

Wonder Doctor Chapters 35-36 -

Chapter 35

“What? Pulmonary fibrosis?”

Hearing this name, Qin Bing froze in his tracks.

Pulmonary fibrosis, a very rare disease, was a serious interstitial lung disease that resulted in progressive loss of lung function due to the proliferation of fibroblasts and the accumulation of large amounts of extracellular matrix, which meant that the normal alveolar tissue was damaged and then repaired abnormally leading to structural abnormalities (scar formation).

“There is no good treatment for this disease, and the patient is now breathing weakly, which is likely to result in insufficient oxygen supply to the whole body and organ necrosis!”

Qin Bing said, his face grim.

“I know, so we don’t have much time, although there are oxygen absorbers, but the longer the Seiya drags on, the worse it will be for the patient’s condition.”

Lin Ran’s face was equally ugly, I’m afraid that this serious illness was the most difficult case he had encountered since he had joined.

“Do you have a solution?”

Qin Bing looked at Lin Ran, if she were to treat the patient, I’m afraid she could only take conservative treatment, unable to treat and cure him, and it was hard to say whether he could even wake up.

“There are a few certainties, I can try!”

Lin Ran nodded his head.

“Good, I’m informing the family!”

Qin Bing said, for this kind of illness where there was no absolute certainty and there were certain risks, they were required to notify the family.

Lin Ran stayed inside the ward, closing his eyes and resting his mind, ready to start the medical treatment later.

After Qin Bing went out, the painful cries of the patient’s family soon rang out from outside.

“Doctor please, you must save my father, my old father and I are the backbone of the family, if he collapses, our family will be finished!”

Lin Ran’s heart sank as he listened, he could tell that the patient’s family was in a bad condition, the man in the family could be said to be the family’s sky, once the man collapsed, a family could be finished.

Qin Bing quickly returned to the ward, only her eyes were a little red.

“Can we start?”

Qin Bing looked at Lin Ran and didn’t say much.

Lin Ran didn’t ask much either, he just nodded and whirled towards the patient.

“Wait a minute!”

Qin Bing suddenly shouted at Lin Ran.

“It must be cured!”

Said Qin Bing and her eyes turned red, Lin Ran understood that this nee-san was anxious for the family outside.

“Don’t worry!”

Lin Ran smiled and nodded, swirling over to the patient’s bed.

The silver needles were already laid out, and Lin Ran’s palm found the right spot on the patient’s chest, took a deep breath, and swirled his palm to pinch the needles up and drop the first one.

Next, Lin Ran’s speed increased violently, like a divine dragon swinging its tail, it was hard to find its whereabouts, only a wisp of residual shadow could be seen flashing past quickly.

Although she couldn’t see Lin Ran’s needle placement technique, the number of silver needles in the patient’s mouth was rapidly increasing.

When Lin Ran stopped his hand movements, more than thirty needles had already fallen densely on the patient’s chest, which was the first time Qin Bing had seen so many needles used at the same time since she had joined the profession many years ago.

“How is the patient?”

At this moment, Dean Yang had already arrived at the news.

Dean Yang was a generous person and never looked at the status of the patient.

“Lin Ran is being treated.”

Qin Bing said in a low voice.

Dean Yang looked at the patient and instantly his face flushed with shock.

“This is the Great Yu Transformation Needle!”

“Dean Yang, what is the Great Yu Transformation Needle.”

Qin Bing asked in confusion.

Dean Yang explained.

“You should know about Dayu, in ancient times, Dayu healed the water three times without entering the house, the Dayu mentioned here is him.”

“What is the relationship between Dayu healing water and Dayu turning needles?”

Qin Bing asked.

“Let me ask you, what is the Great Yu’s philosophy of water healing?”

Dean Yang asked, and Qin Bing pondered for a moment and said.

“It can be dredged but not blocked!”

In fact, she was blindly blurting it out, she was saying it according to the modern concept.

“That’s right, it means that it can be unblocked but not blocked!”

Dean Yang explained with a happy face.

“Pulmonary fibrosis, which can be seen as a blockage in the lungs, the capillaries in the lungs are so small and dense that it is difficult to unblock every single blood vessel by medical means now, but the best treatment is to unblock all the blood vessels.”

“You mean that Lin Ran is unblocking every blood vessel?”

Qin Bing said in surprise.

“That’s right!”

Dean Yang stroked his beard and laughed.

“The Great Yu Needle Technique is a very famous needle technique, which is best at unblocking the meridians and activating blood stasis.

“Is it so mysterious!”

Qin Bing was a bit unconvinced, Lin Ran was still two years younger than herself, and although this guy possessed the best medical books, she was still a bit uncomfortable to say that his medical skills were better than her own.

“If you don’t believe me, watch, within five minutes, the patient will wake up.”

Dean Yang laughed.

Qin Bing couldn’t help but stare intently, wanting to see if Lin Ran was really as mysterious as the dean had said.

When Lin Ran dropped the last needle, his whole body was already a little unsteady on his feet, but luckily Qin Bing was quick on his feet and went forward to help him, so that he didn’t fall down.

“How is it?”

Qin Bing asked.

Lin Ran said.

“I’m asking how you are!”

Qin Bing said helplessly.

“Eh, I’m fine too, I’ll be fine after resting for a while.”

Lin Ran laughed awkwardly and flirted when he saw Qin Bing’s worried look on her face.

“When did you become so concerned about me?”

“Bah! Who cares about you, I’m just afraid that if you’re exhausted, the dean will find me in trouble later, after all, you’re exhausted in the place where I’m on duty.”

Qin Bing said.

Lin Ran smiled helplessly and said no more.

Soon five minutes had passed and Lin Ran’s face had regained its blood colour, he got up and went to the patient’s bed and gently pulled out the silver needle in the patient’s chest.

As the silver needle was pulled out, a stream of dirty blood dripped out, and Lin Ran could even smell a faint smell of tobacco.

“What’s wrong with this?”

Qin Bing asked hurriedly.

Lin Ran waved his hand and said.

“Don’t worry, this is all dirty blood from the capillaries, a small amount will be sent out of the body, the rest will be drained into the body and then drained out.”

“So it’s alright now?”

Qin Bing asked.

Before Lin Ran could answer, the patient lying on the hospital bed was the one who had woken up.

“Where am I?”

The patient asked in confusion, and Qin Bing hurriedly greeted the nurse to come up and check again.

“Go, I’ll take you to rest!”

Qin Bing said.

Lin Ran waved his hand at his words and said.

“No need, go and help the patient with the examination, I’m just over-energetic, I’ll be fine after a meal.”

Saying that Lin Ran turned around and left, he just ran into Dean Yang and wanted to say hello, the latter laughed and said.

“Alright, hurry up and go eat, your body is important!”

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran nodded and smiled as he walked out, only on his way out, Qin Bing shouted from within the ward.

“Hey, don’t forget the meal tonight, 8pm at the Yaxiang Hotel!”

“I!”

Lin Ran wanted to try and see if he could put it off, and before he could finish his sentence, Qin Bing’s voice rang out.

“If you dare not come, I will come to your house to look for you!”

” Huh ? Come come ! Definitely come !”

Lin Ran hurriedly returned.

Just kidding his home lived in a city village, and across the street was Liu Wenjuan, although he hadn’t done anything wrong, but in case Qin Bing found out, there was no guarantee that this nun wouldn’t talk nonsense, and then his innocence would not be preserved.

Chapter 36

After leaving the hospital, Lin Ran found a random restaurant and had a meal.

After finishing the meal and settling the bill, Lin Ran was a bit helpless.

The money he had spent in recent days had not been counted, and he had completely forgotten that he did not have much money on him, and the money he had used in the past few days was still left over from his scholarship.

“Hm? Antique City.”

When they came out, Lin Ran saw the antique city across the road.

When I was in college, I didn't come here too often to play, and there were a lot of antique paintings and calligraphy, as well as many pieces of literature.

There is an old saying that if you are born with godly powers, you are not as good as having a wise eye for pearls.

“Go and try.”

Lin Ran had one in mind and immediately walked towards the antique city.

Although he was carrying a Luo's Supreme Diamond Card, he couldn't live in Luo's business all the time in his daily life, so it was better to earn some money for himself.

The Antique City was overcrowded, and with free air conditioning here in the middle of summer, it was naturally a good place for countless citizens to relax.

Lin Ran did not rush in, and strolled around the stalls on the periphery of the Antique City, where there was a mix of everything, from antique paintings and calligraphy, coins and pottery figurines, to strings of Buddha beads, it could be said that there was nothing you could not see here.

“Hmm ?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran’s eyes were drawn to a ground stall and he immediately walked over.

There were many things casually placed on the stall, and Lin Ran’s gaze was attracted to a jade bracelet.

The bracelet was greyish white in colour and a little rough to the touch, as if it had been corroded by something very corrosive.

However, as Lin Ran held this bracelet, the true qi in his body was faintly running, as if he was attracted to this jade bracelet.

“This jade bracelet is extraordinary! It’s actually a set piece!”

Lin Ran’s heart was astonished.

As his ancestors were doctors of the world, they had seen many exotic treasures, and Lin Ran had discovered the extraordinary nature of the bracelet after just a brief look, but in order to buy it at a low price, he pretended not to see it and shook his head, throwing it back.

The owner, a dark man in his early forties named Oil Black, was a notorious old greaser in this generation, who usually fooled customers with extra things, even students.

“Young man, choose anything you like, low price, pick a few more items and get a discount.”

He said, grinning and revealing a mouthful of yellow teeth, which was extremely uncomfortable to look at.

“Boss, how do you sell these pieces of jade pearls ?”

Lin Ran picked up the two jade pendants next to him and asked with a smile, these two jade pendants looked like watered down goods, deliberately made to be old and used to coax the layman.

But today's Lin Ran was not something he could fool at all.

“Discerning, to tell you the truth, these two pieces are the best I have on this stall, one piece is one thousand eight hundred, both pieces all for a round number, three thousand five hundred.”

As soon as Lin Ran heard this price, he immediately got up and left, and when Oil Blackie saw this, he hurriedly shouted.

“Hey, don't go, the price is negotiable, it's negotiable!”

Once Lin Ran left, he was afraid that someone else would immediately pull him away.

“This is not a matter of negotiation, you are asking for thousands of dollars, do you think a poor student like me can afford it?”

Lin Ran said, pointing to the clothes he was wearing, his clothes were very rustic, but he was used to wearing them and they weren't dirty, so he hadn't changed them.

“And what a skinny monkey, (that means poor).” Oil Blackie sighed in his heart, but it was good to earn money for a drink, so he immediately laughed and said.

“Little brother, I see you have a destiny, so how about this, the two families together for eight hundred yuan, take it if you want it!”

Lin Ran smiled and turned around to leave again, oil black son saw the situation anxiously almost cried, just want to earn squat wine money, how so difficult it is.

“Young man you don’t want to leave in a hurry, you don’t think it’s suitable, then you make a price, I’ll listen.”

“Sure!”

Lin Ran laughed and immediately squatted down in front of the stall, putting the next two jade pendants together and taking the bracelet over, just as he was about to make an offer, suddenly his eyes were on a black box on the side.

The box was black in colour, but the outside was carved with many designs. The overall size of the box was only palm-sized, but the designs were sixteen in number, six on each side and two on each of the narrow sides.

What surprised Lin Ran the most was that one of these patterns was the appearance of a Black Devil Scorpion.

“Boss, I’ll take all of these!”

Lin Ran threw the box together on the jade pendant and pointed at the four items.

“Okay, okay, how about these four pieces add up to eight hundred? This black box and that jade bracelet count as my gift to you!”

Black Oiler laughed, he had received that jade bracelet for fifty dollars, and the black box had only cost five dollars, the two jade pendants were only eighty dollars each, selling them all for eight hundred dollars would be a bloody profit for him.

Lin Ran shook his head at his words and held out three fingers.

“Three hundred at most.”

“Three hundred? Little brother, are you deliberately trying to amuse me...!”

Oil Blackie pretended to be angry, a trick that worked every time, as long as he pretended to be angry, the price would naturally go up.

However, Lin Ran didn't eat this at all, he got up and left, so he shouted bitterly.

“Hey, hey, don't go, 500, 500!”

Lin Ran did not even turn his head back and had already walked out two or three meters.

At this moment the approaching sighing boss was already poised and ready to come forward to pull Lin Ran in.

Seeing this, Oil Blackie slapped his thigh and laughed bitterly in his heart, being able to earn a meal to get by first, he immediately shouted.

“Fine, 300 for 300! Seeing that you look familiar, little brother, consider yourself a friend!”

Lin Ran smiled at his words and turned around.

After paying the money, Lin Ran directly took the items and left the stall.

The two jade pendants were just empty, what Lin Ran really cared about was the bracelet, and the black wooden box, especially the wooden box.

Leaving the outside of the Antique City, Lin Ran went straight into the core area, where there were more old signs, and came here to sell the bracelet he had just received.

Gu Yuzhai, a very famous presence in the Antique City, and the people who came here to buy things were either rich or noble.

When Lin Ran walked in, a shop assistant immediately wanted to greet him, but when he saw Lin Ran's clothes, he immediately shrank back.

Obviously, they did not want to deal with people like Lin Ran who were dressed in ordinary clothes, or even in rags.

In their opinion, a poor student like Lin Ran was just here to open his eyes, and there was no need to introduce him to the service.

Lin Ran also did not care, just so he could stroll around on his own, so he casually strolled around the place.

The whole Gu Yu Zhai is worthy of being the signature of the antique city, Lin Ran has already got a bottom in his mind after a cursory glance, more than 60% of the entire Gu Yu Zhai, are fakes, or high imitation things, only the remaining 40% are real things.

And these things, among the highest value, even Lin Ran looked at can't help but be staggered.

After strolling around Gu Yu Zhai for a while, Lin Ran then came to the front desk, took out the jade bracelet and smiled.

“Hello, I want to sell this jade bracelet.”

The fellow at the front desk was the same one who didn't want to talk to Lin Ran just now.

At this moment, when he saw that Lin Ran actually wanted to sell something, his face was full of impatience, he didn't even bother to raise his head, he just glanced at it and said disdainfully.

“This jade bracelet of yours has a layer of corrosion on it, it's simply rubbish, it's not worth anything, hurry up and take it away, don't delay my business.”
