Chapter 181 Murray, I Will Go With You

After hanging up the phone, Murray's expression is filled with worry and nervousness

He could not believe that Melissa had encountered something as dangerous as an avalanche

How could this be? Shouldn't she be with Jaylin?

Why did he suddenly run to White Mountain? Even if Luca was there, why didn't she tell him? He would send someone over

"Lily, you go back first I have something to do and need to leave for a few days. Murray withdrew his thoughts and looked at Lily who was still standing next to him.

Ryleigh thought, Murray looked so nervous... for the sake of Melissa again

The smile on Ryleigh's face froze

She had heard the conversation between Murray and Nina.

Originally, when Ryleigh heard that Melissa was in danger, she couldn't help but feel good

She heard that Melissa went to White Mountain alone to find someone to treat Marc and encountered an avalanche

She knew that the avalanche was very dangerous.

Perhaps now Melissa had been buried in snow and had become a corpse.

However, Ryleigh was no longer in a good mood when she saw Murray's nervous appearance

Melissa, this bitch, must be looking for Luca to cure Marc, to take credit in front of Murray, and to take back him!

Fortunately, Melissa encountered an avalanche!

Thinking of this, Ryleigh quickly pulled Murray back and pretended to be worried, "Murray, what's wrong?"

"Melissa is in danger. I need to save her." Murray spoke with a firm tone

"I will go with you!" Ryleigh followed Murray

Although Ryleigh thought that Melissa had been buried by snow, what if Murray saved Melissa finally?

How could she give Melissa this opportunity?

"Lily, it's very dangerous there. You stay." Murray stopped and frowned.

"But I worry about you. Murray, have you forgotten? Back then, we were kidnapped together. We agreed to live and die together. Now you went to such a dangerous place alone. How can I be at ease?"

At the mention of what happened that year, Murray felt an inexplicable emotion surge in his heart

He took a deep look at Ryleigh. Then come with me. It's dangerous there. You must be careful.

Ryleigh smiled happily and held Murray's arm. "With you protecting me, I am not afraid of anything!"

"Let's go!" Murray took urgent steps towards the airport.

As he walked, he informed Alex to bring all the bodyguards of the Gibson family to White Mountain to look for Melissa

"Murray, wait for me!" A dark light flashed in Ryleigh's eyes as she quickly caught up.

She had never seen Murray so nervous before. He had always been aloof and graceful.

But as soon as he encountered Melissa, Murray lost his composure.

Ryleigh clenched her fists on the sides of her body.

Unless Melissa was now buried in the snow and could never return, she would not let off Melissa.

No one can take Murray away!

Murray rushed to the small village under the White Mountain as fast as possible.

"Mr. Gibson, you're finally here!" When Nina saw Murray, she immediately flew over to greet him.

"How's the situation now? Have you found Melissa?" Murray asked in a cold voice, with a hint of anxiety and urgency that he had never felt before.

Nina shook her head sadly. "No. We have searched once, but we have not found Melissa."

Before Murray arrived, the rescue team found a helicopter. Nina and a few team members had searched the mountain forest in the helicopter but found nothing.

It had been thirty-six hours since Melissa disappeared, and Nina's heart had been in her mouth.

She couldn't imagine what had happened to Melissa.

"Search again!" Murray's handsome face was livid, and his voice was so cold that did not allow anyone to resist.

He did not believe that Melissa would be in trouble!

Previously, they had encountered so many dangerous situations. They experienced the exploded warehouse and the crashed plane, and Melissa had been fine every time.

This time, Melissa would be all right as ever!

"Murray, don't be too worried." Ryleigh gently pulled Murray's arm and said softly. "Ms. Eugen will be fine."

"Lily, are you tired? Rest for a while and wait for me here." Murray glanced at Ryleigh, who looked tired.

"Murray, where are you going?" Ryleigh saw that Murray wanted to throw her down and asked quickly.

"I'll go find Melissa," Murray said firmly, and his expression looked determined.

"I will go with you!" Ryleigh looked at Murray pleadingly.

What she was most afraid of now was that Murray would find Melissa.

It would be best if Melissa was already a cold corpse. If Melissa was still alive, it was hard to guarantee that they would be together again.

It was not easy for Ryleigh to arrange for Melissa and Murray to cancel the engagement, how could she be defeated this time?

Therefore, she had to always be by Murray's side. On the one hand, she could show that she cared about him. On the other hand, if anything bad happened, she could also adapt to the situation. She could not let Melissa seduce Murray again!

Thinking of this, Ryleigh curved the corners of her lips and said in a sincere tone, "Murray, I know you are worried about Ms. Eugen, and I am also worried about her. Looking at you now, how can I be at ease to stay and rest alone? Let me go with you. The more people, the more power. Maybe I can help."

Nina finally noticed Ryleigh, who was following behind Murray

Seeing Ryleigh's sincere face, as if she cared about Melissa, Nina sneered in her heart.

If she had not heard Melissa talk about Ryleigh before, she would have been fooled by Ryleigh.

It seemed that Ryleigh was not easy to deal with, and it was no wonder that Murray had been cheated by her. He ignored Melissa's feelings on the day of the engagement ceremony and went away with Ryleigh.

It was ironic that Murray ignored Melissa and chose Ryleigh.

However, it was not the time to think about this. The top priority was to find Melissa quickly.

As long as Melissa was found, Melissa would deal with this bitch.

"Let's go!" Murray urged.

He couldn't wait any longer to find Melissa

"Mi Gibson, we can set off at any time," Alex had prepared everything and said respectfully

Chapter 182

Chapter 182 Will You Save Me This Time?

Murray got right up in the helicopter.

The helicopter was flying low. Murray was looking down with a telescope, but the only thing he could see was the white of the snow

Everywhere was covered by the snow Murray could hardly see anything

"Slow down." Murray said dryly. He had to find the clues!

The helicopter went back and forth again and again. But Murray could only see snow

"Murray, we have searched this area many times. We found nothing." Ryleigh said. She was sitting beside

Murray and looking around with a telescope as if she was really looking for Melissa

Ryleigh was happy inside because the mountain was covered by heavy snow. They could barely see a small animal, let alone Melissa Ryleigh thought that Melissa must be buried under the snow!

"Keep going!" Murray snapped.

He was determined to find Melissa!

Murray believed that Melissa must be alive and she was waiting for him to rescue her!

The seconds ticked by, but they still didn't find Melissa. Murray frowned.

He thought that he needed to figure out a better way, or he was wasting time.

Murray was wondering if the helicopter was flying too high in the air, so he couldn't see clearly.

He wanted to go into the mountain to search, which might be helpful.

"Alex, bring me the parachute," Murray said coldly.

Alex was stunned and said, "Mr. Gibson."

Ryleigh's heart skipped a beat. She pursed her lips and interrupted immediately. "Murray, what are you going to do with the parachute?"

"I'll go down and find Melissa," Murray replied firmly.

"No, it's too dangerous. Anxiety flashed in Ryleigh's eyes. She grabbed Murray's hand and said, "Murray, don't do that "I have 10," Murray said dryly.

Ryleigh, I know that you are worried about me. But no one can stop me once I have made up my mind. Murray pushed Ryleigh away gravely.

Seeing Ryleigh's eyes darkening, Murray added, "Relax Ryleigh. I promise you that I will be okay."

"Mr. Gibson, are you really going to parachute to the ground to find Melissa?" Nina checked again because Murray had put the parachute on his back.

Yes.' Murray said without hesitation

"I will do it with you." Nina stepped forward and said to Alex, "Please fetch me a parachute. Thank you."

Alex looked at Murray, hesitating.

Murray frowned and said, "Miss Paul, it is very dangerous."

'Tam not afraid of danger, as long as I can find Melissa. 'Nina looked determined and said, "Mr. Gibson, I am as worried about Melissa as you. You should know how I feel now"

Murray was stunned

He could believe what he had just heard was from Nina,

Nina was the one in charge of Loe Studio

Murray couldn't understand why Nina was so concerned about Melissa's safety

But one thing Murray could be sure that Nina and Melissa were very close because Nina was willing to risk her life for Melissa. Their friendship was sincere

Murray was wondering how much there was that he didn't know about Melissa

But it was not time to think about those things. Murray nodded and said, "Take care."

Then he looked at Alex and said, "Fetch Miss Paul a parachute, too."

Yes, Mr Gibson, Alex said.

Ryleigh looked down through the window and said, "Murray, are you really going to parachute to the ground?"

Murray nodded dryly

The wind died down and the snowstorm began to abate

Alex handed the parachute to Nina and said to Murray, "Mr. Gibson, the snowstorm is about to abate

We can parachute to the ground when the snowstorm abates. Then we could go into the mountain with the rescue team and search."

"I go down first. You can come down when the storm passes!" Murray said. He couldn't wait any longer"

He had to go down immediately Melissa needed help!

The earlier Murray went down to look for Melissa, the sooner Melissa could be rescued

After saying so, Murray turned around and jumped out of the cabin The moment he dove, he released the parachute The whole process went smoothly

Nina followed behind Murray and jumped out of the cabin

"Murray, be carefull" Ryleigh shouted as she clenched her fists.

Her heart sank with Murray's falling body.

Ryleigh was wondering how important Melissa was to Murray?

Murray could risk his life for Melissa and go into the mountain hit by the snowstorm

Ryleigh wanted to go with Murray. But she dared not jump from the helicopter...

In a cave.

Melissa sat beside a heavy stone, thirsty and hungry.

Looking down at her phone, she realized that she had been trapped here for 36 hours.

Melissa tried to call Nina. But there was no signal.

The necklace her grandpa gave her for emergencies fell into the sea in the air crash.

Otherwise, she could use the necklace to ask her grandpa for help.

But now, she could do nothing but wait in the dark cave.

Melissa was worried that Nina couldn't find the signs she left

Things would get worse if the red scarf was blown away by the wind or buried by the snow.

Melissa couldn't help wondering what if no one discovered the signs she left...

She rubbed her eyes, took out the biscuits in her bag, and ate several pieces

There was not much food left. The rest of the food could only support her for several days.

If no one came to rescue her, Melissa was afraid that she would die here.

She thought that she shouldn't wait like this. After having the biscuits, she walked to the entrance of the cave.

The heavy snow had sealed the entrance of the cave.

Melissa pushed it, but it didn't work!

The temperature was very low and the snow was already frozen. It was impossible for Melissa to push open the entrance

Melissa smiled bitterly

The snow was so heavy that I wouldn't melt until next Spring

By then, Mell99a would have turned into a gkelcton

Thinking of this, Melissa felt depressed She returned to the cave, looked around, and wanted to find another way out.

Unfortunately, she didn't find another entrance after a thorough search.

Now, she could only wait...

She hoped that Nina could discover the signs she left.

Melissa told herself not to give up until the last moment,

For some reason, she thought of Murray's handsome face.

She also remembered those words Murray said in the past, "Melissa, don't worry. I will protect you.

"Melissa, you will be safe with me."

Murray's voice was ringing in Melissa's ears.

She closed her eyes.

She felt so depressed that she had difficulty breathing,

Melissa thought, Murray, where are you? I am in danger. Do you know?

Where are you?

Will you save me this time?

Chapter 183

Chapter 183 Melissa, Wait for Me

Murray jumped off the helicopter without hesitation.

This was his second time skydiving,

He had done it once with Melissa

It was urgent and they almost died. Yet Murray was calm and even happy that time.

Because Melissa was with him.

Melissa said to him that she accepted him.

And that they shall never part until death.

Yet this time, Murray's heart was filled with worry, nervousness, and panic. Negative emotions intertwined in every cell of his body.

He was afraid.

He was afraid something would do something to Melissa.

He was afraid he would never see Melissa again.

Murray narrowed his eyes and lowered his head. He gazed at the vast expanse of white below.

Melissa, where are you?

Melissa, wait for me.

Melissa, hold on!

A few minutes later, Murray slowly landed in the forest.

He put away the parachute and put it aside.

Nina followed closely behind and landed.

She lost her balance and slipped. She fell to the ground.

Murray walked over and supported
Nina. He coldly asked, "Are you alright, Miss Paul?"

Nina stood up, patted the snow down on her body, shook her head, and said, "I'm fine, let's go find Melissa

Yes," Murray responded and looked around to observe the terrain

Their current location was the only way from the small mountain village to Jade Mountain

According to the time that Melissa entered the mountain that day, she should have passed here.

Unfortunately, everything was covered by the snow

"Let's search in the direction of Jade Mountain from here Melissa should be in this area." Murray thought for a moment and said in a deep voice

"Alright" Nina nodded and agreed with Murray's analysis,

"Now that the wind and snow have basically stopped, I believe that it won't be long before Alex and the rescue team will arrive." Murray spoke again with his cold and firm tone, "As long as we don't let go of every place, we will definitely find Melissa,"

Murray's words made Nina inspired.

He was right, the more people, the more power. When the wind and snow stopped, everyone would come into search and rescue. As long as they searched every place, they would definitely find Melissa!

"Melissa! Melissa! Where are you?" Murray and Nina shouted as they walked forward, "Melissa, answer me!"

At this moment, Murray wished that Melissa could hear his voice and answer him

Unfortunately, the only reply he received was his own echo.

Because of the avalanche, the thick snow on the road went up to Nina's thighs. Her every step was extremely difficult

She gritted her teeth and insisted on following behind Murray

Murray turned around. Seeing Nina's difficult action, he frowned and said, 'Miss Paul, you can step on my footprints and walk more easily.'

Nina nodded and stepped on Murray's footprints step by step. It was indeed much easier.

Looking at Murray, Nina thought he still cared about and was worried about Melissa

Nina really didn't know why they were being like this.

"Miss Paul, are you alright?" Murray saw that Nina was in a daze and he stopped

"I'm fine Let's go." Nina was back and quickened her pace, afraid that she would hold him down.

They walked forward for a long time until it was almost dark, but they could not find any trace of Melissa

"Mr Gibson, don't you think Melissa .. met something?" Nina's voice sounded like she was crying,

She was really scared.

If they couldn't see clearly on the helicopter before, now they had carefully searched for the road that Melissa had walked on and still found nothing

Unless Melissa did not walk this path. Otherwise.. she would be buried in the snow.

It was impossible to find anything

Nina didn't dare to think further

"Nothing will happen to Melissa" Murray said firmly, his face was aching

His face had never been so cold

A sense of powerlessness that Murray had never felt before spread throughout him

He had tried his best, but there was still no news from Melissa

But no matter what, even if it was difficult, he would not give up!

Because Murray believed that Melissa was still alive!

She must still be somewhere, waiting for him to go save her.

"Let's go back. Maybe Melissa didn't take this path." Murray frowned,

"But this is the only way to Jade Mountain." Nina said in a somewhat dejected voice, "If Melissa went to look for Mr Luca, she would definitely take this path."

"Maybe she got lost and went in another direction." Murray's eyebrows twitched a few times

"No. Melissa is a very organized person. She has a compass and would not get lost or go to other roads" Nina shook her head

They had searched all over this road yet Melissa was nowhere to be found

Even though Murray knew that everything Nina said was the truth, he just did not want to believe that Melissa would be buried in the snow.

"Let's search again!" Murray said coldly. No matter what, he must find Melissa today!

Nina nodded as she followed behind Murray

Just as they returned, they encountered Alex bringing a large group of people over.

Murray walked over quickly, "How is it? Is there any news about Melissa?"

Alex replied dejectedly, "No

"Even if I have to flip over the entire mountain, I have to find Melissa Murray's deep eyes flashed with incomparable determination

"Ray. It's getting dark. Why don't we go back and rest first? We'll come back tomorrow to find Ms. Eugen" Ryleigh walked over with Alex She trembled as she spoke

It was so cold. She was about to be frozen if it wasn't for Murray, Ryleigh would not want to stay any longer.

"Ryleigh, why are you here too?" Murray was slightly surprised to see Ryleigh Ryleigh walked up to Murray and leaned against him, shivering She said shyly. "Ray. I'm worried about you and Ms Eugen'

Nina didn't want to see Ryleigh acting like that, she urged, "Mr. Gibson, there are so many people now let's go find Melissa Ryleigh glad at Nina, "Miss Poul. I understand your feeling Of course, we have to go look for Ms Eugen, but have you heard that haste makes waste?

"Now that everyone is so tired, why don't we take a break and eat something. Only then will we have the energy to look for Ms. Eugen. Ray, am I right?"

Chapter 184

Chapter 184 It's Melissa's Scarf

Even Nina felt that Ryleigh's words made sense.

"Let's keep searching. Murray's face darkened.

He couldn't wait, because Melissa won't be able to wait.

One more minute wasted, Melissa would be in more danger!

Therefore, even though

Murray was already very tired, when he thought about how dangerous Melissa was, he would not stop for even a minute.

"How about we split into four groups and search in four different directions," Murray said soberly.

It was a great expanse of forest, and he had to ensure that he did not miss every inch of it.

"Murray, I will go with you." Ryleigh pulled Murray and clung to him tightly.

She hoped that Melissa would never be found.

Even if Melissa was not been crushed to death by the heavy snow, she might have starved to death after such a long time.

"Lily, this place is very dangerous. You have to be careful and follow me." Murray nodded.

Ryleigh felt warm in her heart. She raised the corners of her lips and revealed a smile in a way that she found her most charming. "Murray, you are so kind to me."

The four groups went in different directions to search for Melissa. Murray led Nina and the others in searching in the direction that Melissa was most likely to be.

With the help of Alex and the others, they combed the forest.

The sky was gradually darkening,

There was still no news of Melissa.

“Murray, I’m afraid.” Ryleigh looked around. It was dark. She could not help but shiver. She leaned into Murray’s arms. “Could there be any wild beast?”

Murray was jolted.

The beast..

He had never thought before if Melissa would encounter a beast.

If she encounters a beast...

Murray’s darkened face suddenly turned even darker.

He was dressed in a black suit and almost blended into the night

Don’t worry, there are no beasts here” a villager who came with Alex said. There are only a few small animals and they are not a threat to humans.”

Murray breathed a sigh of relief

“But it’s dark now, If we kept searching, it would be ineffective. Why don’t we return to the village first and come back tomorrow morning?’ The villager asked tentatively.

“He is right.” Ryleigh immediately agreed. “It’s dark and we can’t see anything How can we find people? It’s better to have a good rest tonight and recharge ourselves so that tomorrow we would have more energy to keep searching.”

“Keep searching now, don’t stop!” Murray’s face darkened, and his tone was firm and unquestionable

At that moment, he had just one belief, which was he must find Melissa as soon as possible!

As Murray ordered, everyone else turned silent.

No matter how unwilling Ryleigh was, she could only follow Murray and walk forward step by step.

Throughout the night, they found nothing

The east gradually revealed a morning grey. The long-lost sun finally poked its head out.

The sky is clear! Alex shouted excitedly.

“Great! When the sun comes out, the ice and snow will melt. We will have a much greater chance of finding Melissa.” Nina revealed a smile.

Murray’s face was still darkened.

Although the weather had cleared up, the temperature was still low

It would take a few days for the ice and snow to melt, Melissa did not have much food, she could not hold on for so long

After the continuous search, everyone was exhausted, but Murray still stuck it out.

“Murray, I, I can’t take it anymore... I’m so tired.... Ryleigh grabbed Murray by the arm and said pitifully

“Lily, hold on a little longer. Or you can go back first,” Murray said as he turned to look at Lily

“No, I want to be with you.” Ryleigh shook her head and refused

The other three groups of people finished searching and returned.

*How is it?” Murray’s eyes flashed, and he asked anxiously.

The leaders of those three groups shook their heads, I’m sorry, Mr. Gibson. We find nothing

“Why didn’t you continue searching if you didn’t find her?” Murray frowned

Mr Gibson, we’ve searched the entire mountain, but — you’d better prepare for the worst. Ms. Eugen might

Before the leaders could finish speaking. Murray interrupted coldly, “impossible!”

Melissa couldn’t be dead!

Melissa must still be alive!!

Murray's eyes were bloodshot, and he shouted somewhat irrationally, "I repeat, Melissa is fine! She must still be alive, waiting for us somewhere to save her! No one is allowed to give up."

"Mr Gibson, we will not give up." Alex stepped forward and said

He had never seen Mr. Gibson break down like this.

If something happens to Ms Eugen.. Alex did not dare to think further.

The afternoon

The sun was particularly dazzling

The wind blew through the leaves, and the snow fell as they rustled.

"Melissa, Melissa! Where are you?" Murray shouted again and again, but there was no response.

Melissa, where are you?

Can you answer me?

Wait a minute :

In the distance, what was that wisp of red fluttering on the tree?

Murray stopped in his tracks, narrowed his eyes slightly, and used his hand to block the sunlight as he looked into the distance

"Murray, what's wrong?" Seeing Murray suddenly stop, Ryleigh, who had been following him, asked curiously.

Murray's heart suddenly beat fast.

"Look, what is that?" His slender fingers pointed at the looming red on the tree in the distance.

Looking in the direction where Murray pointed, Nina saw that there seemed to be a red thing tied to the big tree, which was somewhat familiar,

That seems to be Melissa's!" Nina's voice was extremely excited as she flew towards the tree

If she wasn't mistaken, it seemed to be the scarf that Melissa wore the day she disappeared!

Melissa!

Murray's expression turned sober, and he strode forward with his long legs, running all the way

When he reached the bottom of the tree, he saw clearly that it was a red scarf tied high above the treetops

Is Melissa's! This is Melissa's scarf! Nina remembered very clearly that when Melissa went to the mountain that day, she wore that red scarf on her neck!

"It must be the signal Melissa left for us!" Nina said excitedly.

Yes, it's Melissa's!" Murray said in a sober tone, "Since Melissa left us a signal, she must be nearby. Let's search around!"

"But it doesn't seem like there are people here," Ryleigh bit her lip and dampened Murray's hope, "I can see the end of this place with just one look, how can there be anyone? Unless ... it is under the heavy snow.

Chapter 185

Chapter 185 Find Melissa

"No, Melissa must be somewhere around here! Murray said firmly

He had this feeling that he could find Melissa soon and save her!

Looking up at the red scarf dancing in the wind, Murray felt frustrated.

He blamed himself for not discovering the red scarf as early as possible

Murray thought that the situation must be very urgent when Melissa left the scarf here and Melissa was waiting for him to save her.

However, he took such a long time to find it. It had been two days since Melissa disappeared.

He could not wait any longer!

"Why didn't we find the red scarf earlier?" Nina said in regret.

The red scarf must have been covered by the snow, or we would have discovered it earlier, Alex analyzed, "The snow began to melt when the sun rose this morning. It was the wind that blew the scarf away, so we could see it."

"You made a point," Murray said in agreement.

But they still couldn't find Melissa.

Murray frowned. His gaze was fixed on those villagers who came to help. He said, "Think about it. Is there any place where people can hide?"

"Ah, here is one place!" One of the villagers said excitedly, "Right next to this road, there is a cave. Last summer, I went into the cave when I was in the mountain to look for herbs.

Murray was so happy to hear it.

He thought that the cave was critical

Murray thought that Melissa was very likely staying in the cave!

"Where is the cave?" Murray asked eagerly.

"It is nearby." A villager scratched his head and said, "I am not sure where it exactly is."

Murray swore in his heart!

That was not the answer he wanted to hear.

However, Murray was still happy that there was a clue.

Murray was very sure that Melissa was very likely hiding in the cave And Melissa must have hidden in the cave before the avalanche

The villager tilted his head and thought about it for a while. Then he pointed to the right and said, "It might be in this way

After the villager said so, Murray ran in the direction at once

"Melissa! Melissa! Are you here? Melissa, answer me! Murray shouted

He paused and looked back, saying. 'Alex, come over. Let's get the snow away!"

In the cave

Melissa was leaning against a stone and resting with her eyes closed.

She could hear someone's vague but charming voice

The sound was ethereal and weak.

Melissa felt like she was dreaming

However, the voice was so familiar.

She realized that it was from Murray!

Melissa woke up suddenly. She walked to the entrance immediately and listened to it carefully.

"Melissa Melissa! Where are you?" Murray was still shouting.

This time, Melissa was sure that it was Murray!

Murray was here to save her!

Melissa was overjoyed.

"Murray, is that you?" Melissa's voice was trembling

After being trapped in the cave for two days, Melissa's voice was a little hoarse.

Murray. I am here!" Melissa tried to raise her voice, but she was so weak.

Melissa didn't know what to do.

She had to figure out a way to tell Murray that she was here

Melissa took a deep breath, trying to calm down.

Looking down at the phone in her hand, Melissa opened her phone and played music as loud as possible

Melissa hoped that Murray could hear it.

Murray was still searching for the entrance of the cave when he heard the music inside the cave

Although the voice was very soft, he still heard it

It was Melissa's favorite song!

Melissa, it is Melissa!" Murray's eyes were brimming with happiness. He looked back and shouted. You all come over Melissa is here!"

"let's take the snow away" Murray ordered coldly

He felt so energetic when he was digging in the snow

His hands were red from the cold. But Murray didn't care about it at all

He only knew that Melissa was right on the other side of the snow

Melissa was trapped in the cave

There was a sleep away between them

Other people came over and helped Murray take away the snow blocking the entrance

The song was getting clearer,

"Melissa, I am here! You have to hold on!" Murray said in the direction of the song

Inside the cave, Melissa heard Murray clearly

Her heart skipped a beat.

This was the first time Melissa felt relieved after two days of nervousness,

She could leave the cave!

Murray was here to save her!

"Hurry up! Hurry up!" Murray urged. He was eager to see Melissa.

"Mr. Gibson, it won't work. It is time-consuming.* Alex felt that his hands had frozen, but the snow blocking the entrance barely moved.

After a while, Alex said. "How about I go back to the village for some tools?"

"Move Theni" Murray glanced at Alex coldly

All his haste was of no use Murray was so worried about Melissa that he took the most primitive way to save Melissa

Aler took several villagers back to the village for tools, while Murray was still digging the snow with bare hands

"Murray, you should have some resi We can wait until Alex brings some tools over," Ryleigh said

Ryleigh's eyes dimmed

She was surprised that Melissa was still alive!

Ryleigh found Melissa so tough that an avalanche didn't kill her!

Ryleigh clenched her fists when she saw Murray being like this as if nothing mattered to him in front of

Melissa

Ryleigh thought that she would not let Melissa take Murray away from her.

"Ryleigh, you can have some rest," Murray said, a little impatient.

The only thing Murray was thinking about was saying Melissa as soon as possible !

Soon, Alex came back with tools like shovels. He said, "Mr. Gibson, use this!"

With these tools, it was much easier,

About an hour later, they finally cleared the snow away and found the entrance.

A ray of light came through the entrance, which dazzled Melissa's eyes.

She narrowed her eyes. It took her a while to get used to the light.

When she opened her eyes again, she saw Murray walking over. He was still so tall and strong.

Melissa couldn't believe that Murray was here!

Even though she had known that Murray was outside, she was still surprised,

But the moment she saw Murray in person, Melissa rubbed her eyes, trying to see clearer in case it was an Illusion.

Melissa's eyes were brimming with tears. She pursed her dry lips and said in a trembled voice, "Murray, is it you?

Melissa looked at the tall and familiar figure in front of her and felt like she hadn't seen him for a lifetime.

"Melissa, it's me!" Murray said, his voice sounding magnetic.

He raised his eyebrows and stared at Melissa.

After a few days, Melissa turned much slimmer.

Her face became even paler after staying in the cave without sunshine.

Her beautiful eyes were slightly red. She controlled her tears from falling.

Melissa was so thin. It felt like the wind could blow her away at any moment.

With one step, Murray stood in front of Melissa. Without hesitation, he pulled her into his arms.

Once again, they hugged each other tightly. Murray's embrace was still so warm and broad, and it still made Melissa feel inexplicably at ease.

His heart started to beat faster as if a little deer were running inside.

were

There were thousands of words in her mind, but she did not know how to speak them out.

Why did Murray suddenly appear here?

Why did he come to her rescue?

Had he forgiven her for making Marc ill?

Melissa's mouth was half-parted. She asked, "I ... am not dreaming, am I?"

"Of course not." Murray held Melissa tightly with both hands and whispered in her ear, "Melissa, I finally found you. Do you know how worried I am?"

Feeling the scorching warmth from Murray, Melissa's originally pale face flushed red.

His warmth was so familiar and real.

It was indeed Murray!

He saved her.

When she was almost desperate, he appeared in front of her like a god and saved her.

"Murray, how did you know I was here?" Melissa pursed her lips and looked up at him, "I thought would never see you again..."

"That won't happen." Murray raised his eyebrows, and his deep eyes fell on her face.

With their eyes met, thousands of words had been said,

Murray cupped Melissa's lace with both hands and lowered his head slightly. His lips slowly kissed Melissa's lips.

Looking at the familiar handsome face that was constantly coming closer to her, Melissa's face suddenly flushed.

"Murray!" Just as Murray was about to kiss Melissa, Ryleigh's voice came over.

Murray?

It was Ryleigh!

Why was Ryleigh here?

Melissa's heart tightened bit by bit.

She gently pushed Murray away and looked back, only to see Ryleigh walking towards her expressionlessly.

Seeing the harsh scene, Ryleigh was burning with jealousy.

She had thought that Melissa had been buried in the avalanche. She had not expected that Murray would find Melissa!

Even so, he was able to find her!

She didn't die.

And she couldn't wait to seduce him.

After much effort, Ryleigh suppressed the jealousy in her heart and quickly walked to Murray.

She pulled on Murray's sleeve and forced herself between Murray and Melissa, "Murray, it's good that Ms. Eugen is fine. You don't have to worry now. As long as Ms. Eugen finds Mr. Luca, Mr. Marc will be saved."

Ryleigh's words implied that Murray was here to save Melissa because he was looking for Mr Luca.

Murray returned to his senses and nodded lightly, "Lily, thanks for your help on this journey"

"Murray, as long as I can help you, nothing matters. I'm willing to give my everything to you." Ryleigh looked at Murray affectionately, "I know you are the same for me You once said that you are willing to do anything for me."

Murray frowned "Lily, let's not talk about this for now"

He looked at Melissa awali and said with content, "Melissa, you must be tittelalter beintapped for so long Why don't we go back and rest first."

Before Murray could finish his words, Ryleigh suddenly fell on him and said in a weak voice, "Murray, I'm so uncomfortable..."

"Lily? Lily, what's wrong?" Murray was shocked and involuntarily held Ryleigh up.

Ryleigh was cold, her face was pale, and her eyebrows were tightly closed. She fainted.

"Lily!" Murray hugged Ryleigh, his eyes flashing with nervousness and worry.

"Mr. Marc, Ms. Sofia probably fainted because she was overly fatigued and was not used to the cold weather," Alex said.

"Where is the nearest hospital?" Murray asked in a cold voice.

"There is no hospital in the village, and the nearest one is downtown. Now that the snow is blocking the road, I'm afraid the ambulance couldn't come here." A villager answered.

Looking at the unconscious Ryleigh, Murray suddenly remembered the scene when he and Lily were locked in the little darkroom.

Back then, he was unable to save Lily. Now, he couldn't let anything happen to Lily.

"Alex, call a helicopter and send Lily to the hospital as soon as possible," Murray muttered.

"Yes, Mr. Gibson," Alex replied respectfully.

Seeing Murray holding Ryleigh nervously, Melissa's mood seemed to fall from heaven to hell.

Murray cared for Lily the most.

Melissa had just experienced a narrow escape and almost died in the avalanche.

Yet the one he was holding right now was Ryleigh.

"Melissa." Nina walked up to Melissa and patted her shoulder.

Melissa returned to her senses and smiled bitterly, "I'm fine."

Nina pouted in Ryleigh's direction and whispered in Melissa's ear, "Does she really faint?"

A mocking, smile appeared on Melissa's face. She walked up to Murray and looked down at Ryleigh in his arms. "Murray. Get out of the way. Let me see her."

Murray looked up at Melissa and said, "Okay, check on her."

He almost forgot that Melissa had some medical skills.

Melissa sat down and checked for Ryleigh's pulse.

Her pulse was flat and soothing, and there was nothing, WTON

Sure enough, she was pretending.

"How was her?" Murray couldn't help but ask when he saw that Melissa was silent for a long time.

Melissa smiled coldly and ignored Murray. She just called Alex, who was about to head for downtown, "Alex, don't bother. I can cure Ms. Sofia."

Alex stopped and looked at Murray in puzzlement.

"What happened to Lily?" Murray asked.

"She's fine," Melissa said indifferently.

The next second, Melissa's eyes turned cold. She raised her right hand and punched Ryleigh heavily in the chest

Chapter 187 The Complicated Love Quadrangle

Melissa's punch came too sudden that no one could respond, including Murray.

Melissa only used thirty percent of her strength. Even so, Ryleigh still trembled in pain and could not help but shout, "Ah!"

"There she wakes." Melissa clapped her hands and stood up.

Ryleigh's face alternated between blue and white. She glared at Melissa fiercely, "Melissa, how could you hit me!"

Melissa looked down at Ryleigh and said sarcastically, "Ryleigh, didn't you faint? How did you know that I hit you?"

Anyone with a bit of common sense would know that an unconscious person could not feel pain.

Ryleigh reacted so much after taking a punch, which could only mean that she did not faint just now.

Seeing Murray looking at her with a bit of scrutiny, Ryleigh hurriedly grumbled, "Murray, did I faint just now? I suddenly lost consciousness and didn't know anything. Then I was beaten by Ms.

Eugen as soon as I woke up. It hurts!"

"Why is Ms. Eugen doing this to me?"

"To save her, I have been searching with you for so long, cold, freezing, and starving. I am almost dying. It was not easy to save Ms. Eugen, is this how she treats me?"

Murray was speechless for a moment. Ryleigh had indeed always been by his side, searching for Melissa with him.

He did not expect that the so-called treatment of Melissa was to give Ryleigh such a punch.

Seeing Ryleigh playing innocent, Melissa could not help but retort, "Ms. Sofia, you should not say that. When did I hit you?"

"I'm just treating your illness. Look at you, aren't you in high spirits now? You accompanied Murray to save me, and now I saved you too. We're even."

After saying that, Melissa ignored Ryleigh and took Nina's hand, "Nina, let's go to find Mr. Luca."

"Aren't you going back to rest?" Nina asked in surprise.

After all, Melissa had just been saved and had been trapped in the cave for two whole days. Right now, she looked haggard.

"I want to find Mr. Luca as soon as possible," Melissa shook his head.

No matter what, Melissa wanted to find Mr. Luca as soon as possible and ask him to treat Mr. Marc.

"Melissa, I will go with you." Murray suddenly said in a low voice.

Before Melissa could say anything, Ryleigh grabbed Murray and covered her chest, "Murray, don't

1. go. I'm in pain. I'm in so much pain because of Melissa."

Murray frowned, "Lily, I will let Alex send you back first. When I find Mr. Luca, I will go to you."

Seeing that Murray insisted on going with Melissa to look for Mr. Luca, Ryleigh's eyes flashed with a hint of sinister light.

“Murray, you once said that you would protect me for the rest of your life. You said that you would love me forever. Now, you want to leave me alone...”

All of these words fell into Melissa’s ears, which were so harsh.

Murray had once said something like that to Melissa.

“Melissa, don’t be afraid. I will protect you.”

“Melissa, I love you. I will make you the happiest woman in this world.”

However, he had also said those to Lily.

Taking a deep breath, Melissa drove away all the unhappy emotions in her heart and turned to look at Nina, “Nina, let’s go!”

Melissa pulled Nina and turned to leave.

Staring at Melissa’s indifferent back, Murray spoke to Ryleigh somewhat absent-mindedly, “Lily, listen to me and go back with Alex.”

“Murray!” Ryleigh clenched her fists tightly.

Melissa, it was because of Melissa again!

Why?

Why did Murray care about Melissa so much?

Under Rylciph’s jealous gaze, Murray caught up with Melissa and said in a deep voice, “Melissa, I will go with you to find Mr. Luca.”

Melissa stopped in her tracks and turned to look at Murray indifferently, “No need. Mi Luca doesn’t like strangers. You should go accompany your sweetheart Lily.”

“Lily and ...” Justas Murray was about to explain, an anxious male voice suddenly came from the distance.

Chapter 187 The Complicated Love Quodhangla

"Melissa!"

This voice...

Melissa followed the voice and saw Jaylin rushing towards her.

"Jaylin, why are you here?" Melissa was surprised.

Jaylin rushed over, "I saw the news and realized that something bad had happened to you. Why are you so silly? Why didn't you tell me?"

Previously, when Melissa suddenly left with Nina, Jaylin did not know where Melissa had gone.

When Jaylin saw the news, he found out that something went wrong and rushed over immediately.

Unexpectedly, it was still too late and Murray save Melissa first.

Melissa thought for a moment and smiled, "I didn't want you to worry, so I didn't tell you."

After a pause, Melissa continued, "Jaylin, I'm fine. Now, we are going to find Mr. Luca. You can go back first."

"Melissa, I'll go with you." Jaylin's eyes fell on Melissa's face.

After thinking for a moment, Melissa nodded, "Let's go!"

Murray's handsome face suddenly darkened.

Just now, Melissa refused to go with Murray because Mr. Luca didn't like to see strangers.

But now, she allowed Jaylin to accompany her?

So it meant that Murray was a stranger, but Jaylin was not?

Melissa, Nina, and Jaylin walked in the direction of the Jade Mountain together.

"Melissa, why are you so silly? You came here alone. Why didn't you tell me? Why didn't you let me accompany you?" When he thought of how Melissa had almost died from an avalanche, Jaylin felt a lingering fear.

Before Melissa could speak, Nina furrowed her brows, "Mr. Segar, Melissa has just had a narrow escape. Can't you just leave her alone?"

"Sorry, Melissa." Jaylin was stunned for a moment and then quieted down.

Nina was still thinking about what had just happened, "Melissa, you should let Murray go with you."

"Why?" Melissa pursed her lips.

Nina sighed, "Can't you tell that he cares about you a lot? Also, everyone knows that Ryleigh wanted Murray. Aren't you pushing Murray to Ryleigh?"

Melissa understood what Lily meant, but as soon as she thought of what Ryleigh had said and how Murray had been so nervous about Ryleigh, Melissa would feel unease.

"You shouldn't push Murray away just for a moment of anger," Nina said exasperatedly.

"Nina, what did you say? Murray loves Melissa. Don't talk nonsense." Jaylin was no longer calm.

Nina knew that Jaylin loved Melissa, but Melissa loved Murray, and now there was Ryleigh...

Nina could only shake her head helplessly at the complicated love quadrangle.

Chapter 188 Have You Seen My Parents?

Melissa, Nina, and Jaylin walked forward. At this moment, the ice and snow had not completely melted. They stumbled along the way. It was especially difficult for Melissa to walk.

"If I knew this would happen, I would have asked Murray to send us here with a helicopter," Nina complained.

Nina thought, It is better to let Murray send us over rather than messing around with Ryleigh.

After all, they were looking for Luca to save Marc.

Murray was responsible for sending them over.

Melissa's face paled. She frowned and looked around. "It should be somewhere near here."

"Are you sure? This place is covered in snow and it looks like a barren land. There doesn't seem to be anyone here."

"According to Cathy, it should be here." Melissa paused.

"Melissa, is it here?" Jaylin, who had been silent the entire time, suddenly asked in a low voice as he pointed forward.

Following the direction Jaylin pointed out, behind the dense forest nearby, they saw a small wooden house.

There was a completely different view on the other side of the forest.

"It should be here!" Melissa's said excitedly.

She went forward and knocked on the door. "Hello?"

There was no response.

"Could there be a mistake? Maybe this is not the right address," Nina asked worriedly.

Melissa put on a gloomy face. She did not give up and continued to knock on the door. He raised his voice allude "Hello? Mr. Luca, are you inside?"

After a while, the door creaked open. A middle-aged man with gray hair appeared

The man had straight eyebrows and bright eyes. He also had a beard. He looked very similar to the Luca in Melissa's memory, just much older

Melissa derged in her heart, Irishin!

Mr. Luca!

Mr Marc can be saved!

"Mr. Luca, do you remember me?" Melissa asked, a little agitated.

"Are you Rachel?" Luca narrowed his eyes in shock. He stared at Melissa and muttered excitedly, "Rachel, Rachel..."

Rachel?

Who is that?

"Mr. Luca, don't you recognize me? I'm Melissa," Melissa asked.

"Melissa? Oh, it's you," said Luca calmly, his eyes flashing with disappointment.

"Yes, it's me. Mr. Luca, do you remember me?

I was seriously ill when I was a child. You saved me and then taught me medicine," Melissa said anxiously. She was afraid that Luca had forgotten about her.

Luca nodded. He looked at Melissa from head to toe and said with emotion, "You've grown up. Come in first."

Seeing that Luca

knew her, Melissa relaxed and turned to Nina and Jaylin, "You guys can wait for me outside."

She knew Luca. He didn't like strangers.

Melissa walked into the house and Luca slammed the door.

"Take a seat. How do you know I am here?" Luca pointed at the wooden stool in the room.

Melissa sat down and said straightforwardly, "Actually, I came here this time because I have something to ask of you."

"You want me to treat someone?" Luca knew what Melissa came for, but refused, "Go back. I won't leave here."

Melissa eagerly pleaded, "Mr. Luca, I know my request is very abrupt, but Mr. Marc is in danger. Only you can save him. Can you help me?"

"Mr. Marc? Marc Gibson?" Luca frowned and asked.

"Yes, Mr. Marc and my grandpa are good friends. Mr. Luca, could you please save him? For my grandpa's sake." Melissa grabbed Luca's arm and pleaded.

After all, Melissa was responsible for Marc's illness. If Luca refused to treat Marc, she would feel guilty for the rest of her life.

Feeling the temperature on Melissa's hand, Luca's thoughts drifted away

"Luca, save him! Please save him.."

Chapter 188 Have You Seen My Parinta?

Rachel also used to grab his arm and beg him to save her sweetheart.

Looking at Melissa, who looked like Rachel so much, Luca sighed softly. He thought for a moment and finally nodded.

"Mr. Luca, did you agree?" Melissa was delighted.

"Yes," Luca replied calmly.

"Thank you, Mr. Luca." Melissa finally felt relieved.

"Can we go to Aldness as soon as possible?" Melissa asked, smiling.

Now that she had found Luca, the sooner they got to Aldness, the earlier Marc could get better.

"I'll have to pack first." Luca stood up. He took a wooden box from his room and carried it on his back.

Melissa recognized that it was Luca's medical kit.

"Melissa, do you remember what happened in the past?" Luca suddenly asked.

Melissa thought, Does he mean the things before my illness?

Melissa looked down in disappointment. "I don't remember many things when I was a child. Grandpa said that it was the aftereffect of that illness. Is that true?"

"Yes. Let's go." Luca nodded perfunctorily.

"Mr. Luca, have you seen my parents? What do they look like?" Melissa asked after hesitating for a moment.

She had asked Enoch this question before. But every time, Enoch would either change the topic or get angry

So Melissa did not dare to ask again, afraid that it would cause Enoch to be sad.

But maybe Luca knew something and would tell her.

"No. When I went to your house, there were only you and your grandfather," Luca looked away and His answer made Melissa disappointed.

Melissa was sure that Luca was hiding something from her.

Melissa thought, What was he hiding?

Melissa knew Luca if Luca did not want to tell her about it, it would be useless for her to ask him

Melissa thought, Forget about it. The most important thing now is to hurry back to Aldress so that Mr. Luca can save Mr. Marc.

Melissa and Luca walked out of the house together. Nina and Jaylin hurriedly came up to them.

"This is Mr. Luca. Mr. Luca, they are my friends, Nina and Jaylin." Melissa introduced herself with a smile.

"Mr. Luca, we have heard so much about you." Nina and Jaylin admired Luca's medical skills.

However, Luca only glanced at Nina and Jaylin indifferently.

Nina and Jaylin had also heard from Melissa that Luca had a strange temper. They looked at each other and silently followed Melissa.

Back at the village, just at the intersection, a tall and straight figure suddenly appeared in front of Melissa and stopped her.

"Murray, what are you doing?" Melissa frowned.

"I am waiting for you," Murray spoke with a heavy tone.

"Don't worry. I've already found Mr. Luca. He promised to go to Aldness with me to save Mr. Mare." Melissa said indifferently.

Chapter 189 Nightmares

Murray's deep eyes flashed with surprise. He looked at the middle-aged man behind Melisa.

If he was not wrong, this unremarkable-looking man should be Luca.

Murray took a step forward and said in a respectful tone, "Mr. Luca, thank you."

"If you want to thank anyone, you should thank Melisa." Luca snorted coldly.

Murray, who had always been mighty, was humiliated. His lips curled up a little awkwardly.

Murray thought, Mr. Luca's temper seemed to be a little weird.

Otherwise, with his superb medical skills, he wouldn't have hidden in this freezing place for no reason.

After thinking in this way, Murray felt better. He was worried about Marc. "Melisa, there's no time to lose. Let's set off as soon as possible," he said.

SUU

"Let's go!" Melisa nodded.

She also wanted to rush back to Aldness and cure Marc as soon as possible.

Murray took out his phone and was about to call Alex. Suddenly Ryleigh ran over, panting. She ran straight to Murray, grabbed his arm, and called him in a soft voice, "Murray."

Ryleigh's hair was disheveled and she was wearing cotton slippers. She looked a little embarrassed.

"Ryleigh? What happened?" Murray was stunned and asked.

Ryleigh looked at Melisa warily and tightened her grip on Murray's arm. "I didn't see you when I woke up. I was looking for you everywhere."

Murray came out when Ryleigh was asleep. Seeing her uneasy look, he patted her on the shoulder. "Ryleigh, Melisa has found Mr. Luca. Now we have to rush back to Aldness immediately. You have not recovered yet. Rest here for a few days first. I will ask Alex to pick you up later."

"No, Murray, I don't want to stay here alone. I will go back with you." Ryleigh shook her head.

Ryleigh thought, How can I let Murray and Melisa go together? I would not give Melisa any chance to get close to Murray!

"But you haven't recovered..." Murray said hesitantly.

Ryleigh looked at him with tears in her eyes and said pitifully, "I'm fine. I don't want to be alone. I will be afraid..."

"Murray, are you going or not?" Melisa urged impatiently when she saw Ryleigh acting like a weak and innocent girl in front of Murray.

"Let's go." Murray put on a serious face,

They went to Aldness in Murray's private plane,

"Murray, is your plane safe?" Nina sat next to Melise and looked around worriedly, "There won't be a second accident, right?"

The last time when the plane Melisa took crashed and fell into the sea, Nina was almost frightened to death

Now that they were sitting on Murray's private plane, even Nina was afraid of heights,

Murray sat in front of Melisa and Nina. He turned around and his deep eyes fell on Melisa's face.

Their eyes met and Melisa looked away.

Murray's put on a sullen face, and he said with frustration, "Do you think I am a person who will make the same mistake twice, Miss Paul?"

"Don't worry, Miss Paul. I've already checked the plane carefully. It's safe. There won't be any problems," Alex added.

"That would be for the best." Nina shrugged.

"Murray, is it really safe?" Ryleigh naturally sat next to Murray, sticking close to him all the way.

"Yes, it's fine," Murray spoke with a calm expression.

Ryleigh glanced at Murray and rested her head on his shoulder. "Since I fell off the cliff that time. I had been afraid of standing at a high place and taking a plane."

Murray's heart skipped a beat.

He thought, Afraid of high places and taking a plane... Melisa was also afraid of high places.

Ryleigh and Melisa really had a lot in common.

"But now that you're by my side, I'm not afraid of anything," Ryleigh continued.

"That's nice. There are still two hours before we reach Aldness. You should take a good rest first,"

Murray replied calmly.

"Murray, I feel so cold." Ryleigh suddenly crawled into Murray's arms.

Ryleigh clung to him tightly. This made Murray feel a little uncomfortable

He gently pushed Ryleigh away, took off his suit jacket, and put it over her "This should make you feel better"

Declining Murray's attention towards her, Ryleigh paled slightly she glanced at Melisa who kept a straight face and raised an obedient and satisfied smile. "Murray, you are so good to me."

When Melisa saw this, it hurt her heart.

Melisa simply closed her eyes.

In her mind, she couldn't help but recall the scene when she and Murray came back from France and the plane crashed.

In fact, it had only been half a month. But now when she thought about it, it was like a lifetime ago.

At that time, did Murray mean what he said to her? Was there any sincerity in his words?

Melisa frowned and took a few deep breaths to get rid of the inexplicable emotions in her heart.

She thought, I wonder if Murray has found out the culprit behind the crash?

Was it Jim?

If so, why didn't I hear anything about Jim?

If it was not him, then who could it be?

As she silently thought about these things, Melisa's eyelids became heavier and heavier, and she finally couldn't hold on and fell asleep.

She had a very restless sleep.

In her sleep, Melisa seemed to be locked in a dark room.

Many people intimidated her and beat her up.

Melisa wanted to fight back, but she was powerless.

The scene suddenly changed. She was stumbling and running in the forest.

Many fiendish people were chasing after her.

Seeing that those people were about to get her, Melisa desperately ran forward

But

There was a cliff in front of her..

She looked down It was pitch black and unfathomable

There was a child in front and pursuiers belund she had no way out!

Just when Melia didn't know what to do, a tall woman, Maring high heels, walked toward with

It was Ryleigh!

Step by step, she walked toward Melisa. Her delicate face was twisted, and she said, "Murray is mine. No one can take him away, including you!"

After saying that, Ryleigh reached out and pushed Melisa down the cliff!

"Ah! No!" The fear of falling spread throughout Melisa's entire body. She cried out in alarm and suddenly woke up.

Chapter 190 Magical Treatment

Melisa opened her eyes and saw the lights on the roof of the cabin. The plane was still flying steadily.

Melisa let out a long sigh of relief. It was just a bad dream...

"Melisa, are you alright?" A few concerned voices sounded at the same time.

Melisa held her chest and shook her head with lingering fear, "I'm fine. I just had a nightmare."

The dream she had just now was so real.

It was so real that it seemed like it had really happened.

Melisa thought, Why did I have such a strange dream?

Is it because I had been disgusted by Ryleigh these past few days?

Jaylin turned his head to look at Melisa, only to see her face pale and her forehead covered in a cold sweat.

"Melisa, you look terrible. Are you really okay?" he asked, feeling bad for her.

Melisa forced a smile. "I'm fine."

"Let me take a look." Luca stood up and walked to Melisa.

He bent slightly and placed a finger on Melisa's wrist.

Two minutes later, Luca smiled and said, "It's nothing. Maybe it's because you've been too tired and nervous these past few days. You'll be fine after a short rest."

"Sure. Thank you, Mr. Luca," Melisa said as she came back to her senses.

Melisa had indeed been tired these past few days. She had been trapped in the cave by the avalanche. Shortly after being saved, she immediately started to look for Luca and now she was rushing back to Aldness.

No matter how fit she was, it was still a little too much for her to take.

"Give me a glass of lemonade," Murray suddenly said to the flight attendant in a deep voice

"Mr. Gibson, please wait a moment." The flight attendant smiled and said respectfully

Soon, she brought the lemon water over and handed it to Murray "Mr. Gibson, here you are."

Murray took the cup and gave it to Melisa "You like lemon water. Drink some and you'll feel better."

Chapter 190 Magical treatment

Melisa was stunned and subconsciously took the cup.

When her fingertips touched Murray's palm, Melisa's heart skipped a beat.

It felt so familiar... The feeling made Melisa dazed for a moment.

She thought, Murray still remember that I like to drink lemon water?

"Murray, I also want some lemon water." Ryleigh clenched her hands, and a flash of jealousy flashed through her eyes. She shook Murray's arm.

"Bring me another glass of lemon water," Murray said to the flight attendant indifferently.

"Thank you, Murray." Ryleigh leaned close to Murray's ear and raised a provocative smile at Melisa in a place Murray could not see.

Melisa was furious and put the glass of lemon water aside.

Ryleigh was not like the gentle, kind, and considerate girl that Murray had mentioned.

Melisa thought, It seems that I really need to investigate Ryleigh.

After a few hours of travel, the plane finally landed at the airport in Aldness.

"Mr. Luca, let's go to the hospital to see Mr. Marc now." Once they got off the plane, Melisa couldn't wait to rush to the hospital.

Luca nodded. "Let's go."

Alex had already arranged for a car and they rushed to the hospital.

In the ward, Dr. White, who received the news, was waiting for them.

Sarah and Claire were also in the ward, standing by Marc's side.

“Dr. White, how is my grandfather?” Murray asked eagerly the moment he entered the ward.

“It’s still the same.” Dr. White’s eyes fell on Luca, who was standing behind Murray, “He has been unconscious all this time, but all the indicators are still normal. Mr. Luca, come and see him.”

Luca took a step forward and said coldly, “All of you, go out and wait.”

Murray frowned.

Although everyone said that Luca’s medical skills were superb, this was only a rumor after all.

Murray had not seen Luca’s skills.

What if only Luca and Marc were left in the ward and something bad happened...

At this moment, Sarah suddenly said coldly, “You want all of us to get out? That’s ridiculous!”

Center 100 na! Ta

“Are you that Mr. Luca?” Sarah looked at Luca from head to toe.

Luca kept a straight face. He ignored her.

“Murray, is this really Mr. Luca? Can he cure your grandfather?” Sarah raised her voice and said sharply, “I heard that it was Melisa who found him. Remember, it was Melisa who made your grandfather ill. How can she be so kind as to find someone to cure him?”

“Mrs. Gibson, please mind your words. You can question me, but please don’t question Mr. Luca’s skills!” Melisa did not expect that Sarah would say this. She could not help but go against Sarah.

Melisa had gone through many hardships to get Luca here, and she didn’t want Sarah to mess it up.

“Mom, that’s enough. Let’s go out,” Murray said coldly when he saw that Luca put on a long face.

No matter what, Luca was now Murray’s only hope.

Murray was willing to believe in Melisa. He believed that Luca could cure Marc.

Sarah's expression changed. Claire also said, "Murray, Sarah is right. How can we let a nobody treat grandpa?"

"Shut up! Since when do you have a say about grandpa's doctor?" Murray was irritated and asked the bodyguards to take Sarah and Claire out.

"Mr. Luca, I'll leave my grandfather in your care." Murray gave Luca a deep look and said.

Then, Murray turned around and walked out of the ward with the others.

"Melisa, you may stay," Luca suddenly said.

"Sure," Melisa paused.

"No! Melisa can't go in there! Haven't you done enough harm to us?" Sarah stopped Melisa.

"Mom, can you be quiet for a while?" Murray pulled Sarah away with a long face.

"Murray, have you forgotten how your grandfather fell ill? Do you want Melisa to hurt him again?" Sarah glared at Melisa and wanted to stop her, but Murray pulled Sarah away.

Melisa ignored Sarah and entered the ward, closing the door.

"How is it, Mr Luca? Can Mr. Marc be cured?" Melisa looked at Luca with anticipation

"Sure." Luca said after a moment of silence.

Melisa felt relaxed.

She believed in Luca's medical skills. Since Luca said Marc could be cured, then Marc would be alright Chapter 190 Magical Treatment

Luca opened the medicine box.

"Mr. Luca, are you planning to use your special treatment?" Melisa asked.

Melisa had also thought that she could use the special treatment she learned from Luca to treat Marc. But she was not confident enough, and she had no chance to do so.

Now, with Mr. Luca personally going to give Marc the treatment, he would be able to cure Marc's illness.

“That’s right.” Luca nodded. He picked out some special instrument. After disinfecting them with alcohol, he started to use them first on Marc’s chest
