

Meanwhile, at the Liyuan Mansions, Shen Yumei was seated at their neighbor, Auntie Zhang's house, feeling a little restless with awkwardness and helplessness written all over her face.

"Oh Ms. Shen, what do you think about this dress? Do I look good in it?" Auntie Zhang changed into a brightly colored dress and spun around in front of Shen Yumei with a smug face, saying, "Sigh! This son-in-law of mine is too filial! This outfit cost him a few thousand yuan!

"Tsk tsk, that's too expensive!"

Although Auntie Zhang was saying it was very costly, anyone could see the pride in that smile on her face.

On the side, Auntie Zhang's daughter and son-in-law were in equally bright colored clothes.

Her daughter, Xiaocui, quickly added, "Mom! Look at you being all uptight about this bit of money! Our Kong Peng is now the warehouse manager of Century Shopping Mall! He's earning tens of thousand yuan a month!

"Don't be so concerned over that bit of money!"

As Xiaocui spoke, she could not help but link arms with the young man sitting next to her, her face covered in bliss and sweetness.

While the young man, Kong Peng also said proudly, "Xiaocui is right! Mom, my superior thinks very highly of me and doubled my salary. From now on, I'll buy you a new dress every month! Isn't it just a few thousand yuan?"

Auntie Zhang's son-in-law, Kong Peng, spoke with the air of a local wealthy man, as if these few thousand yuan was like peanuts to him.

This scene intensified the mixed feelings Shen Yumei had inside her heart.

Though they are all son-in-laws, why is that other people's son-in-law is so filial and capable while her son-in-law...

"Sigh..."

When she thought about Lin Fan, all that was left in Shen Yumei's heart was a deep sense of bitterness and unreconciliation.

"Oh Ms. Shen, it's not like I want to say it but it's best your daughter divorce that son-in-law of yours!" Auntie Zhang moved to sit beside Shen Yumei in her beautiful new clothes and said earnestly, "Look at him! What future does he have! You can't earn a penny doing laundry and cooking every day! And he still has to rely on his wife to support him, where on earth do you find such a useless man nowadays?"

Then, as she spoke, Auntie Zhang pointed to her son-in-law, Kong Peng and continued, "Let's find some day and I'll get Kong Peng to introduce his single colleagues to Bai Yi! Just pick anyone, anyone is better than that trash!"

Auntie Zhang looked down on Lin Fan from the bottom of her heart.

When she heard those words, the unpleasantness in Shen Yumei's heart became even worse.

But when she thought about his diligence, the time she got back at Yang Meifeng for her and the time he even saved their entire family with a piece of prescription, Shen Yumei couldn't help but speak for him, "Lin Fan isn't that bad now! He's become the Chief Technical Adviser of Bai Family Group!"

Chief Technical Advisor?

Upon hearing this, Auntie Zhang sneered and questioned with a contemptuous look on her face, "Then tell me how much does this Chief Technical Advisor earn a month?"

That question left Shen Yumei completely speechless.

All she knew was that although Lin Fan had become the Chief Technical Adviser of Bai Family Group, his treatment in the family was still the same.

Which was basically equivalent to having no salary or any form of remuneration.

To put it very bluntly, he's just being used as free labour!

"Look! This is why I say that kid has no future!" Auntie Zhang grabbed hold of this weakness and started coming up with thousand and one reasons why Lin Fan was no good. "Look at our Kong Peng, although it sounds like he's only a manager, but in actuality, he's earning tens of thousands of dollars a month! And his workplace is that Century Shopping Mall! The biggest mall in Jiang City! Just do any random job and it's tens of thousands of yuan!

"Your house, Bai Yi, is also only earning tens of thousands yuan a month!"

Then as she spoke, Auntie Zhang couldn't help but turn to Kong Peng and said, "Oh Kong Peng, find some time to look for an excellent man for you Auntie Shen's daughter!"

"Alrighty, Mom!"

Kong Peng said to Shen Yumei, his face full of pride, "Auntie Shen, my mom's right! Men today should be able to earn money to support their family! If they can't even do that, what different are they from a piece of crap!

"Just look at my mom, dressed in brand name from head to toe! When I find you an outstanding son-in-law someday, I guarantee that you'll be able to wear a brand name every day too!

"It won't be like with Lin Fan who has nothing to his name, just like a beggar! I'm afraid this kind of person will never be able to afford a designer outfit in his life!"

Kong Peng spouted, his spit flying everywhere.

It's as if he's someone standing at the top, looking down on and spitting on Lin Fan.

His words made the bitter feeling and disappointment in Lin Fan grow even stronger in Shen Yumei's heart.

However, just then, footsteps could be heard from outside.

"Pardon me, is Ms. Shen here?"

Hmm?

Hearing this, everyone in the house was momentarily stunned. Then, they all got up to their feet and headed for the door.

When they got to the door, they were suddenly greeted with the sight of several luxury cars parked outside the courtyard.

And there was a bunch of besuited men standing in a row, shoulder to shoulder.

There was a wide array of items in every single one of their hands.

There were clothes, leather shoes, bird's nest and Cordyceps, sea cucumber and abalone, and some antique calligraphy and paintings...

Kong Peng was particularly shocked when he saw that middle-aged man leading at the front and he exclaimed, "B-Boss Wu!"

Boom!

Kong Peng's mind had completely blanked out, because the middle-aged man standing at the forefront turned out to be his big boss, the owner of Century Shopping Mall—Wu Guangrong!

Other than that!

The people following behind Wu Guangrong were the general manager, deputy general manager and a large number of senior executives of the group.

“Oh Kong Peng, do you know them?” Both Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui were looking at him with sparkling eyes.

After all, Wu Guangrong and his men were all dressed to the nines, with one look, anyone could tell that they were of extraordinary status.

And each one of them held a gift in their hands.

Could they be here for Kong Peng?

When that possibility flashed through their minds, neither Auntie Zhang nor Xiaocui could hold back the look of ecstasy from forming on their faces, and they appeared even more proud of themselves.

Hearing their question, Kong Peng also thought that Guangrong and the others must be here for him.

After all, he was one of the outstanding elites of the Century Shopping Mall.

"Mom! Xiaocui! The one at the head, is the owner of our Century Shopping Mall, Boss Wu, followed by our General Manager and Deputy General Manager!" Kong Peng introduced, his heart bursting with excitement.

He did not expect for his performance to attract the attention of Wu Guangrong, and even warranted a visit from the man himself, which was simply a great honor.

What!

The introduction that the middle-aged man at the front was actually the owner of Century Shopping Mall had completely knocked the socks off of Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui.

"Oh god! Honey, you really are too remarkable! I can't believe Boss Wu came to pay a visit in person!"

“Yeah, Peng, you’re too amazing!”

Auntie Zhang was also full of excitement as she couldn’t help but turn to Shen Yumei to say, “Oh Ms. Shen, do you see that? Look how impressive my son-in-law is for his boss to visit him in person!

“That’s why, you should hurry up and get Bai Yi to divorce that trash, Lin Fan! And find yourself a son-in-law who’s as good as my Peng!”

Auntie Zhang was grinning from ear to ear.

And her words caused the acrimonious feelings in Shen Yumei’s heart to intensify.

Even she had no choice but to admit that Kong Peng was truly too incredible for a manager to be capable enough that the boss decided to personally pay him a visit!

“Boss Wu, what brings you here? Please! Have a seat inside!” Kong Peng rushed up to the front and said to Wu Guangrong respectfully.

Hearing this, Wu Guangrong froze for a bit before expressing his confusion, “Who are you?”

What!

That sentence left Kong Peng, Auntie Zhang, Xiaocui and the rest utterly stupefied.

Was't Boss Wu here to see Kong Peng?

Why did it appear like he didn't even know who Kong Peng was?

Kong Peng's expression stiffened a little before he asked a little embarrassedly, "Boss Wu, I am the new warehouse manager! Aren't you here to see me?"

Hearing his question, Wu Guangrong immediately understood what was up.

Looking for you?

You've got to be kidding me!

How could a mere manager be qualified to know him?

"Hmph! Who do you think you are to think you deserve a visit from me, Wu Guangrong?" He did not mince on his words in the slightest.

In an instant, the faces of Kong Peng, Auntie Zhang and others were completely frozen.

However, that was not the end of it!

Wu Guangrong continued, "We're here for Mr. Lin's mother-in-law, Madam Shen Yumei. May I know who Madam Shen is?"

Boom!

When they heard those words, Kong Peng and the others weren't the only ones who were shocked, Shen Yumei herself dumbfounded as well.

Never would she have thought that such a big group of bigwigs would come looking for her.

Did Lin Fan cause some trouble again?

When she thought of that, Shen Yumei felt her heart drop and she answered with a trembling voice, "I-I am Madam Shen! Could the Mr. Lin that you're referring to possibly be my son-in-law, Lin Fan?"

Hearing her words, Wu Guangrong's eyes lit up, then he brought a group of group executives under his command, including the general manager and deputy general manager, to stand before Shen Yumei.

Then, they all bowed to her!

"Nice to meet you, Madam Shen! I am Wu Guangrong, you can just call me Wu!"

Just call me Wu!

Hearing those words come out from Wu Guangrong's mouth, Kong Peng almost felt like his soul had left his body, he could barely believe his ears.

He knew for a fact that Wu Guangrong was someone who was extremely arrogant, with his eyes growing at the top of his head. He doesn't even give a damn about tycoons in Jiang City who are of the same level as him.

Yet right now, he was behaving so respectfully in front of Shen Yumei, it was simply inconceivable to Kong Peng.

And that's not all!

"A-Are all these expensive gifts all meant for Auntie Shen?"

Kong Peng was completely dumbfounded by the sight of all the gifts of clothes, leather shoes, jewellery and art, Cordyceps and sea cucumber, etc, in the hands of Wu Guangrong's men.

All these gifts probably add up to tens of millions of yuan, don't they?

Gifts worth tens of millions of yuan!

That was an unthinkable amount to Kong Peng.

“B-Boss, might you have made a mistake somewhere? Auntie Shen’s son-in-law, Lin Fan, is just a useless bum who lives off his wife, wasting his life away! How is someone like that worthy of your visit?!”

Fearing that Wu Guangrong might have been tricked, Kong Peng anxiously rushed to remind him,

“And aren’t the gifts you brought too expensive?! These are worth tens of millions of yuan, that Lin Fan isn’t worthy of receiving something like that at all!”

What!

Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui, who were standing behind, were beyond shocked by Kong Peng’s words.

G-Gifts worth tens of millions of yuan?

That’s an amount that they’ve never seen in their entire lifetime, much less these gifts that cost a king’s ransom!

Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui immediately chimed in as well:

“Boss Wu, it’s better for you to double check! That Lin Fan really is a useless loser! Please don’t be fooled by him!”

“That’s right! He’s someone who can’t even produce a single cent normally, how could he be a super VIP of Century Shopping Mall! You must have made a mistake somewhere, Boss Wu!”

At this moment, both Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui found the information extremely hard to digest.

After all, they were still belittling Lin Fan for being a good-for-nothing just moments ago!

And now you’re telling them that the owner and top executives of Century Shopping Mall personally came down to pay a visit with expensive gifts because of him; how could they accept such a large gap!

Auntie Zhang’s family wasn’t the only ones who found it hard to accept.

At this moment, Shen Yumei found it hard to believe as well.

She even had similar suspicions that her son-in-law might have scammed the owner of Century Shopping Mall.

Otherwise, how could Lin Fan be so capable to make someone like Wu Guangrong pay them a visit in person!

However!

Slap!

A loud slap resounded through the air.

Everyone was shocked to see that Wu Guangrong slapped Kong Peng so hard the latter fell onto the ground. He looked so terrifyingly imposing and his face had turned so grim it was oozing with wrath as he said, "Who are you to dare call Mr. Lin a useless loser!

"Men!"

Hearing Wu Guangrong's call, one of the top executives of the group immediately stepped forward.

"Starting from today, this man will be removed from his position as the manager in the mall! Never to be employed by us again!

What!

The moment Wu Guangrong said those words, Kong Peng, Auntie Zhang and the rest all looked like their world had come crashing down on them.

How could this be?

For Wu Guangrong to be this enraged just because they called Lin Fan, 'useless', that so... mind-boggling.

"No! Boss Wu!, I-I was wrong! I blurted it out by accident, please, I beg you, don't fire me, I can't lose this job!" Kong Peng was scared shitless.

He knelt on the floor like a dog, begging for Wu Guangrong to have mercy on him.

All the glory he had now was thanks to Century Shopping Mall.

If he were to lose this job, he will never be able to climb back up.

And he wasn't the only one!

Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui, who were behind him, had turned ghastly pale and were also desperately begging Wu Guangrong.

However, Wu Guangrong didn't even spare the three of them a single glance, instead, he said to Shen Yumei respectfully, "Ms. Shen, please quickly accept these gifts! Otherwise, should Mr. Lin decide to find fault with us for it, we won't be able to bear the consequences!"

There was a hint of pleading in Wu Guangrong's eyes when he looked at Shen Yumei.

Shocked!

In the moment, Shen Yumei felt like she was in a complete mess.

She could not fathom just what that useless son-in-law of hers did to make a bigwig of Jiang City humble himself to this degree.

"M-My house is too small to contain all these gifts!"

Looking at all these expensive gifts, Shen Yumei could only feel her head throbbing.

Hearing her words, Wu Guangrong hurriedly said, "Fret not, Ms. Shen. Taking into consideration the size of your house, we've brought the elite design team of our Century Group to design a wardrobe and a storage room for you!"

W-What!

Now everyone was a little stupefied, whether it was Shen Yumei or Kong Peng.

Never would they have imagined that Wu Guangrong would bring the design team over as well.

And it didn't just stop there.

"Of course, if you're not satisfied with it, I happened to have a 500 sqm villa at the Century Mansions, I can gift it to you to house the gifts and clothes!"

What!

Giftng a villa?

What the heck...

They all felt the corner of their mouths twitching and were all starting to have some doubts about life.

Of course they knew about the Century Mansions, Villa District. It could be considered the most luxurious area for the rich of a third-tier city like Jiang City.

In that villa, every square meter is worth 20,000, so 500 sqm is worth 10,000,000 yuan again!

Just what is wrong with this world?

For Shen Yumei, who spent half her life in poverty, in this moment, she really felt like the people of this world were all mad.

“B-Boss Wu, is our Lin Fan really a super VIP of your mall? What did that happen? You didn’t make a mistake, did you?”

Shen Yumei’s mind was full of doubts.

“Please be rest assured, Mr. Shen, Mr. Lin is indeed a super VIP of our Century Shopping Mall! It was just processed today!” Wu Guangrong said while taking out a golden card from his pocket.

The card was all plated in gold and there were even diamonds embedded in the corners of the card.

Just the cost of making this card might be even more than a hundred million yuan.

Wu Guangrong respectfully handed the card to Shen Yumei. “This is the super VIP card! Please keep it well, Ms. Shen, from today onwards, you can use this card to make any purchases you want at the Century Shopping Mall, free of charge!”

What!

Kong Peng almost fainted.

Make any purchase completely free of charge?

Doesn't that mean that Wu Guangrong would have nothing to say even if Shen Yumei emptied the entire Century Shopping Mall?!

Once he considered that fact, Kong Peng completely understood that Lin Fan definitely has some kind of horrifying identity. Otherwise, how could he make Wu Guangrong this respectful and ingratiating.

He immediately turned his body around and knelt down in front of Shen Yumei, "Auntie Shen, please say something to help me! I was wrong, I-I shouldn't have spoken ill about Mr. Shen. He is a true dragon while I'm nothing more than a half-baked reptile! Please, I beg of you, please don't let Boss Wu fire me! I'm begging you..."

As he pleaded, Kong Peng continuously knocked his head against the floor, kowtowing to Shen Yumei.

While Auntie Zhang and Xiaocui, who were by the side, quickly started begging her as well.

Seeing this sight before her, Shen Yumei somehow felt like she was in a fantastic mood.

I didn't think that Lin Fan, that brat, is actually quite capable!

The corners of her lips curved into a smile and she said to Wu Guangrong, "Boss Wu, why don't you spare Kong Peng! He doesn't mean it!"

"Understood!" Wu Guangrong hurriedly nodded his head in response before saying to Kong Peng, "Did you hear that! Ms. Shen pleaded for you. If not for her, by virtue of your insults to Mr. Lin, I would've made that you would be thrown onto the streets and abandoned you to your fate!"

With that sentence, Kong Peng knew that he had been pardoned. "This little one understands! From now on, Mr. Lin is my benefactor, I dare not say any words of disrespect about him any more!"

It was only then that Wu Guangrong nodded his head in satisfaction before bowing to Shen Yumei once more and driving away with the group of top executives that came with him.

Seeing the long fleet of luxury vehicles drive away, whether it was Shen Yumei, Auntie Zhang, Kong Peng, or the others, every one of them had extremely complicated feelings about it.
