

Chapter 78 Targeted

The head of the Waldon family and his son and daughter went out.

This incident, in a small way, ignited a topic of public discussion in H City.

After all, the Waldon family was considered a second-rate powerful family in H City, and its status in H City was only higher compared to the Griffith family.

And that the talk about Cole being brutally beaten up at Yunsheng Pharmaceutical and Mollie being beaten up by the Victoria couple soon spread through the middle circles of H City.

Everyone was dumbfounded when they watched the video as it went viral online, and unable to speak for a long time.

"Damn! Maximilian is quite fierce, not like a wimp at all, and he dared to provoke even a female tiger like Mollie."

"Oh, a waste is just a waste, what waves can he turn up? Now the Waldon family went to the Yunsheng Pharmaceutical to look for trouble."

"It's true that Victoria is out of luck this time for having such a brainless husband."

The crowd was talking in various groups, with contempt and gloating between their words.

Almost everyone concluded that this time, the head of the Waldon family had brought his son and daughter to ask for an explanation.

Ten minutes ago, Franklin came back to the company from the cafe downstairs and saw the crowd had dispersed, and he couldn't help but pull a faint sneer from the corner of his mouth as he casually looked for someone to ask, "Where are Vice President Victoria and Miss Mollie?"

The employee hurriedly stammered in fear and said, "Vice President Victoria is out, and Miss Mollie is also gone."

Franklin's eyebrows were locked, looking at the crowd's dodging appearance. He had a hint of bad luck in his heart and hurriedly asked, "What happened?"

The employee then gave a rundown of what had happened.

After hearing it, Franklin was shocked and then angry.

"What? Cole was beaten? Victoria even beat up Mollie?!"

Holy shit! Victoria, you were finished. You were definitely finished this time!

Almost without a second thought, Franklin knew his chance had finally come.

Victoria dared to hit the investor, and she really made a death wish.

While thinking, he hurriedly turned his head and left the company. He drove to the old mansion, and entered the door, shouting,

"Grandpa, something's wrong, something's wrong!"

Grandpa Samuel was currently watering the flowers, talking to the birds in the garden, and when he saw Franklin running over, his face was full of coldness as he rebuked.

"You are making a scene, when can you be more reliable?"

Franklin swallowed a few times and panted,

"Grandpa, it's urgent, it's a big emergency. Victoria beat up Mollie, and, I heard on my way here just now that Uncle Waldon brought Cole and Mollie over to Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals for an explanation!"

Clap!

The kettle in Grandpa Samuel's hand fell to the ground, and his entire body was somewhat bewildered, as he asked,

"What the hell is going on? How did Victoria hit Mollie?"

Following that, Franklin exaggerated embellishment to what had just happened in the company while rendering Victoria arrogant and domineering, and describing Maximilian's rush to beat Mollie violently as something guilty beyond forgiveness.

Of course, the matter of Master

Phillip coming later was not mentioned by Franklin.

Because he was also puzzled in his heart that Master Phillip was actually not helping Cole.

"How dare she? This Victoria, she really has the audacity to beat up even the spoiled lady of the Waldon family!"

Grandpa Samuel gasped with his face full of anger as he shouted, "And this Maximilian, what does he want? He's causing trouble for my Griffith family! You, call now and tell them both to meet me at the office!"

"Okay, Grandpa." Franklin's face showed anxiety and concern, but inwardly he was sneering.

Aha ha! Well, let's see where you and Maximilian can run this time!

Victoria, I was afraid that your position as Vice President won't last for long.

A few minutes later, Victoria in the hospital received a call from Franklin, and the call was straightforward with a tyrannical roar,

"Victoria, hurry up and get your ass to the office with Maximilian!"

As soon as Victoria heard it was Franklin's voice, she directly said back coldly.

"Sorry, I am not available right now."

"How dare you, it was Grandpa who told me to inform you!"

Franklin shouted, and on the side, Grandpa Samuel's face sank as he yelled,

"Victoria, take Maximilian, kneel down in front of the company and wait for me!"

After saying that, Grandpa Samuel leaned on his crutches and hurriedly left the door.

And Franklin wildly sneered at the phone.

"Victoria, you're dead this time, I'm going to terminate you!"

Pop.

The phone hung up, and Victoria looked at the phone with a stony look on her face.

Maximilian just happened to walk in from the doorway. When he saw Victoria's pale face, he asked, "What's the matter, you look so pale?"

"Franklin called and told us to go to the company right now. Grandpa wants to see us. It is said that the head of the Waldon family has come with Cole and Mollie to look for trouble."

Victoria raised her eyebrows and looked at Maximilian with a worried look, "What should we do, Maximilian? We've gotten into a big trouble this time."

She was anxious in her heart. Franklin must have fanned the flames of trouble in grandpa's ears; otherwise grandpa wouldn't have been so angry just now.

Moreover, Dylan, the head of the Waldon family, was known to be protective of his offspring. Therefore, she and Maximilian had beaten Mollie, and according to Dylan's nature, he would definitely not give up in peace.

Maximilian looked at the anxious look on Victoria's face and smiled faintly while saying,

"It's okay, just go, we'll see what happens when we get there. Maybe they're just to apologize to us."

Upon hearing these words, Victoria's heart trembled, her willow-shaped eyebrows twisted. Looking at Maximilian's playful face, she pouted and gave him a wild look while saying,

"At this time, you are still in the mood for joking!"

With that, she picked up her bag and was about to leave after saying a few words to Sissi.

While seeing that Maximilian followed her, Victoria immediately turned her head and said coldly,

"You just stay here with Sissi. I'll go over there myself."

Maximilian shuddered and looked at Victoria's flickering gaze and understood everything.

She was trying to carry the blames all by herself.

She kind of cared about him.

"You're my wife, how can I let you go into danger alone?"

Maximilian said, "Don't worry, nothing will happen. If something does happen, I'll deal with it."

"You....." Victoria wanted to say something else, but Maximilian had already walked straightly out.

She stomped her foot with hatred and glared at Maximilian's back, thinking he was quite macho.

Really, he had to go out and be a hero.

"Wait for me." Victoria shouted and went after him.

Grandpa Samuel had already arrived at the company in Franklin's car.

At this moment, everyone in Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals was like being in a big battle ground, all the executives were gathered in the conference room, chattering.

"Look, Victoria is in big trouble this time!"

"Of course, what can she learn by following a piece of shit like Maximilian?"

"Forget about it, when the time comes, just hand Victoria and Maximilian over, as this matter has nothing to do with our Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals!"

The crowd basically shifted the blame to Victoria and Maximilian.

At this moment, Victoria and Maximilian had become public enemy No.1 of Yunsheng Pharmaceutical, and everyone was shouting at them.

Cadence couldn't endure this anymore and got up angrily, shouting.

"You guys can't do this! It was clearly Mollie's fault. She was the one who hit Vice President Victoria first, so why are you guys criticizing Vice President Victoria now?"

She stood alone in the corner and shouted with powerless words.

A number of people around her turned their attention to her while pointing their fingers and said,

"Who is this woman that dares to say that at this time?"

"Oh, she is Victoria's assistant. She is still speaking for Victoria now."

Faced with the indifference from the crowd, Cadence was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan.

She was about to say something else, but was tugged aside by a couple of her friends who were gesturing to her to stop.

Cadence gritted her teeth in anger, took out the phone she had just bought and sent a text message to Victoria.

Victoria, don't come to the office!

Don't ever come!

It was at this moment that Grandpa Samuel and Franklin walked into the conference room together.

Everyone could see that Grandpa Samuel was now at the center of the storm, as he was full of anger and his footsteps were faster than usual.

Franklin, on the other hand, followed behind him and shouted, "All be quiet."

Instantly, the entire room went quiet.

Franklin locked onto Cadence who was playing with her phone in that corner with a single glance, and with a flash of anger, he walked up and shouted,

"What are you doing? You are still playing with your phone, do you think this is a tea party?!"

Franklin brutally snatched the phone out of Cadence's hand and took a glance to see the text message in editing.

"Well! How dare you tip off Victoria?"

Franklin said angrily before going up and slapping Cadence violently on her face.

Cadence was aggrieved while covering her face and looked at Franklin with tears in her eyes.

Franklin immediately pointed at the door and said angrily,

"You're fired, get out now!"

After saying that, he ignored Cadence and walked to Grandpa Samuel's side.

Grandpa Samuel didn't pay attention to what happened over there at all, but his face chilled when he said,

"We gather everyone together to discuss how to deal with this matter of the Waldon family. First, revoke Victoria's position as vice president; Second, hand Victoria and Maximilian over to the Waldon family, let's all vote on it."

Chapter 79 Maximilian's Arrogance

In an instant, the crowd in the conference room spoke up, and it was obvious that everyone meant to agree with Grandpa Samuel's suggestion.

Franklin was happy to see this scene, as the big picture had been decided!

Meanwhile, at the entrance of Yunsheng Pharmaceutical Company, Victoria and Maximilian had just arrived.

Victoria was about to rush inside, and Maximilian was a few steps behind, walking slowly and not panicking at all.

However, before Victoria could enter the company, she was brutally pushed out by three security guards.

“Vice president Victoria, I'm sorry, you are no longer a member of the company. At the meeting just now, the chairman decided to remove you from the vice president position and fire you at the same time."

One of the guards said with a cold face.

She was a vermin who was causing trouble in the company now.

If members of the Waldon family really came, then they would definitely go down with her.

Upon hearing this, Victoria's entire body was dumbfounded, and she shouted,

"Did Grandpa really do that? I don't believe it, I'm going in!"

After that, she rushed inside.

The guards gave a direct and violent shove and bellowed.

"Barge in again and we'll be unkind to you!"

Victoria stepped on her high heels, and when she didn't stand firmly, she directly leaned her entire body backward.

Fortunately, Maximilian ran over in time and wrapped his arm around Victoria's small back and asked nervously, "Are you okay?"

Victoria stood firm, shook her head, and with a face full of urgency, she said,

"I'm fine, Maximilian, Grandpa removed me from the VP position and fired me again."

When Maximilian heard this, his face turned cold. He glanced angrily at the three security guards, and said in a cold voice.

"Apologize to her! Now!"

They dared to push Victoria! If she fell down the steps, he couldn't imagine what would happen to her!

They were just a few security guards, and they had learned to be a dog counting on its master's backing and turning their back on old associates!

The security guards took a look at Maximilian and snorted coldly while saying

"Oh, I wondered who it was, it turned out to be the wimp Maximilian, what? Look at you like this, do you still want to have a fight with us?!"

The tall, thin guy leading the group waved the riot baton in his hand and looked at Maximilian with a mocking face.

The other two snickered and said, "Maximilian, don't think it is just because you're the son-in-law of the Griffith family, we won't dare to do anything to you.

You're known to everyone in H City as a waste living off a woman, and a five-year-old child would know to be ashamed of you!"

"Vice President Victoria, you shouldn't make things difficult for us either. The chairman said that if you want to go in, you have to kneel at the gate and wait until the Waldon family's car arrives."

Facing with their arrogant attitude, Maximilian's face sank, and he clenched his fist and was about to rush up with a flash of anger in his eyes.

Victoria hurriedly pulled Maximilian and shook her head at him.

"Don't make any more trouble."

Maximilian's eyebrows twisted and pressed Victoria's hand while saying.

"Good people tend to be bullied, don't you understand?"

Victoria froze, and following that, she saw Maximilian turn around and slam his fist directly into the face of the security guard who had pushed her!

BANG!

Instantly, a fist collided with a nose bone!

The security guard who was leading the group felt like he had suffered a heavy blow of iron to his face, his nose bone was directly broken and blood was shooting out from his nose !

"Ah! My nose, my nose, how dare you.....do it to me! Hit him for me, hit him!"

The guard cried out miserably as he covered his blood-soaked nose.

Instantly, the two remaining security guards raised their riot batons and slammed them viciously toward Maximilian's body!

However, Maximilian struck faster than them!

BOOM! BOOM!

The two figures flew out backward and crashed directly into the glass doors of the entrance with a boom while cracking the glass of both doors!

Maximilian deliberately controlled the force of the two kicks.

The young master of the Dragon Sect was not incompetent!

Dragon Sect had its world-wide superb fighting masters and kung fu coaches.

Maximilian, who had trained in martial arts since childhood and learned all the fighting and killing techniques in the world, was naturally easy in dealing with a few security guards.

The security guard, who was covering his bloody nose at this moment, saw this scene and his whole body panicked!

This was not a fucking wimp. This was a brute of a bull!

Two fucking kicks sent his men flying!

In a moment, he just trembled on his legs, raised the riot baton in his hand, pointed at Maximilian who was walking toward him, yelling,

"Don't you come any closer, don't you come any closer....."

Victoria, who was behind him, had a face full of astonishment at this moment, as she couldn't believe that Maximilian actually had such a skill.

In four years, she had never seen Maximilian make any move.

But she knew Maximilian was extremely well-built, and underneath her clothes, he had a tough body with many horrible scars.

In the past, Victoria had asked, but Maximilian always smiled and explained that he had practiced from working on the construction site in the past, and the scars on his body were all from fights when he was a child.

Victoria hurriedly shouted toward him, "Maximilian, that's enough, don't make any more trouble."

Only then did Maximilian controlled his anger and silently retreat to Victoria's side.

At that time, inside the conference room, an assistant ran in and said to Grandpa Samuel.

"Chairman, Victoria and Maximilian stopped downstairs, but....."

"But for what?" Franklin asked.

"Maximilian beat up three security guards, and he is arrogant as hell."

What the assistant said was kind of fanning the flames.

This one was naturally Franklin's people.

Upon hearing this, Franklin immediately pounded his fist on the conference table in anger and said,

"Grandpa, look at this Maximilian, how arrogant he is now! He doesn't even put you and Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals in his eyes. Does he think because we bowed down to Victoria last time, he can just be lawless!"

Grandpa Samuel looked furious as he angrily bang the cane in his hand on the floor tiles as he bellowed.

"Get them on their knees outside!"

"Grandpa, I'll go."

Franklin laughed.

Grandpa Samuel nodded, and Franklin, after receiving the order, immediately trotted out.

He jogged all the way to the door with seven or eight security guards behind him, and saw Victoria and Maximilian standing at the door.

Immediately, Franklin acted pompously towards Victoria and said,

"Victoria, grandpa ordered you to kneel at the door and wait for the Waldon family to come all the way."

When Victoria took a look at Franklin, she immediately knew he must be behind this, and she said with a cold face.

"Why should I kneel down? I want to see grandpa!"

"Oh, you still want to see Grandpa? Dream on!"

Franklin snickered recklessly and followed with his eyes falling on the three beaten guards, and then he saw the two broken doors, his heart trembling.

Was this fucking Maximilian's doing?

That was a fucking brute of a bull!

"Oh, no wonder Victoria has taken a liking to you, so you're so strong. It looks like you guys had very harmonious nights, right? Victoria."

Franklin teased mockingly.

These words made Victoria embarrassed, and her cheeks brushed red as she gasped.

"Franklin, what are you talking about?"

Maximilian stood beside Victoria and felt Victoria's body trembling slightly due to anger.

He stared at Franklin with cold eyes, and his pupils filled with killing intent.

Franklin laughed twice and said.

"You should understand what I'm saying, and I don't want to bullshit you, so get down on your knees!"

"No kneeling! I'm not wrong about this! It's Mollie's fault!" Victoria argued.

Her ears were still echoing with Maximilian's words earlier that good people tended to be bullied.

That was right, she was just too weak in the past and kept choosing to back off, which resulted in the situation today.

This time, she didn't want to back down!

She was going to ask grandpa to find out if he was really going to kick her out of the company!

With a cold laugh, Franklin waved his hand and said in a cold voice.

"You guys, get them both on their knees with their heads on the ground!"

Immediately after, several security guards behind Franklin walked up with sneers and directly surrounded Victoria and Maximilian.

This scared Victoria, and she subconsciously grabbed Maximilian's hand with her entire body shaking from fear.

Maximilian glanced at Victoria beside him with the corners of his mouth smiling slightly.

This subconscious grip she had on him made Maximilian understand that he was so very important in her heart.

While thinking, Maximilian pressed Victoria's hand and turned around, his gentle eyes instantly emitting endless chill, staring at Franklin on top of the steps.

"Do it!"

Franklin was fazed by this one look from Maximilian.

When his words were just finished,

Suddenly, a couple of speeding Mercedes pulled up to the curb.

In the car, several people quickly ran down.

Dylan was sweating and anxious when he watched this scene at the entrance of this Yunsheng Pharmaceutical.

"Dad, that's Victoria, and that's Maximilian beside her."

Cole was the first to identify them.

Dylan's eyes tightened as he stared at Maximilian beside Victoria and immediately ran up, shouting.

"Stop! Stop it all!"

Chapter 80 The Unthinkable

Dylan took his son and daughter immediately trot toward the door.

Franklin, who was arguing with Victoria, raised his eyebrows at this moment. When he saw the visitors, anger on his face immediately transformed into a complimentary smile as he stepped forward to greet them

"Uncle Waldon, you're here."

With a shout, Franklin's glance fell on Victoria with a sneering and teasing look in his eyes.

Since Dylan was here, Victoria and Maximilian were definitely finished!

Franklin extended his hands and tried enthusiastically to shake hands with Dylan.

Dylan, the head of the Waldon family, was considered as the leader of a second-rate powerful family in H City, not inferior to that of the Griffith family.

And, again, he was an investor in Yunsheng Pharmaceutical, Franklin must be cautious to deal with him.

However, in the next second, Franklin froze in place.

Dylan directly ignored him, passed in front of him, rushed to Maximilian with a smile on his face, handed out his hands, and said with a very humble smile.

"Mr. Maximilian, I'm sorry, I've come to make amends to you personally."

This scene left Franklin, the crowd including Victoria, stunned!

Mr. Maximilian?

It was okay that Dylan ignored Franklin, but now he was actually making amends to a loser like Maximilian?

What the fuck was going on here?

Franklin had shock written all over his face with his eyes wide open with shock. He was unable to accept the current situation in front of him.

Victoria was even more surprised as her mouth opened slightly while looking at Dylan incredulously before her eyes fell on Maximilian again.

Dylan actually bowed down to Maximilian and apologized?

What was going on here?

Maximilian also shuddered slightly with his eyebrows knitted and his eyes slightly chilled.

This substantial gaze landed on Dylan, scaring the latter into a jolt!

Abruptly, he remembered what

Connor Davies had said earlier, Mr. Maximilian did not like high profile.....

He was screwed!

Dylan exclaimed in his heart with his head spinning rapidly, and immediately put his hand out to Victoria while apologizing.

"This is Vice President Victoria, right? I'm sorry I'm late! I've come to make amends for my son and daughter."

Upon seeing Dylan turning his face to her, Victoria froze for a moment, followed by a slightly panicked look as she reached out to shake hands with Dylan and said,

"Chairman Waldon, what are you doing here?"

The crowd exhaled, while trying to forget the scene they had just witnessed.

Franklin squeezed out a smile and came over.

"Uncle, what are you doing? Why are you apologizing to her? We are reprimanding Victoria and making her apologize to you.

My grandpa decided to revoke Victoria's position as a vice president, and at the same time kicked her out of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, hoping that the friendship and cooperation between our two families would not be affected by the stupid things she did."

Franklin didn't understand, was it said that Dylan came here to look for trouble?

Why would he bow his head to Victoria and ask for forgiveness.

While he looked at Cole and Mollie again, the two were standing to the side at the moment, not saying a word.

Mollie, who had always been arrogant and impatient, was actually standing in place at this moment with her face full of worries and panics.

And over here, after hearing Franklin's words, Dylan's neck went cold and his body was covered in cold sweat as he asked in a loud voice.

"What? Did you fire Vice President Victoria? No way, absolutely no way!"

Dylan shouted and immediately turned to Franklin with a cold face and said,

"Take me to your grandfather!"

Franklin froze and wanted to say something, but when he came into contact with Dylan's gaze, he could only bow and say, "Uncle, come with me."

Dylan looked back at Victoria, his eyes fell unnoticeably on Maximilian who was on the side, and smiled at Victoria.

"Vice President Victoria, don't worry, this matter is caused by my daughter. I will definitely give you an explanation, and I also hope you won't blame my daughter and my Waldon family."

Victoria was still dumbfounded and frozen at the moment, and she hurriedly shook her head and said,

"Chairman Waldon, you're too kind."

After saying this, Dylan made a gesture of invitation and said,

"Vice President Victoria please, I'll give a reasonable statement for you on this matter."

Everything was blowing up!

Franklin in front of him completely blew up.

Did Dylan actually want to give

Victoria a reasonable statement?

Holy shit!

What the hell did that mean?

"Uncle, it was Victoria who beat up Mollie, why do you still want to protect her?"

Franklin couldn't hold his tongue and asked.

"Shut up!" With a cold look in his eyes, Dylan looked angrily at Franklin and shouted in a deep voice.

"This matter, it was Mollie's fault. If I make a mistake, I have to admit it, right? Do you want my Waldon family to become a target of the people of H City, to become a brutal and unreasonable family in the eyes of people in H City?"

"This..... I dare not, uncle, you are too serious."

Sweat came down from the corner of Franklin's forehead.

He was afraid that Dylan was having a brain fart.

His own daughter was beaten up and he actually had to defend the person who did it.

Following closely, Franklin led Dylan and the others all the way to the conference room.

At this moment in the conference room, Grandpa Samuel was discussing with everyone the countermeasures to deal with Dylan's charges.

Suddenly, Franklin walked in with Dylan, with a depressed look on his face and said,

"Grandpa, Uncle Waldon is here."

As soon as Grandpa Samuel heard this, he hurriedly got up and saw Dylan walking in with a chilly face, followed by Victoria and Maximilian and the others.

"Chairman Waldon, you're finally here."

Grandpa Samuel was full of smiles as he reached out to welcome him.

Dylan didn't shake hands with him at all, but coldly put Grandpa Samuel aside and came straight to the point and said,

"Grandpa Samuel, you're doing it in an inappropriate manner!"

While hearing those words, Grandpa Samuel's body was trembling, and he could see that this Dylan was totally pissed off.

Therefore, he immediately pointed to Victoria and Maximilian behind Dylan and chillingly chided them while saying

"You two, why don't you get over here? Kneel down and kowtow to Mr. Waldon and apologize!"

"That, Mollie, Cole, sorry, it's my poor discipline. I am here today, so you guys feel free to beat them both to vent your anger."

Grandpa Samuel hurriedly smiled at Mollie and Cole behind Dylan.

At this moment, Mollie and Cole didn't dare to answer Grandpa Samuel's words, and they just laughed awkwardly and shook their heads and said,

"No necessary."

Let Victoria and Maximilian kneel down?

They were afraid there would never be a Waldon family in H City anymore after that!

When Dylan saw Grandpa Samuel actually dared to be so rude to Maximilian, he became angry then. When he was just about to chide him,

Grandpa Samuel directly interrupted him and said,

"Chairman Waldon, don't worry, I know everything you want to say, and I will definitely give you an explanation today since everyone is here."

After saying that, Grandpa Samuel pointed at Victoria and Maximilian, and once again shouted angrily.

"What are you still waiting for? get down on your knees!"

With what he said, the cane in his hand was striking heavily on the floor tiles.

Victoria and Maximilian, they were really getting more and more unbridled!

Dylan had come to the door, and they dared to stand still.

However, the next scene made Grandpa Samuel failed to react for a long time.

Dylan stared coldly at Grandpa Samuel and said in a cold voice,

“Chairman Griffith, I think you've misunderstood everything, as I'm not here to seek justice for my son and daughter, and I'm here to seek justice for Victoria!”
