Chapter 201

Chapter 201 We Will Meet Soon

A cold and arrogant voice came from behind, and Melissa stopped.

She turned around and saw that the man on the bed had already woken up. He frowned and compressed his lips, firmly staring at Melissa.

Melissa smiled and explained, "Sir, you just had a car accident. I was the one who sent you to the hospital."

Hearing this, the man narrowed his eyes and asked, "Is it true?"

Melissa nodded. "Don't worry. The doctor has already given you a detailed examination. There is nothing serious. You can ask your family members to come and accompany you."

Melissa raised her hand to look at her watch and continued, "It's already very late. If there's nothing else, I'll leave now. Have a good rest."

Melissa then turned around and left.

The man stared at Melissa's back firmly with his dark eyes, and then curled his lips and smiled.

He remembered her name, Melissa.

The man believed they would meet soon.

The next day was the weekend.

Melissa woke up early in the morning.

After two days, she had to go to the hospital to perform a special treatment on Marc.

Melissa was a little nervous. After all, it was somehow risky. Moreover, the patient was Marc. She could not afford to fail it.

Therefore, Melissa took out the medicine box that Luca had left for her, as well as the relevant medical files, and began to study it carefully.

Recalling how Luca performed the acupuncture on Marc in the hospital that day, Melissa tested her body a few times and was soon able to find the right place to conduct the treatment successfully.

She was relieved a lot and became confident about it.

Melissa practiced a few more times, then packed up the things. She looked at the time and found it was still early. So she decided to go shopping and buy a birthday present for Jaylin.

Melissa went to an accessory shop.

"Miss, can I help you?" the waitress welcomed her warmly.

Chapter 201 We Will Meet Soon

"No, thanks. I can help myself." Melissa smiled thinly.

The waitress nodded politely. "If you need me, please let me know at any time,"

Melissa smiled and said, "Alright, thank you!"

At that moment, the door was opened and a young lady in a white dress walked in, who was elegant and beautiful.

She passed by Melissa and her unfriendly gaze lingered on Melissa for a few seconds.

Melissa looked up at her.

The lady seemed to be a little familiar.

She seemed to be the well-known pianist recently, Anaya,

"Ms. Knowles, what can I do for you?" the waitress also recognized Anaya and greeted Anaya politely.

Anaya looked away from Melissa and replied indifferently, "Give me that scarf."

Seeing that Anaya no longer stared at her, Melissa did not care about it and continued to choose gifts for Jaylin.

In the end, Melissa picked up a tie and asked, "Please show me this tie."

At that moment, Adela and Julie passed by the shop.

"Adela, isn't it Melissa?" Julie suddenly saw Melissa inside and immediately paused.

Adela looked inside and found it was indeed Melissa.

"What is she doing here?" Adela narrowed her eyes and asked differently.

"She may be buying something," Julie replied.

"Let's go in and take a look," Adela snorted.

In the past, Melissa, Murray's fiancée, relied on Murray's support and was always arrogant.

Melissa did not take Adeja seriously many times.

Now, she was abandoned by Murray. Melissa was nobody but an annoying girl from the countryside, Melissa had nothing to be proud of and Adela was no longer afraid of her.

Adela walked in front of Melissa in high heels with Julie. She pointed at the tie in Melissa's hands and said, "I'll buy it!"

Melissa heard it and raised her head, she saw Adela and Julie standing in front of her arrogantly. Chapter 201 We Will Meet Soon

The waitress looked at Adela in embarrassment and said carefully, "Ms. Yale, this tie has been bought by the young lady."

"I'll pay double!" Adela gave Melissa a fierce glare,

The Ailsa dress that Adela picked up in the Red store had been bought by Melissa. Adela was always mad about it.

Now that Melissa no longer had Murray backing her up, she would not be qualified to compete with her!

Today, she decided to take revenge on Melissa!

“Well...” the waitress looked at Melissa with pleading eyes, “would you please pick up a nother one?”

An ordinary waitress like her could not afford to offend the Yale family’s young miss.

Melissa glanced at Adela indifferently. “Help yourself. Anyway, I don’t like it.”

Melissa then didn’t pay any attention to Adela and pointed to another tie. She said to the waitress, “Take that one for me, please.”

“I want that one, too. Wrap it up for me!” Adela said immediately and tried to annoy Melissa.

Melissa frowned. Was Adela challenging her?

Melissa was not in the mood to argue with Adela. Since Adela had come in on purpose, Melissa decided to teach her a lesson and by the way, waste her money.

Melissa pointed to the most expensive tie and said to the waitress with a smile, “Please show me this one.”

“I want them all. I want all that Melissa wants!” Adela looked at Melissa arrogantly and put on a complacent smile.

Melissa smiled thinly and pointed randomly in the shop. “This one, please... I’d like to buy everything in the shop.”

“Wrap them all up for me!” Adela raised her eyebrows and said proudly.

Julie pulled Adela’s hand and said gently, “Adela, Melissa is annoying you on purpose. Don’t be fooled,”

“So what? Can’t afford them?” Adela glared at Julie unhappily.

The Yale family was so rich that Adela had plenty of money to spend. As long as Melissa could not buy anything and returned empty-handed, the money is not a big deal for Adela. She was happy about it!

Melissa glanced at Adela as if she was looking at an idiot. Melissa did not want to waste any more time with them, so she turned around and walked toward the door.

“Melissa, are you leaving?” Julie stepped forward and stopped Melissa.

Melissa frowned and said indifferently, “Get out of the way!”

“I’m warning you. Stop chasing after Jaylin!” Julie couldn’t hide the jealousy in her eyes.

Recently, the affair between Melissa and Jaylin had been a hot topic in the showbiz.

Julie was even more jealous, when she found that Melissa was living in Jaylin’s apartment in the Eastern Garden

Melissa was just a girl from the countryside who was abandoned by Murray. How could she hook up with Jaylin?!

When Anaya, who was standing beside them, heard the word “Jaylin,” she suddenly raised her head and stared at Melissa. She could not conceal her jealousy from her beautiful eyes either, just like Julie,

Chapter 202 Kneel And Apologize to Me

“Get out of the way!” Melissa was a little impatient when Julie stopped her. Melissa directly pushed Julie away and then walked straight out of the door.

Melissa was in a bad mood because it was indeed annoying.

Melissa walked over for a few steps when Adela and Julie caught up with her. “Melissa, stop!”

“What is the matter?” Melissa stopped impatiently.

What else were they going to do?

Julie walked up to Melissa aggressively and pointed at her shoulder. "You hit me just now and tore my dress apart on purpose!"

What nonsense? Hit her?

Tear her dress apart?

Melissa looked at Julie's shoulder indifferently and sneered at Julie silently.

She saw that Julie's dress had indeed been torn apart on her shoulder. There was also a hole in the crumpled dress, which made it extremely ugly.

Melissa only pushed Julie with a little strength just now. How could she possibly ruin Julie's dress?

Did they try to play their old tricks and trap her?

It was boring!

Melissa kept silent. Adela secretly tipped Julie a wink

"Melissa, do you know that my dress is custom-made in Laville? It is worth $500,000 dollars. Now that you have ruined it, how will you compensate me?" Julie stepped forward and asked arrogantly.

Melissa sneered at her, "What? Do you still want to trap me? When did I tear your dress apart?"

"Melissa, don't try to deny it! Just now in the shop, Adela has bought all that you wanted. So you deliberately pushed me and tore my dress apart to take revenge. Adela also saw it!" Julie said loudly, trying to make everyone hear her.

"Melissa, immediately apologize to Julie!" Adela said in an unhappy tone.

Since Melissa did not have Murray to support her anymore, Adela thought she could do anything to humiliate Melissa Adela was sure about it,

Today, they were going to make Melissa a fool in public

They would make Melissa ashamed and spread the news far and wide to ruin her reputation forever.

The passers-by stopped and gossiped at Melissa.

"Isn't it Melissa?" someone pointed at Melissa and asked.

"Yes, she is Mr. Gibson's ex-girlfriend who was abandoned." The other one nodded, "One of my relatives works in the Gibson Corporation. I heard that Melissa refused to leave the Gibson Corporation and still chased after Mr. Gibson."

"Really? But I read online that Melissa seemed to be in a relationship with Mr. Segar. I heard that they even lived together!" the former one got puzzled.

"She must be in affairs, wanting to make a dozen men attracted by her," another girl joined the conversation and looked down upon Melissa.

"What? Why is she so shameless?" the puzzled passer-by got angry and scolded Melissa.

When Melissa heard those unfriendly words, she couldn't help but frown.

What nonsense? Who spread the rumors? It was ridiculous.

Most likely, Adela did it on purpose.

The reporters who received the news from Adela also rushed over in a hurry.

When the reporters saw Melissa, they all surrounded her and focused their cameras on her. "Ms. Eugen, may I ask why you pushed Ms. White down and ruined her dress on purpose? Are you taking revenge on her?"

"Let me tell you the truth. I didn't push her, nor did I ruin her dress. That's it," Melissa replied impatiently.

Melissa did not want to tangle with them and turned around to leave.

"Do you want to leave? It's not that easy!" Julie and Adela blocked Melissa's way.

"You tore my dress apart and you want to leave now? No way!" Julie glared fiercely at Melissa, with jealousy and disdain in her eyes.

"You are clear about whether I have ruined your dress," Melissa narrowed her eyes and asked indifferently, "what on earth do you want me to do?"

"Of course, you have to compensate me!" Julie raised her voice, "800,000 dollars, you have to pay me 800,000 dollars. Non negotiable!"

"Oh, by the way, I almost forgot that you have been dumped by Murray. You are no longer Murray's fiancée. You may not be able to afford it."

Julie smiled proudly and looked down upon Melissa. "How about it? If you kneel and apologize to

Chapter 202 Kneel And Apologun to Me

me, I may give up asking for your compensation."

How could such a bumpkin afford it!

Then Melissa had to obediently kneel and beg for mercy. She had to apologize to her like a poor dog.

Reporters were right next to them. Melissa's sad story would no doubt become the headlines the next day.

At that moment, how could Jaylin be fond of Melissa!

Seeing that Julie was getting more and more aggressive, Melissa became unhappy.

Melissa did not want to waste time on this nonsense, but Adela and Julie were so annoying and kept on humiliating her.

Then Melissa decided to fight back.

Since Adela and Julie wanted to make Melissa a fool in public, then Melissa would pay back in the same way. They should suffer from what they did!

"Julie, since you insist that I am the one who tore your dress apart, please show me the evidence. Otherwise, I will sue you later."

"Evidence?" Julie rolled her eyes, "it's very simple. You ruined my dress, so you must have left fingerprints on it. As long as you call the police to check the fingerprints, the truth can be revealed. Besides, Adela was there just now, who also saw it."

Julie was certain about it. Anyway, Melissa had indeed touched her shoulder just now, so there should be Melissa's fingerprints left on her dress.

Even if they went to the police station, she would not be scared.

“Don’t need to,” Melissa put on a thin smile, “there should be surveillance cameras in the accessory shop. Let’s see the surveillance video and we’ll know what the truth is.”

“Sure.” Julie agreed immediately.

Melissa was a little surprised. Julie agreed so easily. Was she not afraid that the truth would be uncovered?

The surveillance cameras should have captured it very clearly. Melissa only gently pushed Julie, not to mention tearing her dress apart.

As for Julie’s dress, it was likely that it was deliberately ruined by herself or Adelante framed her.

As long as they checked the surveillance video, the truth would come to light.

Why wasn’t Julie afraid of it?

There seemed to be something wrong.

Seeing that Melissa was silent, Julie tried to challenge Melissa arrogantly, “Don’t forget to kneel and apologize to me later!”

Julie’s cousin worked in this shop and was in charge of security surveillance.

Therefore, it was so easy to ask him to delete some part of the recording.

Julie had already secretly sent a message to him. So she was not afraid of it at all.

Melissa, you shameless bitch!

Let’s see it.

Today, you have to kneel down to beg me!

Chapter 203

Chapter 203 I Can Prove It

Alex had an appointment with his friends for lunch. When he passed by the commercial street, he saw a group of people surrounding the door of the H&N Boutique,

Alex gave a glimpse and suddenly found that the one surrounded by the crowd seemed to be

Melissa.

Alex stopped and walked forward. He finally figured it out

It turned out that Adela and Julie were making trouble for Melissa.

Alex did not believe that Melissa would tear Julie's dress apart. Just as he was about to step forward to help Melissa, he thought for a moment and paused.

Beauty should be saved by a hero. So he decided to leave Melissa to Mr. Gibson.

Although now, many gossip news said that the president had dumped Melissa and started a new relationship with Ryleigh.

However, according to Alex's understanding of Mr. Gibson, Alex felt that the one Mr. Gibson loved most was Melissa.

As for Ryleigh...

It was probably out of responsibility.

Thinking of this, Alex took out his phone and called Murray.

Murray woke up early in the morning. He planned to go to the company to work overtime, but on the way, he couldn't help but drive in the direction of the Eastern Garden.

After wandering around the apartment where Melissa lived for a long time, Murray finally stepped upstairs.

However, he pressed the doorbell for a long time, but no one opened the door.

Melissa was not home.

Murray called her and found her phone turned off.

He could only turn the car around unhappily and drive towards the Gibson Corporation,

Just as Murray reached his office, he received a call from Alex,

“Alex, what’s the matter?” Murray answered the phone and asked in a low voice

“I just passed the commercial street and saw Ms Eugen,” Alex said on the phone,

“Melissa?” Murray smiled and asked

Chapter 2017 | Tampere

Why did Melissa go to the commercial street?

“Yes, she seems to be in trouble.” Alex nodded.

“I don’t know... but she seems to get into great trouble,” Alex paused, “Mr. Gibson, would you like to pay a visit here?”

“Where is she?” Murray asked.

Alex looked at the door of the H&N Boutique and replied, “Right at the door of the H&N Boutique.”

“Alright, I’ll be right there soon.” Murray sounded anxious.

Murray hung up the phone and was about to rush to the commercial street when he looked up and saw Ryleigh walking over with a thermos bottle.

“Ray, this is the breakfast I specially made for you. Have a try.” Ryleigh walked to Murray and said gently.

Ryleigh knew that Murray was a workaholic and would come to work overtime on the weekend. So she specially made breakfast to give him a good impression.

However, Murray didn’t even look at her. He only said indifferently, “Lily, I have something to do, so I'll leave first."

"Ray, where are you going? I'll go with you!" Ryleigh hurried to follow him.

Just now, she was at the door and heard Murray talking on the phone. It seemed to be something related to Melissa.

Murray was so concerned about Melissa that Ryleigh could not help but feel jealous.

Melissa, it was Melissa again!

"Lily, you can go back now," Murray said impatiently.

Just now, Alex had not told him what happened on the phone. Murray wanted to rush to the commercial street as soon as possible to see what trouble Melissa met.

"Ray, just let me go with you..." Ryleigh pulled Murray tightly and followed him to his car.

When Murray and Ryleigh arrived at the commercial street, they saw Melissa being troubled by Adela and Julie

"What about it, Melissa? As long as you knelt and apologized to me, I would give up asking for compensation." Julie raised her head and said arrogantly, Julie was challenging Melissa, Melissa glanced at her indifferently and asked, "If the facts tell that it is not me who tore your dress apart and you have wronged me, would you kneel and apologize to me?"

Julie hesitated for a moment, but before she could open her mouth, Adela said, "Of course. Julie, are you afraid of her?"

"Julie, so do you agree with it?" Melissa crossed her arms in front of her chest and asked Julie indifferently.

Julie struggled to answer, "Yes."

Anyway, Julie had prepared well for the trick. She would not fail this time.

At that moment, Melissa would not be able to argue. Julie would make Melissa kneel and beg for her forgiveness

Melissa followed behind Julie and Adela. They returned to the shop.

The reporters carried their cameras and followed behind.

“Go and call your manager,” Adela said to the waitress.

Adela was serious. The waitress dared not to delay and called the manager.

Ten minutes later, the manager hurried back.

“Ms. Yale, what can I do for you?” the manager asked respectfully.

After all, Adela was the cherished daughter of the Yale family and was also a VIP customer of their shop. Moreover, she had just bought a lot of things from their shop.

“Here is the story,” Adela said somewhat arrogantly, “when my friend and I were shopping in your shop just now, my friend was beaten and her dress was torn apart. I hope you can give me an explanation.”

“Did you see it?” the manager looked at the waitress with questioning eyes.

The waitress lowered her head and bit her lips. “I was busy greeting the guests at that time and didn't pay attention to it.”

Adela pointed at the hole in Julie's dress and said with a cold short, “See? It was made by Melissa.”

“Stop it. Just check the surveillance cameras.” Melissa did not want to argue with them anymore

“Go and get the security team leader,” the manager called the security team leader over

After a while, the security team leader came back from the surveillance room and felt sorry. “I'm sorry, manager, the surveillance camera didn't work at that moment.”

What?

Melissa got a faster heartbeat.

She raised her head and carefully looked at the camera at the door. It was working normally

The camera should be able to capture the scene where Julie had blocked her way and she had only pushed Julie away gently.

Why didn't it work at that moment?

Julie put on a proud smile. She walked over to Melissa and cleared her throat Julie said, "Melissa although the surveillance camera failed to record it, Adela and I saw you tear my dress apart

"And my dress is also the evidence with your fingerprints on it.

"I advise you not to argue for no reason kneel and apologize to me!"

Melissa looked at Julie indifferently. "Since the surveillance camera failed to record anything at that moment, it cannot prove that I ruined your dress

"I can prove it," a voice suddenly came at that moment

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 204

Chapter 204

Chapter 204 Restore the Truth

Melissa looked in the direction of the voice and saw Anaya, who had been standing by the side, and suddenly said.

Anaya Knowles?

What could she prove?

Melissa was a little surprised.

"It's Anaya Knowles, the international pianist!" A reporter recognized her and said excitedly.

“Ms. Knowles, you just said that you can prove. Do you mean that you can prove that Melissa damaged Ms. White’s dress?” A reporter pointed the microphone at Anaya and asked.

Anaya smiled and nodded, “Yes.”

“Can you tell us more about the situation?” The reporters surrounded her and asked.

“At that time, I bought a scarf here and saw that Ms. Yale and Melissa had a dispute. Then Melissa pushed Julie and deliberately tore her dress.” Anaya smiled all the time and spoke in an elegant way.

Melissa looked at Anaya suspiciously.

I don’t know Anaya at all. Why would she perjure herself and help Adela slander me? Melissa thought.

At this time, Murray walked into the H&N Boutique. Ryleigh followed closely behind him.

“Mr. Gibson is here!”

As soon as Murray appeared, he attracted everyone’s attention.

The reporters came in droves. “Mr. Gibson, have you and Melissa broken up? Why is she still at the Gibson Corporation? There are rumors that Melissa and Jaylin are cohabiting. Is that true?”

“Mr. Gibson, what do you think of what happened today? Melissa deliberately damaged Ms. White’s dress. Is there a personal grudge between them?”

Murray’s handsome face turned cold and his thin lips were tightly pursed.

Ryleigh took a step forward and said to the reporter with a smile, “Sorry, Murray doesn’t accept interviews, Murray and I went out to shop and happened to pass by here. We came in to have a look since it was so lively.”

“Mr. Gibson, may I ask if this young lady is Lily who you have been looking for? Are you two together now? Is she your girlfriend now?”

Chapter 204 Restore the truth

“Get out.” Murray looked at the reporter coldly. He was so aggressive that the reporter immediately fell silent.

Seeing Murray suddenly come over, Adela had been staring at him.

The girl who followed him closely was Lily?

She looked ordinary.

Adela's eyes flashed with jealousy.

Today, she would deal with Melissa first. Also, she wouldn't let Lily off!

Murray belonged to her!

Today, she would make Melissa embarrassed in front of Murray!

Thinking of this, Adela winked at Julie.

"Melissa, do you have anything to say now?" Julie said in a proud tone and raised her voice, "Now, even Ms. Knowles can testify that you damaged my clothes!"

Julie did not expect a witness to suddenly appear.

In addition, this person was the internationally renowned pianist Anaya.

Although Julie did not know why Anaya would suddenly help her deal with Melissa. But at that moment, Melissa really couldn't find a way to explain.

"There's nothing to say." Melissa was still very calm.

When she saw Murray and Ryleigh walk in, she felt severe pain in her heart.

Now she was besieged and framed by so many people.

Did Murray bring Ryleigh here to laugh at her?

However, she would not give in.

Adela

and the others wanted to humiliate her. She would definitely give them a taste of their own medicine!

Thinking of this, Melissa withdrew her thoughts and her probing gaze fell on Anaya.

Melissa was sure that she had not offended Amaya

So was Anaya with Adela? Did she come to frame her deliberately?

“Ms. Knowles, did you really see me damage Julie’s dress?” Melissa looked at Anaya and asked

indifferently

“Of course.” Anaya narrowed her eyes slightly and looked at Melissa with hostility.

“That’s strange. If I remember correctly, you were standing in the corner just now. Julie stopped me at the gate. From your angle, you can’t see what happened at the gate.” Melissa’s lips curled into a mocking smile.

“Anyway, I saw it.” Anaya’s expression changed slightly, but she still insisted that she saw Melissa damage Julie’s clothes.

“Melissa, kneel down and apologize to Julie.” Adela couldn’t wait to see Adela kneeling and begging for mercy.

“I didn’t do it. Why should I apologize?” Melissa smiled slightly, calm and elegant.

“You still dare to quibble! The witness and material evidence are all present. Now, even Anaya saw that you were the one who damaged my dress. Even if you don’t admit it, it’s useless. Because the facts are already in front of me, kneel down and apologize!” Julie stepped forward and stood in front of Melissa, speaking in a commanding tone.

“You are the one who should kneel and apologize.” Melissa looked around and her face turned cold. She said directly, “In fact, you damaged your dress by yourself and the purpose was to frame me, right?”

“Don’t slander me!”

Julie glared at Julie fiercely. “Now that things are clear, don’t try to delay the time. Hurry up! Kneel down and apologize!”

Melissa chuckled, “Julie, have you ever heard of an old saying? If you don’t want people to know, you’d better not do it. Do you think that you damaged your clothes by yourself and found a few people to frame me and you can turn the fact upside down?”

“What do you mean?” Julie frowned.

Melissa looked up at the camera and said indifferently, "I mean, no matter how you twist the truth, there is only one truth. I believe this camera must have captured the scene at that time."

Julie was stunned. "Didn't we already see the surveillance video just now? Nothing was captured."

"Really? I don't think so." Melissa's cold gaze fell on the security captain.

"Indeed not." The security captain, Julie's distant cousin Erick White, replied calmly.

After receiving Julie's message, he secretly deleted a section of the surveillance video,

"Can you show me the surveillance video from that period of time?" Melissa asked coldly.

"There's no need." Adela glanced at Melissa "Melissa, what other tricks do you want to play?"

"I'm afraid I'm not the one playing tricks. I just want to restore the truth." Melissa said calmly

"Go to get the surveillance video!" At this moment, Murray, who had been standing silently at the side, suddenly spoke in a deep voice.

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 205

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed

Chapter 205

Chapter 205 Restore Surveillance Video

Murray was so aggressive that Erick had to respectfully agree to his demand, "Yes, Mr. Gibson."

Erick returned to the surveillance room and checked carefully a few times. He did not leave with the USB flash disk until he was sure that nothing was wrong.

A few minutes later, Erick returned to the shop.

"Mr. Gibson, this is the surveillance footage from that period." Erick walked to Murray and handed him the USB flash disk.

Murray looked solemn and cold, which made Erick dare not even breathe.

Julie had asked him to do her a favor, but Erick did not expect that it would alarm Murray.

Erick wished not to have any new problems, with his fingers crossed.

“Let me take a look,” Murray said coldly.

“Sure.” Erick inserted the USB flash disk into the computer and played it.

As expected, Melissa and Julie were not in the scene shown on the screen of the computer.

“Maybe they were standing in the surveillance blind spot at that time, so they were not captured.” Erick cautiously looked at Murray and explained.

“That’s impossible,” Melissa said coldly.

Melissa clearly remembered that she and Julie were standing not far from the door.

It was definitely within the scope of the camera.

And surely, they could be captured.

The only possibility was that... someone had tampered with the surveillance “Replay the video.” Melissa stared at the computer screen and said in a deep voice.

There had to be something wrong with this

“Ms. Eugen, we’ve already seen that you were not captured. Why waste time playing it again?” said to Melissa with a fake smile

“Just do it.” Melissa coldly swept her gaze over Back

Her chilling aura made Ente’s heart skip a beat somehow. Brick pressed the play button. Melissa said

This time, Melissa found the problem

“This video was edited.” Melissa walked forward, pointed at the computer screen, and said.

“How is that possible?” Julie’s expression changed slightly, and she said preemptively, “Melissa, don’t talk nonsense!”

“Why not?” When she replayed the video again, Melissa’s beautiful lips curled into a mocking smile. “It’s obvious that the scene here is missing, and the video was deleted for about two minutes, during which you stopped me.”

Erick had deleted it very carefully, leaving almost no flaws. However, Melissa was the world-famous mysterious hacker, Ada, and this little trick could not be hidden from her.

“That could not happen. I’ve always been in the surveillance room, and no one tampered with the surveillance video. So it could not be deleted at all,” Erick denied.

“What if you did it in person?” Melissa sneered lightly.

It could be told from the guilty look on his face that this matter had something to do with Erick.

“Don’t talk nonsense!” Erick wiped the sweat off his forehead.

“Whether I’m talking nonsense or not, we will know it soon.” Melissa sat down in front of the computer and stared at the screen for a while.

Adela was a little nervous.

Adela wanted to set Melissa up to make a fool of her in public, but she didn’t expect things to go so far from her expectations.

Surely, it was not what Adela wanted.

Adela walked in front of Melissa, looked down at her, and questioned, “Melissa, what do you want to do?”

“To restore the video that was deleted, of course.” Melissa looked up.

Adela and Julie looked at each other, and their expressions could not help but be startled.

Was Melissa going to restore the deleted video?

How could she nail it?

Erick was a computer expert, so the video deleted by him could not be restored.

Melissa was a bumpkin. What did she know?

She must be deliberately mystifying

Thinking of this, Adela felt relieved and glared at Melissa. "Melissa, stop struggling I'd like to advise you to apologize to Julie as soon as possible Do you think you can stall for time and escape punishment because you are deliberately mystifying?"

"Ms. Yale, please wait and see whether I am deliberately mystifying or not." Melissa glanced at Adela as if she was looking at an idiot.

Melissa ignored Adela. Her fair and delicate fingers skillfully typed a few lines of code on the keyboard, calmly and confidently.

A series of complex codes flashed on the computer screen, dazzling.

Five minutes later, Melissa pressed the return button and said nonchalantly, "Done!".

Under everyone's surprised gazes, Melissa replayed the video again.

Melissa had restored the two minutes of video that Erick deleted.

On the computer screen, Melissa and Julie were shown in the video.

Melissa walked towards the gate, and Julie suddenly rushed up and blocked Melissa's way.

Their voices could not be heard clearly. However, from their expressions and movements, it could be seen that Julie kept provoking Melissa and preventing her from leaving.

Melissa looked a little impatient. She reached out and lightly pushed Julie. Taking advantage of Julie's shock, Melissa quickly walked out of the H&N Boutique.

By then, Julie's dress was still intact.

"No, it's not like that!" Julie shouted, and her face turned pale when she watched the video that was restored on the computer screen.

She looked at Erick, with her eyes full of panic and confusion.

Erick had already deleted that video, but why could Melissa recover it?

Erick was sweating profusely.

He had already done it perfectly, but Melissa only spent five minutes recovering that video.

Moreover, Erick couldn't understand the code that Melissa had typed.

Erick looked at Melissa in disbelief, and his heart beat faster in panic.

Melissa... Who was she?

"Alright, everyone can see what the situation was back then." Melissa paused the video, pointed to the computer screen, and said calmly, "When I walked out of the door of the H&N Boutique, Julie's dress was still intact. So, it's not me who damaged it."

Everyone nodded.

"To my surprise, the truth was, like this."

"So, Melissa was framed by Julie."

"It seems that we have wronged Melissa"

Julie didn't expect that the truth would be exposed in the face of everyone's criticism, Julie's expressions changed dramatically with embarrassment

And Adela's expression was even worse,

How could Melissa easily reverse the situation?

It was supposed to be a perfect plan, but why did it fail?

Looking at the wonderful expressions on Julie's and Adela's faces, Melissa put on a cold smile. "Now it's very clear that Julie damaged her dress on her own and then framed me."

After a pause, Melissa's sharp eyes fell on Julie's face, and she said coldly, "Julie, according to our agreement just now, you should apologize to me now."

Chapter 206 Melissa Is So Violent

“No, it is not like this!” Julie rolled her eyes and quibbled, “I don’t know when my clothes were torn, and I didn’t dispute with anyone except for you just now. Therefore, it was only reasonable for me to think that it was you who broke it. I didn’t intend to frame you.”

She could not let Melissa have the advantage!

How was it possible for her to apologize to Melissa, that slut!

“Is that so?” Melissa smiled thinly, stood up, and walked straight up to Julie.

“Of course. Do you have any evidence to prove that it was me who broke it?” Julie asked in exasperation.

Melissa pointed at Julie’s clothes and said indifferently, “It’s obvious that someone had pulled your clothes hard. Otherwise, the hole wouldn’t be in a shape like this. And since it has been only a few minutes since you and Adela got to me. I can’t think of any other possibilities except that you broke your clothes yourself.”

Julie stiffened with anger. “This is just your assumption. I feel wronged by that!”

“Melissa didn’t do you anything wrong. It was you who broke it.” Murray, who had been silent and indifferent all this time, suddenly spoke up in a deep voice.

“Mr. Gibson?” Julie couldn’t help but shiver when her eyes met Murray’s, which looked cold and fierce.

She didn’t dare to ask Murray why he suddenly decided to say that. Instead, Julie just bit her lips tightly and said with grievance, “I didn’t.”

“Murray, what are you talking about? Why are you still partial to Melissa? Do you still love her?” Adela said angrily.

Adela and Julie wanted to frame Melissa and mess her up a bit, but, much to their surprise, Melissa managed to turn the tables, which, to them, was embarrassing enough.

Everyone

knew that Julie was Adela's pet. If Julie apologized to Melissa and begged for mercy, that would mean a slap in the face for Adela.

Adela thought, Murray should speak up for Melissa at this point! Was he still in love with Melissa?

Adela, with a disagreeable expression on her face, glared at Melissa.

Adela glared at Melissa ferociously as if Adela wanted to eat Melissa alive

Murray, on the other hand, lifted the corner of his lips lightly. I am not being partial to anyone I'm simply telling the truth."

Chapter 206 Meliodata Lo Vintent

Murray then took out his phone and strode over to Melissa.

"Murray..." Ryleigh held Murray tightly by the arm. There was a faint flash of jealousy on her face.

Was Murray going to help Melissa?

Everyone knew that Murray had cancelled his engagement to Melissa. The person Murray loved now was Ryleigh!

But now, in front of so many people, Murray should come forward and stand up for Melissa without hesitation! That embarrassed Ryleigh a lot!

Murray frowned, pulled out his arm quietly, and walked straight to Melissa. And then he unlocked his phone before operating the phone a bit.

A few photos popped up on the screen.

"Take a look for yourselves," Murray said in a cold voice.

Melissa looked at the screen in surprise.

The photo showed that Julie was standing in a corner next to the door of the H&N Boutique. Covered by Adela, Julie was pulling the shoulder part of her dress hard.

Why did Murray have the photos?

Melissa, slightly moved, raised her eyes and looked at Murray a bit.

Melissa found that Murray, with his eyebrows raised, was looking at her meaningfully with a thin smile.

Melissa hurried to drop her gaze.

She didn't know why Murray would want to help her.

Melissa then turned to Ryleigh, only to get a hostile look from Ryleigh.

Melissa's heart sank at the sight of that.

Julie, however, cried out loud, "What!"

Julie found it unbelievable.

How could it be possible that they had been photographed!

And the photos should end in Murray's hand and be shown to everyone.

Obviously, they screwed things up this time!

"Julie, what else do you have to say?" Melissa looked at Julie fiercely and articulated, "Apologize

Chapter 206 Melissa is so violent

right now!"

Julie gritted her teeth. Her delicate face twisted in anger and her eyes reddened a bit. "Melissa, you want me to apologize to you? Don't even think about it!"

Julie would never apologize to or kneel in front of Melissa even if she was clobbered.

Melissa was not worthy of an apology!

"Now you want to break your promise!" Melissa sneered and walked toward Julie step by step.

While she was walking, Melissa delivered a vibe that made Julie feel frightened, who kept taking steps backward. "Melissa! You... What are you doing?"

"I'm on my way to make you keep your promise and apologize to me!" Then Melissa, with a cold look, kicked Julie in the knee.

Julie was caught off guard. Her knees felt weak, and the next thing people knew, she was already kneeling

Melissa reached out her arm and grabbed Julie's hair, snapping, "Apologize now!"

Julie felt a violent pain on her scalp, as if it was about to be pulled out by Melissa.

Everyone around pointed the finger at Julie with disdain.

"Apologize or not?" Melissa pulled Julie's hair harder.

Julie, in pain, could not help but shed tears. She looked at Adela, signaling to Adela for help, only to see Adela stare at her with disgust.

Julie was reduced to a complete meltdown at the sight of this. She cried and said, "I'm sorry..."

"You could have apologized earlier!" Melissa smiled coldly and loosened her grab while saying, "I'm warning you! If you dare to frame me again, there will be a bigger price for you to pay!"

Melissa wanted to teach Julie and Adela a lesson today!

Melissa wanted them to know that she was definitely not someone to be trifled with!

Julie collapsed on the ground, trembling, in fear for a long time. And since she was too shaky to stand, she crawled to Adela "Adela! Help me up..."

To Julie's surprise, Adela kicked her and said angrily, "What a good for nothing!"

Melissa crossed her arms around her chest and watched Julie and Adela coldly

But deep down, Melissa felt sorry for Julie

Julie had been trying so hard to please Adela But Adela only treated Julie as flunky And what happened to Julie now would soon become a trending topic on social media, which would make Julie a laughingstock for everyone.

Ryleigh looked at Julie a bit. And then she reached out her hand to help her up before pretending to be scared and hiding behind Murray.

“Melissa is so violent...”

Melissa looked at Ryleigh expressionlessly, thinking, Is she acting innocent now?

Pretending to be weak in front of Murray while blackening my name?

As Melissa was thinking, she saw Anaya walking towards the gate out of the corner of her eye.

“Stop! Anaya!” Melissa raised her voice a bit, walked up to Anaya, and stood in front of her.

“What are you doing?” Anaya asked.

Melissa curled the corners of her lips. “If I remember it correctly, you insisted that I was the one who broke Julie’s clothes just now. It turns out that you were lying. Do you think you owe me an apology as well?”

Chapter 207

Chapter 207 Melissa Is the Home Wrecker

“Apologize? Melissa, do you think you deserve that?” Anaya looked at Melissa with disdain and was rather hostile.

Melissa frowned.

Melissa figured she had no contact with Anaya before. Melissa did not even know Anaya, let alone offend her.

Therefore, Melissa never knew why Anaya would be so hostile.

Listening to what Anaya had said, the reporters gathered around and turned to Anaya instead.

One reporter asked, "Ms. Knowles, what do you mean by that? Is there something between you and Melissa that we never know?"

Another asked, "Ms. Knowles, just now you said that you saw Melissa tearing apart Julie's dress, but now the fact was that Melissa did not. Did you make a mistake? Or did you do this for some reason? May I ask for an explanation?"

"Yes, I did it on purpose," Anaya admitted frankly.

At that moment, the reporters were all excited and kept asking Anaya.

"Ms. Knowles, why did you do this?"

"Ms. Knowles, don't you think it's immoral to frame Melissa on purpose?"

"Immoral?" Anaya snorted coldly and seemed angry. "Because Melissa is a shameless home wrecker! She seduced my fiancé! Everyone hates home wreckers, right? And you still think I'm immoral for framing her?"

Anaya was getting more and more excited. Her words were filled with disdain and hatred for Melissa Home wrecker? Melissa thought to herself.

Melissa looked confused while Anaya was rather emotional

Melissa thought that she didn't even know Anaya, so how could she seduce Anaya's fiancé?

Melissa wondered, Anaya mistakes me for someone else?

That doesn't make any sense!

Is she crazy

Anaya, the internationally renowned pianist, was a psycho?

That is impossible!

Even Adela, who was at the side, looked curious.

As Anaya insisted that Melissa was a home wrecker, Adela could not help but smile.

Adela thought to herself, Looks like we are going to turn the tables.

Seducing someone else's fiancé is a much more serious matter than ruining the gown.

As long as it is confirmed that Anaya is right, the public opinions would definitely change very quickly. Then the matter of her and Julie framing Melissa would be easily forgotten soon.

It seems like a good show to watch.

Melissa was still puzzled. Another reporter asked, "Ms. Knowles, since you said that Melissa seduced your fiancé, then who is your fiancé?"

"My fiancé is Jaylin!" Anaya shouted.

When Melissa heard this, she was startled.

Melissa thought, Jaylin?

Anaya is Jaylin's fiancée?

I have known Jaylin for so long, but why did he never mention that he has a fiancée called Anaya?

Melissa understood Jaylin's character. If Jaylin really had a fiancée, it was impossible for him to hide it from her, let alone to pursue Melissa.

Jaylin was not that kind of guy, Melissa believed.

Since Jaylin had never mentioned it, why would Anaya say that?

"Ms. Knowles, may I ask if your fiancé is the famous actor, Jaylin Segar?" The reporter confirmed.

Previously, there was a lot of news saying that Melissa and Jaylin were in love, and they even lived together.

If Anaya was Jaylin's fiancée, it would be a big drama of the year! Fiancée versus the home wrecker.

How could such surprising news escape the public's attention?

"Yes, it's him." Anaya nodded her head with certainty.

"Then may I ask, Ms. Knowles, why has there never been news of your engagement with Mr. Segar?"

Is it because of his job?"

"Why are you suddenly revealing your relationship with Mu Segar? Aren't you afraid that it will

Chapter 207 Melissa is the Home Wrecher

affect his acting career?"

The reporters were like sharks in search of blood, surrounding Anaya and trying to dig deeper.

Anaya said, "The Knowles family and the Sefar family are very close to each other. The marriage between me and Jaylin is the decision made by our family. And these years, Jay and I have been busy with our careers abroad. Considering Jay's job, we have decided to cover our relationship.

"As for why I want to make it public now, it is because someone shamelessly messes around with my fiancé!

"And it is Melissa!"

Melissa frowned as Anaya said Melissa's name out loud. Before Melissa could say anything, the reporters rushed towards her.

"Ms. Eugen, do you have any response to Ms. Knowles's words? Do you live with Mr. Segar as Ms. Knowles said?"

"Ms. Eugen, do you know that Mr. Segar has a fiancée? Do you know that his fiancée is Ms. Knowles? Do you know that you are being a home wrecker?"

"Ms. Eugen, do you live with Mr. Segar knowing he has a fiancée? Do you want to go up against Ms. Knowles? Will Mr. Segar break up with Ms. Knowles for you?"

"Ms. Eugen..."

One question after another was thrown at Melissa, making her have a little headache. Then, Melissa pushed the reporters away and walked to Anaya. Melissa said coldly, "Anaya, do you know that slander is a crime?"

"Slander? Didn't you keep bothering Jay? You dare to say that you are not living in his apartment?"

Anaya was so jealous and stared at Melissa.

"That's right, I live in Jaylin's apartment, but this is completely different from what you said!" Melissa seemed calm instead.

"Alright, you admit to living with Jay! Melissa, you shameless home wrecker!" Anaya raised her hand and slapped Melissa on the face.

"Anaya, you went too far!" Melissa shouted,

Melissa was just about to push Anaya away when a big hand grabbed Anaya's arm tightly

It was Murray

Melissa looked at Murray in surprise while Murray put on long face

Murray was still unapproachable and had a terrible look

When Anaya said things about Melissa and Jaylin, Murray started to wear a gloomy look.

Murray had heard of the relationship between the Knowles family and the Segar family.

He had also heard Jaylin and Anaya were engaged.

But for some reason, the Segar family and the Knowles family never mentioned marriage again.

Now, Anaya suddenly appeared, saying Melissa and Jaylin had something, and they lived together. This made Murray very unhappy.

Anaya was so jealous as she knew Melissa stayed close to Jaylin.

However, when Murray saw that Melissa was about to be beaten, he couldn't help but protect her.

At that moment, someone suddenly shouted, "Mr. Segar is here!"

Chapter 208

Chapter 208 Jaylin's Fiancée

Some nosy guys had spread online the news that Melissa was framed.

Seeing that Melissa was put in a difficult position, Jaylin hurried over.

Unexpectedly, he heard what Anaya said to the reporters as soon as he entered the room.

When he saw Anaya, his face turned cold.

The moment the reporters saw him, they rushed over and asked him many questions.

“Mr. Segar, may I ask if Ms. Knowles, the world-renowned pianist, is your fiancée?”

“Mr. Segar, is the engagement between you and Ms. Knowles arranged by your family? Why didn't the news come out before?”

“Mr. Segar, is the news online that you and Ms. Eugen have lived together true? Is your relationship a serious one? Will you break up with Ms. Knowles for her?”

Jaylin didn't answer them directly.

“Please get out of the way!” Jaylin's handsome face became tense and his brows were tightly knitted. He pushed through the crowd and walked directly to Melissa. “Melissa, are you alright?”

Melissa shook her head. “Jaylin, now that you are here, there is a woman who claims to be your fiancée. Shouldn't you explain to your fans what is going on?”

Jaylin was a famous actor now. With the scene that Anaya had made, one could only imagine what would appear in the media.

It would impact Jaylin's career and Star Entertainment.

So Melissa wanted Jaylin to clarify it as soon as possible.

Seeing the expression of concern on Jaylin's face, Anaya's beautiful eyes dimmed a little. She took a deep breath and maintained a graceful smile, looking at Jaylin. “Jaylin, we haven't seen each other for a long time.”

Jaylin looked at Anaya coldly and said indifferently, “Apologize to Melissa!”

Anaya's face changed. "Why should I apologize to her? She seduced my fiancé first and now you want me to apologize to her? What a joke!

"When did I become your fiancé?" Jaylin asked coldly.

"Jaylin, do you dare to swear to God that there is no engagement between us?" Anaya's face darkened

"Anaya, the engagement has already been canceled. Don't be ridiculous," Jaylin said with a frown. Chapter 209 Jaylin's fiancé Jaylin and Anaya had once been engaged. It was true.

The Segar family and the Knowles family were old friends. The relationship between them was very close.

When Jaylin and Anaya were young, the two families agreed that they would be engaged in the future.

However, when the Segar Group was going under and Jaylin was experiencing the darkest time in his life, Anaya went abroad with another guy.

Although Jaylin did not have feelings for Anaya, it was a great humiliation for any man to have his fiancée run away without a word.

Ever since then, Jaylin had never mentioned Anaya to anyone else.

Later, Jaylin met Melissa. It was Melissa who encouraged him and gave him the hope of life so that he could recover himself and revive the Segar Group.

So for Jaylin, Anaya was just an insignificant person.

She wasn't his fiancée, not even his friend.

After hearing what Jaylin said, a reporter immediately asked, "Mr. Segar, you said that the engagement between you and Ms. Knowles had been canceled. Does that mean that you were once engaged?"

Before Jaylin said anything, Anaya spoke first, "Of course. Besides, we didn't cancel the engagement. I'm still his fiancée. Melissa is the other woman! She is so shameless!"

“Anaya, I’ll say it again, I have nothing to do with you.” Jaylin pursed his thin lips and articulated every word. “Please don’t claim to be my fiancée again.”

“Jay, why are you so heartless ... Is it because of Melissa?” Anaya walked up to Jaylin and grabbed his arm. “I know that you have some misunderstandings about me. Back then ...”

Jaylin pulled out his arm before Anaya was finished. “I don’t want to talk about what happened back then, please don’t mention it again. You’d better watch your mouth and don’t slander or hurt

Melissa in any way. That’s all I want to say.”

After

saying this, Jaylin turned to look at Melissa again, his cold eyes suddenly becoming soft. “Melissa, let’s leave here.”

Melissa didn’t want to stay here and answer questions, either. So she nodded slightly.

Jaylin smiled gently at Melissa

Melissa followed Jaylin and headed towards the main gate

Jayline France

Seeing

Melissa leaving with Jaylin, Murray’s cold face darkened and looked a little frightening,

Murray stepped forward and said coldly, “Melissa!”

Melissa paused and turned to look at Murray. “Thank you for today.”

Anyway, Murray helped her out today, and she should thank him.

Hearing it, Murray looked at Melissa with a straight face.

Was that all she had to say to him?

That was not what he wanted to hear.

He missed how she relied on him and enjoyed his shelter in the past.

But now she was so indifferent and kept her distance.

“Ray...” Ryleigh interrupted Murray’s thoughts.

Ryleigh looked at Melissa warily. Then Ryleigh held Murray's arm and rested her head on his shoulder. "Ray, you said that you found me a new house to live in. Why don't we go take a look now?"

Melissa's face turned cold. She turned around and followed Jaylin, not wanting to see Ryleigh and Murray together.

Melissa and Jaylin left the H&N Boutique.

"Melissa, where are you going? I'll drive you." Jaylin drove the car, his hands on the steering wheel as he tilted his head and glanced at Melissa from the corner of his eyes.

It was a weekend. Melissa wanted to go shopping at first, but she didn't want to do it after such a scene. "Send me back to the Eastern Garden."

"OK." Jaylin changed his direction and headed towards the Eastern Garden.

"Jaylin, what exactly happened between you and Anaya?" Melissa leaned back in her seat and could not help asking Jaylin thought for a moment before he explained, "It's just that our parents agreed when we were young that we would get engaged. But when the Segar Group fell into an economic crisis, Anaya went abroad with another man. I have nothing to do with her anymore. I haven't contacted her these years."

"I see" Melissa was lost in thought

According to Jaylin, Anaya was really his fiancée

Although Anaya betrayed Jaylin at first, they didn't officially cancel their engagement

"If you can't handle it properly, it will have a big impact on you," Melissa said, covering her head with her hands.

Chapter 209 Ryleigh's Scheme

Even if Melissa had nothing to do with Jaylin, they were reported to live together. Their relationship had gotten onto the list of trending topics many times.

Unlike them, Anaya and Jaylin did have an engagement. Melissa was afraid that those unscrupulous reporters would stretch the fact to get more attention.

"It's only a rumor. I don't care about it," Jaylin said indifferently.

He and Anaya were not even friends. He didn't do anything wrong, so he didn't care about how others viewed him.

Melissa narrowed her eyes and said, "I don't want you to be affected by the matter. You've been working hard over the past two years. It's not easy to be what you are today. Do you understand?"

"You are not just a popular star. Since you are at the helm of Star Entertainment, you are the representative of the company. If the reporters use the matter to blacken your name, both you and the company will be impacted."

"Melissa, are you concerned about me or the company?" Jaylin curled his lips slowly.

"I care about you as well as the company," Melissa hesitated for a while before replying.

"Don't worry. I will handle the matter," Jaylin said with a gloomy face.

He didn't care about his own image, but he had to ensure the interests of the company.

Moreover, Melissa was involved in the matter. He didn't allow anyone to destroy her reputation.

"That's good." Melissa nodded.

"Melissa, you will attend my birthday party tomorrow night, right?" Jaylin suddenly changed the topic.

"Yes," Melissa said in a flat voice.

"I'll wait for you," Jaylin said, looking at her deeply.

Half an hour later, Jaylin's car stopped in front of Eastern Garden. Jaylin said, "I'll go upstairs with you."

Melissa got out of the car and turned around. "No, thanks."

Something occurred to her. She said, "Jaylin, I want to rent a new house."

"What happened? Don't you like living here?" Jaylin was stunned for a moment.

"I'm done with the media outlets," Melissa said, with her lips curling

"I didn't know you cared about those gossips." Jaylin couldn't help saying in frustration.

"I don't want to be the center of the gossip," Melissa said with certainty.

Jaylin frowned.

He knew Melissa well. She used not to care about gossip.

She was the same as Jaylin. As long as they didn't do anything wrong, they would not care about what others thought.

However, Melissa was no longer willing to live in his apartment.

Jaylin wondered if Melissa wanted to keep a distance from him.

After a moment of silence, Jaylin spoke in a serious voice, "Is it because of ... Murray?"

Murray?

As soon as Melissa heard the name, she felt her heart leap.

She indeed didn't want to mislead Murray in any way.

However, at the thought of how Ryleigh stayed with Murray, she felt upset.

"It has nothing to do with him." Melissa turned around and left after finishing her words.

Just as she entered the house, Melissa received a message from Anthony, "Ada, I got some information about Ryleigh."

Melissa immediately replied, "Send me the information."

Anthony
texted, "Ada, didn't you ask me to investigate what happened to Ryleigh around October 18th? I did find something unusual. Can you guess what it was?"

Melissa's heartbeat quickened.

Her intuition told her that what Anthony was going to say would be extraordinary.

Melissa was anxious and replied, "Don't keep me guessing. Tell me!"

Soon, Melissa received a photo from Anthony.

The photo showed Ryleigh staying with two men.

The two men looked somewhat familiar.

It took Melissa a while to remember who they were

When she and Murray were engaged, Rylcuh bumped into Murray's car because of being hounded

by the twomen

The paparazzi snapped a shot of the scene.

From the photo, Melissa could tell that Ryleigh got along well with the two men. It seemed that the two men wouldn't make difficulties for Ryleigh.

However, Melissa was unable to make a conclusion that merely depended on one photo .

Just as Melissa sank in thought, Anthony sent her a message again, "Ada, Ryleigh gave the two men 34,000 dollars in early October. I don't know why she did so for now. She probably had a deal with them."

How could Ryleigh give the two men such a fortune?

Melissa found it unbelievable.

Didn't Ryleigh borrow usury to treat her grandmother?

How could she have so much money?

Why did she give the two men so much money? Did she ask them to help her deceive Murray?

Thinking of this, Melissa sent Anthony a message, "Anthony, please do me a favor. I want to know Ryleigh's relationship with the two men and the reason she gave them the money. There are secrets behind Ryleigh."

Anthony replied, "Alright, I'll find out soon."

A few seconds later, Anthony sent Melissa another message, "Ryleigh is definitely not a simple person. Ada, you must be careful!"

Melissa replied, "Don't worry."

She put down the phone and lay on the sofa. Ryleigh's face flashed through her mind. She wondered, Ryleigh is indeed a drama queen. She talked to me arrogantly, but she seemed to be weak in front of Murray.

Melissa narrowed her eyes. Given Ryleigh liked Murray, she would resort to every trick to drive Melissa out of the Gibson Corporation

Melissa decided to wait and see.

She was sure that Ryleigh wouldn't let her off easily

She was eager to know what Ryleigh was going to do.

The weekend passed in a flash. A new week began years channel

Melissa turned on the computer and was about to read the information related to North Bay Project. Just then, there came the sound of high heels from behind.

Melissa looked up and saw Ryleigh standing in front of her with hostility.

Melissa glanced at her indifferently and then continued to work.

"Melissa, I came here with Ray just now," Ryleigh said and smirked.

"Is that so? Does this have anything to do with me?" Melissa asked without raising her head.

Ryleigh hated Melissa's indifference the most. Ryleigh broadened into a provocative smile. "Ray got you a photo of Julie and helped you out of trouble yesterday. Do you think he still cares about you?

"In fact, he did it for his grandfather.

"After all, you are going to treat his grandfather. Ray feared that you would hurt his grandfather if you were in a bad mood. Therefore, he helped you.

"By the way, Ray went to save you because of Mr. Luca. After all, you are the only one who knows where Mr. Luca is.

"You'd better not flatter yourself. Murray doesn't love you at all. I'm the only one in his heart."

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 210

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed

Chapter 210

Chapter 210 The President of the BPL Group

Melissa narrowed her beautiful eyes and looked inquisitively at Ryleigh.

This woman here ... was utterly unlike the Lily Murray talked about who would sacrifice herself to save Murray.

Plus the information Anthony found yesterday, Melissa had more reason to believe that there was a big secret behind Ryleigh.

If Melissa could uncover this secret, then surely Murray would no longer be deluded by Ryleigh's innocent look.

When Ryleigh saw that Melissa was silent and was just sizing her up with incomprehensible gazes, her expression went dark. Ryleigh was about to say something when the phone on Melissa's desk

suddenly rang

The number was 888.

It was actually from Murray!

Ryleigh's heart sank as she looked at Melissa warily.

Why was Murray calling Melissa?

Under Ryleigh's gloomy gaze, Melissa calmly picked up the phone and asked, "Murray, what is it?"

"Melissa, come to my office." Murray's attractive voice sounded.

Melissa nodded and consented. "OK."

After hanging up the phone, Melissa glanced at Ryleigh, whose face looked gloomier than ever. Melissa's lips curled and said, "Your Ray is looking for me. Please get out of the way!"

"Melissa, you..."

Ryleigh glared at Melissa and wanted to follow her. Melissa turned around and said coldly, "Ray only asked for me to come over."

Under Ryleigh's cold gaze, Melissa took the elevator to the 18th floor.

Standing at the door of Murray's office, Melissa was inexplicably nervous.

Why was Murray looking for her so early in the morning?

Taking a deep breath, Melissa reached out and knocked on the door.

"Come in!" Murray's clear voice sounded.

Melissa pushed the door and entered.

Murray was sitting in his seat. He wore a simple white shirt with his sleeves rolled up, and the top two buttons on his chest were unbuttoned, revealing his muscular chest.

Despite his arrogance and indifference, Murray was still dazzling, eye-catching, and beguiling.

Alex was standing respectfully beside Murray.

Hearing her voice, Murray looked up and swept his gaze over Melissa's face.

Melissa collected her thoughts and walked to Murray, "Is there something you need?"

"I've found some information about the BPL Group," Murray said indifferently, "I think we should take a look at it together."

Murray turned his head to look at Alex. Alex immediately respectfully inserted the USB in his hand into the computer at the side and turned it on.

"According to the information I found in the past few days, the President of the BPL Group is called Sebastian. He is currently 31 years old and established the BPL Group five years ago." As Alex spoke, he zoomed in on a photo,

In the photo, a man was wearing an ash-colored suit.

Melissa's gaze fell on the computer screen and she gasped.

It was him!

The man whom Melissa accidentally bumped into at the airport, who then got into a car accident Melissa witnessed and was sent to the hospital by her!

This man was the president of the BPL Group

It was also he who bought Love and Romance Jewelry Group and made a high-quality imitation of "Ice and Fire," which caused a lot of trouble for the Gibson Corporation,

Then, could it be that it wasn't a coincidence at all that Melissa met Sebastian at the airport that day?

"Melissa, what's wrong?" Murray saw that Melissa's thoughts were drifting and frowned.

Melissa came back to her senses. "I'm fine."

"You know him?" Murray curled his lips,

"I don't," Melissa shook her head.

Alex continued, "There is news that Sebastian has returned to the country recently, and the DPI Group will participate in the bidding for the North Bay Project."

Melissa was stunned,

Murray once said that he was determined to win the North Bay Project.

As long as Murray wanted it, no one in Aldness would refuse to give him a favor, let alone have the courage to snatch it from him.

But now, Sebastian's BPL Group was going to participate in the bid for the North Bay Project, which meant he would openly compete with Murray.

In addition to the series of events Sebastian had caused when he purchased Love and Romance, it was hard to believe that he was not deliberately targeting the Gibson Corporation.

"Mr. Gibson, this is all the information we had about Sebastian." Alex turned to the last page and said.

Murray's face turned cold. "Keep an eye on the BPL Group."

"Yes, Mr. Gibson!" Alex looked serious. "If there is nothing else, then I will go back to work now."

Alex cleverly walked out and closed the door behind him.

Alex had only taken a few steps when he suddenly saw Ryleigh walking toward him.

"Ms. Sofia," Alex stopped Ryleigh.

"Is Ray in the president's office? There's something I need to talk with him about." In front of Alex, Ryleigh also put on that innocent look.

Alex smiled, "He is busy. By the way, about the North Bay Project, the president asked me to give you some information. Why don't you follow me to my office and fetch it?"

Ryleigh nodded. "Alright, thank you."

Alex led Ryleigh toward his office, thinking that he had really put in a lot of effort for the sake of his CEO's lifelong happiness,

In Murray's office.

After Alex left, only Melissa and Murray were left.

"Murray..."

"Melissa..."

The two spoke at the same time,

The atmosphere was slightly awkward at that moment,

Murray's deep gaze fell on Melissa, his thin lips slightly raised, "You speak too fast."

"Yes." Melissa nodded, clearing her throat before speaking, "Regarding the matter of Love and Romance' imitating our 'Ice and Fire' products, I've carefully thought of a countermeasure these few days."

"Is that so?" Murray was a little absent-minded.

"Since we can't entirely prove their plagiarism, for now, we can only perfect our own products and seek a breakthrough." Melissa pursed her lips and said.

Melissa had thought about it for the past few days, and this was the only feasible way at present.

As long as the

Gibson Corporation perfected the design of "ice and fire", increased the highlights, and designed an even more exquisite and attractive second version, they would definitely be able to win back the customers they lost.

Moreover, this time they would have to apply for a design patent as soon as possible, so that "Love and Romance" could no longer imitate them.

"I will think about it." Murray loosened his tie in slight frustration.

Melissa said lightly, "This should be the best way for the current stage. You should make a decision as soon as possible. If there is nothing else, I will go back to work now."

After saying that, Melissa turned around and walked towards the gate.

"Melissa, had I allowed you to leave?" Murray's voice came coldly from behind.

When he finished speaking, Murray suddenly stood up and took a step forward, blocking Melissa's path. He narrowed his eyes slightly and said expressionlessly, "Melissa, is work the only thing you want to tell me about?"
