

Chapter 56 They Will Come to Beg You

Hearing Victoria's words, Franklin suddenly became enraged. He stood up and pointed at her, rebuking, "What do you mean? Asking me to apologize to you and that loser Maximilian? Are you crazy?!"

Franklin was driven crazy by her, and his face was full of anger.

Then, he turned around to his cold-looking grandfather and continued.

"Grandfather, listen, what is she talking about? She wants me to apologize to her? It's fine for me to apologize to her. But how dare she ask you to do so? Everyone can tell her fierce ambition from her language.

Grandfather, you couldn't let her trample your dignity." Victoria must be dreaming.

She showed no respect to Samuel by talking to him in this way.

What did she think Samuel was?

Was Samuel the kind of person who could easily admit his mistake?

"Grandpa, I think Franklin is right, Victoria is really getting more and more rude now. She doesn't respect you at all and wants you to apologize to that loser. If it is known by the others, how can the Griffith family survive in the H City? "

Iris tried to make the situation worse with high eyebrows, showing her displeased mood.

The company executives also looked angry, as if they wished to eat Victoria alive.

Samuel got furious, and his cold gaze fell on Victoria as he said in a low voice.

"Say what you just said again!"

Though frightened, Victoria clenched her fist tightly and raised up her chin,

"I... I want all of you to apologize to me."

DANG! Samuel's cane knocked on the floor heavily, he looked terrible with obvious anger around his eyes, shouting,

"How dare you! Who do you think you are? Order me?" Samuel shook his body with anger.

He didn't expect that his own granddaughter dared to give him order.

Did she want him to apologize?

What a joke!

He had never said sorry to anyone in his whole life.

Not to mention apologizing to a loser that married to his family just to make a living.

"Do you really think our Yunsheng pharmaceutical cannot live without the cooperation from the Graham Group?"

Samuel's face was cold, and the atmosphere around him was so oppressive that people couldn't even breathe under his pressure!

It had been a long time since Samuel got so furious that he scared people around.

Victoria also felt the aura from Samuel, the majesty made her panic.

"That's right!

Without Graham Group's cooperation, Yunsheng Pharmaceutical can still cooperate with others, though there will be less profit.

Victoria, you can never blackmail me and grandfather with it!"

Frankin followed the meaning of his grandfather and tried to instigate their relation. As long as Samuel lost his last favor towards Victoria, then it was easy for him to destroy her.

"Victoria, I ask you to apologize to grandfather and give the contract to Franklin."

Iris said beside her. Her arms were around her chest, and she sneered with cold sarcasm around her eyes.

However, Victoria said, "Grandfather, with regard to what happened yesterday, it was you and Franklin's fault. Why can't you apologize to me?"

Clap! Samuel raised his hand and slapped Victoria ferociously, scolding,

"Shut up! If you dare say one more word, I will kick you out of our family!"

Victoria was so aggrieved with a noticeable red slap mark on her cheek.

She clenched her fists in hatred, looked stubbornly at Samuel, and said,

"Shouldn't you apologize if you have done something wrong?"

Samuel trembled with anger, pointing at Victoria and rebuking,

"How dare you? I'll beat you to death!"

After saying that, Samuel raised his cane and was about to whip Victoria.

However, Samuel suddenly thought of something. He let go his hands, frowned and scolded,

"You can keep the contract with the Graham Group if you want. I don't believe our company cannot survive without them"

After saying this, Samuel left the conference room with his people.

Franklin and Iris, along with some juniors followed behind him, gloating,

"Victoria, you're really bold to let grandfather say sorry to you. Did that trash teach you to do so?

Oh, what an idiot!"

"That's right. Don't think you are the only one who should be in charge of the cooperation with the Graham Group. It won't be a threat to us. You heard that. Our company doesn't care the cooperation with them this time."

After saying that, they left with laughter.

Inside the conference room, Victoria was left alone. She wiped her tears, let out a deep breath, and left the conference room.

When she got downstairs, she saw Maximilian, who was standing alone waiting for her.

Maximilian smiled at her, stepped forward, and asked.

"How is it going?"

Clap! Victoria raised her hand and slapped him without any sign. All of her grievance blew out. She shouted,

"It's all your fault! Why did you send me that text? Now my grandfather doesn't care the cooperation with the Graham Group. He thinks the contract is only a piece of waste paper!

Everyone laughed at me, and their looks stab me like knives!"

Looking at Victoria's hysterical appearance, Maximilian was heartbroken.

He also noticed the slap mark on her cheek and reached out to touch her. Then, he asked softly,

"Samuel did this?"

Victoria threw away his hand and walked forwards with anger.

Seeing this, Maximilian got on his motorbike and chased after her.

"I'll take you back. It's miles from home." Victoria ignored him and turned back fiercely, saying

"It's none of your business!"

Seeing she was moody, Maximilian sighed and followed behind her.

This scene caught the attention of many passers-by.

Probably because she couldn't stand the look of others or because she was getting tired, Victoria suddenly stopped and turned around, sitting directly on the back seat and saying,

"Hurry up!" Maximilian smiled, and took Victoria home with his motorcycle.

Laura was almost crazy as soon as she got home when she learned that what happened in the conference room from Marcus.

"Victoria, are you crazy? How dare you ask Samuel to apologize to you in front of so many people?

What if he gets angry and decides to drive us out of the Griffith family?"

Victoria said with a bashful expression.

"It's my own business." Hearing this, Laura's face turned black with anger and growled.

"Your own business? It's about us! Well, just hurry up to the old house and say sorry to your grandfather, or you will not be my daughter anymore!"

Victoria was also in a mess. She believed Maximilian's words, but she never expected that things would turn out to be like this.

Suddenly, she turned her head, looked at Maximilian, who was busy cleaning, and asked with red eyes.

"You said my grandfather and Franklin will come to beg me. Is that real?"

Chapter 57 Thank You, Maximilian

Maximilian turned around and said, "Yes, it won't take long."

Hearing this, Laura looked at Maximilian with disgust and asked in a cold voice.

"What does this matter have to do with you? Did you instruct Victoria to say those things in the conference room?"

Laura immediately looked at Victoria anxiously when she thought of this and asked her in a reprimanding manner.

"Victoria, tell me the fucking truth. Did that loser instruct you to do so? As long as you admit it, then things will be easy. We only need to let him apologize to Samuel."

"Okay, mother. Don't bother me now."

My mind is totally a mess. Could you leave me alone to calm down?" Victoria replied in an unpleasant manner.

"Do you know what time is it? You must be misguided by that loser. Do you think you can believe in what he said? Victoria, I think you're crazy!"

Laura angrily pointed at Victoria and scolded her, at the same time; she slapped her on the face.

Laura really regretted to death when she agreed to marry her daughter to such a trash.

Now her family was falling apart.

Laura's slap froze Victoria. Her tears were running around her eyes. Seeing this, Maximilian's face went gloomy as a pool of stagnant water. He rushed between them and grabbed Laura's hand, saying in a cold voice.

"You can't hit her. We don't know what will happen next. Why can't you trust her?"

Laura was furious, when was that loser's turn to speak?

"How dare you stop me? I think Victoria is probably instigated by you! Get the hell out of here! I am teaching my own daughter a lesson now. What does it have to do with you?"

Laura gasped. Maximilian glanced at her coldly, not moving at all but kept protecting Victoria in front of her.

This was the first time he had acted so brave in this house, in front of Laura.

Looking at Maximilian's cold eyes, Laura suddenly got panicked.

That look was so scary, like a fierce beast was staring at her.

Seeing the situation was getting intense, Marcus stepped forward and said, "Stop! What's the point of arguing when thing goes on like this? Now we have to find a way to let Samuel forgive Victoria."

Only then did Maximilian let go of Laura's hand and said to Victoria.

"Don't worry about it. Just get inside and have a rest."

Victoria stood up with aggrieved eyes, turning around to the bedroom.

Maximilian looked at her back silently.

However, it seemed that Laura was unwilling to let him go easily. She slammed the plate Maximilian was holding down to the ground, pointing at his nose and scolding,

"Maximilian, I'm warning you! Don't lead my daughter to the wrong way!

Sooner or later, you're going to get a divorce. My daughter is going to have a good future and she will definitely not waste her time on you!"

Maximilian didn't say a word, and grabbed the mop to clean up the floor.

Laura stomped her foot in anger and cursed,

"You are noting. I will kick you out of our house sooner or later!"

It was about the lunch time when Maximilian came to the bedroom and found Victoria sitting alone with her hands on her knees, crying in a low voice on the bed.

"What's wrong?" Maximilian asked tentatively.

Victoria turned around, wiped her tears, and choked, "No... nothing."

Maximilian smiled. Her wife looked pretty even when she cried.

"Don't worry. Franklin and Samuel will come to beg you."

Maximilian said.

Victoria raised her eyebrow, looked at Maximilian in confusion, and asked.

"Why do you say that? Do you know something?"

Maximilian nodded and said, "I've looked at those companies that Yunsheng Pharmaceutical has partnered with in the past two days, and it seems that their profits aren't good. Some of their stock prices have dropped wildly, so I guess they'll cut a lot of their partners."

Hearing this, Victoria became anxious,

"Why would this happen?" After that, she quickly opened her laptop and browsed through those companies and channel providers that were working with Yunsheng Pharmaceutical. Then she found that their revenue was actually bad and most of them started to lay off their staff.

As for the stock market, it was even worse.

Victoria finally got panicked. Now it was no longer related to her, but the whole company.

"Maximilian, so... what should we do now?" Victoria asked anxiously.

She knew what the contract with the Graham Group meant based on the current situation.

As long as Yunsheng Pharmaceutical was abandoned by its partners, then it wouldn't have any order or any shipment. Its revenue would decline sharply before the layoff started and went bankruptcy...

At that time, the cooperation with the Graham Group would be their last straw.

Was that why Maximilian said Samuel would come to beg her?

"Wait." Maximilian leaned against the door and said.

Victoria suddenly looked up and stared him. At this time, she found the man in front of her was somewhat mysterious.

It seemed that Maximilian had changed into another person, complex and sly.

"Maximilian, is there something you're hiding from me?"

Why do you suddenly care about these things?" Victoria asked.

Maximilian smiled, scratched the back of his head and said, "You are my wife, so it's normal for me to pay attention to your work. After all, the family still depends on you. I have to pay attention to my wife's financial income all the time."

That was a blunt and irresponsible speak.

Victoria glanced at him and said in an angry manner,

"Stop talking nonsense."

Then she asked with concern,

"Is this... really feasible?"

Maximilian looked at her eyes seriously and asked, "Do you want to do this?"

Victoria was silent, did she want to?

Today, so many people in the conference room laughed at her and tried to find her trouble.

Even her grandfather, who used to love her the most, began to suspect her and gave the contract with the Graham Group to Franklin.

Was she meaning nothing to them in their eyes?

Why she couldn't even compare with a playboy like Franklin in her grandfather's mind?

She was not convinced!

"I, I'm worried that my grandfather and Franklin will..." Victoria was still a bit flustered.

Maximilian interrupted her, "Don't worry about it. Just leave this on me. I will handle it for me."

Victoria looked at Maximilian. She felt so safe and well-protected at this moment.

It turned out that she could really trust him.

And her husband was always there behind her.

"I'm sorry, Maximilian. I've misunderstood you all these years."

Victoria's tears ran down from her cheek. She finally knew that her husband loved her so much from the beginning.

Maximilian smiled and didn't say anything.

After lunch, he received a text message from Wilfred when he was washing dishes, saying,

Young master, everything is done, and the partners of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals are starting to cut off their cooperation.

"OK!" Maximilian replied.

It's time for them to pay back.

"Who are you texting to?"

Suddenly, Victoria's voice came from behind.

Chapter 58 Cutting Off The Cooperation

This sound scared Maximilian. He hurriedly put the phone away and laughed.

"Nothing, it's about the dinner. I don't plan to go."

Hearing this, Victoria asked unhappily,

"Why not? Are you afraid of being laughed at?

Or you can't afford the bill?

Just tell me how much do you want."

It was the lie Maximilian casually came up with yesterday and he didn't think too much of it, saying, "Five hundred dollars."

Afterwards, Victoria walked towards the sofa to pick up her bag and grabbed her wallet, pulling several bills out.

Then she walked to Maximilian, reaching out her hands, and said,

"Here's a thousand dollars, just go to dinner with your colleagues." Maximilian was stunned, not expecting her to give him so much money. He asked with some uncertainty,

"Why do you give me so much money?" Victoria pouted and pretended to be angry as she said,

"I don't want you to disgrace me, my man have to be proud in front of others.

Although I didn't carry too much with me, but this amount is not a problem for me."

Pop.

Saying that, Victoria put her money in Maximilian's hands.

However, a voice came over and scolded her,

"Victoria, what are you doing? Why are you giving this loser so much money!"

Laura ran from the living room and grabbed the money in Maximilian's hands, then stared at him angrily, "You're really a wimp. Why do you keep asking my daughter to give you money everyday?"

You're really something! Other people's sons-in-law send money home, but you're sending money out!

Tell me, what is the money for?"

"Mom, what are you doing? He need the money to attend to a dinner party."

Victoria said.

However, Laura didn't care about that. She poked Victoria and questioned,

"My dear daughter! Are you crazy? Does this loser deserve to attend a dinner party?"

He doesn't have to go and can save the one thousand dollars."

She was so mad!

How shameless Maximilian was by trying to have fun outside when himself was a complete loser and couldn't do anything.

Laura turned around, glared at Maximilian, and scolded.

"I will be impressed if you can make thousands of dollars. What are you thinking about of going out to have fun? Do you think you will be something by having dinner with them? Just stay at home!"

Seeing that his mother-in-law was furious, Maximilian could do nothing but smiled lamely, and said to Victoria.

"It's okay. I don't plan to go at first. Never mind." Victoria's face sank as she stomped her foot, glared at Laura, and left the room.

Laura, on the other hand, gave Victoria a terrible look before pointing at Maximilian's nose and saying, "I'm warning you. Our family won't spend even a penny on you. And Sissy in the hospital. We won't help her.

Although Samuel liked that girl, Laura believed he wouldn't like her anymore after what happened today.

In short, you, Maximilian, can never take a single penny from my family, do you hear me?!"

Maximilian nodded. Only then did Laure leave.

In the old mansion of the Griffith family, people in the first and third rooms were heatedly discussing what Victoria had done in today's conference.

"Grandfather, Victoria is really mean. We can't listen to her. She's trying to grab the company from you." Franklin said.

He was angry that Victoria dared to show no respect to Samuel and the Griffith.

Samuel sat on chair, his face chilly and sullen, the cane in his hand banging heavily on the ground as he said in a deep voice.

"Well! Yunsheng Pharmaceutical can only be owned by the Griffith family. She will never be qualified to take it over. She can't grab what I don't give her. Also, she can't refuse what I provide to her!"

Franklin got the message from

Samuel and hinted his father.

Andrew hurriedly said, "Father, but what if Victoria tried to blackmail us by taking this opportunity?"

We have to get prepared for that. Besides, we have to pay attention to the man who gives her advice behind!"

Hearing this, Samuel frowned as he asked rhetorically,

"What do you mean by that? Do you mean someone is plotting behind and asking Victoria to do this"

"Exactly!" Andrew nodded and said.

"Just think about it, father. It is really weird for Victoria to disagree with you on the meeting.

In my opinion, Victoria must have listened to someone and followed his instruction."

Samuel seemed to agree, and his eyes got serious.

People could tell what happened by clues.

Samuel also realized something was wrong from what Andrew said.

Huh!

Samuel snorted and shouted.

"Maximilian!"

During the meeting, Victoria said they own an apology to Maximilian.

It was impossible. Why they have to apologize to such a loser?

They didn't have to!

So the truth was that Maximilian was the man behind.

Hearing what Samuel said, Franklin breathed a sigh of relief and tried to mess up things, saying,

"Grandfather, we really have to pay attention to him. He tried to hit you the last time! Although he's a loser, he's mean and ambitious.

If we just let him go easily, he will ruin the Yunsheng Pharmaceutical someday."

CLICK! Hearing this, Samuel got afraid and shouted,

"He must be daydreaming!

It was me who founded this company and no one can take over!

It's just a cooperation of Graham Group, our family doesn't care about that."

The crowd spoke up at this time.

"What Samuel said is true. Our company will be fine even if we don't cooperate with the Graham Group."

"Victoria has made the wrong decision. She must be daydreaming by trying to threaten Samuel with the contract"

"I think that we should teach Victoria a lesson and let her know her place in the Griffith family, as well as in the company."

Then the gaze of the crowd fell on Samuel, waiting for him to nod.

Samuel finally spoke after thinking for a long time. He shook his head and said.

"Andrew, Franklin, you can go to handle this thing. I want to demote her from director to a worker in the market department.

Also, cut off the monthly living expenses in Marcus's family."

"Yes, grandfather. I will do this right away!" Franklin jumped up at once and was very happy.

Finally, he could handle that bitch.

How could he not be happy?

However, at the same time, the butler of the Griffith family rushed in and shouted.

"Sir, sir, something is wrong, something is wrong!"

Samuel's face darkened. He had never seen the butler lose his temper before.

"What? What's going on?"

The butler hurriedly came in, wiped the sweat on his forehead and shouted anxiously,

"Sir, the Tenson Pharmaceutical sent a message just now and it is about to cut its cooperation with us!"

Chapter 59 The Griffith is Facing Crisis

What?

Tenson Pharmaceutical cut off its partnership with them?

Samuel was surprised. He frowned and asked,

"What happened? Our relation is good. Why did they suddenly decide to cut off the cooperation with us?"

The butler hurriedly said, "Sir, I have asked them, and the explanation they provided was that their factory was not function well lately, hence, they are cutting off staff on a large scale, and have to stop cooperation with many pharmaceutical companies, including us."

Hearing this, all people in the inner hall looked at each other with suspicion.

Franklin and Andrew looked at each other before the former got up, saying,

"Grandfather, it's just Tenson Pharmaceutical. We don't have so much cooperation with them and the loss is only millions a year."

"Franklin is right. Don't worry about this, father. I will go to have a meeting with other pharmaceutical factory instead."

Andrew said with a smile. Samuel nodded and took a relief.

"Well, Andrew, just hurry up next morning. The midyear is over, and it's time to plan for the second half year. We must try to double the company's profits this year. Do you understand what I'm saying?"

"No problem. If Franklin and I work harder, I think that goal is not hard to reach."

Andrew smiled, full of confidence.

This incident did not seem to make any waves in the Griffith family.

However, within a few minutes, another man came in to inform,

"Sir, sir, bad news again! Lixin Group, Huatian Pharmaceutical, and Baisheng Pharmaceutical, the three pharmaceutical giants in H city, announced that they had cut off their cooperation with Yunsheng Pharmaceutical at the same time!"

Poof! The man who rushed in fell on the floor before getting into the inner hall.

"What?"

Samuel stood up from his chair instantly. His body was trembling, his hands were clenching tightly, his pupils were shrinking, and his breath was becoming unsteady.

The rest of the Griffith family members were filled with shock and panic!

Andrew and Franklin were frozen, glancing at each other, the smiles on their faces were completely gone!

The three giants of pharmaceutical industry announced that they have cut off their cooperation with Yunsheng Pharmaceutical at the same time.

What was going on? everything happened so fast!

"What the hell is going on? why did they suddenly cut off cooperation with us?"

Samuel was anxious.

The man who informed them hurriedly shook his head and explained.

"Not sure, sir. They didn't say the reason, just give us the notice, and, and..."

"And what, come on!" amuel yelled, the cane in his hand hitting heavily on the floor.

"All of them asked us to pay them the compensation for the breach of contract, that's a total number of three hundred twenty million dollars."

The man who informed them replied in a trembling voice.

"What? Compensation?!"

BANG! Samuel's blood pressure came up, and he covered his heart, and collapsed directly on the chair with a painful look.

"Dad, Dad! Hurry up to bring the medicine!"

Andrew rushed over and tried to smooth his father's chest.

The relatives of the Griffith family all went up to see whether Samuel was fine.

Samuel's face was pale. After taking the pills, he sighed and asked,

"Go to ask them...and find out what's going on.

How can they get so much money for compensation?"

Samuel was panicked. Even if they sold their company, it was hard for them to get the money.

Franklin turned around anxiously, staring at the servant and saying,

"What the hell is going on? Why did the three major companies announce that they've stopped to cooperate with us at the same time? And they ask for compensation? We're the victim!"

The servant trembled and replied.

"Young master, I'm not sure. That's how they informed me, and they said..."

However, before he could finish, another man rushed in. Seeing this, the servant stopped with his heart pounding rapidly.

Samuel said to the last man who came inside,

"What do you have to say?"

That last man then stifled his head, respectfully stepped forward, and informed

"Sir, sir, the SPDA announced that they found several violations of our company and ordered us to deal with that and submit a report within seven days; otherwise, they will close down our company."

After the servant saying these words, Samuel fainted away.

"Dad, Dad...Hurry up, we need a doctor!" Andrew shouted.

Half an hour later, many people were gathering around Samuel's bed.

"Dad, are you awake?"

Andrew said when he saw his father opened his eyes.

Franklin also padded over and cried falsely.

"Grandfather, you're finally awake."

People in the Griffith family also went up and cried along with him.

It seemed like Samuel had died.

Samuel sat up with his son's help. His face was pale. He looked at others and asked Andrew and Franklin,

"Have you found out the reason?"

Franklin hurriedly said,

"Yes. They said we have broken the market rules by counterfeiting and underground sales.

Thirteen companies and three pharmaceutical manufacturers have cut off the cooperation with us and we suffered a loss of more than thirty million dollars..."

KEH!

Samuel coughed violently, and Franklin didn't dare say anything.

"Go on." He said.

Only then did Franklin continued,

"Based on this situation, we will lose ninety percent of our profit..."

KEH! Hearing these words, Samuel coughed even harder.

"Ninety percent... Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals is done..."

Samuel looked haggard with a sense of desolation.

The whole crowd went silent, worrying about their own benefits.

If Yunsheng Pharmaceutical was done, that meant the Griffith family was done.

The worst thing was the compensation claims.

It was the whopping price for them! Can the Griffith afford that?

For a while, the atmosphere in the inner courtyard was Complete silent.

Samuel's eyes swept over the crowd. He could read their feelings from their look. He laughed and said,

"Are you scared?" No one dared to answer.

Samuel made his decision after a long silence.

"Andrew, Franklin, let's hold a press conference in the evening to announce the bankruptcy and liquidation of Yunsheng Pharmaceutical."

HISS! Suddenly, all people got shocked and showed a terrible look.

"Father!" Grandfather, do we really have to do this?

It's only been less than half a day..."

Franklin couldn't accept this.

"Then what else can we do now?" Samuel was also really anxious. His tears were running widely in his eyes.

At this moment, Iris, who was standing in the crowd, suddenly shouted.

"Grandfather, I have figured out a way to save the Yunsheng

Pharmaceutical.

Do you remember our contract with the Graham Group? As long as we could cooperate with each other, we can get through this crisis!"

Chapter 60 You Made All This Happen

Iris's words instantly drew everyone's attention.

Everyone's gaze fell on her. She got afraid and said in a low voice,

"Did I... I say something wrong?"

"That's right, that's right!" Samuel's eyes suddenly lit up and said happily.

"Yes, yes, as long as we can cooperate with the Graham Group, we can alleviate the current situation. Moreover, once we succeed in doing this, we could be famous and those partners might come back to us for cooperation."

Suddenly, people in the Griffith family started chattering excitedly again.

Good fortune awaits the survivor of a great disaster.

Andrew also smiled and said, "Dad, you're right, now we just have to pass the SPDA's inspection!"

However, suddenly, a cold voice came out, breaking everyone's excitement.

"Don't forget that Victoria holds that contract now."

Franklin's mood fell from the top of cliff to the bottom.

Samuel's exciting expression also froze and said in a deep voice.

"It's a matter of life and death for Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals now. Can she play tricks on that? Andrew and Franklin, just go the room and bring that contract. We'll make her sign!"

Franklin was worried and said,

"Grandfather, don't forget what she said at the meeting this morning, she was asking for an apology from all of us."

Samuel's face sank as he ordered, "Call, call her first."

Hearing this, Franklin hurriedly took out his phone to dial Victoria's number.

After all, this matter could not be delayed and had to be finalized as soon as possible; otherwise, any delay would be lethal to Yunsheng Pharmaceutical.

At this time, Victoria was watching television in the living room. She got angry with her mother because she paid Maximilian for dinner.

All of a sudden!

The rapid ring broke through the living room and startled Victoria, who was sitting cross-legged on the sofa.

She glanced at the screen of the phone on the table. It was from Franklin.

She was about to pick up the phone when Maximilian, showed up and grabbed it.

"It's from Franklin. Maybe he wants you to do him a favor."

Maximilian looked at Victoria and said.

Victoria flushed and asked in confusion, "What will he ask me to do?"

Instead of speaking, Maximilian picked up the phone and turned on the speaker mode.

Instantly, Franklin's anxious voice came from the other side of the phone.

"Victoria, hurry up to the old mansion and bring your contract with Graham Group with you!"

His tone was dominant and commanding.

His words made Victoria unpleasant. Franklin really thought highly of himself.

She looked at Maximilian, asking him what to do next?

Maximilian chuckled and let Victoria not to say anything.

"Victoria is not home. She went to travel with her best friend, Leila." Maximilian said.

Hearing Maximilian's voice, Franklin turned around to look at Andrew and Samuel, then he yelled impatiently,

"Maximilian? Don't fuck up with me! Just let Victoria answer the phone!"

"Huh." Maximilian smiled, hung up the phone, turned it off and tossed it aside.

On the other side of the phone, Franklin heard the beeping sound and shouted in anger,

"Grandfather, look at him! What is his attitude? How dare him hang up my phone!

No, I have to call her again!"

But when he called later. Victoria's phone was turned off.

"Shit! How dare she turn off the phone?"

Franklin got furious and shouted.

"Why didn't she bring her phone when she was on a trip?"

It's just an excuse!"

Samuel's face turned pale. He looked at Andrew and Franklin, saying,

"There is no time to waste. Just handle it as soon as possible."

"But, grandfather, Victoria clearly doesn't want to send the contract over."

Franklin said.

"That's your business. Don't you know to go over if she doesn't want to send it"

Samuel became anxious and glared at Franklin as he said to them.

"You must handle this by yourselves. If you can't handle this, you know what the consequence is!"

After saying that, Samuel laid down, waving his hands to indicate them to leave.

People in the Griffith family left the inner courtyard.

It was when Samuel turned around to look at the door, feeling somewhat guilty.

He wouldn't go to Victoria's room to ask for help. Therefore, he could only leave the mess for them to handle.

Outside the door, Franklin was in a bad mood. He clenched his fists and asked his father.

"Father, what should we do now?" Andrew sighed. His face gradually went cold, with hands behind his back, saying,

"We must go to Victoria's place and take that contract at all costs!"

Victoria was anxious when seeing Maximilian turned off the phone. She kicked on him and asked,

"What are you doing?" Maximilian grabbed Victoria's delicate ankle, repositioned it, and said.

"Franklin should be here to beg you. It looks like Yunsheng Pharmaceutical is in crisis and they want the cooperation with Graham Group to get through it."

Victoria froze, glanced at Maximilian's hand, and asked, "Why are you so sure?"

Maximilian smiled and answered, "I saw the news just now. Yunsheng Pharmaceutical lost all of its partners and the three pharmaceutical giants in H City announced that they will cut off their cooperation with it. Moreover, it is facing a huge compensation of over three hundred million dollars and is the target of the SPDA."

"What?" Victoria got anxious and jumped up from the sofa, dragging Maximilian and said.

"Then let's send the contract to them. Now the Graham Group is the only one who can save them"

However, Maximilian still sat on the sofa and dragged Victoria back. He looked at her eyes with a serious look and said, "Do you really want to save them? Don't forget how they treated you yesterday, and don't forget how Samuel grabbed the contract from you and gave it to Franklin.

Now, they're anxious and know you are the only one who can save the Yunsheng Pharmaceutical. But what does he say just now? Don't you know what Franklin's attitude is from his last call?"

Victoria blinked her big eyes and looked at Maximilian in confusion. Yunsheng Pharmaceutical was facing such a crisis and only she could help her family out of the crisis. If she went, it would be easy for her to promote her status by helping her family.

Besides, if she didn't help, Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals would go bankrupt and so did the Griffith family, so what was the point of keeping this contract?

"So what do you mean? What do I have to do?" Victoria asked. It was the first time that she felt Maximilian was more complex than what she thought.

"You just have to wait for Franklin to come to beg you. It is a good chance for you to revenge him, and it also a good chance for you to solidify your position."

Maximilian gave a faint smile.

"But, what if..."

"Don't worry. I have arranged everything for you. Just trust me that Franklin will come to you. Besides, maybe Samuel will also come to apologize to you that time." Maximilian said.

Only then did Victoria understand what he meant. She stared at him with her big eyes and sat down on the sofa again, looking at him with a suspicious expression and asking,

"How can you be so certain? Did you cause the crisis of Yunsheng Pharmaceutical this time?"
