

Chapter 263 Membership of the Golden Card

The car stopped in front of DH Hotel and the doorman went to open the car down for them in a respective manner.

There was a doorman to open the door for them, Laura said excitedly, “Have a look! There is someone to open the door. It must be a good hotel.”

“Auntie, DH Hotel is among the super five-star hotels list, and it is much better than hotel groups like Hilton or Marriott. It is said that it will be six-star hotel soon.” Humphrey explained proudly.

Marcus nodded. In his perspective, five-star hotel was already the top-class hotel and he had never heard about six-star hotels.

If Maximilian told him that six-star hotels did exist, Marcus would definitely think he was ignorant; however, as for Humphrey, he would consider him as nothing but knowledgeable.

“Humphrey, you’re so considerate. Learn from him, Maximilian. You can never compare with him.”

“Well, this loser couldn’t do anything. He is not even qualified to be Humphrey’s subordinate. Can’t you see that, Victoria?”

Laura and Marcus were scolding Maximilian and got off the car to the hotel. Victoria held Maximilian’s hand and followed behind them silently.

After handing the key to the doorman, Humphrey hurriedly caught up with them.

The interior design of the hotel was environmental-friendly, decorated with mountains, waters and various plants.

Walking to the hotel was as if walking into a garden.

This kind of hotel completely astonished Laura and Marcus, who kept on praising it.

“Well, no wonder it is a super five-star hotel. Its interior design is so luxurious. I think I’m going to the garden if you don’t tell me this is a hotel.” Laura said in amazement.

“Auntie, this place is of good environment. We have to eat and live well when we’re outside for fun. Living in this kind of hotel is really a pleasant experience.”

Humphrey glanced at Maximilian when saying and wanted to look his shocked expression. However, he found Maximilian was calm, seeming not to care about the scene at all.

“Well, he was so good at pretending.

Let's see how long he could pretend.”
Humphrey thought angrily.

“Victoria, what do you think? How about I book you a special room with flowers? It's so romantic when you're surrounded by fresh flower scent.”

Humphrey tried to please Victoria and wanted her to sleep separately with Maximilian. In this way, he could find a chance to get close to her; otherwise, every time he found Maximilian was with Victoria, he was disturbed.

Victoria shook her head and answered, “There is not necessary. We can live in the standard room and it will also save you some money.”

“Well, you don't have to. We're having fun by going outside and you don't need to bother with such a small fortune. I'm not a loser who relies on the others. Only a wimp will haggle over a penny.”

Humphrey seized this chance to humiliate Maximilian.

Maximilian looked at the room price with a smile and found the cheapest standard room cost 1,888 dollars. And the flowery room cost 2,888 dollars. As for the Presidential Suite, it would cost almost a hundred thousand dollars.

“If you don’t care about money, just book Victoria a Presidential Suite.” Maximilian suddenly said.

Humphrey was irritated by Maximilian’s words. He couldn’t afford the Presidential Suite. If Victoria agreed to have sex with him, he could spend a hundred thousand dollars to book that room.

However, he couldn’t even grab her hand, and he wouldn’t waste so much money to just book a room.

Hearing Maximilian's words, Laura and Marcus, who were still arguing about why this hotel's price was so high, turned around angrily and glared at Maximilian.

"Don't you think you are already humiliating enough by just standing here? Shut up! It's not your turn to speak!"

"Humphrey, don't listen to him. We can just book the standard room. As for Victoria, maybe you can consider book the flowery room for her if you want."

Marcus was scolding Maximilian, while Laura was helping Humphrey. They were doing well on their job.

Humphrey smiled, took out his golden card of the DH Hotel and put in on the reception desk.

"Auntie, I am not lack of money. I will book a flowery room for every one of you. All of you can enjoy the beautiful environment and sweet fragrance. Well, as for that loser, he can only rely on you to experience what a luxurious life is.”

The waitress showed a sweet smile when seeing his golden card. She immediately stood up and said, “Dear golden card member, do you need to book five flowery special one-bed rooms?”

“Yes, five.” Humphrey said arrogantly.

“Okay. If you own the golden card, you can have 15% discount and enjoy free buffet breakfast. Besides, you can also enjoy extra service, as the swimming pool, the gymnasium, massage etc.”

Marcus and Laura’s eyes lit up upon hearing the extra services a golden card member could enjoy.

“Being in their membership really has lots of advantages. It’s really worth it.” Laura said when blinking her eyes.

The reception waitress said respectfully, “You can also submit a golden car membership from me if you like. You only have to recharge one hundred thousand dollars to own a golden card.”

“It’s too much to recharge one hundred thousand dollars. We’re not businessmen who usually go on business trip and we don’t usually travel around.”

Laura was shocked after hearing that a golden card would cost one hundred thousand dollars. Even if she went on a trip, she wouldn’t choose to live in such an expensive place.

However, after thinking that Humphrey owned the golden card, she supposed that he must have recharged a great deal of money. He was such an outstanding young man, far much better than Maximilian, who only knew how to rely on them.

“Humphrey, have you recharged a great deal of money here? Do you businessman usually live in such a luxurious hotel when you’re on a business trip?”

“I only recharged five hundred thousand dollars. It’s not a great deal of money. If we have to go out for a meeting or seminar, we have to live in this kind of hotel. We’re living in a realistic world now. If you are not eaten well, dressed well, or lived well, you will be despised by others. Look at Maximilian. He is a perfect example.”

Humphrey glanced at Maximilian in a despised way, and his eyes were full of provoke.

Laura chimed in with him and said, “You’re right, Humphrey. Because that loser doesn’t have a job, I am always despised by others. I didn’t dare to speak with my friends on the party.”

“Well, a loser will always be a loser. It seems he could only rely on you to make a living.”

Chapter 264 Beat the Man

Everyone went to the room to have a rest, while Humphrey only put his luggage in and hurriedly rushed to Victoria's room.

Victoria was resting on the sofa. She opened the door when hearing it was Humphrey who was knocking.

"Victoria, I find you look a bit pale. Should I send someone here to give you a massage?"

Humphrey went in when he was saying. Victoria looked at him helplessly and could only open the door widely.

"Well, close the door. Why do you keep it open so widely?"

Although Humphrey knew what Victoria meant, he still questioned her.

Victoria said coldly, "You can have a rest here. I want to go to Maximilian's room."

Humphrey was anxious and hurriedly grabbed Victoria's wrist, "Why are you looking for that loser? I'm here to discuss something important with you. Why are you so alerted?"

"Well, then. What is it? I know what you are thinking about, but there are a lot of good girls out there. I believe you can find your true love. I won't divorce with Maximilian."

Humphrey showed a terrible expression, feeling Victoria was being too mean.

"What is good about that loser? I know you are just worried about your daughter. I promise I will treat her well, better than his loser father!"

"But you can't replace him. I'm in love with him. Sorry, I think you have to look for someone else.”

Victoria directly refused him, which made Humphrey furious. He wished to put Victoria on the bed and forced her to have sex with him.

He rubbed his face and tried to calm herself.

At this time, Maximilian went to Victoria’s room and looked at Humphrey in surprise, “Victoria, there’s still some time before the auction. Do you want to have a walk with me?”

“Yes.” Victoria walked towards Maximilian and held his arm.

Humphrey looked at them angrily and shouted, “You’re going to regret by choosing such a loser!”

“I won’t, definitely.” Victoria held Maximilian and walked away.

Seeing them leaving, Humphrey showed a malicious look, “Victoria, I have already done my best to win your heart. What do you want? No, I have to make that loser suffer!”

Humphrey took out his phone and started to check his address book. Finally, he decided to dial Leon’s number.

Leon Moore was a wealthy man in GS area. Although his family background was not the most powerful one, he got acquaintance with many people and almost everyone in this city knew him, especially Frankie, who usually attended parties with him, knew lots of models and beauties.

Leon found Humphrey not a long time ago to ask him to manage his investment finance. They were having a good time after seeing each other. It was also Leon who invited him to this jade auction.

Humphrey finally dialed his number after some consideration. He pressed his screen with a great strength, as if he wished to kill him.

Leon quickly picked up the phone and answered casually, "Hi, have you arrived at GS City?"

"Yes, but I want you to help me with something."

"Just tell me. There's nothing I can't handle in GS City." Leon replied confidently.

He was not boasting, but really got the ability to promise him.

He could handle many things through his connection with others, because he was a speculator and relied on his relation to make a living.

"Can you help me to kick someone's ass?” Humphrey said in a cruel manner.

“Who has offended you? Is he your rival in love? Just send me his information and I promise you to give him a lesson!”

“I will send you his information now. But remember there is a beauty beside him, and don’t let your subordinates do anything to her.” Humphrey reminded him.

If his subordinates saw Victoria and was attracted by her, it would be too late for him to repent.

Hearing the word “beauty”, Leon felt something. He had heard the rumor that Humphrey was courting a woman who already got married.

She must have a perfect appearance and figure by attracting Humphrey as someone else’s wife. Leon was curious and wanted to know what she looked like.

“Well, then I will also go with them. Don’t worry. We will only beat the man and won’t do anything to the woman.”

With Leon’s assurance, Humphrey finally felt relieved. He hanged up the phone after expressing his gratitude and immediately sent Maximilian’s information to him.

Leon checked his information and asked six of his subordinates to come with him. He thought they were enough to kick Maximilian’s ass.

“Well, interesting, he’s a loser who married into his wife’s family. I suppose he has a good skill of sex, maybe we can keep him and send him to the old women.”

Leon murmured and drove two cars with his subordinates, heading for DH Hotel.

He lay lazily on the back seat and sent Maximilian's photo to his six subordinates, "Contact our brother in DH Hotel and tell them to watch over this man."

"Yes, boss." One of his subordinates sent messages to the hotel and quickly, someone responded and told them Maximilian's movement.

"They are in the flower market beside the hotel."

"Ok, hurry up! Let's go to the flower market now. I want to see how beautiful that woman is."

A lustful expression passed over Leon's eyes. He wanted to grab that woman to have fun if she was really a beauty as Humphrey told him.

They arrive at the flower market in a short time. His subordinates immediately got off the car to open the door for him. Leon got off with his hands behind his back. It seemed he was the lion king that was inspecting his territory.

Most of the shopkeepers in the market knew Leon and kept on bowing to him.

Leon didn't care at all, but looked around to search for Maximilian and Victoria.

One of his subordinates found them and pointed at them, saying, "Over there, boss."

"Come on, let's go."

Leon quickened his pace, bringing his subordinates to them. When they were approaching, six of his subordinates gradually surrounded them in a circle.

Chapter 265 Easily Defeated

“Who are you?” Victoria asked worriedly. Maximilian stood in front of her and looked at Leon.

He was looking at Victoria up and down in a lustful way. Victoria’s beauty made his mouth watering.

Leon finally understood what was wrong with Humphrey. Every man must have evil thought when facing with such a beauty.

Humphrey was really his best brother by sending a beauty to him. If he brought such a beauty to Frankie, he must be delighted and would definitely help him with lots of things!

“Calm down, beauty. I am a good man. A friend of mine sent me here to kick this loser's ass. Just come over and stand beside me. I promise no one will harm you." Leon said in a mild way, as if he was the wolf that was tricking the little red hood.

"Do you think your men can knock me off?" Maximilian replied coldly.

Victoria wasn't afraid because she had seen Maximilian managed to beat tens of men. Now there were six of them and Victoria thought he could easily handle them.

"Well, you're so good at boasting. I have never seen such a shameless person like you. I am the elite who can fight with ten men. It is you who will be knocked off."

Leon thought Maximilian was not only a loser, but also a psycho. If it were others, they were already kneeling down on the floor.

His six subordinates couldn't bear the humiliation any longer.

“Are you saying we're not enough for you to beat, loser? Well, do you know who are we? We're the fucking six shuras in GS City. Anyone in this place knows our names.”

“This loser must be blind. And he is also a fucking narcissus. Go away, beauty. As long as you serve our boss well, you will definitely have a good life in the future.”

“Come here, beauty. We will be sad to see you get hurt. We want to beat this loser now! He is searching for death by sneering us!”

Leon used his little finger to pick his nose and threw his booger to Maximilian disdainfully, “I will give you a chance to submit. Crawl to me and lick my shoes clean, then I will consider letting you go.”

“You’re daydreaming.” Maximilian replied calmly.

“Fuck you! You little shit! It seems that you are courting for death. No one can disobey my command in GS City. Come on, kick this loser’s ass. I must let him lick my shoes today!”

Leon waved his hands angrily, hinting his six subordinates to fight with Maximilian.

However, his subordinates were in a dilemma when seeing Victoria, who was close to Maximilian, and they were afraid of hurting her.

Maximilian found their reasons of hesitation. He smiled at them and hooked his finger.

“Come on, let’s see how powerful the six shuras are!” He stepped forward when saying this, keeping a distance from Victoria.

He didn’t go too far so that he could protect Victoria at first time.

The six subordinates were glad. How dumb Maximilian was by distancing himself from Victoria to be beaten by them.

“You’re such an idiot, then let’s teach you a lesson.”

“How dare you displease our boss? We will kick your ass and make you lick his shoes!”

They kept on cursing him and fisted towards Maximilian.

“Be careful!” Victoria couldn’t help reminding Maximilian.

Although she knew Maximilian was good at fighting, she was still worried about him.

Leon glanced at Maximilian disdainfully and went towards Victoria's direction.

"Well, beauty. Why did you choose such a loser? You can buy any luxury as you want if you choose me. I can give you houses, cars and anything you want. I will definitely treat you well."

Leon was boasting, thinking Victoria would easily obsess with him if he gave a luxurious present such as bags or clothes as the other women did. He thought Victoria would definitely choose him if he provided her with such generous conditions.

Victoria gradually retreated, looking nervously at Leon, who tried to approach her.

"Hi, why don't you speak, beauty? You won't have a promising future with such a loser. However, things will be different if you choose me. I'm powerful in GS City and even the top one or top two in this city have to show me some respect."

Leon continued to show off his acquaintance with others, thinking he could win Victoria's heart in this way.

However, Victoria didn't respond him at all by showing her a cold face.

Leon suddenly changed his attitude. He stared at Victoria and threatened, "Well, you're not respecting me by behaving in this way. If you don't, I can only force you to have sex with me. But I believe you'll soon get used to it and enjoy it."

BANG! One of Leon's subordinates was knocked off by Maximilian and he was thrown beneath his feet.

Leon became anxious upon seeing his unconscious subordinate under his feet.

“Fuck! You’re all pieces of shit. There are six of you and you can’t beat him? Kill this loser, now! Don’t let him influence my mood.”

Leon, who was really upset due to Victoria’s refuse, suddenly jumped up and yelled at his subordinates.

The rest subordinates were helpless. They couldn’t beat Maximilian just now together, and now it became even harder for them alone.

They were amazed at Maximilian’s ability. Even the red stick fighters under Frankie’s training couldn’t be as fierce as Maximilian.

“I have told you this amount of people were nothing for me.”

Maximilian suddenly burst out with great strength and punched the rest of five subordinates quickly.

The subordinates were thrown away by him and they all landed under Leon's feet.

Leon looked at them in surprised way, feeling his heart tightened and his blood went cold.

"Fuck! You're all fucking bullshit." Leon shook his unconscious subordinates and shouted nervously, "Get up. Fucking get up and beat him!"

"These are the asuras? I think they're not good at fighting, but good at humiliating you."

Maximilian teased and walked beside Victoria. He held her hand and whispered, "Are you scared?"

Chapter 266 Your Suggestion Is Good

"I'm not scared. I'm worried about you." Victoria said with a smile.

Maximilian gently pinched her hand, and then looked at Leon who was in a panic.

His subordinates were all knocked unconscious by Maximilian. Leon was extremely frightened and wanted to run away immediately. However, with Maximilian in the front and a dead end behind, he had no chance to run away.

Leon regretted it very much. If he had known Maximilian was so strong, he would not only have taken only six men with him but at least 180 people from Frankie.

After that, he abhorred. Leon felt that there was something wrong with Humphrey's information. How could such a person be a loser? With all his Kung Fu, he should have made some achievements already.

"Sir, my name is Leon. I'm also an influential man in Geekoo. What happened just now is a misunderstanding. We drifters in the underworld should save our face in case of encountering each other in the future. Let's put an end, OK?"

Leon said in a very strange way. He thought that if Maximilian disagreed, he would mention Frankie. In Geekoo, everybody dares Frankie.

"There must be an apology."
Maximilian said.

Leon's face turned red. He had never apologized to anyone. In the past, it was he who bullied others and forced them to bow their head and beg for mercy.

"Sir, an apology may be too much. You don't have any loss, do you? In contrast, you hurt my men. It's a big spending on medical care. I didn't ask you for medical compensation. It's enough."

With a cold smile, Maximilian pointed to the six comatose people and said, "It seems that you want to be as same as them."

Leon suddenly collapsed. How could the shit argue a point to death? Even if he could fight, this is Geekoo, not H City!

"You are a strong man, but I am not a man without guts. Frankie from Geekoo is my good brother. Even if you don't give me face, you must give him face."

"I haven't heard of Frankie. I'll give you ten seconds to apologize, or you'll lie on the floor."

Leon's last hope was dashed. He thought that Maximilian would give some respect to Frankie, but he didn't expect that Maximilian would still stick to his requirements.

"OK, you're really good. You don't even give Frankie respect. Just wait for bad luck."

Leon left a word and ran to escape. Maximilian kicked Leon on the waist with a sneer and lay him down on the ground.

The pain made Leon howl violently. Covering the back of his waist with his hands, Leon felt that his lumbar vertebra had been kicked by Maximilian.

"You are so cruel. Let's wait and see. I will take it back!" Leon gritted his teeth.

Many shop owners in the flower market were looking at it from a distance. Because Leon was notorious, no one dared to go forward.

Together, the shop owners watched Leon being kicked to the ground by Maximilian, and took a cool breath.

"Hiss, this person must come from other places. No one in Geekoo dares to offend Leon like that. I'm afraid he would suffer."

"It's more than suffer. I think the stranger is going to suffer from the greatest misfortune. If Leon tell Frankie, the stranger will be bound up and suffer countless torments."

"But it's really great to watch Leon being beaten. Other times, he is arrogant and domineering. This time, I can finally see him make a fool of himself."

When the shop owners talked, Maximilian turned with Victoria and left.

Leon was lying on the ground and trying to stand up, but he couldn't stand up with the strength of his own waist.

Angry Leon roared at the shopkeepers not far away," What are you waiting for? For death? Come and help me to the hospital! "

Hearing that, the shop owners ran over, helped Leon, and drove him to the hospital.

In the ward of Geekoo first hospital

Leon, who had just finished waist reset, was lying on the bed with a gloomy face.

Leon did not say anything to Humphrey, but contacted Frankie at the first time.

Frankie took his followers to the hospital.

The medical staff or the patients and family members all immediately gave way to Frankie.

Soon, Frankie stood in front of Leon's bed. Looking at Leon who was lying motionless on the bed, Frankie couldn't help laughing.

"What's the matter with you? In Geekoo, who dares to beat you like this? I'm afraid it's a figure. "

Frankie was smart. After a little thought, he made clear that Leon must have offended outsiders, and he must be a ruthless person from other places.

"A bullshit figure! Just a poor loser! I just saw his beautiful wife, so I want to take her back. We could enjoy the beauty together! It is out of exception that loser is good at Kong Fu. The six followers I took with me were directly knocked out by him."

Leon didn't mention Humphrey either. The more things he said, the easier it was for people to misjudge him. If he said Humphrey's identity and so on, Leon worried that Frankie would doubt about him.

"How beautiful? If she's beautiful enough, I can ask others to take her back. "

Frankie said carelessly.

There were many followers under his control. At his territory, Frankie felt that even if the man has some skills, he could not be able to win local villain. Besides, he could do whatever he wanted in Geekoo with the help of the network of contacts invited by Leon.

"It is no challenge to just take his wife back! He hit me, so I will humiliate him! He will go to the jade auction tonight. We will humiliate him at the auction, and then we could rape his wife in front of him! "

Leon said as he had been in a fantasy, imagining the scene that he and Frankie had raped Victoria together, while Maximilian could only look at them whining under the bed.

Frankie laughed, and his right finger gently lit on the back of his left hand, "It's really exciting to think about it. I'll do it as you said. I'll give you support at night. You know so many rich and young guys; why not ask them to humiliate that guy together?"

"We can humiliate him in Auction. By the way, the last series is the original jadeite stones. There is a piece of original jadeite stone in it, which the expert of the Geological and Mineral Research Institute has identified as treasure. You can bet with that guy to see whose jade values more."

"As long as you take the piece of material that expert likes, you could absolutely humiliate that rubbish. How thoughtful I am!"

Frankie said with a smug smile. Leon nodded, squinted and took his mobile phone, "Your suggestion is good!"

Chapter 267 Behave Yourself

Maximilian and Victoria left the flower market and hung around for a while. When the time was almost approaching the auction began, they returned to the hotel.

Marcus, Laura and Humphrey were sitting in the lobby of the hotel. When they saw Maximilian and Victoria coming back, Laura waved her arms to notify them.

Humphrey became puzzled when he saw Maximilian without any injury.

What's wrong? Did Leon not beat Maximilian? Or did Maximilian.....

Humphrey shook his head and thought that it's impossible for Maximilian to hurt Leon. This was Leon's territory. If Maximilian hurt Leon, he would definitely be killed by Leon's followers in the street.

But why didn't Maximilian get injury? A lot of questions appeared in Humphrey's head.

At this time, it's not good to call Leon to ask. Humphrey pondered to ask him at the auction.

Laura looked at Maximilian with cold eyes.

"What have you been doing? Don't you know the best is to stay in your room?" Laura said discontentedly.

"Mom, we strolled around without going far or wasting time."

"Well, shut up." Laura stared at Maximilian and said angrily, "You make troubles all day long. You're such a loser. Since you have taken Victoria around, what did you buy for her?"

"When people take their wives out, they all buy their wives expensive clothes and cosmetics. What did you buy? I have never seen such a loser as you."

Maximilian bowed his head and didn't make a sound. Humphrey said with a smile," Aunt, don't be angry. I'll take Victoria to buy clothes, Chanel, Gucci, Prada, and all the international first-line brands."

Laura smiled with satisfy, thinking that she had not wasted her words. Humphrey was a mind-reader, much better than Maximilian.

Victoria refused him with a cold face, "No, I don't need those clothes. It is not suitable to accept your gifts."

"Victoria! How could you be so stubborn? Refuse to live an easy life, choose a loser! Humphrey is willing to buy you expensive cloths. Why did you refuse? You will suffer a lot with that loser! "

Humphrey was a little embarrassed. He said with a fake smile, "Victoria, I won't buy since you don't like. If you have time in the future, I can take you to the international fashion week next year to buy clothes."

"Listen, international fashion week! You could think about that life, don't be silly. If Iris heard this, she would have accepted immediately. " Laura took Iris as an example.

"I have my life. It's happy with Maximilian and Sissy." Victoria responded.

Marcus sighed, stood up and said, "Time for the auction! Let's go to the auction first. Victoria's business has a long way to go, don't worry."

Marcus didn't care about his domestic affairs and didn't want to get involved too much. It's good to get a good son-in-law. But if Victoria was stick to Maximilian, Marcus didn't want to force her.

Laura squinted at Maximilian and said helplessly, "Humphrey, let's go."

Humphrey took them out, got on the car and drove to the auction.

"Geekoo has a special auction location, which is very professional. Therefore, many cultural relics auctions in the province are held in Geekoo. There are also many auction houses in Geekoo. This auction is held by Wyatt, a famous auction king in Geekoo."

"Wyatt is also a legend. He used to be a rag picker. Later, he became a tycoon in the antiques industry after 20 years of operation by collecting antiques from rags. He also made a stir in the auction industry."

Humphrey chatted with Marcus while driving. He knew that Marcus likes collecting antiques and jades, so he specially selected topics that Marcus interested in.

"Wyatt, I know this man. I saw him in the antique market before, but at that time he was already a giant. No one in our province could surpass Wyatt in collecting."

"And I heard that Wyatt is now considered as the richest man in Geekoo, and his status in Geekoo is very detached. It is estimated that Wyatt is the only one who can become the richest man by collecting antiques."

Marcus chatted happily with Humphrey, while Laura took Victoria and kept muttering about her divorce from Maximilian.

Victoria kept looking at Maximilian to appease him, but Maximilian just responded her with a smile.

The car ran very fast and soon stopped in the parking lot of Geekoo auction center.

There were many luxury cars in the parking lot. Humphrey's BMW paled in comparison with other luxury cars.

Maximilian and others got out of the car and looked at the luxurious Geekoo auction center.

Geekoo auction center was completely modeled on the style of the palace hall. It looked high-class and elegant, shining in the setting sun.

"Wyatt invested in the construction of this auction center with an investment of 6 or 7 billion yuan." Humphrey said with a smile.

"Maximilian, listen carefully, you loser. I don't expect that you can earn six or seven hundred million yuan. If you can earn sixty or seventy thousand yuan a month, I'll thank God!"

Laura said meanly.

Maximilian smiled and lowered his head.

"To earn sixty or seventy thousand yuan a month, you need academic qualifications, contacts and skills. You can't earn it easily. I'm afraid that he could only earn 60000 or 70000 a month in his next life. Maybe it's also hard for him to earn 6 or 7 thousand a month."

Humphrey seized the opportunity to despise Maximilian.

In his opinion, a loser like Maximilian could wake as a security guard at most. It's the ceiling of his ability to get two or three thousand a month.

Marcus couldn't wait to move forward, thinking about the jade auction.

"Is there a preview? I'll see the preview first." Marcus said as he walked.

Laura turned her eyes and said to Maximilian, "Loser, come to see the preview with us. In case of anything, you need to be a coolie."

Laura wanted to separate Maximilian from Victoria, so that she can give Humphrey a chance to be alone with Victoria.

Victoria took Maximilian's hand, "Mom, Maximilian and I will come with you."

"You, you!" Laura stamped her feet angrily.

Humphrey was a little bit sorry, but he thought that he can let Leon humiliate Maximilian and let Victoria have a good look at how strong his interpersonal contacts are.

"Auntie, go with uncle, we won't go to the preview." Humphrey said with a smile.

"Humphrey, take care of Victoria. Loser, behave yourself."

Laura just gave in to Victoria. After these words, she turned to chase Marcus.
