

Chapter 178 Call people to come here

Kingsley rushed to the hospital in a hurry. When he saw the palm print on Lily-Mae's face and the black and blue face of her brother-in-law, he was furious.

He took out his cell phone, dialed Jackson's number, and roared, "Jackson! Are you blind? "

"Chairman Kingsley, what do you mean? I wonder if I have done something wrong." Jackson was puzzled and asked.

"Fuck! How well can you pretend? My wife is Lily-Mae, my brother-in-law is Murray, and my son is Hanks! Don't you know what happened to them? "

Jackson shivered all over and immediately complained in his heart. He didn't expect that Murray would have such a strong relationship with Chairman Kingsley.

From the perspective of Kingsley, he was afraid that things couldn't be easily resolved!

Jackson was anxious and didn't know what to do. On the one hand, it was the Young Lord of the Dragon Sect, and on the other hand, it was the vice chairman of the Medical Association who managed his hospital. Both sides were people he couldn't afford to offend.

"Chairman Kingsley, calm down. There must be some misunderstanding."

"I didn't misunderstand you! Where is the bully that offended my family? I'm going to deal with him now. You'd better get here in front of me and make amends for my family! "

Murray said in a flattering way," My brother-in-law, I know where he is. I'll take you there."

Kingsley hung up the phone, and said decisively, "Lead the way, and let me deal with this son of a bitch!"

"Well, I am just waiting for you to say that." Murray became a guide and led the family to the hospital building.

Kingsley stepped arrogantly into the corridor of the inpatient area. Murray pointed to Maximilian and yelled, "Brother-in-law, it's him who hit us just now!"

Kingsley looked at Maximilian unfriendly with a hostile face.

"You dare to beat my wife and son. You are really lawless! Come and kneel down for me, with your wife and kid.

Today, I'm going to strip your clothes and let everyone see the ugly look of your poor family!"

Hanks glared at Maximilian and said in a loud voice, "Dad, you stripe them, and I'll step on them severely."

"Good son, wait for Dad to fix these poor dogs, and then you can step on them as much as you want!" Kingsley said overbearingly, as if he was able to handle the Maximilian.

Maximilian looked at Kingsley in his eyes and said in a cold voice, "Who's the dog barking?"

"What are you talking about? How dare you say I'm barking! Do you know who I am? I'm the vice chairman of the Medical Association! As long as I move my lips and make an announcement, no hospital dares to treat you in the future. You'll be waiting for death!" Kingsley roared angrily with his face full of rage!

It was the same moment.

Jackson ran over in a hurry and said, "It's a misunderstanding, Chairman Kingsley, it's just a misunderstanding. Let me explain it to you."

"You are a piece of shit. What else can you explain? My wife, son, and brother-in-law were beaten up in your territory. Now you want to explain it? It's too late!" Kingsley shouted, waving his arm.

Jackson was a little timid. In the face of Kingsley who could remove him from his position, he could only say compliments with a smiling face.

But now Kingsley didn't give him any face or opportunities, which made Jackson extremely embarrassed.

Jackson walked up to Maximilian and said in a low voice, "Young Lord, this is the vice chairman of the Medical Association. He is in charge of all the hospitals in the city. It's not easy to deal with him."

"It's just a trivial matter." Maximilian said lightly.

Jackson immediately had confidence in his heart. The Young Lord said that it was a trivial matter, so it was absolutely a small matter.

Seeing Jackson talking to Maximilian, Kingsley raised his head and said, "President Jackson, what are you talking to him about? Ask your people to hold him down, strip his clothes and tie him up, and then find out his wife and daughter. Anyone who dares to hurt my family, I will make him miserable and live with shame for the rest of his life. I will take photos and record videos, so that they will forever regret the mistakes he made today!"

Kingsley said in an extremely ruthless way, Jackson heard with a shiver, and agreed with people in the medical circle saying that Kingsley was truly ruthless, and couldn't be offended.

"You are quite creative. I will make sure you have a good experience of your idea later." Maximilian said with a smile.

Kingsley frowned tightly, feeling that Maximilian was mocking him.

"If you don't come here, kneel down and take off your clothes, I won't be so polite when I call someone and force you to do it. I'll start the countdown now."

"Ten, nine, eight..." Kingsley counted down with a grim complexion.

Maximilian stood up and walked to Kingsley. Kingsley's face showed a proud look, "Ah, you poor guy are finally afraid. Those who offend me, Kingsley, have no good end. If you take the initiative, I can forgive you."

Clap! Maximilian slapped Kingsley in the face.

Kingsley suddenly became confused for a moment, and then roared loudly, "How dare you to beat me? Jackson, immediately call security to come here, or I will close down the hospital today!"

Jackson looked at Maximilian with a bitter face, thinking that the Young Lord was too reckless, but beating Kingsley couldn't solve the problem. If Kingsley used his power, the hospital would really be closed.

"Fuck, does my word count? Can't I command you? You just wait, and I'll call the Association right now!"

Kingsley took out his cell phone and began to make a phone call. He yelled angrily, "Issue the order for rectification, and send it to me as soon as possible!"

After hearing what Kingsley said, Jackson felt that his legs were soft. How could his hospital need a direct rectification?

"Young Lord..." Jackson looked at Maximilian for help.

"Don't worry."

Maximilian also took out his cell phone and dialed Wilfred's number.

"What can I do for you, Young Lord?" Wilfred's respectful voice came out of the receiver.

"In H City's Medical Association, there's a man named Kingsley, who's making trouble with me with his family.

Come and deal with it." Maximilian said lightly.

"OK, I'll deal with it now." Wilfred hung up the phone, thought about it for a while, and then remembered the situation of Kingsley. He said with a sneer, "Kingsley dares to offend the Young Lord? Is life too long and he wants to die immediately?"

Wilfred asked someone to prepare the car, dialed a number as he walked, said a few words, and then got in the car and rushed to the hospital.

At the same time, Kingsley hung up the phone before holding his head up to Jackson and said, "You haven't done what I told you. If you don't do it now, don't blame my men for being merciless!"

Jackson took a look at Maximilian, then took out his mobile phone and called Chief Tony, "Chief Tony, take your people to the inpatient area."

"Ah, Jackson, you are still sober and clearly aware of the current situation." Kingsley chuckled.

Soon, Chief Tony came with the security guards.

Maximilian smiled and pouted at Kingsley. Jackson shouted, "Captain, hold them all down!"

179 The Chairman is here

With Jackson's instructions, Chief Tony with other security guards pounced on Kingsley and others like wolves.

When two security guards pressed Murray on the wall, he felt that his brains were buzzing and could not figure out why Jackson had such courage?

"President Jackson, how dare you? Brother-in-law, reprimand him now and tell these security guards to release me. My face hurts!"

Murray was pressed on the back of his head by a security guard, and his whole face was tightly attached to the wall. His swollen cheek, which had been beaten by Maximilian, was squeezed and became more painful with the close contact with the wall.

Lily-Mae's condition was no better either. Two security guards grabbed Lily-Mae's arms and twisted them backward. This made Lily-Mae cry out in pain.

"Oh! It hurts, you bastards, let go of me. Kingsley, hurry up and help me, help me!"

Kingsley glared at Jackson and roared, "Jackson, you are absolutely reckless. You dare to disobey my order. Believe it or not, I'll dismantle your hospital!"

"Chairman Kingsley, I told you, but you didn't listen to me, so I had to tell you in this way, and I am not reckless, because Mr. Maximilian gave me courage."

Jackson stood beside Maximilian and looked like Maximilian's housekeeper.

Maximilian looked at Kingsley with great interest and said with a smile, "You are really a mischievous and unreasonable family. Since the truth doesn't make sense, we have to use some means to make you obedient."

"You mother fucker! Who do you think you are! Jackson, are you crazy to listen to this rubbish? Do you think he can cover you? "

Kingsley roared angrily, and couldn't figure out how Jackson made his choice. Was Jackson hypnotized?

Except for such a metaphysical explanation, there was no other explanation in Kingsley's mind.

Chief Tony was proud. When he saw Kingsley before, he had to be as respectful to him as a licking dog. However, this time, he really turned a new page and became a master.

"Mr. Maximilian, President Jackson, what should we do next? How about taking them to the security department to sit for a while? "

"No, they'll be picked up later."
Maximilian said calmly.

Chief Tony was stunned for a moment, then showed a smiling face and said, "OK."

"Press them to squat down. If you don't want to suffer, you should cooperate. Otherwise, don't blame me for my tough hands."

The security guards, who were pressing the three people including Kingsley, pushed their hands with force at the same time, and meanwhile kicked their knee sockets, making them kneel.

Once Kingsley, Murray and Lily-Mae's knee sockets were kicked, their legs simply could not stand and they kneeled straight down.

"Ouch, I want you to squat down. Look at yourself. How polite you are now! Mr. Maximilian, they are so polite. Why don't you let them stand up?" Chief Tony said with a sneer.

"Asshole, you wait for me. As long as you don't kill me today, I will let you all die!" Kingsley said resentfully.

"Kingsley, kill them, kill them all! I haven't been humiliated like this since my childhood." Lily-Mae cried and screamed.

Jackson shook his head and mourned for Kingsley in his heart. At this time, he still couldn't see the situation clearly. The family would be destroyed in whole when Young Lord's men came.

There were rapid sounds of footsteps. Wilfred was trotting over with a fat middle-aged man.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, Kingsley turned around and looked at it. When he saw the fat middle-aged man, his eyes glowed with excitement.

"Chairman Finn, why are you here? Come and ask them to let me go. Make a rectification order to the hospital as soon as possible. They are so rude. They are not a hospital to save people. They are killing me and my family!" Kingsley said quickly.

Chairman Finn glanced at the Kingsley in his eyes, as if he saw nothing, and didn't pay any attention to him at all.

Looking at Chairman Finn passing by in front of him and not doing anything, Kingsley felt like his heart sank to the bottom. Wasn't Chairman Finn here for him? Was Chairman Finn called by that poor guy? Wasn't he.....

Kingsley no longer dared to think about the consequences. He was so panic and struggling to stretch out his hands to grasp Chairman Finn's pants.

Chairman Finn, whose pants were pulled, stopped and turned to look at Kingsley with a shadowy look. "Let me go, hurry up!"

"Chairman Finn, please help me. In the future, I will fully cooperate with you in your work. I will listen to you for everything, as long as you help me now!" Kingsley begged piteously.

"Don't get me involved if you want to die on your own. You're just a vice chairman, but you are so arrogant! You think you are the most powerful person in H City. The first person in H City has stepped down. You have to be humble and modest to as a man. Do you understand? "Chairman Finn was annoyed by Kingsley.

Why did he have to offend Mr. Maximilian, who had an extremely profound background?

"What's the matter? I didn't do anything. They are ordinary poor people"

Before Kingsley finished his words, Chairman Finn raised his foot and kicked in the face of Kingsley, making him swallow his remaining words back to his stomach.

"You are the poor one. Your whole family is poor. You are just a toad watching the sky from the bottom of the well and really think the sky is as big as the mouth of the well!"

Kingsley's mind was buzzing, as if his soul was kicked away by Chairman Finn, while muttering, "What's going on?"

Chairman Finn didn't pay attention to Kingsley any more. He walked to Maximilian in two steps and bent down his ball-like belly fatally.

"Mr. Maximilian, I am sorry I didn't do a good job in teaching my subordinates. I am fully responsible for this situation. Please punish me." Chairman Finn admitted his mistake first.

While facing such a big man as Maximilian, Chairman Finn thought if he shirked responsibility, he would be severely punished. If he admitted his mistake now, he might be forgiven.

Looking at Chairman Finn's flattering look in front of Maximilian, the Kingsley family was in a complete mess. Who was this Maximilian? That was what Kingsley wanted to know most.

"Chairman Finn likes to admit responsibility?" Maximilian looked at Chairman Finn and said.

Chairman Finn suddenly broke out into a cold sweat. Unexpectedly, Maximilian didn't respond according to the routine.

This was the master, this was the boss, and only Maximilian was qualified not to play according to the routine. Chairman Finn cried in his heart wildly.

"You don't have to take any responsibility. Just deal with this rubbish." Maximilian referred to Kingsley.

Lily-Mae and Murray were stunned. Chairman Finn acted like a dog swaging his tail in front of Maximilian. This had exceeded their imagination. In their eyes, Chairman Finn had been a great man.

At that moment, Kingsley understood that Maximilian sitting opposite was not a poor loser at all. He was definitely a bigwig, otherwise Chairman Finn would not be so respectful to him!

"Let me go, I'll make amends to Mr. Maximilian!"

Chapter 180 Candlelight dinner

The security guard, who was pressing Kingsley, looked at Maximilian. Maximilian nodded slightly, and the two security guards released their hands decisively.

Once Kingsley was released, he did not stand up, but moved with his knees to Maximilian.

"Mr. Maximilian, I'm wrong. It's all the fault of the woman in my family. If she had eyes, I would never have offended Mr. Maximilian."

"There is also Murray. Murray's stupid brain is also sick. If it wasn't for Murray's help, my wife would never have offended Mr. Maximilian. I'll teach them a lesson to show you my regret."

Maximilian frowned. He felt disgusted at Kingsley's act of shirking responsibility. Seeing that Maximilian didn't speak, Kingsley stood up and walked to Murray.

"Brother-in-law, what are you doing? I have protected your wife! You can't really put the blame on me!"

"Fuck! You and your sister have caused me so much trouble! If I didn't do something to you, I wouldn't be complained! "

As Kingsley roared, he kicked Murray madly. Murray, who was held down by the security guard, couldn't hide from the kicks. Soon he felt pain all over his body and lay on the ground like a mass of mud.

Kingsley, who was struggling to survive, turned to Lily-Mae. At that moment, Kingsley just wanted to ask for Maximilian's forgiveness and kept his job.

As long as he didn't lose his job, he could get more women and children with ease. But if he lost his job, he didn't know how to survive in the future.

"Kingsley, I'm wrong. I know I'm wrong. Don't beat me. I'll go and apologize to him. I'll kowtow to him. I'll make amends to him. He can do whatever he wants to me." Lily-Mae said in a panic.

"You bitch! If I don't beat you, how can I make Mr. Maximilian feel comfortable? Today, I'm not only going to beat you, and I will do it myself! Our family is in debt now!"

Kingsley roared madly, and his right foot kept kicking Lily-Mae, and made her screaming sadly.

"Oh! You really beat me, you scum don't dare to fight with others, but dare to go home and beat your wife.

Chairman Finn, I want to report Kingsley. I report him for abusing his power and extorting money. He also keeps mistresses!" Lily-Mae cried out like crazy.

"If I kill you. I know you bitch are not of one mind with me. How dare you report me? If it weren't for you, I couldn't do it today! You've ruined me!"

Maximilian looked at the farce of Kingsley's family and shook his head helplessly.

Chairman Finn said awkwardly, "I will deal with it strictly. Please believe me."

"Well, you can take them back and deal with it now. Such people should be thoroughly investigated and handled. Don't tolerate them." Maximilian said calmly.

"Yes, yes, I will follow your instructions." Chairman Finn made a sign to Jackson, and Jackson immediately arranged the security guards to escort Kingsley's family to go with Chairman Finn.

At this moment, Victoria led Sissi over from outside, took a look at the chaotic corridor, and then closely observed the situation.

The security guards dragged Kingsley's family away, and passed Victoria. Victoria looked at Lily-Mae and Murray in surprise and frowned slightly.

Maximilian saw Victoria from a distance and said to Wilfred beside him, "Where can I have the best candlelight dinner in H City?"

"On the star coast."

"Make a reservation for me in the evening. Victoria and I will go there."

"If you want to go, you'd better to make a reservation for the entire restaurant. I'll arrange it now." said Wilfred respectfully.

Maximilian nodded and then waved gently. Wilfred understood, winked at Jackson and left with him.

Victoria led Sissi to Maximilian and said with doubts, "What happened just now? I see that Lily-Mae and Murray are here again."

"Dad, hug me." Sissi hugged Maximilian's arm and acted like a baby.

Maximilian smiled and held Sissi in her arms, "Lily-Mae was unconvinced and asked her husband to make trouble again. President Jackson helped me solve the problem."

Victoria nodded and recalled the situation just now. They were all taken away by the hospital security.

"What about the other one? I don't think the person in high level dress with President Jackson is an ordinary man."
"Victoria said.

"He seems to be the leader of Lily-Mae's husband. President Jackson called her husband's unit. The leader came to see the situation and said he would deal with Lily-Mae's husband."

Maximilian talked nonsense without any hesitation. He felt that he had the potential to work as a spy.

Victoria's doubts were dispelled, and she looked at Sissi, who was sleeping in Maximilian's arms, and laughed.

"Sissi just ate a lot of food. I really should accompany her more."

"When Sissi is recovered, let's take Sissi out to have a good time and make up for her." Maximilian looked at her daughter in his arms with loving eyes.

"Well, I've been too busy recently and haven't taken good care of Sissi. The raw material factory has been stable. After a while, all orders will be delivered, so I should be free."

"It's going to take a while. You can't be so tense. You are not made of iron. Even a robot has to be overhauled. You don't have to do everything yourself."

Maximilian loved Victoria dearly. Now Victoria was devoted to her career and had become a strong woman.

"I have to work hard, or I can't support my family." Victoria said quietly.

Maximilian rolled his eyelids and looked up at the ceiling, "I'll treat you to dinner in the evening."

"Ah, OK, I don't care to eat at roadside stalls." Victoria was smiling as if she were very happy.

"If we don't go home for dinner tonight, I have to call home." Victoria took out her cell phone and called home. After a few words, Victoria hung up and got a little unhappy.

Maximilian didn't need to think about it. It must have been his mother-in-law who said something unpleasant.

"My mother said strange things, and I don't know what she thought." Victoria was annoyed by Laura, "Forget it, don't say this, we will turn anger into appetite at night."

"Well, eat hard at night."

Maximilian took out his cell phone and looked at the text message he had just received.

The text message was from Wilfred, telling Maximilian that the star coast has been chartered and all fees have been paid.

Maximilian put away his cell phone and a smile came from the corner of his mouth.

"What are you laughing at? You are so mysterious." Victoria looked at Maximilian with her head tilted and poked her finger at Maximilian's shoulder.

"Am I mysterious? All mobile phones received junk messages like small loans, financial management and so on." Maximilian said casually.

"Take Sissi back to the ward. She can sleep better in bed."

Maximilian nodded and took Sissi back to the ward to settle down. Victoria cleaned up the ward and left the hospital with Maximilian.

Sitting in the car, Maximilian said boldly, "Let's go to the star coast and I invite you to a candlelight dinner tonight."

"It's very expensive there, are you sure?" Victoria asked, her eyes blinking.

Chapter 181 This is not where you should be

Star Coast was a famous fashion restaurant in H city. With its high price positioning and well-designed retro style, it had become one of the favorite restaurants for the silver-spoon in H city.

At the moment,

“Walter, Oliver, although Star Coast is not the place with the highest consumption, the environment is classic and there are many beauties. As long as there is someone you like, you can count on me.”

Franklin looked at the two rich childes sitting opposite with a flattering expression.

Walter and Oliver were both playboys from Chuzhou. The families behind them were influential business families.

Franklin taxed his ingenuity to receive the two playboys in order to expand his contacts and won some business.

Walter took a squint at Franklin without paying any attention to him. He saw a lot of people who wanted to be a simp like Franklin when he was young. The humbler the posture, the less they were cared by him.

"It sounds interesting. What do you think, Oliver?"

Oliver seemed to have a lower status than Walter, and Walter was the most respected among the three.

"It's up to you, Walter. I follow you to enrich my experience. I'll do whatever you say." Oliver said with a smile.

"In that case, let's go to Star Coast. Let's see how girls in H city look like." Walter said casually.

"OK, let's go straight away."

Franklin took out a key to his Chrysler car. In order to entertain the two rich boys, he rented a luxury car at a huge sum of money.

Walter and Oliver got into the car, and Franklin got into the driver's seat with excitement.

"Can't you afford a driver? Don't tell me that you usually drive this car by yourself." Walter said with a disdainful smile.

Franklin squeezed out an awkward smile, "That's for the sake of playing with you two. There would be a lot of inconvenience with a driver."

"Well, let's go." Walter said with little interest.

Franklin drove straight to Star Coast, thinking that he would put up a good show and stop making a fool of himself. If Walter was disgraced, everything he done would be in vain this time.

The car stopped outside the Star Coast. Franklin got off and opened the rear door attentively, "Here we are."

Walter and Oliver got out of the car and looked at the entrance of Star Coast.

The gate was of luxurious classical style. Walter nodded slightly when looking at the entrance door, and said, "This one has a style".

Franklin led Walter and Oliver inside happily.

The usher who was standing at the threshold bowed to them and said, "Do you have an appointment?"

"Appointment? I've been here so many times that I don't need to make an appointment." Franklin said with displeasure.

"I am sorry our restaurant has been blocking booked today, Sir. Except for the VIP who has made the reservation, we no longer receive any guests." The usher explained.

Franklin felt ashamed. He intended to bring them here to rebuild his reputation. Now he couldn't even make it through the door. It was a shame.

Walter sneered. Upon hearing his sneer, Franklin's spirit was frozen. If Walter was upset, Franklin can shut up about the following cooperation.

"Walter, just a moment. I'll fix it up." Franklin then rushed into the gate. The usher tried to stop him, but was pushed away by him.

"Ask your manager. I'm here to entertain my distinguished guests in your restaurant. Is that your attitude? What's your right not to let us dine here? I'll have dinner here today! "

"Sir, please don't be unreasonable. We are incapable of receiving you because we are reserved." The manager on duty came up in a hurry and said.

"I don't care. Don't tell me if it's private or not. I can also make a blocking booking. Just tell me how much it costs!"

"It costs 500,000 dollars to make a block booking, and the food, drinks and service fee are not included." said the manager.

Franklin was stunned for a moment. He couldn't even afford the service fee, let alone the block booking.

"Sir, if you want to make a block booking, you can make an appointment for tomorrow. We will serve you wholeheartedly."

The words of the manager hurt Franklin and made him felt that he was despised.

"Cut it off! I invite my friends to dinner. Just offer us a table. Don't talk nonsense. Do it for me."

"I'm sorry, I really can't." The manager just shook his head.

Franklin almost got a headache from this situation. He didn't know what to do. If he cannot make it, he was definitely going to be ridiculed by Walter.

Walter and Oliver came in, and Oliver curled his lip and said, "Franklin, you said yourself that you are powerful in H City, how come you cannot handle a room? How long do you want us to wait outside and see your farce?"

"So, that is your definition of 'power and respect'? You can't even convince a doorman. You are still bragging. All that glitters is not gold, and I know it from the first sight of you" Walter grinned with dissatisfaction.

Franklin's face turned red instantly. He regretted that he bragged too far just then and couldn't wind it up.

"Please listen to me. There is a misunderstanding here. Let me make a phone call and I can definitely fix it."

"Sir, I'm afraid it would be useless. Today's private reservation was arranged by my boss himself." The manager said with an ice-cold voice.

"You son of a bitch, why don't tell me earlier?"

Franklin was so angry that he wanted to kill him randomly. He put so much effort to fawn on Walter but it was about to be ruined by a failed arrangement.

"Arrange me the best room and serve me the most expensive dishes now, just arrange whatever room for the reservation. If you don't do as I say, I'll call someone to smash your restaurant right away!"

Confronting Franklin's threat, the manager was not afraid at all, "If you are capable of doing that, just make the call."

Now Franklin simply wanted to kill himself for this insulting treatment.

"Mr. Griffith, you treat us like this. We've made a note of it." Oliver said coldly.

"Please wait for a minute. I'll arrange it right away." Franklin was sweating, but he had no idea.

He yelled ferociously, "Run to arrange the first-rate room for me, or I will be angry!"

A discordant voice came from behind. "Please get out."

Franklin turned his head and was surprised to find that Maximilian and Victoria came over.

He immediately frowned and said gloomily, "Maximilian! This is not where you should be! "

Chapter 182 There'll be consequences

Franklin could not bear losing face in front of Walter and Oliver. After all, he wanted to lick their boots. But he can't bear being seen by Maximilian when he kissed other's asses.

Maximilian took Victoria's hand and came over. Victoria looked at Franklin with uncertainty, and then looked back at Walter and Oliver.

Walter and Oliver were staring at Victoria, because they were both attracted by her beauty. But Oliver soon recovered, and withdrew his eyes after observing Walter's expression.

Oliver was very clear that Walter took a fancy to Victoria, so he immediately put down his feelings for her.

Maximilian glanced at Walter, who was obsessed with his wife, and tried to walk past Franklin with a dreary face.

But Franklin blocked his way.

"You're such a loser. How dare you come to such a fancy and extravagant place? This is not the place where you gigolos can come to enjoy! "

"Get out of my way." Maximilian said tonelessly.

"Why should I walk away? It's reserved today. I can't get a place. What are you doing in here, you penniless vagrant?"

Franklin was frustrated as he was despised by Walter and Oliver already. He cannot afford to be looked down upon by Maximilian.

Damn it!

"Oh, I see. You pauper know you have no money. In order to please your wife, you deliberately pick this time to come. You know you can't get a table. You want to save money by such a trick, don't you? " Franklin made fun of them foully.

"Franklin, that's enough. Don't go too far!" Victoria said with anger.

Franklin looked at Victoria with more anger. He spent so much money trying to bring down the raw material factory, but failed, which upset him.

"How dare you blame me, slut? Why can't I scold your loser husband? You think you can do business by sleeping with... "

Smacking! Before Franklin's roar was over, Maximilian slapped him in the face. Franklin couldn't stand steadily and took two steps backward, his eyes turning red instantly.

"What the hell! How dare you hit me?"

"It is you I want to hit. You can laugh at me, but if you dare to speak ill of my wife, I will beat you to death."

Maximilian said sternly, and there was a frosty light in his eyes.

Franklin looked at Maximilian's expression as if he saw a lone wolf. He trembled, and forgot to talk back.

Maximilian took Victoria and walked past Franklin into the restaurant.

The manager warmly welcomed him, "Hello, Mr. Lee, your room has been arranged, and the dishes are the freshest. The whale meat that arrived by air just two hours ago, deep-sea salmon, best for sashimi, and..."

The manager took Maximilian and Victoria inside while introducing the dishes.

Franklin stood in amazement for a long time before he came to his sense. He glared at the waiter at the counter and yelled, "Is he the one who made the block booking?"

"Yes, Mr. Lee booked our restaurant tonight. All the dishes are of superior quality, and made of fresh ingredients. It takes no more than 24 hours from killing to serving."

Franklin didn't even listen to what the waiter said. The fact that Maximilian had booked Star Coast blew his mind.

"It's impossible! He's just a loser. How can he book Star Coast? That's 500,000 dollars! It must be a mistake."

Looking at Franklin's ferocious expression, the waiter stepped back in fear.

"Don't get agitated, sir. It's Mr. Lee who made the reservation. There's no a mistake here."

"What the fuck! How can it be? Maximilian is a broken loser who lives off his wife. Tell me how he can afford 500,000 dollars. He is going to dine and dash. Take the security guard to get him now!"

The waiter shook his head, took out a bill and put it on the table, "The bill has been paid, and you overthink it."

Franklin looked at the waiter with surprise, feeling that he was losing his wit, He could not figure out how Maximilian had so much money.

"Franklin, are you familiar with that couple?" Walter asked calmly.

"Yes, I know them too well. The man's name is Maximilian, a jobless vagrant and a gigolo. The woman's Victoria." Franklin felt a hint of excitement and asked in a low voice,

"Walter, do you want to..."

"So her name is Victoria, which goes well with herself. It's a pity that such a beautiful woman should marry a good-for-nothing." Walter said with a smile.

Franklin instantly understood Walter, and his face looked like a turning traitor with a sycophantic smile.

"It's really a pity. Victoria should wait for a man like you. How about we go up and have a look? If you humiliate Maximilian, maybe Victoria will be impressed by your masculinity."

Walter laughed excitedly and patted Franklin on the shoulder, "You are a sweet talker. Act as a guide and I will have a good chat with the terrific lady."

"Ok, no problem." Franklin excitedly led Walter and Oliver to the room.

The waiter wanted to stop him, but

Franklin said that he was an acquaintance with Maximilian, so they didn't dare to stop him.

Outside the door of the most luxurious private room in Star Coast, Franklin pushed open with a grim smile, "Walter, please come in."

Walter stepped into the room and looked at Maximilian with scorn. Then he went to Victoria and said with gentry demeanor, "Miss Griffith, when I first saw you, my heart was profoundly attracted by you. At that moment, I felt that I caught sight of the brilliance of an angel, that is Cupid befalling the world, shooting an ..."

Victoria's cold voice interrupted Walter's highbrow confession and said, "I'm a Mrs. I have a husband. Please conduct yourself with dignity."

"Victoria, are you insane? This is Walter! The Young Lord of the Stones in Chuzhou! Now he is the vice president of Baite Group, running a business worth billions of dollars! You are lucky that he has a crush on you." Franklin said in a hurry.

"No interest, please don't disturb our dinner." Victoria said snappishly.

Walter's face turned pale. In the past, when Walter wanted to pick up a girl, as long as he showed he was a Stone, everything just went smoothly. This was the first time he was rejected.

"I think you have some misunderstandings about me. I really like you. As long as you are willing to be with me, I can support your family business, and I can help you become the strongest woman in career."

Walter changed his strategy; he calculated that a woman with a strong sense of career could not resist the temptation of assistance.

Victoria frowned and felt that Walter was more annoyed than flies.

Maximilian said impassively, "Don't you understand? If you don't get out, there'll be consequences!"
