

Chapter 313 Lack of Ability

Remy's men stopped and looked at Hendrix with doubts.

The old lady jumped and yelled at Remy's men, "Why stop? I didn't ask you to stop, you can't stop! Beat him to death first."

Hendrix wheezed and panted, and yelled at his security guards, "Don't be stunned! Hurry to protect Mr. Lee!"

"Are you mistaken? Don't you help Remy? How come you protect Mr. Lee? Are you protecting the poor man who offended Remy?" A security guard whispered.

Hendrix slapped the security guard in the face. "You dare say Mr. Lee is poor. You don't want to live, do you? Hurry up and protect Mr. Lee."

Although the remaining security guards were not sure why, they didn't dare to question Hendrix's command at the moment. They all followed Hendrix's instructions to protect Maximilian.

Maximilian and his family were surrounded by security guards in an instant. But this time, the security guards were guarding against Remy's men.

The old lady pointed to the tip of Hendrix's nose and said, "What are you doing? You, son of a bitch, help outsiders bully me, right? Remy, if you don't take revenge on me, I really don't want to live!"

"Hendrix, what do you mean?" Remy asked unhappily, very dissatisfied with Hendrix's rebellion.

Hendrix ignored Remy, but shouted to his mobile phone, "Pay attention, all security guards should gather beside the merry-go-round facility!”

After giving the order, Hendrix trotted to Maximilian with a flattering smile on his face and said, “Mr. Lee, I did something wrong just now. Please forgive me.”

Remy was more puzzled. He can't figure out why Hendrix was like this after making a phone call.

Maximilian glanced at Hendrix and said faintly, “Who did you report to?”

“I'm reporting to Master Phillip. He said you are a distinguished guest, and asked me to protect you. I have gathered all the security in the amusement park. He said he will be here soon.”

Master Phillip was a major shareholder in the amusement park. Hendrix was clever, and he reported Maximilian's information according to information offered during ticket purchasing.

Phillip's assistant was responsible for answering the report. When he heard Maximilian's name, he was not calm immediately. After he asked Hendrix about Maximilian's appearance in detail, the assistant determined that it was Maximilian who was targeted.

So, the assistant reported the situation to Phillip, who personally gave instructions to Hendrix.

For the first time, Hendrix was ordered by Phillip himself. He was told to do everything told by his assistant before. After hearing the orders from Phillip, Hendrix realized that there was something wrong.

Seeing Hendrix admit his mistake, and he was Phillip's man, Maximilian didn't care about Hendrix's attitude before.

"When your people come, take these guys back and 'treat' them well. I'll play with my daughter now." Maximilian said casually.

"If you bring your child to the amusement park in the future, let us know in advance. We'll close the park for you and make sure you have a good time." Hendrix said flatteringly.

"That's different. There are no other children. What's the point of Sissi playing alone?"

Maximilian and Hendrix had a chat, but Remy was scared.

Since he heard that Master Phillip was coming, Remy was shaking with fear. He couldn't figure out why he provoked a poor man, and then offended Master Phillip.

He, Master Phillip, was one of the four masters in H city!

Remy was self-conscious. He knew he was not as strong as a hair on Phillip's leg. If Maximilian and Phillip really had something to do with each other, he must be in big trouble.

When Remy was thinking about how to admit his mistake without shame, the old lady on one side was furious.

“Rubbish, it's rubbish. What's the use of raising you? Other people have bullied your mother and your son. What are you doing here? Let your people catch him and beat him hard! Beat him to death!”

In the distance, a team of security guards ran towards here. Behind the security guard, there was a team of bodyguards in black suits, and Master Phillip strode in the middle of the team, frowning and saying, “Who dares to bully Mr. Lee? You’re tired of living, aren’t you?”

Looking at Phillip, the old lady thought she had never known such a person before, so she roared, “Who are you? It’s none of your business! Remy, you now call all your subordinates, and we have a lot of people, too!”

Remy saw Phillip, and sweat came out of his forehead. He quickly grabbed his mother and covered her mouth.

“Mom, stop talking. Otherwise, our family will die here!” Remy said nervously.

The fat boy curled his mouth and yelled in discontent, “Dad, are you a man? Grab the little sister quickly, and then kill his father, so that the little sister will be mine in the future!”

Remy didn’t want to live when he heard his son and mother's words. He felt that his mother and son were too stupid. At this critical moment, they said something like this, which was equal to asking for a quick death.

Remy's men were pale with fright. They threw their sticks one after another and gathered together to squat on the ground with their heads in their arms.

"Mr. Lee, we are wrong. We were all forced by Remy. We didn't want to beat you."

"We are all ordinary people. We are all bullied by Remy. Please believe us."

Remy's men apologized one after another for fear that they would be implicated if they were slow.

At the moment, the old lady realized that there was something wrong, and a look of panic appeared in her eyes.

Phillip walked up to Maximilian, bowed and said respectfully, “Mr. Lee, my subordinates are not sensible and have offended you. I will deal with them seriously and never tolerate them.”

Hendrix’s face turned pale in an instant. He looked at Maximilian with begging eyes, hoping that Maximilian would forgive him and let him go.

“It has nothing to do with your men. Do you know this guy?” Maximilian asked and pointed to Remy.

Remy was excited, and said with trepidation, “Mr. Lee... I am Remy and I’m a money lender. I know I am wrong today. My mother and my son are spoiled. I will teach them a lesson.”

After speaking in horror, he snatched his son from the old lady, and then slapped his son’s ass vigorously.

“You, bastard, are arrogant outside, do you know how much trouble you have caused me?”

The fat boy cried loudly, and the old lady couldn't help but raise her hand and slapped Remy.

“Why don't you do it to them? Beat your own child is a lack of ability!”

Chapter 314 Kneel Down to Beg for Mercy

“Mom, don’t make any more trouble. You want us all die, don’t you?” Remy said nervously.

The old lady was stunned for a moment. She looked at Remy’s nervousness. She knew she was in big trouble now. She took Remy and asked in a low voice, “You, you can’t beat them?”

“I can’t. That’s Master Phillip. If he says anything, our family will die. You’ve caused me a lot of trouble.” Remy said and stamped his feet.

“You always say how powerful you are. We don’t have to be afraid of anyone in H city.” said the old lady, as she felt aggrieved.

Remy used to boasting at home on a daily basis. He had become a little famous in fact. The old lady and his fat son really thought that Remy was omnipotent.

Remy was very regretful at this moment, and he realized the importance of remaining low-key.

Looking at Mr. Lee, as a big man respected by Master Phillip, he was so low-key that made Remy unknowingly look for trouble for himself.

Remy wondered why Maximilian was so low-key. If he made his identity public, who dared to provoke him?

Phillip whispered to Maximilian, "Mr. Lee, what do you think of this guy?"

Hearing Phillip's words, Remy was stunned and said to Maximilian with a cry, "Mr. Lee, please forgive me. You see, our surname is Lee. Maybe we were from one family five hundred years ago. Please forgive me this time. I will never make any mistakes again.”

“A family five hundred years ago? How can you say it?” Maximilian said with displeasure.

Maximilian was a little disgusted with him taking advantage of connections no matter what happened.

“Remy, you dare to say you had a relationship with Mr. Lee. Even a thousand years ago, you would not be in the same family. Teach him a good lesson now.” Phillip said with a cold face.

The bodyguards came forward to catch Remy and gave him bashes and kicks.

Looking at her son Remy being beaten up, the old lady turned pale with anger. She bit her teeth and rushed to Maximilian, waving her arm to hit him.

“You beat my grandson and my son. I’ll fight with you!”

Before the old lady could get close, a bodyguard kicked her out. The bodyguard was very strong. When the old lady was kicked out, the sound of broken bones came out, and she fell to the ground and screamed in pain.

The fat boy was too scared to speak. He squatted on the ground in panic, shivering all over.

Sissi lay in Maximilian’s arms. Listening to the screams, her mood became a little bit bad.

“Dad, let’s go. I don’t want to see them.”

“Let’s go. Shall we continue to play or go back to the hospital?” Maximilian asked as he walked with Sissi in his arms.

“I don’t want to play anymore. I want to go back to sleep.”

Maximilian nodded and walked out of the amusement park with Sissi in his arms. Victoria followed him, comforting Sissi softly.

When Remy saw that Maximilian and his family were going to leave, he suddenly thought that Maximilian’s car had been smashed just now. Maximilian would see this. God knew what else would happen.

“I had Mr. Lee’s car smashed just now. I know it’s wrong. I’ll compensate Mr. Lee for my Benz. Please tell Mr. Lee that I will accept any punishment today.”

“Mr. Lee won’t take your car. I’ve got all your assets sealed. It’s a small punishment for you. Mr. Lee is kind. He won’t take your life. Take your family and get out of H city now.” Phillip said coldly.

Remy's spirit suddenly collapsed, and he felt his life was hopeless.

"I, I'm done. All my career and wealth have disappeared. Master Phillip, please say some good words for me. I'll kneel down to him and beg for mercy."

Remy begged desperately. Phillip snorted coldly and took his men toward the direction where Maximilian left.

Watching Phillip leave, Remy's men stood up and gathered in front of Remy.

"You, what are you doing?" Remy looked at the eyes of his subordinates, immediately flustered up.

"How can you ask us what we are going to do? You don't know? Let me tell you. Because of you, we have offended Master Phillip, and the big man whom he can't afford to offend."

“Our jobs have been destroyed by you. How can we survive in the future? Although you are our boss, the success of your business depends on our efforts. Now everything is over.”

“You have to give us some compensation, or you will have no chance to leave H city.”

Remy was sad, knowing that these men were brutal and greedy. In the past, they had common interests and they regarded him as a head. But now that he was penniless, he lost his dignity in their hearts.

“Don’t touch my mother and son. As long as you send us out of H City, my house and deposit are yours.”

The old lady was completely shocked. She didn’t expect that the consequences were so serious and she almost lost her family.

But with the money gone, and the good life gone, the old lady felt that life was worse than death.

“If I had managed my grandson at that time, I would not have caused so much trouble.” The old lady thought regretfully.

Remy handed over the key to his home and told them the bank account password and other information to send them away.

When his men left, Remy got up from the ground with pain, went to the old lady and helped her up first.

“Mom, you see the trouble you’ve caused today. Our family will go back to the countryside again. This time, there’s no chance for us again.”

The old lady was sad and silent. Remy sighed to see his son. The fat boy was scared and foaming from the corner of his mouth. His eyes became crossed-eyes. He seemed to be scared.

“Son, what’s the matter with you? Why is my life so hard?” Seeing that his son didn’t have any normal reaction, Remy burst into tears and felt his life was so bitter.

Maximilian and Victoria left the amusement park. Phillip told him on the road that Remy smashed their car.

Victoria said sadly, “That is the company’s car. We have to buy a same one for the company.”

“Don’t worry, Miss Victoria. I’ll let someone do it now. I’m sure I’ll buy the same car as that one. You’ll use mine first.” Phillip said.

“Smashed Remy’s car to scrap.” Maximilian said lightly.

“As you wish.” Phillip waved his hand. A group of bodyguards took out their tools and smashed Remy's car. Soon Remy's Benz was smashed into pieces.

Chapter 315 The Boss of Topyuan Group

They sent Sissi back to the hospital. Phillip's men also got the same new car and handed it to Victoria at the hospital.

Phillip reported to Maximilian how he punished Remy. Maximilian waved his hand casually, indicating that he didn't care what to do with Remy.

After chatting with Maximilian again, Phillip saw Maximilian was not in a high mood, so he wisely left.

Maximilian sent Sissi back to the ward, and Victoria coaxed her to sleep. Then the two left the hospital and went home together.

At home, Laura and Marcus were sitting in the living room. Seeing Maximilian and Victoria coming back together, Laura patted the sofa, “Victoria, come here, I have something to tell you.”

“Mom, what’s the matter?” Victoria sat beside Laura and asked curiously.

Maximilian poured a cup of tea for Victoria, and then sat aside.

“Your eldest cousin signed a construction and development contract with Topyuan Group, but recently, Topyuan Group has been quiet, so your eldest cousin wanted to contact the company. I heard that there seems to be a relationship between you and the mysterious Mr. Lee.”

As Laura said, she looked at Maximilian disdainfully, “Why are you listening? I’m talking to my girl, you stay away.”

“Mom, why do you drive Maximilian away? I don’t know any mysterious Mr. Lee. Don’t believe those rumors.”

Victoria said decisively.

Laura laughed, thinking that she had seen through everything, and said, “Victoria, I know you are shy, and you don’t want Maximilian to know that you have a better and powerful lover.”

“But sooner or later he will know everything, so don’t worry about it. If he makes trouble, your father and I will handle it, and he will not be able to make things worse.”

Victoria wanted to argue, but such things couldn’t be explained clearly. The more you said, the less people believed it. Maybe Maximilian would misunderstand something after refutation.

Laura smiled and patted Victoria on the back, “Since you are with the mysterious Mr. Lee, you should tell me earlier. It is good. Why should you hide it? No wonder you don't like Humphrey and Eduard. There are better candidates. You made me worry about you in vain for so long." Laura said to herself, feeling that she had guessed the truth of everything.

Victoria reached out and gently took Maximilian's hand, "Don't believe my mother. I really don't know any mysterious Mr. Lee."

Maximilian nodded with a smile and said seriously, "I believe you."

Laura frowned and said discontentedly, "Victoria, what do you say to this loser? Don't you want to divorce him? Or that Mr. Lee has some special requirements?"

In order to establish kinship with someone from a higher social class, Laura begun to consider it. She thought that the mysterious Mr. Lee may have some strange hobbies, or he was not convenient to marry a divorced woman, so he needs the existence of Maximilian as a cover.

All kinds of strange ideas floated back and forth in Laura's mind. The more she thought about it, the more unreliable it became.

Victoria couldn't listen to her any more. She stood up and said, "Mom, if you don't have anything to say, I'll go back to my room and have a rest."

"What's the hurry? I haven't talked to you about the business yet. I went back to your grandfather's house this afternoon and just heard your cousin say it. He wants to meet the boss of Topyuan Group, the mysterious Mr. Lee."

"But our family have been asking for a long time, and they don't know how to contact this mysterious Mr. Lee. So, I think you know him, and told them you knew Mr. Lee.”

Laura went back to visit her father, because Carson and the others mocked her on his father’s birthday party, which made Laura a little annoyed.

After being ridiculed, Laura remembered what she heard from her sister-in-law in Griffith family that Victoria had an affair with the mysterious Mr. Lee of Topyuan Group. So, she took the story as the truth and told it to the Wright family.

Although the Wright family did not believe it, they saw that Laura said it in great detail. And there was really some connection between Topyuan Group and Victoria. So, the Wright family wanted to take advantage of this, proposed to let Victoria take Drew Wright to meet the mysterious Mr. Lee.

Victoria covered her forehead. She felt she was not fine, “Mom, you want me to take Drew to see the mysterious Mr. Lee?”

“Yes, that’s what I mean. Victoria, don’t let me down this time. If it’s done, I can go back to my father’s home with proud.”

“But I really don’t know Mr. Lee, that mysterious rich man. How can I take him to meet other people?” Victoria said.

She was in dilemma.

Laura looked at Victoria in surprise. Seeing that Victoria’s expression didn’t seem to be fake, she was at a loss.

“What should I do? If I can’t do it, I’ll be ridiculed by your uncles and cousins. How can my life be so miserable?”

Laura said with a cry.

Marcus looked at Victoria and asked seriously, “Do you really don’t know Mr. Lee of Topyuan Group? I heard from your uncle that you knew him well.”

“I’m trying to earn my face. Who knows that my family members’ words are so unreliable?” Laura sighed bitterly.

Maximilian said with a smile, “Let me take Drew to have a try. Maybe I can meet the big boss of Topyuan Group.”

“You?” Laura sneered and said with disdain, “How can you meet the big boss of Topyuan Group? If you take Drew to meet him, that’s even more humiliating.”

“Mom, listen to Maximilian, maybe he really has a way.” Victoria said in a low voice, full of confidence in Maximilian.

“Maximilian, tell me what you are going to do and through whom you can contact with Mr. Lee. Those bigwigs are very busy. It’s hard to see them without an appointment.” Marcus stared at Maximilian and asked.

“I can ask Wilfred Collins for help. If Wilfred is willing to help, maybe we can meet the mysterious Mr. Lee.” Maximilian pulled out Wilfred to make up a story.

When they heard Wilfred’s name, Marcus and Laura were silent.

If he could ask Wilfred for help, maybe he could really get it done.

“Our relationship with him seems to be more than enough in this matter.” Marcus said with some regret.

“Loser... Maximilian, contact him now!” shouted Laura.

Chapter 316 Why Him?

At the urging of Laura, Maximilian took out his mobile phone and pretended to talk with Wilfred. Then he put away the phone and said, "No problem, it can be arranged at any time."

"Really?" Laura was in shock. She still felt unbelievable that Maximilian could ask Wilfred to help her.

"Of course, it is true. Wilfred happened to have cooperation with Mr. Lee from the Topyuan Group, so it is easy for him to arrange a meeting."

Maximilian said with a smile, but he felt a little weird. He actually had so much trouble arranging a meeting to visit himself.

"That's good. This matter is finally resolved. Can Victoria take Drew with her?" Laura said and was insatiable.

"I won't go, lest there be any rumors in the future." Victoria resolutely refused.

Laura sighed and couldn't force her anymore, "Maximilian, you should accompany Drew for this visit, and remember to treat him politely."

Maximilian nodded, "I am ok. When do you think it is appropriate to go?"

Laura thought for a while, took out her cell phone and dialed Drew's number.

"Auntie, did you talk to Victoria? Can you arrange for me to meet with Mr. Lee from the Topyuan Group?" Drew's urgent voice floated from the speakerphone.

"Drew, Victoria is busy with work and has no time. Maximilian will accompany you to meet the big boss of Topyuan Group. If you are free, I will ask Maximilian to make an appointment."

Drew was stunned for a moment, and then frowned tightly, "Do you want your useless son-in-law to accompany me? Auntie, are you kidding me? This is the top priority of our family. Why can't Victoria spare any time? "

Laura laughed awkwardly, clutched the microphone and whispered, "Drew, calm down. Maximilian can take you to meet him. As long as you can meet with the boss of the Topyuan Group, you don't need to care about who took you there."

"It's definitely not right! What is the relationship between Victoria and the boss of Topyuan Group? You said they were together. What should he do if Maximilian goes? The owner of the Topyuan Group cuckold him, and it would be embarrassing for them to meet each other. "

Drew felt what he said made sense. Taking Victoria's husband to see the adulterer was purely farce. And it may affect the Wright family.

Laura became more embarrassed, regretting talking nonsense at home for the sake of face. Now she was having a wolf by the ears, and couldn't explain it clearly.

"Drew, it's not what you think. What I said before was just hearsay. Victoria has nothing to do with the boss of the Topyuan Group. It was Maximilian who arranged for Wilfred to take you to the meeting." Laura could only clarify the matter to avoid further misunderstandings.

Drew smiled bitterly, shook his head and said, "Auntie, if you can't do it, you can admit it. Don't use Maximilian to cheat me. If I follow that worthless wretch, I will lose face."

"I heard Maximilian call Wilfred with my own ears. There is nothing wrong with this matter, and it has really been arranged. If you don't believe me, I won't say it anymore, and you can think of a solution by yourself. "

Laura felt completely ashamed, and didn't want to continue to persuade Drew.

"Wait!" Drew pondered for a while, and thought that maybe he could give it a try, even if he was fighting a losing battle.

"Auntie, let Maximilian come to the old mansion at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. I have some details to ask him. It is about the future of our Wright family."

Laura didn't take Drew's words seriously, and agreed casually.

After hanging up the phone, Laura said to Maximilian upset, "You should go to the Wright family's old mansion at nine o'clock tomorrow morning, as Drew has something to ask you."

"Mom, there's nothing else, right? Maximilian and I will go back to our room. "

Laura nodded, and Victoria took Maximilian back to the room.

Watching the two return to the room, Laura rubbed her temples vigorously. She prayed in her heart that there would be no problems tomorrow, or she would lose face again in her family.

In the early morning, Alfie, Tommy and Drew were sitting in the hall.

"Drew, I wish you every success today and be favored by the mysterious

Mr. Lee. From then on, our Wright family will be able to rise and be prosperous." Alfie actively licked Drew's boots.

Tommy felt a little uncomfortable, for the stronger Drew was, the less Tommy could get in the future.

Keeping his thoughts in his heart, Tommy grinned and said, "Drew, this time, you have to treat Victoria well. After all, she has an affair with that mysterious rich man."

"Ah ha." Drew laughed disdainfully, "That was auntie's bragging. Did you know what auntie said to me yesterday?"

"What did she say? Could it be that Victoria had nothing to do with the mysterious rich man? " Tommy asked.

"She almost meant that. Then she said to let her trash son-in-law go with me. I think this is totally unreliable and it will be a day in vain." Drew shook his head and said.

Alfie slapped the table heavily, thinking of how he was slapped in public by Maximilian before.

"This damn useless trash. Why do you bother him? Just kick him out when he comes."

"What are you kicking him out for? We have to make fun of this trash. Last time he let our Wright family lose face, so he must be taught a lesson." Drew said with a sinister smile.

"Yes, it is necessary to make him learn a lesson." Alfie gritted his teeth and said.

Drew looked at his watch. It was nine o'clock, but Maximilian hadn't appeared yet.

"He is not punctual at all. It's no wonder that he is a waste."

When Drew's voice fell, Maximilian had already walked into the door of the Wright family. The trio of Drew looked at Maximilian who slowly walked into the hall, and their faces became very sullen.

"You trash, do you have a notion of time? Look at what time it is now!" Drew screamed angrily.

Tommy smiled and said, "Drew, don't get angry. I guess this waste can't even understand the clock. It's normal for him to be late."

Alfie looked at Maximilian coldly, like a beast ready to fight at any time.

"I am only a few seconds late, and you don't need to be like this."
Maximilian said lightly.

"We don't talk about your lateness, but just talk about meeting Mr. Lee of the Topyuan Group. Have you really arranged it? Can you guarantee that I can meet Mr. Lee?" Drew looked at Maximilian with questioning eyes.

"If you go with me, I will let you see him. If you don't like to go with me, then forget it." Maximilian's completely indifferent attitude made Drew very annoyed.

"If you can't do it, don't blame me for tearing you apart."

Chapter 317 Want to See Mr. Lee

"You are not asking someone to do things at all. If you treat me with this attitude, I'd better not take you there, so as not to be ashamed." Maximilian said lightly.

Facing the strong hostility of the Wright family, Maximilian was a little angry. If they weren't Victoria's relatives, he wouldn't bother to take care of them.

"You fucking dare to put on airs! Letting you lead the way is to show you respect, you are really fucking shameless." Alfie said angrily, rolled up his sleeves and was about to fight.

Drew waved his hand and stopped Alfie, "Why bother with the trash? It will make our hands dirty if we hit him."

"Then what should we do? The development of the Topyuan Group's land is a big deal. We must meet the mysterious Mr. Lee." Alfie finished speaking and glared at Maximilian, "We are not talking about you, an idiot."

"Ha ha." Maximilian chuckled lightly and didn't pay attention to Alfie's words.

"The contract was signed by Mr. Xavier and me. I will visit him and ask about it by the way."

Visiting Xavier, the general manager of the Topyuan Group, was Drew's last trump card. He originally hoped that Victoria and the mysterious Mr. Lee really had an affair. But seeing Maximilian, who looked indifferent, the hope in his heart had collapsed. Had it not been for teasing Maximilian, Drew would have left alone.

"Mr. Xavier can't do anything about it. Both the start of construction and the funding need Mr. Lee's approval and signature. This is not easy." Tommy shook his head and sighed.

Maximilian started playing with his mobile phone, ignoring Drew's trio at all.

Seeing Maximilian playing a mobile game, Alfie slapped the table angrily, "You trash, stop playing games. Call the boss of the Topyuan Group. Can't you arrange it? You'd better call him now to let us hear if it is true."

"You are so annoying. If you think I can't arrange it, just say it, I'll leave immediately." Maximilian stood up and said.

"You dare to talk back. You fucking don't understand what we're saying to you, do you? Just call if I ask you to call."

"Ah ha. Do you think everyone is as boring as you? If you interrupt his work, your contract will be cancelled, let alone the visit." Maximilian said with a smile.

Looking at Maximilian's smile, Drew's brows wrinkled tightly.

Anyway, he was definitely going to the Topyuan Group today, and he could take Maximilian with him, even though it was fighting a losing battle. If Maximilian was really useless, he would teach him a lesson.

Drew made up his mind, got up and said, "Stop talking about nonsense. Now I will set off to the Topyuan Group, and hope you are really useful."

Maximilian smiled faintly, turned and walked out. Alfie stared at Maximilian's back in dissatisfaction, and said loudly, "Drew, do you really believe in this waste? If he can arrange for us to meet the mysterious Mr. Lee, I will eat shit in live streaming."

"Then you should start to prepare for it, as I am waiting to watch your live broadcast." Maximilian said without turning his head.

"Fuck! This scumbag is so damn irritating, I just want to kill him! "

"Calm down. Let's see the situation first. Don't cause any problems at this time."

The three of Drew left the gate of the Wright family, took Maximilian into the car, and drove to the office of Topyuan Group.

Alfie, who was sitting in the passenger seat, stared at Maximilian in the back seat, as if he was going to flay and swallow Maximilian alive.

Maximilian looked at the phone, completely ignoring Alfie.

Tommy patted Alfie on the shoulder, and said with a smile, "Alfie, don't do this. If he really can't arrange our meeting later, let's teach him a lesson later."

"Huh, does this still need proof? This waste certainly can't manage it. If he can arrange for us to see the boss of the Topyuan Group, the sow will be able to climb the tree!"

Drew stared at Alfie, and Alfie stopped talking. Everyone remained silence in the car.

More than half an hour later, the car stopped in front of the office building of Topyuan Group.

When Drew looked at the door of Topyuan Group, he just saw Xavier who had a short stature, was crowded by a few department managers. They just walked in.

"That's Mr. Xavier. Get out of the car and follow me to meet him."

As soon as Drew finished speaking, he pushed the car door with his hand and rushed out like a predator cheetah.

Alfie and Tommy didn't dare to neglect it. They got out of the car quickly and ran over.

Maximilian glanced at Xavier's figure and shook his head slightly. He continued to lower his head and play with his phone in the car, without any thought of catching up.

The three of Drew suddenly rushed over, which shocked Xavier, "What are you doing? Security guards!"

"Mr. Xavier it's me. I am Drew. I signed the contract for the development and construction of the wasteland. Have you forgotten?"

Drew bowed his waist with a flattering smile on his face.

Xavier settled down and regained the style of a general manager, and said slowly, "Oh, it's you. You are short-tempered and not stable at all. It almost made me think someone was robbing me."

"It's my fault. Please forgive me, Mr. Xavier. I don't get the news of your development, so I am too worried." Drew said with a flattering smile.

Xavier glanced at Drew, shook his head and said, "What are you worrying about? I have said that this matter needed to be signed by the big boss, and I had no authority. You should go back and wait for the news."

"Please, Mr. Xavier. How about we go to your office and talk about it?"

Drew's waist was bent again, and his attitude became more respectful.

Xavier thought for a while and nodded slightly, "I'll give you half an hour."

"Thank you for your understanding, Mr. Xavier. Let me call the elevator."

Drew had completely lost the arrogance in the Wright family, and waited with Xavier like his grandson. He helped press the call button, and then stretched out his arm to block the elevator door.

Alfie and Tommy were dumbfounded. They thought it was Drew's aggressiveness that shocked Xavier to get such a big deal. But now it seemed that it was not the case at all.

Alfie and Tommy stood in the corner of the elevator with their heads hung down, both feeling a little low. They thought they couldn't be so ignoble for the sake of cooperation.

The three of Drew followed Xavier to the office. Xavier sat in the chair and didn't mean to let them sit down at all.

"You guys please tell me your intentions first."

Xavier said casually, picked up the file on the table and looked at it, as if he didn't care what Drew said.

Drew showed a pleased smile, like a pet dog wagging his tail, and said respectfully.

"We are all ready, just waiting for the plan and date. So we want to see Mr. Lee."
