

Chapter 268 Teach Him A Good Lesson

Geekoo auction center building was divided into two parts, two-thirds of which was the preview hall. The rest was divided into several auction halls of different sizes.

Every time before the auction, there would be three or five days for preview. Many people who were interested in the auction would go to the preview in advance to have a look.

Even some people would take the experts to identify the authenticity, appearance, value by the way.

Marcus came to the auction without the idea of shopping. He just wanted to have a look.

Nowadays, the prices of high-quality Hotan jade and jadeite had skyrocketed.

Marcus couldn't afford the high price; on the other hand, he despised cheaper items.

So Marcus could only attend the preview as a way to relieve his craving.

Humphrey took Victoria and Maximilian to the direction of the auction hall, "There is nothing to see in the preview. If you want to see, just look at the atlas."

"Victoria, if you and your parents have any favorite objects, just tell me. I'll buy it for you. Don't treat me like an outsider."

Humphrey glanced at Maximilian and said sarcastically, "I won't take care of you, loser. You can make money to buy what you want. But you can't make enough money to raise a banner in your whole life. I'm really sorry for you, poor guy."

Victoria grabbed Maximilian's hand and gently rubbed her thumb on the back of Maximilian's hand to appease him with her own actions.

Maximilian smiled at Victoria, ignoring his sarcasm.

Humphrey looked at the united-heart look of Maximilian and Victoria, and felt gloomy.

Entering the auction hall, a group of young men and women were gathering together, which seemed like the rich guys of Geekoo.

Several guys saw them, which were not familiar with, and ignored the three people, continued to chat.

"I heard that Leon has twisted his waist today. I will seize the opportunity to curry him favor later."

"His waist is not twisted; it is caused by other things. I will give him a good kneading."

"You guys know a fart? We have to let our sisters take care of him. As long as we sleep with him and make him happy, my family approval will be able to be solved."

Several families of the guys all had new projects to be carried out. And many of them need to be approved, which just need Leon's help.

In order to show their ability in front of their elders, these rich guys had been thinking about how to please Leon. In the afternoon, they received a call from Leon and immediately ran to the auction.

Maximilian found a corner to sit down. Humphrey said with discontent, "How could you choose the worst place to sit in? So many good places for you."

Victoria, let's sit forward."

"Victoria, let me tell you, the more you sit forward, the more noble you are in the auction. However, the central positions in the front rows are saved for the local celebrities in Geekoo. We are not suitable to sit, but the middle rows are certainly OK."

Humphrey wanted to show off his erudition and ability, but Victoria didn't listen to him, and still sat in the corner with Maximilian.

Humphrey, whose blood boiled, clenched his teeth. He took out his mobile phone and sent a short message to Leon, asking when Leon will arrive.

Soon Leon's text message arrived, saying that he was at the door and came in immediately.

Humphrey, with a smile, raised his eyebrows, and stood at the door of the auction hall waiting for Leon.

Those rich guys also received the message that Leon would arrive, so they ran out in a crowd and waited for him.

On both sides of the passageway outside the auction hall, two skillful black suit men stood by the wall. The momentum could frighten the passerby to death.

Humphrey looked at the black suit with hundreds of people. His expression was slightly nervous. After all, he had never seen such a scene before.

The rich guys who followed up behind were different, and they stared at each other with excitement.

"Such a big show, Leon must have called Frankie. Only Frankie could hold such a big show in our Geekoo."

"It must be Frankie. I've told you that Leon and Frankie have a good relationship. As long as Leon is convinced, it's easy to get the permission of demolition."

"You guys get out of the way and let our sisters stand in the center. With the beauty of our super girl, we will be able to enchant Leon and Frankie."

Humphrey listened to the words of the rich guys and shook his head and laughed.

He didn't expect that Humphrey could be so powerful. He had some surprises in his heart. He thought that he will humiliate the loser Maximilian with the help of Leon.

Wearing a dark red Tang suit, Frankie, escorted by four burly men, walked side by side with Leon.

Leon walked in a strange way, with his right hand covering his back. His pace was slow.

"Ah ha, I told you to sit in a wheelchair. You don't listen to me. Now you're surrounded by people. Don't you feel ashamed?" Frankie was joking.

"A shit wheelchair, that loser named Maximilian. I will give him an unforgettable night! Let him repent for the rest of his life. "

The anger in Leon's heart had burst.

"Leon, let me help you."

"Leon, I'll rub for you."

The guys all came to Leon to offer their hospitality, and the two beauties helped Leon.

Leon laughed happily, touched the faces of the beauties on both sides, and said happily, "Frankie, look, one is blessed if he survives after catastrophe."

"Ah ha, it's just common girls. I'd like to see the beauty you're talking about."

The girls in the rich guys circle were either innocent or crazy. Frankie didn't like these two girls at all.

Frankie was thinking about Victoria that Leon said. If Victoria was really so good, he could just enjoy the beauty and send her to the backer behind him, which was such a good thing serve both interests.

Humphrey steps towards Leon with a smile. The rich guys around Leon looked at Humphrey with hostility, "Who are you? Don't get in the way."

"Leon, is your waist strained?"
Humphrey said.

Leon waved his hand to the rich guys, then reached out his hand to Humphrey with a smile.

They shook hands. Leon said,
"Forget it. I was going to be handled your business this afternoon. Suddenly,
I tripped over the threshold when I went out, so I couldn't do anything. I'm so ashamed that I didn't deal with your affair until now."

Chapter 269 Connor Davies

Leon said he was ashamed, but in his heart he was scolding him. All he thought about was that Maximilian almost broke his waist.

Humphrey didn't know that Leon was lying. Instead, he said gratefully, "it's my fault. I'll make amends tomorrow."

"Make what amends? We are good brothers, aren't we? Besides, this kind of thing is destined. Don't take it seriously."

After calming Humphrey, Leon narrowed his eyes and said in a low voice, "Has the one you want to beat come? Do you see these friends? I specially invited them to support you. I'll help you to humiliate the loser later. I'll introduce them to you first. "

"Teddy, the second son of the chairman of Geekoo real estate."

"Camille, the daughter of the chairman of Geekoo development."

"Teddy, the eldest son of the president of Geekoo investment..."

The families of the group of second-generation rich guys were all powerful. They all came from leading enterprises in the real estate development and financial investment industry in Geekoo.

Humphrey was a little flattered. He didn't expect Leon to help him.

"Leon, you are so generous. I have to invite you to have a good meal. I'm the general manager of H City DX investment company. I'm good at risk-free arbitrage. We should contact with each other more in the future."

Teddy and others nodded one after another. Because of Leon, they chatted with Humphrey warmly.

"Ouch." Leon coughed and said to Humphrey, "Come on, this is our Big cheese in Geekoo. Frankie is my B.F.F. We're like brothers. Today I invite him to give you support."

Before his introduction, Humphrey had heard about Frankie's name for a long time. He was a big figure in Geekoo.

"It turned out to be Frankie. I have often heard the legend of Frankie. It is said that Frankie was also a famous figure in H City in early years." Humphrey smiled a little flatteringly.

"Ah ha, I used to work under Connor. Later, thanks to his appreciation, I came to Geekoo. It is due to his help; otherwise I might be still an unknown person."

Frankie was a subordinate of Connor in his early years. For various reasons, Connor sent Frankie to Geekoo to expand his territory. Unexpectedly, Frankie was very capable and directly unified the underground forces of Geekoo and became the chief of Geekoo underground.

However, Frankie was still awed Connor, and had always respected Connor as his eldest brother.

"Thank you so much for coming to help me. I've remember the support. I'll definitely repay you later."

Seeing that Humphrey was still building connections with the guys, Leon was a little tired of hearing this. He gently kicked Humphrey, "Don't say those useless words, just say whether the people you want to humiliate have come or not. Let's teach him a lesson now."

"Yes, it's inside. I'll take you there."

Humphrey led the way, and Leon followed him slowly. He told the rich guys around him, "If you meet a man named Maximilian, you just try your best to humiliate him."

"Leon, don't worry. We are good at this."

Teddy said excitedly.

It couldn't be better to be able to get close to Leon and bully people at their will at the same time.

Humphrey led the crowd to Maximilian and Victoria and said to Victoria with a smile, "Victoria, I have contacted some friends of Geekoo to introduce to you. Maybe you can cooperate with them in the future."

Victoria didn't want to talk to Humphrey at first. But when she heard that there was a possibility of business cooperation, she hesitated and stood up.

Maximilian stood up and looked at the crowd behind Humphrey.

"Victoria, this is..."

Humphrey was about to introduce him, but he was pushed away by Leon.

Leon squinted at Victoria and said with an obscene smile, "Beauty, we meet again. I solemnly introduce myself again. My name is Leon. Just call me Leon."

"I can handle all kinds of relationships in Geekoo. I don't know what kind of business beauty is in? Whether it's serious business or not, I can help you. If your business is out of my reach, just turn to Frankie. "

Frankie looked at Victoria with a smile. His eyes were full of greed and possessiveness, but not as eager as Leon.

"I'm Frankie. Just call me Frankie. If you have anything to do in Geekoo, just tell me. Everything."

Humphrey looked at this scene and stunned. Even if he thought with his fingers, he knew there must be a problem.

However, Humphrey wasn't impulsive. All the people presented here were strong figures in Geekoo. Humphrey had no courage to offend these people.

Maximilian stood in front of Victoria and protected her, "Your waist is recovered now? It seems that the lesson is not profound enough. "

"Fuck! How can you talk to Leon in this way? Such a poor guy still wants to offend Leon? You can only offend primary school students. "

"This idiot's brain is fish farming. It's in Geekoo. You don't know whose territory it is, do you? You dare to talk to Leon like this. Today next year will be your death anniversary."

"Beauty, it's your luck that our Leon and Frankie take a fancy to you. You only need to treat them well. In the future, there will be plenty of glory and wealth for you. Follow this silly loser, there is no future at all."

Teddy sneered at Maximilian with disdain. In their opinion, Maximilian's clothes were so ordinary that he was absolutely a pariah who can be bullied and humiliated at will.

Frankie looked at Maximilian and said faintly, "I heard that you come from H City?"

"Frankie, he comes from H City. He's a son-in-law. He's a wimp." Humphrey said to Frankie.

Humphrey had recognized the reality, but he decided to take advantage of Frankie to humiliate Maximilian first, and then save Victoria after abolishing Maximilian.

If he could make good use of all the contacts in his family to find a relationship, Humphrey thought that Frankie and Leon would be able to be dealt with. At that time, the hero would save the beauty, and Victoria would surely be grateful for it.

"H City is also half of my home court. If you are smart, you should kowtow to Leon, or I can make you feel worse than death." Frankie said with a cold smile.

Maximilian shook his head and said with a contemptuous smile, "I don't believe it."

"Fuck! Don't you believe? Frankie was the brother of Connor. He had a good relationship with him. As long as he said a word, Connor could send someone to kill you. " Leon threatened.

"Connor dare not move me a hair." Maximilian said seriously.

"Ah ha, you have lost your mind. Connor could kill you 100 times as long as he says."

When Frankie spoke, a strange voice came from outside the door: "Connor, someone is talking about you."

Chapter270 Maximilian Lee

The voice outside the door was not loud, but the characters involved in the discourse made Frankie and others scared.

"Connor is here? Will Connor come to Geekoo? When he comes to Geekoo, he would tell me in advance." Frankie muttered suspiciously.

However, Frankie's doubts soon disappeared, because Connor came in accompanied by a fat middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man dressed very simple. But the rosy face revealed his wealth.

"Is Wyatt Owen accompanied by Connor?" Leon asked in a low voice.

"Yes, follow me up to meet Connor."

Frankie took Leon and others to Wyatt and Connor. Humphrey walked to Maximilian with a sneer.

"Loser, you've offended a figure this time. You've offended not only the big guys in Geekoo, but also the big guys in H City. You are doomed to die."

Then Humphrey looked at Victoria, "Victoria, you can see how much trouble this loser has caused. It's hard to say whether it will also affect your family. But you can see the relationship between me and them. As long as I speak, I can do your family a favor."

Victoria thought of the scene at Hugo's birthday party, and looked at Maximilian with concerns.

Maximilian said with a smile, "You've seen Connor's attitude towards me, so be at ease."

Victoria nodded slightly, without worry in her heart.

Humphrey looked at Victoria in surprise, thinking that why Victoria was not panic at all. Did Victoria really believe this loser?

"Maximilian! Do you know that disaster comes from the mouth! Connor's attitude towards you? Have you met him? Don't brag here, it's Victoria who is harmed by you in the end! You'd better go now and kneel down to make amends to Leon, or you'll regret for it! "

Humphrey's low roar was like a Tyrannosaurus Rex going crazy.

"Don't worry about it. You'd better make up to it." Maximilian said.

"Ah ha, Maximilian, you can find your own death. Victoria, take a good look at how he got into trouble and died. You'd better recognize who he is this time!"

Humphrey then turned away and walked quickly to Connor and others.

Connor and Wyatt were surrounded by Frankie and others. They were greeting each other just for socialization.

"Connor, why don't you tell me that you'll come to Geekoo in advance? I'll treat you well." Frankie said with some complain, but guessed Connor's intention in his heart.

"It is Wyatt who invited me here. I want to get together with my old friends, so I didn't tell you. Otherwise, we don't have any feeling about our gathering."

Hearing Connor's explanation, Frankie felt relieved as long as Connor didn't have an opinion on himself.

Wyatt glanced at Leon and others and said with a smile, "I just heard that you mentioned Connor. What were you talking about?"

"Just now, someone boasted that Connor did not dare to beat him. We were all saying that he has lost his mind."

Teddy gloated and laughed, thinking that Connor would be furious after hearing this.

"Ah ha ha." Wyatt laughed, "It's normal that people in Geekoo are not afraid of Connor."

Teddy then said, "Mr. Owen, you don't know who arrogant that man is! He comes from H City and he is a son-in-law who doesn't have a serious job. We are all laughing at him."

"Oh? It's interesting." Wyatt looked at Connor with a smile.

Connor squinted at Frankie and others and said calmly, "How did you laugh at him? What are you going to do?"

Leon thought that Connor was angry. He wanted to please Connor. If he could make Connor happy, his business would expand to H City in the future.

"Laughing at him is the most normal operation. After that, we'll beat him and ask him to kneel down and beg for mercy. Then we'll take him out for further torture."

Connor nodded slightly, and then looked at Frankie, "What are you going to do?"

Frankie felt a little uneasy and felt that Connor's attitude was not right, "Connor, I think I'll just give him a lesson."

"A lesson?"

"This..." Frankie thought for a while, and then said, "Just three or fifty slaps."

Connor nodded slightly, pulled up Wyatt and said, "Wyatt, I'll introduce you to someone."

Connor pulled Wyatt to Maximilian. Frankie and others looked at each other suspiciously. Some people don't understand what Connor meant.

Everyone looked at Connor's action and wondered if he was ready to do it himself.

Connor went to Maximilian and bowed to him and said, "Hello, Mr. Lee."

Victoria looked at the respectful Connor and thought that it's really like this. Connor's attitude towards Maximilian was so respectful. Is it because of Wilfred?

Frankie and others had been confused, and their hearts were in disorder.

How could Connor be so respectful to a loser? Who is this guy! Frankie grabbed Leon by the collar and said in a hate voice, "You gave me the fake information! Do you want to push me to death? "

"No, no. He gave all the information, it's him!" Leon pointed to Humphrey and said.

Humphrey was completely stunned. His mind was blank and he even lost the most basic thinking ability.

The strong man behind Frankie grabbed Humphrey by his neck and pushed him to Frankie.

"Who the hell is he?" Frankie asked in a low voice.

Teddy and others all looked at Humphrey with cold eyes that can kill him. This time, however, they were deeply cheated by Humphrey.

"He, he's really a loser. He doesn't have any background. He's the son-in-law of the Griffith family in H City. The Griffith family is just an ordinary family. If he's really a big figure, I don't dare to provoke him."

Frankie let his men loose Humphrey, and he believed Humphrey's words.

Was Connor acting, trying to intimidate himself with stratagem, so as to seize the territory of Geekoo?

Although he respected Connor, Frankie, who has been a big figure for a long time, had put his own interests first.

Calmed down, Frankie squinted at Connor and waited for his next step.

Wyatt was surprised by Connor's attitude towards Maximilian. He couldn't figure out why Connor was so respectful to a young man.

"Connor, who is Mr. Lee?" Wyatt asked in a low voice.

"You'll find it out later." Connor replied, then turned around and looked at Frankie and others coldly, "Come here and apologize to Mr. Lee."

Chapter271 Not insightful enough

Shocked, Humphrey goggled at how Connor was supporting Maximilian and asking everybody to apologize to him. This was way beyond Humphrey's imagination.

Zakariya and other rich guys all looked at Leon, who they were trying to flaunt, because their behaviors depended on Leon's attitudes.

Leon was in a trance. He looked at Connor, then at Maximilian, confused at the relationship between them.

Supposedly, those who got respected by Connor should be at least someone rich and powerful, or their offspring.

However, Maximilian had no such vibe at all, as he wore shabby clothing, and was lack of guards.

These all proved that Maximilian was just a normal person, a very normal one!

“Conner, what do you say?” asked Leon.

Frankie looked upset, because it was absolutely impossible for him to apologize to Maximilian.

This was at Geekoo, which was his place. It was impossible for him to say sorry to a normal person in his own place.

Though Connor asked him to do it, Frankie was no longer his man, but someone who could almost match him.

“Connor, I respect you as my brother, but it is a bit too much that you want me to apologize to him.” Frankie stared at Connor, thinking that this might be his trick on him.

Connor's face immediately got gloomy, "Frankie, I am helping you by asking you to apologize. As long as you do it now, the old stories would stay in the past. Otherwise, if you get Maximilian upset, you may yield lots of bad fruits in the future."

Wyatt got stunned. Different from the impulsive Frankie, he found Connor's words meaningful.

"Bad fruits? Him? I have never tasted any bad fruits. How would I be scared of this loser? Even if you really want me to apologize, at least you should tell me his identity."

Frankie was not compromising, since he did not think Maximilian would have any powerful background.

Seeing how confident Frankie was, Leon got more assured too, "Connor, I respect you as a predecessor. However, even if you want me to die, you should let us know the situation well. Tell us who he is, so we can willingly apologize to him.”

Others like Zakariya also started to follow with Leon’s suggestion.

“Connor, this is Geekoo, the area of Frankie. Please do not get too far on this business. We respect you, but you should not ask too much from us.”

“Is this poor man an actor of yours, Connor? I think your actor is too lame, failing to make us convinced to apologize.”

“We can apologize to you, Connor, but we do not apologize to such a nobody.”

Humphrey had a light smile on the corner of his mouth, amazed at how tough these people were acting. They dared to talk to Conner like that. He could not wait to see how embarrassing it would be for Maximilian.

Wyatt looked at Maximilian and Connor, seeing Maximilian looked calm as usual, he nodded his head unconsciously.

Those who did not even get stunned by this kind of occasions were either fools, or those with backgrounds who did not even understand the situation.

In addition to Connor's attitude towards Maximilian, Wyatt could be assured that Maximilian was not a nobody.

"Frankie, you need to think about this well. This is the last chance I would give you. If Mr. Maximilian got upset, it would not be as simple as an apology." said Connor coldly.

All those behind Frankie glared at Connor, as if as they would punch him as long as Frankie ordered them to.

Wyatt said with a smile, "Frankie, Leon, you are just young kids. Are you sure you want to disobey the old? If you do not apologize to Maximilian, I'm afraid I would support Connor too."

After hearing that, Frankie and Leon's expressions changed immediately.

If it were only Connor who was suppressing him, Frankie dared to go against him; but if Wyatt also supported Connor, the situation would be very different.

Wyatt was the richest person in Geekoo. And most importantly, he did antiques businesses, so he normally interacted with many important people in the province and built a strong social connection.

Though Wyatt acted humble all the time, he was actually counted as an invisible master whose anger could shake the whole Geekoo city.

“Uncle Wyatt. Are you serious?”
Frankie said, greeting his teeth.

Wyatt nodded lightly, “I never go back on my words.”

“Why are you supporting this loser too? He is just a nobody, a son-in-law of a third-class family in H city.”

Frankie said a lot, failing to figure out what Wyatt was doing this for.

Wyatt said lightly, “That’s because you are brainless. Connor already made it clear, but you failed to understand his words. It looks like you kids in this city are all slow.”

Humiliated by Wyatt, Frankie and the others’ faces looked awful.

Leon started to feel backing up, thinking that he could compromise first, then humiliate Maximilian at last during the auction of the raw gemstone. After they won it, Conner and Wyatt could not say any more about it.

If they kept acting tough now, Frankie would not be able to take it easy facing the cooperation of the two masters from both H city and Geekoo.

Leon touched Frankie slightly with his elbow, then hinted at him with his eyes.

Frankie greeted teeth, with his anger stuffed in the heart.

“Connor, if you do ask me apologize to him, I will do it because of our past relationship, but after this, we will have no tie anymore.”

Wyatt disdainfully looked at Frankie and shook his head, thinking that Frankie was definitely a fool. Even when things got to this point, he still could not get a hint of the situation.

“Sure. We do not know each other anymore in the future. Now, get on your knees, and apologize to Mr. Maximilian.” Connor said coldly.

“On knees? Are you kidding me? Why are we kneeling in front of this poor loser? Frankie, Leon, we can’t do it!” Zakariya yelled angrily.

Frankie and Leon’s facial expressions all turned horrible.

Chapter 272 Gemstone gambling

Should he kneel or not? This was a tough decision.

Frankie's stare swept over Connor and Wyatt like a god, then landed at Maximilian at last.

Maximilian was sitting there without any emotion, seemingly indifferent to everything happened before.

Frankie glared at Maximilian's eyes, failing to spot any fear, but only mockery.

For Maximilian, Frankie was a nobody, but Connor wanted to flaunt him, so he showed Connor his respect.

Though the mockery in Maximilian's eyes made Frankie embarrassed and mad, he felt somewhat anxious too, feeling that there would be something more between his lines.

He would take this apology as a chance to finally get away from Connor. This Maximilian just got extremely lucky.

Frankie moved his heavy steps and kneeled down with one leg, "I am sorry, Mr. Maximilian."

"This is not sincere at all." said Maximilian lightly.

Connor stepped on the other knee of Frankie, making squeezing noises.

"Did you forget what I taught you?" Connor said coldly.

Frankie's face twitched. He looked at Maximilian with a gloomy smile, "I will remember what happened today."

The other knee finally got on the floor as well. Frankie kneeled down completely.

This scene made Leon's eyelids jump like crazy and his blood turn cold.

Frankie was the boss of the whole Geekoo, but he was humiliated like this!

One-knee-down was not even enough.

Humphrey's whole body was shaking, while his brain that functioned normally was now in a total shock, staring at Maximilian with empty eyes.

Zakariya and the others all greeted their teeth, with angry flames in their eyes that could burn a whole sea coast if they were real.

Frankie looked at Maximilian with deep eyes, as if he was going to imprint his look in his brain.

Later, Frankie started to kowtow.

"Mr. Maximilian, I had been rude today. According to Connor's rule, I will stab myself three times to show my apology.”

Victoria turned around nervously because she did not want to see a bloody scene.

Seeing her gesture, Maximilian knew what she was thinking, so he smiled, “Do not stain this place. That would be disturbing.”

Frankie’s whole face turned purple with anger.

As the leader in this city, he already kowtowed and was going to stab himself for three times. This was considered the highest manner of an apology here. How dare Maximilian say that it would be disturbing?

Leon and all the others were shocked. Kowtows just took away the dignity but stabbing oneself... was insane.

How were they going to apologize to Maximilian later?

If they all did it in Frankie's way, they would die.

Connor bowed, "Mr. Maximilian is right. I will take him outside to complete this apology. Things will get done soon."

"Go." Connor stared at Frankie coldly, "Follow up."

"Ok, Connor. This is my last time to show you respect like this, since you breaks our tie for this poor loser, do not blame me for being cruel in the future."

"Ah ha." Connor disdainfully thought, it was you who offended the lord of Dragan Sect, so how stupid you were for not appreciating my help?

After they got out of the lobby, Frankie soon made three humming noises. Apparently, he stabbed himself for real.

Wyatt curled his lips and looked at the others, "It's your turn."

Zakariya said shockingly, "We just said something rude. Wouldn't it be enough for us to just apologize?"

"Yeah. There is no need to slap us for three times. Just kowtows will be enough." Teddy said nervously.

Trying to hold down the fear and anger, Leon said to Maximilian, "You'd better not go too far on this. This is Geekoo. Conner and Uncle Wyatt can protect you once, but they could not protect you forever."

"You are not satisfied with this result?" Maximilian asked with a smile.

"Of course no! if it were not for them, who do you even think you are? I dare you to bet with me." Leon yelled.

“Ok.” Maximilian said lightly.

Leon got stunned for a moment because he did not expect Maximilian to bet with him so easily. He was prepared for a long talk.

Maximilian looked at Leon teasingly, “You decide the rules. As long as you lose, all these people have to apologize in same the way as Frankie.”

“Leon, Are you sure about it? We can’t afford the penalty.” Teddy asked and pulled Leon’s arm.

Leon nodded firmly, since that raw gemstone was checked by a famous expert in this field, he should not fail on this one.

Plus, Leon also knew that those emerald stones in this auction were mostly normal and plain. The only outstanding one was the one he knew.

“Chill. I will not lose.” Leon said confidently.

Seeing how assured he was, all the others put their hopes on him.

“Sure. As long as you win, I will kowtow and stab myself, but if we win, you are going to do that to us too.”

“Sure, just let Uncle Wyatt be the witness.” Maximilian pointed at Wyatt.

Wyatt said flauntingly, “Please do not call me Uncle Wyatt. Just call me by my first name.”

Seeing how Wyatt was treating Maximilian like a flaunting dog, Leon thought that Wyatt was surely old enough for him to get stunned by such a loser.

“Ok, this is the deal. I’m going for the NO.9. You just need to choose one from all those emerald stones, then we cut them separately to see whose stone has a better color and quality.”

After saying this, Leon looked at Maximilian with full pride, thinking that he was sure to win this round. Though Connor and Wyatt both supported Maximilian, they would not be able to help someone looking for troubles on purpose this time.

Leon considered Maximilian stupid and already started to imagine the scene he kneeling down in front.

Karson’s eyelids jumped twice. He did not expect Leon to say something like that.

“Wait, this bet was not fair.” Karson tried to turn the situation around, since he could not let Maximilian lose in front of him.

“Uncle Wyatt, what do you mean by that?” Leon looked at Wyatt unpleasantly.

However, Maximilian waved his hand, "That's the deal."
