Chapter 500

Chapter 500 She Is Not Simple

Harley just received a new MV in the morning. In the afternoon, the company arranged for the publicity department to be responsible for the sales and publicity of the MV.

In order to make the MV get more circulation, the company launched great publicity. They even prepared to shoot the MV promotional photo to attract the attention of fans.

"Harley, Sylvia, get ready. We will take a promotional photo and release it on Twitter." The agent received a notification from the company and told them immediately.

They nodded and looked at Harley curiously. "Harley, what is the promotional photo?"

"It's used to tell the fans your final make-up and costume," Harley explained concisely.

In the studio, Sylvia had already changed her clothes and put on delicate makeup. She looked forward to the shooting with a face of anticipation. She was thinking about how to make them closer.

Harley, who had taken many promotional photos, looked calm. Before he went on stage, he even told Nina to eat well.

"Harley, Sylvia. Come. Let's start shooting," the photographer said, "It is just a promotional photo. Don't be nervous. Your expressions and postures need to be natural."

Sylvia, who was shooting the promotional photo for the first time, was very expressive. She held Harley's arm intimately, and she put on a sweet smile.

"Very good. Change your posture and take another one." Looking at their intimate posture, the photographer nodded with satisfaction.

Sylvia thought for a while, stood on tiptoe, and put her arms around Harley's neck. Her actions gave Harley a fright. "Harley, my agent asked me to pose."

Harley was just about to push Sylvia away, but when he heard her say this, he let Sylvia hug him.

"Alright, today's shooting ends here." The photographer looked at the photo in the camera with satisfaction, indicating that they could leave.

Once the promotional photo was confirmed, the company immediately posted it on Twitter. Their good appearances attracted attention.

The cold and handsome Harley and the young and beautiful Sylvia made a good ship and attracted a lot of fans on the Internet. The fans even spontaneously created the topic of the two.

The hashtag was Sylvia You Again. There was a heated discussion about the male and female leaders of the MV on Twitter.

Nina, who was resting at home, also saw the post on Twitter. Looking at Sylvia's intimate posture with Harley, Nina could not help but feel a little uncomfortable.

Sylvia's held Harley tightly, which made Nina annoyed.

Carlee also saw the news, and she smiled like a flower. "Sylvia is really good. Look at her first promotional photo."

Looking at Sylvia and Harley, Carlee felt that the two were very suitable. She could not help but glance at Nina.

"Sylvia is young and beautiful. In the future, she will have a great future in the entertainment industry. Maybe she can help Harley." Carlee praised her.

When Nina heard this news, her expression changed. She silently lowered her head and sat at the side, not saying a word.

Her eyes were always fixed on the phone.

"Mrs. Timothy, my stomach is a little uncomfortable. I'll go upstairs to rest." Nina was disappointed and found a reason to go upstairs.

Carlee knew that Nina must be unhappy, and she was secretly delighted.

When she returned to her room, Nina, who was feeling uncomfortable, dialed Melissa's number. She said in a disappointed tone, "Meli, Harley and Sylvia are filming an MV together. Many people on Twitter are saying that they are a good match."

Melissa saw the news on Twitter and she said, "I saw it too just now, but I don't think Harley didn't do anything. It is that girl who is too close."

They were both women, and Melissa could tell at a glance that Sylvia wasn't simple.

"Sylvia and Harley are childhood sweethearts, and Harley's mother likes her very much. That day, Sylvia came to our house to give us a gift. I think she might like Harley," Nina said slowly.

"Nina, you are pregnant now. You don't have to worry about these things. Harley usually treats you so well at home, and it was so difficult for you to experience so much. I don't think he will betray you."

Thinking about the things that Harley had done to her, Nina heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. "But Sylvia..."

Now that Sylvia had also entered the entertainment industry, there would definitely be more opportunities for them to meet in the future.

"Nina, don't let your imagination run wild. How many female stars have Harley met in the entertainment industry? There are so many that are more interesting than Sylvia. He is not tempted." Melissa smiled and comforted her. "What you need to do now is to take good care of the baby and give birth

Under Melissa's comfort, Nina nodded slightly. "I understand. I should trust Harley and not doubt him."

The two chatted for a while and hung up.

In the evening, Harley returned home from the company and heard Carlee's voice as soon as he entered.

"Son, I saw the promotional photo of you and Sylvia today. It is really good. You are handsome and she is beautiful. You are a good match." Carlee praised. "Sylvia looks even more beautiful in the photo."

Harley casually replied, "It's alright. How did Sylvia enter the showbiz?" he asked curiously.

"Of course, it's because you're in the entertainment industry. She wants to go in too." Carlee said with a smile. The more she looked at their photos, the happier she became.

"Mom, where's Nina?" Harley searched around the living room but did not find Nina.

"She is not feeling well. She went back to her room." When Carlee heard Nina's name, she frowned and said, "She just felt uncomfortable when seeing you and Sylvia's photo. She thought too much."

When Harley heard that Nina was jealous, he was secretly delighted. "Then I'll go upstairs and see her."

In the room, Nina was lying on the bed and looking at the photo of Sylvia and Harley on her phone. It was like a needle stabbing into her heart.

Hearing the footsteps outside the door, Nina knew that Harley was back. She immediately pretended to be asleep and threw her phone aside.

When she pushed open the door, the room was pitch black. "You're back." Nina pretended to have just woken up and spoke.
