

Wonder Doctor Chapters 23-24 -

Chapter 23

“Director Lin, please also save my father.”

As soon as he entered, Luo Ming pleaded.

“Don’t worry, I will naturally do my best.”

Lin Ran had a serious expression as he came to the bedside.

Master Luo was over eighty years old, his entire body was very well proportioned except for his white head and somewhat wrinkled skin, looking into his arms he could even faintly see the lines of his muscles, obviously he usually paid great attention to fitness.

Lin Ran took the old man’s wrist and began to take his pulse.

They had secretly asked many Chinese medicine experts, but all of them shook their heads when they took his pulse, and since Lin Ran was still young, they had no idea.

In a few moments, Lin Ran had already let go of his hand, but he was frowning and did not say anything.

“How is it?”

Qin Bing asked hurriedly.

“Yes, how is it, did you find out the cause of the disease?”

Luo Ming came over and was equally anxious.

“The cause of the disease has been found, but if we can’t find the root cause and eradicate it completely, I’m afraid it will come back.”

Lin Ran frowned and said.

“What do you mean? The cause of the disease has been found, why would it come back?”

Luo Ming was puzzled and looked at Qin Bing.

“For example, food poisoning, the cause of the disease is poisoning, after it is cured, if you still eat poisonous food, you will still be poisoned.”

Qin Bing said.

Luo Ming’s heart shook at his words and he hurriedly looked at Lin Ran.

“Director Lin, please also specify, whatever you want me to do, as long as I can cure my father.”

“Mr. Luo, don’t be anxious yet, the old man’s illness was born in a strange way, and it is likely caused by the invasion of the evil Qi.”

Lin Ran said comfortingly.

“What? Fatal Qi?”

Hearing this word, not only Luo Ming, but even Qin Bing at the side froze.

“You’re talking about the fatal Qi in Feng Shui?”

Luo Ming asked again in disbelief.

Lin Ran nodded his head.

At once, Luo Ming's face changed, and even Qin Bing's face changed.

“Lin Ran, what are you talking about, as a doctor how can you use that feudal superstition thing.”

Qin Bing scolded, hoping to nudge Lin Ran not to continue with his nonsense.

“Dr. Qin that's enough, you guys go, I thought that Temperance Hospital's reputation was really something, but I didn't think it was just a vain thing, a director actually said such things as the invasion of fatal energy, it's simply a shame.”

Luo Ming's voice was icy cold, obviously already moved with anger.

“Old Luo, don't get excited, it's not too late to listen to Director Lin finish his words first.”

Liu Yue opened her mouth to dissuade her, Lin Ran gave her an impenetrable look, even when Luo Ming was angry like this, his expression did not even rise and fall, as if he was an ocean, making it impossible to see through.

“Fine, I'll hear you out and see what you have to say!”

Luo Ming said coldly.

Qin Bing looked at Lin Ran with disappointment in her eyes, she had originally thought that he was really a divine doctor reincarnated, but now, Lin Ran looked more like a charlatan.

Lin Ran was not angry and looked at Luo Ming and said.

“Sanguine Qi belongs to the realm of physiognomy, I have studied physiognomy a little, since Mr. Luo doesn’t believe in it, I can take a look at it for Mr. Luo first.”

“Fine, I would like to see, the director of Temperance Hospital, can have geometric attainments in physiognomy.”

Luo Ming said in a cold voice.

The more confident Lin Ran was, the angrier he became, he had thought he had come across a miracle doctor, but it turned out that he had actually said that it was a fatal Qi entering his body, how could he not get angry.

“Mr. Luo should be an only son, but not an only child, right!”

Lin Ran spoke.

The moment these words left his mouth, Luo Ming froze, and even Liu Yue at the side froze.

“You... How did you know!”

Luo Ming’s face showed surprise, he was indeed not an only son, he had a brother, but he had died in a car accident when he was a child, nowadays he was the only son in his family, but indeed he was not considered an only son.

Next to him, Qin Bing looked dumbfounded.

How could he really have hit the mark behind the kid’s back?

No, it was a guess, it must have been a blind guess.

In his heart, Qin Bing still did not believe in Lin Ran's phallic skills only.

Luo Ming frowned and spoke after a moment of contemplation.

“No, this kind of thing, although I rarely mention it, can be found out if one has the heart, this can't be counted.”

Sure enough, this kid was really blind.

Hearing Luo Ming's words, Qin Bing was even more certain of the suspicions in his mind.

Lin Ran did not know what Qin Bing was thinking as he looked at Luo Cheng and smiled.

“Mr. Luo has an imposing appearance and a full heavenly court, so he should be rich and noble, but Mr. Luo has few ear lobes, so he should be poor in the early stages and make his fortune in the later stages, and if I am right, he should still have started after marrying a noblewoman.”

Said Lin Ran, looking at Liu Yue, and spoke.

“Your wife, with a calm face, although she does not have a wealthy face, but she was born with a pair of wise eyes, the corners of her eyes are slightly wide, this is a typical face of wise eyes to recognize a pearl, it is because she recognized this pearl of yours that you have been rocketing up since then, did I say it wrong?”

“No... No!”

Luo Ming was dumbfounded, it was true that he had made his fortune after he married Liu Yue, who had helped him with his company and connections, and his company had only grown since then, until now his family had become very wealthy.

“You two are in good health and have a son, but since three years ago, friends and relatives at home have been sick for no reason, although there are no major illnesses, but there are constant minor disasters, am I wrong?”

“You You!”

Luo Ming was completely dumbfounded, since three years ago his son had been frequently sick, so had the couple, but they were all minor illnesses with colds and fevers.

Such things could never be deliberately investigated by Lin Ran, and such things could not be investigated at all.

“Little divine Doctor, I implore you to forgive the small and save my old father!”

His father had worked hard all his life and was his most important family member.

“I don’t know the true skills of the Little Divine Doctor, so I beg his forgiveness for my offensive words.”

Luo Ming pleaded.

Qin Bing looked surprised and looked back, but Lin Ran had already stepped forward and helped Luo Ming up.

“It’s understandable that you don’t believe in the phallic arts coming out of the doctor’s mouth, I’m only saying this for the last sentence.”

Lin Ran said, pointing to the door of the room and said.

“If I am correct, this house, which you should have bought second-hand, is the reason for your family’s change of fortune.”

“And the old man’s situation this time is also related to this house.”

Chapter 24

“The little divine doctor is really a good predictor of things, this house is indeed second-hand.”

Luo Ming said excitedly.

The more accurate Lin Ran’s words were, the higher the ability was proven to be, and the greater the hope of curing his old father’s illness.

“Little divine Doctor, you said that my family’s change of fortune was related to this house, could it be that this house is a murder house?”

Liu Yue hurriedly asked, her mind was delicate and she opened her mouth to hit the nail on the head.

“No.”

Lin Ran shook his head, checking the situation in the room as he said.

“If it was a murderous mansion, it wouldn’t just be sickness, death would be common, this should be a feng shui pattern problem for you.”

Hearing Lin Ran's words, Luo Ming and Liu Yue's hearts couldn't help but lift, standing aside not daring to make a sound to disturb them.

Qin Bing's gaze was cloudy and uncertain, she found herself more and more impervious to Lin Ran, this guy could determine the disease with a single glance, and now he actually knew phrenology, this was simply a bit too unbelievable.

You know, phrenology and medicine have developed to the point where they are two completely incompatible professions, and are even somewhat hostile, with medical students considering each other to be charlatans, and phrenology considering each other to be vain.

But it was these two things that were now both present in a young man.

Qin Bing found that she was becoming more and more interested in Lin Ran.

Lin Ran quickly inspected the room and then stopped at the window, looking out and nodding with a smile.

"Well? Did you find the source?"

Qin Bing asked as she stepped forward.

"Mm."

Lin Ran nodded and pointed out the window.

"Look at that gazebo, guys."

"There's something wrong with that gazebo?"

Luo Ming asked suspiciously, the gazebo was there when he bought the house and had been there for many years.

“Yes, there are eight corners of the gazebo, concealing the eight trigrams of directions, but the one facing Master Luo’s room is broken.”

Lin Ran said.

When the crowd looked, they really found that all eight corners of the gazebo had a round shape, but only the one facing the Luo family was pointed.

“A pointed wind on the side is like a sticking point, although there are no major disasters, light disasters are difficult to stop, this is a typical broken wind.”

Lin Ran said.

With these words, the Qin Bing Luo Ming couple were directly dumbfounded by what they heard.

“So it’s all because of this thing, I’ll have someone go and tear it down now.”

Luo Ming said furiously, he was in charge of Luo’s enterprise, he always planned before he acted, this time he was really concerned and moved with anger.

Liu Yue hurriedly stopped him and said.

“Take it easy for now, listen to the little divine doctor.”

“Right... Yes, do you have a solution, Little Divine Doctor?”

Luo Ming hurriedly asked.

Lin Ran smiled and said.

“That simple?”

Luo Ming was a little surprised, hanging a mirror to ward off, it was too simple, so simple that he couldn’t even believe it.

However, he still asked the butler to quickly fetch the mirror while hanging it up.

As soon as the mirror was hung up, Lin Ran felt the cool air around him dissipate.

“It really seems to be more comfortable.”

Qin Ming said in amazement, the feeling was so subtle that she only vaguely sensed it.

The Luo Ming couple also noticed it and hurriedly came forward, asking.

“Little divine Doctor, then my father’s illness

“Don’t worry, give me three minutes.”

Lin Ran said, already walking over to the bed and taking out three silver needles.

Qin Bing had never seen Lin Ran do acupuncture, and at this point, he couldn't help but look solemn, ready to see how much skill this young man in front of him, who was known as the little miracle doctor, had.

Luo Ming and his wife did the same, they had seen many famous Chinese medicine practitioners, and they could tell the difference between high and low from the imperial needle technique alone.

“Buzz!”

Three silver needles, flicked, a buzzing sounded, followed by Lin Ran moving.

His speed was as fast as lightning, and the three silver needles were fast and slow, but when they were fast, it was like a divine dragon swinging its tail and a phoenix roaring in the sky, and when the three needles settled, there was a faint echo of a dragon chanting and a phoenix singing.

“This is, the Silver Needle Whistle!”

Qin Bing's eyes were rounded with astonishment.

The “Silver Needle Whistle” was an acronym for the resonance that could be emitted from the silver needles when the needles were in motion, and the resonance would not dissipate after the needles had fallen.

When used on Elder Luo, the sound of the dragon chanting and the phoenix chirping could even dispel the wind and evil spirits.

Putting away the silver needles, Lin Ran looked as normal, the silver needle tsunami was just a means to an end and did not consume him much.

“Little divine Doctor, how is it?”

Luo Ming hurriedly came forward.

Lin Ran smiled.

“Ming’er, water.”

As soon as Lin Ran’s words left his mouth, the voice of the old man on the bed rang out.

Luo Ming cried tears of joy and immediately carried the water away, returning with an extra cheque in his hand.

“Little divine Doctor, a small token of respect, but you must accept it.”

Lin Ran glanced at it and couldn’t help but be staggered, the cheque was nine figures, over a hundred million.

Qin Bing gulped as she looked at it. If she accepted this cheque, she would immediately become a billionaire, so there was no need to go to work to earn money.

She decided that Lin Ran would definitely accept it.

Hey, there was no way, taking money from people to eliminate disasters, this money he received as it should be.

“Treating the sick and saving people is the doctor’s natural duty, not to mention that our hospital has a rule that you can’t receive red envelopes from patients’ families, I can’t take this money.”

Lin Ran smiled and refused.

Qin Bing looked dumbfounded, the cheque that could have been over a hundred million, Lin Ran actually refused it outright.

At this moment, she found that she was more and more impervious to this young man in front of her, but the more impervious she was, the more she wanted to see through, and unconsciously Qin Bing found that she actually had a slight interest in exploring Lin Ran.
