

Wonder Doctor Read Online Chapter 3

“Who the f*ck is farting there!”

Li De’s face was grim, and when he turned to find that it was actually Lin Ran, he chided coldly.

“Who let you in! Get out!”

“Eh?”

Lin Ran raised his hand and immediately scared Li De back several steps, the slaps he had just received were still fresh in his mind.

“Li De! This is my student, what’s wrong with you!”

Professor Song’s tone was unkind, Song Nuan on the hospital bed saw Lin Ran and gave a smile, she and Lin Ran had met a few times and knew each other.

Lin Ran didn’t bother to pay any attention to Li De, he handed the list to the professor and then came to the sickbed, he was now in possession of the best medical skills, naturally he couldn’t let Li De, a quack, delay Song Nuan’s condition.

“Lin Ran, what did you just say?”

Professor Song turned to look at Lin Ran, just now he seemed to have heard the latter say that this condition of his granddaughter was not a fracture.

“I said that Xiao Nuan’s leg is not a fracture, I don’t know how this stupid doctor could have said fracture!”

“You! You are a doctor and I am a doctor, I have seen more patients than you have seen people, do you have the right to speak here!”

Li De scolded coldly at his words, then looked at Professor Song and smiled with him.

“Judging from my years of experience in the practice of medicine, your granddaughter’s leg is nine times out of ten broken and needs to be operated on and put in a cast!”

As soon as Song Nuan heard this, she immediately gritted her teeth in anxiety and said.

“I can’t put it in a cast, I have a show for the school opening ceremony tonight!”

"A show? You can't even get out of bed in your current condition, you can't even keep your leg without treatment! You still have a show."

Li De said with a sneer, his tone was irrefutable, but then he was looking at Lin Ran and sneered.

"Of course, if you believe him, then I'm not responsible for any consequences that arise."

"What consequences can there be? I can cure your illness, so can others!"

Lin Ran laughed at his words.

"My illness? What kind of disease do I have!"

Li De looked at Lin Ran and scolded, and then laughed even more coldly.

"You can cure it? Cure with what? With that bookish knowledge you learned in school? Do you know how different what is written in the books is from what is actually written! On the operating table, if you are not careful, you will not only fail to cure the patient's injury, but you may also bring unimaginable disaster to the patient! I ask you, how can you cure what you can cure!"

"You're really not sick?"

Lin Ran smiled lightly followed by raising his fist, under this scene Li De suddenly tensed up, busy backing up a few steps and said.

"This This is a hospital You What do you want!"

Lin Ran didn't pay any attention to him, instead, he turned his head to look at Song Nuan and laughed.

"Watch this!"

After saying that, Lin Ran reached Li De in front of him with an arrow step and raised his palm as if to strike, scaring the latter into immediately opening his mouth to beg for mercy.

"Don't! Don't hit, don't hit if there's something to talk about!"

"See? The stammer is cured!"

Lin Ran got up and laughed, Song Nuan was instantly amused, while Li De was furious and his teeth were itching.

"Grandpa, let's listen to what Lin Ran has to say first, I have a feeling he's not fooling around!"

Professor Song nodded at his words, Lin Ran was his student and he knew his character very well, indeed he was not the kind of person who would spam.

Lin Ran saw this and smiled, then he swirled over to the hospital bed and placed his body hand on Song Nuan's leg.

"You be gentle!"

Song Nuan reminded in a soft voice.

"Don't worry it won't hurt!"

Lin Ran was confident, but Li De on one side sneered.

"It won't hurt? You'll know if it will hurt if you break your own leg and feel it!"

Lin Ran didn't pay any attention to him, his palm lightly touched Song Nuan's leg, and immediately a hot current invaded the latter's leg along his palm, in which the situation was all presented in his mind at a glance.

"It really doesn't hurt hey, it's so warm and comfortable!" Song Nuan said in surprise.

Li De hurriedly came over and looked at Song Nuan in wonder, just now he hadn't even touched it, the latter was in pain and breaking out in cold sweat, but now that he had replaced it with Lin Ran, the latter actually said it was very comfortable.

Li De's face was grim as he stared at Lin Ran, not saying a word.

A moment later, Lin Ran withdrew his palm, breathed a sigh of relief, turned to look at Professor Song and said.

"Professor, Xiao Nuan's injury isn't serious, give me a few minutes and I'll be able to heal it soon."

"Grandpa!" Song Nuan's face showed joy.

Professor Song hurriedly asked "What equipment do you need, I'll contact the dean!"

Lin Ran shook his head "No need for equipment, just prepare a pair of silver needles!"

"You want acupuncture?"

Professor Song was shocked, as a professor of Chinese medicine, he knew very well what silver needles were used for

"Acupuncture? Haha, I thought it was some kind of solution, do you take the professor for a fool?"

Li De laughed as he leaned forward and back, pointing at the hospital bed.

"She's got a muscle strain, if not a fracture, and you want acupuncture, so you want to sew up the bones? Or do you have to sew up the muscle? It's laughable!"

"How many times have I told you, she has misaligned tendons and bones, you either have a fracture or a muscle strain, please, do you have a brain? I really don't know how a dumbass like you got into the position of a physician!"

Lin Ran said disdainfully, shaking his head at the same time.

"You!"

Li De was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

"Is it really not a fracture?"

Professor Song was a little surprised, it was true that they hadn't seen it with their own eyes just now, only that Song Nuan was in so much pain that Li De judged it to be a fracture.

"It's true that it's not a fracture," Lin Ran said, looking at Professor Song.

"What else could it be if it's not a fracture, it hurts so badly! Your bullshit misalignment of tendons is unheard of!" Li De sneered.

"Idiot!"

Lin Ran didn't bother to pay attention to him, slowly walked to the hospital bed, reached out and lifted Song Nuan's leg, the leg was flat as jade very nice, where was the sign of half a fracture.

"How can this be!"

Li De looked pale, but Song Nuan and Professor Song looked happy, especially the former said excitedly "I have no fracture, my leg is fine!"

"Li De, how did you see the doctor, you are simply a quack! I'll call your dean right now!"

Professor Song's face was ugly as he took out his mobile phone and dialed.

Li De sat down on his butt, his face ashen, his heart regretting to the core.

Why hadn't he thought of taking a film to see first, what a big headache to pretend to assert that it was a fracture, this was great, his future was going to be over.

"Lin Ran, Xiao Nuan's leg is not a fracture, how come the pain is unbearable?" Professor Song hung up the phone and asked Lin Ran.

"Xiao Nuan's leg is pain caused by the tendons shifting, use acupuncture to unblock the tendons and bones, the pain will naturally go away." Lin Ran said.

"Then how long will it take to recover?" Song Nuan interjected, very excited.

"It only takes five minutes if it's quick." Lin Ran laughed.

Professor Song was convinced of Lin Ran at this point, and when he saw Li De sitting on the ground, he scolded, "Why are you standing there, why don't you go and prepare the silver needles!"

"Ah? It's Professor I'm on my way!"

Li De was so scared that he ran out of the room and quickly fetched a pair of silver needles, but after opening them, Professor Song was furious.

"You fool, bring a pair of ninth-order silver needles how to use, go get the third-order silver needles!"

Li De was so scared that his face was bloodless, he turned around and was about to go again, but Lin Ran spoke up.

"Professor it's fine, ninth order silver needles are fine!"

"You can use ninth-order silver needles?"

Professor Song was shocked at his words. From ancient times to the present day, there were three levels of acupuncture according to the length of silver needles, namely third-order silver needles, sixth-order silver needles and ninth-order silver needles.

The third-order silver needles were used by students, the sixth-order silver needles were used by masters, and those who could use the ninth-order silver needles were all famous doctors in ancient times.

There are only a handful of people who can use the sixth-order silver needles, let alone the ninth-order silver needles. The Tamkang Hospital has these ninth-order silver needles for people to visit, and the ones used on weekdays are the third-order silver needles.
