

Chapter 328 The Contract is Okay

Kroopf invited Victoria and Maximilian to a celebrity party?

Hearing these words, Andrew and the others turned red with envy, jealousy and hatred.

"Why did he only invite Victoria and Maximilian? We are the core of the Griffith! In the future, the Griffith will be controlled by us!"

The little beasts in Andrew and others' heart were roaring frantically, full of dissatisfaction with Kroopf's actions.

"Mr. Wallace, did Mr. Kroopf only invite Victoria and Maximilian?" Andrew endured the hatred in his heart and asked with a smile.

"Yes, the banquet is of the top level, and mainly celebrities and second generation riches from the provincial capital are invited. Few in H City are eligible to participate. Miss Victoria and her husband are r partners of president Kroopf, so they are fortunate to be invited to the party."

As Wallace said, he took out an invitation card and put it on the table, "I have something else to do. Please hand the invitation card to Miss Victoria."

Seeing Wallace turning around to leave, Andrew hurriedly asked, "Well, I want to ask again, why do we receive no invitation? We are also Mr. Kroopf's partners."

"No, no, you are not, you are just the family members of the president's partner, um, do you understand? I think I made it very clear."

Wallace took a big step to leave and Andrew flushed with shame. When did he become a family member of Victoria and Maximilian?

Andrew thought resentfully.

Iris imagined the scene of famous celebrities gathering in her mind, and imagined if she went there, she would definitely become the focus of the banquet, but there were not so many ifs, and Iris didn't even have an invitation to enter the door, which made Iris extremely annoyed.

"Ahem." Grandpa Samuel coughed and said dissatisfiedly, "It's just a party. It's important to get the plot of land, so let them go to the party."

"Grandpa, that's a gathering of celebrities from the provincial capital, which can expand our contacts. I really want to go." Iris said coquettishly.

"The contacts are all imaginary and only men enough strength can be respected. Do you think it would be a good thing for Victoria and Maximilian to go? It may be a blessing if you lost the chance."

The brilliance of wisdom radiated from Grandpa Samuel and the smart sound made Andrew and others lost in thought.

In the contemplation of everyone in the Griffiths, Marcus took Maximilian and Victoria into the meeting room.

Andrew glanced at the three of them, enduring the irritation in his heart, and placed the invitation card in front of Victoria.

"Mr. Kroopf invited you and Maximilian to a celebrity banquet in the evening. You two must pay attention to the etiquette and don't lose our face in front of the celebrities."

Victoria picked up the invitation card and looked at it in confusion. After reading it, she put it away calmly.

Iris said contemptuously, "You have to pay attention to your dress. Your current clothes are not suitable for a party. It would be embarrassing if you go."

"Don't bother you, we will pay attention." Victoria said lightly.

"Humph, I just want to help you, and remember to tidy up your waste. Don't let him wear the poor suit. Our Griffiths can't afford to lose the face."

Franklin continued, "I have a few sets of old Armani, maybe I can lend you, so you won't be too embarrassed by the time."

"Ah-ha." Maximilian smiled and did not accept Franklin's offer.

Grandpa Samuel opened his eyes, his gaze swept over Marcus, and finally stopped on Maximilian.

When his sight collided with Maximilian's, Grandpa Samuel looked at Maximilian like a tiger descending from a mountain, causing Andrew and others on the side to be silent.

Grandpa Samuel hadn't used such imposing eyes for a long time. The two times he used it were when the Griffith's business was facing a dangerous juncture and Grandpa Samuel used it while negotiating with others.

This time, for the vigorous development of the Griffith Group, Grandpa Samuel once again used his imposing eyes to look down at the world.

Marcus trembled all over. Even though he had decided to hand over the plot, he still couldn't help feeling a guilty conscience.

Victoria was frightened by the look in Grandpa Samuel's eyes, her lips pressed tightly, and her face turned pale, worrying that Grandpa Samuel would wave his fist the next moment.

Maximilian calmly looked at each other with Grandpa Samuel, the corners of his mouth were slightly raised and a smile bloomed.

Grandpa Samuel was secretly surprised, as he didn't expect Maximilian to be so calm.

The momentum accumulated for a long time seemed completely useless, which made Grandpa Samuel feel like he had hit the cotton with a hard punch and wanted to vomit blood for doing too much.

"Don't you plan to say something?"
Grandpa Samuel said slowly.

Maximilian didn't speak, but smiled and took out the contract and put it in front of Grandpa Samuel.

"Grandpa, the family can use the land for free, but you have to sign an agreement. As long as you sign this agreement, you can use the land as you like."

Andrew and the others were slightly surprised. They felt that Maximilian gave up too quick this time. According to past experience, Maximilian was absolutely like a stone, and hitting it with a hammer may not change it.

Everyone's surprised eyes swept across Maximilian's face, and finally landed on the contract on the table.

"Humph! Just give the land to the family directly, and there's no need to sign any contract. What is your intention." Franklin said in disbelief.

"Let's take a look at the contract first, and let's talk about it after reading the contract." Maximilian said lightly.

Grandpa Samuel took a copy of the contract, and Andrew took the other and read it with Darian and others.

A common transfer agreement plus a few additional clauses, which seemed just fine. The Griffith Group could use the land for free, and not only for free, the ownership would be transferred to the new enterprise under the Griffith Group.

"It seems that there is no problem. Franklin, ask the company's legal counsel to come and have a look." Andrew said cautiously.

Franklin nodded and took out his mobile phone to contact the legal staff for the contract. This was done to avoid any traps in the contract.

Soon the company's legal counsel came over and read the contract word by word, twice.

"There is no problem with the contract, but after the special additional clauses come into effect, it will affect the actual owner of the land. However, in my opinion, these additional clauses are preventive and the possibility of occurrence is negligible."

"Then there is no problem with the contract?" Andrew stared at the legal affairs and asked.

"I think there is no problem, and the contract is quite reasonable, as there is nothing suspicious about it."

The legal staff said with certainty.

Grandpa Samuel put down the contract, closed his eyes and said, "Since there is no problem, then Andrew, sign the contract and settle the matter early."

"Okay, I'll sign this contract with Maximilian."

Chapter 329 Family

Although Andrew said it was good, he was still suspicious in his heart.

He thought Maximilian would definitely smash to the end, and Andrew even invited Grandpa Samuel to sit down, but he didn't expect that Maximilian would directly confess to surrender the gun, which made Andrew feel a little weird.

However, the legal counsel had already looked at the contract and determined that there was no problem with the contract, and Andrew himself had read the contract and found there was no problem either.

The contract traps set up by top lawyers were very secretive. Without a senior legal personnel, it was impossible to see the tricks in them.

The legal staff hired by the Griffith Group was just the most common legal affairs, so naturally there was no clue for them to see the problems in it.

Andrew put down the contract, glanced over Maximilian and Victoria's faces, and finally fixed on Marcus' face.

Perhaps the source of all these accidents was due to Marcus?

While thinking, Andrew said with a smile, "Marcus, you did a good job this time. Yesterday your son-in-law told me he didn't want to give the plot to the family. Did you do persuade him to change his mind?"

Marcus smiled triumphantly, feeling that it was a show-off for Maximilian to surrender the plot for the family, so he admitted it without hesitation.

"Although Maximilian doesn't do things well sometimes, as long as you speak to him with reason, he can understand it. After I talked to him, he did understand it."

The last traces of Andrew's heart were dispelled; he smiled, picked up the pen and began to sign the name, "Okay, it's only in this way that our Griffith can prosper."

"My eldest brother, you are right. I will definitely educate them well in the future. Only when everyone becomes rich and strong, can our little family live a better life."

After speaking, Marcus looked at Grandpa Samuel, and when he saw Grandpa Samuel's smile, his heart was immediately settled and became very happy.

After the contract was signed, Maximilian put away the contract and signaled Victoria to take out the paperwork for the plot and hand it to Andrew.

Victoria took out a stack of papers and handed them to Andrew.

Andrew happily took the paper and looked at it, and slapped his chin in excitement, "It's really good! Now we can enter the fast lane of development. Victoria, please contact Mr. Kroopf at the evening banquet. Ask them to come up with the construction plan for the production area."

"Although you are the person in charge of the partnership appointed by Mr. Kroopf, you must be overwhelmed with so many things on your own. I decided to let Franklin help you. You can leave Franklin to do the general work."

Andrew gave another order. Although Franklin was reluctant to give Victoria a shot, the situation was different, and Franklin could only pinch his nose to admit it.

The most important thing was that Franklin understood his father's intentions to let him fully understand the new construction project. In the future, as long as Victoria had a little accident, Franklin could directly take over the job.

If he didn't be her assistant, when he really needed to take over the project permanently in the future, he would make a mistake without understanding the actual situation, and then he would become a target of criticism.

Franklin tried to squeeze a smile and said, "Victoria, just tell me if you need me to do anything. I will definitely do my best to cooperate with you in every task."

Victoria nodded slightly, "Let's work on the construction of the new project together."

Grandpa Samuel smiled and said, "That's right, everyone works together and our Griffith will definitely prosper. I won't tell the story of chopsticks and you all understand the truth. This time Marcus and his family set a good example, you all have to learn from them."

When Marcus heard the compliment from Grandpa Samuel, he was so happy.

Both Andrew and Darian were jealous, but thinking of the scene when Marcus' family will be kicked out in the future, they feel it was not a big deal to let Marcus get a bit of verbal happiness, and the most important was to get the land.

After squeezing a smile to show respect, Andrew and Darian left under the excuse of sending Grandpa Samuel home, and Marcus followed.

Iris said unhappily, "Hurry up and take your poor husband to do the styling. It's best to rent a luxury car at night, so it won't be too embarrassing."

Iris, who was full of disappointment and unwillingness, finally waited for the opportunity to vent, and sneered at both Victoria and Maximilian.

Franklin shook his head when he saw this, and felt that for the sake of his future, he couldn't get involved and target Victoria. At the very least, he would have to hibernate until he succeeded Victoria.

"Iris, don't say it any more, Victoria and Maximilian have made so many contributions to the family, at least we must respect them for now." Franklin said casually.

"Ah ha, a slut who pretends to be a flower and a poor man who is a waste, why should we respect them? It is better for me to feed the stray dogs."

After Iris left with an aura, Franklin smiled awkwardly and said, "Never mind, I'll go and talk to her."

Franklin found an excuse to leave, and only Maximilian and Victoria were left in the huge conference room.

Victoria handed the invitation to Maximilian and said with worried tone, "Why do I always feel that something is wrong? Why does Kroopf invite the two of us and not my uncles? It's a bit like we are going to enrage my uncles. "

Although she couldn't understand Kroopf's intentions, Victoria still noticed something was wrong. The deliberately created opposition and contradiction was simply too obvious.

Maximilian took the invitation, looked at it carefully and said with a smile, "He just wants us to face each other. If there are conflicts and contradictions, he can support us. And if I didn't guess wrong, we went to the banquet and we would definitely be suppressed by the rich second generation from the provincial capital."

"This, maybe not, the second generation of the rich in the provincial capital don't know us, how could they suppress us?" Victoria said in disbelief.

For Victoria, the celebrities and the second generation riches from the provincial capitals were so far apart that she couldn't imagine why those people would suppress her and Maximilian.

Victoria looked at Maximilian with puzzled eyes, waiting for Maximilian's answer.

"Because only in that way can he gain our trust faster. Kroopf has done so many things to win our trust."

Victoria became more confused as she listened, "What is the use to win our trust? The most valuable plot in our hand is handed over to the family. If he just wants to deceive us, there is nothing for him to gain."

Maximilian smiled mysteriously, and then shook his head slightly.

"He can deceive a lot. Maybe he is an international liar and ready to set up a trick to deceive the Griffiths. In short, he wants to open a small gap first."

"What are you talking about? Don't look at those messy conspiracy theories in the future."

Chapter 330 Banquet

Victoria felt that Maximilian was using conspiracy theories to speculate Kroopf. Kroopf was the CEO of a genuinely well-known international company and he shouldn't make a trip to H City to deceive the Griffiths in vain.

Maximilian didn't say anything more, and now was not a good time to tell Victoria everything.

Kroopf was just a pawn arranged by Dragon Queen before her arriving in H City. When the Dragon Queen arrived, Maximilian couldn't predict what would happen.

The strength of Dragon Queen was too far apart from his. After all, Dragon Queen had been in the Dragon Sect for decades and had cultivated a large number of wings in these years, while Maximilian had been away from Dragon Sect for a long time, and had basically no influence on the core layer of Dragon Sect.

In addition to his righteousness and reputation, Maximilian had nothing else in Dragon Sect. Maximilian's biggest shortcoming was the lack of a team.

Thinking about Dragon Queen, Maximilian was a little dazed.

After a long time, Victoria poked Maximilian lightly to draw his attention, and Maximilian came back to his senses.

"What do you think, come to my office to take a break? Or you want to do a styling this afternoon, and buy new clothes?"

Victoria felt Maximilian should be allowed to clean up his image; otherwise such ordinary dress would definitely be ridiculed and humiliated at the dinner party.

Maximilian shook his head and said faintly, "No, I'm just fine like this. I can go straight to the party. If something really happens, Kroopf will definitely come forward."

Seeing Maximilian's resolute attitude, Victoria didn't say anything anymore. Anyway, she was used to Maximilian's behavior. If Maximilian really puts on the suit and shoes, Victoria felt she might be a little uncomfortable.

The two returned to the office to chat. When the dinner was about to start, Maximilian and Victoria left the office together and rushed to the Royal Castle where the party was held.

The Royal Castle was an imitation of European-style castle architecture, developed and constructed by a foreign tourist investor. It could be regarded as an exotic attraction in H City, where many wedding photos were taken.

There was a high-end western-style restaurant in the Royal Castle. It was said that a Michelin chef was invited to serve as the chief chef. It was the most expensive restaurant in H City.

Many business receptions, especially dinners for international businessmen, were arranged in the Royal Castle.

Seeing Maximilian and Victoria leave, Iris stomped her feet fiercely, wishing to rush up and replace them.

"Why! Why can they go, but we can only watch!" Iris said indignantly.

Although Franklin was jealous, he still maintained a touch of restraint, "What's the reason? Kroopf didn't invite us, what else can we do? If you really can't get used to it, just call and inquiry about who else in H City goes, and just ask them to trouble the couple."

Franklin just said it casually, but Iris took it seriously. Rolling her eyes, she took out her mobile phone and made a few calls.

"Olivier went there. Olivier is the youngest son loved by Chairman Burton, the richest man in H City. I have already asked my girlfriend to give Olivier a cue. Then Olivier will definitely make that wretched couple embarrassed, but I can't see it with my own eyes."

Iris said bitterly, Franklin tilted his head to look at Iris, and said in a deep thought, "Your girlfriend went with Olivier?"

"Yes, otherwise I wouldn't be able to know Olivier." Iris held her head high and said somewhat proudly.

Her girlfriend was with Olivier meant that Iris had indirect relationship with Olivier. This made Iris felt like she was superior. After all, few people in H City could have related to Olivier.

"Then you can let your girlfriend live broadcast it through video streaming, and we can watch it through mobile phones." Franklin said with excitement.

"It's a good idea. Let me contact her again."

Iris communicated with her girlfriend again and then shook her head in disappointment, "She says it will be too embarrassing, and she doesn't agree."

"Oh, then wait to hear the story, and listen to how they were humiliated tomorrow."

The Royal Castle was already full of luxury cars, and the reception of tourists had been stopped since the afternoon, in order to get prepared for the grand dinner party tonight.

Many luxury cars came with number plates from the provincial capital, and celebrities, rich and young, dressed in all kinds of top luxury clothing, entered the Royal Castle.

A group of rich and young men from the provincial capital gathered together and despised the rich and young men in H City headed by Olivier.

Olivier communicated with the rich young men from the provincial capital in a low voice, striving to integrate into the higher circle.

Soon the story of Walter became a common topic for them, and the rich young men from the provincial capital were quite disappointed by Walter's failure in H City.

This time, the rich young men from the provincial capital was headed by Mylo, the son of the chairman of EL International. EL International was the number one pharmaceutical company in the province. Its total assets ranked in the top ten in the province. Mylo was also considered the most successful second-generation rick in the province.

Mylo, wearing a custom-made suit, was held by an art school beauty and looked at Olivier with obvious arrogance.

"You have a lot of capable people in H City. Walter was failed here, and was sent to Africa by the Stone family as a punishment."

Olivier was slightly surprised. He only vaguely heard about Walter's affairs and didn't know the details.

"It is estimated that Walter has offended a wealthy family in H City. No one in H City has this ability." Olivier whispered.

"Ah ha, it is really someone from H City did it. Today, I came to the shit place just to see who is so capable. I must make him kneel today to revenge for Walter."

Mylo came with the heart to avenge for Walter, and a group of second-generation riches from the provincial capital behind him nodded together, showing hatred toward their enemy.

Olivier and the rich young men in H City were under great pressure in an instant. They scolded the guy who caused trouble in their hearts. They wanted to find that person and kill him directly in front of Mylo to show their sincerity.

"I don't know who that person is. I have to ask Mylo to make it clear. If we see him later, we will definitely bring him to you to make amends."

Olivier's waist was bent 25 degrees to better express his sincerity.

Mylo curled his mouth, raised his hand and patted Olivier's cheek lightly, "You are a good man. If you can do this well, I can recommend you to my circle in the provincial capital."

Being able to enter the circle of second-generation rich in the provincial capital was what Olivier looked forward to. It meant he would have a wider network of contacts in the provincial capital, and through that circle, he could meet higher-level figures.

"Understood, Mylo, you can just wait for my performance."

"Well, that person's name is Maximilian, go."

Chapter 331 Slap Scarlett Angrily

“Maximilian? I’m familiar with the name.” Olivier walked to the entrance of the castle with a lot of wealthy young men of the H City, preparing to wait for Maximilian there.

A beauty near Olivier said, “Daring, you must forget what I said just now. My friend Iris told you to deal with Maximilian and Victoria!”

“Ah, that’s it. Please tell me the basic information of that Maximilian.” said Olivier excitedly.

“Maximilian is a son-in-law of the Griffith family. However, he is nothing but a loser, who is fed by his wife. Besides, Victoria is just a bitch. She always sleeps with some bosses to win contracts, but pretends to be innocent.”

Olivier listened to the stories carefully but became a little confused.

“Is that jerk able to embarrass Walter? Why don’t I believe in that? Maybe he just has the same name,” said Olivier confusedly.

“Daring, why do you think so much? When we catch him a few moments later, you can ask him directly.”

Olivier nodded, “Be careful! Tell me at once when you see them. We shall deal with them tonight.”

It was not a big deal for him even if he dealt with the wrong guys. Olivier stared at the people who came in, getting ready to rush out.

At that moment, Maximilian and Victoria had already entered the castle after the security guard had checked their invitation letter.

Seeing the two come in, the beauty

Scarlett pointed at them at once and shouted, "They are coming, Maximilian and Victoria!"

After Olivier gave them a sign, he and the eight wealthy young men surrounded Maximilian and Victoria together.

"Are you Maximilian?" asked Olivier with his head tilted.

"Yes," replied Maximilian faintly after casting a glance at Olivier.

"Well, you are the man dependent on your wife. However, you are not a successful man since your dress looks like a beggar. Please don't humiliate the H City!" Olivier looked at Maximilian dismissively while saying the words.

"What's the matter? If not, please get out of my way," said Maximilian coldly.

"Ha-ha, how dare you, a loser, ask me to get out? I am a boss in H City and I'm going to beat you since you have annoyed me."

Victoria pulled Maximilian slightly and said with a low voice, "Calm down."

"Ha-ha, beauty, are you worrying about your husband? Let me tell you, your useless husband have made a serious mistake. If you don't want to be involved, you should serve us and make us happy. Then I can make your family safe," said Olivier with evil laugh.

Olivier took a fancy to Victoria when he saw her, because she was much more beautiful than Scarlett beside him.

Sense his emotion, Scarlett frowned and looked at Victoria as she was her enemy.

Scarlett had done all she could to be a lover of Olivier. Moreover, she dreamed to be his wife. She couldn't be more frustrated if he was enchanted by Victoria.

Therefore, Scarlett was intended to fight for her position, at least disfigured Victoria.

“Darling, don’t let her beautiful face fool you. She’s just a dirty bitch. In order to get contracts, she has slept with many men. I heard that once, in order to get a big contract, she slept with a security at first and with the boss at last. Maybe she has already got STDs,” Scarlett slandered Victoria.

“You are lying!” Victoria was so furious that she even trembled.

Maximilian squinted his eyes and then slapped Scarlett in the face.

Clap! Clap! Clap! Maximilian slapped Scarlett brutally.

Since her face was suffering from plastic surgery and was full of hyaluronic acid, after his slaps, her face became very scary.

“Ah! How dare you beat my face? Daring, revenge for me!” Scarlett caught Olivier with tears.

Olivier was frightened by her ugly face, which was scarier than a horror film. He got out of her hands and said annoyed, “Go away! How could I revenge for you if you hold on me?”

Scarlett let him go. She felt her face ache, so she touched it, but felt something wrong. Then she took out a mirror and saw herself.

“Ah! Who’s the woman in the mirror?” Scarlett was also frightened by herself.

“You can’t even recognize yourself. Cosmetic face is fake and ugly.” said Maximilian faintly.

Scarlett couldn't believe the truth. She used to be a beautiful woman, but the woman in the mirror was very ugly with twisted mouth, eyes and face.

"No, this is not me! I should blame you! It's your fault!" Scarlett threw the mirror away angrily and aimed to beat Maximilian.

Maximilian then kicked her to Olivier.

"Ah, my belly! Olivier, revenge for me!" Scarlett said resentfully in Olivier's arms.

Olivier couldn't bear Scarlett's face, so he said to his servants, "Take her to the hospital."

As she was supported outside with the help of the servants, she shouted, "Olivier, kill him! You should kill him!"

Olivier felt humiliated and was very angry.

“How dare you beat my woman?
How dare you?”

“Does your father know you are treating me with no respect?” asked Maximilian with a smile.

“Fuck off! I beg you fucking pardon?”
said Olivier furiously.

“Your father doesn’t dare to speak to me with such an attitude. If you still don’t go away, I shall teach you a lesson on behalf of your father.”

Olivier stared at Maximilian angrily and said, “You are too arrogant. Did you beat Walter last time?”

“Walter? I just taught him a lesson,” said Maximilian casually as that was just a trifle.

Olivier was stunned and hesitated, because he was absolutely frightened by Maximilian at that moment. Since

Maximilian was so calm and casual, maybe he really had a great power.

After consideration, Olivier decided to shock Maximilian with Mylo.

“All right. Mylo is going to revenge for Walter with lots of men. Don’t be so arrogant. If you kneel down and beg me, I will make sure you survive.”

Chapter 332 Revenge

“Mylo? Who’s that? I’ve never heard about him before.” said Maximilian coldly.

Olivier and the others were shocked. They never thought that Maximilian could be that tough and even asked what Mylo was.

“Don’t be that stubborn. Wait for Mylo to beat you.” After the words, Olivier turned around and left.

“Olivier, shall we leave now?” asked one of the wealthy young men reluctantly.

“If you don’t want to leave, you can fight with him. But you cannot win him. Remember his slaps on the face of Scarlett? He must have the skill. Since Walter has already been beat by him, we should be careful and wait for Mylo to deal with him.”

Olivier was frightened in his heart. He regarded Maximilian as a complicated man according to all the related information. Sometimes, being frightened could make one live a better life.

Olivier soon found Mylo, who was with many wealthy young men and young ladies.

“Mylo, that Maximilian has arrived.” said Olivier with a low voice.

“Arrived? Why not bring him here? Shit, what are you thinking about?” Mylo said while he was smoking cigar with crossed legs.

Olivier had to smile and said, “It was not convenient to do it by the door. Besides, it was a banquet organized by a foreign businessman, so we are not suitable to do it. It could only be done by a hero, such as you.”

“What a loser!”

After he threw away the cigar, Mylo stood up with a sneer. “Follow me. Let’s have a look at the fierce M City boy.”

The wealthy young men stood up one after another and followed Mylo out.

As they just arrived at door of the hall, they met Maximilian and Victoria. Mylo looked them up and down and found Victoria was beautiful and attractive.

“Wow, what a beautiful woman! I never thought there could be such a pretty woman in H City.”

Victoria stepped back and hid herself behind Maximilian.

“Since you are proud just now, why not show your strength to Mylo?”

Mylo looked at Maximilian dismissively. "You are too low to be here in such shabby clothes. Give the beauty to me and I promise to let you live."

Maximilian shook his head coldly. The wealthy young men behind Mylo couldn't understand Maximilian, and they thought that he must want to die.

"What a fucking arrogant guy! You even don't kneel down in front of brother Mylo. Let's teach you a lesson."

"I've never seen such a low guy. It's more like a joke to see you here. Maybe you stole the invitation card for the meal from others?"

"Don't waste our tongue. Ask the security guards to beat him first. We don't need to do it by ourselves."

When they were making the hubbub, Mylo raised his hand slightly and they all shut up at once.

Many celebrities came to watch the show, and some of them knew Mylo and even his ferocity.

“This must be Mylo, one of the four young men in the city. Since he is so overbearing, someone will be bullied this time.”

“But now there are only three young masters. The last one Walter has left. It is said that he was sent away for offending someone.”

“Maybe Mylo is here to revenge for Walter. It is said that Walter had the accident just in H City.”

When they were discussing, Mylo stood in front of Maximilian.

“How could you the fucking loser deal with Walter? Tell me the truth right now!” Mylo stared at Maximilian and said the words fiercely.

Because the Stone family kept secret about the incident, even Mylo didn't figure it out. He was very curious about what Maximilian had done to ask the stone family to send Walter away in fear.

Besides, according to the information Mylo had got, there was a powerful upper class man suppressing the Stone family. But how could Maximilian, a son-in-law of a powerless family in H City, made it?

Maximilian said with smile, "You can make it clear if you experience it by yourself like him."

"Fuck off! Damn it!" Mylo raised his hand and was about to slap Maximilian's face.

However, before he could do it, a strong man rushed to Maximilian's side and caught Mylo's hand.

A fierce blonde bodyguard pushed Mylo to the ground after twisting his hand.

“Ah! Who are you? Let me go, you jerk!” Mylo roared.

However, the bodyguard ignored him, only looking to Maximilian with smile. “Mr. Lee, I am the bodyguard sent by Mr. Kroopf to protect you tonight.”

Olivier and the others were shocked. The fucking loser even had a foreign bodyguard protecting him all the time! What was his real identity on earth?

Mylo turned his head and shouted to the bodyguard, “I’m Mylo. You can’t treat me in this way! I’m the guest invited by your boss!”

Before Mylo could finish his words, the bodyguard took out something and put it into Mylo’s mouth. Then he couldn’t say a word anymore but make some noise.

“Mr. Lee, how to deal with this guy?”
asked the bodyguard seriously.

Kroopf had given the instruction to the bodyguard to meet Maximilian’s demand as much as possible. He should do whatever Maximilian told him, except to kill someone.

All the people moved their eyes to Maximilian, as they were really amazed.

“Who’s he? I’ve never seen him before. Maybe a son of a rich and powerful family?”

“Impossible. If he is from a rich and powerful family, why was Mylo against him? Did you hear that Mylo was asking him about Walter? Maybe this is the mystery man who had beaten Walter.”

“What’s his background? It seems that the organizer pays great attention to him. They even arranged a bodyguard for him. Amazing!”

All the celebrities around felt very shocked. Maximilian was an unfathomable man for them.

Olivier’s face twisted but pretended to be calm. “Maximilian, don’t do anything stupid, as the family behind Mylo is very powerful.

Maximilian looked at Olivier and then the second-generation rich before he said calmly, “I’ll attack nobody unless he attacks me.”

Everyone in the crowd drew a deep breath. They were stunned by Maximilian’s words.

Maximilian looked at Mylo dismissively and said with sneer, “Took him away, and I will talk with him a few minutes later.”
