

Chapter 213 Problem Solved

“How could I know what you want?” Mateo was murmuring in his heart but didn’t dare to say it.

If it happened in the past, he would spit on Maximilian. But now, he couldn’t do that because Maximilian could change his fate.

“You are the god, while we are just idiots. Could you please give your order directly since we are not clever enough to guess it out?”

It was really weird to see Mateo’s smile on his face covered by blood.

“You are lucky to live for so many years with such low IQ,” sneered Maximilian.

Mateo didn’t know how to reply, only smiling awkwardly.

Angus reacted fast, asking weakly, “Maybe Mr. Lee wants to teach us a lesson. Since we didn’t act politely, please teach us a lesson. In the future, you’ll be our boss!”

“Interesting.” Maximilian sneered before he said expressionlessly, “Teach you a lesson? Are you serious? Do you deserve it?”

“You’re right, boss. We don’t deserve it since we are too stupid. Please punish us! It’s what we deserve!”

Maximilian took out a cigarette and Mateo quickly took out the lighter, aiming to light it up. But Maximilian kicked him.

“Did I ask you to light up the cigarette? Haven’t you realized your fault?”

“I’m wrong. I failed to recognize a great person. I shouldn’t sneer at you, Mr. Lee. I'm too stupid. I'm wrong!"

Maximilian looked at Mateo reluctantly. The fool didn't even know his fault at that time.

Seeing Maximilian not satisfied, Mateo realized his stupid words. Then after thinking for a second, he came up with the reason.

"We shouldn't ignore your warning. I promise we won't covet Victoria and the Griffith family in the future. Please trust me. And we will try our best to support the Griffith family." Mateo thought that was the point. Maybe his answer this time could satisfy Maximilian.

"That's not enough," said Maximilian indifferently.

"Mr. Lee, please tell us what to do and we will follow your order," said Mateo decisively.

As long as the companies and their fortune were saved, Maximilian could ask them to do anything, even if he was told to be a male prostitute.

“Go to the Griffith family and apologize to them.”

Mateo and the others relieved since apologizing was the easiest thing to do. To maintain their status and fortune, they could easily give up their dignity.

When he started from scratch in the past, he didn't care about his face at all. Otherwise, he wouldn't have made such achievements.

“Don't worry, Mr. Lee. We promise you that we will apologize to the Griffith family with the most valuable gift and most sincere hearts” said Mateo firmly.

“Then I will wait for your action. If I'm not satisfied, you will be disabled.”

After saying the words coldly, Maximilian left the box.

Maximilian's shadow gradually disappeared, and the four guys relieved a bit, sitting on the floor feebly.

"Oh my goodness! Who on earth is that Maximilian? Why does he have such great power? He must have an amazing background," said Mateo still frightened.

"He must be a super-rich second generation. But with such powerful background, why does he live as a kept man in the Griffith family who is always abused and humiliated? He should have been respected by the family."

Burke replied while covering his bleeding forehead, "Nonsense! We should go to hospital now, since my forehead was broken. Besides, we haven't been safe yet. We have to prepare well for the apology tomorrow.”

“That’s right. The apology is the most important thing for us now. We must make them satisfied. But Mr. Lee didn’t tell us the details. I’m afraid we might make a mistake.”

The four guys were worried about the apology tomorrow, which was the matter of primary importance. They would be dead if they didn’t do it well.

When Maximilian arrived home by a taxi, Laura started scolding him,

“Why do you the jerk still come back? I hope you can die outside!”

Maximilian was standing by the door silently.

“Don’t be silly! It was you who made so much trouble for us! How dared you brag in front of old Griffith? I felt very ashamed because of you! Nobody can finish that but you said you can. I think you can only boast yourself! What to do if Mr. Mccarthy doesn't forgive you? What to do if our company went bankrupt for that? Wise up! I'm not going to put up with this!"

Hearing Laura's abuse, Victoria went out of her room at once. She quickly walked to Maximilian after glanced at Laura, who was sitting on the sofa. Maximilian's hand was hold by her. "Let's go back to our room."

"Victoria, let him go! Why do you still keep the shit at home? Since this time he had made such a big trouble, you should split with him immediately! If our whole family is really ruined by the jerk, you can marry another man easily. Not only you, but also the whole family, your dad, Sissi and me need a capable man to rely on. Maximilian's just a good for nothing bum, who has neither fortune nor position. He's not the man we can rely on!"

Laura said sincerely and earnestly, and her words were full of crisis awareness. If the company goes bankrupt, the whole family would have to live a hard life.

Thus Laura hoped that Victoria could get a divorced with Maximilian and marry Humphrey or anyone else. In her mind, nobody could be more incapable than Maximilian.

"Stop it, mom. Even if our company goes bankrupt, we can earn our own living. Don't worry, please. Moreover, I trust Maximilian." Victoria held Maximilian's arm and went back.

Laura shouted, "What on earth are you expecting for? Don't be silly! Why haven't you realized that Maximilian is really a shit? All of us know the truth, except you!”

Victoria responded to Laura by closing the door. Laura felt so angry that she was hitting the sofa as it was Maximilian.

“What did you do? Is everything alright?” Victoria asked him concernedly.

“Be at ease. I’ve solved Mr. Mccarthy’s matter. Let’s wait for tomorrow.” Maximilian was holding Victoria’s hands while he said the words gently.

Chapter 214 Mr. Mccarthy Is Coming for Apology

In the early morning, Victoria got up, as she didn't sleep well last night.

She was thinking about Mateo's matter all the time, so after getting up, she was in a daze at her bedside.

After seeing Victoria sitting at the bedside, Maximilian held her in his arms.

"You're concerned?" asked Maximilian gently.

She nodded and then laid her head on Maximilian's shoulder.

"Today might not go smoothly," said Victoria worriedly.

She didn't trust Maximilian's words at all. How could Maximilian deal with such a powerful man like Mateo? Nearly no one in H City could change Mateo's mind, let alone Maximilian. Her family's company was in danger.

"Don't worry. I'm the man you can rely on," said Maximilian tonelessly.

Victoria shook her head before got rid of Maximilian's hug.

"I shall go to the company to discuss an urgent public relations plan in today's meeting."

"You go to wash your face and I will prepare the breakfast for you."

Then Maximilian went to the kitchen directly, which brought Victoria a sweet feeling. However, it changed into worries at once.

After Victoria finished dressing up and the breakfast, she went out with her strong mind.

As for Maximilian, after cleaning up the table, he sent a message to Mateo to tell him some details that he should care for during the apology.

When Victoria arrived at meeting room of the company, Grandpa Samuel was sitting at the center with a deep expression, and Andrew, Darian, Franklin, Iris were sitting at his sides.

They all stared at Victoria angrily. In their view, it was Victoria who caused the crisis for the Griffith Group.

“Don’t you feel ashamed to come here? Look at these. More and more dealers refuse to be our partners. Some of them even asked for sales return!”

Iris threw a pile of documents to Victoria. Although Victoria felt aggrieved, she didn’t retort, only sitting on her seat quietly.

“Victoria! Our company was going to expand the business to the whole province. But because of you, our company is going to go bankrupt. Why did you offend Mateo? You must solve the problem!" Darian reproached her.

They all knew that the key person was Mateo. Only if Mateo was satisfied, the Griffith family could go through the difficulty.

Grandpa Samuel had reached a consensus with Andrew and the others. After their hint, Grandpa Samuel agreed with their solution, which was to force Victoria to sleep with Mateo.

"Victoria, I think you are clear about the condition and difficulty we are meeting. Only if you can make Mr. Mccarthy satisfied, the problem will be solved. Therefore, at this time, you should sacrifice yourself for our whole family. Do you agree?" Andrew said the most dirty idea with the most innocent tone. His intention made Victoria shudder.

Franklin sneered before he looked at the silent Victoria with disdainful expression.

“Why do you still pretend to be innocent at this time? When the company goes bankrupt, you’ll be happy, right? It was caused by your useless husband. If he can’t deal with it, you should be responsible for it.”

“I will try to solve the problem, but not in that way,” said Victoria bitterly.

She was very familiar with their intention and force. The scene reminded her of what had happened in the apology feast.

“Fuck off! What do you think you are doing? Our company is going to go bankrupt tomorrow, but you still want to be Virgin Mary! Virgin? Ridiculous!”

“Victoria, since it is not your first time to sleep with a man, you shouldn’t be so scared. Maybe you think Mr. Mccarthy is not worthy of you? He’s just a little old, but you can regard him as your father. Call him “daddy”, and he will be happy.” Iris was more like sharing her own experience.

Franklin couldn’t help but imagine the scene, which would be very exciting.

“Iris’ words are reasonable, and you shouldn’t be so reserved. The world is colorful. Mr. Mccarthy is much better than your useless husband. You should be with a powerful man.”

Victoria was so mad that her body was trembling. She was willing to say something, but she knew everything was useless at that time.

Grandpa Samuel said with heavy eyelids, “Victoria, you should be responsible for your fault. You must apologize to Mr. Mccarthy. No matter what he wants, you should satisfy him! Now contact with Mr. Mccarthy and apologized to him!”

Hearing the words, Victoria looked up suddenly, staring at Grandpa Samuel in shock.

It was hard for Victoria to accept what Grandpa Samuel had said.

“Stop your stare! Since Grandpa Samuel has given his order, you should do it right now. Don’t pretend to be chaste. You’re just a fucking bitch! Do it, or our company will go bankrupt!” urged Franklin.

Iris laughed proudly and then took her phone in hand. “If you are shy, I can make the phone call for you.”

“You...” Victoria’s eyes were full of tears and her lips were trembling.

“So what? How could things be like this if your useless husband didn’t beat Mr. Mccarthy? You are all jerks!”

Andrew shouted when he banged the table, “Call Mr. Mccarthy now!”

Franklin stood up and walked to Victoria. Then he took her bag away to find her mobile phone.

“Think about how to apologize to Mr. Mccarthy. Your voice should be soft and sweet. Don’t be silly again. If Mr. Mccarthy isn’t satisfied, the whole family will be down and out!”

Victoria gnashed her teeth while saying firmly, “No, I won’t do it.”

“Fuck you!” Franklin went furious and threw her bag on the table. “You’re dead!”

Iris twitched her mouth and said disdainfully, “Be smart, or I will ask someone to strip off your clothes and put you on Mr. Mccarthy's bed! Cut it out! It's not only your matter, but the matter of the whole family!"

Creak. The door of the meeting room was opened. The secretary went in hastily. "Many luxury cars with the provincial capital license numbers came outside.

"Provincial capital number? Mr. Mccarthy is coming to claim an apology?"

Chapter 215 Because of Mr. Lee

At that moment, they could only think of Mateo. In their opinion, Mateo must come here for their apology in this early morning.

Grandpa Samuel frowned and stared at Victoria with his old eyes.

“Victoria! Since Mr. Mccarthy is coming, you must apologize to him sincerely. Do what you should do!”

“Father, why you are still so implicit? Victoria, you must sleep with Mateo to make him happy. Do whatever he tells you to do and post the sex gestures that he likes! Don’t be silly anymore!”

“Don’t regard yourself as a precious lady. In your whole life, you have to sacrifice yourself for something. If you have sex with Mr. Mccarthy, you can easily get money, which is a good opportunity for you.”

Victoria smiled palely. Her hands were holding together and they became pale for her strength.

The door was opened again. Mateo and the other three bosses went in with many staffs like secretaries.

Grandpa Samuel, Andrew and the others all stood up nervously to greet them with smirk.

“Welcome, Mr. Mccarthy. Franklin, let Victoria welcome Mr. Mccarthy.”

Andrew stared at Victoria, who was still sitting on the chair. When Franklin was about to touch Victoria, Mateo stopped him.

In Mateo’s eyes, Victoria was his madam. He called Maximilian boss last night, so Maximilian’s wife was naturally his madam.

“What are you doing? Miss Griffith should sit there, because we come here to apologize to her. Bring the presents here!”

Mateo smiled obsequiously and bowed politely. His words even shocked the Griffith family.

Apologize to Victoria?

How could it be? Great changes had taken place after just a night!

Maybe Mateo became a fool?

He said he would make the Griffith family bankrupt, but how could he make an apology at this early morning?

Mateo's change surprised old Griffith and the others, who were looking at him with dull eyes.

Victoria was also shocked and looked at Mateo frowned. She didn't know what he would do at all.

A trick? Was Mateo playing cat and mouse? Maybe there was a big trap.

A fox may turn gray, but never kind. Victoria didn't believe that Mateo's nature was changed overnight.

"Hurry up! Bring the gifts here!"
Mateo urged his men.

Then they all carried gifts with both hands and put them on the table near Victoria politely. The table was soon piled up with the gifts. Iris stared at them jealously.

She could see from the packaging that they were all first-line brand products. Suddenly, her jealousy to Victoria became hate. Only hate!

Why? Why Mr. McCarthy sent Victoria so many gifts after being offended?

Chanel clothes, Prada bags, SK-II

cosmetics, Patek Philippe watch and many brand jewelries! Why? Iris felt very angry.

The value of the gifts could reach millions of dollars. Mateo spent a lot of money to show his sincerity.

“Miss Griffith, please receive these gifts for my apology. I also booked some top-level luxuries. When they arrive, I will bring them to you at once. Here is the list of the gifts.”

Mateo pulled out a list and handed it to Victoria politely. Victoria felt dizzy when she looked at the list.

Franklin was shocked after glancing at the list and he looked at Mateo in amazement.

He didn't see the list very clearly. But only the first one made him surprised.

The first were ten suits of high-level hand-made clothes by Chanel chief designers. Even super A-list stars didn't have the opportunity to wear such clothes! The most luxurious clothes!

The so-called first-tier international luxury brand clothes could only be amount to the third-level luxury clothes. The second-level clothes should be made manually by some famous designers, while the top-level should be hand-made clothes made by international top designers. The clothes not only represented fortune, but also high status.

"Mr. Mccarthy, are you serious?" Franklin was shivering and he couldn't even stand firmly for shock.

Mateo cast a glance at Franklin and then asked Victoria politely with a smile, "Are you satisfied with the gifts, Miss Griffith? I'm serious about the apology. I have realized my fault in my deep soul. I was so mean, rude and despicable before. I shouldn't have done that unbearable thing to you. I felt very sorry about my shameless requirements. Could you please forgive me, Miss Griffith?"

After the words, Mateo bowed deeply to Victoria, and so did the other three bosses. Ten seconds later, they stood up. And then they bowed again and again for nine times.

Old Griffith was sitting in the chair, holding his heart with a hand, wondering whether he saw an illusion or not for anxiety.

Andrew and the others felt unhappy. Their efforts before were useless. Victoria was in a daze. She didn't notice their bow but was wondering about the reason.

Mateo and the other three guys felt flustered because Victoria didn't say a word. They worried Victoria didn't feel their sincerity. However, they knew they had gone too far in the past. It was very reasonable for Victoria not to forgive them. Since Victoria had such a powerful husband, she must have no interest in these luxuries, which were common for her.

After consideration, Mateo began to slap himself. The sound of slapping woke her up!

She showed her surprise at first and then asked, "Why do you apologize to me?"

"Be...because of Mr. Lee," replied Mateo with a smile.

Chapter 216 Who is Mr. Lee?

Hearing Mateo's answer, Mr. Griffith and others frowned, wondering who was Mr. Lee that Mateo referred to.

Maximilian was the first one coming in their minds, but was also the first to be eliminated.

He was just a loser. The Griffiths all knew about it. Although Maximilian threatened Mateo yesterday, it was a joke in the eyes of the Griffith family.

If Maximilian had the gut to make Mateo surrender, the Griffith family would have ride Maximilian's coattails a long time ago. How could they dare to humiliate him every day?

But if it was not Maximilian, who was Mr. Lee?

The old Mr. Griffith and others thought about everyone surnamed Lee they knew, but no one could get Mateo's words.

Just look at Mateo's toadying attitude, that Mr. Lee didn't just beat Mateo, but completely crushed him and let him abandon all his self-esteem and face.

Not only the Griffiths could not figure it out, but Victoria couldn't either, and even Victoria didn't connect Maximilian to Mr. Lee at all.

Iris furrowed her brows and looked at Victoria with twinkling eyes, remembering a legend that had been circulating in the circle recently.

Legend had it that a mysterious rich young man, surnamed Lee, spent 2 billion dollars to establish the largest medical industry group in the H City. The name of that group was Topyuan Group!

Topyuan Group!

Victoria, a rich young man surnamed Lee!

Moreover, the medical equipment and medicines sent to Sissi in the hospital last time were also from someone surnamed Lee.

Iris connected all the clues she knew and felt that she had grasped the truth of the matter.

"Okay, Victoria! You pretended to be a nun before, but I didn't expect you to hang out with Mr Lee! Shame on you!" Iris said angrily.

It was the rich young man who invested 2 billion dollars at a time. In order to establish a medical industry group, Mr. Lee had circled a lot of wasteland in the southern suburbs.

Now that the land price in H city was soaring, the wasteland that he had acquired was now worth a lot of money!

Thinking of the rich young man hanging out with Victoria secretly, Iris became more angry, thinking,

"Am I not as good as Victoria? I, Iris, am not as pretty as her? Am I not as capable as her? Am I not as good as her at serving man? Why does the best rich young man not hang out with me!"

The old Mr. Griffith and others looked at Iris together, and Darian asked, "Iris, who do you think is Mr. Lee?"

Iris nodded, squinting at unknown Victoria with contemptuous eyes.

"Stop pretending, Victoria. Recently, a mysterious young man, Mr. Lee invested 2 billion dollars to establish the Topyuan Group, which is the largest medical industry group in H city."

"This time it's Mr. Lee who helped you, and it was also him last time in the hospital. So many coincidences. It must be that Victoria slept with that Mr. Lee. Your charm is quite powerful, and Mr. Lee set up this group for you, huh!"

After Iris's words, everyone felt a sudden enlightenment, including Mateo. It was just that Mateo was different from the Griffith family. Mateo guessed that Mr. Lee was probably Maximilian.

Thinking of the power of Maximilian, it was too easy for him to spend 2 billion dollars to surprise Victoria.

But the old Mr. Griffith didn't look at it that way. He seemed to see a golden mine falling from the sky. If this were true, as long as Victoria made Mr. Lee happy, then the Griffith family would follow him and embark on a fast growth.

Only Victoria looked confused, thinking about whom Mr. Lee was, and what the Topyuan Group was about? She didn't even know the name yet.

Franklin glanced at Victoria contemptuously, and said dissatisfied, "It turned out to be a relationship. It's no wonder that you are so hard-hearted, as you have been with a sugar daddy. I don't know if you were particularly vigorous when you called him daddy."

"Huh, it must be that your husband is too useless at home, and cannot satisfy you, so you went out to find a sugar daddy. But Victoria, you are quite capable to find such a sugar daddy. You even can hang out with Mr. Lee, a mysterious figure. How about introducing me to him?"

The light in Iris's eyes flashed, and a lot of thoughts moved in her heart. If she could snatch Mr. Lee from Victoria, it would not only make Victoria lose face, but she Iris would also be able to live a happy life in the future.

If Mr. Lee could set up a Group for her, then she would be more than happy to be with him.

"Both are surnamed Lee. The young rich Mr. Lee is quite capable, while the Mr. Lee in your family is like a trash. He is simply a scum. How about you divorce him to serve the rich Mr. Lee?"

"Anyway, you are dirty now. Let the trash know that you cheated him. Maybe he would kill you with a knife. That idiot can't do anything with his brain. For your life, you'd better divorce him."

The calculation in Franklin's heart was also in process. If Victoria followed the rich Mr. Lee, the Griffith family would have strong relatives, and they would be free to do anything in H city in the future.

Mateo, Angus and the others looked at each other, and stood silently.

This is an internal matter within the Griffith family. Mateo and others knew it well, and understood that they have no position to speak. They would beg Victoria not to take them accountable.

Victoria said angrily, "Don't talk nonsense. I don't know the rich young Mr. Lee, and I don't know the Topyuan Group. It has nothing to do with me, and Maximilian is not a waste! You are not allowed to talk about him like that in the future."

"Oh, things are going to be real. You are still trying to cover up. Use your trash husband as a shield to help you cover up, so you can continue to maintain your pure image. Don't be crazy, Ok?" Franklin laughed twice.

"Ahem." Mateo coughed awkwardly, bowed his waist and said, "Victoria, are you satisfied with our apology? If you are not satisfied, just tell us."

"It is nothing, you can just go."

Victoria was holding her head, She was too angry to have the strength to speak, and all that reverberated in her mind were the words of Franklin and Iris.

Mateo was overjoyed, "The wrong things I did before will be corrected. All business affairs will follow what Victoria said. If there is any additional requirement, just tell us, and we will go now."

Mateo and others left in the astonished eyes of the Griffith family.

The matter was solved like this with no worries for so long. The same thought came to the minds of the old Mr. Griffith and the others, and they all breathed a sigh of relief in an instant.

"Victoria, are you really related to that rich young Mr. Lee?" the old Mr. Griffith asked.

"No, I don't know him." Victoria explained.

The old Mr. Griffith smiled, thinking that Victoria was shy and embarrassed to admit it, but it didn't matter. The important thing was that the Griffith family could relate with him.

"Don't say you don't know him, you must keep a close contact with him." the old Mr. Griffith said with a smile.

Chapter 217 Victoria Is Kidnapped

"I don't know Mr. Lee, and he has nothing to do with me!" Victoria said with frustration.

Old Mr. Griffith looked at Victoria with disdain, and felt that Victoria had overplayed a bit, and things were already clear. So why would she still pretend?

However, thinking of Mateo's apology, and the 2 billion dollars investment in Topyuan Group, old Mr. Griffith put away his disdainful eyes, suppressed the impatience in his heart, and continued to make suggestions to Victoria patiently.

"Maximilian is a loser. He will definitely not be able to protect your family in the future. Since you have an opportunity with Mr. Lee, you must firmly grasp the opportunity. Mr. Lee's casual expense would be enough for you to live a really good life, and the Griffith family can benefit from him."

The old Mr. Griffith continued to talk, and didn't care about Victoria's thoughts.

Andrew nodded his head heavily, thinking that old Mr. Griffith was wise.

At this time, everyone had the same idea, that is, to use Victoria's relationship with Mr. Lee, and that was the most realistic thing.

"Victoria, don't care about Maximilian too much, and don't care about fame. Fame is all imaginary. Only money is the most real thing. With money and status, who dares not respect you, right? Just follow Mr. Lee, and you will have everything in the future." Andrew seconded with a wretched smile.

"Your uncle is right, Victoria, don't get into a blind alley. What is good about Maximilian? The family has long persuaded you to kick him away. Being with such a trash will only drag you down. On the contrary, Mr. Lee is a perfect choice." Darian followed to persuade.

Victoria felt that she was unable to argue with them. Everyone around her thought that she was related to Mr. Lee. At this time, no matter how much she argued, it would be pale and weak.

"Victoria, we are for your own good. Mr. Lee has so much wealth and power. As long as you can hook up with him and please him, the Griffith family will be able to boom in the future, and as the family has nurtured you for many years, we are looking forward to your contribution to the family."

The old Mr. Griffith finished speaking slowly and stared at Victoria silently.

Franklin sneered, and said disdainfully, "Mr. Lee has done so much to help you. Why are you pretending to be lofty? Hurry up and contact Mr. Lee. We all look forward to your relationship with him."

"You are too much! I won't cheat Maximilian, and I don't know Mr. Lee either. Don't say it anymore!" Victoria was short of breath, her eyes turned red, and her emotions were strongly suppressed, but she forced herself not to cry.

The old Mr. Griffith coldly looked at Victoria unpleasantly.

"Huh! Think about it for yourself, this is your best opportunity! Do you still think Mateo's story will repeat in the future? Maybe no one will help you in the future."

The old Mr. Griffith uttered the words, and walked out with his hands behind his back.

Andrew stood up and said as he walked, "Opportunities are reserved for those who are prepared. Now the opportunity is given to you. If you can't grasp it, it would be a pity."

"Don't really think you are a chaste woman. If you don't get along with Mr. Lee at this time, you will regret it later."

Darian also got up and left. Franklin and Iris both stood up with a sneer and left the meeting room together.

Victoria was so wronged in her heart that she sat there for quite a while before calming down.

Thinking about the attitude of the Griffiths just now, Victoria felt cold all over and didn't want to stay in the company for a moment.

Walking out of the company silently, Victoria got into the company car and was silent for a long time, before she decided to go to the hospital to see Sissi. At this moment, thinking of Sissi made Victoria feel warm.

She started the car and drove to the hospital. When Victoria's car left the company, a silver-white car drove out of the road and followed Victoria's car closely.

"The target has left the company and I am following it up."

The driver of the silver-white car said with the intercom.

"Keep your eyes on it. According to our survey, the car often goes to her home, company, the raw material factory, and hospital. The locations of the four places are very different. You have to judge the direction."

"Got it. It should be the direction of the hospital, and we can arrange it."

"Roger."

The silver-white car driver put down the intercom and focused on following Victoria's car.

Victoria didn't know that a net was opening to her. After arriving at the hospital, Victoria parked the car in the parking lot. Once she got out of the car and walked only a few steps, she ran into two men approaching her.

Victoria didn't notice it. Just as she was passing by the two men, a man suddenly raised his hand, and used the towel in his hand to tightly cover Victoria's nose and mouth.

The towel was wet, and with Ecstasy potion sprayed on it. Only a small amount of the potion into the nasal cavity would make her completely unconscious.

Victoria struggled a bit, feeling that the foreground of her eyes seemed to be blurred, and then her eyes went dark and she passed out completely into a coma.

"Huh, this girl looks really top-notch, no wonder Young Master Walter was attracted by her, and things are going smoothly this time."

"Don't think too much. Take her home quickly, Mr. Walter Stone is waiting."

The door of a commercial vehicle not far away opened, and two men helped Victoria into the car.

"Brother Barnaby, it's done. Sure it's the lady surnamed Griffith. It won't be wrong."

"Inform the other brothers to get back. Mr. Walter Stone is waiting in the warehouse in the suburbs."

The door of the commercial vehicle was closed tightly, the engine roared twice, and the car ran away like a sharp arrow.

After a while, the commercial vehicle drove into an abandoned warehouse on the outskirts of the city. There were many open and secret posts around the warehouse, all of which were transferred from the provincial capital by Mr. Walter Stone.

In order to get revenge and save his face, Walter had spent quite a lot of his money to get sufficient man and carried out a detailed plan, and finally he decided to kidnap Victoria to threaten Maximilian.

Brother Barnaby led people to take Victoria to Walter, and said with a smile, "Mr. Walter Stone, she is here now, everything goes well as we planned."

"Well, tie this stinky girl to a chair, and let her take a good look at how I humiliated her trash husband!"

Brother Barnaby led a few guys to tie Victoria to a chair, and said with a wretched smile, "It's not enough to humiliate him. Young master, you must let her husband watch something more fantastic. The live version feels good."

"Ah ha, don't worry. That is indispensable, taking pictures, recording videos, and sending them to rubbish Maximilian. If he wants his wife to be okay, he has to come to the warehouse alone."

"Okay, I'm professional in doing this."

Brother Barnaby waved his hand, and a guy came over and took photos and video of Victoria with his mobile phone. Then the guy sent the photo to Maximilian, edited the video URL and sent it over.

Maximilian was preparing to cook at home. Hearing the ringing of text messages in his hand, he picked up the phone in confusion and muttered, "Who is sending me text messages?"
