

Chapter 40 The Whole World Suffers With Her

The cane hit heavily on Victoria's calf. She endured the pain, muffled a grunt, and bent her knees and fell straight to the ground.

However, she was unconvinced in her heart and stubbornly held her chin high, her eyes squeezed with tears. She turned around her head, glared at Franklin, who was gloating at the side, then asked Samuel.

"Grandpa, why do I have to kneel down? Did I do anythong wrong?"

With a hint of resentment and aggravation, Victoria stubbornly wiped her tears that were rolling down from the corner of her eyes.

Without waiting for Samuel to speak, Franklin jumped out and, with his hands behind his back, walked around Victoria and sneered.

"Victoria, at this point, you still refuse to tell the truth. Do you have to be punished by the family law before you admit your mistake?"

Franklin was wild with joys.

Especially when he saw Victoria kneeling in front of so many people, he was overwhelmed.

Victoria, who was always so proud of herself, were kneeling in front of me.

"What have I done!"

Victoria glared at Franklin indignantly.

Samuel blew his beard in anger and raised his hand, pointing tremblingly at Victoria, and chided.

"Well, well, still don't admit your mistake, do you? I'll whip you to death!"

After saying that, Samuel walked directly to Victoria there with his cane, raised his hand, and without saying a word, gave Victoria a resounding slap!

"Still doesn't admit it, do you? I'll beat you up until you admit you're wrong!"

Samuel cursed with hatred.

Victoria covered her red cheeks, and her tears completely burst out like a leaking dike.

She really didn't know what she had done wrong, but so many people looking at her menacingly and gloating as soon as she came in.

Franklin, in particular, was making the situation worse by slandering her.

Samuel shouted in a cold voice and asked.

"Let me ask you, did you ask Maximilian to go to the Graham Group to fight for your position as one in charge of the cooperation?"

Hearing this, Victoria froze, her face looked puzzled as she replied.

"Grandpa, I don't, I don't know what you're talking about."

What? Maximilian went to the Graham Group?

"You're still pretending, aren't you? I saw it with my own eyes, and Maximilian was in Mr. Graham's office!"

Franklin immediately chimed in and accused.

"Victoria, do you know? Because of Maximilian, Ralphie withdrew our contract, and you dare to say that this has nothing to do with you? In my opinion, you are the one who secretly planned this!"

Victoria was so angry. She didn't know why Franklin blamed everything on her.

Still denying it, she said.

"I didn't, you are lying!

How could Maximilian go to the Garham Group? He doesn't even know Mr. Graham!"

"Franklin, it's you who failed to sign the contract, why do you want to blame me and Maximilian for your mistake?"

Victoria questioned, but, Franklin immediately retorted.

"Bullshit! I'm the most outstanding one in the company, would Mr. Graham not sign a contract with me? It's all because of you and Maximilian! You betrayed the company and our family!

You just can't get that job and want to ruin it!"

After saying that, Franklin immediately turned to look at Samuel and said.

"Grandpa, don't listen to her, she's lying."

Samuel was furious, and he couldn't recognize who was right or who was wrong. However, he only trust his eldest grandson.

The cane in his hand hit the floor heavily with a few thuds, and Samuel bellowed angrily.

"It seems that you won't tell the truth until I teach you a lesson!"

After saying that, Samuel said to the two guards.

"You two, slap her, I want to see how tough she is!"

Without saying a word, the two guards walked towards Victoria with cold looks, one of them, clasped

Victoria's slender arms, while the other, viciously grabbed her hair with one hand.

Clap! A crisp slap slammed through the entire conference room!

Clap! Another slap!

However, Victoria really had hard bones, gritting her teeth and forcing herself to endure, she didn't even make a sound!

Franklin and the other relatives of the Griffith family were standing beside with indifferent eyes, and none of them were willing to step forward to stop them or say anything.

They were all demons.

Beat her to death, beat her to death!

This was the voice of all of them, just because Victoria was too outstanding, and they didn't want to see such a person stay in the Griffith family.

Bang!

Suddenly, the door to the conference room was slammed open and Laura stumbled in, immediately kneeling down in front of Samuel and begging for mercy with tears rolling in her eyes.

"Dad, please, stop it, she's your granddaughter, Dad."

Huh!

Samuel snorted, kicked Laura away, and chilled his face as he bellowed.

"Today, no one is allowed to plead for her, and whoever dares to plead for her will be punished by the family law!"

Seeing Victoria being beaten, Laura was anxious, however, she had to obey Samuel's order.

Laura usually complained in front of Maximilian, and when she really encountered something serious, she was definitely the first one to run away. She was used to bully the weak, but afraid the strong.

"Victoria, what have you done? just admit it, or you will be beaten to death."

Laura whispered to Victoria.

Victoria stubbornly kept her mouth closed, the blood running down from her mouth could no longer be stopped.

Why did she admit something she didn't do?

Seeing this, Samuel flung his hands in anger and chided.

"Okay, I'll see how long you can last, keep beating her!"

Iris in the crowd, who was currently holding her arms with a cold smile, hurriedly took out her phone and recorded the scene of Samuel scolding

Victoria.

And then she posted it to her Wechat moments with a text.

The black sheep of the Griffith family!

She betrayed herself because of a contract, and in the end, she betrayed the Griffith family!

Beat her to death!

Bitch! After doing all this, Iris watched the show in satisfaction.

Meanwhile, Maximilian was on his way home. Suddenly, his phone vibrated, and when he took it out, he saw Leila sent him a short video, saying:

Maximilian! Go to save Victoria!

She's about to be killed!

Seeing this, Maximilian's eyes froze and quickly clicked on the video, and he saw Victoria was slapped by two security guards in the Griffith family in the chaotic scene, and many people present were scolding her!

Without hesitation, Maximilian quickly called a car and rushed to the Yunsheng Pharmaceutical of the Griffith family!

When he appeared at the conference room, he saw Victoria was lying on the floor, dying, her face was red and swollen, the corners of her mouth were covered with blood!

At that moment, a monstrous killing intent rolled up in Maximilian's heart and directly filled the entire conference room!

He was exploding!

Infinite rage exploded at this moment!

He tugged his fists, squeezing them ironically, and with a sullen face, he took several steps to Victoria, taking a few deep breaths to suppress his anger!

How dare they hit Victoria!

No one, in this world, could treat Victoria like that!

No one could hurt his wife!

When Victoria smiled, the whole world would bloom into spring.

But if she cried, he would let the world suffer with her!

Whoever bullied Victoria would have to pay a terrible price!

"Maximilian, you're finally here! Huh, do you want to be like her, or do you want to confess?"

Franklin was now striding out with flair, his hands in his pockets, reaching out to slap on Maximilian.
