

"H-How could he be Mr. Lin?"

"How could he be Xue Meigui's savior?"

In that moment, Wen Qing felt like the world she knew had been flipped upside down.

Before, she treated Lin Fan with so much disgust and contempt.

She even once suspected that the most cowardly and useless man in the world was Lin Fan.

But now!

The one who took out the Skeleton King Card was Lin Fan!

The one who tamed the two infamous ruffians of Jiang City was Lin Fan!

And now, the one who saved Xue Meigui was also Lin Fan!

She couldn't believe it!

Wen Qing fell to the floor like she had lost all strength in her body, her face white as a sheet.

When she laid her eyes on Lin Fan's delicate features, Wen Qian actually felt a sense of unfamiliarity and mysteriousness about him.

Wen Qian wasn't the only one who felt that way.

At this very moment as she watched the group of thugs in suits bow their heads to Lin Fan, Bai Yi covered her little mouth in shock.

She suddenly realized!

Her husband was 1000 times, no, 10,000 times far more mysterious enigmatic than she had imagined!

Lin fan, just how many more secrets do you have hidden from me!

Bai Yi's expression turned from shock into a bitter look. As she looked at Lin Fan's beautiful eyes, a trace of conflict flashed across her own.

She had only just realized that she knew nothing about Lin Fan!

And in this moment.

Lin Fan paid no heed to how everyone was dumbstruck.

Then, he slowly got up from the sofa.

Shuffle! Shuffle!

The instant Lin Fan got up, the sight that greeted everyone was Hei Hu leading the dozens of large besuited men to bow their heads in unison once more, this time, they made sure to lower their figures even more than before.

Reverence!

Fanaticism!

It was as if Lin Fan was the idol they worshipped.

However, Lin Fan never spared them a glance.

A glint flashed across his eyes as he stared right at Wen Qian and said with a meaningful look on his face, "You should be grateful that you're Bai Yi's best friend! If not, what happened to Lin Guang Yao would've happened to you as well!"

Boom!

With a few words, he almost made Wen Qian pee her pants from fear!

Immense fear and panic welled up in her heart, especially when Lin Fan looked at her. She could feel that in his eyes, she was nothing more than an ant.

Such contempt and disdain!

"Let's go, Bai Yi," Lin Fan turned around and said to Bai Yi with a smile. He then tugged Bai Yi, who was in a daze, and slowly made their way out the hall.

And carefully following right behind them were the two ruffians, like they were trying to suck up to the couple.

Seeing them take their leave, Hei Hu and his men bowed at the same time once again and shouted

“We respectfully see Mr. Lin off!!!”

“We respectfully see Mr. Lin off!!!”

“...”

The voices filled with respect echoed throughout the hall.

It was only until Lin Fan and the others had completely disappeared from the exit, did Wen Qian realize that Hei Hu and his men, along with all her other former classmates had quietly left.

In this large hall, all that was left was here and Lin Fan, like two abandoned stray dogs that no one cared for.

“W-Wen Qian, what do we do from now on?” Lin Guangyao asked, still lying on the floor like a dead dog.

His face covered in fear and despair.

What to do?

Wen Qian's pretty little turned ghastly pale.

Never in her wildest dreams would she have thought that end up as the butt of the joke while that good-for-nothing Lin Fan became an idol.

“What else can we do! Lin Guangyao, if you’re still a man, then bring Lin Fan down! Make it such that he’s beneath you and crush him!”

“Don’t forget that he personally confessed to stealing the Skeleton King Card! Although Xue Meigui tried to cover it up for him as thanks for saving her life, if this were to be brought up to the higher-ups of the Golden Age Groups, what do you think will happen?”

A hint of viciousness appeared in Wen Qian’s eyes.

Meanwhile, her words had an enlightening effect on Lin Guangyao, like he was filled to the brim with wisdom.

That’s right!

The owner of that Skeleton King Card was definitely the most important of the Golden Age Group!

And in front of a mega boss like that, whether it’s Xue Meigui or the two ruffians, there weren’t even worth mentioning.

Especially since Lin Fan personally admitted to stealing that card.

Once this matter is exposed, even if it's Xue Meigui, she wouldn't be able to cover it up.

Once that thought crossed his mind, when he felt another wave of intense pain from his broken limbs, Lin Guangyao's eyes shined with the gleam of a wild beast as he said, "You're right, Wen Qian! Don't worry, I, Lin Guangyao, vow to definitely report this matter to the highest authorities of the Golden Age Group!"

"Lin Fan has to die!"

Their crazed voices resounded across the empty hall!

However, these two had no idea!

Every single word of their conversation was heard by the two dark figures on the third floor of the Golden Age Clubhouse.

Those two shadowy figures were Xue Meigui, who was slowly savouring her wine, and Hei Hu, who was silently guarding her from behind.

When they heard those two people cursing Lin Fan, a murderous glint flashed across Hei Hu's eyes, "Young Mistress, shall I get rid of these two people?"

To Hei Hu, killing Lin Guangyao and Wen Qian was as easy as crushing two insignificant bugs!

However!

"Kill them?" Xue Meigui calmly shook her head and continued with an amused smile on her face, "Hu, Boss doesn't care for these two insignificant insects! Besides, what do you think will happen when they report Boss' matters to the Group's higher-ups?"

Hmm?

Hei Hu was a little stunned, but then he seemed to have understood something as he broke into a smile and answered, "Ah, I understand, Young Mistress! For ants like that, the higher they climb, the more despairing it becomes for them! Because they will never understand just what a terrifying existence Boss is!"

ants think that they've seen the entire world!

But they do not know that it was just the dragon's scale!

That's all!

Xue Meigui gently rotated her glass of red wine before finishing it in a single sip.

Her gorgeous face became even more alluring as she said, "Just how horrifying Boss is, is immeasurable! Simply let them drown and slowly die off in their own despair!"

...

At the very same time!

By the door to the Clubhouse!

The two ruffians, Xu Ziheng and Zhang Tian, brought their subordinates and lackeys and sent off a Mercedes-Benz that was slowly driving away with a bow.

The two of them only straightened their backs when they saw that Lin Fan's Mercedes-Benz was long gone.

"Ziheng! Just who on earth is this Mr. Lin! I really did not expect that not only were our dad's afraid of him, even the life of Xue Meigui was saved by him!"

Zhang Tian's face was still covered in a thick layer of shock.

That was the first time he had ever seen Master Hu that polite and respectful towards anybody.

Especially towards this man who had a bad reputation and was formerly known as the useless son-in-law that married into the Bai family!

Hearing Zhang Tian's questions, Xu Ziheng was also in a bit of a daze, it felt as if what happened was just a dream. Then he replied, "No matter what Mr. Lin's identity is, he is someone we can't afford to offend!"

Once he was done replying to Zhang Tian, Xu Ziheng turned around to the numerous subordinates and lackeys and warned with a grim expression, "You lot had better remember what I say! Should anyone upset Mr. Lin, I will see to it that their life is made into a living hell and that they wish they were dead!!!!"

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

As the Mercedes-Benz drove slowly on the road, Bai Yi, who was riding shotgun, had a conflicted yet dazed expression on her face.

Up till this point, she still felt like she was in a dream.

Xue Meigui!

Master Hu!

The two infamous ruffians!

All these were not characters a tiny general manager of the Bai Group could compare with.

Yet all these big figures were all extremely respectful towards her husband.

Bai Yi found that really hard to believe.

She turned around to look at Lin Fan's side profile while he quietly drove the car. The more she looked, the more she felt like her husband was covered in a veil of mysteriousness. She couldn't see through him at all.

"What's wrong, Dear?" Lin Fan couldn't help but ask with a smile when he sensed Bai Yi's look.

"Lin Fan, tell me honestly, did you really save Xue Meigui?" Bai Yi asked with a serious look on her face.

They did not belong in the same world as someone like Xue Meigui. Bai Yi found it hard to imagine that Lin Fan was actually that woman's life savior.

Hearing those words!

Lin Fan couldn't help but smile as he replied, "That happened over ten years ago! I was just doing my own thing at that time, saving her was completely unintentional!"

His words allowed Bai Yi to heave a small sigh of relief.

For some reason, she was ultimately unwilling for her husband to be involved with some mysterious woman.

"That's good! Since Xue Meigui helped you this time, it can be counted as her returning the favor of you saving her life! From now on, you don't owe each other anything anymore!"

Speaking up till this point, Bai Yi wrinkled her brows ever so slightly and expressed her confusion, "As for Xu Ziheng and Zhang Tian, what's up with them? Why do they seem so afraid of you!"

Bai Yi found it hard to comprehend.

After all, Lin Fan was the one who turned their Lamborghinis into a bunch of scrap metal. Based on the personalities of those two ruffians, they should already thank the heavens that those two didn't go crazy trying to take revenge on them. How could they come to beg Lin Fan for forgiveness instead?

As she pondered over it, Bai Yi expressed her queries once more, "Lin Fan, could it be that you know Xu Tianlong, the Chairman of the Tianlong Group?"

"Nope!" Lin Fan replied with a smile, "How could I know people of that level!"

Bai Yi nodded at his words.

She knew that in Jiang City, Xu Tianlong belonged on the level of those that could cause earthquakes with the stomp of his foot. He was indeed not someone Lin Fan was qualified to know.

However, what Bai Yi didn't know was that Lin Fan actually meant that a small potato like Xu Tianlong was not worthy of knowing him!

In Lin Fan's eyes, Xu Tianlong was nothing more than an ant with a slightly larger head, that was all.

Very soon, the Mercedes-Benz drove into a beautiful mansion, which was Lin Fan and Bai Yi's home.

The moment they entered through the door, Lin Fan noticed his mother-in-law, Shen Yumei, and father-in-law, Bai Shan discussing something with a long face.

Seeing that the two of them had returned, Bai Shan could not help but welcome them back with a smile, "Fan, you're back! Have you eaten?"

In the Bai family, the one that treated Lin Fan with the best attitude was his father-in-law, Bai Shan.

It was just that, before he could even reply, his mother-in-law, Shen Yumei humphed coldly and yelled at him, "Hmph! This good-for-nothing was definitely ostracized when he went to the class gathering with Bai Yi, how could he have eaten!"

Then, she pointed to the dining room and spat out the words haughtily, "Lin Fan, we kept some leftovers for you. Go and eat it yourself! And wash up the dishes when you're done!"

Leftovers!

Upon hearing that, Bai Yi's face flushed red with anger. She was about to start a fight with her mother, but Lin Fan simply shrugged it off and said, "Alright!"

Then, he headed to the toilet to wash his hand. But when he passed by the dining room on the way, he couldn't help but take a glance inside.

What he saw on the dining table were no leftovers. She actually cooked up two delicious-looking side dishes, one with meat while the other one was a vegetable dish.

The dishes were even exuding some steam.

Lin Fan knew, even without asking, that his mother-in-law was worried about him being bullied at the class gathering to the point that he wouldn't be able to even catch a bite, so she specially made this meal for him.

Seeing this sight warmed Lin Fan's heart.

He knew that Shen Yumei was a harsh and sardonic woman but she was really just someone with more bark than bite.

No matter how mean the words that left her mouth sounded, she was extremely kind at heart and she truly regarded Lin Fan as family.

"Don't worry! I will make you guys proud!" Lin Fan muttered with a smile and proceeded to wash his hands.

Just as he entered the washroom, he heard the conversation between the three members of the Bai family.

"Dad! Mom! What's the matter with you? Why the long face? Did something happen?" Bai Yu asked.

And the moment they heard these words!

Bai Shan simply sighed and made no reply.

Shen Yumei, on the other hand, started getting really emotional as she spoke, “What else could it be? It’s about the company! Recently there’s been this new disease called AS Pneumonia, spreading in the cities around Jiang City! All the major hospitals and pharmaceutical companies have been trying to come up with a way to treat it! Your grandfather asked your dad and your two uncles to source for experts and try to come up with a prescription for this illness! The first to come up with a treatment for it will have a major boost in their position in the company! Today, I just heard that your eldest uncle found a master in Chinese Medicine and has come up with a prescription to treat it! Meanwhile, your second uncle invited an expert Western Medicine and has come up with a Western prescription! Your father is the only one with nothing to show at the Bai family meeting tomorrow! When the time comes, your father will surely be reprimanded by your grandfather!”

Shen Yumei’s voice was filled with helplessness.

The Bai Group was a company with stakes in various industries such as pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, fashion and many other industries.

And within the Group, Grandpa Bai holds the most power!

Followed by the three brothers in Bai Shan’s generation.

However, Bai Yi's eldest uncle and second uncle had control over basically 80% of the company's resources while Bai Shan's family had the worst treatment and was often subjected to ostracism and oppression.

If it weren't for Bai Yi's keen business sense which helped the cosmetics company to thrive, Bai Shan's family would probably have been expelled from the Bai Group long ago!

But despite that, if Bai Shan is unable to produce an effective treatment by tomorrow, her eldest and second uncles will continue to oppress them like crazy and their standing in the family would be at risk.

"AS Pneumonia?"

Lin Fan's eyes brightened up when he heard that while he was in the washroom.

Naturally, he knew of this type of pneumonia. When it first started in the African Continent, it took over hundreds of thousands of lives and was since listed as the 'Top Ten Deadliest Infectious Diseases' by the international medical community!

Back then, it caused widespread global panic and there were even quite a number of members from the Blood Prison that contracted the disease.

At that time, countless top medical experts gathered in Africa for several months in a bid to develop a cure. However, they still weren't able to come up with a complete cure.

Finally!

With the help of the book 'Medicinal Book of the Bones of the Dead' that the old guy taught to him, Lin Fan finally developed the 'Revitalizing Pill' which was made of up 72 kinds of Chinese medicines. With that, he managed to wipe out the AS virus and saved countless people from the Blood Prison.

It's just that Lin Fan didn't expect for it to start spreading in Jiang City after so many years!

The instant he thought about this, he took out a brow pencil and started writing on a piece of toilet paper without a moment's hesitation.

After five minutes!

Lin Fan walked out of the washroom after washing his hands.

"Fan, come and have a drink with me!" Bai Shan, who was seated in the dining room, called out to him. He seemed to be in a terrible mood.

Hearing his words, Lin Fan nodded his head and sat opposite Bai Shan.

Then, the old and the young started having a whale of a time drinking together.

Bai Shan had a weak and timid personality.

In the Bai family, Bai Shan was constantly living in the shadows of his father and two elder brothers. He was subjected to ostracism and oppression virtually every day.

Lin Fan silently listened to his father-in-law's grievances as the latter gulped down cup after cup of alcohol.

As Bai Shan started downing the alcohol more vigorously, Lin Fan shoved the toilet paper in his hand into the former's pocket and said, "Dad, remember to check your pocket during tomorrow's meeting!"

Hmm?

Bai Shan was stunned momentarily. All he saw was that Lin Fan gave him a wad of toilet paper but didn't notice what was up with it.

"You don't have to worry about it, Fan! Even though I'm not very capable, I can still support you and Bai Yi! Don't worry! Even if we're kicked out of the Bai family, we can go back to running a steamed bun shop and we can still carry on with life!" Bai Shan said while smiling through his tears.

However, for some reason, there seemed to be some strange magic in Lin Fan's words and they were deeply embedded into his mind, constantly reverberating throughout.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!