Alpha's Regret-My Luna Has A Son Chapter 77 – Going back to the room

I find Valarian was tucked in beside his mother . The blanket pulled high under his chin . My father was still seated beside the bed and he held a finger to his lips , pointing to the bed and I nodded .. " What was that about ? " my father asked as I dropped into the chair beside him . " John and I have no idea . (Latest Chapters Uploaded Everyday Read more Novel at)

Something is going on with him , though . He kept talking about some impending war , " I tell him , and his brows furrow . " I will ask around , see if I can find anything out , " " I nod , and he sighs . " Do you want me to take Valarian ? " I glance at the bed where Valarian lay and shake my head .

" No , I will take him home with me later ; you head home , " I tell him , despite not wanting to leave Everly . Our son needed me , and I knew she would like one of us with him . " Valen , I .. " " Not now ! " I growl . I didn't want to talk about him betraying my mother and not here in front of my son , even if he was asleep . (Read More at)

He closes his mouth and nods , getting up . " Ring if you need anything or want me to take him , but it will probably be good if he stays with you , he hasn't been sleeping well . " My father before he leaves , and I sit back in my chair . After an hour or so , my eyes grew heavy , and I kept nodding off .

Yawning , I get to my feet to find Valarian still asleep with his mother only now . Everly was stirring , her nose crinkling , and I felt her consciousness slowly coming back as she sniffed our son . I was going to take him home , but as I watched her , maybe he was what she needed to wake up , so instead , I moved him closer to her before climbing in beside her and pulling Valarian on my chest . I placed his tiny hand on the side of her face .

Her breathing evened out again . I kissed his little head , and he rubbed his face against my chest when I heard her inhale deeply , making me look over at her to see her hand move . She rubbed her eyes , her hand not doing what she wanted as it became tangled in the cords attached to her .

Rolling on my side , Valarian slides between us , and I reach over and untangle her hand , making her eyes snap open . She looked really out of it , but her eyes cleared of their dreary state after a few seconds , and she lurched upright , her eyes going wide as she looked around the room . Gripping her shoulders , I push her back down .

" Emily ? " she gasps . " Alive ! She is down the hall ; stay still . You just ripped out your cannula , " I whisper , and she blinks , her heart rate slowing . She exhales , and I tug the cords away , the machine going berserk , and I lean over , hitting the button for the nurse before shutting the device to the drip off , knowing the nurse would fix it .

Grabbing Everly's hand , I ran my tongue over where she ripped the needles and tap off , watching it heal before laying back down . " Try not to move . You have cords everywhere and a catheter , which I am sure you don't want to be ripped out , " I tell her . She nods , watching our son before brushing his hair with her fingers .

Valarian stirs under her touch , and she leans forward , sniffing his little head . My heart leaped seeing her awake , and her eyes went to me behind him . " You're forgiven , " she smiles softly , and my brows furrow . At first , I thought she was talking about not getting to her fast enough until she touched her neck , and I let out a breath of relief .

" You forgive me ? " " There was nothing to forgive . I should have let you when I marked you , but I heard you say it ; I thought I dreamed it , " she said , rubbing her eyes and yawning . " " How long has it been ? " she asks , her foggy mind becoming clearer and clearer by the second . " A few days , " " Did you find the facility ? " Everly asked . I tilted my head to look at her better . That was the first time I heard about a facility . " What facility ? "

" The one where Emily's son is , where she escaped from . She didn't tell you ? " " Emily is in a coma , love ; we haven't spoken with her ; I will notify the patrols and send some scouts out . Did she say anything else ?

" I asked when Valarian stirred and yawned . She shook her head . Everly smiled , watching him , burying her face in his neck and peppering his face with kisses . He pushes her face away and giggles before recognition hit him .

" Mum ? " he whispers and she smiles . He pounces on her , making her grunt . " Careful , she is still sore , " I tell him , gripping his waist , but Everly shakes her head , ignoring her discomfort as she hugs him tight .

" You're awake , " Valarian murmurs , breathing in his mother's scent , and she nods . Valarian pulls his head from her neck and looks down at her . " You need to brush your hair , " he says , looking at her hair which was a mess on her head . " Do I now ? " she asks and he nods .

" Can I wake up properly first ? " she laughed , and he nods . He looks at her neck and smiles . " Daddy marked you , now you belong to him , " Valarian beams , and I clear my throat , and Valarian looks at me while Everly shakes her head with a laugh . Pretty sure it's the other way around , " I tell him . His brows pinch together .

" But you're the Alpha ? " he says . " Yes , when your mother lets me be , " I chuckle . " So mum owns you ? " " We belong to each other . No one owns anybody , " Everly says with a shake of her head .

" But we can live with dad now ? " Valarian asks , and I raise an eyebrow at her to hear her answer . " What's it going to be , Luna ? " I mind linked , and her eyes widen when my voice floats through her head , and I could feel how giddy she was being part of a pack link again .

" Yes , Uncle Marcus is living with Aunty Zoe now , so it will be a little squishy , don't you think ? " Everly asks him , and Valarian beams with excitement and nods his head just as the nurse opens the door .

Alpha's Regret-My Luna Has A Son Chapter 78 – I noticed that the nurse was an older woman and was usually on the afternoon and night shifts . She pops her head in and sees Everly awake before looking at me . " I will get the doctor , " she says , smiling kindly before stepping back out when I nod to her . It took a few hours while Everly was checked over , but eventually , she was given the all – clear to head home .

I had Marcus bring her some clothes to get changed into . The doctor wanted her to stay an extra night for observations , but she wouldn't have it wanting to go home and refused to take no as an answer .

By the time we got home , it was a little after 7 o'clock at night . We got Valarian McDonalds on the way home , but he fell asleep in the car , and I had to pry a chicken nugget from his fingers . Both Everly and I were shocked he even ate in the car , which proved how tired he was .

Carrying him upstairs and inside , I tuck him in bed , stripping him down to his underwear and shirt as I tucked him in his bed before setting the night lights timer and closing the door . Going back out to the living room , Everly wasn't there when I heard the shower turn on , making me stop and head back to our room to find her in the ensuite .

I came up behind her , placing my hands on her hips as she tested the water with her hand . " Can I join you ? " I asked her , kissing her naked shoulder .

She looks at me over her shoulder , and I cup her cheek before pressing my lips to hers . She answers my kiss instantly , her lips parting , and my tongue invades her mouth , dominating it as I kissed her hungrily .

Everly moans softly before turning in my arms and kissing me fiercely , her hands undressing me as she tugged my wrinkled suit jacket off I had wanted to burn all day . Her fingers run over my chest , undoing my shirt buttons , and I help her fumbling fingers and her lips go to my neck , licking and nipping my skin , making me groan . Her hands move to my bare chest once I rid my shirt and up to my shoulders and neck to the beard I despise because it is itchy .

" Hm , " she hums , her lips going to mine . " I like this rougher look , " she chuckles against my lips . " It's not staying , " I growl against hers while undoing my belt buckle . " We'll see , " she chuckles , and I growl , biting her bottom lip between my teeth , making her moan and press against me .

My pants fall , and I grip her waist , stepping out of them before her claws slice through my boxer shorts . I raise an eyebrow at her when I feel the fabric drop at my feet before she wraps her hand around me . Her small fingers wrapped around my cock as she stroked it , and I kissed her harder , pushing her into the shower .

My lips go to her neck , and she sighs , tilting her head , giving me better access before I lean down and grip her thighs , lifting her and pressing her against the tiled wall . Everly shrieks at the tiles ' harsh coldness , making me chuckle as she wraps her legs around my waist . Her nails dug into my shoulders , where she gripped them . I nip at her mark , and she moans , wiggling her hips against me .

My erection was painfully hard , pressed against her warm , wet core . I wanted to bury myself in her , and she whined , gripping my hair . " Ah , what are you waiting for ? " she growled , and I could feel her arousal , fiery hot , burning through the bond . " Permission , " I chuckle . " Valen ! " she growls , rolling her hips against me . I kissed her slowly , and I could feel her building annoyance as she rocked her hips against me . " Valen ! Either fuck me , or I will pin you down and take what I want , " she snarls , pulling her lips from mine and biting into my shoulder . " Hm , that I would like to see , " I tell her , and she growls , her teeth breaking my skin as she bit my mark , making my cock twitch against her , and I groaned , gripping her ass before adjusting myself .

I press the tip against her before slamming into her in one motion , burying my cock in her tight confines until our hips are flush . She sighs , her teeth letting me go , and her fingers escape into my hair , gripping it and tugging my mouth back to hers . I pull out , slamming back into her ; her slick walls grip my cock as her muscles spasmed around it , coating me in her arousal .

I groan at the texture and the ridges of her smooth channel , gliding over my cock and squeezing it with each thrust . Her hips move to meet my thrusts as I slam into her repeatedly , pinning her against the wall ; I let go of one of her legs and let it slide down my side , her toes barely touching the ground .

At the same time , I lifted her other leg higher , slamming my cock into her and making her cry out as she gripped my shoulders . The back of my legs burned . I wanted to bend over and fuck her , but that was not happening in the shower . So , I pulled out of her , earning a growl . Shutting the water off , I shove her out of the shower toward the bedroom .

" Valen ! We need to dry ourselves , " she squeals when I shove her on the bed . I grab her thighs , dragging her to the edge . My hands grip her hips , pulling her ass into the air . Her protests about ruining the bed cut off when I squeezed her ass , pulling her cheeks apart before adjusting my cock at her entrance . I thrust into her , and she moans loudly ; m y hands grip her ass as I watch my cock slide in and out of her wet pussy . She pushes back against me . (Latest Chapters Uploaded Everyday on)

The bed is ruined as I pounded her pussy , her ass jiggling as it hits my pelvis with each thrust . My hand slides up her back , forcing her further into the mattress as my fingers slide into her hair . I grip a handful , tugging her head back , and arch her back while I continuously slam into her . Her moans and the sound of slapping flesh resonated around the room .

I felt the moment she came , her walls gripping my cock , the sensation of her pulsating walls squeezing and pushing against my dick , making me shiver as she moans loudly and sends me over the edge . I still inside her , finding my release with one last thrust before I fill her with my hot cum . My grip loosens on her hair ; she falls against the mattress when I pull out o f her .

I slap her ass when I gasp , realizing my mistake . I stare at her lying face down on the bed . She groans and rolls slowly onto her back . " I think you broke my back , " she groans , but then laughs softly . I bit my lip , noticing how her pussy glistened , red from the pounding she received , and I wondered how angry she would be when she realized .

I figured I would get it over with , not wanting to hide it from her . " Ah , Everly ? " She cracks an eyelid open , a silly smile on her lips , and I looked between her legs , the evidence of my release making her thighs slick .

" I wasn't wearing anything , " I tell her , biting my lip , and she chuckles . " I figured that , " " she murmurs and yawns , and I expected her murderous rage , so I was surprised when she didn't seem that fazed .

" You could get pregnant ? " I offer , wondering if she heard me . " I know how babies are made . I had one , but doubtful with all the drugs in my system at the moment , " she giggled before sitting up with a groan .

I would be lying if I said I didn't want to see her carrying my baby . One I missed out on with Valarian , so I kind of hoped she got pregnant but also knew the chances would be pretty slim like she said . " Ah , my back . " She whines as she stumbles back to the bathroom to finish her shower , making me chuckle .(
