

Chapter 288 Roll in

Hearing Taylor's words, Andrew and Darian were completely stunned.

This was Taylor, the legendary Patriarch from the Stone Family in the provincial capital?

The Stone family, which occupied half of the provincial entertainment industry!

But why did the Patriarch of the Stone Family plead to Maximilian?

Maximilian was just a waste living on others, how could he let the Stone Family Patriarch personally come to him?

Both Andrew and Darian could hardly stand still, feeling their whole body weak. The situation in front of them was beyond their expectations.

"Stone, Patriarch Stone, you, why do you plead to Maximilian? He, he is just a waste."

Darian didn't know what to say, but driven by curiosity, he couldn't help but ask.

"Humph!" Taylor snorted coldly and ignored Darian's question.

If someone dared to ask something like this in another place, Taylor would surely let the bodyguards kill him.

But it was different here. He was here to apologize to Maximilian. If Maximilian was dissatisfied with the slightest behavior, then the Stone family's property would be wiped out.

Darian shrank his neck and no longer dared to ask any more.

Leon, Zakariya and others felt that their brains were buzzing, as the Stone

Family in the provincial capital was beyond their reach.

But what the hell was it for the Patriarch of the Stone Family in the provincial capital to come to plead to Maximilian?

Shouldn't it be the same as them, coming to the door to kill Maximilian?

Leon felt that his brain was not good enough that he couldn't figure out why Taylor would plead to the trash Maximilian.

Iris looked at Maximilian and Victoria with jealous eyes. She thought she could humiliate the pair of rubbish when Leon was about to take action. How could the Stone Family's Patriarch come here? Was it possible that Maximilian hired a group of performance?

"Maximilian! You rubbish ran out now. You are looking for someone to act. I can't see that you have so many thoughts!" Iris shouted viciously.

With a word that awakened the dreamer, with Iris' words, Leon and others instantly made up for the scene where Maximilian invited someone to act, thinking that Taylor and the others were simply fake.

"Fuck! I was almost fooled by you! What shit Patriarch Stone? Patriarch Stone won't come to this shit place to plead to a trash like you. Your words are too cliché. Wait for me to go to the provincial capital another day to find Walter to talk about this!"

Leon's expression was full of infinite contempt, and he felt that Maximilian was worthy of the trash living on others. He was really good at playing tricks.

Zakariya and others laughed and mocked Maximilian contemptuously.

"Also, Patriarch Stone, do you know who the real Patriarch Stone is? There are first-line celebrities to accompany him in and out. He can pose what he want the celebrity to pose. It is estimated that Patriarch Stone is enjoying the celebrity's services."

"You should make up a reliable story, but you made it directly to the provincial capital Stone Family, which wouldn't plead to rubbish like you. You must be suffering from a delusion. This is a disease. Just go to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible."

"Let the Patriarch Stone, who's pleading to you, come over and take a walk. Let's see if he is the real Patriarch Stone. You really have the courage to cheat anyone. We will not be deceived by you!"

The voices of Zakariya and others

"Also, Patriarch Stone, do you know who the real Patriarch Stone is? There are first-line celebrities to accompany him in and out. He can pose what he want the celebrity to pose. It is estimated that Patriarch Stone is enjoying the celebrity's services."

"You should make up a reliable story, but you made it directly to the provincial capital Stone Family, which wouldn't plead to rubbish like you. You must be suffering from a delusion. This is a disease. Just go to the hospital for treatment as soon as possible."

"Let the Patriarch Stone, who's pleading to you, come over and take a walk. Let's see if he is the real Patriarch Stone. You really have the courage to cheat anyone. We will not be deceived by you!"

The voices of Zakariya and others

floated out, and Taylor's face changed after hearing it, turning green and red, wishing to rush in and kill the speaker.

Victoria looked at Maximilian with questioning eyes and asked in a low voice, "Have you called them?"

"No, it is a coincidence." Maximilian said lightly.

When Andrew and Darian heard those words, their eyes looked at Taylor changed, and they doubted that Taylor in front of them was fake.

"Are you really a group performer invited by Maximilian? The acting is so similar. Tell me how much money Maximilian gave you. I will double it for you, as long as you can expose Maximilian." Andrew said with a smile.

"How do you talk to our master like this? Want to die, right?" Taylor's assistant shouted angrily.

It was humiliating enough to come to ask for forgiveness here, and before pleading, they were ridiculed by some nobody, which made Taylor's subordinates angry.

Taylor waved his hand, and the assistant lowered his head and did not speak.

"Taylor of the Stone Family from the provincial capital came to make an apology to Mr. Lee and cordially invite Mr. Lee to see him."

The door of the meeting room was like a moat. Without Maximilian's permission, Taylor did not dare to step in, as it was a rule.

Going in without permission was equivalent to being disrespectful to Maximilian. Andrew and others didn't understand these rules, but Taylor did.

Seeing that Taylor was just talking outside the door and did not enter, Leon and others instantly concluded that these people were all group performers hired by Maximilian.

"You son of a bitch is really scheming. You can let your group evolve to let us meet. Although we haven't seen the Stone Family Patriarch himself, the photos are not rare. We can still recognize him at a glance. Let's see if he looks like you."

Leon was like a cat playing with a mouse, intending to tease Maximilian, so he was no longer in a hurry to clean up Maximilian.

Maximilian sneered, "Taylor, roll in, you must roll in."

"Oh, it's so ridiculous. This guy really treats himself as an influential figure, and asks the Stone Family Patriarch to roll in. If he is the Stone Family Patriarch, I will broadcast myself eating shit."

"I have seen a fool, but I have never seen such a fool. This man definitely has a nerve problem; otherwise he won't be so seriously ill."

Zakariya and others laughed mockingly, thinking that Maximilian's words and deeds were really funny.

If the person outside was really the Stone Family Patriarch, how could it be possible for him to roll in, not to mention that Maximilian was a trash; even if it was the bigwig in the province, none of them could let the Stone Family Patriarch roll.

All of Taylor's subordinates were stirred, and Maximilian's words made them extremely angry. It was said a master being insulted made the officials dead, and Taylor was now being humiliated.

"Patriarch, don't!"

"Master, absolutely not!"

The subordinates stopped Taylor with weeping blood and wailing, feeling that Taylor could not be subjected to such humiliation in any way.

If he really rolled in, the Stone Family's reputation would be completely ruined.

"Go away! Get back! We should be respectful to Mr. Lee! No matter what he says! " Taylor roared at his subordinates toughly.

At this time, Taylor had no other choice. If he didn't follow Maximilian's words and couldn't satisfy Maximilian, the Stone family would really decline and disappear.

If there was a little way, Taylor would not make the choice to apologize to Maximilian, but now Taylor had no choice.

Under Taylor's gaze, the subordinates slowly let go, and then watched Taylor lying on the ground and rolling into the meeting room.

Chapter 289 Kneel down and apologize!

Taylor rolled into the meeting room. Although his heart was full of humiliation, he still kept a smile in front of Maximilian's mighty power, and he dared not show the slightest inner emotion.

Seeing someone rolling in, Leon and others were a little surprised, and then a group of people burst into laughter.

"Where do you rubbish find an actor who acted so well. You let him in and he really rolled in. In the future, I will hire a few of these actors. They are definitely good companions for pretending to be coercive."

"It's a bit too shameless for the money; it's really a big laugh for you to be the Stone Family Patriarch like this."

"How much does the actor cost? I will pay ten times the price. You just have to crawl over and bark twice for me."

Leon and others joked with Taylor, and all the anger in Taylor's heart shifted to Leon and others.

"Mr. Lee, I have rolled in. These people are disrespectful to you. Please let my people vent the anger of you." Taylor kept the posture of rolling in and said very sincerely.

Maximilian smiled, "Good attitude. Get up, and they will be left to you to clean up."

"Thank you, Mr. Lee, I will do it well and teach them a good lesson."

Taylor breathed a sigh of relief and felt that according to Maximilian's attitude, as long as he showed enough sincerity, he should be forgiven by Maximilian.

Standing up from the ground, Taylor looked at Leon and others with cold eyes.

At this moment, Leon and others could see Taylor's appearance clearly. Gradually, Taylor's appearance overlapped with the photos of Taylor in Leon's memory. Leon and others discovered with horror that the one who rolled into the door turned out to be the real Taylor, the head of the Stone family!

"Stone, Stone, Taylor, it is really Taylor, the head of the Stone family! This, this is impossible! It must be my hallucination!"

"I think he is Taylor. Could it be the person who looked like Taylor found by the waste? The real Stone Family Patriarch won't roll in."

"What's the matter, is the man in front of us the Stone Family Patriarch?"

Leon and others were completely confused. The more they looked, the more they felt that it was Taylor, but the more they felt that it was Taylor, the colder Leon and others' hearts became.

Taylor really rolled in!

What they were laughing at just now turned out to be the real Stone Family Patriarch!

What would happen if they offended Patriarch Stone?

With a smile on Leon's face that was uglier than crying, he arched his hands and said to Taylor, "Stone, Patriarch Stone, we didn't know that it was you just now, please forgive us."

"Shit! How dare you be disrespectful to Mr. Lee? That's a crime of treason! Come here!" Taylor roared loudly.

The bodyguards outside the door rushed into the meeting room, and looked at Leon and other's bodyguards.

The bodyguards of Leon and others were extremely afraid. Just by looking at the aura of the opponent, they knew they were not the opponent of Taylor's bodyguards.

"Mr. Moore, we, we are afraid we can't protect you, Patriarch Stone's bodyguards are all elite." the captain of Leon's bodyguards said nervously.

Leon's face turned pale and he shouted at the bodyguards beside him, "You bastards go back."

Leon also understood it at this time. It was impossible to solve it now. He could only ask for a lighter punishment. If he asked the bodyguards to resist, it was an act of seeking death.

"Patriarch Stone, we know we were wrong. You can teach us casually, but our family is innocent. Please don't hurt our family after you teach us a lesson."

Taylor sneered, and then put on a flattering smile, and said to Maximilian, "Mr. Lee, what do you say? It is said to clear up them all. As long as you say, I will immediately have them wiped out from their families."

Leon and others shuddered, and they all wanted to cry. They wanted to show off, but who knew they hit the iron plate.

"Patriarch Stone, you don't have to rush to kill us like this, Maximilian, you..."

Leon's words were no longer heard. He had such a big death feud with Maximilian, and now he had to beg his enemy for mercy, Leon really couldn't do it.

Maximilian took Victoria to sit down and said slowly, "Whatever you teach, it's best to let me see your sincerity."

Taylor's heart was stunned, knowing that this matter must be handled well. If it was not handled to Maximilian's satisfaction, he was afraid that the Stone family could not be forgiven.

"Catch them for me and give them a hard beat first!" Taylor shouted sharply.

The bodyguards stepped forward one after another, catching Leon and others to beat them.

The bodyguards of Leon and others were shrunk in the corners, not daring to take a step forward.

Andrew, Darian and Iris saw this with their eyelids jumping, thinking of the threats against Maximilian and Victoria just now, and worried that Maximilian would ask Taylor to clean them up later.

"What's the relationship between Maximilian and the Stone Family? The Stone Family Patriarch came to apologize personally. Why do things look so mysterious?"

"Who can make sense of this? I think I'm dreaming. Do you think Maximilian will retaliate against us later?"

Iris bit her lower lip with her teeth tightly. She was so nervous that she thought about the way Maximilian was about to beat her, and she would definitely not be able to escape Maximilian's revenge.

How did this damn loser make Patriarch Stone bow his head?

"No, I'm going to slip away quickly; I can't stay here and wait to die!"

Iris moved slowly and wanted to slip away, but when she reached the door of the meeting room, she was blocked by Taylor's men.

Seeing the serious appearance of Taylor's subordinates, Iris walked back at Darian's side with a sad face, hoping that her father could help her later.

Leon and others had been beaten up for a round, and each of them had been beaten into pig heads, looking painful and miserable.

"Woo, don't fight, I was wrong, I knew I was wrong. I really knew I was wrong, Maximilian please forgive me. I can kowtow to you." Leon said miserably.

"We know that we are wrong. We are willing to kowtow to apologize. Please forgive us. We will never dare to do it again. We will walk around if we see you in the future. Please spare us."

Zakariya and others followed, begging for mercy. The crying appearance of the group was totally different from their arrogant appearance just now.

Taylor took a peek at Maximilian's face and saw that Maximilian didn't have any expression at all. Taylor's heart was a little cold, and he knew he would continue to clean up these people.

"Just cry, you can just keep crying! Shut up, kneel to Mr. Lee, and kowtow to apologize! Knock until the head hurt!" Taylor roared loudly.

Leon and others, who were already injured, enduring the pain all over, knelt down to Maximilian together, and kowtowed to Maximilian uniformly.

"Fuck! Didn't you eat? You don't have the strength to knock? Don't you know you should make sound if you want to show your sincerity?"

Chapter 290 Roll away

Seeing Taylor roaring like an angry lion, Leon and others couldn't have the slightest thought of resistance in their hearts.

If Connor were here, perhaps Leon and others would resist, but it was a pity that they faced the Patriarch of the Stone Family, a giant.

"Knock, knock hard!" Leon gritted his teeth and shouted in a deep voice to Zakariya and others beside him.

Zakariya and others followed Leon, slammed their heads in Maximilian's direction, and their foreheads hit the ground with a sound of bang.

Time after time, the foreheads of Leon and others were already bloody and there was blood on the ground.

Andrew and others were frightened and looked at Maximilian, wondering what happened between Maximilian and Taylor.

Taylor stood beside Maximilian, his old waist maintaining a respectful posture with a thirty-degree bend. This was the posture when the eunuchs in the palace served the emperor.

Victoria thought about it, guessing that Taylor must have something to do with Wilfred. But what was kind of relationship between Wilfred and Maximilian?

However, no matter how smart Victoria was, she couldn't think of the relationship between Maximilian and Wilfred.

Leon and others had already knocked their eyes off with gold stars, and their minds were buzzing, except for the mechanized knocking of their heads, they didn't know anything.

Victoria was worried that Leon and others would have a problem with the knock, and if they died on the spot, it would become a major event, so she gently pulled Maximilian's sleeve.

Maximilian smiled slightly and said faintly, "No need to knock."

The brains of Leon and others were no longer working, and they still kowtowed without hearing Maximilian's words.

Taylor's cheek twitched, and shouted at Leon and others, "You are so deaf! Mr. Lee told you not to knock!"

The roar made Leon and others regain their senses. The dizzy Leon looked at Maximilian, tears streaming down his eyes, feeling that Taylor's roar was like a fairy sound, so pleasant to ears.

"Thank you, thank you for your forgiveness. Let's get out now, and get out immediately."

Leon and others were about to get up quickly.

"Did Mr. Lee let you go? Are your brains knocked out?" Taylor shouted with a dark face.

Leon froze for a moment, and then lowered his head, looking like a naughty boy being bullied.

"Mr. Lee, how do you want to deal with them next?" Taylor asked respectfully.

"They are just a bunch of bugs. My wife is kind, so she won't kill them. Go away." Maximilian said lightly.

Victoria glanced sideways at Maximilian, barely holding back a laugh.

Leon and others were relieved, stood up in a panic and said, "Thank you, thank you, Mr. Lee, for forgiving us, and let's get out of here."

Maximilian said in a cold voice, "Do I ask you to go away while standing? Just roll out, roll downstairs, and roll out of the office building."

Leon's complexion flushed red, and he was full of shame at the thought of rolling out of the office building from the conference room.

But Leon didn't dare to refute the slightest, and it was the best result for him to be able to get out.

"I'll get out of here, you all follow me, and so are the bodyguards, just follow me!"

Leon said to Zakariya and the bodyguards. Anyway, he had lost his face. Leon didn't care about the humiliation any more, but he couldn't let his subordinates watch the joke, so he had to take his subordinates with him to roll together.

Zakariya and others had been taught by the present world, knowing that it was useless to fight back. They all lay on the ground with Leon, wanting to roll away in turn.

Although the bodyguards were unwilling, their wives and children were all in Geekoo. If they didn't go along, their whole family would suffer.

So the bodyguards lay down and rolled out together.

"Ah! It hurts, it hurts so much."

Leon's wound hurt as he rolled, and sweat broke out all over his body in pain.

Endless regrets rose from Leon's heart. It would be great if he waited until his injury healed before coming to Maximilian for revenge. By that time, he would definitely not encounter Taylor, and even if he encountered Taylor, it would not hurt so much when he rolled again.

Zakariya and others were also screaming in pain. Although their body was twitching, they still insisted on rolling out. If they didn't roll, they would be killed by staying here.

At this moment, rolling became the hope for Leon and others to survive.

Andrew, Darian, and Iris were dumbfounded. The Patriarch Stone rolled in first, and a group of rich second-generations from Geekoo rolled out. With these people rolling, it seemed that the Griffith's meeting room had become a holy place.

Even the pilgrimage did not roll in and out like this, and it was more sacred than the pilgrimage. What kind of god Maximilian was, and how could he repeatedly create such magical things? A weird thought came up in Andrew's mind.

Darian swallowed hard, thinking about the same as Andrew. He was wondering what Maximilian really had, how could this famous waste son-in-law in the family compel the Stone Family Patriarch to come for an apology?

And looking at the respectful appearance of the Stone Family Patriarch at this moment, that was definitely a gesture that can only be shown after being cleaned up, but how could Maximilian clean up the Stone Family?

Iris held the edge of the table tightly with both hands, but felt that it would be best if she was in a coma directly. When she was in a coma, she would not panic and worry.

At this moment, Iris' heart rose to her throat, thinking about how she would end if Maximilian retaliated against her and let Taylor punish her.

Being beaten up was the best end. Maybe she would be dragged down to Stone's night club to be a whore, to accompany various guests, or she would be sold directly to the ravines in the remote countryside.

The more Iris thought about it, the more panicked she felt, and finally her eyes went dark, and she frightened herself into a coma.

"Iris, Iris, what's wrong with you?"
Finding that Iris was in a coma, Darian squatted down beside Iris, looking anxious.

Maximilian glanced at the unconscious Iris, with a disdainful smile on his lips.

Andrew wiped the sweat from his forehead and said to Maximilian without imposing momentum, "Was...Maximilian, you let Leon and others go, what should I do with the loan? That is related to the life and death of our family!"

"What loan? If Mr. Lee needs it, let me solve it for you. The relationship between me and the bank is very good." Taylor said proactively.

Andrew was taken aback for a moment, and then he was ecstatic. With Taylor, a boss from the provincial capital, the bank's suspension of loans was nothing at all!

He just didn't know what Maximilian would think, whether he would let Taylor help solve it. Thinking of relying on Maximilian to solve the current problem, Andrew felt disgusted, as if he had eaten shit.

"Patriarch Stone, can you really help us solve it? If it is true, our family will be very grateful to you." Andrew said tentatively.

Taylor looked at Andrew and said coldly, "The Griffith Family? What is that?"

Chapter 291 The Family at His Service

There was a strong chill in Andrew's heart, as the attitude of Taylor had made it crystal clear, but Andrew could not stand bowing his head to Maximilian and begging him.

Andrew looked at Victoria, "Victoria, you are a member of the Griffith Family, so you should stand up for our family at this time."

"I'll follow Maximilian's decision." Victoria said, holding Maximilian's hand.

"Maximilian is a live-in son-in-law. He should follow your decision instead." Andrew didn't giving up persuading Victoria.

"But it's a matter of significance. I can't make decision for him."

Victoria would certainly help the Griffith Family unconditionally, if it was before, but she was bitterly disappointed after experiencing so many things and learning the nature of her relatives in the Griffith Family.

Victoria was reluctant to think about what to do, and she just wanted to let Maximilian do what he liked.

Andrew looked at Maximilian with a bitter face, hesitating. Maximilian smiled, without caring about Andrew's expression and his inner thoughts. What Andrew would do was insignificant to him. But Maximilian would not let the Griffith Family come down for the sake of Victoria.

"Master Stone."

"I'm flattered. You can just call me Stone, or Taylor." Taylor said with great humility.

Taylor, who should have been talking and chatting with great figures in his luxurious residence, was as humble as a grain of dust on the ground at this moment.

The current situation of Griffith Family was nothing worse than that of the Stone Family. Taylor thought of Stone Family, which was bitterly cracked down by Maximilian.

Andrew gulped. He was also astonished when seeing that Taylor was so humble in front of Maximilian.

“Considering your age, I’d like to call you Senior Stone.” Maximilian said with a smile, “The bank has stopped lending to the Griffith Family. You can deal with it.”

Hearing Maximilian’s words, Andrew was ecstatic, as he did not have to bow to Maximilian.

“I got it, Mr. Lee. I’ll contact the bank right away.”

Taylor took out his phone and made several phone calls. Shortly after, Andrew’s mobile phone rang.

Andrew answered the phone and said something, and then another call came in.

Picking up several phone calls one after another, Andrew laughed with great joy. It was the bank who called him and made an apology to him.

Moreover, they increased the credit limit for the Griffith Family, which was absolutely good news for the family with capital chain tension.

Glancing Andrew, who was in ecstasy, Maximilian then held Victoria’s hand gently and walked out, just like someone who did a great job but left without caring about the rewards.

Andrew, who was on the phone, did not notice the leaving of Maximilian, while Taylor had followed Maximilian out in a hurry.

“Mr. Lee, what else can I do for you? We, the Stone Family make an apology to you with great sincerity. Whenever our family can do something for you, we’d like to try our best.”

Maximilian said, “Just go back to cultivate your son well, and keep Nathaniel out of my sight”

“I got it. I have booked flight tickets to send him abroad, and he will go to Africa to do labor work.”

After saying these words, Taylor looked at Maximilian with great care, as if he was waiting for the final verdict.

“Just go back and wait.” Maximilian said.

“Thank you, Mr. Lee. Thanks for your forgiveness.”

Taylor was so excited that he almost cried out loud. He treated Maximilian in such a humble attitude just for Maximilian’s forgiveness.

Maximilian let him go back and wait, which meant that Maximilian would not crack down the Stone Family. The Stone Family would be fine as before, but Taylor had decided to keep a low profile and restrain his families even more.

“I’d like to drive for you and Madam Victoria. Where are you going?” Taylor said respectfully.

“We’ll go home, so let’s go back in your car.”

Taylor trotted and opened the door of his Lincoln limousine respectfully for Maximilian and Victoria.

After serving Maximilian and Victoria to sit in, Taylor did not sit with them but sat in the passenger seat, despite the vast space in the backseat.

The motorcade started slowly and sent Maximilian and Victoria to their residence.

Maximilian refused Taylor's suggestion to send them into the house, but walked back home hand in hand with Victoria.

Seeing the departure of Maximilian, Taylor said after a moment of meditation, "Post the photo of Mr. Lee to everyone in the family and ask them to serve Mr. Lee respectfully and regard themselves as servants whenever they see Mr. Lee!"

"Well?" The assistant standing by the car door uttered a sound of surprise.

The assistant thought the Stone Family member, who were all high-headed, could not regard themselves as slaves.

“If you can’t do it, just go farming with Nathaniel. Pass on my words to them without dropping a letter. If someone dares to be disrespectful to Mr. Lee, drive him out of the Stone Family without any inheritance and property!”

“Yes, Master.”

In the meeting room of the Griffith Group, Iris and Franklin both woke up after Maximilian left.

Iris was in a coma only for a moment, and then she pretended to be so; while Franklin was actually in a coma and woke up at this moment.

Covering his head with his hands in a great pain, Franklin said angrily,

“Maximilian is such a wretch. I should have killed him.”

“Well? You didn’t see how the Patriarch of Stone Family treated Maximilian. He almost knelt and licked Maximilian’s feet like a dog. I really don’t understand it. Is it possible that the Patriarch of Stone Family is out of his mind?”

There were a lot of doubts in Iris’s heart and she was full of resentment.

“It can’t change the fact that Maximilian is a wretch! There must be something wrong with it. It must be!” Franklin shouted with anger.

Andrew drew on his cigarette and blew out a stream of smoke, “Shut up. We should think over the matter about Maximilian carefully. You can find go for Victoria to fins some clues about it and figure it out. Maximilian should not have anything to do with the Patriarch of Stone Family, but the fact, as you have seen, seems not be like this.”

“We’d better be careful. Now that the problem of the loan has been solved, and the bank has given us more credit, we should focus on the development of our business and we can’t let Victoria stay in the limelight for long.” Andrew said slowly, still thinking about Maximilian.

Franklin knitted his eyebrows. He bore a grudge against Maximilian, who had beat Franklin several times.

“I’ll come up with a good project, which will definitely be better than Victoria’s! I’m confident in it, and then I’ll teach Maximilian a lesson!” Franklin said in a high pitch.

Andrew nodded, “You must come up with a good plan, for our family’s honor.”

Chapter 292 Before the Storm

In Geekoo, at the intensive care unit (ICU).

Leon and others were sent to the ICU upon they returned to Geekoo. Frankie who was in a wheelchair was pushed into the ICU by his men.

Looking at the miserable situation of Leon, Frankie was quite shocked, never expecting that Leon would be beaten so heavily.

“What’s the matter with you? How do you end up like this?”

Leon couldn’t help weeping; he felt that Frankie was his family at this moment.

“Oh.” Leon, who cried bitterly, spent a long time to calm down, “Frankie, we failed and were beaten so miserably.”

“I can tell, but who gave you the beating? Does Connor do it?” Frankie frowned.

Frankie was so angry after so many failures and frustration, and he can't wait to rush to H City to avenge himself.

“No, we didn't see Connor. Everything was fine, but then...”

Thinking of Taylor, Leon was so frightened that he could not even say a word.

“Then what happened?” Frankie asked impatiently.

“Then the Patriarch of Stone Family came, who was there to apologize to the loser Maximilian. Then the loser ordered Master Taylor to get in and the master followed his orders!”

Hmm? Frankie uttered a confused nasal sound, which was only a monosyllabic word, but he uttered with many tones. Just like the many tones he uttered, Frankie thought a lot about what Maximilian had done to Master Taylor.

Maximilian and the Patriarch of Stone Family were the two who lived in a totally different world! How could the loser order Master Taylor to get in? Shouldn't it be that the master gave the loser a kick?

Frankie came to his sense after a trance for a long time, then he said with a sullen face, "Go on, and tell me the details."

"Then Master Taylor offered to teach us a lesson, and we were forced to kneel down and kowtow. Then Maximilian asked us to roll out, and we rolled all the way down the stairs. We almost died there."

As he said, Leon felt more miserable and he couldn't help crying for a while.

Ignoring Leon, who was crying, Frankie was thinking about the relationship between Maximilian and the Patriarch of Stone Family, his fingers tapping on the armrest of the wheelchair.

Without figuring it out, he took out his cell phone and called Jasper Mills.

"Master Jasper, I have something to consult you." Frankie's tone was very respectful.

Hearing the voice of Frankie, Jasper, who was cuddling a beautiful woman, got a sullen face suddenly.

Phillip's failure made Jasper suffered a great loss. Were it not for the reason that the incorporation of Frankie could expand his influence and strengthen his power of discourse among big shots in the capital of H City, Jasper would like to kill Frankie.

“Don’t beat around the bush like a bitch.” Jasper said with impatience.

“I want to ask some information of the Stone Family. I feel there is something strange about the Family.”

“Stone Family?”

Jasper rolled his eyes, let go of the woman in his arm and waved at the woman, signaling her to leave.

After the woman left, Jasper sat in a comfortable position, posing that he would have a long talk.

“The Stone Family has been cracked down by a mysterious bigwig and it might not be long before it declines. Many forces in the capital city are aiming at the Stone Family now, and I’m one of them, intending to gain some benefits from the Stone Family.”

Frankie listened carefully, but he was even more confused after hearing Jasper’s words. Since the Stone Family was going to perish, why did Taylor go to H City to apologize to the loser? Did he have senile dementia or suffer from hysteria?”

Without figuring it out, Frankie said tentatively, “I heard that Taylor offended a man named Maximilian. I don’t know if it’s true.”

“Bullshit! It’s nonsense. It’s said that the one Taylor offended was a second generation from a top family. Think about it yourself. There’s no one surnamed Lee in those families.”

Jasper did not know who Stone Family had offended, but none of the surmises about Stone Family was true.

“But I heard that Taylor went to H

City to make an apology to Maximilian.”

“Bullshit.” Jasper sneered and said with disdain, “Taylor went abroad today by plane, a private plane to Africa. We talked and Taylor was going to escape from upcoming disasters.

Frankie was more confused.

Glancing at Leon, who was wiping tears and snot, Frankie decided to believe Jasper’s words.

“You’d better get rid of Connor as soon as possible and take the land in H City. And I’ll ask Felix to give you a hand. If you can’t deal with him this time, I’ll cut off your head and kick it like a ball!”

Jasper intended to ask Felix to take advantage of and gain benefits from Frankie by the way, after giving Connor a lesson. In this way, he would take the land in H City and Geekoo with the slightest efforts.

With the land in H City and Geekoo, as well as the benefits from Stone Family, Jasper would be the most powerful bigwig in the capital city, and it was also possible for him to take the domain of the whole capital city under his control.

“I got it. Master Jasper, I’ll show you my ability. And I’ll lead the most powerful force to attack Connor’s base.” Frankie said seriously.

“I’ll see. Don’t let me down.” Jasper said.

Hearing Jasper hang up, Frankie put down the phone slowly.

Leon looked at Frankie with pitiful eyes, and then he said in a sad voice, “Frankie, make sure to avenge us.”

“I will. But what Master Jasper said is very different from what you said. Master Jasper said that Taylor did not leave the capital city, but went abroad by plane.” Frankie stared at Leon and said.

“What I said is absolutely true. If I told a lie, I will be struck by lightning.” Leon pointed to the sky anxiously and swore.

“Well. No matter what’s going on, just catch Maximilian and we’ll know the truth. Now we don’t know where Connor was while Master Jasper is pressing us. I’ll take someone to catch Maximilian tomorrow to check out whether Connor will appear.”

Frankie had made up his mind. Considering the current situation, he should not hesitate any more but keep moving forward.

“Frankie, avenge us, please.”

“Don’t worry, and take care. When I leave for H City, you keep an eye on the situation in Geekoo, and don't let my backyard catch fire.”

Frankie told Leon, and then his man pushed him away. Frankie was thinking tomorrow's plan and whether to rush into the company to catch Maximilian, or go to Maximilian's house directly.
