

Chapter 283 Peerless Master?

Barrett was really timid. Everyone was afraid of this scene.

He arched his hands at Maximilian to beg for mercy and even thought to kneel directly.

After all, he was in front of a fight master, or the unfathomable kind of master. It's no shame to kneel to such an expert. Barrett found an excuse for himself in his heart.

Maximilian came step by step, and he was calm with no expression on his face. Looking at this, Barrett felt chilly in his heart.

Barrett knelt down and said in a sad voice, "Please forgive me. I will get out of here. Please forgive me."

"You can't go through thick and thin together with your men? That's not good." Maximilian said jokingly.

Barrett was so frightened. Seeing his men's miserable appearance, he thought they would have to lie in the hospital for several months. He didn't want to be like that.

"They have to go to the hospital. Someone has to take care of them. I can take care of them. Please spare my humble life."

Barrett, frightened and trembling, was no longer arrogant, but humble.

Maximilian sneered and kicked Barrett in the chest.

"To be a good head, you have to share hardship and difficulty with your subordinates."

Barrett covered his chest and went out a long way. He felt that his heart would be broken by Maximilian's kick. He couldn't say anything because of the pain.

Maximilian took out his cell phone and called Connor, "It's all done. Come out."

"Thank you for saving us." Connor excitedly thanked him. If Maximilian hadn't arrived in time, Connor would have died today.

Connor didn't say much either, because it would show no sincerity. He just made up his mind that he would not complain about Maximilian's work in the future, and he could even die for Maximilian.

Connor walked out of the safe shelter under the protection of his bodyguards.

Looking at the thugs lying outside the warehouse, the bodyguards were stunned.

The bodyguards knew how vicious these people were, but they could not deal with them easily. They were brothers who followed Connor for many years, and they had experienced many dangers together.

“Connor, who is this man? It’s incredible that he defeated so many people alone.”

Connor said in a low voice, “Be extremely respectful to Mr. Lee.”

The bodyguards were slightly stunned, and then nodded neatly.

Maximilian fought a group of people by himself. It was impossible to be disrespectful to him. Otherwise, one was signed his own death warrant. There were so many examples in front of them.

“Mr. Lee. Thank you for saving us!” Connor bowed to Maximilian with his bodyguards.

Maximilian casually waved his hand and took Connor and others to the village road.

“These people are not under Frankie, but under a man named Jasper in the provincial capital. Do you know that man?" Maximilian asked casually.

Connor quickly said, "Jasper, in the provincial capital? His full name is Jasper Mills, who was originally engaged in transportation. Later he became a bandit on road. Now he occupies a large share of the logistics and transportation industry in the province."

"It seems that Frankie has taken refuge with Jasper Mills. That guy intended to enter H City, but I blocked him. He hasn't got the chance for so many years. Now if he joins hands with Frankie..."

Connor was a little worried. If he only faced Frankie, Connor was sure to win, but with Jasper Mills on his side, Connor was not so sure.

"Pay attention to their movements. If he really dares to come to H City to find trouble, I don't mind teaching them a lesson.” Maximilian said lightly.

Connor was overjoyed. With Maximilian’s words, it was equivalent to have a life insurance. There was no need to worry too much.

“You can rest assured. I will pay attention to their moves and report to you in time.”

Connor’s bodyguard called for cars, and soon their cars came and took them back to the city.

Barrett saw the cars leaving, and he gritted his teeth and sat up.

Sitting up was the limit of Barrett now, as he couldn’t even stand up.

“Connor, the old dog! When did he have such a powerful person around him? I haven’t done this, and I can’t talk to Jasper. I have to contact Frankie first.”

Barrett did not dare to report the matter directly to Jasper Mills. If he was labeled as incompetent, everyone would kick him when he was down.

He took out his mobile phone and dialed Frankie's number. Barrett said weakly, "You're such a bastard. You gave me false information. Connor is surrounded by peerless master!"

Lying on the bed, Frankie was stunned for a moment. Over the years, he had been paying attention to the situation of Connor. He knew the bodyguards around Connor in great detail, and there was no peerless master at all.

Had it not been for the injury, Frankie would have taken people to ambush Connor.

"Barrett, what you said is meaningless. How can I give you false information?" Frankie asked suspiciously.

"Hell, you send someone to the warehouse of Haywire village to have a look. My men and I were beaten up by the master around Connor. Our knives and sticks were broken in half by his bare hand”

“I haven’t told Jasper yet. You should weigh up what to do. If you don’t know how to deal with it, don’t blame Jasper for being rude to you.” Barrett growled.

Frankie was about to speak with a frown, but a burst of ring tone came from his mobile phone.

“How can there be a master? What’s going on?”

Frankie thought for a while, arranged for his subordinates to go to Haywire village to have a look, and then traced the mysterious master around Connor.

Leon touched his chin and said, “Didn’t you catch Connor? Let’s go to H City. The bank has already sent the official letter to block the loan. I think the Griffith family is in a mess now. We just humiliate the loser and charge some interest.”

Frankie thought about it for a while, and thought that it was also a solution. Connor had masters to protect him, so he couldn't do it now; instead, he would do something from the commercial aspect first.

“Then go and prepare. Bring more bodyguards to humiliate that loser. Remember to take a video and send it to me to cheer me up.”

“Don't worry, I'll let that loser call you grandfather, record the video and send it to you, and then bring Victoria back in the evening, so we can enjoy ourselves.”

Leon said with an obscene smile, and Frankie grinned happily.

“I'm going to call Zakariya. Please wait for my good news.”

Leon said triumphantly.

Chapter 284 Let Maximilian Meet Me on His Knees

The meeting room of Griffith Group was full of smoke.

Andrew, Darian and Franklin smoked one by one. They contacted all their relatives and friends, but no one could help them.

The dark cloud of crisis shrouded the Griffith family and it was like a small sampan floating in the rough waves, which would be overturned at any time.

“What does Victoria say? Has Iris got a word out of her mouth?” Andrew asked dully.

Now the opponent was not clear. Even if Andrew tried his best, he didn't find out the slightest information. It seemed that everything was arranged by fate, and the Griffith family was doomed to collapse in this disaster.

Darian shook his head and smoked a cigarette with great sadness, “No, Victoria doesn’t say anything, and I don’t know what she’s thinking.”

The meeting room fell into silence again. The family members’ hearts were covered with dark clouds, and they felt they would be engulfed by fate at any time.

The voice of the landline sounded, and they all looked at the phone.

“It should be bad news, who calls at this time?” Franklin said with chagrin.

Andrew stubbed out the butt of his cigar and glared at Franklin, saying, “Answer the phone. Are you still waiting for me to pick it up?”

Franklin picked up the phone helplessly, “Hello.”

“The Griffith family, right? We’ll be there in five minutes, so line up to meet us quickly.” Leon’s arrogant voice came from the phone.

Franklin was stunned for a moment, then roared with emotion, “Who are you? Are you playing tricks on us?”

“You’re clever. You’ll know who we are when we meet. We’ll arrive in three minutes. If you don’t line up to meet us, don’t blame us for destroying your family.”

Andrew grabbed the phone and said hastily, “We’ll meet you right away, just let us off.”

“You have a good attitude. I’ll think about it.”

The phone was hung up, Andrew put down the phone, “Let’s all go out to meet them. Mind what you say.”

After straightened their clothes, they went out of the meeting room and stayed at the company gate.

Soon, several Benz cars stopped at the door of the company. Looking at the Benz cars with Geekoo license plates, the three frowned.

The door opened and the bodyguards in black got out of the car neatly. Looking at the momentum of the bodyguards, Andrew's face was drained of color.

These people were definitely not from one family, but from several families. They were definitely not ciphers!

But when did the Griffith family offend such powerful figure?

The three were full of doubts. They had no contact with Geekoo recently. How can they offend someone from Geekoo?

The bodyguards opened the boots, took out the folding wheelchairs and opened them.

Looking at the bodyguards pushing wheelchairs to the rear door, the three people were confused.

“What’s going on? It makes sense to have a wheelchair, but why is it that every car has a wheelchair? Are wheelchairs popular this year?” Franklin asked suspiciously.

Andrew’s face was gloomy, “Don’t talk nonsense, don’t say any annoying words later, these people must be powerful.”

Franklin closed his mouth tightly and looked at the back door of the car.

The bodyguard held Leon and put him in a wheelchair. Zakariya and others were also carried out in turn.

The rich second-generations, such as Zakariya, supported by their families, once held the throat of the Griffith family, and they held their heads high to show arrogance even sitting in wheelchairs.

The bodyguards pushed the wheelchairs of Leon and others, and moved toward Andrew.

Andrew's face convulsed twice, thinking not to laugh. He forced himself to resist the impulse to laugh. These people could destroy the Griffith family. They can't laugh.

Leon's wheelchair stopped in front of Andrew and looked at him with disdain, "Are you Andrew? I asked you to come out to meet us. Why are there only three of you? You want us to kill you directly, don't you?"

"May I have your name, please? Do you want us all to come out to meet you? Then I'll make arrangements right away." Andrew said with a flattering smile.

"Where's Victoria, where's Maximilian? The son of a bitch! Call them all out to meet me! I want Maximilian to kneel down to meet me!"

Leon roared arrogantly.

Andrew immediately realized that it was Maximilian and Victoria who had provoked these people in wheelchairs.

“Maximilian, that son of a bitch has gone out. Victoria is still in the company. I’ll call her out to meet you.” Andrew bowed respectfully to him and said humbly.

Leon patted Andrew on the cheek and asked, “Where’s the son of a bitch?”

“The company’s loan was stopped. He said he could find a way to solve it. Then he went out. I don’t know where he went. How did he offend you? Tell me, I’ll call him back and beat him in front of you.” Andrew said humbly.

“Well! He won’t run away, right?” Leon slapped Andrew’s on the face heavily, and Andrew showed his teeth in pain.

But Andrew dared not to have the slightest resistance, and still wearing a flattering smile.

However, Andrew was full of anger and had already scolded Maximilian a thousand times in his heart.

“Absolutely not, we have Victoria here. Maximilian that bastard definitely won’t run away. I will let Victoria call him back. Let’s go to the conference room first, this way please.”

Leon nodded slightly, the bodyguards pushed Leon and others, followed Andrew to the conference room.

Franklin left the team halfway and rushed to Victoria’s office. He angrily opened the door and yelled at Victoria, “What are you doing with your useless husband? They’re all here. Go to the meeting room and make an apology now!”

Iris showed a joking smile, stood up and said, “It seems that you really offend someone. No matter what I ask, you don't say anything, pretending to be a chaste martyr, but you've offended some big wigs, you dare not to say it."

"Who's here?" Victoria asked anxiously.

"They don't say their names, but they drive cars with Geekoo license plates. When did you and Maximilian offend someone in Geekoo? H City can't hold you, can it?"

Franklin angrily pointed to Victoria and yelled, "My father was slapped! You and your husband are going to die. Even if they don't take your life, we will kill you!"

Chapter 285 Acquisition for a hundred thousand dollars

Franklin and Iris sent Victoria to the conference room, just like a detaining prisoner.

Andrew and Darian stood beside Leon and others with smiling faces.

“I don’t know your name. I’ll teach them a lesson when Maximilian comes back.”

Leon said, “Listen carefully. I’m Leon Moore from Geekoo, and Frankie, the boss of Geekoo, is my brother. These are the second generation of real estate owners in Geekoo. Maximilian asked us to kneel down for him and let us punish ourselves. He will suffer for what he has done to us later!”

Andrew and Darian were in a panic. They wanted to kill Maximilian this moment.

What a big trouble! He had offended the bigwigs and the second generation of real estate in Geekoo city, which was equivalent to offending half of the influential characters in Geekoo!

No wonder they had so much power to make the bank stop the loan directly. The relationship between real estate developers and banks was very good. It was very easy for banks to set obstacles for funds!

More importantly, Maximilian, that bastard, even let these people kneel down to him. Who was he? How could he be so arrogant?

Marcus and Darian's thoughts were in a mess. They couldn't figure out how Maximilian did it. That loser, when did he have such great ability?

"Dad, here comes Victoria." Franklin pushed Victoria in, and she almost fell down.

Leon looked at Victoria with an obscene smile on his face, “Hey, beauty, we meet again. In Geekoo, you refused me. You didn’t expect me to come to H City to find you.”

“You, it’s you!” Victoria was a little scared.

“Yes. You didn’t expect us to take revenge so soon, did you? Hurry to find your husband, I’ll teach him a lesson first!” Leon said indignantly.

Andrew pointed at Victoria and roared, “Call Maximilian now and tell him to get back quickly and accept the punishments!”

“Be quick! Do you need to be served? Our family is going to be destroyed by a pair of garbage like you!” Franklin also said indignantly.

Iris looked at Victoria contemptuously, “I know you are flirting with men outside, and you are pretending to be a chaste martyr here. What are you pretending for?”

Victoria nervously looked at the crowd and felt like she was in a monster's cave, surrounded by demons that were ready to eat her.

Seeing Victoria in a daze, Iris walked over and grabbed the phone from Victoria and started to call Maximilian.

"Give me my phone. Don't call Maximilian."

"If we don't call that son of a bitch, you want to see our family come to an end, aren't you? You're a bitch!"

Iris scolded Victoria angrily, and then yelled at the phone, "Maximilian, if you don't come back now, your wife will seduce others."

"What's the matter with Victoria? I warn you, whoever dares to touch Victoria, I'll kill him!"

Maximilian's angry voice came out from his mobile phone, and Iris said with disdain, "Are you still bragging? The men you offended in Geekoo have come to the company. We are affected by you. If you don't come back, we will sell Victoria!"

When the mobile phone hung up, Iris threw the mobile phone to the table, "Your useless husband seems to be running away. You can take Victoria away and play with her. Please let us off."

"Yes, Iris is right." Darian obsequiously looked at Leon, "You can take Victoria with you. You can take revenge on her. She has nothing to do with our family. You can't treat us like this."

Victoria's eyes were full of tears, biting her lips, and her heart was full of desperation and fear.

Was she really going to be taken away? If she was taken away by these people, her future life would be ruined.

Could Maximilian save her this time?

Maybe...

Leon sneered twice, “You are daydreaming. Victoria, I’m taking her. But you still have to pay for my leg injury.”

“The capital chain of your family has been broken. Most of your assets will be auctioned off. At that time, you can’t even get a cent, and had to bear a lot of debts. A great man rarely stoops to pettiness or harbors grievance for past wrongs. So, we’ll pay 100000 dollars for your business and all your debts.”

Andrew and Darian’s hearts suddenly chilled. This was not an acquisition, but a naked robbery.

But the capital chain was broken. If the repayment cannot be made according to the bank’s requirements, the core assets mortgaged would really be auctioned.

“No, Mr. Leon Moore, you can’t do this. Please let us go. We’ll give five percent of shares to you. Or, how about ten percent?”

“I’m not in a hurry. If you don’t sell it, we’ll auction it when the bank takes over your mortgage and starts to auction it at that time.”

Andrew’s body shook twice and almost fainted.

Franklin and Darian helped Andrew, and the three glared at Victoria.

“Victoria! Look at what you’ve done! You are trying to kill us. You should apologize to Mr. Moore quickly, serve him well and make him happy!”

“Are you stupid? Why are you still standing there? You’d better serve Mr. Moore tea, and give him a massage.”

Victoria laughed miserably and stood against the wall. It seemed that she didn’t hear the roar of Andrew and others.

Leon chuckled wildly, “You are still so stubborn, but I like the rose with thorns. I have a sense of accomplishment when I teach you. When I take you back to Geekoo, I will teach you to be obedient. You will fulfill whatever posture I want.”

“Mr. Moore, Victoria can pretend to be a saint all day long. You’d better teach her now, so she can remember that she shouldn’t be disobedient in the future.” Iris gloated at Victoria.

Andrew said with a smile, “Yes, Mr. Moore, you should teach Victoria well and punish Maximilian later. You can penalize them as long as you are happy.”

“Don’t talk nonsense. You don’t need to teach them how to penalize them. Consider my acquisition plan carefully. Today is your last chance. After today, you can’t even get 1 hundred thousand dollars!”

Under the threat of Leon, Andrew and others turned pale. They can't accept this condition at all.

At this time, Maximilian rushed into the meeting room and saw Victoria intact, his heart was released.

“Maximilian, kneel down for Mr. Moore!” members of the Griffith family roared.

Chapter 286 Give you the last chance

Seeing Maximilian come back, Franklin was the first to jump out and yell at Maximilian to kneel down.

Leon sneered and looked at Maximilian, waiting for the performance of the Griffith and how they keep Maximilian on his knees in front of him.

Should he spit out thick phlegm on Maximilian's face, when he was kneeling and begging for mercy, or should he kick Maximilian's face to vent his anger?

Leon's heart had begun to fantasize.

Andrew, Darian, and Iris all changed their aims at Maximilian, and retaliated against Maximilian for the humiliation they had just suffered.

"Asshole, you finally come back. Do you know how much trouble you have caused? The people of Geekoo have been offended, how brave you are?"

"Why you are still fuck standing in such a shocking tone, quickly kneel down and admit your mistake to Mr. Moore. If Mr. Moore doesn't forgive you, you will always kneel down!"

"Kneeling forever is too easy for this bitch. You should break his legs to let him know how serious it is, and see if he dare to go out and cause trouble again in the future!"

Andrew and others blamed wildly at Maximilian, and the spits splashed in the air, floating on Maximilian's face.

Maximilian wiped his face lightly, looked at Andrew and others with disdain, and finally fell his eyes on Leon's body.

Leon held his head high, staring at Maximilian with an arrogant expression.

"You useless man, you know you are afraid, and you know what it's like betraying by your relatives now. Are you excited when you make me kneeled down? Are you excited when you hurt me? I will let you double pay for it today. First, kneel down to me now!"

Maximilian smiled lightly, shook his head and said, "It seems that you haven't learned any lesson yet, so you dare to come and make troubles again."

"Fuck you! How dare you trash talk to Mr. Moore like this? Are you looking for death? Now the life and death of the Griffith is a matter of Mr. Moore's word. Since Mr. Moore asks you to apologize, you must apologize to him!"

"Mr. Moore asked you to apologize, it is your honor. Don't be so shameless. If you are shameless, do you want us to be rude to you? The Griffiths will outcast your entire family!"

"Fuck, you quickly kneel down to Mr. Moore. If Mr. Moore is unhappy, your consequences will be very serious. Not only yours, but Victoria's as well!"

The Griffiths was shocked when they saw Maximilian contradict Leon, they scolded Maximilian and asked Maximilian to kneel down and apologize.

Leon looked at Maximilian with a stern look, and said bitterly, "Don't fuck here. No one can help you now. Neither Wyatt nor the old man surnamed Davies can help you anymore!"

Zakariya, Teddy and others all glared at Maximilian. If the anger in their eyes was gathered, they would be able to burn Maximilian directly.

"Fuck you, why are you so arrogant here? If someone hadn't helped you that day, we would have killed you already. Don't you know you are dying? The men who helped you are going to be finished up!"

"We are doing our best. Behind us are the four most powerful real estate families in Geekooo. I ask you if you are afraid or not. I have prepared countless money, and I will use it to kill you. You just wait to die!"

"What the hell killing this guy for? It's better to keep him alive and teach him to become a dog. Let him be the good dog of Brother Leon and Brother Frankie, and watch how Brother Leon and Brother Frankie bang his wife. That's the most interesting thing."

Zakariya and others laughed loudly, as if they had seen Maximilian's miserable life.

Leon smiled triumphantly, "Maximilian, this is your last chance. If you don't grasp it, the consequences will be beyond your imagination."

Victoria took Maximilian's hand and gently squeezed Maximilian's palm.

"Uncle, even if you ask Maximilian and me to apologize to them, they will not let the Griffiths go. Why don't you understand it?"

"It's nonsense!" Andrew angrily slapped the table, pointed at Maximilian and Victoria, shouting, "If it weren't for the two of you, it would be impossible for these things to happen at home. Are you saying these to avoid responsibility? Let me tell you, there is no way!"

"You two should not pretend here, and apologize to Mr. Moore quickly. Nothing you say will help. Mr. Moore and the others were seriously injured. You should apologize to Mr. Moore!"

"Victoria, you have already slept with others. Maximilian's already been betrayed. What are you two pretending here? Victoria, hurry up and take care of Mr. Moore. Maximilian, you trash just stay aside!"

Victoria glared at Iris, trembling with anger, "You are talking nonsense! I didn't!"

"Well, everyone knows how you signed the contract before, everyone knows well. And that mysterious Mr. Lee, you must have slept with him too, you are just a bitch!"

Iris yelled angrily, wishing to continue exposing Victoria scandals.

Maximilian walked towards Iris. Iris hid behind Franklin in shock. Franklin sternly shouted, "What are you doing? What Iris said is the truth! Don't be so prestigious here! Go and apologize to Mr. Moore! "

"Get out of the way. If she dares to slander my wife, no one can save her today." Maximilian said coldly.

Victoria's heart was tense, she hurriedly pulled Maximilian and said, "Don't bother with her. She is just such a lunatic."

"You are mad, and your whole family is mad. Have you ever slept with others? If you have not slept with others, the ghost will come out!

Maximilian, you are just a trash who can't watch your wife!" Iris said fiercely.

Both Andrew and Darian looked at Maximilian coldly, not wanting to watch things turn into a farce.

"Maximilian, kneel down. Do you hear me? Kneel down to Mr. Moore. This is the last chance for the Griffiths. You must obey our orders!" Andrew said solemnly.

"No need talking to him anymore, just press him on the ground and kneel! Franklin, hold down this wimp with me, let him kowtow to Mr. Moore!"

Darian gave Franklin a wink while talking. Franklin immediately understood what Darian meant, and the two walked to Maximilian together.

"Maximilian, if you don't kneel down to Mr. Moore, you don't blame us for being rude to you. For the safety of Griffiths, you must kneel down to Mr.

Moore today!"

While talking, Franklin grabbed Maximilian's wrist, preparing to capture Maximilian, and pressing Maximilian to his knees on the ground.

Darian's actions were a bit hesitant, and he did not act with Franklin at the same time.

Maximilian raised his brows, looked at Franklin with a stern look, and said coldly, "You are looking for death!"

Chapter 287 The Stone Family come to plead

"It's you who are looking for death. Mr. Moore has brought people to the door. You still don't know what to do?"

Franklin grabbed Maximilian's wrist and twisted Maximilian's wrist with both hands, but Maximilian's wrist didn't move under the sudden force.

In an instant, Franklin's blood was cold, and then he remembered the story of Maximilian fighting the kidnappers before. Franklin understood that his small body, even if it was up to ten, was not Maximilian's opponent.

Glancing at Darian, who was winking to him, Franklin's cold blood instantly turned into an ice ball. He was pitted and Darian didn't even do it!

"Maximilian, I'm doing this for our family, and you should kneel down, and don't make everyone embarrassed!" Franklin said with a shiver.

Maximilian smiled coldly, shook his wrist, and shook Franklin's hand away, then slapped Franklin's face with a slap.

Like a piece of paper, Franklin flew out by Maximilian's slapping, hitting the wall with his whole body, and then slowly sliding down the wall.

The severe pain caused Franklin to faint directly.

Looking at Maximilian like the God coming alive to the world, Darian swallowed vigorously, murmuring that he did not act on Maximilian impulsively, or his consequences would be the same as Franklin.

Andrew's face was extremely ugly, because his son was beaten, "Maximilian! You are becoming more and more courageous now. Do you think Victoria can support you? Today you pair of trash will be swept out of the door!"

Maximilian didn't pay attention to Andrew at all and looked at Iris with cold eyes.

Iris was frightened and trembling all over, stepping back in Leon's direction step by step.

"Mr. Moore, save me, quickly ask your men to clean up the trash Maximilian." Iris's face turned pale in panic.

Leon's expression darkened, feeling that Maximilian's behavior was just provoking his authority.

This time he came to clean up Maximilian, but this nasty guy dared to resist and fight in front of him, which was simply unbearable!

"You wimpy guy are so courageous. Do you think you are still supporting by the men surnamed Owen and Davies? The two of them are just using you as a gun. Do you really think you are a human being? You are just a stinky dog. Shit, be realistic!"

Leon roared and gestured to the bodyguards around him. The bodyguards stepped forward, staring at Maximilian with enthusiasm.

"Be careful." Victoria yelled out in a panic, and took Maximilian's arm to prevent Maximilian from moving forward.

Those bodyguards looked so strong and brave, and they were still holding electric shock devices in their hands, and they looked like they were not easy to provoke.

Although knowing that Maximilian's skill was very good, Victoria was still worried that Maximilian would suffer when he went up.

Maximilian smiled gently and patted the back of Victoria's hand lightly.

"Don't worry, it's just a bunch of garbage, and it's easy to handle." Maximilian said confidently.

Zakariya and others suddenly felt despised by Maximilian, and they all glared at Maximilian.

"Your rubbish is still here to speak out. The bodyguards we brought have all seen blood on the battlefields. You can wait to be cleaned up by us."

"First interrupt this trash's limbs, and see how arrogant he can still be. Without the fifth limb, this trash can only be a useless man in the future."

"Looking at this silly shit makes me feel sick. I have endured him for long enough. The Griffiths is also rubbish. They can't even make this rubbish kneel for such a long time. I really don't know why the Griffith hasn't closed yet!"

Zakariya and others ridiculed, and Leon's patience had been exhausted, "Your Griffith are rubbish. I think we should solve this waste by ourselves."

The expressions of Andrew and Darian were extremely ugly. Maximilian's non-cooperation made them feel a strong sense of crisis.

It was estimated that after Leon cleaned up Maximilian, he would set more stringent conditions, which would mean giving the Griffith Industry to others for free.

But Andrew and Darian had no other way out. If they really made Maximilian angry, they would be slapped by Maximilian and probably have to spend the rest of their lives in bed.

When Leon and others were annoyed, the Griffith was helpless, and when the bodyguards were eager to try, there was a sound of neat footsteps.

The footsteps were neat and loud, and obviously many people came.

Leon frowned, thinking that Connor had sent someone here.

However, he felt it shouldn't be. Connor was attacked. Although he escaped, he should stay in his lair to recuperate.

If it was not Connor, who else would bring someone here?

Andrew and Darian looked at each other. Although they didn't know who was coming, they thought it was an opportunity.

Those who could put on such pomp must be of great influence. Whether it was to make great efforts, or to find ways to take advantage of the situation, they must overcome the difficulties.

After making eye contact, Andrew and Darian rushed out of the meeting room to greet the mysterious guests from outside.

"I'm Andrew from the Griffith. I wonder which gentleman is coming here."

Andrew said to the oncoming group of bodyguards in black suits.

"Step aside!" the bodyguard shouted coldly.

Andrew said with a sullen face, "I am the host of the Griffith. Everything I say about the Griffith is counted. Just tell me if you have anything to say."

Taylor in the middle of the team took a look at Andrew, and then said in a deep voice, "We're not looking for the Griffith."

Andrew was a little dumbfounded. They broke into the Griffith's office building and said that they didn't come to the Griffith. They guys were making fun?

"Then, may I to ask who you are looking for?" Andrew asked blankly.

"Just go away." Taylor said coldly, and the team of bodyguards in front of him separated like a tide, revealing a path.

Both Andrew and Darian looked at Taylor together, took a closer look, and were sure that they didn't know him.

But looking at Taylor's clothes, both of them concluded that this person's identity was definitely not simple.

It was not difficult to raise a group of bodyguards. Coal mine bosses could raise a group at will, but the style and taste of dressing was not something that an ordinary nouveau riche could learn. The so-called three generations of nobles were indeed true. Without time for accumulation and precipitation, it was difficult for the nouveau riche to enter the aristocratic level.

Taylor straightened his clothes, his expression became more serious, and he walked through the passage formed by the bodyguards and stood at the door of the conference room.

Frowning and looking at Andrew and Darian who stood in front of the door, Taylor said in dissatisfaction, "Get out of the way."

Andrew and Darian hurriedly stood aside, leaving the meeting room door open.

Taylor looked into the conference room and said respectfully, "May I ask if Mr. Lee is here, Taylor Stone from the provincial capital is here to humbly ask your pardon!"
