

Chapter 428 Sleep in My House?

The pebbles hit into Uncle Powell's legs. The blood gushed out of the wound and stained his trousers red.

Trying to ignore the pain of his legs, Uncle Powell ran away in a strange posture.

Maximilian didn't attack Uncle Powell any more, but turned to Iris with his hands folded behind him.

Iris had stood up, but she was too scared to look at Maximilian, and she just lowered her head.

"I know I'm wrong. Please forgive me, and I'll never do that again. Otherwise, if you don't feel relieved, tonight, I can..."

Biting her lips, Iris could not finish her words. At this time, she had no other ways to get away with it, so she took her body as a bargaining chip out of her instinct and habit.

“Ha ha.” Maximilian sneered and said disdainfully, “Just stop it.”

Iris’s face went pale and then there was shame and anger in her eyes. She felt grieved to be despised by Maximilian in this way.

Maximilian bypassed iris and walked towards Victoria

Anayah, who stood in the corner, just came to her sense at this time. Recalling what happened just now, Anayah realized that Maximilian was not an ordinary man.

Maximilian could fight against Luke on his own! In addition, Aston was willing to be Maximilian’s men! What did all this mean? It showed that Maximilian was absolutely capable and powerful!

Anayah was quite regretful that she failed to realize Maximilian's capability earlier. If only she could have such a powerful husband!

Why was Victoria so lucky? Victoria must know the identity of Maximilian, who was concealing his real capability before, so she went out of her way to be with Maximilian!

Anayah felt cheated, then she muttered, "Bah! Victoria is a bitch. She kept it secret in case I know the identity of Maximilian and fall in love with him. I regarded Maximilian as a good-for-nothing in mistake!"

"If I had known Maximilian was so good, I wouldn't have done so many silly things! Maybe I could have had sex with him and have a child by now! In that case, Victoria would not be like this!"

Anayah was psychological distorted gradually. When looking at Maximilian, there was a light flashing in her eyes. She felt Maximilian should have been her husband!

Maximilian walked back to Victoria and said with a smile, "It's so boring here. Let's go back."

"Yep. I want to go back, too. What about Aston and Uncle Dixon?"

Looking at Aston and Uncle Dixon who was in a coma, Victoria was kind of worried.

"Aston's bodyguards are here. I'll ask them to send them to the hospital. Don't worry. They will be fine."

"Maximilian, Victoria. What am I going to do?" Flora stood up, grabbed Victoria's arm with her hands and looked at them pitifully.

“You can live in a hotel.” Maximilian said casually.

“No. I’m afraid that my families will find me and take me back. I ran away from the wedding, so I can’t be taken back.”

Flora said with a more pitiful look. Victoria could not help taking pity on her.

Victoria had no good way to help Flora, so she said to Maximilian, “Maximilian, could you give her a hand?”

“I don’t know how to help her. We can’t take her back. There’s no room for her.” Maximilian shrugged, unwilling to help Flora.

Such a cruel man! He should be impressed by her and protect her! Flora thought with disgruntlement.

“Victoria, I can wash clothes and cook. Please help me and offer me a place to stay. You can leave all the housework to me, and I won't cause you any trouble."

Victoria rubbed her forehead with distress, then she told Maximilian, "Or we just keep her for one night?"

"Well, what about tomorrow?"

"Maybe Uncle Dixon will wake up tomorrow. Then he will take care of her, and we do not have to do anything."

Seeing Victoria had a sense of compassion, Maximilian finally agreed, "What about asking Connor to arrange a place for her? It's so troublesome to take her home."

"Please don't. I would like to be with you. What if I meet a bad guy? I heard there are a lot of human traffickers." Flora took Victoria's arm and said.

Victoria patted her arm and comforted her, “Don’t worry. I won’t let you be abducted. You sleep with me tonight and Maximilian will sleep in the living room.”

“That’s great. Thanks, Victoria. But it’s not appropriate to let Maximilian sleep in the living room. I’ll sleep in the living room.” Flora said.

“We can’t let you sleep on the sofa. It is OK for Maximilian to sleep in the living room, considering he’s a man.”

Maximilian looked at Victoria with a grimace. Seeing Victoria make up her mind, he didn’t want to argue with her, as long as Victoria was happy.

Maximilian summoned Aston’s bodyguards and asked them to send Aston and Uncle Dixon to the hospital. Then he stared at Luke’s men, who were huddling in the corner.

Squatting on the ground, they were looking at Maximilian with fear, trying to force a smile to apologize to Maximilian.

“Master Lee, you are so mighty. Please forgive us for our ignorance.”

“Yeah, we’re wrong. It’s all because of the bitch Iris who played tricks on us; otherwise we wouldn’t have offended you.”

“Master Lee, you are so lenient. Please let us go. We can kowtow to you and apologize to you,”

Maximilian shook his head, but he didn’t do anything to them. He just said in a cold tone, “Go back and tell Luke that if he messes with me again, I’ll kill him and he’d better not come to H City.”

“Okay, we got it. We’ll tell him.”

“Get out.”

As soon as Maximilian waved his hand, Luke's men fled in a panic.

When Luke's men left, Maximilian left with Victoria and Flora among the jealous eyes of the rich young men.

Taking with Victoria would make the men present envy Maximilian, not to mention Flora was also with him. Many young rich fantasized that they were Maximilian, so that they could be with Victoria and Flora.

If they had known that Maximilian would sleep in the living room tonight, they would be dumbfounded.

Seeing the three leaving, Iris, who was sitting alone at a distant table, was filled with mixed feelings.

Anayah went to Iris and sat beside her, then she said, "What are you thinking? I guess you didn't expect Victoria would keep the identity of Maximilian a secret. Maximilian loves Victoria so much that he should stand to be regarded as a good-for-nothing by others.”

Chapter 429 The Sister-in-law and The Friend

“Keep the secret?” Iris was in confusion, so she didn’t understand what Anayah meant at all.

Shaking her head, Anayah sneered, “Don’t you think Maximilian is still a good-for-nothing now. If he is, there are few men in the world who are not.”

“How could he not be?” Iris was about to continue, but Anayah poured a glass of cold water on her face.

“Just wake up. Don’t you see Luke had got into such a mess just now! Maximilian beat Luke and his men heavily! The big shot Aston said he was a servant of Maximilian and was almost killed in order to protect Maximilian. Are these what a good-for-nothing can do?”

Wiping the water on her face, Iris gained her senses now.

Iris admitted what Anayah said was true and that Maximilian was actually not a common man. But how could he become so powerful suddenly?

“Give me a cigarette.” Iris said lightly.

Anayah took out a cigarette and handed it to Iris, then she said with a smile, “Victoria kept it a secret for so long in case Maximilian’s excellent was exposed and he will attract so many women. How selfish she is.”

“Well, are you attracted by Maximilian?” Iris drew heavily on the cigarette, her heart beating fast.

Women were born to rely on the wrong. Iris and Anayah had been dealing with many young rich in order to find someone strong enough to rely on.

They just didn’t find the powerful

Prince Charming as they expected. But they were attracted by the performance of Maximilian.

“It’s quite normal. Why does Victoria get so much?” Anayah said with indignation.

Iris nodded and echoed, “Yep. How should she? She is just a little prettier than us at most. But she has got much more than us since we were young just because of that!”

“We should win Maximilian over not only for ourselves but to disgust Victoria. We should at least have sex with Victoria’s husband to ease our anger!”

There was a light in Iris’s eyes. She was fantasizing many romantic stories about a women with her brother-in-law. She thought she would do it since she was the sister-in-law of Maximilian!

Since Maximilian was not a good-for-nothing, Iris thought it was normal for her to change her attitude. If she could win Maximilian over from Victoria, Victoria would be desperate!

Thinking that what she wanted since childhood was snatched by Victoria finally and that the men she liked should entrust her to send a love letter to Victoria, Iris was more and more jealous of Victoria.

She would get back what she had lost!

Since Victoria treasured Maximilian so much, Iris thought she would win over Maximilian and defeat Victoria!

Putting out the cigarette, Iris stood up to leave, but then she was stopped by Anayah.

“Are you in a hurry to see Maximilian? But think about what he has done to you just now. What's more, it's not appropriate for you to meet him like this now."

"What are you going to do?" Iris looked at Anayah with some vigilance.

"Well, if you want to win over Maximilian, we have to cooperate with each other. You are Maximilian's sister-in-law and I am Victoria's friend. I suppose Victoria cannot fight against us even with all her strength."

Considering what she said for a moment, Iris nodded. Then she sat down and discussed how they should cooperate with each other.

When Maximilian and the other two went back, Laura wanted to scold Maximilian for wandering about late, but she was surprised at Victoria and Flora entering hand in hand.

"Victoria, who is she"

“Auntie, I’m Flora, a friend of Victoria. I have some troubles in my family these days, so I may have to live here for several days.” Flora cracked a sweet smile.

Laura said with a smile, “Just feel free to live here. It will be lively for our house. You can sleep with Victoria and Maximilian will sleep in the living room.” Maximilian curled his lips and sighed awkwardly.

Victoria held Maximilian’s hand and squeezed gently.

Realizing Victoria was comforting him, Maximilian responded with a smile.

“Maximilian, don’t stand here. Just go and heat up some water for foot washing.” Laura said with a grim expression.

“Well, I’ll do it right now.” Maximilian turned to the kitchen. Staring at Maximilian leaving in surprise, Flora didn't expect that the Young Master of Dragon Sect had no place at home. Shouldn't they serve Maximilian as their master? Well, it must be that Maximilian hadn't revealed his identity yet.

Figuring out the reason, Flora respected Maximilian quite a lot. The environment Maximilian was in was even more terrible than her. When Flora thought of this, her attitude towards Maximilian changed a little.

Laura greeted Flora warmly and asked her to sit down, then Laura held Flora's hand and chat with her. The topic turned to whether Flora was married or not. When hearing Flora was not married, Laura behaved more warmly.

"Victoria, your cousin Drew is still single. Do you think Flora and Drew are well matched? I think we can introduce them to each other. It may end up into a great marriage.”

Hearing Laura wanting to introduce her to Laura’s nephew, Flora bowed her head shyly and said, “Auntie, I have been engaged.”

“So what? Even those who get married can get a divorce. You must be prudent of such a great matter. Alas, I regret letting Victoria marry Maximilian at that time.” Laura sighed.

“Well? Maximilian is quite good. Why do you regret? If Victoria doesn’t like Maximilian, I’d like to marry him.” Flora said seriously.

Laura stared at Flora with her eyes wide open in surprise. She thought Flora was out of her mind.

“How could the punk be good? He is even not able to earn a penny and just stay idle all day. If Victoria hadn’t supported him, he would have starved to death on the road.” Laura couldn’t help complaining.

Rolling her eyes, Flora had some ideas. She thought she could take advantage of Laura. If Laura separated Maximilian and Victoria, she would have a chance to marry Maximilian!

Victoria frowned and felt kind of jealous. Whether Flora was joking or taking it seriously, what Flora said just now made Victoria quite uncomfortable.

“Mom, stop speaking ill of Maximilian. He is so good, and Flora also thinks so.”

“Flora must be deluded by Maximilian. The punk is unexpectedly good at fooling women.”

Chapter 430 Thoughts of the Dragon Queen

Victoria didn't know how to explain to her mother. Victoria had no choice but to give up persuading Laura, since she knew Laura was prejudiced against Maximilian.

"That's it. I'll go back to the bedroom with Flora."

"Wait. I think we can make a match between Flora and Drew." Laura didn't give up.

"Drew is no match with Flora. Just stop your absurd ideas."

"Why is he no match with Flora? Even Maximilian can marry you. Your cousin Drew is handsome and successful, who will definitely be a good husband. Flora, would you mind I make arrangements for you two to meet tomorrow?”

Flora said with embarrassment, “Auntie, I haven’t thought about my marriage at present. I don’t want to get married in a hurry. I’ll think about it later.”

“How couldn’t you be in a hurry? You should seize the opportunity. Since you’ll live in my home, you should go and meet Drew, or I’ll be unhappy.” Laura said with a grim face.

Flora felt quite awkward, and then she stared at Victoria pitifully.

Victoria said after some hesitation, “I’ll make arrangements for them to meet with each other tomorrow. Is that all right?”

Laura smiled immediately. Then she nodded, “Well, I’ll call Drew now. You can have a nice meeting tomorrow.”

Seeing Laura making a phone call, Victoria returned to her room with Flora quickly.

Maximilian entered the room with foot-washing water and put the basin in front of Victoria.

“Victoria, would you like me to help you wash your feet?” Maximilian smiled and his eyes kept fixing on Victoria’s fair feet.

Victoria blushed and nudged him shyly, “Just be serious and go out with your quilt.”

Flora watched the two flirting, and then she stared at Victoria’s feet, wondering if Maximilian had a foot fetish.

Flora was delighted that her feet were also fair and delicate. So she was considering if she could find an opportunity to seduce Maximilian.

As Flora was staring at her, Victoria became shy. Then she pushed Maximilian out of the room directly and threw his quilt and pillow at Maximilian.

Bang! Victoria closed the door. Seeing the door closed, Maximilian sighed and went to the sofa to sleep, holding his quilt.

After hearing his men's report, Harley looked so angry. Harley was quite angry that Flora went with Maximilian, who he had nurtured for so many years and was ready to reap the rewards.

If he had killed Maximilian last time, Flora would not have been found by Dragon Queen.

Harley shook his head with a wry smile and got rid of such thoughts, as it was too late to do anything. The Dragon Queen had strengthened her control over him, so Harley dared not to have any unrealistic ideas.

He should get rid of Maximilian and assist the Dragon Queen to take charge of Dragon Sect. Then he would take the opportunity to take over the power step by step. And the Dragon Sect would be under him finally! Harley thought.

At that time, he can make orders rather than serve others like a servant now! With a glimmer of ferocity in his eyes, Harley bowed his head and dropped his eyelids to cover up his ambitions.

Walking into the room quickly, Harley cracked a great smile, "Your Highness, Flora has lurked beside Maximilian and went to his home tonight. It's estimated that there will be good news soon. But Uncle Dixon was hurt by Luke's men, and is now lying in the hospital."

“It doesn’t matter whether Uncle Dixon is alive or dead. The point is Flora will find the key. If she can’t do it, just kill her families.”

Harley smiled bitterly, “But there is no information about the key. I don’t even know what the key looks like...”

“Well, are you speaking for Flora? Are you feeling sorry for the bitch?” Dragon Queen said in a cold voice.

“I dare not. I’m just worried that if things don’t go well, it will be more difficult to lurk beside him next time.”

“I’m clear about it. Come and massage my feet.” The Dragon Queen ordered with an expressionless face.

“Yeah.” Harley sat by the bed and kneaded the Queen’s feet carefully. Closing her eyes to enjoy the massage, the Dragon Queen said, “Is there any news about the Underground boxing Match?”

“Yes. Connor has been working on the venue affairs, and the adornment and decoration have almost finished. The match is sited in a judo stadium, and the contestants participating in the Underground boxing Match have arrived one after another. The wild card match is going to be held on the day of tomorrow. Maximilian will take part in the final game that day and his opponent is not easy to deal with.”

“How uneasy is it? Just give me some details” The Dragon Queen asked with interests.

“Many participants of the Underground boxing Match want to kill Maximilian indeed. The opponent of Maximilian this time is elevated from the black jungle of West Africa. That’s to say, they crawls out of a pile of the dead.”

“Every year there are many strong and powerful men from each tribe getting into the terrible place, black jungle, but less than ten can survive at last. Anyone who is able to survive is qualified to be elected as the leader of the tribe.”

“It’s said that only one came out of the black jungle alive this year, and he is Maximilian’s opponent this time. I heard this man was a killer machine, who killed all the men who were able to come out of the jungle, so he is the only one who survived.”

Harley talked endlessly and what he said was quite scaring. Just by listening to what he said, one could imagine how powerful Maximilian’s opponent was.

“I heard that those black men are powerful. I’m so curious about it.” The Dragon Queen smiled with gorgeous light in her eyes.

Harley looked serious suddenly, and then he patted his chest and said, “They are just bragging. How can they be as powerful as me?”

“Well, it’s different. Prepare a good seat for me. I’ll see if the man can get rid of Maximilian. If he can, I’d like to have a taste of him.”

The Dragon Queen said as if she was flirting with the man. Harley frowned, feeling great threats.

Harley estimated the Dragon Queen was warning him and intended to find someone to compete with him. Then she could hold the situation as a mediator.

“Your Highness, these guys are not healthy at all. There are epidemics over there, so you must be careful.”

“Well, you don’t need to remind me. I’ll definitely let him have a check-up. Are you upset? As long as you are submissive, I still like you.”

“Of course. I will be absolutely submissive.”

Chapter 431 Follow Maximilian

Inside Andrew's office, Iris sat opposite Andrew and Darian and told them what happened at the winery banquet last night.

When Andrew and Darian listened to Iris's narration, their faces became incomparably ugly, as if their beloved one just died.

"How could Maximilian be so powerful? Luke is surrounded by so many ruthless and skillful guards. How could they be easily defeated by Maximilian?"

Andrew couldn't figure out this question. His mind turned so fast, but he still couldn't think of a reasonable explanation for a long time.

"Iris, what do you think about this matter?" Darian asked.

Iris dropped her eyes and said, "The eldest son of the Brooks family Aston claims to be Maximilian's lacquey. I think Aston's words means a lot. Maximilian is definitely not as useless as he was before. He has been disguising himself."

Iris's words were like a bolt from the blue and exploded in Andrew and Darian's minds.

Thinking about Iris's words, both Andrew and Darian were unwilling to accept that Maximilian was not an ordinary person.

"How is it possible? He is a well-known trash! How can he be disguising himself? There must be another reason. Maybe Luke is acting with Maximilian."

"Uncle Andrew, don't deceive yourself. How about the matter of the master of the Stone family in the provincial capital? How about the matter of those who came from Geekoo to make amends to Maximilian? Plus the incident at the winery banquet. They explain the same issue."

Iris mentioned the previous matters. Andrew closed his eyes and thought back, but the more he thought about it, the more frightened he was.

But even with those previous events, Andrew was still unwilling to admit that Maximilian was a strong man.

"Maybe, he, he did all these by flaunting other powerful connections. He pretended to do all those things. I asked Marcus and his wife, they said it was Wilfred who was helping Maximilian." Andrew said dryly.

"Oh, even if Maximilian was faking it with the help of Wilfred, Wilfred was willing to help him, doesn't that tell us a lot?"

Iris stood up and said lightly, "Uncle Andrew, I know you're angry because Maximilian hurt your son. But please treat the problem seriously." "

Iris turned to leave, but Darian pulled Iris, "Don't rush to leave. Your viewpoint is right. But we still need to deal with Maximilian. You won't stop targeting Maximilian in the future, right?"

After pondering for a while, Iris had some ideas in her mind and said with a twinkle in her eye, "Uncle Andrew, Dad, I think you should continue to do things against Maximilian. While from now on, I will favor Maximilian and try to have a good relationship with Maximilian. In this way, we can know ourselves and Maximilian better. And in the future, we should work together inside and outside to deal with Maximilian!"

Iris knew it would not be easy for her to get close to Maximilian, and she must have enough external help to enter Maximilian's heart gradually. So she just let her family continue to target Maximilian, and she could gradually win him over, and Maximilian may accept her someday.

Andrew lit up a cigarette and took two puffs, looked at the lingering smoke, and said, "It's a good way. We will try our best to help you get closer to Maximilian."

"Uncle Andrew, you are so wise, and I will definitely try my best. If I can figure out why Maximilian became so powerful suddenly, maybe we will be able to fix Maximilian completely." Iris said with excitement.

"Well, then let's do it together. From now on, one coaxes, the other coerces."

Andrew made up his mind, and they got together again to discuss.

Maximilian, Victoria, and Flora got into the car. Early in the morning, Maximilian received a report from Aston's men, saying that Aston had woken up.

Yesterday, Aston's submission made Maximilian quite impressed, so Maximilian decided to go to the hospital to see Aston. Besides, he wanted to let Flora see Uncle Dixon.

Flora was nervous and worried that Uncle Dixon would suddenly wake up. If Uncle Dixon woke up, then Dragon Queen would have a close eye on Flora.

Seeing Flora's face was a bit unpleasant, Victoria thought Flora was worried about Uncle Dixon. She comforted Flora and said, "Don't worry, nowadays medical treatment is so advanced, and Uncle Dixon should not have any problem."

"Well, thank you, Victoria. I also think that Uncle Dixon will not have a problem."

Flora thought to herself that it would be good if Uncle Dixon became an idiot, or lost his memory.

Maximilian played with his cell phone and didn't want to comfort Flora. On the contrary, he thought about the underground boxing match was about to start, but it seemed that he hadn't heard anything lately, and he didn't know what Connor was doing.

He wanted to call Connor, but Victoria was still around. And it was not appropriate to talk about the underground boxing tournament now, so he resisted the idea of calling and would find Connor later.

The car drove to the hospital. After parking, they entered the in-patient building. Maximilian took Victoria and Flora to the ward according to the address written in the text message.

Seeing Maximilian's arrival, the bodyguards guarding outside the ward stood up and bowed to Maximilian.

"Mr. Maximilian, Young Master Aston woke up an hour ago. But Uncle Dixon is still unconscious."

"Well, let's go in and take a look, make yourselves comfortable."

Maximilian opened the door and took Victoria and Flora into the ward.

Aston's injuries were not serious, most of them were skin trauma, but his ribs were cracked.

The bored Aston was playing with his phone when he heard the door open sound and looked in the direction of the door.

Seeing Maximilian walk in, Aston wanted to do up. With a hard effort on his waist, he felt pain all over his body instantly and fell back to the bed with a sigh.

"Ouch, hiss." Aston took a breath, "Mr. Maximilian, I have injuries. I really can't get up to welcome you."

"You can just lie down and take a good rest. After ten days and a half, you will be a hero again." Maximilian said with a smile.

Victoria and Flora looked at Aston, and they nodded to Aston as a greeting.

Seeing Flora and Victoria were as close as sisters, Aston instantly brainstormed the image of the two serving Maximilian together.

With a sad sigh in his heart, Aston ruthlessly cut off his thoughts of Flora.

"Thank you all for coming to see me. Yesterday, I was not good at it. It really made everyone laugh." Aston said with a dry smile.

"You have done very well. If you continue to work harder, you won't make me disappointed." Maximilian said indifferently.

Aston's eyes burst into light, and his heart instantly filled with fighting spirits.

The most important thing was to follow Maximilian. And when he was successful in the future, he could have any girl he liked!

Chapter 432 Too Cruel

After Maximilian appeased Aston for a while, Aston was full of fighting spirit and decided to summon the courage to start a business with Maximilian. At least he should make the Brooks family be a first-class family.

Flora went to check Uncle Dixon. Victoria comforted her, winked at Maximilian, and signaled that Maximilian could leave.

Maximilian patted Aston's shoulder and said with a smile, "We'll leave first."

"Take your time. If you have anything to do, just call me. Although I can't move these days, the Brooks family has a large number of people at your disposal."

Maximilian smiled, waved his hand, and left with Victoria and Flora.

After leaving the inpatient building, Victoria took her phone and shook it at Maximilian, "My mom sent a text message, saying Drew will be here soon. So let's get Drew and Flora together."

Flora pouted and gently shook Victoria's arm. The reluctance was written all over her face.

"Then let's meet, maybe Flora and Drew fall in love at first sight." Maximilian said jokingly.

"I won't fall in love with a man at first sight." Flora held her neck up like a haughty white swan.

Maximilian shrugged his shoulders and looked towards the hospital parking lot with his hand on the pergola. He happened to see Drew trotting over.

Drew ran over with a smile on his face and froze for a moment when he saw Flora, then forced himself to look away.

This girl was too beautiful and looked exactly like an elf, but it looked like she was Maximilian's woman, so he shouldn't think about it.

Auntie Laura was unreliable. This girl was Maximilian's woman, but Auntie Laura intended to introduce her to him. Wasn't this purely trying to hurt him?

After Drew looked away, he respectfully said to Maximilian, "Maximilian, I was forced by Auntie Laura. In fact I have a girl I like, I'm really sorry about this today, I'll buy you dinner to make amends."

Flora immediately became at ease and thought Drew was quite smart. She didn't have to worry about being entangled anymore.

Maximilian rubbed his chin and said,

"Laura wants to match you up. You have to behave and ask Victoria to take two photos to prove that I really take you to see each other. I think you will find a cafe to have a chat. I still have something to do. When I'm done, let's have dinner together."

Drew scratched his head and was wondering what Maximilian meant. But Drew didn't want to understand, and just did what Maximilian said, as long as he restrained himself from being tempted by Flora.

"Well, there is a cafe across the street, we will sit here. You can go to work if you have anything." Drew said reluctantly .

Victoria handed the car keys to Maximilian and said, "Pay attention to your safety."

"Don't worry, safety always comes first. Just wait for me." Maximilian took the keys and walked towards the parking lot.

Drew, Victoria, and Flora walked towards the cafe opposite the hospital.

Looking at Maximilian's back, Flora pulled Victoria and asked, "Victoria, you didn't even ask him what he was going to do. What if he does something bad?"

"Maximilian will not do bad things. he must have something serious to do." Victoria said with certainty.

"Victoria, you are so sure about him." Flora said somewhat sourly.

"Oh, it's not reassurance. It's mutual trust."

Flora bowed her head and did not say anything, thinking that it was all because there were not enough chips to betray. If there were enough chips in front of him, Maximilian would definitely betray Victoria.

If bring down the Dragon Queen was used as a bargaining chip to help him, she wondered if Maximilian would betray Victoria.

Flora pondered silently, but did not notice that Victoria was carefully observing her expression.

Maximilian drove out of the parking lot and dialed Connor's phone number while driving.

The phone was quickly answered. And Connor's voice was slightly nervous, "Mr. Maximilian."

"Why do you sound nervous? What is going on in the past two days? How is the preparation for the underground boxing match?" Maximilian asked casually.

Connor looked around and then hid inside the innermost grill of the bathroom.

"Mr. Maximilian, many boxers have already arrived. I have been with them these past two days. But people often stare at me, so I dare not call you. Those boxers are so crazy!"

Maximilian frowned slightly and asked suspiciously, "Are you being restricted from personal freedom?"

"No, but it's almost the case. In short, it's hard to say. I think you'd better not participate in this boxing match. In these two days of training, many boxers were beaten to death. It was too bloody and cruel!"

"I'm not ignorant. I have seen a lot of ruthless characters in the past. But I have never seen a ruthless character like these people. Once they killed someone, they just opened the head to eat the brains. It's simply inhumane!"

After saying this, Connor recalled the bloody scene. He could not help but shudder twice and felt ill.

When he saw that scene as an audience, Connor was scared to pee. But the boxers who were watching the battle beside him were all smiling, and it seemed they were accustomed to such brutal scenes.

Maximilian understood Connor's situation, and he estimated that Connor was scared enough in the past few days.

"Okay, can you come out? Let's meet and talk about the current situation."

"Well, if I want to go out, I have to apply to them. I'll go talk to them now."

"Okay. I'll be waiting for you at the dessert shop opposite the training hall."

Connor hesitated and whispered, "Don't be so close, I'm really afraid that they will find trouble for us. Let's make an appointment far away from the combat gym. It doesn't matter if it takes some time."

Maximilian smiled and said, "That's fine, I'll send you the location, and you can come directly to me later."

"Okay, I'll come to you later."

Maximilian hung up the phone, looked around, and stopped at the door of a cafe not far away.

After parking the car, Maximilian went into the cafe and asked for a private room. Then he sent the location to Connor.

Connor looked at the location sent by Maximilian, smoked two cigarettes in the bathroom block to calm his mind, and figured out how to apply to Thompson and Colletti.

Connor was worried that he would cause trouble if he said he wanted to see Maximilian. After all, the purpose of those people was Maximilian.

After thinking for a long time, Connor finally came up with a way to conceal the situation and walked out of the bathroom to find Thompson, who had been tracking him recently.
