Chapter 1723 Don't Tell Anyone

Clayton and Nicole arrived at the office.

Nicole waved her hand at Clayton and went into the lobby happily.

Clayton looked at her back for a long time and sighed when he saw the beautiful pair of high heels she was wearing.

He did not want to seem too worked up, but he was still anxious.

As soon as Nicole went into the office, Logan looked like he had seen a savior. As usual, he brewed her a cup of coffee and came in.

"Ms. Stanton, Young Master Kai is nowhere to be found. He still has a few meetings to attend in the afternoon..."

Nicole looked at the coffee and did not touch it.

"I'll attend the meeting. Kai's in the hospital visiting my father."

Logan nodded. "Chairman Stanton hasn't been discharged from the hospital?"

Nicole smiled. "He's discharged, but he has a checkup today that's more tedious, so he'll just stay there for the night."

Logan breathed a sigh of relief. "Some colleagues bought these pastries. I left you a piece of your favorite coffee hazelnut tart. Should I bring it over to you?"

Nicole pursed her lips and shook her head with great difficulty.

After some thought, she beckoned to Logan, who hurriedly came forward.

"I can't eat these. I'm pregnant. Don't tell anyone..."

Logan's body stiffened. He slowly straightened up.

What kind of shocking secret did he just hear?

Nicole did not intend to tell Logan, but he was her assistant and would need to take special care of her in terms of her work and daily life. Thus, it was fine to tell him.

Logan nodded solemnly, determined to keep the secret.

Nicole asked a few questions about the focus of the meeting and let him leave.

Before Logan left, he did not forget to take away the cup of brewed coffee that was placed on Nicole's desk.

Not long after, the meeting was about to start.

Nicole walked in her high heels out the door, intending to go to the conference room when she heard the assistant on the side saying, "Mr. Sloan, Ms. Stanton is about to go to a meeting..."
