

Chapter 251 Give Me an Idea

“Emperor-tier guest? I-Impossible! How can this be?” Fatty was scared out of his wits, and cold sweat poured from his forehead as he couldn’t believe paupers like Lin Fan and Bai Yi were Emperor-tier guests. “Golden Age Group’s Emperor-tier cards are only owned by China’s top echelons! Is this woman that kind of person? How is this possible?” Fatty refused to believe it, as no matter how he looked, Lin Fan, Bai Yi, and Shen Yuzhi’s family didn’t look like powerful people.

As Fatty was busy being terrified, He Sheng spoke again, “Miss Bai Yi, as you are our Emperor-tier guest, we’ll prepare the Emperor room, 108 specialty dishes and exquisite wine for you, so do please come with me, everyone.” He Sheng waved at the people behind him, and all the hotel’s top management and welcoming committee parted for them, just like how the Red Sea parted for Moses. Bai Yi’s group was about to go ahead, but Lin Fan raised his hand and stopped them.

“Wait a minute!” It was just a simple sentence, but He Sheng and the other bigshots shivered as they knew who Lin Fan really was. They didn’t dare to greet and bow to Lin Fan because they were worried of making this bigshot angry if they exposed his identity without his permission, but now, the man had spoken.

“Please state your request, Ch—Mr. Lin. We’ll do anything you ask!” He Sheng said respectfully and wiped the sweat from his forehead. When everyone saw this, they were stunned as they thought that He Sheng looked more nervous and respectful toward this young man compared to an Emperor-tier guest like Bai Yi. He was constantly bowing slightly, his sweat was flowing like Niagara Falls, and he trembled as he faced Lin Fan. Everyone found this scene incredulous. What’s happening? Why is He Sheng being so unbelievably respectful to this young man? They thought Lin Fan was the actual person who terrified He Sheng, and they couldn’t fathom it. However, Lin Fan

"One of them gave away our spot to someone else on her own, and the other wanted to take my wife away on top of taking our spot." Lin Fan looked at He Sheng meaningfully. "Tell me, what should we do?" he asked coolly. His briefness made He Sheng, Fatty and the receptionist so scared they almost peed their pants.

"D*mn it..." He Sheng finally realized what had happened, and his face was drained of all color while Fatty and the receptionist's hairs stood on end. Oh no, he's going to take revenge now. The receptionist's legs turned to jelly, and she plopped down to the ground as intense regret filled her up. If she knew who Lin Fan and Bai Yi was, she wouldn't have dared to give away their spot to Fatty. "Guards!" He Sheng roared with a darkened face as killing intention filled his eyes, and a group of burly guards appeared at his summon. "Break this fatty's limbs and throw him out of Golden Age. Blacklist him permanently!" He Sheng then turned to the receptionist. "And get this he is not to step foot in this city ever again!”

He Sheng’s orders scared Fatty and the receptionist out of their wits, and before they could beg for mercy, the guards were already upon them. “D-Don’t break...” Fatty had just started to scream in fear when he was pinned down to the ground, and one of the guards swung his bat, breaking both of Fatty’s calves instantly in two swings. His screams of pain reverberated throughout the lobby, and it sent chills down everyone’s spine. “My legs! Ah!!”

Fatty was trembling in pain, but that wasn’t the end of it. The guard tightened his grip on the bat as he swung again at Fatty’s arms, and with two crisp sounds of breaking bones, Fatty’s arms were ruined. He was now a quadriplegic, and it was a bloody scene. Fatty lost all his arrogance as he curled up on the ground like a dead dog and trembled and yelled in fear. He was in despair and regretted what he did, and if he could turn back time, he would never ever offend a demon like Lin Fan. But no matter how much he regretted it now, it was too late.

He and the receptionist were propped up by some burly guards, and they were dragged like corpses to the doorstep before getting thrown out. Bai Yi and the others were terrified when they saw this, and Shen Yuzhi and her family were looking at Lin Fan as if he was a demon. Those who offended him were destined to be destroyed ruthlessly.

At that thought, Zhang Kaiming and Zhu Ru were relieved that they were relatives with Lin Fan, or else they might have ended up like Fatty and Viper. They glanced at each other and saw the respect and fear they had for Lin Fan in each other's eyes. "Let's go." It was only then did Lin Fan smile calmly as if he had only just killed two bugs; nothing more, nothing less. Right after Lin Fan said that, He Sheng and the hotels' top management quickly guided Lin Fan's group.

It was only at this moment that Shen Yuzhi breathed a sigh of relief and asked Bai Yi curiously, 'Bai Yi, how did you become a Golden Age Group's Emperor-tier member?' Shen Yuzhi was puzzled. After all, that card held immense power, and it was obvious from how He Sheng and the others treated her. Bai Yi was living in Jiang City which was a third-tier city, so how did she get that card?

When Bai Yi heard this, the corner of her lips twitched and she glanced at Lin Fan with a complex gaze before explaining, "Actually, this card was given to me by Lin Fan."

What? Bai Yi's answer shocked Shen Yuzhi and her family as they thought they had already overestimated Lin Fan, but now that they knew Lin Fan could give a way Emperor-tier cards of the Golden Age Group as he wished, they feared how terrifying and mysterious this man was.

At the same time, in a room in Great Fortune Restaurant, a group of three was in the process of negotiation. Bai Yi knew two of them—her uncle, Bai Hai, and her cousin, Bai Yifan, while the man before them was a vicious middle-aged man. There was a long scar across his forehead, and his ear was ripped in half, as if a bullet had tore through it. His eerie temperament made him look like a ferocious tiger, and anyone would be chilled to the bone. He was none other than the owner of Jiang City's Blue Ocean Building—Cai Guofu.

“Ha ha ha! We're counting on you then, Mr. Cai!” Bai Hai was all smiles, obviously very satisfied with how the negotiation had turned out. Then, he snapped his fingers, and Bai Yifan took out two pieces of checks from his pocket and handed them to Cai Guofu. “The amount on one of them is fifty million! Thank you for refusing to deal with Bai Yi and teaching Lin Fan a lesson. The amount on the other one is a hundred million. That will be the funds for the collaboration between Bai Family Group and Blue Ocean. Do please accept it, Mr. Cai.” A hundred and fifty million was a big deal for the Bai Family Group, but the Bai family was going all-out to attack Bai Yi’s New Bai Family Group. Not only were they paying Cai Guofu fifty million for him to reject Bai Yi’s offer of acquiring the Blue Ocean building, but they were also paying a hundred million more just to form an alliance with Cai Guofu.

Cai Guofu took the checks, and when he saw the string of zeros on them, a smile etched itself on his vicious face. “Ha ha ha! That’s too kind of you, Mr. Bai! I’ll be accepting the offer then! Don’t worry! I will never sell the Blue Ocean Building to Bai Yi, and I have a lot of ways to break Lin Fan’s legs!”

His promise made Bai Hai and Bai Yifan beam, and they thought that spending a hundred and fifty million was worth it as long as Bai Yi's New Bai Family Group was impacted and Lin Fan's legs were broken. But just as they were going to continue the discussion on their collaboration, a bodyguard ran in panickedly.

"Bad news, boss!" the bodyguard was drained of all color, and he looked concerned as he said to Cai Guofu.

Cai Guofu's eye twitched and he asked the bodyguard in a low voice, "What happened? Talk!"

"Boss, your brother—Cai Guoquan—was beaten up in Golden Age Hotel just now, and all his limbs are broken!" The bodyguard's voice was trembling.

Cai Guofu, Bai Hai, and Bai Yifan's faces turned grim. "Sh*t! How dare anyone break my brother's limbs? Who the f*ck did it?" Cai Guofu's face darkened, and Bai Hai and Bai Yifan were in disbelief as the Cai siblings were on great terms with the law and outlaws in Yunhai City. They were a powerhouse, yet someone had actually had the guts to break Cai Guoquan's limbs. That person was as good as dead now.

The bodyguard didn't look too good, but he still answered, "I-It was He Sheng, the chairman of Golden Age Hotel. He and his men did it! They say it's because Master Guoquan harassed a woman, and he offended that woman's husband!" And that was a shocking statement.

The night was getting old, but the lights in one of Yunhai City's First People's Hospital's high-end wards were still on. A group of burly men in black suits were patrolling in the corridor and all of them looked fierce, and the glint in their eyes spoke of the blood that was on their hands. They were keeping watch over a ward, and only two men were in there:

one of them was standing, while another was lying on the bed.

“Who did you offend to the point that they broke your limbs, Guoquan?” Cai Guofu—who was standing beside the bed—looked cold, and a man with bandaged limbs was before him. He was none other than Fatty who had his limbs broken back in the Golden Age Hotel, and he was Cai Guofu’s brother—Cai Guoquan.

Cai Guoquan almost cried at this question. “Guofu, a brat did this to me! His wife was gorgeous and I wanted to play with her for a couple of days, but I didn’t expect her to be the Golden Age Hotel’s Emperor-tier guest!”

What? Emperor-tier guest? Cai Guofu was shocked at this reveal, as he knew that every single owner of the Golden Age Group’s Emperor’s skull card was a top dog in China, and only the biggest bigshots in Dragon City could have this. Why would someone like thi s come to a small city like Yunhai City? “Impossible! Yunhai City is just a third-tier city! I would have known if any bigshots were to arrive!” Cai Guofu thought that something was not right, so he asked for details. “Describe the woman and the man’s faces to me!”

Cai Guoquan quickly told him about Bai Yi and Lin Fan’s looks, attire, and even their accents, and when he was done listening, Cai Guofu’s face darkened. “I know who she is! Is her name Bai Yi?”

Cai Guoquan recalled what happened in the hotel, and he remembered He Sheng calling that woman ‘Miss Bai Yi.’ “Yes, it’s her! Golden Age Hotel’s Chairman, He Sheng, called her Miss Bai Yi, and her husband’s surname is Lin!”

When he had the confirmation, killing intention appeared in Cai Guofu’s eyes.

“Do you know this woman, Guofu?” Cai Guoquan was worked up.

“Of course I do!” Cai Guofu sneered. “Do you remember that I told you someone wants to buy my Blue Ocean Building in Jiang City? It was this woman! She’s Bai Yi, and she was the president of Bai Family Group. However, she was evicted from the Bai family, and she subsequently founded the New Bai Family Group. Her husband is Lin Fan, and he is the infamous live-in son-in-law in Jiang City; a loser who only relies on women!”

Cai Guoquan was furious after he heard his brother’s explanation as he thought he had offended someone in the country’s top echelon, and he didn’t even dare to think of revenge since he was scared out of his wits. However, he had never thought that Lin Fan and Bai Yi were just a couple of people from Jiang City who were going to open a company. “Then how did they get the Emperor-tier card?” Cai Guoquan was still shocked.

Cai Guofu sneered at that question. “I heard someone called Lin Guangyao mention this before, and he said Lin Fan stole it from somewhere.”

What? He stole it? Cai Guoquan was fuming as he didn’t expect himself to be so careless to be tricked by a mere thief. “Avenge me, Guofu! I want to tear that kid limb from limb, and I want to r*pe that bi*ch until she dies!” Cai Guoquan roared primitively when he felt the pain in his limbs.

Cai Guofu smiled faintly. “Don’t worry. I got Bai Yi to come to Yunhai City because I heard that this woman was gorgeous. Moreover, Bai Hai from the Bai family has some connections with me, and he has asked me to teach Lin Fan a painful lesson.” Cai Guofu started smiling eerily. “I just didn’t think they would have the guts and be stupid enough to break your limbs! Fine then! I’ll kill Lin Fan tomorrow, and I’ll give Bai Yi a taste of my spear down here! Ha ha ha!” Cai Guofu laughed sinisterly.

Cai Guoquan who was lying on the bed was also elated. “Don’t forget about me, Guofu! I’ll come over to see what you do to that woman on my wheelchair, ha ha ha! How dare this b*tch’s husband break my leg? I will make sure his eyes are wide open when you r*pe his wife!”

At this, the siblings looked at each other and a perverted smile appeared on their faces, and when everything was settled, Cai Guofu had a concerned look on his face as he announced, “But I have a very important thing to do tomorrow.”

Cai Guoquan was taken aback at first, but then he asked curiously, “Guofu, what can be more important than killing Lin Fan and r*ping Bai Yi?”

“Listen to me. I got heavyweight news today!” Fear and respect appeared on Cai Guofu’s face. “Today, a bigshot has appeared in Jiang City, and even though he's not the country's leader, he's someone who can shake the whole of Jiangnan. He's someone who can attract the attention of even the conglomerates like the Fei and Qi family, and even underworld bosses like Jin Gang!"

What? The hurt Cai Guoquan almost jumped up in shock and he shivered. He and his brothers were on great terms with the law and the outlaw in Yunhai City, and they did have some power, but they were nothing compared to people like the Fei family, Qi family and Jin Gang. They would be killed if those bigshots wanted them to die, and Cai Guoquan couldn't imagine just who it was that could shake bigshots like the Fei family, Qi family, and Jin Gang. "Who is that person, Guofu?" Cai Guoquan asked in disbelief.

"That person is the savior of Mr. Fei and the slayer of Blood Wolf—Grandmaster Lin!" Cai Guofu had on a look of worship. “I begged a lot of the people in the high society today before they were willing to tell me that the bigshots of this city would be holding a feast for Grandmaster Lin tomorrow evening at Great Fortune Restaurant. I have spent a lot of money, but I managed to get one ticket!”

Grandmaster Lin! Cai Guoquan had heard of this man as he was a powerful entity who shook Jiangnan to its core and who destroyed Blood Wolf. If his brother could successfully butter up someone like Grandmaster Lin, and that they would be living the high life after this. At that thought, Cai Guoquan was delighted. “Ha ha ha! That’s great news! We’ll reserve a room in Great Fortune Restaurant tomorrow! You do Bai Yi first, then go to the feast and get to know Grandmaster Lin!” The pair of siblings were beaming as they spoke.

Chapter 253 You Married a Great Husband

The next day, Bai Yi finally managed to come into contact with Blue Ocean Building's owner—Cai Guofu, and after some coordination, Cai Guofu invited Bai Yi to come to Great Fortune Restaurant at seven to talk about the deal of Blue Ocean Building's acquisition. When Bai Yi received his invitation, she was very happy and agreed to attend immediately.

Aside from that, her aunt—Shen Yuzhi had come to her room at noon and passed her a crimson invitation card, and when Bai Yi saw the names on there, she was shocked. The people who were inviting them were the Fei family, Qi family, Zhou family, Huang family, Jin Gang, Elder Ma from the collection gallery and a few other big shots!

Bai Yi couldn't believe what she was seeing as the invitation had all the names of the powerful families and conglomerates in Yunhai City, and it was incredible. "Auntie, are you sure this invitation is for me and Lin Fan?" Bai Yi's voice was trembling. After all, every name on the invitation was a lot more powerful than her or even Jiang City's Bai Family, but now, all these bigshots had come together and were actually inviting her. Bai Yi thought that she was dreaming.

"That is correct." Shen Yuzhi smiled bitterly and she took a furtive glance at Lin Fan before telling Bai Yi, "Bai Yi, Mr. Fei sent this invitation to my home this morning by himself. He even reminded me to tell you and Lin Fan to attend the feast as this would delight them."

Bai Yi was thunderstruck and she paled. Mr. Fei. She knew this person as the big shot who had given her a massive deal back in Jiang City's Shen residence, even though that deal belonged to the Bai family now. At that time, Bai Yi thought that it was mere dumb luck, and Mr. Fei would have already forgotten a minor president like her, bu t now she saw that her guess was wrong. "Auntie, did Mr. Fei tell you the reason they invited me and Lin Fan?" Trepidation filled Bai Yi's mind as she wasn't on the same level with the bigshots on the name list, and their joint invitation scared her.

"Mr. Fei didn't tell me anything, but..." Shen Yuzhi glanced at Lin Fan furtively again. "But they seemed quite sincere, so just go with Lin Fan, okay?"

Bai Yi mulled over it before nodding as she was left with no choice. "Please tell Mr. Fei that Lin Fan and I will be at Great Fortune Restaurant tonight."

It was only then did Shen Yuzhi finally breathe a sigh of relief, and she smiled. "I have to thank you this time, Bai Yi. You married an excellent husband!" Shen Yuzhi then waved at her before she opened the door and left.

Hm? The last part of Shen Yuzhi's sent ence surprised Bai Yi. did she mean by that? Does this invitation have something to do with Lin Fan?

At this thought, Bai Yi couldn't help but turn to Lin Fan and interrogate him. "Lin Fan, did Mr. Fei invite us because of you?" Bai Yi was getting more suspicious about Lin Fan's identity as all the troubles their family had gotten into recently were easily solved by Lin Fan, and she thought that it was unbelievable after some pondering.

Lin Fan was already prepared for this. "Oh, you think too much, dear. I follow you around all day and I don't know anyone, so how can this invitation have anything to do with me?"

That's true. Bai Yi nodded. Indeed, she was always together with Lin Fan, and she had never seen anyone paying him a visit. She was obviously reading too deep into this. "Alright then. You should get ready now. We have to meet Cai Guofu to talk about the Blue Ocean Building's acquisition at seven, and then we'll go to the event Mr. Fei is holding at eight."

Time flew by and it was evening in the blink of an eye. Lin Fan and Bai Yi freshened themselves up before leaving the hotel, but Lin Fan frowned the moment they got into the car because he noticed that four people were following them.

Hah! So you think you can follow me? Lin Fan sneered silently and thought that the enemies' following skills were too elementary. They were in simple disguises, but even if they went all-out with their disguises and hid themselves among the crowd, Lin Fan would still know where all of them were if they so much as glanced at him. Lin Fan was sure these people were following him as their eyes were locked on him. "Someone has a death wish," Lin Fan mumbled as he revved up the car.

The same time the Benz left the hotel's parking lot, a Toyota Prado tailed it from afar, and there were four burly figures sitting inside. They were the bodyguards of Cai Guofu, the owner of Blue Ocean Building, and all of them used to be underground boxers who could take on ten enemies on their own. To them, killing Lin Fan would just be a trivial matter.

"Heh, that kid is finally going out. I bet he doesn't know that he's on the highway to hell this time!" one of the hitmen sneered, and everyone else nodded.

"It's a pity we can't follow Mr. Cai to the feast Mr. Fei and the big shots are holding." When the feast was mentioned, all the bodyguards were silent as they knew Mr. Cai had spent a lot of money to get a ticket for the feast tonight, which was held to welcome the VVIP—Grandmaster Lin. When they thought of Grandmaster Lin's fame, these bodyguards couldn't help but lament.

"I can't imagine how powerful Grandmaster Lin is. Blood Wolf was mind blowingly strong, but he couldn't even take three hits from Grandmaster Lin!"

"Yeah. I heard that the greatest martial art expert in Yunhai City—Jin Gang—lost to a nameless nobody in Jiang City not long ago, but that nobody was tutored by Grandmaster Lin. I didn't believe it at first, but now I do."

All the bodyguards had looks of worship and respect on their faces, but little did they know that their target of assassination this time was none other than the devil himself—Grandmaster Lin.
