Chapter 421

Chapter 421 Are You Really Lily?

Ryleigh's pupils suddenly contracted, and she looked strange.

Ryleigh was nervous. A trace of panic and surprise flashed through her face.

Why was Melissa here?

When everyone heard the sound, they also turned around to look. After discovering that it was Melissa, most of the people present revealed confused or surprised expressions.

However, there were still many people who wanted to watch the show.

The two engage parties of Murray were here. Many people thought that there must be a good show to watch.

Melissa walked over step by step. Her calm and composed appearance made everyone not dare to speak. Melissa's aura was something that Ryleigh did not dare to think about.

For some reason, Ryleigh felt a little flustered.

"Melissa, what are you doing here?"

Melissa did not say anything but stared straight at Ryleigh. Ryleigh nervously swallowed a mouthful of saliva. She unconsciously looked around and began to panic. When she saw the security guards standing on both sides of the table, she finally felt a little relaxed.

"Security guards! What are you waiting for? Hurry up and drive this woman out!"

Ryleigh was hysterical. She looked like a completely different person just now.

The security guards present looked at each other. None of them dared to make a move at all. By the way, they also wanted to know what would happen next.

Melissa sneered. She looked at Ryleigh as if she was looking at a clown.

“Are you surprised to see me? Or did you wait for Murray but he hasn’t come?”

Sebastian’s eyes also became strange. He stared at Melissa and had a premonition that something big was going to happen.

Ryleigh clenched the microphone. She didn’t know if it was because of guilt or nervousness. Melissa walked up to her. Ryleigh looked at Melissa nervously and took a step back. She almost tripped over her long dress. At the critical moment, Melissa reached out and grabbed her.

Melissa walked over to Ryleigh, reached out to take the microphone placed in front of the stage, and said loudly, “Sorry to ask you to come over. Actually, there won’t be any engagement tonight.”

“What? There won’t be an engagement? What is going on?”

Melissa’s words were like a stone that stirred up a thousand layers of waves. The crowd below the stage looked at each other, and the sounds of the discussion gradually became louder.

“Because this Ms. Sofia, who is standing beside me,” Melissa turned her head and glanced at Ryleigh, revealing a light smile. Then she said, “She is not Mr. Gibson’s first love.”

“What?”

The crowd was even more shocked. The reporters could not let go of the shocking news. The sound of the shutter rang out one after another, Ryleigh widened her eyes and unconsciously squeezed the edge of her dress tightly. Her heart raced uncontrollably because of nervousness.

How can Melissa know this secret? I have never told anyone!

Ryleigh looked at Melissa in disbelief. Her body’s instinctive reaction was always one step faster than her mind. Ryleigh threw herself at Melissa and was about to tear and shove her. It would not be an exaggeration to say that Ryleigh was out of control. She was completely different from her dignified appearance just now.

“You are lying! You are slandering me! You are just jealous of me. You are jealous that I can be with Murray. Get out of here! Security guards, hurry up and drive this crazy woman away!”

Ryleigh had a ferocious look on her face, completely losing her lovable appearance. Compared to Melissa, she was more like a madman.

She looked around in panic, staring at the security guards and shouting. But the security guards stood still, not daring to move.

Only Ryleigh's voice could be heard in the banquet hall. Soon, another protagonist of the plan, Murray, came in.

When Ryleigh saw Murray, her eyes lit up. Murray was her witness, and only he was.

Not waiting for Murray to go on stage, Ryleigh quickly lifted her dress and trotted down. She held Murray's hand tightly, her eyes sincere. Then she showed a smile.

Ryleigh pointed at Melissa, gritted her teeth, and said to Murray, "Murray, it's her! She deliberately ruined our engagement. She is jealous that I am with you. Ray, quickly get someone to drive her away!"

Ryleigh still held a glimmer of hope that Murray would favor her. Unexpectedly, Murray did not even look at her and directly shook her hand off. He looked at Ryleigh coldly and distantly.

Then he said, "What are you afraid of? Isn't what she said the truth? To tell you the truth, I don't intend to get engaged to you. All of this is just a trap set up for you."

Ryleigh stood still in shock, terrified and nervous. After Murray finished speaking, he did not look at Ryleigh again but strode towards Melissa.

Ryleigh took the microphone from Melissa and said sincerely, "Sorry, I came late and let you participate in a non-existent engagement ceremony. I'm very sorry."

Ryleigh stared at Murray and Melissa in disbelief. She was on the verge of collapse, and she could not believe that the engagement ceremony was false.

"No, no..."

Ryleigh inquired if she was possessed. When she looked up and saw Murray, she ran up to him without a care for her image. She knelt by the side of the stage; her face full of tears. She grabbed Murray's hand tightly, trying to prove herself.

"No, no... Ray, listen to me. When we were young, we were locked in a small wooden house. I blocked the big dog for you and took you out of the small wooden house. Later, we ran away. In order to help you lead the kidnappers away, I fell off the cliff.... Have you forgotten that? I am Lily! I am!"

Ryleigh seemed to be full of grievances. What she could do was sob helplessly. Her face and ears were red from the exertion. However, when Murray looked at her, he looked like he was looking at an unrelated stranger without any emotions.

Melissa stood next to Murray and watched Ryleigh's "performance" coldly. After Ryleigh finally finished crying

Melissa sneered, turned around, and faced Ryleigh.

"Ryleigh, I really didn't expect you to still lie even now. How can you say that you are Lily in front of so many people? How can you be so shameless?"

"What are you talking about? What are you talking about? I am indeed Lily!"

Melissa smiled in disdain. She knew that Ryleigh was unwilling to admit the truth. She quickly walked over and pointed at Ryleigh's back. Ryleigh was wearing a sexy costume that revealed her back. Therefore, everyone present saw the scars on her back

Melissa pointed at the scars and shouted, "These scars were not caused by falling off a cliff when she was young. They were man-made!"

Chapter 422 The Truth

As soon as Melissa finished speaking, the entire hall was in an uproar. Ryleigh's pupils constricted as she glanced back. How did Melissa know that?

However, Ryleigh quickly reacted and glared at Melissa. Ryleigh did not care about her image. She even wanted to kill, Melissa.

"You... What nonsense are you talking about? If you believe that these scars are not the injuries because I fell off the cliff, then take out the evidence. Otherwise, you are slandering me!"

Ryleigh repeated that Melissa was slandering her. After she finished speaking, there was a trace of joy and faint confidence in her eyes.

Ryleigh was sure that Melissa could not bring out any evidence.

As long as Ryleigh could prove that she was Lily, then Murray would not leave her!

“If there is no evidence, how can I come today?”

Melissa looked down at Ryleigh. Ryleigh instinctively panicked. She didn't even know where to look.

When Melissa saw Ryleigh like this, she knew what was going on. Melissa turned to look at the entrance and said loudly to a waiter standing by the door, “Invite that lady up.”

Who was it?

Ryleigh didn't even remember to cry. She instinctively looked out the door, forgetting to wipe the tears on her face, her eyes red.

A short while later, a golden-haired woman in her thirties walked over. When Ryleigh saw the woman, she immediately panicked.

Ryleigh thought, isn't she the doctor that I entrusted to help with creating scars?

Why is she here?

Melissa nodded at the woman and said to everyone, “This is the doctor who helped Ryleigh make those scars. I believe no one knows better than her how Ryleigh got her injuries.”

Melissa looked at the woman and smiled. “Miss Rose, please tell everyone everything that happened at that time.”

The woman took the microphone and pondered for a moment. She glanced at Ryleigh and thought for a moment before saying, “The scars on this young lady's back are not caused by falling. Someone came to me before and asked me to fake them with special medicine and materials.”

Sebastian narrowed his eyes and stared at the doctor on the stage. However, everyone was surprised by Ryleigh's “scam”. No one noticed him.

Melissa, just waited!

Sebastian did not intend to delay any longer and turned to leave quickly.

“And...” Rose stopped and said something even more shocking, “That person asked me to deliberately make these fake wounds look exactly like the scars left behind after falling off a cliff.”

The entire hall was in an uproar, and the sounds of discussion clearly reached Ryleigh's ears.

"I really didn't expect Ryleigh to be such a person, she can even disguise herself as Murray's first love. How shameless."

"I told you a long time ago. How can a bar singer be a good person? I thought it was incredible for Murray to be with her."

"What about Melissa?"

"Didn't you hear what they said just now? This is just a game. Melissa and Murray are hard to put on..."

These voices were not loud, but it was enough to drive Ryleigh crazy.

Ryleigh looked at the doctor, unconvinced. Her mind was full of resentment. Her eyes were red as she stared at Melissa. She absolutely would not let everything that was within her reach be away. Never!

Ryleigh still wanted to struggle, as if she did not take the doctor's words seriously at all. She just stared at Melissa.

"Melissa, do you think a doctor can prove that what you said is true? I'm not Lily? Let me tell you, no one knows better than me about what happened between me and Murray!

"If I were not Lily, then how did I know about Murray being kidnapped?"

Ryleigh was indeed unwilling to give up...

Melissa shook her head, feeling rather helpless. However, she looked at Ryleigh with confidence and raised her eyebrows slightly. "That is because you are the daughter of one of the kidnapers. Back then, you witnessed the whole process of Murray and Lily being kidnapped. You know the cause and effect. When you take this matter to deceive others more than ten years later, no one will find out. Am I right?"

Ryleigh was shocked and broke out in cold sweats. However, she still shook her head and denied it. "What are you talking about? How can I be the daughter of a kidnapper? Melissa, you have to take legal responsibility for slandering me!"

"Did I slander you? Are you still saying that I am slandering you?"

Melissa was even a little speechless at Ryleigh's stubbornness. She didn't know how a person could hold on to this point.

"It seems that you are not willing to give up. Mr. Field, please come out."

Melissa shouted at the entrance. Soon, a middle-aged man who looked to be in his fifties slowly walked over. Ryleigh looked at the man doubtfully. She was completely unfamiliar with this man. She could not remember him at all.

"Ryleigh, you may not believe it. This is one of the police officers in charge of the kidnapping case of Murray. I even went to the police station several times for you. Now, the policeman who investigated the case is here. What he said is not false, right?"

With that, Melissa handed the microphone to the middle-aged man. "Mr. Field."

The man took the microphone and said, "I am Alger Field, one of the policemen in charge of the kidnapping case of the Gibson family for fifteen years. At that time, senior Mr. Gibson reported that someone had taken his grandson away. After our unremitting efforts, we finally found the child called Murray in a remote mountain village. There were a total of four kidnappers arrested. One of them was in his thirties and looked like a local resident of the village."

When Ryleigh heard what the man said, she felt her hands and feet seem to freeze, and she could not move at all. Ryleigh felt a chill of apprehension. Cold sweat dripped from her forehead.

Ryleigh would always remember the day when her father was handcuffed and taken away. Her stepmother was afraid of going to jail and tried her best to distance herself from her father. One morning, after making the last breakfast for Dulaich hornton har haft and n arrativnad

Chapter 423 Unless You Never Do It

After Alger finished speaking, other than Melissa, Murray, and Sebastian, everyone present was shocked, and they all looked at Ryleigh who behaved pitifully just now.

Ryleigh's heart suddenly sank, and her face clouded over. She did not expect that the truth that she had covered for more than ten years was actually uncovered on such an occasion.

She originally thought that she was going to get happiness.

Ryleigh was silent and fell into memories.

Back then, after her stepmother left the Sofia family, no one took care of Ryleigh. Therefore, she was sent to an orphanage in town by the police.

There were also a lot of children there.

At first, Ryleigh thought that she would make new friends, not to mention that she felt that it was no pity to leave such a family.

However, the children in the orphanage seemed to know her background. Even if Ryleigh was also a child, the other children in the orphanage were not willing to play with her. They even said bad things about her behind her back, and even bullied her openly.

Ryleigh still remembered that there was one time when she had just returned to her seat and opened her pencil case, and she saw a fat caterpillar inside.

“Ah!” Ryleigh shouted out of fear. It was class time, and there were many people in the class. Everyone looked at her strangely.

They were doubtful or confused... In short, none of them were kind.

At that time, there were a few seven- or eight-year-old boys who clapped their hands excitedly and laughed. They even made faces at Ryleigh and stuck out their tongues, showing sarcastic smiles.

One of the taller boys said without care, “Your father is in prison! He is a criminal. The daughter of a criminal should be like this! We heard that your father kidnapped someone else. Then you are not a good person. You are not a good person!”

Most of the children in the class began to agree. Some of them held the attitude of having fun and watching the fun. Ryleigh would fight with them in the beginning, but what she got in return was a more severe punishment from the teacher and more severe acts of revenge from the boys.

Over time, no matter how angry Ryleigh was, she knew she should endure her anger.

From then on, Ryleigh swore that she would make a name for herself and make these people who looked down on her pay the price

Until that day, she was brought to the Director's office. Like the Director, a man was waiting for her. The man was in a suit and dressed cleanly.

"Ryleigh." The Director said with a smile, "This Mister said that he wanted to adopt you. He came back from Geormia. If you go with him, you will have a new home in the future. Are you happy?"

Ryleigh didn't say anything,

She was silent for a long time. Then she tilted her head and looked at the gentleman. In the end, she only asked, "Will

The man was stunned for a moment and then laughed, "Of course, it will be better than now. As long as you come home with me, I promise that you will live a happy life a thousand times or ten thousand times better than now."

"I will go with you."

Without any hesitation, Ryleigh nodded her head. She wanted to leave this damned place.

After that, Ryleigh left the orphanage. The man took her to Geormia, where she met Sebastian and knew who the real person who adopted her was.

In reality.

Melissa looked at Ryleigh, who was motionless and silent, not knowing what Ryleigh was thinking. However, no matter what Ryleigh was thinking and what she wanted to say, she could not reverse the current situation.

Melissa smiled lightly and took out a digital voice recorder from her jacket pocket. She pressed the play button. Then, Sebastian and Ryleigh's voices were clearly heard.

Only then did Ryleigh finally react. She instinctively wanted to grab the digital voice recorder, but Melissa had already raised her hand.

Melissa said to the crowd, "Now that the witness and material evidence are here, everyone should have heard it. Ryleigh is not Lily at all. Her identity is fake! Moreover, she has been in contact with Sebastian for a long time. Ryleigh, if I remember correctly, the person who adopted you in the orphanage was a member of the Lawford family."

"What nonsense are you talking about?" Ryleigh's eyes were burning with anger. She couldn't even control the volume of her voice. Ryleigh still wanted to argue.

"It's not like this! You are talking nonsense! It is you..."

"Oh?" Melissa looked at Ryleigh with a funny smile and said, "If I were talking nonsense, why are you in a hurry now? Or are you afraid that if I continue to talk, the truth will be found out? About the previous bidding of North Bay, it was you who leaked the bottom of the Gibson family to the BPL Group, right?"

"You..."

Ryleigh froze in place. The scene had long been silent as if no one could accept such a piece of big news.

"Do you want to ask how I know?"

Melissa casually said, staring into Ryleigh's eyes, "Everything will be exposed unless you never did it.

"Now everyone knows, right? Ryleigh was ordered by Sebastian to get close to Murray. Her purpose was to steal the business secrets of the Gibson Corporation so that the Gibson Corporation would be swallowed up by the BPL Group!"

Alusough Meissa's voice was not loud, it was clear.

Ryleigh's heart was hammering. She pursed her lips tightly as if she was searching her mind for words to explain.

"You don't have any evidence. What right do you have to say that I only approached Murray for the sake of stealing secrets? Do you have evidence to prove that I have revealed it to the BPL Group? Do you have any evidence?"

Melissa let out a long breath and snapped her fingers. Then, she picked up the remote control and pressed the play button. The big screen on the stage instantly showed the surveillance in Murray's study room. Ryleigh's face was pale and she could not say a word,

"Did you see that? You went to Murray's ctulu and stole the proposal of North Bay Amusement Park for Sebastian. It

“You want Murray to believe you?” Melissa took a step forward and looked at Ryleigh with disdain. “You deliberately approached him to get his sympathy. You even pretended to have terminal cancer to get Murray engaged to you!”

Melissa’s voice was not loud but it was clear.

Everyone was surprised and began to gabble.

“What? Ryleigh is not really ill. She is shamming.”

“Why did she do this? She even pretended to have terminal cancer.”

“Ryleigh did it just to get Mr. Gibson’s sympathy, but she didn’t know that Mr. Gibson had already known that she was pretending to be ill.”

“Ryleigh will suffer the consequences.”

“What you said is not true! You are wronging me!”

Ryleigh retreated and retorted.

Melissa said sarcastically, “You said I wronged you? Ok, I’ll show you the evidence.”

Then Melissa played a video.

The people in the video were Ryleigh and her attending physician, Turner.

Ryleigh handed Turner a bank card. “Here is 800,000 dollars. If you help me, I’ll give you an additional 800,000 dollars.”

Turner took the bank card and nodded. “Ms. Sofia, I’ll help you. But if Mr. Gibson knows what we did, he will not let me go.”

“Don’t worry. Murray loves me. When I marry him and become the hostess of the Gibson family, I will promote you to be the dean.”

When Turner heard this, he was happy. “I will tell everyone that you have terminal cancer. But if you want people to believe this, you will pretend to receive painful treatment.”

“No problem!” Ryleigh said firmly. “As long as I can get Murray’s sympathy, I am willing to do anything.”

The video was over. Ryleigh stared at the screen in shock and her face was pale.

It’s impossible...

How did Melissa take this video?

“Ryleigh, don’t deny it.” Melissa sneered. “If you want to say that I made this fake video to wrong you, I’ll call Dr.

Huff to confront you.”

Melissa showed the evidence. Even if Ryleigh denied what she had done, people wouldn’t believe her.

Ryleigh didn’t expect this to happen.

I should have been engaged to Murray today. Today should have been my happiest day!

How could this happen?

Ryleigh trembled and looked at Melissa and Murray in disbelief. She was unwilling to accept the ending.

Ryleigh trembled and looked at Melissa and Murray in disbelief. She was unwilling to accept the ending.

“Ryleigh, you did everything to steal the commercial secrets of the Gibson Corporation. You don’t love Murray at all.” Melissa sneered.

“No! What you said is not true!” Ryleigh broke down.

Ryleigh pulled Murray’s arm and said in a tearful voice, “Murray, I can explain. Sebastian let me steal the proposal of the North Bay Amusement Park, but I did not do so. Because I love you. It was Sebastian who threatened me to do this!”

“In other words, you admit that you are not Lily.” Ryleigh fell to the ground. Melissa looked down at her and said coldly.

Murray pulled away from Ryleigh and said disgustedly, “You are not Lily, but the daughter of the kidnapper who kidnapped me. So, you know what happened back then!”

Murray’s face was gloomy as if the temperature had even dropped.

He thought, before, I believed that Ryleigh was Lily and even hurt Melissa.

However, I did not expect that Ryleigh would lie to me. She deliberately got close to me and hurt Melissa. She even wanted to steal the commercial secrets of the Gibson Corporation.

No wonder when Melissa first saw Ryleigh, she thought Ryleigh was not Lily.

Murray felt uneasy about Ryleigh.

So, when Melissa told him that Ryleigh was not Lily, he chose to believe in Melissa. Murray and Melissa set a trap to expose Ryleigh's identity and Sebastian's conspiracy.

"It's you! Melissa, you did all this!" Ryleigh suddenly thought of something and stared at Melissa with hatred.

"You planned everything that happened today! You made me believe that Murray was willing to be engaged with me. You let my guard down to find evidence! You did all this!" Ryleigh shouted.

"You're right." Melissa sneered, "If you didn't lie that you were Lily, how could all this happen today? You should have known you would suffer such a consequence. If you feel bad now, you deserve it!"

Melissa paused for a moment and continued, "By the way, the proposal you gave Sebastian was fake."

"What? Is the proposal fake?" Ryleigh was shocked.

I secretly photographed this proposal in Murray's study. How could it be fake?

Did Murray know my plan and deliberately let me succeed?

"Yes." Murray smiled and looked at Sebastian coldly. "Ryleigh didn't steal the proposal and you didn't break our plan at all."

Then Sebastian heard this, he suddenly felt very uneasy.

He thought, could it be...

Then Murray said coldly, "The contents of the proposal are all fake, so the raw materials you spent a high price on are useless."

Chapter 425 Confession in Public

Murray's words caused an uproar in the audience.

The reporters surrounded Sebastian and asked him questions one by one.

"Mr. Lawford, what do you think about what Mr. Gibson just said?"

"Is Ryleigh really just a tool that you arranged for Mr. Gibson?"

"Did you secretly order Ryleigh to steal the business secrets of the Gibson Corporation? Now that Ryleigh's identity has been exposed and the BPL Group has been seriously challenged, can you tell us about your current mood, Mr. Lawford?"

His mood right now.

Sebastian was naturally in a bad mood right now.

"Go away!" Sebastian's expression was extremely gloomy as he shouted at the reporters.

He clenched his fists tightly, his fingers tightening bit by bit.

He had fallen for the trap!

It turned out that Murray and Melissa had already seen through his plan. They had acted quietly and quarreled in front of Ryleigh and the reporters many times, making everyone think that the two of them had fallen out.

However, the two of them secretly deployed everything. On one hand, Murray pretended to be engaged to Ryleigh, confusing him and Ryleigh, and on the other hand, they secretly tried to find evidence.

It was all to give him such a fatal blow at today's engagement ceremony.

This time, he underestimated Murray.

Not only did he lose Ryleigh, but his company also suffered a lot.

He would remember what Murray had done to him.

In the future, he would definitely take revenge!

Sebastian pushed the reporters away and turned to leave.

“Take Ryleigh to the police station and sue her for stealing.” Murray lowered his head to look at Ryleigh, who was limp on the ground, and said coldly.

“No, no!” Ryleigh’s face was pale and her whole body was trembling. “Murray, please let me go. Please! Sebastian was the one who ordered me to do this. It has nothing to do with me!”

Murray, on the other hand, did not even give her a cold look.

Two security guards came forward and dragged Ryleigh away. She was crying hard.

looking at Ryleigh’s crying face, Melissa slightly curved her lips.

After so many days of hard work and deployment, their effort was not in vain.

Today, not only did they expose Ryleigh’s true face in front of everyone, but they also caused Sebastian to suffer the consequences of his actions and give the BPL Group a heavy blow.

However, since Ryleigh was not Lily, then where was the real Lily?

Get Grupin

If one day Lily appeared, what would happen to Murray?

Molissa’s mind could not help but be distracted for a moment.

“What are you thinking about?” Seeing that the woman beside him was in a daze, Murray strode over to Melissa and leaned his thin lips close to her ear, asking in a low voice.

Melissa came back to her senses and shook her head. “Nothing.”

“Really?” Murray looked at her worriedly.

In the face of Murray’s concern, Melissa had a faint smile. She could feel the deep love of the man beside her.

In the future, even if Lily really appeared, Melissa was confident that Murray would never love others.

Today's engagement ceremony had become a farce. Seeing the sweet interaction between Melissa and Murray, the reporters surrounded them one after another.

"Mr. Gibson, may I ask if the engagement ceremony today was planned by you?"

"Ms. Eugen, the quarrel between you and Mr. Gibson was part of your plan, right?"

"Mr. Gibson, in fact, you have never loved Ryleigh, nor have you planned to get engaged to her. Is that so?"

"That's right." Murray nodded indifferently, and his deep gaze fell on Melissa's face, "From the beginning to the end, I have only loved one woman, and that is Melissa.

"And my fiancée is only Melissa."

Murray's words were equivalent to confessing his love to Melissa in public.

His magnetic voice entered Melissa's ears. Melissa's face turned slightly red.

What is Murray doing? There are so many people.

"Enough." Melissa glared at Murray and whispered.

Just as Melissa finished speaking, the next second, Murray suddenly leaned close to her and his thin lips landed a light kiss on her forehead.

There was thunderous applause. Today was originally Murray and Ryleigh's engagement ceremony, but it turned into Murray confessing to Melissa.

Melissa's face was burning, and she hurriedly pushed Murray away.

The cameras of the reporters kept flashing and recording this sweet and beautiful scene.

However, there were some unpleasant things.

Claire, who was sitting in her seat watching the ceremony, glared at Melissa on the stage, unable to hide the jealousy in her eyes.

She originally thought that Murray would be engaged to Ryleigh, but she did not expect that in the end, it was still Melissa

She wondered, how could Melissa, this slut, have all of this?

Claire could not stand this.

Her hands on both sides of her body were tightly clenched into fists. Her jealous gaze at Melissa indicated that she wanted to cut Melissa into a thousand pieces.

Thinking of this, Claire couldn't help but feel a little excited.

If there was a chance, she would ask Sarah what had happened back then.

"Alright, let's call it a day." Murray said in a deep voice, "The engagement ceremony between me and Melissa will be held next month. The specific date will be announced someday."

After Murray finished speaking, he held Melissa's hand and left directly with her.

Melissa was held by Murray, and their fingers were interlocked.

The warmth from Murray's fingers went through Melissa's palm, and she felt warm.

When they arrived at the parking lot outside the hotel, Murray opened the car door for Melissa in a very gentle manner. "Get in the car." A magnetic voice sounded.

"OK, thank you!" Melissa sat in the passenger seat and leaned back slightly against the seat.

After such a long night, she also felt a little tired. Now, she just wanted to go back and rest early.

"How about you driving me back?" Melissa turned to look at Murray.

Murray chuckled, "Where else do you want to go? I've already asked someone to move all your things to Moonlight Mansion."

"Ah?" Melissa was a little surprised and glared at him. "Who told you to touch my things?"

This man acted first and reported afterward.

“You are my wife, of course, you should live with me.” Murray looked like it was a matter of fact.

Previously, in order to make Ryleigh believe that the two of them had fallen out, Murray had asked Melissa to move out.

Now that everything had been settled, he would move Melissa’s belongings back.

Murray did not want to be separated from his beloved woman for even a moment.

Melissa was speechless.

Murray drove Melissa back to Moonlight Mansion. When they got home, Clara happily greeted them, “Ms. Eugen is back.”

“Clara.” In the face of Clara’s concern, Melissa had a faint smile.

All along, Clara had been very good to her, just like a family.

Melissa returned to her room, and sure enough, Murray had moved all her things back

She tidied up a little and went to the bathroom to take a shower, planning to rest early.

After taking a shower, Melissa pushed the door open and walked into the room, only to see Murray sitting on her bed.

“What are you trying to do!” Melissa walked over in a bad mood, wanting to pull him up, “Get out of the way, go back to your room!”

(adsbygoogle = window.adsbygoogle || []).push({});

But Murray was like a wall, which was extremely heavy. Melissa could not pull him up no matter how hard she tried.

Murray pulled her down with a little orce, and Melissa fell into his arms.

Murray wore a white nightgown with two buttons undone on his chest. His chest was hard, and Melissa’s forehead hust a little “Hiss...” Melissa felt pain in her forehead. She snorted lightly and pushed Murray away, wanting to stand up.

But in the next second, her scalp hurt.

Her hair was tied to Murray’s chest button.

Fuck, why am I so unlucky...

“Hurry up and help me fix it. My hair is tied to your buttons.” Melissa had no choice but to ask Murray to help.

“Do it yourself,” Murray laughed in a low voice.

Melissa was speechless.

This man did it on purpose.

Her hands deliberately touched Murray’s chest, and her fingertips stroked his chest, gently stroking it.

Murray held his breath.

This woman’s soft hands touched his chest randomly. It was like lighting a fire!

“Don’t move!” Murray stretched out his hand and pressed Melissa’s hand.

Then, he turned over and pressed her under his body. “Do you know what the consequences are if you dare to provoke me?”

His magnetic voice deliberately had an elevated ending, which was extremely tempting.

Before Melissa could react, he had kissed her red lips.

It had been several days since he had tasted the sweet taste of her red lips, and Murray’s breathing was a little messy.

His hands tightly held the woman’s head under him and deepened the kiss.

Her lips were soft and sweet, like tempting jelly, sweet and delicious, making him unable to resist wanting more.

His tongue pried open Melissa’s lips and teeth, overbearingly probing in and attacking her mouth.

Melissa’s face suddenly became hot.

She regretted it in her heart

Illiad now*n* earlier, I wouldn't have touched him just now.

The temperature in the room continued to rise...

Just as Melissa felt that she was going to be finished today, her cell phone suddenly rang.

"I will answer the phone." Melissa gasped and said.

"Ignore it," Murray said unhappily

"Maybe for something important." Melissa struggled and pushed Murray away.

She picked up her phone and looked at it. It was Jaylin.

Chapter 427 Stay Away from Jaylin

In the hospital.

Jaylin lay helplessly on the bed. His wounds were aching faintly, but his heart ached even more.

Back then, Jaylin believed Melissa and Murray had fallen out with each other and had separated.

When Jaylin heard that Murray was going to engage with Ryleigh, Jaylin, on the one hand, felt Murry was such a scum to lay Melissa down, but on the other hand, he felt somehow happy.

Because Jaylin thought he had a chance again.

However, at the engagement ceremony, Jaylin finally realized that there was nothing except his wishful thinking.

The breakup between Melissa and Murray was just a part of their plan.

They did it to disclose Ryleigh's scheme to the public.

When Murray expressed his love to Melissa, and when Murray kissed Melissa on her forehead, Jaylin felt a sharp pain deep inside of himself.

Because Jaylin knew he would never have another chance.

When Jaylin was lying on the bed in the hospital, Melissa's voice and smile still flashed in Jaylin's mind from time to time, and Jaylin's heart ached.

And in a trance, Jaylin thought he could hear Melissa talking.

Murray drove Melissa to the hospital.

"Wait for me. Visiting Jaylin won't take me too long, and I will be back soon." Getting out of the car, Melissa said to Murray.

"I will go with you," Murray said, grabbing Melissa's hand.

Murray knew Jaylin's affection for Melissa very well, so he didn't want Jaylin to stay with Melissa alone.

Melissa sighed helplessly secretly for Murray's alertness and said, "Fine."

Before Melissa and Murray went into Jaylin's ward, they found the doctor.

Melissa asked, "Sir, how about Jaylin? Is he OK?"

The doctor replied respectfully, "Ms. Eugen, Mr. Segar is fine. His old injury has been dehiscented, and he needs to rest more."

"I see. Thank you, Sir." Melissa heaved a sigh of relief and thanked the doctor.

Melissa knocked on the door of Jaylin's ward.

"Come in," Jaylin said with his deep voice.

Opening the door, Melissa entered the ward followed by Murray,

When Jaylin saw Melissa, he smiled at her.

However, Jaylin then saw Murray, and his smile froze.

"Jaylin, are you alright?" Melissa walked to the bed and asked Jaylin.

"I'm fine. Thank you." Jaylin answered. And the light lit by Melissa faded.

"ok, then. Let's go home." Murray, standing by Melissa's side, suddenly said coldly.

Melissa was speechless by Murray's absurd behavior. They were coming to visit a patient, and they had been in the ward for about one minute.

"Go out and wait for me. I have something to say to Jaylin." Melissa said as she pushed Murray out of the ward.

"Melissa, what do you want to say?" Seeing Melissa drive Murray out of the ward, Jaylin became happy.

Melissa nodded and asked, "Why did you insist on going to work at night? Look at you!"

"I wanted to catch up with the progress," Jaylin said indifferently.

"But now you're injured. Won't you delay more progress in such a circumstance? Would you please take good care of your body?" Bending, Melissa asked, frowning.

"Sorry, I didn't expect to get hurt," Jaylin said apologetically.

Jaylin had been too upset and wanted to find something to do.

"Relax. I'm fine. It's only a minor injury." Knowing Melissa was worried about him, Jaylin felt warm.

"Trust me. I can continue filming tomorrow. I can leave the hospital now!" Saying, Jaylin struggled to get up.

"Stop! You should rest in the hospital!" Melissa pressed Jaylin's shoulder and forced him to lay down.

Murray, who had been waiting outside for a while, was very unhappy. He wanted to know what exactly Melissa wanted to say with Jaylin alone.

Murray then opened the door and walked in.

Then Murray saw Melissa's hands were on Jaylin's shoulders.

What the hell! What are they doing? Why do they look so intimate?

Murray's face became sullen. He strode over to Melissa and pulled her into his arms.

"It's late. We should leave." Murray said in a cold and domineering voice.

Melissa knew Murray was jealous again.

Therefore, Melissa said helplessly to Jaylin, "Promise me that you will stay and rest in hospital these days. Don't return to work before you are healed."

"I don't want the progress retard because of me." Jaylin insisted on his idea.

"But I'm the boss, and I make the rules!" Melissa frowned and said firmly.

Melissa then left with Murray.

Noticing the unhappy air surrounding Murray, Melissa murmured, "How mean..."

"What?" Murray stopped, his deep eyes flickering with anger.

"Nothing." Melissa hurriedly shook her head and pulled Murray's arm, "Let's go now."

Murray suddenly pressed Melissa against the wall of the corridor with his hands on her shoulders.

"Yes." Vivian nodded. Her face turned red.

She was preparing to go to sleep at home, but she received a call from her agent. Her agent told her that Jaylin was injured during the filming at night and might not be able to go to the movie set tomorrow, so Vivian needed to film with others.

"Is he alright?" Vivian asked worriedly.

"I don't know. It shouldn't be a big problem," the agent said.

"Alright, I see."

Vivian hung up the phone and was extremely worried about Jaylin:

It was late. Why did he still go to the set? How did he get injured and go to the hospital?

Pildi,

Her mind was filled with Jaylin's handsome face with a melancholic expression. Vivian directly went to the hospital, wanting to visit Jaylin.

When she reached the corridor, she saw Melissa and Murray.

"Go to see him. We're going back." Melissa smiled and left with Murray.

"Don't you think that Vivian and Jaylin are a good match?" she asked, glancing sideways at Murray.

"Huh?" Murray smiled.

Melissa said thoughtfully, "It seems that Vivian is particularly concerned about Jaylin."

"Why?" Murray asked.

Melissa replied, "Think about it. It's so late and Vivian still comes to visit Jaylin. Doesn't that mean she is especially concerned about Jaylin?"

"Is that so? Then why did you come to visit Jaylin so late at night? Doesn't that mean that you are also particularly concerned about Jaylin?" Murray asked with some displeasure.

Suddenly, words failed her.

Melissa thought, is he jealous?

"That's different. No matter what you think, I am Jaylin's boss. I am concerned about my employees. It is different from Vivian's concern," Melissa said in a bad mood.

Murray smiled and said in a low voice, "I was kidding. Anyway, you can only care about me."

Melissa was speechless. This man was not only stingy, but he was also overbearing.

However, she quite liked Vivian.

Vivian was beautiful, hardworking, modest, and studious.

If Vivian could be together with Jaylin, they would be compatible.

"Jaylin, are you sleeping? Can I come in?" Vivian knocked on the door.

“Please come in,” Jaylin said in a low voice.

Vivian pushed the door and entered.

She saw Jaylin lying on the hospital bed in low spirits and his expression was not good.

“Jaylin, are you alright?” Vivian asked.

“I’m fine. Why are you here?” Jaylin shook his head.

“Jaylin, I heard that you were injured, so I came to see you,” Vivian said.

“Oh, it’s nothing. It’s just a small injury. You came here alone?” Jaylin asked with a smile.

Vivian nodded. “Yes.”

Vivian smiled. “I’m fine. You should have a good rest. Seeing that you’re fine, I feel relieved.

“By the way, I saw Melissa just now. She and Mr. Gibson are also here to see you.”

When Jaylin heard Vivian’s words, the light in Jaylin’s eyes dimmed.

The scene of Murray and Melissa together was constantly flashing in Jaylin’s mind.

He was helpless. His beloved woman did not love him.

Seeing Jaylin like this, Vivian was uncomfortable.

She could understand how Jaylin was feeling at the moment.

Actually, wasn’t she the same?

She liked Jaylin, but Jaylin liked Melissa.

The feelings of a person were complicated.

They were silent, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

“Well, Jaylin, I’ll go back. Have a good rest.” Finally, it was Vivian who spoke first.

Looking at Vivian's departing figure, Jaylin said, "Vivian."

Vivian stopped and turned around. "What's wrong?"

"I will go to the set on time tomorrow. You don't need to change our scenes," Jaylin said in a low voice.

"But you..." Vivian was worried.

"I'm fine." Jaylin insisted.

Early the next morning, Melissa came to the hospital again.

This time, she was visiting Harley.

Nina had been taking care of Harley for the past few days.

"Nina, are you there?" Melissa knocked on the door.

"Melissa, it's you." Nina opened the door.

Melissa walked in and glanced at Harley who was still unconscious on the bed. "How is Harley?"

"He is seriously injured." Melissa pondered for a moment before saying, "Especially his brain. It suffered a violent impact, which is why he was unconscious."

"That's what the doctor said." Nina nodded. Then she said worriedly, "Then what should we do? Can we invite Luca over to see Harley? He should have a way, right?"

"I've already contacted Luca. He's on his way." Melissa sighed.

"That's good. As long as Luca comes, Harley will be saved." Nina sighed in relief.

"Nina, don't worry." Melissa patted Nina on her shoulder.

"I can't. If it weren't for me, Harley wouldn't be like this right now." Nina blamed herself.

"This has nothing to do with you. Besides, you are pregnant and need to rest well." Melissa comforted her.

"I want to spend more time with Harley." Nina looked down at the unconscious man on the bed with a complicated feeling.

All along, she had treated Harley like her younger brother and had never thought of anything going on with him.

But at that time, they were drunk and had made a mistake. Then they had a child.

Now that Harley was like this, she was so sad.

If she hadn't insisted on aborting the child, Harley wouldn't have been in a trance and gotten into a car accident and he wouldn't be unconscious.

Just as Melissa was about to ask Nina to rest, the door to the ward was opened. Reid and Carlee walked in.

Nina lowered her head out of their sight. She said tiredly, "Mr, Timothy, Mrs. Timothy. I'm worried about Harley, so..."

Carlee ignored Nina and walked to Harley's bed. Carlee looked at Harley worriedly and touched his forehead.

Carlee felt very angry when she thought her lively son had gotten into a car accident because of Nina.

"Harley is lying unconscious. Are you very happy?"

"Mrs. Timothy, I'm not. Harley suffers. I..." Nina was very upset.

Nina didn't want anything to happen to Harley. She was more upset than anyone else when Harley got into a car accident.

"Because of you, he has gotten into a car accident. But you said you were not! The truth is right here. How can you deny it? Get out now! I don't want to see you."

Tears welled up in Nina's eyes. "Mrs. Timothy, I want to stay here with Harley. I want him to see me when he wakes up so that he will feel at ease..."

Harley got into a car accident because he was in a hurry to stop Nina from aborting the child. So, Nina wanted Harley to know that the child was fine as soon as he woke up. He would feel at ease that there was no problem.

However, Carlee felt that Nina's voice was annoying. "You are a jinx! Do you want him to faint from anger again after waking up? Get out!"

"Didn't you hear what I said? Get out!"

Carlee was so rude that Nina felt ashamed to stay there.

Melissa held Nina's arms and felt that Nina was trembling. Melissa didn't know if Nina was scared by Carlee or felt regretful with emotion at thinking that Harley was lying unconscious because of her.

"Nina, do you not understand? Get out! Stay away from my son."

Carlee was so overbearing and went too far. Melissa wanted to say a few words to support Nina. But Nina grabbed her arm as a sign for her to keep silent.

Carlee was Harley's mother. Nina was younger and should not be tough.

Reid had been watching them without a word.

Now he said, "Nina, you are pregnant. After staying here for a few days, you should be tired. Go back and rest. You can come here tomorrow morning."

At that, Carlee was unhappy. "How can you allow her to come again?"

"Well, she is pregnant. And the child is also Harley's." Reid sighed.

Nina nodded when she heard she was allowed to see Harley tomorrow morning.

M! 'Dimothy, Mrs. Timoty. Please take good care of Harley.'

Nina and Melissa walked out of the ward.

"Melissa, do you have a hand warmer?"

"No, what's wrong?"

"I might have caught a cold and felt my belly upset." Nina looked even worse.

At that, Melissa unconsciously looked at Nina's belly. Only then did Melissa notice that Nina had been covering her belly with her hand,

Melissa then supported Nina. "I don't have it with me. It should be sold in the supermarket outside the hospital. I'll go out and buy one. Nina, you are pregnant now. Why are you so careless?"

Melissa bought a hand warmer and considerably bought a cup of coffee for Nina.

The hotel where Nina lived was not far from the hospital. And they arrived soon.

In a few minutes, Nina was sitting in the passenger seat and turned a little pale.

Nina tilted her head and asked, "have we arrived? I feel so dizzy today."

Melissa looked at Nina worriedly and touched her forehead. "Are you sick? Why are you so weak?"

Nina got out of the car and said, "I'm not sick Maybe I got carsick because I didn't have breakfast in the morning."

When they came to the room, Nina's forehead was sweating, which scared Melissa.

"Nina, what's wrong? I have to examine you."

Melissa anxiously held Nina's wrist and prepared to examine her.

Nina pushed her away and rushed to the bathroom.

Bang!

Nina closed the door of the bathroom and kept Melissa out. Melissa was following closely behind Nina and worried about her.

"Nina, what's wrong?"

"Nina?"

"I'm fine. I am just in a hurry to go to the bathroom," Nina replied inside.

Go to the bathroom?

She had a bad feeling.

After a while, Melissa heard Nina's broken voice.

Nina said, "Melissa, I am bleeding..."

Melissa was shocked. What?

At Nina's words, Melissa rushed in. At a glance, Melissa saw that Nina's pants were dyed red. Melissa grabbed Nina's wrist and began to examine her "Melissa, my belly hurts." Nina's body could not stop trembling.

It turned out that in the ward just now, Nina had a bellyache because of the child, not because of Carlee's aggressiveness.

Melissa furrowed her brows, "It's alright. Your child is fine. Don't worry. During pregnancy, it's normal to bleed. You will be fine if the blood loss is small.

When they arrived at the hospital, Melissa helped Nina out of the car and instructed, "Are you still a little flustered now? Close your eyes and don't look at the road. You'll feel better."

Nina did as she was told and closed her eyes. She was completely led by Melissa.

The words that Melissa just said were complete nonsense. It was to keep Nina from finding out that she had been brought to the same hospital where Harley was staying.

Melissa had already registered online for the emergency room in advance, so they went directly to the clinic of gynecology and obstetrics.

There was another pregnant woman in the clinic, and Melissa helped Nina sit down.

"Doctor, I'm bleeding. Will 1..."

"Don't worry. It is normal. I've seen a case of six months of menstruation during pregnancy."

The conversation between the patient and the doctor in the clinic could be heard.

"Nina, did you hear that? Bleeding during pregnancy doesn't necessarily mean something is wrong. Don't worry."

Nina closed her eyes and nodded gently. She grasped the corner of her clothes and was still nervous. After all, her belly was hurting. She was afraid...

The patient inside the clinic came out and it was Nina's turn. Melissa helped her into the clinic.

Nina opened her eyes and sat down. She saw the nameplate on the doctor's uniform. The hospital was the one Harley was in.

Nina looked at Melissa and wanted to stand up, "Melissa, isn't it..."

Melissa pressed Nina down into the chair, "We're already here. If you go out now, you might meet Harley and his family. Why don't we let the doctor diagnose you?"

Nina said worriedly, "But..."

Melissa comforted her, "Don't talk anymore. Just focus on treating."

"What's wrong with you?" asked the female doctor.

"My belly hurts and I'm bleeding," Nina replied weakly.

The doctor glanced at Nina, "Please look up."

Nina did as told.

The doctor asked, "Which part hurts? Here? or here?"

The doctor said, reaching out to gently press Nina's stomach.

Nina pointed at her belly, "Lower a bit."

"Have you eaten this morning?" the doctor asked.

"No," Nina replied.

"OK, you go ahead and take a blood test, then pay the fee to get an ultrasound."

"Doctor, is my fetus safe?"

Gerbus

The doctor frowned and said in a deep voice, "You haven't rested well recently, and you are in a bad mood. You have a little anemia. How can your fetus be safe? There are signs of a miscarriage."

Hearing this, Nina immediately became emotional, "Doctor, you must help to keep my child."

The doctor pulled her hand out of Nina's grasp and said, "The one who can keep your child is you, not me. You have to adjust your emotions. The situation of the child is now unstable. If you don't take care of him, no one can help."

"Don't worry. It's just a threatened miscarriage. If you take good care of it, later the baby will be safe. Now go pay the fees and have an ultrasound."

Nina nodded vigorously.

Melissa immediately paid the fee on her phone, and the doctor took Nina to get the ultrasound.

In the huge ultrasound room, there were a total of six ultrasound machines working at the same time. Each ultrasound machine was equipped with a hospital bed and a curtain for privacy.

The doctor glanced at Nina and said, "Please lie down and lift your clothes."

With Melissa's help, Nina did as she was told and the doctor closed the curtain.

Nina was lying on the bed, looking at Melissa with worry. Melissa nodded to comfort Nina.

"Doctor, is the baby alright?" Nina asked worriedly.

"Did you come to the hospital on time for your maternity check up?"

"I was too busy to do the checkup yet."

"Remember to come on time in the future. The maternity checkup is very important. The baby is still developing a bit slowly. I'll prescribe you some medicine, and you come to the hospital for a five-day infusion of nutrient fluids."

After finishing the ultrasound, Nina got off the bed and Melissa opened the curtain. The two of them were about to leave.

Nina looked up and saw Carlee. She immediately closed the curtain. Nina did not want Carlee to know that her child was in danger.

The doctor felt strange seeing her do this but did not ask much more.

“Is there anyone outside that you don’t want to see?”

Nina nodded.

“Who is it?” the doctor asked, pulling the curtain open a crack.

Melissa pointed and whispered, “The woman in green.”

The doctor walked over and closed the curtain that Carlee was standing by to block her view.

Melissa supported Nina and took the opportunity to quietly leave.

After Nina came out, she breathed a sigh of relief, “Fortunately, I was almost discovered by her.”

The doctor walked in front of Melissa and Nina and said slowly, “The child is still just a small embryo. He hasn’t separated his fingers yet. If not everyone is looking forward to his birth, you have to consider it carefully. Otherwise, the child will grow up in a bad environment.”

Nina looked exactly like an innocent girl who was accidentally pregnant and afraid of being discovered by her family.

“Thank you. I won’t treat this child unfairly,” Nina replied slowly.

If the child was born and grew up in a bad environment, Nina would not give birth to him.

Harley almost lost his life for the sake of this baby. After the child was born, Harley would spoil him very much.

Nina had to protect the child for the time being!

In the ultrasound room.

Carlee looked at the little girl on the bed, and next to her stood a woman who was about her age.

“What’s wrong with Laine? Why does she have a stomach ache? Is it appendicitis?”

W

a

"No, it's just a knot of intestines. It's fine," the doctor replied.

"Laine, why aren't you thanking Mrs. Timothy's concern? Mrs. Timothy came here for you," the woman next to Timothy said.

"Don't say that. It's normal for young people to be playful. Harley is now... Let's stop talking..."

"Carlee, don't worry. Harley will be fine. I have seen him. I have something to do, so I will leave first."

"OK, I will send you off."

"It's not necessary. Go back and take care of Harley. It is a coincidence that I came to the hospital to see Harley and Laine had a stomach ache, so I don't have to come once more."

This woman was Carlee's cousin. When she heard that Harley was hospitalized, she especially came over to visit Harley. She did not expect Laine to have a stomachache, so the doctor asked Laine to get an ultrasound.

When Carlee came over, she saw Melissa and Nina.

Carlee saw all of the actions of the two just now.

When Carlee came in, she saw Melissa closing the curtain and Nina lying on the bed.

Sav

U

was nothing for a pregnant woman to get the ultrasound, so Carlee did not suspect anything.

After all, Nina was pregnant with the offspring of the Timothy family, so Carlee couldn't help but pay attention to Nina. Carlee quietly approached Nina and Melissa and seemingly heard words about the baby not being very good.

On the way back to the ward, Carlee thought of what she had heard in the ultrasound room and said resentfully, "A jinx!"
