

Chapter 258 The Stone family

“I suppose you have a wife and daughter. I can kill both of them by uttering only one sentence! Our family is prestigious in the provincial capital, or even the whole province!”

“If you dare to touch me today, there will be people coming to kick your ass. No matter how well you get along with them, they will definitely be dead as long as they have relation with you!”

“In ancient times, there was the case that the whole kindred were exterminated, and I can also do that. Now it’s not the era to be aggressive. I will kill all of your family members if you dare to go against me!”

Nathaniel roared madly, as if he was a crazy lion. He wanted to scare Maximilian and made him retreat by threatening him.

Maximilian waited until he finished his speech and then smiled in a sarcastic manner.

“You’re so naïve. Is there something wrong with your mind?”

Nathaniel was dumbfounded, then he looked at Maximilian in despise. Nathaniel thought it was a hint for him to retreat and he had already succeeded in threatening him. Now all he needed was to try harder and scared him away!

“It is you who are naïve. You’re just the fucking coward in the Griffith family. How dare you go against me? If the Griffith family knows you come here to cause my family trouble, they will definitely make you apologize to me!”

“You’d better act smart and think thoroughly the consequence of offending the stone family. I can give you, your wife and your daughter a chance to survive if you kneel down right now and beg for my forgiveness.”

Maximilian already took out his phone when Nathaniel was talking.

“The Stone family, well. I can destroy your family immediately.”

After saying this, Maximilian dialled Wilfred’s phone.

Wilfred was sitting squarely, staring at his phone seriously, as if he was the warrior who was waiting for the command to start a war.

The phone suddenly rang, which scared him a lot, and he hurriedly pressed the answer key.

“Lord, everything is ready. You just need to command.”

“Yes, you may do it now.” Maximilian said in a slight manner.

“Okay, I will teach the Stone family a lesson!”

Maximilian hanged up the phone and looked at Nathaniel with a smile, “Wait, the Stone family is going to disappear forever.”

Nathaniel looked at Maximilian angrily and thought he was just being pretentious.

Maximilian was simply the man who married into the Griffith family, a third-rate family. He must be joking by stating he would destroy the Stone family.

“You must be boasting. Do you think I will believe in your nonsense? The Stone family is too powerful for you. Even ten of your families can’t compare with us. I don’t know where you get the confidence.”

“Our family owns 70% of the clubs, KTVs and bars in the whole provincial capital, not to mention the sub-branches in other places. Almost half of the most popular actresses are working under the Stone film company.”

“As for our other estates, such as in finance and venture capital industry, it is beyond your imagination. Do you think you can really destroy our family? Are you fucking brain filled with water?”

Nathaniel became more and more complacent. He thought Maximilian could do nothing to his family because it was so powerful and strong.

Maximilian smiled and didn't say anything. He raised his hand and slapped him silently.

“It is you whose brain is filled with water. You are the captive now, not the playboy in the Stone family.”

Nathaniel held his face and sat on the sofa. He looked at Maximilian with a malicious gaze and started to laugh out loud as if he was mad.

“Hahaha, how dare you hit me? I will let you pay ten times for this slap!”

“If you can.” After saying this, Maximilian kept on slapping on him with great strength.

He slapped on him in all kinds of postures and made his face swollen up like a pig’s head. Nathaniel was dazzling in a terrible state.

“Just wait. I will revenge and kill you.” Nathaniel murmured and wished to kill him now.

“Interesting.” Maximilian punched on his shoulder, making it suck and the bones completely broken.

“You are searching for death by sending someone to kidnap Victoria, my wife!” Maximilian stepped on his thigh and broke his bones into pieces.

“And how dare you have evil thoughts on my daughter? It seems I am too kind to you.”

Nathaniel broke out in a cold sweat due to the pain and yelled with his tears and snots running down, “Asshole, just wait, you will pay for it!”

“It seems you want to continue.”

Maximilian sneered and stepped towards his calf and ankle, making Nathaniel yowl again.

The Stone Family Estate

Taylor was reading the document when the assistant hurriedly ran towards him.

“What’s wrong?” Taylor looked at the assistant unpleasantly.

The assistant pretended a terrible smile and replied, “Something really bad happens.”

“Well!” Taylor snorted, pounded on the desk and said, “What? I am not dead yet. Nothing serious will happen!”

“But it’s really serious. The projects we invested on were all frozen and the related authorities have sealed up all our entertainment companies. Besides, our entertainers are under investigation of tax evasion!”

The assistant said anxiously and every word he said was like a hammer pounding on Taylor’s heart.

Taylor’s expression was terrible. He stated at the assistant and asked, “Are you telling the truth?”

“Yes, yes, indeed! Those are what our branch companies told me. Because of the news, the share price of our company has declined almost 95%!”

Taylor's body was shaking and he used his right hand to cover his chest. His breath became hasty and intense, "Medicine, bring my medicine!"

The assistant hurriedly took out the first-aid medicine from his pocket, and fed him two pills.

Only after a long time had passed did Taylor become conscious after swallowing the pills.

"How could it be? Why?" Taylor asked faintly.

Someone must be suppressing his family behind when such a thing happened. However, he didn't remember of finding any powerful family's trouble. Why would they be suppressed?

The normal families didn't have such power. The Stone family had a firm root in the provincial capital. Therefore, it must be a higher family which did all these things!

The assistant shook his head and answered in a low voice, “We’re still investigating it and haven’t found the exact information, but...”

“But what?”

“I have found that Nathaniel has offended someone. So maybe it’s his problem.”

Chapter 259 Please forgive the Stone Family

Taylor directly took out his phone and dialed Nathaniel's phone without any hesitation after hearing what the assistant said.

He didn't have to think further, but acted quick to confirm whether Nathaniel had offended someone powerful!

His thought was concise and effective.

When he was dialling, Nathaniel was lying on the floor, staring at Maximilian with fierce expression.

"Well, Maximilian, fuck you! You have no time to be arrogant. Even if you kill me today, there will be numerous people in our family to revenge me. At that time, your whole family will be dead!”

“Are you satisfied with beating me? Our Stone family will catch all your relatives in the future and beat them one by one. We’ll see whether you can still be satisfied! You don’t deserve to compete with us!”

Nathaniel would rather die than submit. Because he knew he could rely on the Stone family to teach Maximilian a lesson.

Maximilian took out his phone to check time and said coldly, “Time’s up.”

“Fuck you! You’re still fucking pretentious. I still get a long time and this is your last chance to apologize, otherwise, our family will kill whoever we want!”

When Nathaniel was cursing, his phone suddenly rang up.

He bore the pain, took out his phone with his left hand, and found it was from Taylor. Seeing his brother's name, he picked up the phone excitedly, "Brother!"

Taylor was almost scared to death when hearing his miserable sound.

"Brother. Please send someone here to help me! Please!" Nathaniel yelled anxiously.

Taylor's eyebrow knotted. He was sure that it was Nathaniel who caused the trouble.

He knew the one who could overturn the Stone family must be in a prestigious status. It was normal for him to kick Nathaniel's ass.

"Shut up! Do you know who you have offended? He has ruined all of our family business! Our share price dropped down sharply by 95%!" Taylor roared.

Nathaniel's heart suddenly broke, feeling he was going through auditory hallucination. How could their business be ruined? The share the Stone family was holding would be worthless if its price fell by 95%!

"Brother. Brother, are you kidding?" Nathaniel asked in a weak voice.

"I am fucking serious! Who are you messing up with? Just apologize to him now, or I will kick you out of the Stone family and let you perish on your own!"

Taylor was outrageous. How he wished he could smash Nathaniel's head! He was so anxious, while his brother was still asking if he was joking!

Nathaniel's whole body was frozen. He trembled and looked at Maximilian.

He remembered Maximilian had called someone a few minutes ago and wanted to ruin the Stone family. If what his brother said was true, their family would definitely come to an end!

Did Maximilian really have the power to do that? He could tell from his document that he was merely a loser!

How could he make everything happen? He must be of great power to close down all companies the Stone family owned.

Nathaniel was going through a mixture of feelings, which kept on frightening him.

“Did you hear what I said? Answer me! I want you to apologize for him immediately and you must gain his forgiveness to let go our family. If you can’t do that, you will be dead soon!”

Taylor kept on roaring, which finally made Nathaniel resume his consciousness.

Nathaniel said in a wry voice, “Ok, brother, I will try.”

“Don’t use the word try! You must, must! Otherwise, the Stone family will be rooted! And every one of us will be destroyed! You must ask for forgiveness, even if you had to sacrifice your own life!”

Nathaniel didn’t know how to react, but hanged up the phone silently.

“How did you do this to us? Who are you?” Nathaniel didn’t want to resign to fate and asked.

“Do you think you deserve to ask me about this?” Maximilian replied coldly.

Nathaniel suddenly realized the truth. Maximilian must have a strong family background by reversing the Stone family in a short time.

After realizing the reality, Nathaniel suddenly became frightened and said, "Sorry. I know it's too late to say sorry, but please, please forgive me."

Maximilian looked at him in a teasing way, "So that's your way of apologizing? Do you think you will forgive someone if he apologizes to you in this manner?"

"No, no, I won't. But I couldn't..."

Nathaniel was miserable. If he wanted someone to apologize, kneeling down was the basic gesture, and kowtowing was a sincere way.

However, he couldn't do this because both his right arm and right leg were broken by Maximilian. How could he kneel down and kowtow?

"Are you blaming me?" Maximilian said with a smile, sitting on the sofa.

"No, definitely not. It's my fault. It is me who did not realize the reality. I will apologize to you sincerely.”

Nathaniel gritted his teeth and held himself up from the ground. He tried to kneel down with great pain and kowtowed to Maximilian.

“I am truly sorry. Please forgive me! You can do whatever you want to punish me, even if by killing me. But please don’t ruin the Stone family! Please!”

Maximilian shook his head and walked by Nathaniel.

Seeing Maximilian was going to leave, Nathaniel shouted, “Please forgive me. Please forgive the Stone family, Mr. Lee. I am really sorry!”

Nathaniel felt the utmost fear in his life and found he was surrounded by this feeling.

He passed out under the extreme stress and fear.

Maximilian left the Dragon club. After lighting up a cigarette, he called a car and went back to City H. Although he had solved problems in the Stone family, he knew the Griffith family must find him trouble later.

All people in the meeting room turned to look at Victoria with a cold expression.

Andrew was in a trance because this scene reminded him of what happened to Mateo before.

“Victoria. Who has you and Maximilian messed up with?”

Darian firstly asked her and wanted to find him trouble.

Iris said sarcastically, “Maybe it’s by the man who you have seduced. Maximilian wants to revenge after knowing that you have cheated on him.”

“You’re talking nonsense! I haven’t done that thing! Maximilian told me he would go to handle everything. Can we trust him and just wait?”

Victoria looked at Andrew and the others with an appealing look.

Chapter 260 Influence the Ruffians

“We won’t fuck waiting for him! I suppose that loser already ran away when such an incident happens! Are you dumb? There is a saying, when facing with imminent disaster, the couples will find their own way rather than helping each other!” Darian frowned and answered.

Franklin showed a poker face, throwing a document to Victoria.

“Check it by yourself. Those who kidnapped our people were arranged by the Stone family. That’s the transcript I got from others. Are you and your loser husband trying to framing up our family?”

Victoria picked up the document and looked through it with trembling eyes.

The Stone family! The kidnappers were really arranged by the Stone family!

Did Maximilian really go to the provincial capital to look for them?

Thinking of this, the rim of Victoria's eyes suddenly became red and tears kept running down along her cheek.

Maximilian came to the provincial capital by his own, with the Stone family's great influence, was she in danger?

Nobody in the Griffith family noticed that Victoria's abnormal emotion. They thought she was scared by the document.

"Do you think Maximilian can handle this? What the fucking is him? He is just loser who marries into our family to rely on us and how could he manage to solve the problem? Even if our family try our best, we can't find a go-between to help us!”

Andrew said angrily. The more he talked, the more anxious he became. He couldn't imagine the consequences of offending the Stone family.

Iris glanced at Victoria, who was carried with a dull look and said coldly, “It must be this bitch who seduced someone and caused us trouble. I suggest we can send her to the Stone family to apologize!”

Franklin was considering contacting Nathaniel. He knew Nathaniel had a crush on Victoria. If he could handle this by giving Victoria to him, it would be an honour for his family.

Franklin said excitedly when thinking of Nathaniel's interest on Victoria and said excitedly, “Victoria, it's time for you to sacrifice for our family! I can send you to the provincial capital to apologize to Nathaniel. As long as you service him well, it's possible that he will forgive our family."

Victoria lowered her head and didn't reply. She was still worried about Maximilian.

Iris looked at her and tease with a sneer, "Are you pretending to be innocent? Or are you acting as a victim? What's the point of pretending? Hurry up and call your husband back! We will send both of you to the Stone family."

"Maximilian will be the slave, and you can be the servant. You must try your best to make Nathaniel happy and it's also a good thing for us if being set up by you!" Franklin said ostentatiously.

At this moment, the meeting room's door was opened and Maximilian came in.

Seeing Maximilian came in, Franklin laughed out loud and said, "You come just in time. We thought you have already escaped. Come with us to apologize to the Stone family."

Victoria wiped her tears upon seeing Maximilian come. She kept on looking at him up and down to see whether he was injured. She finally felt released when seeing her husband was sound and healthy.

"I am back, my dear. Did someone bully you?" Maximilian walked towards Victoria, staring at Andrew and the others were in a cold gaze.

Andrew pounded the table angrily and roared, "Maximilian! Watch your manner! It is you who messed up with the Stone family and brought with us so many problems! We want you to apologize, now!"

"I will give you a chance to rehabilitate. Come with Franklin and apologize yo Nathaniel in the provincial capital! You must obey their order and do whatever they commands!”

Despite anger, Maximilian was amused by his words and laughed, “Apologizing for the Stone family? Are you telling a joke? It’s appropriate for them to apologize to me and Victoria.”

SLAP! Andrew kept on pounding the table, until his hands were aching, “You are so presumptuous! Ask the Stone family to apologize for you? Do you think you are a big wig?”

Iris looked at Maximilian ironically, “No wonder you two are couples! One is pretending to be miserable, while the other is pretending to be powerful. Maximilian, you have to realize the truth that you’re nothing but a loser! Why are you still acting in front of us?”

“Do you know how powerful the Stone family in the provincial family is? They own half of the entertainment industries in the capital! They also own the listed companies! You can’t imagine how powerful they are!”

Darian frowned and said, “Why are you wasting your time with him? This loser can’t figure out what you are talking about. Franklin, just take them to the provincial capital to apologize for Nathaniel as soon as possible!” Andrew nodded and hinted Franklin.

Franklin stood up and walked towards Maximilian arrogantly, “Loser, do you know how powerful Nathaniel is? Have you thought about the consequences when messing up with him?”

“What consequence? Do you understand what I mean?” Maximilian smiled and said, "I have told you that I already solved the incident with the Stone family."

"Bullshit!" Franklin spat at him and said disdainfully, "Are you fucking boasting? Do you think a loser can deal with the Stone family as a whole?"

Franklin just finished cursing when a series of footsteps came behind him. Scott and the fighters, who were taken away, came to the meeting room.

Andrew and the others hurriedly retreated to the corner and looked at them in fear.

"You, you, why you are..." Franklin was too anxious to speak.

A person who was from the authority came in and said with a smile, "Don't worry, they're here to apologize."

Andrew was in a trance and looked at them with his mouth wide open.

They were here to apologize? Why those ruffians realized they fault so quickly?

It was abnormal.

Actually, it was the Stone family who sent these ruffians here to apologize.

Taylor had arranged someone to take Nathaniel back. After hearing his experience of apologizing to Maximilian, he spent a long time figuring out what Maximilian meant.

He finally decided that no matter what Maximilian meant, he must show his greatest respect.

The authority in H City hurriedly sent Scott and the others to come for an apology under his arrangement.

Scott and the other ruffians kneeled down and apologized for Maximilian,

“Mr. Lee, we’re wrong. Please forgive us.”

Andrew and the others were confused after seeing this scene.

Why were they kneeling down and apologizing to Maximilian? What happened?

However, Victoria was simply surprised. After seeing so many amazing things happened on Maximilian, she was getting used to it.

Victoria was thinking whether Maximilian managed to do this because he was acquainted with Wilfred.

Andrew couldn’t help asking the person from the authority after seeing that Scott and the others kept kowtowing for mercy.

“Hi, bro, what’s going on? How can you manage to influence those ruffians?"

Chapter 261 Something Is Wrong

“Influence them? You are thinking too highly of us. If we have the ability to do that, there will be no fight or war in the world.” The officer shook his head and answered.

“Then why did their attitude change suddenly? Please tell me.” Andrew asked with a smile.

“Don’t ask me. Please ask Mr. Lee. Is he from your family? He is really a powerful man, letting the Stone family send them to apologize to you.”

“I was confused when I heard the news. The Stone family has never been frightened by someone. Then guess what one of my friends overheard?” The officer deliberately mystified his speech at a crucial point.

Andrew tried to flatter him and asked, "I don't know. I'm relying on you."

"Their industries are directly closed down and the share price declines sharply to almost nothing. I guarantee that people in the Stone family were freaked out this time. I guess all these things must be related to Mr. Lee."

Andrew's mind went blank and lost the ability to think further.

Darian and the others acted like Andrew. They all looked at Maximilian in a trance and found their mind couldn't run as normal.

Victoria grabbed Maximilian's hands and dragged it slightly. Then she whispered, "Come on, let's go. I want to go home."

"Everything is up to you. Let's go home."

Maximilian held Victoria's hands, bypassing Scott, who was begging, and left the meeting room. Scott showed a sad expression and didn't know whether he should end apologizing.

The officer was dumbfounded. He waved his hands, bringing Scott and the others away.

Andrew and the others looked at each other and sat on their seats despondently.

Their minds were filled with doubts, wondering if what that officer said was true. After all, what he told them were only gossips.

However, if what he said was not true, then how could Scott and the others be brought here and kowtowed to apologize for what they had done?

Their doubt was like mist hanging over their mind.

“What is going on? How could Maximilian make the Stone family apologize to us?” Andrew asked languidly.

Darian held his chin with both hands and shook his head with blank eyes, “What the hell is going on? That loser is impossible to do that. Was that because someone is causing the Stone family trouble and the officer mistook him for Maximilian?”

“It could happen, but of low possibility. The Stone family is powerful after all, and they can easily figure out who is plotting against them.”

Andrew replied exhaustedly, picking out his heart-saving pills and took a few. It was better to prevent beforehand.

Franklin took out his phone to check the news about Stone family’s listed company and said with astonishment

“Their company’s share price has dropped from 7 dollars per share to less than 0.3 dollar per share.”

“Slash!” Andrew took a deep breath and felt terrible. What a great damage that would bring!

“That loser doesn’t have this ability. It must be someone else who is framing the Stone family and Maximilian is just lucky!” Iris shouted.

Yes, Maximilian was merely lucky! No one could guarantee that. However, the whole thing was weird, and Andrew thought it was better to wait and see.

“Well, I think it’s hard to guess what the truth is. I suggest we don’t have to do anything but wait to see what will happen. Anyway, the whole thing is weird and we must take care.”

After Andrew expressed his point, everyone started to think something else in their mind except Iris.

Laura found it was strange to see Maximilian and Victoria came home so early today.

“Why are you coming back so early? Is that because Maximilian has caused trouble in the company?”

“It’s not because of him, mom. I’m not feeling well.” Victoria tried to help Maximilian out of trouble.

Laura looked Victoria carefully and snorted, “I find your eyes are a bit swollen. Have you been bullied rather than feeling uncomfortable? Come here, Maximilian! How dare you make her cry?”

“No, mom. A grain of sand was in my eyes. That’s why I weep.”

Laura was too angry to speak when seeing Victoria was treating Maximilian so nicely.

“Come here, Victoria.” Laura patted the seat beside her.

Victoria slightly pushed Maximilian, hinting him to go back to his room in case of being scolded again.

Maximilian nodded and went away alone.

Victoria sat beside Laura. Her mother held her hand and said, “Do you remember my friend Amina? She used to come to visit us when you’re a child.”

“Yes, what happened?”

“She told me L City is going to hold a jade auction and invited us to go. I think we haven’t been outside to have fun for a long time, so I agreed to her invitation.”

Laura said these words to Victoria while keep observing her expression.

Victoria nodded and said casually, “No problem, it’s good for us to have fine together.”

“Yes, but I think it’s humiliating to bring Maximilian with us. I will feel embarrassed if Amina meets him. Can we go without Maximilian?”

Victoria was dumbfounded, then she shook her head and answered, “No, you can’t do that.”

“Why not? You have agreed just now. Why do you care about Maximilian so much?” Laura shouted angrily.

“If he doesn’t go, nor do I. He is a part of our family.” Victoria insisted.

Laura held her forehead and didn’t know how to reply.

“Do you want me to be humiliated? Maximilian can’t do anything but to embarrass me! I wouldn’t say in this way if he was practical.” Laura answered angrily.

Hearing Laura’s voice, Maximilian came out of the room and said, “It makes no difference if I go or not.”

“No, I want you to come along. If you don’t go, I will not go.” Victoria said in a stubborn way.

After thinking for a long time, Laura said helplessly, “Just go back to your room, Maximilian. I have something to say to Victoria.”

Maximilian turned around and went back, Victoria looking towards Laura with confusion.

“Victoria, I have to tell you the truth. It is Humphrey who invited us to the auction. You know your father is fond of jade. That’s way I promised him. Now it’s hard for me to refuse him, so...”

Chapter 262 Please her

Laura considered telling Victoria the truth so that she could understand what was going on. If Marcus wanted to go, then she wouldn't refuse. Besides, if it was Humphrey who invited them, she might agree to go to the auction without Maximilian.

She looked at Victoria with a complex mind and wished to hear what she wanted from her.

Hearing Humphrey's name, Victoria already figured out what was going on.

"We must bring Maximilian, otherwise I won't go there."

"Why are you so stubborn?" Laura finally gave up, realizing it was impossible for her to convince Victoria. She couldn't refuse Humphrey after saying yes to him.

“Whatever, bring him along if you want!”

Laura went back to her room angrily. Victoria sighed and wondered whether she should go or not. Maximilian would definitely be despised if Humphrey and the others were present.

She went back to her room and told Maximilian that it was Humphrey who invited them to jade auction.

“Maybe it’s better for us not go. He’s up to no good by inviting us.” Victoria said worriedly.

“Why not? If he wants to invite us, then we must go; otherwise he will be mortified.”

It seemed that Maximilian didn’t care about it at all. Humphrey was causing him trouble by inviting them. It was a good thing for Maximilian to think in this way.

Victoria smiled and nodded, "Then we will go."

Marcus was worried about the jade auction the next day and woke up early.

He was looking forward to this auction as a big jade fan.

Maximilian and others also woke up early to get prepared.

KNOCK! KNOCK! KNOCK!

Someone was knocking at the door. Laura raised up her voice and said, "Victoria, hurry up and open the door. It must be Humphrey."

Victoria showed an unwilling look towards Maximilian and he smiled to open the door.

Humphrey, who was expecting Victoria at the door, showed a terrible look seeing Maximilian.

"You!"

“What? Do you want to come in? I will close the door if you don’t.” Maximilian sneered.

“Well! What are you pretending for, loser? I will show you my strength later. There is a huge gap between you and me!”

Humphrey bumped Maximilian away angrily with his shoulder and strode into their house.

When seeing Humphrey come, Laura greeted him enthusiastically, “Come here and sit down. Thank you for picking us up so early this morning.”

“Never mind.” Humphrey replied politely when looking towards Victoria.

He thought she was prettier after not seeing her for a few days. However, when thinking of her reluctance to divorce Maximilian, he felt aggrieved.

“Victoria, I have brought you breakfast from YJ Restaurant. It’s still warm.”

Humphrey put an exquisite chamber on the table and opened the lid carefully, showing the delicacy inside.

Laura was astonished. She knew YJ Restaurant sold the most luxurious breakfast in H city and the breakfast would cost several thousand dollars.

“That are sixteen kinds of cakes and they are all exquisitely decorated. Have a try. There is also bird’s nest soup. I bought this for you and your mother. It’s good for your health.”

Humphrey took down the layer that was filled with sixteen kinds of cakes and put it on the table, showing two bowls of bird’s nest soup below.

“It’s very nice of you. I suppose you have waiting for a long time for this breakfast. Well, it's nice for you to give us a ride. Why bother buying such expensive breakfast?"

However, Laura was delighted deep in her heart. After looking at Maximilian, she was suddenly in a bad mood.

"Look at you, loser. Humphrey has bought such a delicate breakfast for Victoria. What have you bought for her? How dare you stick up with her?"

Humphrey glanced at Maximilian and said disdainfully, "Come here and have a taste, loser. This breakfast costs 8,800 dollars. It's impossible for you to afford such an expensive breakfast."

Maximilian looked at him and said casually, "I don't have to eat. It's simply 8,800 dollars. I suppose you must have made a hard decision to buy them."

"Bullshit! 8,800 dollars is nothing for me. I can earn tens of thousands of dollars a day. You can't image how much I can earn a day."

After saying that, Humphrey smiled and looked at Victoria, "I have earned a great deal via investment these days. After going to the auction, I will purchase the finest jade for you."

"You don't have to. Just give it to someone else. I have already finished breakfast that Maximilian cooked, and I can't eat anymore."

Victoria didn't even look at the expensive breakfast Humphrey brought. She walked towards Maximilian and sat together with him.

Humphrey was embarrassed. He had spent a great deal time and money to order and purchase the breakfast, but Victoria didn't give it a glance.

Laura smiled and tried to break the ice, "Humphrey, Victoria has a poor appetite these days and she also didn't eat much yesterday. I will eat it with your uncle."

"Okay." Humphrey replied helplessly.

After having breakfast, they all got on Humphrey's car and headed toward the auction.

Humphrey tried to get a chance to talk with Victoria. However, it seemed that Victoria didn't even want to talk with him, which made him hurt so much.

He intended to get along well with this beauty this morning, but things didn't go as he expected.

He looked at a golden card, which was put on the car front. It was the golden card from DH Hotel, the supreme five-star hotel.

In order to show his wealth, he chose the DH Hotel for the night and purchased its golden card with a large sum of advance payment.

He calmed down after seeing the golden card and fancied Victoria looked at him admiringly when he was booking the room.

Being able to live in the super luxury hotel could win many women's hearts and Humphrey supposed Victoria would be the same. He could humiliate Maximilian at that time!

Humphrey stepped on the accelerator and headed for L City.

"Victoria, aunt and uncle, we will arrive soon. First, let's settle down in the hotel, and then I will take you to the jade auction."

Marcus nodded and said, "It's up to you to make the arrangement."
