

Chapter 72 Those Who Bully Her Shall Not Be Forgiven

Clap!

This slap, in front of the entire office area, was seen and heard by all the employees!

Everyone drew in a cold breath of fear, and no one dared to stand up and say anything. They were all shrinking their heads and peeking out.

Victoria was confused and her cheeks were on fire.

"Are you Victoria?" The woman spoke coldly and questioned her,

Victoria asked as she clenched her fist and stared angrily at her opponent,

"Who are you? Who gives you the right to hit me?"

However, the woman let out a sneer huh, and slapped Victoria's face again while pointing at her nose and bellowing.

"My name is Mollie, the new investor and Franklin's girlfriend. I'm warning you, don't think about competing with Franklin for the rights of the company in the future; otherwise, I'll beat you up once I see you!"

She was so domineering and arrogant! This was the new investor of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, Mollie Waldon.

Victoria was furious, she didn't expect Mollie to be so arrogant, domineering and brutally unreasonable.

It looked like she was only in her early twenties, but she was so stupid to tell from right and wrong.

At this very moment, Franklin came out from his office, saw the scene, and pretended to coldly say to Mollie.

"Mollie, what's going on? Get back!"

Mollie looked like she wasn't afraid of anyone. With her arms around her chest, she coldly glared at Victoria, directly turned around, twisting her ass and left.

In the entire office area, there was not a single person who dared to say a word.

Franklin hypocritically came over at this moment, and said,

"Oh, Vice President Victoria, I am sorry, Mollie was unintentionally. You do not have to care about her, how about I apologize to you for her?"

Victoria looked at the sycophantic Franklin with a cold face and said in a cold voice.

"You're welcome." After saying that,

Victoria turned around and left the office area and returned to her office.

Her assistant came running over and asked with distressed.

"Victoria, are you okay? I didn't expect Mollie could be so domineering, and Manager Franklin didn't discipline his arrogant girlfriend."

Victoria was so annoyed that she looked in the mirror and saw the red slap marks on her face, and two bloody marks on her right cheek from her nails.

Wasn't Victoria angry? She was angry.

However, she had just been promoted to be the vice president, and Mollie was a new investor with Franklin and Grandpa Samuel behind her.

She could only endure it.

Otherwise, how would she survive in the company after falling out with an investor on her first day as vice president?

During lunch time, Victoria came to the hospital in a heavy mood and stayed with Sissi in the ward.

While Maximilian came over, Victoria made an excuse to leave. Sissi, who was dressed in a cartoon hospital gown, pulled Maximilian along and peeked at the door, and said in secret voice.

"Daddy, Mommy just cried, and I saw Mommy with a bruise on her face." Now, Sissi could secretly call Maximilian Daddy.

With a chill in the corner of his eyes, Maximilian fondled Sissi's little head, and then walked out, only to find Victoria sitting outside in the long corridor. She was still trying desperately to dodge, but Maximilian saw her at a glance.

On the right cheek, there were bright red slap marks, especially the two scratches standing out!

"Who hit you?!" Maximilian was furious, there was a morbid chill dormant in his eyes with a murderous intent!

Someone dared to hit Victoria! It was a move on the head of the Dragon Lord!

Bloody hell!!!

Maximilian was out of his mind and full of rage at the moment!

Victoria was beaten up, and that was his bottom line!

Looking at the angry Maximilian, Victoria was busy tugging his arm and explained, "You misunderstood, I just..... just accidentally scratched it."

Victoria felt aggrieved. Although she wanted to throw herself into Maximilian's arms and cry bitterly, she didn't want to bring trouble to Maximilian for her sake.

After all, that was a new investor of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, Franklin's girlfriend, and even Grandpa Samuel had to treat her all properly.

She couldn't fight with her.

"Is this an accidental scratch?"

Maximilian's eyes were stern and he simply didn't believe what Victoria said.

"Really, I accidentally scratched my face and it had nothing to do with anyone, so don't ask."

Victoria pulled Maximilian and kept calming him down while saying,

"Maximilian, don't you believe me?"

With one word from her, Maximilian was stunned.

He could tell Victoria didn't want to talk about it, then the other party's status must have frightened her.

But his woman, Maximilian's woman, was the wife of the Dragon Sect's young master!

Under heaven, no one dared to bully her!

Anyone who bullied her had to die!

After taking a deep breath, Maximilian reached out and touched her delicate cheek while asking with gentle concern, "Does it hurt?"

Victoria's eyes were wet as she shook her head and said, "It's okay, just a little bruise, it won't be a problem.

Can you stop being so angry next time? It's weird and scary, I just thought....."

Just a moment ago, Victoria clearly felt that when Maximilian became angry. He was like a lion that could not be provoked, and the anger suddenly surging up in his body felt like he could tear the world apart.

It was terrible!

It was so scary! Was he still the same worthless Maximilian who lived with her for four years?

Maximilian nodded, but she still couldn't let it go in his heart.

Since Victoria didn't dare to talk about this matter, he would go and check it out by himself.

When she went to work in the afternoon, Maximilian personally rode an electric bike and drove Victoria to the company.

After watching her delicate back disappear in the company building,

Maximilian made a phone call, and it wasn't long before a sweet-looking woman walked out of the doorway.

It was Victoria's assistant, Cadence.

Cadence was in a bad mood today, and when she saw Maximilian standing by the electric bike from a far away, grinning and waving at her. She hated to turn her head and leave.

This guy was so stupid.

Cadence knew Maximilian, he was Victoria's husband, a complete wimp, a loser who lived off a woman.

So, Cadence didn't have much goodwill towards Maximilian.

However, just now, Maximilian suddenly called her and said he was looking for her to ask something urgent.

"Hey, what do you want with me?"
Cadence wrapped her arms around her chest and looked at Maximilian with a cold attitude, two meters away from him, her eye brows raised, with an appearance that looked down on him.

Maximilian didn't care either, and smiled,

"Buy you a cup of Hey-Tea."

Did he ask her to drink Hey-Tea?

Cadence froze, and suddenly her head went to succulent grapes with cheese cream, but, immediately, she stomped her foot, angrily pointing at Maximilian and said.

"Maximilian, I never thought you'd be such a disgusting man! I'm telling you, just give up your dream. I'm not going to betray Victoria, so don't try to pick me up!"

She didn't expect Maximilian, who looked honest, was such a lowlife!

Scum!

Damn, it was gross!

Maximilian was also stunned and immediately understood what Cadence was thinking, so he couldn't help but laugh as he explained,

"You're overthinking it, I am just looking for you for some help, nothing else."

"Really?" Cadence said suspiciously.

"You have to offer me a cup of tea with succulent grapes, cheese and cream in a extra-large cup!"

Inside the Hey-Tea shop, Maximilian ordered a cup for Cadence and bought some desserts.

As he knew, Cadence was notoriously gluttonous, and especially irresistible to sweets.

While looking at Cadence, who had plump breasts and a childish face, stared straight at desserts on the table, Maximilian knew he had made the right choice.

Cadence, now practically torn in her heart, forced herself to take her eyes off the desserts and, pouted with a look of loyalty and asked, "What do you want from me?"

Maximilian said with a smirk.

"Nothing big, just some trival things. You can eat first, as these are ordered for you."

Cadence gulped, gestured to the desserts, and asked,

"Were these all for me?"

Maximilian nodded. Cadence hesitated for a moment and didn't think more about it. She picked up the spoon and ate while squinting her eyes in happiness, and stomping her feet. It was so delicious!

This girl was so easily bribed.

"Maximilian, you can ask whatever you want, as long as it's about the company, I can tell you."

Cadence still had cream in the corners of her mouth.

A guest can't speak against his host.

After a moment of contemplation, Maximilian asked, "In the morning, was Victoria beaten up by someone?"

Chapter 73 Anger

Cadence was stunned and wiped her mouth with a torn look before finally nodding and saying.

"I'm telling you, but you can't tell anyone that I said it. Victoria was beaten by an investor of the company called Mollie, and she is Franklin's girlfriend."

"Why did she hit Victoria?"

"Mollie is Franklin's girlfriend, and she wants to stand up for Manager Franklin. After all, Victoria is now the Vice President, which was a position that originally belonged to Manager Franklin."

"Where did she beat my wife?"

"In the office, and in front of all her colleagues, she slapped twice."

I really feel sorry for Victoria. That Mollie is simply too domineering while relying on the fact that she is an investor with the chairman of the board backing her up. She doesn't put Victoria in her eyes at all.

She just came in yesterday and already offended a lot of people. She is a demon." Cadence said with hatred in her tone.

Following that, as if something suddenly occurred to her, her eyes widened and she asked, "Maximilian, you're not trying to teach Mollie a lesson for Victoria, are you?"

Would a wimp like Maximilian really dare to do that?

He was in the Griffith family, but had no status at all. If he was going to handle Mollie, Cadence was afraid that Victoria would not be able to stay well in the company.

Therefore, Mollie hurriedly advised him. "Maximilian, I know you feel sorry for Victoria, but in this matter, I advise you not to interfere.

She's a new investor. The chairman of the board has to show respect to her.

If you do make a move on her, you'll be doing Victoria a disservice."

Maximilian faintly squeezed out a smile while playing with his phone, and said, "Okay, I get it. I've paid for it, so I'll leave now."

After saying that, Maximilian got up and left.

Cadence looked at Maximilian's back as he left, and she was very suspicious. Suddenly, she felt that she could not see through Maximilian.

Especially the look in his eyes just now, it was so scary.

Moreover, Cadence always felt that this incident would not pass so easily.

Meanwhile, Victoria was in her office writing a proposal plan for a project with the Graham Group.

Because of the heavy tasks and constraint time, Yunsheng Pharmaceutical now lost a large portion of its partners. Although the announcement of the cooperation with Graham Group pulled back some partners, it was still less than half.

Therefore, the pace of cooperation had to be accelerated.

BANG!

At that moment, the office door was suddenly pushed open from outside with violence!

Mollie barged in with a murderous manner, and she directly slammed the document in her hand onto Victoria's desk, rebuked with her face angrily,

"Director Victoria, what's wrong with the proposal with the Graham Group? It has been a day. When exactly are you going to start? It is hard not to believe that our investors' money is being used to feed you useless wankers."

Victoria immediately got up, and said to Mollie with a smile, "Miss Mollie, I'm docking with the Graham Group and still working on the proposal. I'll be making a trip over this afternoon to finalize some details of the cooperation."

With a chilling look on her face, Mollie reached out and pointed her fingers at Victoria's nose while chiding her and saying, "This afternoon? What were you doing this morning? Is this the kind of efficiency you have in this department? Director Victoria, oh no, Vice President Victoria, don't think you can be lazy just because you've just been promoted to be the Vice President. As a member of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, you have to contribute to the company and think for our investors. I'll give you one day to come up with a proposal, or else, you'll have to give up your position as Vice President!"

Mollie was here to pick a fight on purpose!

What a day, even if Victoria came up with a proposal now, she would reject it right back!

She had come to take out her anger for Franklin today, and next, she would use all kinds of means to target Victoria and make sure to pull her down from the position of VP!

What a bitch!

Why did Victoria steal his brother Franklin's position as Vice President!

Immediately, Victoria explained.

"Miss Mollie, the cooperation with Graham Group has been finalized, and the next step is the docking of details. We cannot finalize everything within one day, as you should know, we are in pharmaceutical business, and everything must be cautious, one day, I....."

Clap!

Before Victoria could finish speaking, Mollie went up and slammed a slap on her face when scolded with a cold face.

"Vice President Victoria, this slap is to wake you up, and I hope you understand that I am the investor and what I say counts! Remember, you're just a vice president of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, and my words are orders. You can't refute them, and you can't doubt them, do you understand?"

Victoria's fist was clenched, her eyes were red, and her cold gaze was fixed on Mollie in front of her. Outside the door, a number of employees gathered. At that moment they all felt indignant for Victoria.

This new investor was simply bullying and went too far!

Hey, it looked like, in the future, VP Victoria would not be able to stay in the company very well.

Franklin, who was currently just a few meters away from the door of the manager's office sipping tea again, watched the scene with a cold smile on the corners of his mouth.

Victoria, you were dead at this time.

When Cadence returned to the company, and saw this scene, she became anxious and hurriedly sent a text message to Maximilian.

Maximilian, Mollie has gotten Victoria in trouble again and beat her up again!

Maximilian was smoking a cigarette in the small square opposite the company. He had nothing to do today, so he was going to wait for Victoria from work.

At this moment, while seeing the text message, Maximilian was completely furious!

Damn Mollie!

She was looking for trouble again!

Maximilian directly stubbed out his cigarette and angrily rushed into

Yunsheng Pharmaceutical!

Inside the company.

When Mollie saw Victoria dared to stare at her, she laughed coldly twice, wrapped her arms around her chest, and said with arrogance, "What, it looks like you're defiant, huh?"

Victoria sucked in her nose, swallowed all her grievance into her stomach, and said, "What Miss Mollie said is right, I will go to Graham Group now and come up with a plan as soon as possible."

After saying that, Victoria turned around, picked up her bag and was about to leave.

However, Mollie obviously wouldn't just let Victoria go. She directly ripped the bag in Victoria's hand over and heavily slamming it on the ground, before brutally pushing Victoria and scolding her.

"Victoria, I'm warning you! Don't pretend to be pathetic and aggrieved in front of me! I've seen a lot of whores just like you! If you have any sense, you should resign as vice president yourself and give your position to Franklin; otherwise, I can torture you to death!"

Victoria glanced at the things scattered on the ground with her eyes filled with tears, and finally, she was unable to suppress the grievance in her heart any longer, and said,

"Miss Mollie, I haven't offended you, have I? Why are you targeting me like this?!"

Mollie sneered and said. "Am I targeting you? Victoria, you think too much of yourself. I don't know how many bitches like you I've seen, who were pretending to be like an innocent girl during the day, but at night I don't know which man's bed you're crawling in to giggle and flirt. Otherwise, how would you have gotten your partnership with Graham Group? It was from sleeping with some man!"

Mollie opened her mouth and threw dirty water. This shit must have poured onto Victoria's body!

Let you pretend to be noble and let you steal Franklin's vice president position! I would fuck you up!

"I didn't! You're planning an unfounded attack on me!"

Victoria shouted angrily.

Clap! Mollie went up and gave another slap while scolding.

"Not yet? Believe it or not, I'll beat you to death right now, you bitch!"

The domineering Mollie slammed

her slaps from left to right on Victoria's face.

With her extreme arrogance, she didn't put anyone in her sights at all!

"Victoria, I can play you to death with a random trick! Today, I'll tell you the truth. If you still dare to show up at the office tomorrow, I'll find a dozen beggars and have you raped, believe it or not!"

Mollie had an arrogant attitude and pointed at Victoria's nose in a stern scolding.

Victoria was disheveled, and her face was red with slap marks.

The people outside were all dumbfounded when they saw this scene, and none of them dared to stand out.

Who dared to help?

That was the investor, the girlfriend of Franklin, and even the chairman was afraid of her. Her saying a word should definitely send anyone home!

Cadence was anxious in her heart, how come the Loser Maximilian hadn't come yet? Didn't he say he was going to protect Victoria?

If he didn't come quickly, Victoria would be killed!

She couldn't wait any longer!

Cadence rushed in and shouted.

"Victoria, are you okay?"

"Miss Mollie, you're too much of a bully!

How can you hit someone for no reason? I'm calling the police!"

Cadence said angrily.

Mollie glared angrily at Cadence, smiled coldly, raised her hand and slapped her across the face while cursing. "Where's the bitch from, are you allowed to talk here? I don't care what you call, now you're fired, get out!"

After scolding, Mollie stared at Victoria with a cold face and ordered,

"Victoria, if you kneel down and beg me now and resign from your position as vice president, I will consider sparing you."

Victoria stubbornly raised her chin and glared angrily at Mollie with both eyes while saying,

"Don't you ever think about it!"

Mollie was not worried that Victoria could change anything. According to her investigation, the bitch was not respected in the Griffith family, and had a wimp husband and a sick daughter. Such a bitch still wanted to compete with her beloved Franklin for family fortune, was she dreaming?

Mollie grabbed Victoria's hair with her hand and yanked it violently, while scolding her.

"Bitch, how dare you talk back? Believe it or not, I'll strip you naked and throw you on the street right now, so everyone can see this filthy body of yours!"

After saying that, Mollie went up and tore Victoria's clothes!

Today, Victoria was wearing a shirt and a short skirt, so it was easy to get ripped off!

Psss! Big patches of snow white skin were exposed!

Victoria shielded her chest with a deadly grip, and Cadence helped out.

Clap!

Mollie went up and gave a slap while slapping over fiercely and scolding.

"How dare you cover your body? What's there to cover the body of a prostitute like you?"

Right on cue!

Suddenly, a furious roar resonated directly throughout the office area!

"Stop!!!"

When Maximilian arrived, he witnessed Mollie tearing up Victoria's clothes.

Instantly, his eyes were scarlet with rage, and his monstrous anger directly flooded the entire office!

Those who offend Victoria would definitely deserve to die!

Chapter 74 Don't Mind Killing You

He was so mad!

The dragon came with scales of rebellion, and any offenders must die!

Maximilian rushed to her side and grabbed Mollie's slap that was about to fall and pushed her violently away!

He looked at the trembling Victoria with red slap marks on her face, which was causing his eyes to spew fire!

An uncontrollable killing intent completely erupted from Maximilian's body at this moment!

"Victoria, I'm sorry I'm late."

Maximilian said softly while pulling over the trench coat on the sofa and draping it over Victoria's weak body.

The moment Victoria saw Maximilian arrive; the tears in her eyes couldn't stop flowing out. He appeared when she was at her most aggrieved, helpless and desperate moment. It was Maximilian who appeared, and she bawled and flung herself into Maximilian's arms,

"Maximilian..... take me home, take me home....."

This cry of pain broke Maximilian's heart.

When Victoria cried, Maximilian's world fell apart!

In this world, no one could bully Victoria!

No one!

No matter who she was, no matter what her background was.

Even if it was the King of Heaven, Maximilian would get it killed with his own hands!

Maximilian took a deep breath and gently patted Victoria's trembling back, comforting her.

"It's okay! I'll take care of it now!"

After saying that, he shielded Victoria behind him and turned around. His eyes were cold with killing intent as he looked at the arrogant and domineering bitch Mollie.

Mollie was flustered several minutes ago, but now she wasn't flustered at all. She was an investor of the company, and even Grandpa Samuel had to give her face.

Not to mention, she knew a lot of influential people in the society.

Who dared to bully her?

"Oh, so you're the wimp husband of this bitch Victoria. Who did I think you were? You are just a poor loser."

Mollie snorted untamedly while revealing her contempt for Maximilian between her eyes.

It was said that Victoria had a loser husband who had no talent, and when she saw him today, it was really true.

It was a disgrace for him to be covered in dirty clothes.

The Griffith family was at least a second or third-rate family in H City, so this live-in son-in-law was actually such a loser.

Ah ah! It looked like he was just a piece of trash and scum!

Therefore, Mollie despised Maximilian from the bottom of her heart, and she hated Victoria even more.

A guy like that, she could send him to death a hundred times with one hand.

Maximilian's eyes were red at this moment, and his cold eyes stared deadly at Mollie as he asked in a deep voice.

"You're Mollie?"

This woman should die!

Mollie raised her eyebrows upwards and said in a domineering tone.

"It's me, I'm Mollie, the investor of Yunsheng Pharmaceutical. What? Do you still want to take revenge for your wife? Oh, why don't you even look at what kind of status you are in? I'm afraid you don't know that your wife cuckolded you to get the deal with Graham Group. She's a hypocritical whore and you're a wimp. What a perfect match!"

Mollie thought a man would be angry when he heard that his wife had cuckolded him, right?

She just wanted to throw dirty water on Victoria and ruin her reputation.

Victoria's eyes were filled with tears when she shook her head, choking on a sob, and said urgently,

"I didn't! Maximilian, don't believe her....."

Naturally, Maximilian wouldn't believe what Mollie said, as he got the cooperation for Victoria.

He turned his head, looked tenderly at Victoria, and said, "I believe you."

It was this phrase of believing in you that made Victoria realize that Maximilian had been silently supporting her behind the scenes in the first place.

Suddenly, Maximilian grinned coldly and went up to kick Mollie violently in the stomach under the eyes of the crowd, which made her staggering and dropping her butt to the ground!

Oh! Everyone was stunned at this moment!

Right now, the entire office area went silent!

Cadence stared at Maximilian dumbfounded with her mouth open wide in total disbelief about what had just happened in front of her.

Was Maximilian crazy?

He even dared to kick Mollie!

Victoria was over, and she was completely over!

This time Victoria was afraid that she wouldn't be able to stay in the company, and even Maximilian would be dead!

But, the next second, a cold smile bloomed at the corner of Maximilian's mouth as he slowly stepped forward and walked up to Mollie, grabbed her long wavy hair and yanked her up from the ground.

Then following by a loud nosie.

Clap!

A dominant and loud slap fell directly on Mollie's face!

Mollie's arrogant face was smacked over, and her cheeks were even more hot and sore!

At this moment, Mollie's eyes widened while staring at the guy in front of her with a face full of disbelief, and after she reacted, she roared hysterically.

"Maximilian, you bastard, how dare you hit me? Do you know who I am?!"

"Heh, I, Maximilian, don't need to know the identity of the other party when I beat them up."

Clap!

Another heavy slap from Maximilian!

Clap!

Slap!

Every slap that went down sent Mollie crashing onto the ground, before being yanked up and smacked again!

Mollie was blinded by the blow and tried to fight back, but she was directly kicked out by Maximilian. The violent kicking in her belly sent her rolling to the ground!

Mollie's face was now swollen like a pig's head, her mouth was full of blood, and she was lying on the ground, covering her face, and staring at Maximilian hysterically and shouting angrily.

"Maximilian, you're dead! Your wife is dead too! You dare to hit me, I'll get someone to kill you and strip and rape your wife!"

However, Maximilian's icy gaze fell on Mollie, who was barking furiously, and said,

"I don't care who you are, and I don't care to know who you are, or what kind of background you have. But remember, the person who slapped you today is called Maximilian, the husband of Victoria! If you ever bother her again, I don't mind killing you!"

His word, his look, was like a thunderbolt that hit Mollie's heart heavily.

She was extremely upset and angry inside!

A wimp, a loser who was nothing, had the nerve to beat her up in front of so many people.

She was the royal daughter of the Waldon family. She had been spoiled since she was a child, and no one had ever beaten her up before!

"You..... you wait for me! I'll have someone kill you right now!"

Mollie's body trembled with anger, as she climbed up, took out her phone and dialed a number.

"Brother, come quickly, I got beaten up in Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, oh....."

Mollie just howled into the phone.

A rabid roar came from the other end of the line.

"What? You've been beaten up? Mollie, I'll be right there! Fuck, who dare to bully my sister, no matter who he is, I will break his hand and make him kneel down and apologize to you!"

After hanging up the phone, the corners of Mollie's mouth twitched and her cold eyes stared deadly at Maximilian and Victoria as she said,

"You're done, my brother will be here soon!"

As soon as they heard that her brother was coming over immediately, the crowd was immediately chatting about it.

"Isn't her brother that Cole? He's a tough guy!"

"I've heard of him too, he's very famous in the rich circle in H City. I heard he's still following Master Phillip!"

"Master Phillip?"

It can't be that Phillip, right?!!!Then Maximilian and Victoria are finished!"

Victoria was also panicking now.

Maximilian had just struck too quickly and viciously, she hadn't even had time to stop him, and now she was in big trouble!

Franklin in the distant, who saw Maximilian hit Mollie and wanted to stand out to stop it, but at this moment while seeing Mollie had approached her brother, he decided not to step in.

With her brother coming, Maximilian and Victoria would have to shed their skin if they did not die.

"Miss Mollie, I'm sorry, I apologize to you. My husband was just enraged, and he didn't know anything. I beg you to forgive him, I apologize to you."

Victoria suddenly stood out and bent down to apologize to Mollie.

However, Mollie did not appreciate it at all, and said coldly in a stern voice.

"Victoria, now you want to apologize to me, where are you just now? Look at my face, what has been done to it? Today, you and this Loser, none of you will get away!"

While looking at Victoria, Maximilian immediately pulled her to his side and said.

"Victoria, don't worry, it's fine. I'll take care of everything."

"But....."

Victoria wanted to say something else, but after seeing the look in Maximilian's eyes, she fell silent.

The weaker you were, the more you would be bullied.

It was Mollie who was looking for trouble with her, so why should she be afraid of it?

Maximilian's face was very calm at the moment as he looked at Mollie and said in a cold voice.

"I hope you don't get down on your knees later and beg me to leave you alone."

Upon hearing this, Mollie's entire body laughed wildly.

"What do you mean? Because you're nothing but a piece of shit, will I get down on my knees and beg you?"

Chapter 75 Master Phillip Arrived

How arrogant he was!

He, Maximilian, was just a waste and a son-in-law of the Griffith family, what qualifications did he have to say such big words? He was stupid!

Mollie's face was full of disdain.

She had now made a decision in her heart that she would definitely make Maximilian pay a painful price today, and moreover, she would drive this bitch Victoria out of this company!

This company had to be Franklin's.

Mollie would not allow such a humble woman to steal Franklin's position as Vice President.

At this moment, Cadence was standing beside Victoria, and the way she was looking at Maximilian now was filled with the adoring gaze of a young lady.

He was so strong!

Just now, Maximilian's words and actions were simply boyfriend-worthy!

She thought he was a softy who couldn't do anything, but she didn't expect that he could be so tough for Victoria!

But, Maximilian was too brainless to hit Mollie, who was the daughter of the Waldon family of H City, and her brother was even the famous Cole of H City!

He followed Master Phillip around and gained a lot of compliments from Master Phillip.

Who was Master Phillip?

He was the Phillip of H City!

Rank first among the Four Underground Masters!

In one word, the whole of H City would have to shake in his existence.

How to handle it?

Cadence was torn inwardly while constantly thinking of ways to deal with it, and felt anxious for Victoria.

She was even ready to call the police.

And at the same time, Maximilian took out his phone and sent a text message.

Meanwhile, in the office area, a number of colleagues began to chat incessantly.

"Crap! This Maximilian is too raw, and he even dares to hit Mollie, who is an investor, he is finished!"

"This Loser, he really thinks of himself as someone important! Mollie's brother is Cole, one of Master Phillip's men. Who dares to mess with him?"

"You are right, he had to force his way out and cause trouble. Let's see what he does next! I'm afraid Vice President Victoria will be out of luck too."

These bystanders, at the moment, were staring at Maximilian's every move with great anger.

This rash man who dared to hit someone in the company, was undoubtedly giving them trouble.

If the chairman called them to probe into the matter, they would all have to go down with him.

Franklin thought about it, and came hurriedly at this moment while pretending to be angry and concerned, and asked.

"Mollie, what's going on? I've only been gone for a while, how did this happen?"

When Mollie saw Franklin running to herself, she immediately looked like a little girl, held her mouth, pointed at Maximilian and shouted.

"Franklin, take a look, this is the Loser who gave me a beating, you must teach him a good lesson!"

Franklin burst into a rage and angrily pointed at Maximilian and roared.

"Maximilian, you've simply turned against me! Mollie is an investor of our company, who are you to hit her here? You are unbridled, simply unbridled! I want you to apologize to Mollie right now!"

Mollie was also arrogant in this case, and spoke in a commanding manner.

"No, his apology won't work, because I'll never let him go! If he dares to hit me, I'll make my brother break his hand!"

Maximilian, however, shook his head indifferently, as the woman acted recklessly and blindly. He was afraid that she didn't even know what would happen next.

The Waldon family?

Ah ah! No one who I want to move to can take a break from me!

Since you had forced my action, I wouldn't be blamed for being ruthless.

While seeing that Maximilian still dared to shake his head, Franklin became angry now and shouted angrily.

"Fuck! Maximilian, what kind of attitude and expression is that? What? Do you even want to beat me too?"

Damn it!

Last time when Maximilian beat himself up, Franklin still hadn't found a chance to pay him back, but to his surprise, this time he brought it himself!

It was just in time to solve Maximilian and Victoria's problems once and for all.

When something like this happened, Victoria didn't even have to think of her position as vice president anymore.

Maximilian, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to stay with the Griffith family.

When he beat Mollie, he would beat the face of the Waldon family in H City!

"Get out of the way! Get out of the way!"

Suddenly, at the door, Cole barged in with seven or eight sturdy men.

Once he entered the company, he was so full of frost and fury that he startled everyone into retreating.

They knew Maximilian and Victoria were finished!

Cole was here!

Franklin wanted to go up and shake hands, but he was directly pushed away by Cole's glare while saying.

"Get out of my way. Who dares to hit my sister? Get your ass over here!"

A roar that buzzed throughout the office.

"Brother, you're finally here, look at my face, what kind of beating I've gotten? I just had my eyelids pulled and they're all open, you must find justice for me!"

When Mollie saw Cole coming, she immediately pounced over while looking like an aggrieved victim.

Cole took a look at his sister, who was beaten heavily and immediately said with distress,

"Sister, don't cry, I'm coming over right away, don't worry now. If he dare to touch my sister, I'll make his life worse than death!"

After saying that, Cole's face turned cold and he looked angrily at the surrounding onlookers and roared.

"Whoever hits my sister, stand up for yourself!"

Huh! Everyone's eyes fell on Maximilian at this moment.

Franklin immediately stood out and pointed at Maximilian while saying.

"Brother Cole, this bastard."

Cole's face turned and his eyes stared coldly at the plainly dressed man in front of him.

"You're the one who hit my sister? Very well, now get down on your knees and kowtow to my sister and apologize!"

Cole had an aggressive air.

How dared he make a move on his sister? He was courting for death!

However, Maximilian's face was calm as he said,

"Aren't you going to ask me why I hit your sister?"

"Why should I ask? All I know now is that you hit my sister, then you're going to apologize to my sister!"

Cole gave a roar, and several of his brothers behind him took a step forward. The momentum was compelling.

The corners of Franklin's mouth curved coldly, this Maximilian was really an idiot, who still wanted to reason with him?

Mollie coldly looked at her opponent with her arms crossed at her chest, and shouted,

"Brother, don't talk bullshit with him, just kill him and avenge me!"

Victoria was anxious at the moment and wanted to rush up to explain, but was stopped by Maximilian.

His eyes burned as he looked at Cole and said, "Your sister deliberately picked on my wife and started the fight, everyone here can testify that. I'm just teaching your sister a lesson for my wife."

Aha ha! Cole let out a loud laugh and shouted,

"Teach my sister a lesson? Who are you to teach my sister? My sister hit your wife, then it was your wife who deserved it, and not only that, your wife had to apologize to my sister!"

Cole didn't care what his sister did, she was just beating someone up. It was no big deal.

He was the young master of the Waldon family, and he followed Master Phillip, so he walked around fearlessly in H City.

Who dared to offend him?

A brat who was nothing, and still wanted to turn over the sky in front of him?

However, he would not even think that Master Phillip, whom he looked up to, would have to bend down and bow his head when he saw Maximilian.

If he had known, he probably would have fallen to his knees in fear and begged for mercy!

However, these words, which were heard in Maximilian's ears, made him smile coldly.

Sure enough, birds of a feather flock together. And the brother and sister from the Waldon family were so arrogant and rude.

When Victoria heard this, she was so angry that she was just about to retort when she was stopped by a look from Maximilian.

And then, Victoria stood behind Maximilian in silence.

Following that, Maximilian turned his head, looked at Cole calmly, and asked.

"Your name is Cole? I heard you're one of Master Phillip's men."

Cole held his head high with great pride and puffed out his chest dominantly while saying,

"That's right, I'm Cole, one of Master Phillip's men. What, now are you scared? Then this is well settled today, and there is only one way to do it, apologize to my sister and beg for her forgiveness."

When Cole finished speaking, his eyes even glanced at Victoria without showing any traces.

He didn't expect that such a beautiful woman was actually his wife?

What a waste!

Well, he would get her back and play with her today.

Mollie's face was full of arrogance at that moment, and she pointed at Maximilian and yelled.

"You must get down on your knees and apologize to me, and I'll slap you twenty more times!"

Mollie's heart was full of fire. Just now she was beaten, which was simply too humiliating, and it was seen by the whole company.

She couldn't swallow the shame.

"Fine, sister, just do as you say, make the bastard get down on his knees, apologize to you, and slap him twenty times."

Cole was full of smiles.

For Maximilian, he didn't even put him in his eyes.

But in the next second, Maximilian, however, stared at Cole with a chilling expression, and said.

"I don't want to cause any trouble, but if you insist, I will make you regret provoking me!"

Cole's face was full of shock and anger as he roared,

"Who the hell are you? Get down on your knees and apologize to my sister, or I'll have someone kill you!"

It was crazy!

This Maximilian, how dared he fight against him?

He was just nothing!

From the chatter of the people around him, Cole already knew Maximilian in front of him was actually the Griffith family's son-in-law, a well-known wimp!

How funny!

"That's right, you piece of shit, you are just so arrogant! Brother, you must teach him a hard lesson and take revenge for me!"

Mollie on the side said with a grunt of anger and her face full of sneers and provocations.

Franklin left silently, and he could not participate in what came next, or he was not easy to get out of it if Grandpa Samuel asked.

Therefore, he left the company directly and went to the cafe downstairs and ordered a cup of coffee while waiting leisurely and comfortably for Cole to solve this matter.

"Come and break the bastard's hand!" Cole roared.

A few of his men behind him stood out directly to make a move on Maximilian.

Suddenly, the sound of stomping footsteps was accompanied by a chant,

"Master Phillip has arrived!"

The door to the office area was thrown open and a dozen hired thugs in black suits burst in straight away!

The man in the lead had an upright figure, wearing a gray suit and a manly face. He took large meteoric strides and walked in as the crowd watched.

"Cole, if you dare to make a move against him, I, Phillip, will destroy your entire family!"

Chapter 76 He Deserves a beating

Phillip..... Master Phillip?!

Everyone was shocked at this moment!

Master Phillip was actually here!

They automatically moved out of the way, and Phillip led the way and walked right in.

Cole at this moment was dumbfounded. He turned his head to look at the person, but he really saw Master Phillip. He hastened to greet him with a smiling face and bowed respectfully while saying.

"Master Phillip, what brings you here?"

Clap!

Phillip went up and threw an angry slap at Cole's face while glaring angrily and scolding.

"What are you doing?!"

This slap struck Cole blind.

Oh! Everyone around sucked in a breath of air.

Master Phillip was indeed Master Phillip. This domineering aura and the ruthlessness of his strikes made each of them tremble at the bottom of their hearts.

This was one of the four underground masters of H City, Master Phillip, Phillip.

This aura was really awesome.

However, Cole did not dare to have the slightest complaint, and then respectfully replied.

"Master Phillip, this bastard is bullying my sister. I bring my men over to teach him a lesson."

Cole did not know why Master Phillip came here, and why he gave him a slap as soon as he saw him.

Could it be that he had offended Master Phillip somehow?

It shouldn't be.

He hadn't done anything wrong lately.

"A lesson? Cole, you are so powerful now that you dare to bring people to other companies to show off your authority, right?"

Phillip's face sank, his thick eyebrows carrying a chill, and his eyes fell silently on Maximilian.

He had just received a message from Maximilian asking if he recognized Cole Waldon.

This Cole was really brainless, how dared he make a move on Mr.

Maximilian? He was just digging his grave!

However, Maximilian told him to keep a low profile when he came over, so Phillip just took a look at Maximilian and nodded slightly to him, not revealing anything to anyone else.

Following that, Phillip said in a deep voice.

"There's a feud, right? Come with me!"

After saying that, Phillip walked straight into a side office.

And the dozen or so black-suited thugs Phillip had brought with him stood in a line at the door, preventing everyone else from approaching this office.

The curtains were drawn, and the crowd was separated by a meter.

"Come in, both of you."

Inside the office, came the voice of Phillip.

Maximilian lifted his steps and was about to go in, while Victoria was worried as she tugged on his arm and shook her head at him.

"Don't go in....."

Maximilian smiled and gently patted the back of Victoria's hand and said,

"It's okay."

On this side, Cole smiled coldly and said, "Maximilian, you're finished, because Master Phillip is going to teach you a lesson himself!"

After saying that, Cole tugged at his collar and stepped straight in with an arrogant attitude.

Mollie, who was on the side, wrapped her arms around her chest and said,

"Victoria, when your husband goes in later, he'll lose his skin if he does not die on the spot!

Ordinary people can hardly endure Master Phillip's torture."

Hearing this, Victoria became even more worried and her eyes were filled with tears.

However, Maximilian's eyes swept a cold glance at Mollie, and a faint smile appeared at the corners of his mouth as he followed and lifted his steps into the office.

This look, which fell in Mollie's eyes, made her heart tremble abruptly!

What was going on?

The look in that loser's eyes just now seemed to be mocking her.

Shit! What right did he have to look at her with that look when he was a wimp and a piece of shit!

Mollie stomped her foot in anger and said fiercely.

"In a moment, I want Master Phillip to break his hand!"

The eyes returned to Maximilian's side as he walked into the office and walked straight through Cole and Phillip before swaggering sitting on the sofa and crossing his legs.

This scene made Cole furious right then and there!

"How dare you sit down, bastard? Master Phillip is still standing here, get up!"

Cole didn't expect that Maximilian, the loser, would dare to be so rampant in front of Master Phillip!

However, Maximilian only glanced at him coldly and said,

"Slap his face."

As soon as the words left his mouth, Cole twisted his eyebrows and sneered.

"Who are you talking to? A slap in the face? Who the fuck do you think you are? What? Don't you want Master Phillip to do as you say and do it to me himself, do you? Master Phillip is ....."

Clap!

The sound of a thunderous slap resonated throughout the office!

Phillip swung his arm round and directly slapped Cole in his face, with fierce smacking interrupting his unfinished sentence.

BANG!

This slap directly staggered Cole, and his entire body fell against the door, and the two back teeth in his mouth were jerked out from his mouth with blood!

Of course, the slap also made the hearts of the employees who were gathered outside the door jump.

Victoria was so anxious that tears came to her eyes and she shouted when she tried to rush in, but she was stopped directly.

"Ha-ha, the loser deserves the beating! Beat him to death!"

Mollie was outside and still laughing coldly with excitements, while glancing at her and saying proudly.

"Victoria, do you hear that the loser husband of yours is being taught a lesson!"

Many on-lookers began to shake their heads, that guy Maximilian was kind of finished this time.

He offended not only Cole, but also Master Phillip, that was simply digging his own grave.

Inside the office, Cole's entire head was dazed, and his ears were buzzing.

While covering his face, he looked at the angry Phillip with disbelieving eyes and asked with a shudder.

"Phillip..... Master Phillip, did you hit the wrong person?

I am Cole, that bastard ..... that bastard disrespects you."

"Shut up!" Phillip scolded in a deep voice, and then, in front of Cole, who could never believe his eyes in his life, Phillip turned stood at attention, bent over, and respectfully said,

"Mr. Maximilian, I'm sorry, it was my poor discipline that allowed my men to offend you, please reprimand me!"

God! This scene blew up directly into Cole's mind!

Master Phillip ....., one of the four masters of the H City underground world, actually bowed his head and apologized to a limp-wristed wimp!

This, how was this possible?

"Master Phillip, what are you doing? He, Maximilian, is a wimp... Have you mistaken him for someone else?"

Cole, with a face full of disbelief and a scowl in his eyes, yelled at Maximilian.

"You brat, get up and make amends with Master Phillip!"

However, Maximilian only smiled coldly and said,

"You have five minutes to work it out."

When Phillip heard that, his heart trembled and sweat broke out at the corners of his forehead, but he instantly understood.

While turning around and staring at Cole with cold and sullen eyes, Phillip said, "Cole, do you know who you've offended?"

"I..... Master Phillip, what is the matter with you? Isn't he the ....."

Cole was flustered, especially when he saw Phillip's angry face.

Clap!

A loud slap came again.

BANG!

Phillip went up and threw another kick to the midsection of Cole!

Followed by a five-minute long thrashing!

The entire office echoed with Cole's miserable screams!

But the commotion inside, and the harsh wails and pleas for mercy that reached outside through the doors and windows, was a different story.

Mollie danced with excitement and said.

"Ha-ha, Victoria, listen to it, and listen to how badly your husband was beaten. Humph, that's what you got for offending me! Hit him, hit him hard, and kill him!"

The crowd followed by talking about,

"It's over, from the sound, Maximilian's been beaten up pretty badly."

"Hey, he has offended Master Phillip. He'll have to shed his skin even if he doesn't die."

"I feel sorry for Vice President Victoria, she won't be able to stay well in the company in the future."

Victoria was crying in anxiety at the moment while shouting.

"Don't beat, please don't beat, Maximilian, Maximilian!"

Cadence had been standing beside Victoria, and was anxious as an ant on a hot pot. She took out her cell phone and said.

"Victoria, let's call the police!"

"Are you calling the police?"

Mollie directly grabbed the phone in Cadence's hand and heavily slammed it on the ground, yelling.

"How dare you call the police!"

Cadence took a few steps backward in fear.

And inside the office, Cole was currently lying on the floor with his nose bruised and his face swollen. He covered his stomach, wailing.

Phillip, on the other hand, was respectfully standing beside Maximilian, who got up, put his hands in his trouser pockets, coldly looked down at Cole on the ground and said in a cold voice.

"Now do you know why?"

Cole was not stupid, he hurriedly supported himself and climbed up, before kneeling in front of Maximilian, nodding his head uncontrollably and begging for mercy.

"Maximilian..... Mr. Maximilian, I was wrong, I was wrong, I have known, it was my eyes that didn't recognize the noble you, I deserve to die, and I deserve to die!"

Panic!

Cole finally understood by thinking out even with his toes. The Maximilian in front of him, who was rumored as a waste, was actually the person even Phillip had to treat respectfully, and he was completely a character the same as Connor Davies in H City!

Even if he had a hundred guts, he wouldn't dare to mess with him!

Huh!

Maximilian grunted coldly and walked straight toward the door before pushing it open.

"The door is open, the door is open!"

Outside, the crowd stared at the door and saw Maximilian walk out unharmed from the door.

Oh! The crowd was shocked again!

"What's going on with this.....?"

Didn't he get beaten up violently, why isn't he hurt at all?"

Everyone was confused.

The crowd automatically parted, and Maximilian walked straight up to Victoria, who was still crying, and took her cold and trembling hand, wiped the tear marks from the corner of her eyes, and said softly, "I'll take you home."

Chapter 77 Go Make Amends and Apologize

Victoria's brain was now blank while nodding her head with an hmm, letting Maximilian lead and about to leave.

However, Mollie on the side rushed out at this moment and directly blocked Maximilian and Victoria's way while roaring hysterically.

"How did you get out? Why aren't you hurt? Who is the man who was just beaten?"

She couldn't believe Maximilian had just walked out unharmed.

Maximilian twisted his head and stared at Mollie with icy eyes as he warned her.

"Get out of my way!"

The simple words scared Mollie out of her mind and took a few steps back.

What a terrifying look and aura!

Was this something that could show on a wimp?

This made Mollie's heart frightened and hateful, and she immediately went up to him and was about to slap Maximilian's face and said,

"How dare you be so mean to me? My brother and Master Phillip are here, and do you dare to be mean to me?"

Clap!

The slap fell, but it was stopped in mid-air with a deadly squeeze.

Maximilian directly squeezed her wrist with a slight force, and Mollie wailed with pain.

"Don't make me do it!"

Maximilian said in a cold voice, shaking off Mollie's hand and left with Victoria.

Mollie was pushed and stumbled. She was gritting her teeth, and saw Cole who was limping out from the doorway.

He was badly beaten with a bloody nose and a swollen face covered in bruises!

What was going on here?

"Brother!" Mollie rushed over and held Cole, "How did this happen?

Who hit you?

Was it that Loser Maximilian?"

After saying that, Mollie's eyes stared at Maximilian and Victoria who were about to leave the door with resentment, rushed out, picked up a vase next to her on the way, and smashed it toward Victoria!

Cole tried to pull his stupid sister back then, but he failed to do so. His eyes were desperate as he watched the scene.

It happened all of a sudden!

Everyone was startled. Maximilian felt a strong sense of crisis behind him and instinctively pushed Victoria out of the way and raising his hand to block it stiffly.

The vase smashed into Maximilian's arm, and it hurt so much and exploded with a bang.

Blood was running right down his arm.

A large cut was made on Maximilian's arm.

Victoria's eyes widened and her heart burned with anxiety as she lunged over and looked at Maximilian's blood-covered arms.

At this moment, she was totally pissed off. She turned around, stomped on her high heels and walked to Mollie. She raised her hand, slapped harshly on Mollie's face, and said with rage.

"Mollie, this slap is for you in return!"

Clap!

Another slap!

"This slap is for my husband!"

After that, Victoria wrapped Maximilian's wound with a tissue and quickly led Maximilian out of the company.

Suddenly, the whole office exploded!

Everyone was too scared to make a sound.

The scene in front of them made them speechless.

Cole was beaten beyond recognition, and Mollie was slapped twice in a row by Victoria.

Phillip stood in the doorway while looking at the siblings with resentment in his eyes, and bellowed in a deep voice. "Let's go."

Just now, Maximilian said to him that he was going to solve the matter of Cole on his own and didn't need Phillip to interfere.

That was when Phillip understood that there was no more Waldon family in H City.

Cole understood as well, so he came out with his face ashen. When he saw that his sister had injured Maximilian again, he knew in his heart that they were dead now.

Inside the small clinic down the street,

Victoria accompanied Maximilian to treat his wounds and looked on the side with great concerns.

"How's that, does it hurt?"

Maximilian laughed from ear to ear.

"It is fine, it is just a little bruise, but how about you? Does your face still hurt?"

Victoria's eyebrows arched and her face was still a little red and swollen.

While thinking about that situation just now, Maximilian appeared in front of his eyes like Prince Charming.

That throb, it had been a long time since she had one.

Maximilian seemed to have really become a different person.

Victoria shook her head and laughed, "I'm fine, just now, thank you."

Maximilian laughed, "You're my wife, you don't have to say thank you to me."

Victoria gave him a pouting white glance, pinched a handful of tender flesh on his waist, and said.

"You're the only one who's mouthy, but what the hell just happened? Why wasn't it you who got beaten up in the office?"

Victoria was unable to understand.

Obviously Cole was Master Phillip's man, so why did Cole come out covered in wounds in the end?

Could it be that Maximilian had some secrets hiding from her?

Maximilian thought for a moment and said with a faint smile.

"I don't know, after going in, that Master Phillip had a conflict with Cole. It seems that something was not dealt with properly. I just kept watching from the side, and I'm not sure about the specific details.

So, don't you think that Master Phillip of H City knows me and is taking it out for me, do you?"

After hearing Maximilian say this, the doubt in Victoria's heart was gone instead.

"Okay, but this matter is definitely troublesome, Mollie is our investor after all, and Franklin is definitely going to speak ill of us in front of grandpa."

Victoria had a stony face.

Maximilian thought for a moment and said.

"It's fine for us to change the investor at the worst, besides, what happened today was Mollie's fault, don't take it too much to heart."

"How can I not to take it to heart? We offended an investor, and I just took up the post of vice president. If grandpa blames us, he might take away my position, and then Franklin can be a mean man intoxicated by success again."

Victoria looked worried.

Maximilian shrugged his shoulders and said blandly,

"Don't worry, you still have me, your husband can be your strong back."

Victoria glanced at Maximilian and gave him a blank look.

After leaving the clinic, Maximilian sent Victoria to the hospital, while he went to the bathroom and dialed a number, and on the other end of the phone, a respectful voice immediately came.

"What can I do for you, Mr. Maximilian?"

Connor Davies was talking business with his friends at the moment, and when he received a call from Maximilian, he picked the phone up straight away, with a respectful smile on his face.

This made his friends in awe!

When had Connor Davies, the underground emperor of H City, ever treated anyone with such respect?

The person on the other end of this phone was not someone with a simple identity.

"Look into the Waldon family who invested in Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals and give them a piece of advice. If they dare to cause trouble for Victoria, there will be no more place for the Waldon family in H City."

Maximilian said calmly.

"Don't worry, Mr. Maximilian, I'll make the arrangements." Connor said.

Connor hung up the phone and wanted to have someone under his hand make the arrangements, but after further consideration, it was better for him to personally call the head of the Waldon family.

Dylan Waldon was currently inside his villa, pacing back and forth as he was extremely angry.

In front of him, his daughter was crying and complaining that his son was almost being beaten to death.

The point was that the perpetrator was actually Master Phillip of H City!

This was a problem for Dylan, who had always been protective of his offspring.

"Dad, you have to do something for me, that Maximilian is nothing more than a loser son-in-law of the Griffith family, how dare he hit me!

And that bitch Victoria, she dared to beat me in front of so many people, she simply doesn't put me Mollie in her eyes!"

Mollie shouted with anger.

"Withdraw the money, Dad, I want you to withdraw from Yunsheng Pharmaceutical, and I want to teach that bitch Victoria a good lesson."

"That's enough!"

However, Dylan growled, glared at Mollie, and Cole, and asked,

"Son, are you sure Master Phillip is acting respectfully toward Maximilian?"

Cole nodded his head.

"That's right. I saw it with my own eyes, this Maximilian, is definitely not as simple as he appears, not just a live-in son-in-law."

"Well! You guys are making a big deal out of it, I see, that so-called Phillip is just enjoying undeserved fame with a vain name, and he's even afraid of a Loser living off a woman."

Mollie muttered with her face full of arrogance.

Dylan glared at her, then shook his head helplessly and cursed, "Oh, my daughter. Why don't you understand?"

Master Phillip is not a simple person, one word from him and our Waldon family won't be able to gain a foothold in H City, do you understand?"

After hearing her father say this, Mollie realized the seriousness of the problem and asked incredulously,

"Dad, don't scare me, how is this possible? Maximilian is clearly a wimp."

Dylan shook his head with an anxious heart.

Then his phone suddenly rang!

Dylan picked it up and said angrily.

"Who the fuck are you? Told you not to give me a sales pitch, I've got the house and the money!"

"Oh, Dylan, it's me, Connor Davies."

A rumbling voice came over the phone.

Connor Davies?

Dylan was startled, his body was immediately covered in cold sweat and shivering with great excitement and fear, and he asked,

"Heaven..... Master of Heaven?"

Connor Davies's name in H City was like a titanic mountain!

One nod from him and the Waldon family could disappear soon in H City.

He didn't expect that Master Connor Davies, the underground emperor of H City, would actually call himself.

"Master Conner, sorry, I didn't know it was you."

Dylan explained with a flattering smile, "Master Conner, why do you suddenly give me a call?"

Connor didn't bother to beat around the bush and came straight to the point,

"I was told to give you a word of advice, don't try to cause trouble for Victoria of Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals, or else your Waldon family in H City will become a history!"

Clap!

After saying this, the phone hung up.

Dylan froze in place while shivering, and sat limply on the sofa, muttering under his breath.

"It's over, the Waldon family is finished."

After a moment's hesitation, Dylan pranced up and said sharply.

"Quick, you two come with me to Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals!"

"Dad, why will we take the sudden trip to Yunsheng Pharmaceuticals? What's wrong with you?"

Cole didn't understand.

"Why should we go? Go and apologize to Victoria for you two!"

Dylan said angrily, "Do you know who called me just now?"

Master Connor Davies!

You guys have gotten me into big trouble this time!"
