, I too will sponsor you 200!"

At that moment, another four red notes slowly fell to the ground beside Lin Fan's feet.

It was outright humiliation.

Bai Yi's pretty face was brimming with intense fury.

Just as she was about to reproach the three men, she found to her astonishment that Lin Fan was not angry at all. Instead, he bent down with a grin on his face and picked up the six red notes on the ground. "Hey guys, thanks a lot! By the way, I heard that you need to pay some fees in order to gain access to the hotel. I suppose 600 is enough for that!"

What?! Bai Yi as well as Bai Yifan and the rest never expected that Lin Fan could keep his composure so well.

Entrance fees were required to enter the hotel?
How was that possible?!

That place was just a hotel and they had never heard of a hotel that required fees to be paid before access would be granted.

At that moment, the disdain on the faces of Bai Yifan and the gang grew even more intense as they jeered, “Lin Fan, are you so poor that your mind has gone wonky? Why would the hotel require entrance fees since Young Master Leng is holding a dinner here?”

“That’s right! Lin Fan, the way you’re talking sounds like you’re the owner of Caesar Park Hotel! Hahaha...”

“Tsk! I’ve no idea whether entrance fees are indeed required to enter the hotel. However, I’m afraid you can’t even get past the main door because of how shabbily you’re dressed!”

After all, Caesar Park Hotel was one of the most luxurious hotels in Jiang City.

Anyone who entered the hotel had to dress neatly and smartly; wearing a suit and tie was a standard.

As Lin Fan was wearing casual attire, it was highly unlikely that he could get past the main door of the hotel.

“I can’t get past the main door?” With a subtle grin, Lin Fan raised his eyebrows at the three of them. “Are you guys sure about that?”

“Hahaha... Of course we’re sure. If you can get past the main door of Caesar Park Hotel dressed like that, I, Bai Yifan will—” Bai Yifan was about to make a pledge right then and there.

But before he could continue, a team of people scurried out from the hotel, startling him.

Following that, a red carpet was unrolled on the ground from inside the hotel lobby at flying speed.

Usherettes stood in two rows by both sides of the red carpet, passionate and amiable smiles adorned their beautiful faces.

At the same time, a banner was raised above the main door of the hotel.

A few words were written on the banner, "Welcome Mr. Lin and Miss Bai to the Caesar Park Hotel!"

What?! At the sight of the banner, Bai Yifan, Lin Guangyao and Shen Jian were stunned.

Mr. Lin? Miss Bai? Are they referring to Lin Fan and Bai Yi? How is that possible? The three men's faces were filled with shock and confusion.

Tip-tap! Tip-tap! At this time, the sound of uniform footsteps came from the inside of the hotel and several stern-looking middle-aged men dressed in suits walked out of the hotel.

"That is the boss of Caesar Park Hotel, Zhou Wanshan! Oh my God, d-did he actually come out to welcome the guest personally?" Lin Guangyao and the other two were so shocked that their mouths hung agape.

They knew that Zhou Wanshan was a highly reputable big shot in Jiang City.

Other than big shots like Xu Tianlong and the rest, no one else was deemed worthy of his respect.

It was impossible that he would personally come out to welcome a guest.

However, it was taking place right in front of them.

“Hahaha... Mr. Lin, Miss Bai, welcome!” Together with the members of the hotel management team, Zhou Wanshan approached Lin Fan and Bai Yi.

Each and everyone of them bowed to the two of them with their faces filled with utmost respect. “We only just received word about your arrival, so we quickly came out to welcome the both of you! Please kindly forgive us for any inconveniences caused!”

At that moment, Zhou Wanshan looked extremely humble.

None of them there could believe their eyes. How shocking was that!

The minds of Bai Yifan, Lin Guangyao and Shen Jian were in turmoil.

The way they looked at Lin Fan was as though they were looking at a ghost. What’s going on?

Judging by Lin Fan’s attire alone, he had no right to enter Caesar Park Hotel at all.

However, not only was a banner hung and a red carpet laid out to welcome him, even the boss of the hotel came out to greet him.

It didn’t make sense to them at all.

At that moment, even Bai Yi was dumbfounded.

She had seen Zhou Wanshan before during Shen Jian's engagement ceremony. At that time, the Shen Family arranged a table which was next to the entrance for the four members of her family.

Back then, Zhou Wanshan and Liu Zhen, the number one President of the province, had kept them company and even brought some delicacies from Caesar Park Hotel for them.

At first, Bai Yi thought everything was just a coincidence.

But seeing what had taken place, it did not seem like it.

Could Lin Fan be the reason behind the incident that took place last time and this time too? Bai Yi gaped at her husband as though she was looking at a ghost.

However, it seemed like Lin Fan did not notice everyone's shock around him. Instead, he put on a serene smile in response to Zhou Wanshan and his men's respectful bows before asking, "Mr. Zhou, I just heard someone saying that a man will not be allowed into the Caesar Park Hotel if he is not wearing a suit and tie. Is that true?"

What?! At Lin Fan's nonchalant words, Zhou Wanshan and the rest of the members of the hotel management team turned pale in fright.

Quickly wiping away the sweat on their foreheads, they replied, "Mr. Lin, you're joking. The rule only applies to everyone except you!"

Lin Guangyao and the other two were thunderstruck at that exclamation.

Not only that, Lin Fan continued with a grin on his face, "I also heard that your hotel will be requiring entrance fees for the dinner tonight, is that right? Here's 600. This is the entrance fee for both of us!"

At the sight of the six red notes handed over by Lin Fan, Zhou Wanshan was stunned for a brief moment before he braced himself to take it.

Only then did Lin Fan speak with a wide smile on his face, "It will be up to you, Mr. Zhou, to decide the amount required for these rich people!"

Eh? It seemed like there was an underlying meaning behind his words.

When Zhou Wanshan noticed how bleak Lin Guangyao and the gang looked, he immediately understood what Lin Fan meant.

Quickly, he nodded his head and replied, "Don't worry, Mr. Lin. Our hotel will certainly charge a fair and just amount!"

When they heard his words, the expressions on the faces of Bai Yifan and the gang took a drastic change.

Even a fool could tell that the whole entrance fees thing was purely what Lin Fan wanted.

However, even more shockingly, Zhou Wanshan had actually acceded to Lin Fan's wishes. What on earth is going on?

Bai Yifan and the other two were perplexed.

Lin Fan then turned around and flashed them a crooked smile before thanking them, “Yifan, Jian and Guangyao, thank you for sponsoring our entrance fees! I’ll see all of you at the dinner later!”

With that, Lin Fan dragged Bai Yi, who was very confused, into Caesar Park Hotel.

As the two of them walked past, the usherettes bowed respectfully in unison and greeted, “A very warm welcome to Mr. Lin and Miss Bai!”

...

Their loud and respectful greetings were mind blowing.

At that moment, it seemed like Lin Fan and Bai Yi were the host of the event tonight instead of Young Master Leng.

What was more, Bai Yifan and the other two saw to their astonishment that the usherettes quickly rolled up the hundred-meter-long red carpet and kept the banner away right after Lin Fan and Bai Yi entered the hotel.

It seemed like both the carpet and the banner had been prepared exclusively for Lin Fan and Bai Yi.

“H-How is that possible?!”

Lin Guangyao gulped down a large mouthful of saliva; it was his first time seeing Caesar Park Hotel prepare such an extensive welcoming ceremony for a guest.

Moreover, that guest was Lin Fan whom he greatly despised. As such, it did not make sense to him at all.

“Let’s go inside then!” Bai Yifan suggested, his face looking upset. He then made his way toward the hotel together with his female companion.

At that moment, a cold voice rang out, making Bai Yifan shudder, “Mr. Bai, please pay the entrance fees!”

He saw Zhou Wanshan and the hotel management team blocking their way, hostile eyes staring unflinchingly at them.

Did they really need to pay entrance fees?

Bai Yifan’s face turned extremely sour.

Reluctantly, he shot a glare at Zhou Wanshan before bracing himself to fish out another six red notes from his wallet which he handed to Zhou Wanshan.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Bai. The entrance fees for you guys are... 60,000! We only accept cash and will not accept payment through online transfer.”

What? Bai Yifan’s anger hit the roof following that sentence.

He could not believe they had to pay sixty thousand while Lin Fan and Bai Yi only paid six hundred.

“Mr. Zhou, have you gotten it wrong? Just now, Lin Fan only paid you six hundred!” Bai Yifan challenged as he glared at Zhou Wanshan, his face extremely pale.

In response to that, Zhou Wanshan scoffed before answering, “Just now, Mr. Lin made it very clear that you guys are rich! Since you guys are loaded, it goes without saying that your entrance fees should at least be a hundred times more than what Mr. Lin has paid!”

Bai Yifan, Shen Jian and Lin Guangyao’s faces turned ashen at what he said. This is extortion!

It never occurred to them that they would be blackmailed and treated by the Caesar Park Hotel with such hostility just because they had humiliated Lin Fan.

Seeing how Zhou Wanshan and his men were ready to chase them away if they did not fork out the money, they reluctantly started to make calls to arrange for someone to send the money to them.

After all, they could not afford to offend Zhou Wanshan.

Furthermore, it was imperative they attend the dinner hosted by Young Master Leng.

Although they had been duped, the only thing they could do was swallow the bitter pill.

Just as they finished making their calls, Zhou Wanshan’s voice rang out once again. “An extra 10,000 will be charged for each minute the fees are paid late.”

Damn it... Upon listening to him, Bai Yifan, Lin Guangyao and Shen Jian cursed him in their hearts.

Obviously, Zhou Wanshan was deliberately doing that to seek revenge on behalf of Lin Fan.

When they thought of how Lin Fan had used their money to enter the hotel while they were stuck outside because of him, their blood boiled and they nearly spat out blood out of fury.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan was unruffled by everything that had happened.

Following an usherette who respectfully led them in, Bai Yi and him reached the entrance of the banquet hall for the event that night.

“Lin Fan, d-do you know Mr. Zhou personally?” The way Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan was filled with doubt.

It seemed like Lin Fan had anticipated such a question from her and he answered with a grin, “Darling, I am not the one who knows Mr. Zhou. It’s Father! Have you forgotten how respectful Mr. Zhou was to Father last time at the engagement ceremony of the Shen Family? I’m merely borrowing his influence!”

Eh? Because of what he said, Bai Yi was forced to swallow back all her questions.

Lin Fan was right; Zhou Wanshan had indeed been very respectful to her father, Bai Shan, the last time at the Shen Family’s engagement ceremony. On top of that, Liu Zhen, the number one President of the province, and the rest of their men treated her and her father very courteously too.

However, Bai Yi had an inkling that things were not as simple as she thought; everything might have happened because of Lin Fan and not because of her father!

Creak! But just as Bai Yi was deep in thought, the door of the banquet hall opened and the two of them stepped inside.

Inside the hall, a western-styled dinner was ongoing.

Elegant, melodious piano music permeated the entire hall; the numerous young and successful people of Jiang City present were either busy chatting or inviting their companions to a dance.

After Bai Yi and Lin Fan entered the hall, their presence immediately attracted everyone's attention.

The moment the young men saw Bai Yi, their eyes brightened, enthusiasm shining in their eyes.

On the contrary, the moment they laid their eyes on Lin Fan, they knitted their brows, contempt and resentment written all over their faces.

"Hehehe... Bai Yi, my bestie! You're finally here!" At that moment, a light and airy chuckle was heard.

From the middle of the hall, a couple was walking briskly toward Lin Fan and Bai Yi; the woman was Zhou Nan, while the man was the host of the dinner—Leng Bufan!

As the couple walked toward Bai Yi and Lin Fan, the guests around them automatically made way for them. Each and everyone of them was looking at the couple in an extremely bootlicking and adulatory way.

“Haha! Bai Yi, my bestie, I knew you would come!”

The lady had an extremely gorgeous face; her mesmerizing eyes were so alluring and attractive that it looked like it could see into one’s soul. Wearing a seductive shade of lipstick, she gave off an even more captivating aura.

She was none other than Zhou Nan!

Back in their school days, she was closest to Xu Yanhong while Bai Yi was the girl she was most jealous of.

“Zhou Nan, i-it has been a long time!”

Bai Yi laughed dryly; her attractive face looked rather awkward because she was not used to being treated by Zhou Nan with such enthusiasm.

Standing next to Zhou Nan was a young man with a fair complexion.

He exuded an exceptionally regal aura, and the custom-made Italian suit he was wearing made him look like a young rich master who came from a distinguished family.

He was the host of the dinner tonight—Leng Bufan.

When Leng Bufan saw Bai Yi, his arrogant eyes were immediately filled with intense admiration.

Being a Casanova, Leng Bufan had come across numerous beauties before.

But in terms of appearance and demeanor, Bai Yi was by far the most attractive lady he had ever seen.

Even his girlfriend, Zhou Nan, appeared to be much inferior in comparison to Bai Yi.

At the sight of Bai Yi, Leng Bufan immediately broke into a wide grin as he strolled toward her and offered her his hand. "The prettiest female President in Jiang City! You're even prettier in person! Nice to meet you, President Bai. My name is Leng Bufan!"

He spoke with such confidence that gave off an immensely condescending aura even though he did not even reveal further details about his identity.

Bai Yi felt slightly awkward, but she forced herself to shake his hand. "Nice to meet you, I'm Bai Yi."

After briefly shaking Leng Bufan's palm, Bai Yi was ready to take back her hand.

However, the corner of Leng Bufan's mouth revealed a wicked smile while his heart jolted when he felt the smoothness of her hand.

At that moment, he kept her hand in his tight grasp and was unwilling to loosen his hold.

*Eh?*The air between the four of them became sli ghtly awkward and frosty.

A trace of jealousy flashed through Zhou Nan's pretty face whereas Lin Fan's eyes turned slightly cold.

"Young Master Leng, please behave yourself," Bai Yi warned Leng Bufan, her pretty face darkening.

Only then did Leng Bufan loosen his hold with much regret, thereupon he apologized, "I'm so sorry. I was distracted by your beauty! I'm deeply sorry about that!"

As he was talking, he lifted his hand to his nose and drew in a deep breath as though he was trying to take a whiff of the smell of Bai Yi's hand.

There was not a trace of shamelessness on his face.

At that, Lin Fan's face turned even gloomier.

Obviously, he could tell that Young Master Leng was interested in Bai Yi.

"Bai Yi, is this your husband?" Zhou Nan's gaze averted, thereupon she looked at Lin Fan who was standing next to Bai Yi.

After noticing Lin Fan's casual attire, abhorrence filled Zhou Nan's eyes. She even lightly covered her nose as if she was scared that there would be a stench coming from Lin Fan's body.

"T-That's right! He is my husband, Lin Fan," Bai Yi said matter-of-factly, her face looking slightly pale.

Only then did Leng Bufan's eyes move away from Bai Yi.

Looking at Lin Fan and the clothes he was wearing, his mouth curled upward and he scoffed, "Tsk tsk! Miss Bai Yi, your husband's name is quite fitting for him! Since his name sounds plain, it's a great match to his attire! Lin Fan, a plain man! Hahaha..."

Leng Bufan spoke like he was joking and he burst out laughing after he finished speaking.

After listening to what he said, the young and successful people of Jiang City standing nearby all followed suit and started laughing heartily, seizing the chance to please Leng Bufan.

"Hahaha... President Bai, tonight's dinner is such a grand event, but your husband is really underdressed!"

"Sigh! Between Lin Fan and Leng Bufan, obviously Young Master Bufan is the true protagonist while Lin Fan is at most a clown!"

"Sigh... What a waste for President Bai to have married him! In my opinion, President Bai and Young Master Leng are a much better match!"

A racket ensued.

Among the voices, most of them were flatteries toward Leng Bufan as well as disparaging remarks toward Lin Fan.

Bai Yi seethed when she heard those remarks. She then grabbed Lin Fan's hand before yelling at all of them with a cold face, "It's a shame that all of you can't see the good in my husband. I, for one, am very satisfied with how my husband dresses himself and that's all that matters!"

Bai Yi said those things without any hesitation.

Her words were like vicious slaps that landed on the faces of the guests, and each and everyone of them suddenly felt a burning sensation on their faces.

Obviously, they never expected Bai Yi, the gorgeous female president of a company, would defend her useless husband so vehemently.

Even so, Bai Yi did not care the least bit about the awful expressions of the guests. Tugging Lin Fan along, she made her way toward a corner of the banquet hall.

It was apparent that she had no intention to interact with the rest of the guests.

In response to that, there was not a trace of discontent in Leng Bufan's eyes. On the contrary, his eyes looked even more wicked and excited as though he had just spotted a mouthwatering prey.

"Zhou Nan, that old classmate of yours is not only intelligent and pretty, she even has an arrogant personality which I adore! Hahaha... She is definitely going to be mine!" Licking his lips, Leng Bufan told Zhou Nan who stood next to him.

He expressed his admiration without any reservation and hesitation at all.

Even though his girlfriend, Zhou Nan, was right by his side, he did not even attempt to hide his interest toward Bai Yi.

Zhou Nan's face paled at his exclamation, but she knew very well that everything she owned so far was given by Leng Bufan. Therefore, she could only accede to all of his requests.

"Dear, don't you worry! I will definitely come up with some ways to help you get that sl*t!" Zhou Nan offered with a grin as she held Leng Bufan's arm.

Leng Bufan appeared to be extremely satisfied with her answer.

He smacked her butt forcefully with his large palm and laughed evilly. "Tonight, I will have that woman! And the three of us could have a threesome! From then on, the two of you would really become sisters! Hahaha..."

At the thought of Bai Yi trapped under him with her cold yet gorgeous face, Leng Bufan felt a blazing fire inside him.

Creak! Just as the two of them were busy chatting, the door to the banquet hall opened once again.

Bai Yifan, Lin Guangyao and Shen Jian were seen walking into the hall together with their female companions.

However, their faces looked stormy as though they had just eaten sh*t; anger and frustration radiated from their body.

Their entrance made all the guests stunned.

“Eh? Young Master Bai! Young Master Shen! What happened to the two of you? Did someone offend you guys?” the many guests who were nearby greeted them.

Before they could answer them, the guest who walked into the hall right after them said with a grin, “Hahaha... let me break some interesting news to you guys! Just now when the three of them tried to get into the hotel, the boss of the hotel, Zhou Wanshan, actually asked them to pay an entrance fee, and it came up to around 200,000!”

“That’s right! I saw it with my own eyes that Zhou Wanshan was blocking their way! At last, the three of them were at their wits’ end and were forced to ask someone to send money to them! Hahaha...”

What?! What they said caused a stir throughout the entire banquet hall.

Only then did everyone realize why the three of them looked so angry.

However, they were more interested as to why the boss of the hotel, Zhou Wanshan, had only asked the three of them to pay an entrance fee.

Looking at the mocking faces around them, their already bad mood worsened.

After casting a glare at Lin Fan and his wife who were sitting at a table at the corner of the hall, they found a corner and plopped down.

Before long, most of the guests had arrived.

When the hall was almost full, the music halted and the emcee walked to the middle of the hall amidst the cheers of the guests, mic in hand. "Everyone, settle down! Tonight, all the young and successful figures in Jiang City have gathered here. Before we continue, let's all express our gratitude to the organizer of tonight's event—Young Master Leng Bufan!"

The emcee's tone was full of flattery.

Clap! Clap! Clap! At that, all the guests gave him a thunderous round of applause.

All of them had bright and simpering smiles on their faces.

The emcee then waved his hand and the applause slowly died down.

Only then did the emcee look at Leng Bufan and said respectfully, "Alright. Let us welcome the organizer of the dinner tonight—Young Master Leng Bufan—to give his speech!"

Clap! Clap! Clap! Following his words, another round of applause began.

Fawning over Leng Bufan, many guests started yelling his name.

“Young Master Leng!”

“Young Master Leng!”

“Young Master Leng!”

Their cheers stroked Leng Bufan’s ego, making him feel satisfied.

With his nose held high in the air, he cruised toward the middle of the stage and waved at the guests. Immediately, all the guests started cheering even more enthusiastically.

“Alright, everyone, settle down!” Looking pleased with himself, Leng Bufan continued, “First and foremost, I would like to thank each and everyone of you for attending this dinner tonight! Everyone here is extremely talented, especially Miss Bai Yi, who is the crème de la crème. Not only is she the prettiest female President in Jiang City, she is, in my opinion, also the prettiest female President in the entire Jiangnan Province!”

As Leng Bufan started complimenting Bai Yi right after he got onstage, it created a stir among the guests and they wolf-called in response.

Obviously, they were trying to create a romantic ambience for Leng Bufan and Bai Yi.

“Everyone here is aware that the Golden Age Group is going to start a new project in Jiang City. Other than that, we will choose a company in the city to carry out a joint venture!”

Clamor! Following what he said, the guests became even more excited.

The Golden Age Group was going to have a collaboration with one of the companies in Jiang City!

It was great news to all the companies in Jiang City.

It was especially so because everyone knew that anyone who managed to join forces with the Golden Age Group would be able to kickstart a marvelous and bright future.

At that moment, everyone looked at Bai Yi.

Since Leng Bufan had commended Bai Yi earlier, that meant it was highly likely that the New Bai Family Group would be the lucky one.

As they were looking at Bai Yi, their eyes were laden with envy and jealousy.

To all of them, being able to catch Leng Bufan's fancy was like winning the jackpot.

"Well, let the dance begin! Everyone is encouraged to invite the partner that they fancy!" Without prolonging his speech, he made the declaration, and mellow music played in the hall at once.

Amidst the music, one young man after another brought their partners to the dance floor in the middle of the hall and began to dance.

However, Leng Bufan did not invite his own girlfriend, Zhou Nan, and instead made his way to Bai Yi at a leisurely pace.

Gentlemanly, he bent down and extended his hand toward Bai Yi. "Miss Bai Yi, may I have the honor of dancing with you?"

What?! The expression on Bai Yi's face changed slightly as she never expected that Leng Bufan would be so cocky and invite her despite knowing that her husband was right beside her.

What he did was an insult to both her and Lin Fan.

"Sorry, I'm not interested!" Intense resentment shone in Bai Yi's eyes. Immediately, she reached out and grabbed Lin Fan's arm.

Eh? What took place made Leng Bufan stiffen slightly.

It never occurred to him that Bai Yi would refuse him despite having made his intentions so obvious.

After all, as long as she struck up a relationship with him, the New Bai Family Group would definitely become the lucky one and land the opportunity to collaborate with his company.

Isn't she afraid of offending me and losing the chance to collaborate with the Golden Age Group? At that thought, Leng Bufan could not help but shoot a glare at Lin Fan.

After all, he had lost to a man who was famous for being a useless live-in son-in-law; that was extremely humiliating to Leng Bufan.

Although he was consumed with rage, he did not lose his temper. Instead, he kept his eyes fixed on Lin Fan and suggested slyly, “Lin Fan, how about we have a talk?”

Have a talk? A trace of concern emerged on Bai Yi’s pretty face when she heard him. She then squeezed Lin Fan’s arm tighter, signaling him not to agree to Leng Bufan’s request.

However, Lin Fan responded with a faint smile and agreed, “Okay!”

With that, Lin Fan patted Bai Yi’s hand, hinting at her not to worry before walking toward a corner of the hall with Leng Bufan.

In response to the turn of events, Zhou Nan strolled toward Bai Yi and struck up a conversation with her.

Right then, the atmosphere in the hall was rather bizarre.

Almost everyone was glancing at Lin Fan and Leng Bufan while trying not to be too obvious, curious as to what the two were talking about.

When they reached the corner, what Leng Bufan said immediately made Lin Fan’s face darken. “Lin Fan, name your price; I want your woman!”

I want your woman...

Leng Bufan uttered that sentence with a domineering and haughty attitude. On top of that, he was staring at Lin Fan in a condescending way as though he was looking down at some insects crawling on the ground.

Lin Fan narrowed his eyes after he heard him. He was surprised at how arrogant and imperious Leng Bufan was.

“5 million!” Staring at Lin Fan unflinchingly, Leng Bufan offered, the corners of his mouth curling upward into a grin.

Five million—that was a staggering sum that ordinary folk would not be able to earn even if they worked for their entire life.

From what Leng Bufan heard, the useless son-in-law who stood in front of him was leading an idle life at the Bai Family’s house.

He was unemployed and did not have any income.

Thus, he was sure that Lin Fan would be tempted by the large sum.

At that moment, Leng Bufan’s face was imbued with intense arrogance and confidence as he waited for Lin Fan to take his offer.

Yet, what he received in return was silence.

With a frown, Leng Bufan realized that Lin Fan remained silent and was staring at him as though he was looking at a retarded man.

Eh? "Too little?"

Disdain flashed through Leng Bufan's eyes before he added, "In that case, I'll offer you an extra 5 million! Let me have Bai Yi for 10 million. What do you think?"

10 million! Surely, that was a mind boggling sum which would entice any man.

Leng Bufan was confident that no man would be able to resist after hearing his offer.

However, he was once again disappointed; Lin Fan remained wordless as his eyes turned icier and icier.

"Still think it's too little?" With a scoff, Leng Bufan could not help but jeer, "Hmph! Lin Fan, everyone in Jiang City knows you are a useless husband! But what they don't know is that you're such a greedy guy! Well, I can satisfy your greed; I'll offer you 20 million to get a divorce with Bai Yi tomorrow and leave her for good!"

To be frank, Leng Bufan had paid a high price for Bai Yi.

Offering 20 million just for a woman was insane for many of the young and rich guys.

But, the manner Leng Bufan was treating Lin Fan looked more like he was dealing with a beggar.

Yet, there was still no response from Lin Fan. Instead, he stared at Leng Bufan as though he was an idiot, eyes filled with ridicule and disdain.

“You!” Leng Bufan was infuriated at Lin Fan’s indifferent gaze. As his handsome face became vicious, he warned, “Very well! It seems like you do not appreciate my goodwill. In that case, don’t blame me for making your life difficult!”

With that, Leng Bufan let out a wicked sneer before snapping his fingers. It seemed like it was a signal.

Following the snap of his fingers, Zhou Nan, who was chatting with Bai Yi, appeared to be in cahoots with Leng Bufan. Immediately, she let out a squeal, “Argh! My ruby diamond ring is missing! Oh my God, my expensive ruby diamond ring! Thief! There is a thief here!”

Gasp! Zhou Nan’s shriek was extremely loud, shocking all the guests in the hall at once.

As such, the music came to a sudden halt.

All the guests stopped dancing and immediately gathered around Zhou Nan.

After all, Zhou Nan was Leng Bufan’s girlfriend as well as the hostess of the dinner tonight. The loss of her diamond ring was definitely a significant incident.

“Miss Zhou, why would your ring go missing? Was it stolen by someone?”

“Exactly. Miss Zhou, you have to do a thorough investigation! If it was stolen, you must find out who’s the thief!”

“Who’s the rascal who actually dares to steal the diamond ring of Young Master Leng's girlfriend at the dinner held by him?!"

Criticisms and aspersions coming from the young guests reverberated throughout the entire hall.

After listening to their comments, Zhou Nan became furious. "Young Master Leng bought the ruby diamond ring for me with 10 million and it was supposed to be our engagement ring! Who was actually bold enough to steal my ring?!"

As she was talking, she glared at Bai Yi before asserting viciously, "Bai Yi, my ring was still with me when I came to look for you earlier, but it went missing right after I chatted with you! Spit it out! Did you steal my ring?!"

What?! Bai Yi was befuddled when she heard Zhou Nan.

Bai Yi did not notice the existence of her ring at all from the start when she walked over to have a chat with her. How could she be the thief?

Moreover, she was never interested in jewelry.

Noticing how everyone was looking at her suspiciously, Bai Yi panicked and denied, "Zhou Nan, I-I didn't steal your ring! I didn't..." Bai Yi's gorgeous face was as white as a sheet.

Before she could finish, Zhou Nan's shriek interrupted her, "Bai Yi, stop putting on an act! You were admiring my diamond ring when I was sitting there just now! In the blink of an eye, my ring has gone missing and only the two of us are here. If it wasn't you, are you saying that I stole my own ring?!"

What Zhou Nan said caused a great stir in the crowd.

Almost all the rich young people there took Zhou Nan's side and immediately reproached Bai Yi harshly.

"Bai Yi, no matter what, you are still a President of a company. I can't believe you actually committed theft! You have brought disgrace to all the citizens of Jiang City!"

"Exactly! You have good looks, but I'm surprised you can actually do something so shady! How humiliating!"

"Bai Yi, although your husband cannot afford a diamond, Young Master Leng can! Since Young Master Leng fancies you so much, you could have just asked him to send you one as a gift. Why did you have to steal it?"

She was showered with criticisms, admonishments and mockeries.

All because of Zhou Nan's accusation, everyone started pointing fingers at Bai Yi.

Obviously, they already jumped to the conclusion that Bai Yi was the thief.

As such, Bai Yi was flummoxed at their reactions.

She had a vague feeling that something was fishy about the entire incident, and that Zhou Nan was framing her on purpose. Yet, no matter how hard she tried to explain, all of them refused to listen to her.

Anxiety started to seep into Bai Yi's mind, thereupon her beautiful eyes teared up, making her look even more vulnerable and helpless.

Tip-tap, tip-tap!

At this time, Leng Bufan stormed over with a vicious look on his face and roared, "Guards!"

Following his command, the door to the banquet hall was pushed open and six burly men in black charged into the hall like tigers which were just released from captivity.

The six men exuded an icy and menacing aura. Looking like six famished wolves as they barged into the hall, their scary auras caused the temperature inside the hall to drop a few degrees.

The guests that were in their way staggered backward as the six men stormed through, and they reached Leng Bufan in seconds.

At the sight of the six men, the faces of the guests took a drastic turn.

“Eh? Those men look familiar; it seems like I’ve seen them somewhere before! Right, they are the Lingnan Menace Six!”

“The Lingnan Menace Six? Oh my God, those vicious men? W-Why are they here?”

“Exactly. Those six men once dominated the underground world of Jiangnan Province ten years ago. I thought they went missing?”

...

The Lingnan Menace Six! They were well-known and almost everyone who was familiar with the underground world of Jiangnan Province had heard of them.

They were the six ruthless men who had lorded over the Jiangnan Province ten years ago.

The six of them were buddies who had marvelous martial arts skills. Ever since they left the orphanage, they fought their way to success in the underground world mainly with violence.

Their time in the underground world was filled with brutality, and the six buddies displayed exceptional talent. From seizing a street to slowly occupying an entire city, they finally dominated the entire Jiangnan Province, bringing bloodshed wherever they went.

Ten years ago, just mentioning the name Lingnan Menace Six could make toddlers stop crying.

However, as of today, as the crowd slowly recognized the six men in black, the faces of all the guests became ones of fright. They quickly retreated to the side for fear of being dragged into the mess.

As for Leng Bufan, he just smiled and announced, "Perhaps everyone had no idea about this. Ten years ago, the Lingnan Menace Six became the disciples of my grandfather, Leng Aotian!"

Leng Aotian! The mention of that name caused everyone to shudder.

Indeed, Leng Aotian was one of the two most experienced ultimate Grandmasters of Jiangnan Province who had gone into seclusion.

However, nobody knew that Leng Bufan was Grandmaster Leng Aotian's eldest grandson!

At that moment, everyone in the hall was deeply shaken.

The young and successful people of Jiang City were all staring at Leng Bufan as though he was the ultimate golden boy of the city; adulatory words and smiles instantly filled the entire hall.

"Oh my God! Young Master Leng, only now did we realize that not only are you the son of Mr. Leng Kang, the president of Golden Age Group, you are also the eldest grandson of Grandmaster Leng! How shocking!"

"You're the eldest grandson of an ultimate Grandmaster! No wonder the Lingnan Menace Six, who once dominated Jiangnan Province, are your bodyguards!"

“Gosh! If this news about Young Master Leng’s identity gets out, it will definitely shock the Jiangnan Province! After all, with both Golden Age Group and Grandmaster Leng backing you, who would dare cross you?!”

All the guests were overwhelmed with fear and astonishment.

Bai Yifan, Shen Jian as well as all the other guests were looking at Leng Bufan with even more reverence.

After hearing that news, Bai Yi’s face turned pale and she became stiff as though she had just been struck by lightning. I’m doomed...

At first, she assumed Zhou Nan only got herself a Young Master of the Golden Age Group as her boyfriend. Little did she know, the Young Master had another scary identity.

Cold sweat trickled from her forehead continuously and she was so anxious that she almost burst out crying.

Leng Bufan was so used to receiving flattering comments that he was unfazed by the guests around him. However, he started looking at Bai Yi with even more enthusiasm.

“Young Master! We await your instructions!” The Lingnan Menace Six bowed to Leng Bufan in unison.

In response, Leng Bufan displayed an unusually wicked grin and commanded, “All of you, run a pat-down search on that lady. I’m sure the ruby diamond ring is with her! Don't leave any area untouched!"

What?! A pat-down search? What he said shocked all the guests around him, including Bai Yi.

After all, Bai Yi was a woman, and she was accredited as the prettiest female President of a company in Jiang City.

Wasn't running a pat-down search on her akin to molestation?

Regardless of whether the ruby diamond ring could be found on her or not, Bai Yi would suffer so great a humiliation that she would be too embarrassed to lead her life in the future.

At that thought, Bai Yi's expression turned into one of despair and she exclaimed, "I didn't... I'm not the thief! All of you are wrongly pinning the blame on me!"

Bai Yi sounded so weak and vulnerable in her attempt to defend herself.

Yet, the Lingnan Menace Six had no intention to treat her with any leniency. After receiving Leng Bufan's instructions, they advanced on her right away.

At that moment, a cold voice rang out of the blue, "Stop!"

The Lingnan Menace Six suddenly felt chills run down their spines as though they had been targeted by a wild beast. As such, they stopped dead in their tracks.

All of them turned to look at the source of the voice.

To their astonishment, the person who stopped them was... Lin Fan.

"L-Lin Fan!" Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan as though she had spotted her savior; a layer of moisture formed over her mesmerizing eyes.

Only Lin Fan could give her such a sense of security; only he could save her from falling into despair.

"Darling, don't be afraid! I'll deal with everything!" Lin Fan strided toward Bai Yi and drew her into his arms, consoling her.

Yet, what he said caused a commotion among the guests. He will deal with everything?

"Hahaha... Lin Fan, who do you think you are?! Your wife stole someone's ruby diamond ring. Are you going to magically conjure another one to replace it?"

"Tsk, you're just a useless man who married into your wife's family. Why are you putting up such an act?!"

"Let's all just wait and see! That lad is trying to get himself killed! I don't believe he has any means to deal with the situation!"

Bai Yifan, Shen Jian and the other young and successful people of Jiang City looked at Lin Fan with eyes filled with derision.

After all, Lin Fan was up against Grandmaster Leng Aotian's eldest grandson, Leng Bufan, as well as the Lingnan Menace Six who had once ruled Jiangnan Province.

He, on the other hand, was just a live-in son-in-law. Wasn't he trying to get himself killed?

Not only the guests, even Leng Bufan's eyes were overflowing with condescension. "Lad, are you going to stop us?"

Stop them? Shaking his head slightly, Lin Fan scoffed. "I'm not going to stop you guys from searching for the ruby diamond ring. But, it's not with my wife!"

What?! What Lin Fan said stunned everyone, especially Zhou Nan as her eyes were laden with intense contempt.

How's it possible that the ring is not with Bai Yi? After Zhou Nan received Leng Bufan's signal, she immediately removed her ring and slipped it into Bai Yi's pocket.

It was done without anyone's knowledge.

What was more, Bai Yi was constantly under her supervision and she was sure that Bai Yi did not notice what she had done.

She was completely sure that the ring was still inside her pocket, no doubt about that.

Yet, unbeknownst to Zhou Nan, the moment Lin Fan wrapped his arms around Bai Yi, he deftly reached for the ring and took it from Bai Yi's pocket.

With an icy grin, Lin Fan suddenly pointed at Zhou Nan and announced, "The ring is with her!"

“The ring is on her!” Nobody noticed that a red silhouette quickly flew from Lin Fan’s palm into Zhou Nan’s pocket, and even the Lingnan Menace Six only saw a flash of red for a fraction of a second. Everyone thought they saw things, so they didn’t bother what that was.

Everyone around them gasped in disbelief. Is the ring with Zhou Nan? Impossible! Zhou Nan said she was wearing it, but then it disappeared. If she really is keeping it, she must know! Everyone looked at Lin Fan as if he was an idiot, especially Zhou Nan, who was the most agitated among them.

She then glared at Lin Fan and cursed, “What the f*ck are you talking about, brat?! I have never taken the ring off, so how can I have it? Your wife must have stolen it! Hey you, get up there and chase this nonsensical trash away and search that sl*t! I want to get my ring back even if you have to strip her naked!” Zhou Nan looked furious as she demanded viciously.

Lingnan Menace Six didn’t hesitate, and they nodded at Zhou Nan while Yi Xiong, the vanguard, hurled a punch at Lin Fan. “Get out of here, kid!” As he growled, everyone heard the buzz as Yi Xiong’s iron fist made its way toward Lin Fan’s chest.

It was quick, strong, and deliberate. Everyone thought this punch was like a sledgehammer that could even smash a steel plate into pieces.

“Oh no! This kid is going to be killed by Yi Xiong’s punch!”

“That’s a terrifying punch! I don’t think even Jiangnan’s top martial artist, Mr. Kong Sheng, can take that!”

The people around them had seen a lot in their lives, and many of them had even seen Mr. Kong Sheng, Jiangnan’s top martial artist, in action. However, this punch’s force was above Mr. Kong Sheng’s, and that’s why Yi Xiong was, without a doubt, a Grandmaster.

He’s finished... Everyone could imagine Lin Fan’s ribs getting broken by this punch, and he would be sent flying backward. However, what happened shocked them to their cores. Lin Fan didn’t dodge as he faced this punch directly; instead, he did the unthinkable—he punched back.

He’s crazy! Everyone was shocked.

He’s taking it head-on?

Is this guy mad? Everyone looked at this match in horror, and they looked at Lin Fan as if he was a manic idiot, including Bai Yifan, Shen Jian, and Lin Guangyao. They despised Lin Fan, and when they saw him uselessly trying to face Yi Xiong’s punch head-on, they had ecstatic looks on their faces.

“He’s an idiot! His arm is finished!”

“Yeah, that’s one of the Lingnan Menace Six! They controlled almost all of Jiangnan’s underworld ten years ago! They are the bigshot among the bigshots!”

“Hahaha! This dumba is done!”

The trio guffawed, and they laughed even louder when they saw Yi Xiong being enraged by Lin Fan's counterattack.

"Die!" He roared viciously and increased the force of his iron punch. The punch was so violent it could surely smash a thick steel plate into pieces with just one strike.

Thump!

Crack!

It didn't take even a moment for Yi Xiong and Lin Fan's fist to crash into each other. In an instant, a dull thud was followed by a crisp sound of something snapping, and the sound filled the whole place.

"L-Lin Fan!" Bai Yi almost fainted from the shock because she thought that it was the sound of Lin Fan's arm snapping. In fact, she wasn't the only one with that thought, as when they heard the sound of snapping bones, Leng Bufan, Zhou Nan, and Bai Yifan's group smiled even more viciously because they thought Lin Fan's arm was destroyed.

"Argh!" Someone screamed in agony and took a few steps back in a panic. However, when they noticed who was the one screaming, the smile on Leng Bufan, Zhou Nan, and Bai Yifan's group froze. They stared ahead of them in horror, and their eyes were dark pools of fear, for the person who retreated was none other than Yi Xiong. As such, everyone appeared petrified.

The more unbelievable fact was that Yi Xiong was as pale as a ghost with horror written all over his face. His wrist hung limply, and it was nothing but an utter mess of flesh and bones, looking like it was struck by lightning. However, that wasn't all of it; Yi Xiong held his smashed fist as he hastily retreated while staring at Lin Fan with a haunted expression.

"How is this possible? H-How can you be as strong as a Grandmaster? I-Impossible!"

"H-How can this be? I-Isn't this guy just a loser?"

"That's Yi Xiong! The man who ruled Jiangnan ten years ago! He's a Grandmaster who's stronger than Old Master Kong Sheng, and Lin Fan ruined him with just a single punch? Is this for real? Or is this an illusion?"

Everyone couldn't help but ramble in shock. Bai Yifan, Shen Jian, and Lin Guangyao stared at one another as they felt a chill running up their spines followed by a series of goosebumps. The man they thought was a mere loser turned out to have a punch mighty enough to make them completely change their opinions on him.

However, at this moment, Lin Fan wasn't bothered by how horrified everyone looked. He simply shook off the blood that had gotten on his hand and smiled eerily at Leng Bufan before asking, "So, can we talk now?"

Leng Bufan shivered when Lin Fan addressed him, and he didn't look too good. "Y-You win, kid! But what if your wife has that ruby ring?" Leng Bufan trusted Zhou Nan's ability, and he believed that the ring was definitely with Bai Yi, so now he had to trick Lin Fan.

Lin Fan didn't seem like he had seen through Leng Bufan's intention, thereupon he suggested with a smile, "You can punish me however you want if the ring is with my wife, but if it's with your girlfriend, she has to kneel and apologize to my wife."

What? Leng Bufan was taken aback because he didn't expect Lin Fan to be this confident, or to be precise, cocky. I get to decide the punishment? Leng Bufan was exhilarated when he imagined how he would punish Lin Fan and Bai Yi after finding the ring on her. "Alright then! It's a deal! Everyone here is a witness!" The people of Jiang City in the surrounding nodded in agreement to be witnesses when Leng Bufan agreed to the terms.

When everything was settled, and the bet was placed, Zhou Nan was grinning from ear to ear. She then glared at Bai Yi and Lin Fan in a mocking manner as if she was looking at a pair of idiots. "Hahaha! Do you see now, Bai Yi? Your husband is a moron! I'm 100 percent sure that the ruby ring is with you! Your husband is losing this bet! Just watch as we teach him a lesson after that! Hahaha!"

Zhou Nan was over the moon; she had been jealous of Bai Yi since their school days, and not to mention that after she appeared, she'd captured Zhou Nan's boyfriend, Leng Bufan's attention. As such, it made Zhou Nan hate her more. Hence, if they could torture Lin Fan, that would be a form of torture toward Bai Yi too, and it was a sight Zhou Nan was dying to witness.

When everyone heard how vicious Zhou Nan was, they could guess what was happening since they weren't that ignorant after all. If Zhou Nan had this level of confidence, she must be 100 percent sure, and to them, that meant Lin Fan was going to lose.

As they thought of this, the people of Jiang City looked at Lin Fan with pity; Bai Yifan's group felt their hearts pounding against their chests, and they were dying to see Lin Fan being tortured after the ring was found on his wife.

"L-Lin Fan!" Bai Yi was also getting nervous because even though she knew she had never taken the ring, Zhou Nan might be sabotaging them. If that was the case, the whole situation could spell disaster for them.

But to everyone's surprise, Lin Fan didn't seem to notice the danger, and he patted Bai Yi's head before turning around to look at Zhou Nan eerily and said, "Since you're this confident, then tell me, which of my wife's pocket is the ring in?"

"Hmph! You just have to cling on until the end, huh? Your wife seemed to have put my ring into her right pocket. Pull that pocket out for everyone to see if you dare!" Zhou Nan looked extremely confident when she declared that it was in Bai Yi's right pocket. Instantly, everyone's sight landed on Bai Yi's pocket once again.

Lin Fan smiled and said calmly, "Darling, pull out your pocket and let them see what's inside." Bai Yi was hesitating, as she was worried that Zhou Nan's ring might really be in her pocket, and if that was so, then she couldn't prove her innocence, and Lin Fan would be harmed. "It's fine, don't worry about it." Lin Fan smiled, and Bai Yi's worries disappeared quickly as if her husband's grin was magical.

Following that, Bai Yi reluctantly pulled out her right shirt pocket. Everyone was on the edge of their seats, especially after she had pulled her pocket out, and something tiny fell from her pocket to the ground.

Ding, ding, ding!

The circular object was the size of a thumb, and when everyone saw it, they assumed that it was the ring. Oh no! Everyone's heart skipped a beat because Lin Fan had lost. Meanwhile, Zhou Nan and Leng Bufan were grinning with joy.

"Hahaha! I told you that you stole my ring, Bai Yi, and yet you're so adamant in denying it, refusing to—hmm?" Zhou Nan was filled with excitement and mockery, but she halted before she could finish as she stared at the thumb-sized object spinning around on the ground in disbelief.

Aside from her, Leng Bufan and Bai Yifan's group's grin were frozen once they saw the thing on the ground clearly. Ding! The object that fell from Bai Yi's pocket had stopped spinning, and it was now laying on the ground. It was circular with the size of a thumb, but it was not the ring; it was a coin.

"I-Impossible!" Her eyes almost popped out of her eye sockets. *How can it be a coin? I put the ruby ring in her right pocket, so how can it be a coin? Are you f*cking kidding me?*

Beside her, Leng Bufan's expression turned stony. Then, he turned to glare at Zhou Nan and said through gritted teeth, "Tell me, what's going on?"

Leng Bufan's tone was so cold that Zhou Nan shivered in fear; she was scared out of her wits. "No! She must have hidden it in some other pockets! Bai Yi, if you have the guts, show us your left shirt pocket and all your other pockets! I know the ruby ring is on you! I can't be wrong!" Zhou Nan screamed at Bai Yi like a madwoman.

When Bai Yi heard this, her face sank. However, she didn't object as she pulled out her pockets one by one, but all of them were empty, and there was no trace of the ring.

Plop! When Bai Yi had pulled out all her pockets and confirmed that the ruby ring wasn't with her, Zhou Nan plopped to the ground, looking as if all her strength had been sapped. She was stunned because she couldn't understand what was going on. I put it in myself, but it disappeared into thin air? Zhou Nan was incredulous, but that wasn't the end of the bet.

"Now that my wife has proven her innocence, it's your turn to prove yours. Pull out all your pockets," Li Fan mocked.

What? Zhou Nan was taken aback, and she looked at Lin

Fan as if he was a fool. “You moron! Do you really think the ring is with me? Fine, challenge accepted! That’s my own ring, so how can I not know if I had put it in my own pocket?” Zhou Nan pulled her pockets out in frustration and panic.

As she pulled out all the empty pockets, Zhou Nan’s hatred toward Lin Fan intensified. “I told you I don’t have it, you—” Before Zhou Nan could finish, she suddenly stopped in the midst of her movement because when she pulled out her last pocket, a crimson object fell out, and Zhou Nan’s eyes widened in shock when she saw the item.

It wasn’t just her; Leng Bufan and Bai Yifan’s group were stunned as they watched the ruby ring bounce on the ground. This was a ring, and there was a clear, beautiful, dazzling diamond embedded on it—this was the ‘missing’ ruby ring.

The room’s air was enveloped in a deathly silence once more. When everyone noticed how horrified Zhou Nan looked after she saw the ruby ring on the floor, all of them had a weird expression as they didn’t expect the ring to actually be with Zhou Nan. “I-Impossible! I left this ring in her—” Zhou Nan quickly covered her mouth halfway through.

Leng Bufan’s face was covered with nothing but anger as he glared at Zhou Nan with bloodthirst. “You useless piece of trash!” Slap! He suddenly slapped Zhou Nan, and a crimson palm mark quickly appeared on Zhou Nan’s cheek. “Kneel, and apologize to Bai Yi! Now!”

Being surrounded by people of Jiang City, regardless of how arrogant Leng Bufan was, he didn't dare to go back on his words because if he did, he would quickly become everyone's laughing stock, even if nobody said a thing now. Zhou Nan was terror-stricken when she noticed how cold Leng Bufan was, and how scalding the pain on her face felt. She quickly picked up the ring and put it on before going up to Bai Yi hesitantly.

Thump! Zhou Nan instantly kneeled down and kowtowed to her. "B-Bai Yi, it's all my fault! I don't know what came over me! I beg you, please don't take this to heart!" Zhou Nan looked unwilling and hateful, but no matter how reluctant she was, she didn't dare to go against Leng Bufan.

When Bai Yi saw the scene before her, she was at a loss of words. She couldn't believe the arrogant Zhou Nan, who had been yelling at her a moment ago, was kneeling before her like a failure just because of Lin Fan's words. "G-Get up, Zhou Nan. I-I don't blame you for this." Bai Yi had a kind heart; she wouldn't have an old friend of hers down on her knees begging her for forgiveness, so she quickly helped Zhou Nan up.

But right after Bai Yi helped her up, cruelty flashed across Leng Bufan's face, thereupon he said coldly, "Alright, now that we have found the ring, then let's get on with one other thing now."

One other thing? Everyone's expression changed upon hearing Leng Bufan's words because they didn't understand what was left to settle. However, they knew things weren't as simple as it was when they noticed how vicious Leng Bufan appeared.

Lin Fan squinted and asked coldly, "What score do you want to settle?"

"Hmph! Score? Don't play dumb with me, kid!" Jealousy and madness welled up in Leng Bufan's eyes. "You injured one of my men, and I need you to make up for that!"

What? Everyone was stunned when they realized Leng Bufan was talking about the matter of Yi Xiong's fist being destroyed. However, Yi Xiong was the one who attacked first, so Lin Fan couldn't be blamed for the former's busted fist. The people of Jiang City were disappointed in Leng Bufan, but nobody dared to stand up for Lin Fan because Leng Bufan's identity scared them.

Instead, Lin Guangyao chimed in, "Yeah, Young Master Leng is right! You injured someone, so you have to pay the price!" Lin Guangyao's hatred for Lin Fan ran deep into his blood, so he wouldn't let go of any opportunity to ruin Lin Fan.

Aside from him, Bai Yifan and Shen Jian despised Lin Fan too, so they supported Leng Bufan.

"Hmph! Those who harm must be harmed! That's the rule!"

The trio was standing on Leng Bufan's side; they wanted to see Lin Fan paying a heavy price for what he did. Bai Yi paled and disappointment welled up in her eyes when she saw the situation. She didn't expect her cousins and her class president to be wicked enough to backstab her husband with every means they could use.

"Lin Fan, you..." Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan with guilt because they wouldn't be in this situation if she hadn't brought him along due to her fear of offending Zhou Nan. However, to her surprise, Lin Fan appeared collected without a hint of unease or panic.

He patted Bai Yi's arm before smiling at Leng Bufan freakishly. "What do you want to do?"

"Easy!" Leng Bufan pointed at the Lingnan Menace Six with an evil smile. "You injured Yi Xiong with one punch, so you'll have to fight the remaining five members of the Lingnan Menace Six right now!" With that, he cackled viciously and cruelly.

Everyone was in an uproar. Leng Bufan is asking Lin Fan to fight the remaining Lingnan Menace Five by himself? This is... All the people looked at one another, as they had heard that everyone in Lingnan Menace Six was evenly matched. In other words, anyone of the remaining members was no weaker than Yi Xiong. That meant five Grandmasters would be going against Lin Fan; even a fine Grandmaster wouldn't be able to defeat all of them, not to mention Lin Fan alone. Fighting two of them at once would be risky, not to mention all five of them. How can he win? Everyone felt sorry for Lin Fan because going up against the five Menace was the equivalent of suicide, at least that was how they saw it.

Yet, that was not the end. Leng Bufan looked at Bai Yi's desirable figure with lust, and his smile looked evil. "If you win, kid, you can ask me for anything, and I won't say a word of objection; if you lose, you'll have to leave your wife here!"

What? The people of Jiang City were puzzled once again, and now they realized what was actually occurring—Leng Bufan was doing all of this just to get Bai Yi. He started talking to Lin Fan because of Bai Yi; he had Zhou Nan sabotage them because he wanted to get hold of Bai Yi, and now he was troubling Lin Fan because he wanted to get his hands on Bai Yi. The people now had nothing but disrespect for Leng Bufan's behavior, and because of that, they wanted Lin Fan to defeat the five remaining members for the sake of his own dignity and Jiang City's dignity.

Bai Yi was as pale as a ghost when she realized she was the one who dragged Lin Fan into all of this. "Lin Fan, don't accept this challenge! You can't win! You'll die!" Worry flashed within Bai Yi's gorgeous eyes; she didn't want to put Lin Fan in danger.

Lin Fan patted his wife's head lovingly and beamed. "Don't worry, darling." He then turned around and fixed a glare onto Leng Bufan. Lin Fan's gaze was powerful, as it seemingly brought down the temperature of the room to 0 degrees celsius, and all the guests shivered. When Leng Bufan noticed that Lin Fan's sharp gaze was on him, he felt like he was targeted by a demon, and his hairs stood on end.

"Y-You!" Leng Bufan hastily took a few steps back, and his pale face was filled with fear because he couldn't believe a mere look from someone could be this terrifying.

"I tolerated you because you're a part of the Golden Age Group, but you really do have a death wish, don't you?" Lin Fan stared at Leng Bufan and smiled villainously.

As he said that, the whole room was in an uproar. Arrogance! Insolence! Everyone around them couldn't believe what they heard, including Bai Yifan's group and the people of Jiang City. This is madness! Everyone stared at Lin Fan with their eyes wide open as though he was a maniac. They never thought this man had the audacity to threaten Leng Bufan. H-He's dead! He's tired of living!

Even Leng Bufan was taken by surprise because he was the son of the Golden Age Group's President, as well as the grandson of Grandmaster Leng Aotian. Nobody dared to talk to him like this in Jiangnan City, let alone a little place like Jiang City, but now...

"H-How dare you curse me, kid? Very well then!" Leng Bufan's face was flushed as he was filled with rage and shame. "If that's the case, I'll take it that you have agreed to the fight! Lingnan Menace Five, all of you go up there and break this kid's limbs! Now! Immediately! On the double!" Leng Bufan sounded insane; he wanted to tear Lin Fan apart at that instance.

When they received their orders, Lingnan Menace Five stood up and said, "Yes, Young Master." With that, they turned to glare at Lin Fan. The five men radiated a terrifying aura as if they were five hungry tigers looking for their next prey; it was a bloodcurdling sight.

It was as if a cold gale had swept across the room, and everyone shivered as horror was written on their faces, but Lin Fan only smiled eerily, and his hair only danced gently amongst this gale. "Lingnan Menace Five? No, they're just five bugs, that's all."

What? Five bugs? When they heard what Lin Fan said, the room became silent because everyone was startled. They thought Lin Fan would fear for his life when he was facing Lingnan Menace Five's terrifying aura, but they didn't expect him to be this arrogant. He has a death wish! He's angering the Lingnan Menace Five, and he'll end up even worse now!

After Lin Fan threw down that sentence, Lingnan Menace Five's menacing aura intensified, and the terrifying oppressive force belonging to the five Grandmasters swallowed Lin Fan like raging waves. "Well, well, well. It seems that after the Lingnan Menace Six's ten years disappearance, the younglings don't think of us as a threat anymore." Er Xiong licked his chapped lips, and bloodlust filled his eyes. "I'll be taking your head then," Er Xiong said murderously.

The remaining members then declared the parts they wanted.

"Hehe, since you broke my bro's fist, then I, San Xiong, will be taking your right arm!"

"I, Si Xiong, will be taking his left arm then!"

"His right leg belongs to me, Wu Xiong!"

Lingnan Menace Five's discussion radiated cruelty, and everyone's hair stood on end as they listened to them targeting Lin Fan's head and limbs. They were obviously going to tear him limb from limb, and everyone looked at Lin Fan with empathy because no matter how tough he was, Lin Fan would only be torn to pieces by the Menace.

Bai Yi broke down from fear, and tears couldn't stop flowing down her cheeks. "I beg you, Lin Fan, let's leave! Please! I don't want to see you get killed. I don't want to..." Bai Yi was wallowing in despair and sadness because she too didn't believe that Lin Fan stood a chance before the assault of the Lingnan Menace Five for their infamy had taken root within everyone here. If Lin Fan died, there was no point for her to keep on living either, and tears messed up Bai Yi's face. Lin Fan was touched by this, and he wiped away Bai Yi's tears, but as he did so, the murder in his eyes became almost corporeal.

"They made you cry, Darling. They should die."

What? Lin Fan's words stunned Bai Yi, and before she realized what he meant, he disappeared like a phantom the moment he wiped away the last drop of tear from her face.

Lin Fan was the embodiment of speed itself, and everyone in the room couldn't believe their own eyes because they thought he disappeared into thin air; everyone was left with nothing but shock. Yi Xiong lost to Lin Fan once, so he was keeping an eye on what the latter was doing since the beginning, and when he saw him disappearing, his expression changed.

"Look out! He's coming!" Yi Xiong sounded fearful because he didn't dare to underestimate Lin Fan after he destroyed his fist. Furthermore, Yi Xiong knew that this man's strength was on par with a Grandmaster's, but now, much to his horror, he noticed that aside from power, Lin Fan's speed could also rival with a Grandmaster's.

With Yi Xiong's reminder, Lingnan Menace Five were taken aback, and the moment they saw Lin Fan disappearing, they felt an icy gale assailing them. "Damn it. This kid's too fast! Watch your backs!" As someone shouted, the five men tried to dodge the attack by retreating.

At this moment, a creepy voice whispered beside Liu Xiong's ear, "You wanted my left leg?"

When Liu Xiong heard it, his eyes became as wide as saucers, followed by a chill running down his spine as if a demon had spawned behind him. "No!" Liu Xiong screamed fearfully, and much to everyone's shock, Lin Fan appeared behind Liu Xiong and sent a roundhouse kick down to his left leg.

Crack! A crisp sound of bones being smashed filled the room, and everyone looked in astonishment as Liu Xiong's left leg was destroyed like a piece of wood from Lin Fan's roundhouse kick. Liu Xiong was sent flying away as if he was rammed by a train, arcing through the air and falling with a thud. His left leg was bent at an unnatural angle, while the bone pierced through his leg and trousers, protruding itself in the air. The mess of flesh and bone, which was once his leg, made everyone gasp in horror.

"Liu Xiong! I-Impossible!"

"Liu Xiong!"

The remaining four were reeling in shock, and they felt a freezing chill sweeping through them as they looked at Liu Xiong, who had fainted from the pain. They were not the only ones who were shocked, as Leng Bufan's group was taken aback too.

*How the f*ck is this possible?* Leng Bufan was horrified and had a bad feeling that he might have gotten into trouble and offended someone he shouldn't, but this horror was just the beginning.

After Liu Xiong had his left leg broken and was sent flying out of commission by Lin Fan, the latter turned and locked eyes onto the remaining Lingnan Menace Four. "It's your turn next."

Lingnan Menace Four was terrified, and when they noticed that Lin Fan disappeared again, they felt like their heart stopped. "Look out, he's coming again!" Cold sweat dripped down Er Xiong's forehead like a stream. They wanted to stand back to back so they could defend against Lin Fan, but he suddenly appeared before them like a phantom.

"You... wanted my right leg, right?" The moment he said so, Lin Fan sent another kick at Wu Xiong.

"You b*stard!" Wu Xiong was going mad, and he tried to counter Lin Fan's incoming roundhouse kick with one of his own. A moment later, the kicks collided, but to Wu Xiong's horror, he felt that Lin Fan's roundhouse kick was slamming into him with the force of a towering mountain, and no matter how much strength he used, Wu Xiong could only watch helplessly as his right leg was destroyed. Soon, the sound of something being smashed filled the room again.

Thud! A dull thump filled the room once more, and before the astonished eyes of everyone, Wu Xiong's right leg was torn into pieces, thereafter he was flung back by an incredible force, arcing through the air before falling gracelessly onto the ground.

The room was once again enveloped in silence, but this time, it was accompanied with the stench of blood and the pounding of everyone's hearts. Their legs are broken, and they're out of commission! Looking at Wu Xiong and Liu Xiong lying there unconsciously, they could feel their hearts jumping out of their chests.

Another Menace was defeated in one blow, and everyone could feel cold sweat forming on their foreheads as fear and shock swirled around them. If Lin Fan defeating Liu Xiong in one blow was attributed to luck, defeating Wu Xiong with one blow was too out of this world.

"I-Impossible! How can you be this strong?" Leng Bufan could feel an icy chill coursing through him, and at that very moment, Lin Fan looked like the incarnation of Lucifer. A Grandmaster? He knew that even if Lin Fan were a Grandmaster, facing all of the Lingnan Menace Five at once would be challenging, but Lin Fan put the two of them out of the game in two blows without breaking a sweat. The situation was too outrageous to believe.

Meanwhile, Lin Guangyao, Bai Yifan, and Shen Jian looked at Lin Fan as if he was a monster. Gulp. The trio gulped and looked at one another, noticing that their companions were fearful and terrified too. This is the loser we laughed at and hated? He crippled two Menace in two blows! Impossible.

However, Lin Fan didn't care about others being shocked; he still appeared composed after defeating Wu Xiong and Liu Xiong, as if they were just maggots to him. He was slowly walking toward the remaining three Menace, and even though his steps were slow, the remaining Menace were horrified and was still getting more and more nervous with every step he took.

"Let's attack him at once! Avenge Wu Xiong and Liu Xiong!" Er Xiong roared savagely, and the trio looked at one another as madness and cruelty welled up within them. Without hesitation, they pounced at Lin Fan altogether like tigers hunting their prey.

"Die!" As three iron fists were hurled toward Lin Fan, a noisy buzz could be heard. Even when Lin Fan was facing all three of them, he wasn't worried, and instead the bloodlust in his smile became more intense.

"You wanted my left and right hand? I'll grant you your wish then!" As he said so, Lin Fan's fists struck as fast as lightning, and they went against Si Xiong and San Xiong's iron fist. Leng Bufan and the others were on the edge of their seats when they saw Lin Fan going against both of them at once; it was as if they saw a glimpse of hope.

"Destroy him! He must be destroyed! There's no way he can face two Menace by himself at once!" Sweat was dripping from Leng Bufan's forehead, and his body was taut with tension. When he thought that his heart would stop, two loud noises filled the room as Si Xiong and San Xiong's hands were torn into pieces upon colliding with Lin Fan's. However, that was not the end yet.

When Lin Fan destroyed two Menace's fists with his own, Er Xiong's fist was already right above Lin Fan's head. Even so, Lin Fan didn't bother to dodge. He just watched as Er Xiong's iron fist slammed into his head. "Die!" Er Xiong had a cruel and vicious look on his face, and at this instance, he put all his strength into this punch, trying to knock out Lin Fan with one blow with the extra second his brothers managed to buy him. Boom! His punch landed.

"D-Did it work?" When they saw Er Xiong's punch landing on Lin Fan's head, Leng Bufan and the others were ecstatic, even though San Xiong and Si Xiong's hands were destroyed by Lin Fan. Die! He must die! Leng Bufan and the others could feel that their palms were covered with sweat, but right when they were just going to smile happily, they froze.

Crack, crack, crack!

To their horror, they saw Er Xiong's arm start crumbling after hitting Lin Fan's head as if it was taking an enormous power's attack. "Ah!!" Er Xiong screamed shrilly, and he was sent flying back from the recoil.

Thud! Thud! Thud! Three loud thuds were heard, and Er Xiong, San Xiong, and Si Xiong's arms were destroyed as they fell to the ground.

The room was enveloped in a deathly silence for the umpteenth time. As they looked at the Lingnan Menace Five, who were sprawling on the ground with broken limbs, everyone could feel a chill run up their spine, and their hairs stood on end. Leng Bufan looked like he had seen a ghost, and he plopped down to the ground in a daze, looking as if he was sapped of all strength. “I-Impossible! Lingnan Menace Six was trained by Grandpa, so how can they be defeated this easily? Is he a Grandmaster? A top-tier Grandmaster? How is that possible?” Leng Bufan was stunned because he thought crippling Lin Fan and snatching Bai Yi away was already a solid plan, but he had never expected Jiang City’s disgraced loser live-in son-in-law was this strong, and his pride—Lingnan Menace Six—were just bugs to Lin Fan.

Aside from him, Bai Yi was taken aback too. She then looked at her husband who destroyed these people like an apathetic demon; she felt as if everything she knew had collapsed. “How can Lin Fan be this strong?” Bai Yi had seen him winning against more than twenty people at once, but those were ordinary people, and any Menace from the Lingnan Menace Six could do that. However, the ones Lin Fan wrecked were the six Menace who used to control Jiangnan’s underworld, and he did it with ease as if he destroyed nothing but bugs. As such, Bai Yi couldn’t help feeling as if Lin Fan was a stranger now.

Nobody’s reaction bothered Lin Fan, and he didn’t even look at the fallen Lingnan Menace Five who were lying on the ground. Instead, he slowly went toward Leng Bufan. Every footstep he took was powerful as it made Leng Bufan shiver in fear. “And now you’ve lost,” Lin Fan said. “So it’s time for your punishment.”

What? Leng Bufan felt like he was thrown into a freeze r as Lin Fan inch closer. “No! I’m a part of the Golden Age Group, the grandchild of Grandmaster Leng Aotian! If you kill me, kid, my father, my grandfather, and Golden Age Group will hunt you down!” Leng Bufan’s voice was trembling.

However, Lin Fan’s venomous sneer was creepier than ever when Leng Bufan threatened him. “Don’t worry, I won’t kill you. I just want to... ruin you.”

"Don't worry. I won't kill you!"

Leng Bufan heaved a sigh of relief when he heard Lin Fan's words. Initially, he was afraid that this lunatic would truly be blinded by rage and kill him, but now, his threats worked since the scoundrel was wary of his family. However, just as he was about to say something, Lin Fan's next words had him utterly dumbfounded.

"I just want to... ruin you!" This sentence had his briefly-settled heart leaped to his throat once again. *Ruin me? Could this b*stard be planning to...* A terrifying thought flashed through his mind, and it almost had him wet his pants in sheer terror.

Right when he was about to escape, Lin Fan, who was already standing before him, abruptly lifted his leg and kicked him hard in the crotch.

Swoosh! The kick was incredibly swift.

Leng Bufan felt a chill in the area of his crotch, and it had him utterly terrified and terror-stricken. "No!" A soul-wrenching scream filled the room.

The crowd around them clearly saw how Lin Fan delivered a brutal kick to Leng Bufan's crotch.

Crack! A cracking sound echoed from between Leng Bufan's legs, and he was sent flying as far as two meters away. With a thud, he fell to his knees on the ground.

Drip! Drip! Unknown liquid and fresh blood gushed out from between his legs, followed by the activation of every pain receptors he had.

"Arghhhh!" His blood-curdling scream was filled with despair and agony.

Everyone saw Leng Bufan curled up like a cooked prawn, clamping his legs tightly. However, fresh blood and liquid didn't stop flowing through his clothes, and it formed a puddle on the ground.

His bones had been broken. Also... he was rendered impotent!

Gasps resounded in the room.

He's insane! Bai Yifan and the people of Jiang City were at a loss of words by Lin Fan's action.

"G-Goodness! Young Master Leng is now 'disabled'? He's done for! This time, he made an irreparable mistake!"

"Lin Fan, are you mad? Don't you know that Young Master Leng is from the Golden Age Group? Tianlong Group and Golden Age Clubhouse in Jiang City are both under the Golden Age Group. You're done for! You're dead!"

"Nutcase! You're a nutjob!"

Everyone was in a panic. After all, Leng Bufan's identity was too terrifying. Now that Lin Fan had disabled him before everyone here, the Golden Age Group and Grandmaster Leng Aotian's wrath would likely descend upon them. At this thought, terror enveloped everyone. Zhou Nan was especially terrified. Her beautiful face turned ashen, and she hurried forward to help Leng Bufan up. "Bai Yi, your husband did this! He deserves to die, and so do you! Golden Age Group will never let this go! You're both dead!"

Immediately after, she seemed to have thought of something, and her eyes lit up. She hastily urged Leng Bufan, "Young Master Leng, quick! Call the Chairman of Tianlong Group, Xu Tianlong, and Young Mistress Xue Meigui of Golden Age Clubhouse! Have them come and deal with this rascal! Revenge! They must avenge you!

Xu Tianlong! Xue Meigui! They're both big shots who rule over both the police and the triads in Jiang City, especially since they're both under the Golden Age Group. Once they find out that Lin Fan had disabled Young Master Leng, Lin Fan will surely be consumed by their burning rage.

When Leng Bufan heard this, he nodded agonizingly, sweat dripping from his forehead nonstop. He then threw his cell phone to Zhou Nan and said resentfully, "Make the call! Ask Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui to come and slaughter this b*stard! After that, hurry up and send me to the hospital. I can't be impotent. I haven't even gotten married or have children. I..." He stopped mid-sentence because he suddenly shuddered in pain and could no longer speak.

Zhou Nan promptly unlocked his phone. While looking for the phone number, she rebuked Bai Yi with all the resentment she had, "Bai Yi, just you wait! You two did this to Young Master Leng, hence you guys shall await your death!" With that, she found Xu Tianlong's phone number in Leng Bufan's contact list and started dialing.

After she had finished relating the entire incident and hung up, she was exhilarated. "Young Master Leng, Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui are now at Caesar Park Hotel. They're coming over immediately!"

What? When everyone heard Zhou Nan's words, they once again jumped in fright. Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui are now at Caesar Park Hotel? Could it be that they came to pay their respects to Leng Bufan? Or was it a coincidence?

Clamor! When the guests thought of this, they once again went into an uproar.

"Kid, it's just your bad luck! You've injured Young Master Leng, so Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui will never let you off easily!"

"Haha... Lin Fan, you psycho! You've made a horrendous mistake this time! Just wait for your demise!"

At this moment, their gaze toward Lin Fan and Bai Yi carried a mixture of smugness, sympathy, and pity. Almost everyone was convinced that Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui's impending arrival signified Lin Fan's end.

"L-Lin Fan!" Bai Yi's beautiful face was drained of color. She walked over to Lin Fan, reached out her hand, and gripped his hand tightly.

"Darling, are you afraid?" Lin Fan asked with a faint smile, curious.

Upon hearing this, Bai Yi was slightly startled, but when she stared at his striking face, the terror within her instantly vanished without a trace. "With you here, I'm... not afraid! If you live, I live. If you die, I'll die with you!" This declaration came from the bottom of her heart because she knew that he offended Leng Bufan for her sake. He had even rendered the guy impotent for her sake as well. Hence, she had no regrets living and dying alongside this man.

A surge of warmth filled Lin Fan when he heard this and saw her confident expression. He then held her face and kissed her forehead affectionately. "Darling, I've said this before. With me here, no one in this world can hurt you!"

What? When the crowd saw that Lin Fan and Bai Yi were still mushy at such a time, the crowd started fussing.

"Moron! He sure can fight, but does he think he's invincible?"

"Exactly. This kid isn't only a lunatic, but he's also a fool! Golden Age Group belongs to Global Group, and that's the most daunting entity in the world. Does he think he can go against the Golden Age Group just by his might alone?"

"Just wait and see! Rashness always invites disaster. He's done!"

At this moment, Bai Yifan, Shen Jian, and Lin Guangyao looked as though they had seen Lin Fan's tragic end. While they were overjoyed, they also had mixed feelings about it.

Bang! At precisely this moment, the room's door was forcefully slammed open, and a group of men dressed in black swept into the room.

Swoosh! In that instance, a group of bulky men in suits swept into the room and shocked everyone in the room.

Ten! Twenty! Fifty! In the blink of an eye, they filled the vast room that was a few hundred square meters to the brim. However, what was even more daunting was that these bulky men exuded a shocking air of viciousness, making it apparent that each of them would kill without blinking.

“They are... from the Golden Age Clubhouse!” Upon seeing this, the guests in the room all took a deep breath; they didn’t expect the Golden Age Clubhouse to send so many of their people.

At that moment, Lin Guangyao, Bai Yifan, and Shen Jian were looking at Lin Fan with mixed feelings but mainly joy in their eyes. He’s finished! In their eyes, Lin Fan would lose his life for sure this time.

Swoosh! Immediately after the hundred or so men in black swept in, they parted to form a path, and one after another, a few people came in.

The person in the lead was a woman. Her form-fitting red dress showcased her exquisite and alluring figure, making her appear sexy and seductive. Her wavy long hair cascaded over her shoulders while her bright red lips were stunningly captivating. She was Xue Meigui.

That wasn’t all. Behind her, one after another walked in—Xu Tianlong, Master Hu, Master Dao and Zhou Wanshan!

...

Looking at the group of well-known figures, the hearts of everyone in the room hammered wildly because anyone of them could shake Jiang City up. And now, they all came together.

"Oh my God! The big guys are all here! Young Master Leng Bufan is truly fearsome!"

"Exactly. It's obvious that all these prominent people were already here in the first place to pay their respects to Young Master Leng! This time, Lin Fan and Bai Yi will be in shambles in no time!"

The guests gossiped among themselves, glancing at Lin Fan and Bai Yi from time to time; their eyes glowing with anticipation and pity. Especially when the last person walked into the room, it caused a huge stir among the crowd.

"That's the number one President of Jiang City, Zhang Guohao. Goodness, w-why is he here?"

"Damn it! Young Master Leng's connections are even more daunting than we had imagined! Look, even the number one President is here!"

At this moment, the appearance of the number one President of Jiang City, Zhang Guohao, had the entire room keyed up. All the influential figures in Jiang City were here, and this terrifying lineup had a shiver running down the spines of everyone in the room. On the contrary, Leng Bufan and Zhou Nan were over the moon when they saw the astounding number of influential figures.

"Mr. Zhang, you came at just the right time! There's a thug here, and not only did he break the arms and legs of six of my subordinates, he even injured me! Mr. Zhang, please uphold justice for me!” Leng Bufan addressed Zhang Guohao first. After all, among all of these influential people, Zhang Guohao was ranked the highest.

However, something staggering happened; after Zhang Guohao had finished listening to him, he didn't say a word. Silence. The look in his eyes when he gazed at him carried no warmth nor sympathy; instead, it was filled with despise and mockery.

This... Leng Bufan was momentarily stunned after seeing Zhang Guohao's silence, but he hurriedly came back to his senses and turned to Xue Meigui and Xu Tianlong. “Xue Meigui, Xu Tianlong, both of you are employees of Golden Age Group. Now that I've been beaten up, you must avenge me! Avenge me!” His voice was colored with resentment and viciousness.

However, something that had him even more dumbfounded occurred. It was a pin-drop silence. Of the hundred or so people who came in, not a single one replied to him.

Silence... Now, the atmosphere in the room was immensely bizarre. The place was packed with people, yet no one said a word nor gave any kind of indication. Every one of them was merely looking at Leng Bufan indifferently as though he was a stranger.

Upon realizing that something was off, Bai Yifan and the others, including all the guests, had a bad feeling about the situation. They had initially thought that these top-tier men were here for Leng Bufan, but that didn't seem to be the case now.

"What's happening? Xue Meigui! Xu Tianlong! Have you both gone mute? I'm the only son of the President of Golden Age Group, Leng Kang! I've been beaten up, yet you're not going to say even a single word?!" Leng Bufan yelled in disbelief.

After his angry request, a derisive voice resounded immediately after. "They won't listen to you!"

What? Upon hearing this, Leng Bufan and all the guests in the room were taken aback. One by one, they cast their eyes in the direction where the voice had come from. Shockingly, they found that the person who said that was—Lin Fan.

"Lin Fan, w-what are you saying?" Leng Bufan glared at him, his sixth-sense tingling.

Thud! While he was still wallowing in disbelief, Lin Fan took a step forward, stared at his terrified and panicked expression, then smiled tauntingly. "It's because they're not here for you at all!"

Whoa... Lin Fan's declaration was akin to throwing a stone into a calm lake, causing Bai Yifan and the others to be in an uproar.

Are they not here for Leng Bufan? That... is impossible! With his status and background, who else could the big shots be here for, if not him?

"Ridiculous! Y-You're spouting nonsense! Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui are my father's subordinates, and Mr. Zhang Guohao is my grandfather's old friend! If they're not here for me, don't tell me they're here for you, a live-in son-in-law?" Leng Bufan shrieked in disbelief.

Upon hearing this, Lin Fan shook his head. “No. They’re not here for me either! Rather, they’re here for... my wife!”

Bai Yi?! Impossible! When the crowd heard this, none of them believed it. After all, while Bai Yi was dubbed the most beautiful President, in terms of status and background, she wasn’t on the same level as Xu Tianlong and the other powerful figures. Why would these people come for her? They all shook their heads and looked at Lin Fan as though he was a lunatic. However, everyone was caught off guard by what occurred after Lin Fan said that.

Swoosh! Zhang Guohao, Xu Tianlong, Xue Meigui, and the hundred over people all turned to Bai Yi as though they’d received some kind of command. Then, they all bowed deeply.

“We await Miss Bai Yi’s orders!” Unified voices reverberated in the room.

When Leng Bufan, Zhou Nan, Bai Yifan, and everyone else saw this outrageous scene and heard those unexpected words, they all stiffened as though they had been struck by lightning.

At this moment, the room sank into dead silence accompanied by an immensely tense atmosphere.

Whether it was Leng Bufan or Zhou Nan or Bai Yifan and the others, everyone stared at the hundred or so people bent over in a deep bow with utter disbelief in their eyes.

“H-How is this possible? Zhang Guohao, Xue Meigui, Xu Tianlong, and the others all came for Bai Yi?”

“T-This is impossible!”

Leng Bufan’s eyes rounded, and he felt as though all this was a dream. Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui were both direct subordinates of the Golden Age Group, but they didn’t come for the President’s son; instead, they came for that woman. This was something he couldn’t and wouldn’t accept.

However, it wasn’t only them. At that moment, even Bai Yi had a hand over her mouth with disbelief written all over her face. How did this happen? She was utterly shocked.

She was merely a small-time President of the New Bai Family Group, hence even a second-tier family was a hundred times greater than her New Bai Family Group, let alone Xu Tianlong and these influential people. But now, these people were actually bowing to her while awaiting her orders. It was like a fairy tale!

It was at that moment when Leng Bufan exploded in anger. “Xu Tianlong! Xue Meigui! Why are you doing this? Do you even know what you’re doing?” He was livid with rage.

All his subordinates were beaten up, and he was injured, but now, even the Golden Age Group's direct subordinates were standing on Lin Fan and Bai Yi's side. The whole bizarre situation had him boiling with rage.

In no time, everyone's gaze—both curious and shocked—was pinned on Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui. Clearly, all the guests were also bewildered as to why they did so.

However, under the astonished gaze of the crowd, Xu Tianlong, Xue Meigui, and the others slowly stood up. Not only that, the look in their eyes when they stared at Leng Bufan showed only indifference and disdain.

"Young Master Leng, we have our own reasons for doing so! Also, I'd like to remind you that there are some people whom you can't afford to offend!"

"That's right. Young Master Leng, I'd advise you to apologize to Mr. Lin. Otherwise, you won't only be hurting yourself, but also your father and even your grandfather."

What? When the crowd heard Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui's words, they were once again dumbstruck. They are some people whom you can't afford to offend? Could it be Lin Fan and Bai Yi?

Also, How amazing are Lin Fan and Bai Yi that Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui claimed that Young Master Leng might be bringing calamity on his father and grandfather? This... is impossible.

Their words had Leng Bufan's face turning red with fury. Insanity! At this moment, he felt that Xue Meigui and Xu Tianlong must have gone insane. His father was Leng Kang, the President of Golden Age Group, while his grandfather was Leng Aotian, one of the two Grandmasters in Jiangnan. On the other hand, Lin Fan and Bai Yi were just two insignificant people in Jiang City; how could they threaten his father and grandfather?

Seemingly sensing his annoyance, Xue Meigui snorted. "Young Master Leng, I'll give you three days. If you don't apologize to Mr. Lin and Miss Bai Yi, we'll report this to the group, and the trouble that you'll bring onto President Leng Kang would be something you could never imagine!"

Xue Meigui's declaration was full of conviction, and it had the entire room going into an uproar again. Lin Fan, however, wasn't at all bothered about anyone's reaction. He took Bai Yi's hand and slowly walked out of the room, escorted by Xue Meigui, Xu Tianlong, Zhang Guohao, and the others. The room was left with only those who were puzzled.

When Lin Fan and everyone else had left the room, the tension crept away alongside it. The room was once again silent, and the atmosphere was so stifling that it was suffocating.

Thud! Zhou Nan collapsed to the ground as though she had no strength left in her body. Only then did she realize that her clothes were soaked with sweat that it had stuck to her back. "H-How did Bai Yi do that?" She felt a bone-deep shock. From a long time ago, she had been jealous of Bai Yi. The reason she invited Bai Yi when she came to Jiang City this time was to show off her boyfriend to her. But who would have thought that Bai Yi's husband was a top-tier Grandmaster and that s he had the fearsome ability to give orders to all the prominent people in Jiang City? This had her feeling utterly defeated.

“Y-Young Master Leng! Xue Meigui was so confident earlier. Could it be that Lin Fan and Bai Yi truly have a daunting identity unbeknownst to us?” Zhou Nan asked Leng Bufan when this thought flitted through her mind.

It wasn't only her because even Leng Bufan was horror-stricken, especially when the thought came to him that if Lin Fan and Bai Yi honestly had a daunting identity, he'd be dead if he dragged his father and grandfather into the mess. “I-I don't know.” He gulped, and his voice trembled slightly.

However, at this moment, someone stepped out. “Young Master Leng, don't worry! Xue Meigui and Xu Tianlong have been deceived by Lin Fan.”

What? This proclamation stunned Leng Bufan for a moment. He quickly turned and saw that the person who spoke was Lin Guangyao.

“Do you know anything about this?” Leng Bufan hurriedly asked, a glimmer of anticipation shining on his face. Everyone in the room turned their eyes to Lin Guangyao; they were all extremely curious about why Xue Meigui and Xu Tianlong were so obedient to Lin Fan and Bai Yi.

Meanwhile, Lin Guangyao, who had all the attention on him, wore a smug expression before saying, “Yes. Young Master Leng, do you know why Xue Meigui and Xu Tianlong obeyed Bai Yi and Lin Fan? It's because Lin Fan has an Emperor's skull card.”

When he uttered those words, it was as though a flash of lightning struck Leng Bufan.

An Emperor's skull card! That card is the highest-ranked card in the Golden Age Group. In China, only three of such cards were issued, and each card would be in the hands of highly influential people who are among the highest of the highest. Even his father had only seen it, without touching it. And now...

"I-Impossible! How could Lin Fan have an Emperor's skull card? Could it be... he truly has a daunting identity?" Sweat poured down Leng Bufan's forehead. If Lin Fan indeed was the owner of an Emperor's skull card, he and his father would be in big trouble.

However, Lin Guangyao merely smiled and said resentfully, "Young Master Leng, Lin Fan stole that Emperor's skull card! He's using the stolen card to deceive Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui. Therefore, I hope that you'd report this to your father, Mr. Leng Kang, so that he can teach this thief and conman a lesson!"

After he said that, the entire room plunged into chaos.

Did he steal it? That Lin Fan man is bold enough to steal an Emperor's skull card! After hearing Lin Guangyao's explanation, everyone in the room went into an uproar. He's insane!

Disbelief was written in everyone's eyes for the real issuer of the Emperor's skull card wasn't the Golden Age Group but Global Group.

Global Group was the most fearful association in the entire universe. Even an ultimate Grandmaster would never dare to offend them, not to mention a Grandmaster. Regardless of one's influence and power, if one were to offend the Global Group, there was only one consequence—death. And now, Lin Fan had stolen Global Group's Emperor's skull card. Once this matter was brought to light, what awaited him and Bai Yi was absolute destruction.

“So that's how it is!” At that moment, the corners of Leng Bufan's mouth curved into a grin, and his eyes gleamed with pleasure and enmity. “No wonder Xu Tianlong and Xue Meigui listened to him. It's all because he deceived them with an Emperor's skull card!”

Leng Bufan was convinced that Lin Fan wasn't only a thief but also a scammer. After all, how would a minor character like him come into possession of such a valuable card? That was something unbelievable.

Meanwhile, at the side, Bai Yifan and Shen Jian hastily added their two cents.

“Young Master Leng, your father is the President of Golden Age Group, so you should hurry up and report this! Ask President Leng Kang to send someone to handle this!"

"That's right! Young Master Leng, he injured you this time, and he even stole an Emperor's skull card! You can't just let him off like that!"

The two of them added fuel to the fire, feeling extremely pleased with themselves. It was as though they could see the pathetic and miserable end that awaited Lin Fan.

Upon hearing all those provocations, Leng Bufan's expression grew more vicious. "Humph! My father is going to arrive in Jiang City in a few more days. Meanwhile, let those scoundrels enjoy their last few days. When the time comes, I'll settle the score once and for all! I'll definitely make his life a living hell!" His eyes glinted with intense savageness. Beside him, when Lin Guangyao and the others heard this, they were all as gleeful as could be.

Meanwhile, on the way back to Li Garden Villa, a mixture of befuddlement and astonishment remained on Bai Yi's face as though she hadn't recovered from the shock that she suffered at the banquet.

Lin Fan is a Grandmaster? And I can give Xu Tianlong, Xue Meigui, and the other people orders? This... Bai Yi couldn't accept it. She turned and stared doubtfully at Lin Fan, who was driving beside her. "L-Lin Fan, all this is because of you, isn't it?"

She was no fool after all, and neither did Xu

Tianlong and the others' respect change her attitude. In her eyes, she was merely an ex-president who was disowned by the Bai Family, nothing more. Speaking of her identity and status, she can't even hold a candle to those people. Hence, the only explanation was her husband—Lin Fan.

"Darling, why would you say that all of a sudden?" Lin Fan chuckled, not knowing how to answer her. When Bai Yi saw this, she was all the more shocked and convinced that all this was because of him. "Lin Fan, I don't know how many things you're hiding from me, but I want to tell you not to be so reckless in the future."

As she spoke of this, her beautiful face was clouded with worry. "Today, the person you permanently injured is the son of the President of Golden Age Group and the grandson of Grandmaster Leng Aotian! They'll definitely get their revenge. At that time, you..."

Drip! As soon as she said this, her eyes turned red, and tears streamed down her cheeks as she was afraid; she was worried that Lin Fan might die.

When Lin Fan saw her crying, his heart clenched painfully, and he immediately stopped the Mercedes-Benz at the side of the road. Then, he turned to her and consoled, "Darling, I promise I'll be more low-key in the future. But this time, don't worry. Golden Age Group can't do anything to me, and Leng Aotian can't do anything to me either!" His words were domineering yet arrogant.

His tone had left Bai Yi even more bewildered. Nevertheless, she shook her head and didn't push for an answer. Instead, in her mind, she was planning how to have him leave Jiang City, the deadly place that might demand his life.

...

Slowly, a night had passed.

Soon, the news shook Jiang City—the son of Leng Kang, the President of Golden Age Group, was severely injured in Jiang City after an attack by Lin Fan from New Bai Family Group. Young Master Leng had decreed that all companies that collaborate with the New Bai Family Group would be enemies of the Golden Age Group.

When this news broke out, the entire Jiang City plunged into chaos. Insanity!

Countless people from the upper-classes now doubted if New Bai Family Group and Lin Fan were insane because offending Leng Bufan was just courting death. In an instant, many companies that were planning to collaborate with the New Bai Family Group changed their minds; voices condemning the New Bai Family Group reverberated in just about the entire business community in Jiang City. Many people believed that the New Bai Family Group was a dead man walking.

However, before this news died down, another explosive and sensational piece of news had the entire Jiang City in a state of chaos. Three days later, an acclaimed Grandmaster, Blood Buddha, would be coming to Jiang City to challenge Grandmaster Lin to avenge his disciple, Blood Wolf!

What?! Blood Buddha! After this name was circulated, many martial art experts in Jiang City were badly shaken, for he was a fearsome man! The name of Blood Buddha alone had countless forces in China shaking in their shoes, so when such a menacing figure was coming to Jiang City, almost everyone was terror-stricken.

That wasn't all. After the news of Blood Buddha's imminent arrival in Jiang City broke out, more news broke out successively; Grandmaster Leng Aotian intended to come to Jiang City and kill Blood Buddha while Grandmaster He Lanshan vowed to have Blood Buddha remain in Jiang City and bury him here! Even the two veteran Grandmasters of Jiang City were alerted of this. In the blink of an eye, the news swept through Jiang City like a stampede.

Just about everyone was anticipating the appearance of the four Grandmasters—Grandmaster Lin, Blood Wolf, Leng Aotian, and He Lanshan in the next three days.

Thus, Jiang City also became the point of convergence for the entire Jiangnan Province. Numerous great and small forces alike rushed to Jiang City from Jiangnan, hoping to witness this battle of the century. On the other hand, Lin Fan never cared to bother about the chaos at all; he went about his chores of buying groceries and cooking every day, as well as doing the laundry and cleaning the house as though everything had nothing to do with him.

However, just as two days had passed quietly, while Lin Fan and Bai Yi were busy at Blue Ocean Building, a phone call had them both downright shaken. The phone call was from his father-in-law, Bai Shan. From his end of the phone, one could distinctly hear the roaring of engines and the noises of passersby. Meanwhile, the phone call was to convey just one message—his mother-in-law, Shen Yumei, was in a car crash.

A Mercedes-Benz was speeding on the road of Jiang City. "Lin Fan, quick! Drive faster!" Bai Yi's stunning eyes were red, and her beautiful face was already wet from the tears that were streaming down her cheeks. When Lin Fan heard that, he didn't say anything but stepped on the gas pedal all the way down.

Vroom! With a roar, the Mercedes-Benz zoomed like an arrow that had been shot from its bow, continuously zipping past other cars on the road. After five minutes, from afar, Lin Fan saw that there was a crowd of passersby by the roadside ahead.

"Darling, we're here!" Lin Fan stopped the car at the side of the road and swiftly got out of the vehicle with Bai Yi. When they had both squeezed through the crowd and got to the front, they saw a woman lying on the ground. Her left leg had lost its shape, and crimson blood was soaking through her pants. Her originally graceful face was now as pale as a ghost while beads of sweat dripped down her forehead. It was Shen Yumei.

"Mom!" When Bai Yi saw Shen Yumei's tragic condition, she abruptly let out a mournful wail before lunging forward. "Mom! How could you get hit? Who did this? Tell me, who did this?" Bai Yi's tears couldn't stop pouring. This was the first time she had ever seen her mother in such a wretched condition.

However, Shen Yumei was in such great agony that she was dazed; she couldn't answer her at all. Beside her, Bai Shan, whose eyes were also red, interjected, "Bai Yi, your mom and I went to the park for a walk, but unexpectedly, when we were crossing the road, a Bentley ran the red light and came barreling at us. Your mother couldn't react in time, so the Bentley hit her and broke her leg."

What? Ran the red light? Lin Fan's expression darkened upon hearing this, and he asked coldly, "Where is that car?" It wasn't just him, as Bai Yi was also puzzled because when they arrived, they didn't see any Bentley at the side of the road.

"That car has sped away. It was a hit-and-run! I saw that the car had a Jiangnan license plate." As Bai Shan spoke, tears trickled down his face. His words had Lin Fan's expression grow darker. Although Shen Yumei had always had a sharp tongue with him, she had indeed considered him as a part of the family and regarded him as her son. Similarly, he acknowledged her as his mother. But now...

He wanted to step forward to check on her injuries but at that precise moment...

Woo-woo! Woo-woo! Waves of sharp siren sounds were followed by the appearance of an ambulance. "Fan, the ambulance is here! After your mother got hit, I called Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine," Bai Shan hastily said. When Lin Fan heard this, he was slightly relieved because Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine was his hospital. Every single doctor there had incredible medical skills, hence they could be trusted.

In the blink of an eye, two nurses and an emergency physician got out of the ambulance and headed toward them.

After the emergency physician had checked Shen Yumei's leg, he said to the two nurses at the side, "The patient only has a broken leg. Quick, transport her to the ambulance!"

When they received the order, the two nurses immediately wanted to turn her over and place her on the stretcher. However, just then, Lin Fan examined the injury on her broken leg, and his expression changed slightly. "Wait!" After saying that, he stepped forward at once and stopped the two nurses.

Hmm? His action not only stunned the physician and nurses, but even Bai Yi and Bai Shan turned around in bewilderment. "Who are you? Why are you stopping us from saving the patient?" the doctor demanded furiously with dissatisfaction written all over his face.

Lin Fan didn't say anything. Instead, he went forward and examined Shen Yumei's broken leg before saying, "I'm the patient's son-in-law. You can't lift my mother-in-law onto the stretcher yet. You must perform a fracture reduction first, otherwise her leg will be crippled!"

What? When he said this, the doctor, nurses, and even Bai Shan and Bai Yi were stupefied at the side.

Must perform a fracture reduction first? Otherwise, her leg will be crippled? At this moment, the crowd looked at him as though he was an idiot.

"Nonsense! I've checked earlier, and the patient only has a broken leg. There's no other problem. There's still time to perform a fracture reduction back at the hospital!" The doctor's eyes were filled with rage when he looked at him. "Also, as kin to the patient, you're delaying treatment. If the patient's life is threatened due to excessive blood loss because of you, can you bear the responsibility?" The doctor sounded stern and righteous.

When Bai Yi heard this, she, too, reproached Lin Fan irritably, "Lin Fan, why are you stirring up trouble here? You're not a doctor! Let them send our mother to the hospital quickly!"

Not only her, but even Bai Shan thought that Lin Fan was spouting nonsense, so he rebuked him in displeasure, "Lin Fan, this is not the time for you to show off! Your mother's injury takes utmost priority!" In Bai Shan's opinion, his son-in-law was obviously trying to make himself stand out by making such claims at such a time. This frankly put him into immense disappointment.

However, Lin Fan wasn't at all bothered by their words. Instead, he turned Shen Yumei's broken leg slightly outward, pointed at a sharp bone spur, and said to the doctor, "As an emergency physician, don't you even know how to check carefully? My mother in-law's bone had snapped and pierced the femoral artery. If she were simply moved, it would only cause the femoral artery to burst, followed by uncontrollable bleeding!"

What?! These words had the doctor's expression changing slightly. All at once, he hurried forward and looked carefully. When he saw the spot, the sharp bone spur was indeed piercing her artery. As such, he was extremely stunned. It's true! The bone spur is piercing the femoral artery! If Shen Yumei were to really move, her leg would likely be utterly crippled.

Drip! Drip!

Beads of sweat trickled down the doctor's forehead, and in a trembling voice, he said, "B-But the patient's bone spurs are too sharp and scattered, so I'm afraid that only our hospital's Vice President Gao can perform a fracture reduction."

Everyone's expressions changed upon seeing the physician's face and hearing his words. So it's true? At this moment, they were confident that Lin Fan's claims were absolutely right. Otherwise, the emergency physician wouldn't be this terrified. In an instant, the look in their eyes when they gazed at Lin Fan changed. Astonishment was written all over Bai Shan and Bai Yi's faces. They didn't know that Lin Fan had medical knowledge. Also, with just a few sentences, he had terrified the emergency physician to such an extent.

However, they had no time to ponder. They urgently asked him, "L-Lin Fan, what should we do now? Mother has lost a lot of blood. If we ask Elder Gao to come now, I'm afraid her life would be in danger!"

"Fan, please think of something! You must think of a way!"

At this moment, the father-daughter duo were on the verge of breaking down.

Lin Fan nodded, and his eyes gleamed with determination. "There's no other way, so... I'll do it!"

“There’s no other way, so... I’ll do it!”

Lin Fan’s suggestion stunned everyone, including the doctor, Bai Yi, and Bai Shan. “S-Stop kidding, sir! Fracture reduction is a very complex branch of knowledge, and your mother-in-law’s leg injury is severe. Even if Elder Gao is here, he might find it difficult to help her, seeing how broken and sharp those bones are!” the doctor discouraged him. “If you fail, your mother-in-law might have a disability for life, and if it’s serious, the bones could puncture the femoral artery and put her life in danger!”

Everyone’s faces changed when the doctor explained because they were thunderstruck at the possibility of Shen Yumei being an invalid or even dying. As such, Bai Shan and Bai Yi turned pale at the thought of that.

“L-Lin Fan, stop messing around. Let’s call Elder Gao over!”

“Don’t make any move, Lin Fan. I’ll call Elder Gao and ask him to come over.”

Bai Yi and Bai Shan were shocked by what Lin Fan was doing, as they didn’t know he had the skills of a doctor. Therefore, they thought he was fooling around. However, Lin Fan shook his head. “There’s not enough time! It takes half an hour to come from Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine. Even if we managed to save mom, she’d lose her leg!”

What? Lin Fan’s reply scared Bai Shan and Bai Yi. They instantly looked toward the emergency physician, and when they saw him nodding hopele ssly, they almost fainted from the shock. “What should we do? What should we do?” Bai Shan and Bai Yi were panicking.

Lin Fan asked the emergency physician, “Elder Gao should have taught you about Chinese medicine’s five-finger pulse pressure method, right?”

Five-finger pulse pressure method? The emergency physician frowned before he nodded. “He did. The five-finger pulse pressure method is a skill that stops blood flow and slows down the rush of the blood, making the vessel wall flexible for thirty seconds, but it’s quite an unconventional method that doesn’t see much use. Why did you ask this, sir?” The emergency physician was curious, as the five-finger pulse pressure point was exclusive to Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western medicine. It was an emergency method given to Elder Gao by Divine Doctor Lin, so no outsiders knew about this. How did this young man learn about it?

“Use the five-finger pulse pressure method to ease my mother-in-law’s femoral artery’s vessel wall. Buy me thirty seconds,” Lin Fan demanded without explaining further. Meanwhile, the emergency physician looked horrified when he heard it. “Sir, are you serious? Are you going to perform the fracture reduction within thirty seconds?” The emergency physician was amazed because he couldn’t believe what he just heard; he was looking at Lin Fan as if he was a maniac.

“That’s right!” Lin Fan nodded, as that was the only choice he had, or else if the artery breaks after three minutes, it would turn the situation extremely risky.

When Lin Fan admitted to his intentions, the emergency physician gasped. “Thirty seconds? I-Impossible! There are more than ten sharp ends on the patient’s broken bones! Even if Elder Gao is here, he would need at least ten minutes to do it!”

Everyone was shaken to their cores at his words because Elder Gao was the top master of traditional Chinese medicine in Jiang City before Divine Doctor Lin’s arrival, and he was very experienced in it. Even so, he needed at least ten minutes for the operation, but Lin Fan said he only needed thirty seconds. *Is this a f*cking joke?* Everyone’s faces were filled with disbelief.

But Lin Fan didn’t have time to care about them, and he looked at the doctor coldly and demanded, “Do it!” It was a simple command, but it sounded like a roar to the emergency physician, and his consciousness blurred. The physician looked like he was hypnotized, and he crouched down to place all his fingers on Shen Yumei’s femoral artery, just like how Lin Fan had instructed.

When they saw this, everyone was at a loss of words, as they didn’t think that the doctor would follow Lin Fan’s instructions right after he objected to it.

“Three inches to the left!” Lin Fan ignored everyone around him, and he poured all his attention on Shen Yumei’s broken leg. At his command, the emergency physician moved his finger three inches to the left, looking like a controlled puppet. “Put your thumb in a spot and your index finger in another! Make sure one finger is at the top while three are at the bottom! Lean your ring finger to the left and press down with your pinky!” Lin Fan kept on giving orders.

Everyone watched nervously as Lin Fan gave the orders, but that wasn't the end. As he controlled the physician to perform the five-finger pulse pressure method, Lin Fan wore a pair of surgical gloves and started performing fracture reduction on Shen Yumei's broken leg.

Crack, crack, crack! Everyone around them could hear the sounds of broken bones being moved; Lin Fan kept moving the bones back in their original place. Time passed as he performed the fracture reduction. Ten seconds. Twenty seconds.

As time passed, Bai Shan and Bai Yi felt as if their hearts would stop. They wanted to stop Lin Fan, but he had started performing the surgery before they could do it. “You have to make it work, Lin Fan! You can do it!” Bai Yi clenched her fists, and her hands were wet with sweat as she looked at Lin Fan with anticipation and imploration.

Crack, crack.

Crack, crack.

As everyone was on the edge of their seats, a crisp sound could be heard. They saw Shen Yumei shivering in pain before gasping. “Mom!” Bai Yi and Bai Shan jumped in shock, and they tried to stop Lin Fan out of reflex, but at that moment, they saw Lin Fan heaved a long sigh of relief before standing up. He wiped the sweat on his forehead and turned to smile at Bai Yi. "It's a success!"

What? Is it a success? Everyone was stunned, as they only heard the sound of cracking bones and Shen Yumei's scream.

"A-Are you sure, Lin Fan?" Disbelief was written all over Bai Yi's pretty face. She did pray for Lin Fan's success, but she wasn't confident if he could do it, as she didn't know he was a doctor, let alone had skills that surpassed Elder Gao in fracture reduction. It all sounded like a fairytale.

Lin Fan smiled when he noticed everyone looking at him in doubt, and he snapped his finger at the emergency physician. Snap! As he snapped his fingers, everyone saw the emergency physician jolted and shivered, confusion all over his face. "W-What happened just now?"

What? Everyone was shocked because they realized that the emergency physician seemed to have forgotten what happened. It was as if everything he did was done under Lin Fan's hypnosis and that he was controlled. That fact horrified everyone.

But before they could remind him, the emergency physician screamed in shock. "I-Impossible! T-The fracture reduction was successful?"

“The fracture reduction is a success!” When the emergency physician announced that, it was as if lightning had struck the place because everyone was shocked. Performing a fracture reduction in thirty seconds was something not even Elder Gao from Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine could manage, but this young man did it easily. It was shockingly unbelievable, and everyone, including Bai Shan and Bai Yi, looked at Lin Fan with horror; they were shaken to their core.

That wasn’t the end, as the emergency physician seemed to have remembered what he did, thereupon his face changed from confusion to shock. His eyes were glued on Lin Fan as his voice trembled. “I helped you perform the five-finger pulse pressure method just now?” Lin Fan nodded. “You performed the thirty seconds fracture reduction?” Lin Fan nodded again, and when the physician confirmed that all he remembered was true, he plopped down to the ground. “Oh my God, y-you did it! A fracture reduction in thirty seconds! Incredible! And I seemed to have been under hypnosis earlier.” The emergency physician frowned because the more he thought about it, the more chilling he felt, and the more he was terrified about how mysterious Lin Fan was.

However, Lin Fan wasn’t interested in his monolog, so he told the nurses, “Now you can take my mother-in-law away with the stretcher.”

“Y-Yes! Right away!” The nurses finally snapped out of their shock, and they looked at Lin Fan differently now. There was worship and fear in their eyes as if he was a deity yet a demon at the same time.

As Shen Yumei was lifted into the ambulance, Lin Fan, Bai Yi, and Bai Shan got into the car. The ambulance blared as it dashed toward Yifan Hospital of Integrated Traditional Chinese and Western Medicine. When it arrived at the hospital, Shen Yumei's pain in her legs was slowly disappearing, and she was waking up. Lin Fan! When she heard what happened, Shen Yumei looked at Lin Fan with tears in her eyes, but those were tears of relief and gratitude. Lin Fan smiled at her and said, "You'll be safe after you're put in a cast to stabilize your injured leg, Mom."

Shen Yumei felt touched hearing this, and she nodded. "T-Thank you, Fan!" She looked at Lin Fan, and she was getting more pleased with him, knowing that her daughter had married a great man. Thereafter, her family stayed by her as she was brought down from the ambulance.

But at that moment, they saw a Bentley stopping in the hospital's parking lot, whereupon a woman with heavy makeup held a conspicuous man's arm as they came down from the car. "I-It's them! It's that car!" Bai Shan yelled when he saw that car and the couple that came down from it.

What? Lin Fan and Bai Yi's expression changed, as they didn't expect the culprit to not escape, and appeared at the hospital as if they were innocent. Bai Shan's scream attracted the couple's attention, and when they turned around to see Bai Shan and Shen Yumei—who was on the gurney—the couple recognized them. "Oh? Isn't this the scammer? What? You didn't die from the crash?"

The woman was annoyingly arrogant, and Lin Fan and Bai Yi couldn't believe this woman to be this bold even after she had crashed into someone. "You! What are you talking about? Why did you crash into my mother? And why did you run away? I'm calling the cops now!" Bai Yi's face was flushed with anger from this woman's provocation.

However, the woman with heavy makeup didn't even look afraid when Bai Yi said she was calling the police; instead, she guffawed as if she heard the most hilarious joke in the world. "Hahaha! Why did I crash into your mother? Because I feel like it! What are you going to do about it?" the woman asked Bai Yi provocatively.

The ostentatious boy toy beside her pointed at the woman before arrogantly claiming, "Hmph! Do you even know who she is, you weaklings? She's He Jiaojiao! The granddaughter of Jiangnan Province's Grandmaster He Lanshan! Arrest her? Hahaha! Even if the chief comes here, he won't dare to do it regardless!"

What? The boy toy's explanation stunned Bai Shan and Bai Yi because the name of He Lanshan itself was powerful. There were two ultimate Grandmasters in Jiangnan Province, and one of them was Leng Aotian, while the other was He Lanshan. The latter rose to fame thirty years ago, and he was infamous for his brutal and cruel way of doing things. Almost nobody in the Jiangnan martial arts world was a match for him. In his younger days, he was bold and capable enough to defeat everyone in all the thirteen cities in Jiangnan, making everyone in the world of martial arts bow down before him.

That wasn't the end of it. He Lanshan didn't only have an unfathomable strength, but he had the brains too. He used his intelligence to create one of the big four conglomerates in Jiangnan—the Lanshan Group. Nobody dared to offend him in Jiangnan. However, it was unexpected that the culprit turned out to be He Lansan's granddaughter, He Jiaojiao.

"What is it? Are you scared? Hahaha!" He Jiaojiao guffawed arrogantly once more when she noticed Bai Yi and her father looked haunted. "Hmph! I merely broke her leg, no big deal! My grandpa loves me the most, so even if I killed someone, what can you do about it? Also, my grandpa will arrive in Jiang City in two days to fight the Blood Buddha, so you better don't cross me, or else you're screwed!"

She was snobbish, and Bai Yi and her father's face darkened as they clenched their fists. Even if they were furious, they didn't dare to go against He Jiaojiao, as what she said was true. However, the darkness in Lin Fan's gaze turned into the abyss.

"Do you think your grandfather can keep you safe?"

What? He Jiaojiao's expression changed before she sized Lin Fan up and snorted. "Hmph! Look at you! You're just a barbarian! I don't think you've even heard of my grandfather!"

Bloodlust welled up in Lin Fan's eyes, but just when he was about to say something, Bai Yi nudged him. "L-Lin Fan, please, I beg you. Don't talk anymore!" Bai Yi's eyes were filled with tears, and she looked at him anxiously.

Bai Yi grabbed Lin Fan's arm tightly, and she kept on shaking her head while her face was streaked with tears; she knew Lin Fan had already turned into Leng Aotian's enemy after he ruined his grandson, so she didn't want him to offend He Lanshan as well. If he offended both ultimate Grandmasters, he would surely die. When he saw how Bai Yi was begging him, his lips twitched, and he pushed down the murderous intention deep in his heart.

"Hmph! Finally, you barbarians are scared, huh?" He Jiaojiao was grinning from ear to ear; Lin Fan's family were just ignorant barbarians to her, hence she looked at them in disdain. "I'll let you go since you're so scared. Pfft! Just be an invalid, you old hag! That's how commoners like you should end up! Make way, I'm going to see the famous Divine Doctor Lin and get him to make me prettier! Hahaha!" He Jiaojiao laughed derisively at Shen Yumei, and she held her boy toy's arm before going into the hospital.

Divine Doctor Lin? Lin Fan's eyes glinted, and he said coldly, "I can guarantee that you will not walk out from the hospital. You will suffer the same injury as my mother-in-law did when you come out of the hospital."

What? Lin Fan's threat halted He Jiaojiao and her boy toy. Not walk out from the hospital? They turned to look at Lin Fan, and after a brief moment of silence, they felt amused. "Hahaha! That's all you can do, you useless trash? Empty threats? Same injury as your mother-in-law? Do you mean someone's going to break my legs? Hahaha! What a joke! I'm here to see Divine Doctor Lin! Even if my leg is broken, he can heal me up lickety-split!" With that, she didn't bother sparing them another glance; she merely hooked her arm around her boy toy's and walked into the hospital.

Aside from He Jiaojiao, Bai Shan, Bai Yi, Shen Yumei, and even the emergency physician, thought Lin Fan was just barking empty threats. "Forget it, Lin Fan. We can't offend He Lanshan's granddaughter." Shen Yumei had a bitter look on her face, thereupon she assured him, "My leg's going to be fine after some rest."

Even Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan pleadingly and said, "Don't do anything rash, Lin Fan! J-Just forget about this." Bai Yi, Bai Shan, and everyone else shook their heads. They couldn't afford to offend He Jiaojiao, so all they could do was to give her a wide berth.

But unbeknownst to them, He Jiaojiao was already an invalid to Lin Fan. He said nothing, and after sending Shen Yumei to the ward, Lin Fan said he was going to the bathroom. However, he made his way to the hospital's top floor instead. The moment he arrived, he saw Gao Zhiyuan pacing back and forth in the corridor, and he was holding a phone, seemingly hesitant about calling someone.

He was overjoyed when he saw Lin Fan. "You came at the right time, Divine Doctor Lin! I got some issues here, and I was going to call Miss Bai Yi to tell you to come!" Gao Zhiyuan apparently knew nothing of what happened.

When he heard this, Lin Fan smiled and asked, "You wanted to call me because some woman named He Jiaojiao wants to see me, right?"

Hmm? Gao Zhiyuan was taken aback because he didn' t expect Lin Fan to know what he would say. “Yes, Divine Doctor Lin. He Jiaojiao is Grandmaster He Lanshan’s granddaughter. This time, she traveled far and wide because she caught wind of your fame, all because she wants to know how to beautify herself,” Gao Zhiyuan said in excitement since the woman was Grandmaster He Lanshan’s granddaughter. If Lin Fan used this opportunity to befriend her, it would benefit him greatly.

However, Gao Zhiyuan was surprised that Lin Fan didn’t look at all delighted at this report. Instead, he had a chilling, eerie look. “I understand. Tell her to wait for me in the guest room. I’ll come over right after I change.” Lin Fan didn’t wait for Gao Zhiyuan’s reply and went straight to the changing room.

As he watched Lin Fan leave, Gao Zhiyuan felt something was off. It was as if something terrible was going to happen. “No, I must be reading too deep into this. He Jiaojiao is He Lanshan’s granddaughter, after all. She doesn’t have anything to do with Divine Doctor Lin, so what’s the worst that could happen?” Gao Zhiyuan mumbled to himself, and he stopped thinking about this before making the arrangements for He Jiaojiao.

In the conference room.

He Jiaojiao was listening to Gao Zhiyuan’s story about Divine Doctor Lin’s mythical doings as delight crept up her arrogant face. “Hahaha! It looks like this trip is going to be worth it, Elder Gao! I didn’t expect Divine Doctor Lin to be this magical! I’m surprised! Don’t worry. I’ll introduce him to my grandfather as long as he can make me prettier!" He Jiaojiao was elated, as nothing was more important for a woman than having a beautiful face.

Elder Gao nodded in satisfaction at her promise. Creak! At that moment, the conference room door was pushed open from the outside, thereupon a man in surgical clothes and mask came in. "Huh? Divine Doctor Lin, what are you..." Gao Zhiyuan was surprised, as he didn't expect Lin Fan to change into surgical attire, and he even had a mask on. Is there a surgery scheduled for today?

Divine Doctor Lin! He Jiaojiao and the boy toy were excited when they heard Gao Zhiyuan mentioned the name. "Hello, Mr. Lin. I'm He Jiaojiao, the granddaughter of Grandmaster He Lanshan! It's a pleasure to meet you!" He Jiaojiao introduced herself passionately.

Lin Fan nodded his head calmly, before asking, "Are you sick?"

Hmm? He Jiaojiao was taken aback because she didn't expect Divine Doctor Lin to be this forward as to ask if she was sick right after he came in, and the voice sounded familiar to her. He Jiaojiao frowned slightly, but thought nothing of it, so she said with a smile, "Mr. Lin. I'm not sick anywhere. I just want my face to be prettier and more charming. Can you do it?" He Jiaojiao looked at Lin Fan in anticipation after she asked.

Right after Lin Fan heard He Jiaojiao's request, an eerie glint welled up in his eyes. "No, there's nothing wrong with your face, but there is something very wrong with your head."

What? Lin Fan sounded cold, and Elder Gao, He Jiaojiao, and the boy toy couldn't believe what they had heard. There's a problem with my head? Is this guy insulting me? When He Jiaojiao snapped out of it, the passion on her face receded, thereupon it darkened. "H-How dare you insult me?!"

Insult? Lin Fan shook his head calmly. "No, you misunderstood me. I'm not insulting you. I just want to ruin you."

I just want to ruin you. When Lin Fan said that, He Jiaojiao and Elder Gao were at a loss for words. What's happening? Divine Doctor Lin insulted He Jiaojiao the moment he came in, and he even threatened to ruin her. W-What's going on? Gao Zhiyuan's feeling of dread worsened, but before he could ask, something unimaginable happened.

Whoosh! In a blink of an eye, Lin Fan positioned himself before sending a roundhouse kick flying at He Jiaojiao's right leg. It slammed into her thigh a second later, sending her tumbling down.

"Ah!!!" The excruciating pain made He Jiaojiao scream shrilly, and she could feel an overwhelming agony coming from her leg. Much to He Jiaojiao's horror, her leg was broken by Lin Fan's kick, and the bone spur punctured her skin and pierced through her pants, protruding itself in the air as thick blood gushed out from the wound.

It was a bloody sight, and that injury didn't look like it was done by a human. Instead, it looked like He Jiaojiao was rammed by a car. *Argh! You b*stard! H-How dare you break my leg? Why? Why did you do this?* He Jiaojiao's face was filled with horror and panic. The pain from her broken leg made her shiver, and she was drenched in cold sweat.

She wasn't the only one who was shocked; Elder Gao and the boy toy were shocked too. Cruel! They had never seen someone vicious enough to break someone's leg without any warning. Lin Fan's cruelty made Elder Gao and the boy toy's hairs stood on end.

After hearing her scream, Lin Fan smirked. "Why?

Because I told you that you'd never walk out of this hospital." Lin Fan slowly pulled off his mask, and when they saw his face, He Jiaojiao and the boy toy were stunned.

"It's you?" He Jiaojiao couldn't believe what she was seeing. Aren't I supposed to see Divine Doctor Lin? Why did this barbarian appear? Is he a fake? Is he impersonating Divine Doctor Lin? "Elder Gao, hurry! Get someone to arrest this b*stard who's impersonating Divine Doctor Lin! This damn b*stard broke my leg and impersonated Divine Doctor Lin!" He Jiaojiao screeched at Elder Gao, as Divine Doctor Lin—in her opinion—should be a respectable older man, as he was a great practitioner of traditional Chinese medicine. As such, Lin Fan must be impersonating him.

Even after He Jiaojiao screamed at Gao Zhiyuan, the latter still had to deliver the shocking news. "I'm afraid you've mistaken, Miss He. He is the actual Divine Doctor Lin." Immediately, He Jiaojiao and the boy toy's faces froze.

H-He's Divine Doctor Lin? How is this possible? He Jiaojiao thought this must be a dream, as she had never seen a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner being so young. This must be fake! But then, she remembered what Lin Fan said. He said he wouldn't let me 'walk' out of the hospital, and now... He Jiaojiao was as pale as a ghost, but she still looked at Lin Fan with hatred and malice. "How dare you do this to me, kid?! Do you know that I'm He Lanshan's granddaughter? Aren't you worried that my grandfather will take revenge on you?" He Jiaojiao was shocked yet angered. She thought that she was high and mighty, so it was no big deal if she crashed into an old lady, but she didn't expect the old lady to be Divine Doctor Lin's mother-in-law. This was one big grudge.

“Your grandfather?” Lin Fan smiled eerily and mocked, “Don’t you worry. He doesn’t need to come and find me, because I’ll go meet him at the grandmasters’ fight tomorrow!”

He Jiaojiao couldn’t believe what she had heard. Does this guy want to fight Grandpa at the grandmasters’ fight? Mad! This guy must be crazy! “How dare you, kid? I’m going to get back at you for this, otherwise I shall no longer be He Jiaojiao! Wait! Just you wait!” He Jiaojiao could only throw empty threats as her leg was already broken, and based on how vicious Lin Fan was, her life would be in danger if she stayed here.

When she thought of this, she turned to the boy toy and scolded, “What are you standing there for, you trash? Can’t you see my leg is broken? G-Get me to the hospital!”

The hospital? The boy toy’s lips twitched. This is a hospital, and the guy who ruined your leg is the most famous doctor in Jiang City. However, the boy toy said nothing more, and he went up to He Jiaojiao to piggyback her before hopping away like a frightened rabbit.

Meanwhile, in the hospital’s first floor’s corridor.

Bai Yi and Bai Shan pushed Shen Yumei out from the examination room in a wheelchair. “I can’t believe it! Lin Fan actually managed to perform fracture reduction! Your leg would be gone if it weren’t for him!” Fear still lingered on Bai Shan’s face, as the doctor who did the examination told them that if it weren't for the timely fracture reduction, even if Shen Yumei was cured, she would have a disability for her whole life. Bai Yi had a complicated look on her face; she couldn't imagine how her husband managed to do it, since even Elder Gao couldn't perform this in such a short time.

Shen Yumei was smiling because she was in a buoyant mood. "Where's Lin Fan? I need to thank that boy!" she said.

Lin Fan? Bai Shan and Bai Yi were taken aback. Yeah, he said he was going to the bathroom, so why isn't he back yet? Lin Fan couldn't have gone to see He Jiaojiao and take revenge, right? Bai Shan was scared when he thought of that possibility.

He wasn't the only one who was scared, as cold sweat also poured from Bai Yi's forehead. Just as they were panicking, they heard the sounds of hurried footsteps coming from the elevator before they saw a boy toy piggybacking a woman with heavy makeup. Blood was flowing from her thigh; her leg looked like it was rammed by a train, and it was utterly broken.

When they saw who she was, Bai Yi and her parents were flabbergasted. "H-He Jiaojiao! Her leg..." Bai Shan, Bai Yi, and Shen Yumei's eyes almost popped out, and they suddenly recalled Lin Fan's words. You will suffer the same injury as my mother-in-law did. And now, his threats came true.
