Chapter 616 The Reason

Seeing that Nina's mood was getting better, Melissa finally asked in front of her. If the two of them did not resolve the conflict, then they might break up.

"I don't know anything that night. I only remember that I was drunk and I don't remember what happened."

"Is that true?"

Melissa raised her eyebrows. Harley did not seem like a man that would betray Nina.

"Really. I feel like I didn't touch Sylvia that night. When I woke up, my shirt was gone, but my pants were still there."

Speaking of this, Melissa and Nina looked at each other and smiled.

"Where did those photos come from?"

Melissa knew what Nina was thinking, so she asked,

"I really don't know that. I don't have any impression of it."

After Melissa adjusted her mood, she heaved a sigh of relief and prepared to continue working.

Then, her phone suddenly rang. She looked down and saw that it was Marvin.

She cleared her throat and picked up her phone to answer the call.

"Hello, Mr. Lynn."

She greeted Marvin.

"Ms. Eugen, I have a new drama recently. I want to start a project. Do you have time to help me with this? If you attend, you can help me advertise."

"Since Mr. Lynn has already asked for my help, of course, I will."

Melissa agreed. Marvin was a famous director in the industry. If she could cooperate with him, it would be very beneficial.

“By the way, I have another person here. I wonder if Marvin needs more help.”

Melissa asked. When Marvin mentioned this to her, someone appeared in her mind.

“Oh? Who is it?”

“You should know him. Harley Timothy.”

At the mention of Harley, Marvin was silent for a while.

“This...” Marvin looked a little troubled “As you know, I really don’t dare hire him because of his recent scandal.”

Then he thought about it and nodded. “But since Ms. Eugen recommended him, it’s not impossible.”

Melissa smiled, “Mr. Lynn is indeed a great person. Don’t worry. I guarantee that nothing will go wrong. However, you have to wait a moment. I will go and ask his opinion.”

The two talked about the details and Melissa hung up the phone.

Melissa raised her eyebrows and took out her phone again to call Harley

At this time, Harley was still in the hospital to take care of Ariana. This time, Ariana was sick because of him, so he stayed to take care of Ariana

After a long time, he answered it

“What’s the matter?”

Harley got straight to the point as he did not have so much time to talk to Melissa now

“I just want to ask you if you want to do other work.”

Melissa also knew that Harley was busy, but she still had to ask more clearly

“Do other work?” Harley frowned slightly. “Why?”

“As you know, the scandal between you and Sylvia has gone viral for the past two days. If you don’t adjust yourself properly, there might be many problems in the future.”

Melissa's words were reasonable, but Harley was still a little hesitant.

"Just now, Mr. Lynn gave me a call. He said that the new drama needed to be planned and asked me to help. I recommended you to him."

Harley pursed his lips. That was indeed a great opportunity.

However, when he looked at Ariana, who was still lying quietly in the ward, the scene of Ariana fainting on the ground appeared in his mind. He fell into deep thought.

"Think about it. It's not too late to tell me when you have an answer."

Melissa could tell Harley's hesitation and knew that he had many things to do recently and did not force him

"Thank you for your handness. I think it's better to forget about it."

Afiri sorse thought, Harley decided to refuse Mellone

Det Barbs Since he had come to the hospital, and it was his own fault, he should be responsible for it.

Harley would refuse her, and Melissa had expected it from the beginning. Since that was the case, it was not good for her to say anything more.

"Since that's the case, I'll tell him. Just take good care of Mrs. Paul."

After saying that, Melissa hung up the phone.

The next day, Melissa arrived at the company. Marvin sent a message saying that he had already finalized Vivian's role. It was just that it was not quite the same as what they had discussed at the beginning. This time, the role given to Vivian was even more important than the last one. When Vivian learned about this, she almost jumped up in excitement.

Therefore, Renita took Vivian to see Marvin and talked about the specific details. However, when she heard that she was going to be isolated from the world in a remote place for more than three months, Vivian's heart skipped a beat.

In the beginning, Melissa and the company tried to make her an idol, but once this role was confirmed, she would disappear from the public for three months, and she was afraid that not many people would remember her.

In the beginning, she relied on her appearance and character to attract fans, so Vivian had a lot of fans. But she actually did not have any loyal fans. She was afraid that only a few fans would remain in the end.

Although it had already been finalized with the director, the company did not immediately send out the announcement. Instead, they quietly waited for the director to give the notice first.

However, the first notice that Marvin gave Vivian was to ask her out for a midnight snack.

It must be said that the way the two gluttons met was different.

It was just that during this meal, Marvin also said something useful, such as the problem of Vivian's acting skills.

It was not because Vivian's acting was bad, but because Marvin felt that her current acting state was not very suitable for his movie. In that movie, the role that Vivian played was a completely new breakthrough for her.

What Vivian needed was to completely change himself from the inside out.

On the other side of the company, the theme song for the TV series was being prepared. Melissa also took the time to look at the recording studio. Fortunately, it was Jaylin who handled the matter. Melissa had always been very relieved. The recording of the theme song was also very smooth. However, at this moment, an unexpected person came to the company.

Looking at the man wearing sunglasses in front of her, Melissa sat on the sofa. Her expression slightly changed.

This was Ferne Blass, the male singer who had previously been invited to sing the theme song, but the final price had not been settled.

“Ms. Eugen.” When he saw Melissa, Ferne only nodded. He reached out and took off his sunglasses, revealing his face.

There was arrogance in his eyes. Melissa found it funny. She hadn’t seen such an arrogant person in the entertainment industry for a long time.

Melissa did not get up but looked up at Ferne. She asked in confusion, “You are?”

This made Ferne’s expression a little stiff. He frowned slightly, but he still found a seat and sat down, crossing his legs as he looked at Melissa.

“Ms. Eugen must be joking, right? As the boss of an entertainment company, how could you not know me?”

Melissa raised her eyes slightly, and her cold gaze fell on his face. “I’m sorry, what did my assistant say your name was?” Melissa paused and played with the pen in her hand.

“Are you an award-winning actor?”

Ferne did not speak.

“Or are you a director who directed a blockbuster film or a singer who had a global concert?”

Ferne’s face darkened as he squeezed out a sentence. “Ms. Eugen really knows how to joke.”

“Joke?” Melissa looked a little surprised. “Why do you think I am joking? If you are not these people, why do I know you?”

This time, Ferne finally could not sit still. He suddenly stood up and looked at Melissa with a somewhat fierce expression, but at the same time, he met Melissa’s gaze.

Ferne’s body stiffened. He had never seen such a look of indifference.

He secretly gritted his teeth and tried his best to make the expression on his face look better.

“Ms. Eugen, let me introduce myself. I am Ferne Blass. Recently, all the songs in the top three on the Internet rankings are mine.”

Ferne had only been in the entertainment industry for less than a month, but this month, every one of the songs he released directly went viral throughout the entire network.

His career had a stunning start.

It was the reason why he acted so arrogantly.

It was just that Melissa had seen more outstanding people than him. He felt so proud with a little achievement like this, and Melissa did not even care at all.

But she still had to pretend to be surprised. Melissa smiled at Ferne. “Oh, so it’s you. May I ask why you came to find me?”

What happened just now was enough to defeat Ferne’s spirit. He pursed his lips and coughed lightly before slowly saying, “Ms. Eugen, I’m here to propose a cooperation.”

Melissa looked at Ferne as if she had heard something incredible. “I seem to remember our previous cooperation, but Mr. Blass refused because you were dissatisfied.”

Melissa was talking about the theme song of the TV drama, and Ferne finally looked a little relaxed.

“It’s not that I don’t agree, Ms. Eugen. It’s just that there are some things that need to be considered over and over again. Actually, I came to find you this time to ask you to sign me.”

Melissa had actually thought about why Ferne had come to find her, but she had not expected that he had come for such a purpose.

“Mr. Blass, do you mean that you want to enter Star Entertainment?”

Ferne nodded and said, “I work alone and have not signed any companies, but with my current popularity, there are already many big companies that are interested in me. I am interested in Ms. Eugen’s company. As long as you sign me, let alone the theme song, even making an album for that TV drama is also possible.”

Melissa curled her lips. “Mr. Blass is so confident that I will sign you.”

“Of course. Doesn’t the drama need popularity? If it weren’t for that female lead, I’m afraid that the TV series promoted by Star Entertainment wouldn’t have been delayed until now.”

Melissa narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 617 A Rare Opportunity

In fact, Melissa had been in showbiz for quite some time, yet this was really the first time she had met such a person.

Melissa was dumbfounded. How could Ferne be so confident? Did he think he could act so arrogantly simply because of a few songs and some popularity?

Outsiders might think that he had received a lifetime achievement award that could support him for his entire life.

Melissa curled the corners of her mouth. Rising stars were everywhere in showbiz. Creative singers like Ferne were countless.

Ferne was lucky to be popular. However, once some newcomers appeared, Ferne would soon become a nobody.

“I take it that you think you can resurrect my ‘TV drama?’”

Melissa supported her cheeks with her hands and looked at Ferne.

Ferne crossed his hands and put them on his lower abdomen. He looked at Melissa seriously. “If Ms. Eugen does have sharp eyes, then you should rest assured because I’ll bring you untold benefits.”

In fact, Ferne had always been a conceited person, because he had been on a roll his entire life. The second he set foot in showbiz, he became famous overnight with the song he wrote.

Countless people dreamed of such a thing, yet Ferne became the lucky dog so easily. Naturally, he underestimated the competition in showbiz and how horrible things could get.

Ferne felt that he could have whatever he wanted easily. When he had his moment, countless big companies wanted to sign him, but he eventually chose Star Entertainment, because it was the leading entertainment company in showbiz.

Ferne knew clearly that if he signed with Star Entertainment, he would have all the resources the company had because of his current popularity, and the future benefits for him would be countless.

Ferne put on airs because he knew that he was in the limelight.

However, he forgot one thing. The person who was in front of him was Melissa.

“How about it? Ms. Eugen, think about it. It’s a rare opportunity.”

Ferne said confidently, “I turned down a lot of offers to come to you.”

Melissa couldn’t help but laugh when she heard his words.

She laughed as she looked at Ferne and said with her face propped up, “Who the hell do you think you are?”

Ferne, who wanted to laugh along, froze at once.

“Do you think Star Entertainment cares about you, a singer?”

Melissa tilted her head. With Star Entertainment’s current competence, she could sign with whoever she wanted.

Moreover, Melissa had heard from others in the company that Ferne still belonged to a personal studio. He had not signed with a company yet. Even so, Melissa had no intention of signing with Ferne at all.

Ferne was popular, which was somehow important. However, Melissa knew that he couldn’t make it long.

Sure enough, hearing Melissa’s words, Ferne pulled a long face. He leaned forward and came closer to Melissa slightly. “Ms. Eugen, given my current popularity…”

However, before Ferne could finish, he was interrupted by Melissa. She said, “Popularity? Do you think you’ll stay popular forever?”

“That’s why I need the support of your company. You are a big company, and you can definitely offer me the best resources,” Ferne couldn’t help but stand up and say.

“Indeed. I can offer you the best resources and make you our favorite”

Melissa moved back and leaned against her chair. She looked up at Ferne. "But do you think you deserve it? Ferne, you think too highly of yourself."

Ferne became angry, and his hands that were hanging by his side unconsciously tightened.

"Sure enough. You're a big company. Even a star like me cannot meet your standard."

Ferne's attitude amused Melissa. She was curious. Where did he get his confidence from? How could he be so arrogant?

He was the one who wanted to sign with her, not the other way around.

"Maybe it's us that cannot meet your standard. Mr. Blass, as you said, there are a lot of companies that want you, so, why don't you go to them?"

Melissa gently tapped the desk with her finger and sneered, "Ferne, you don't deserve it, and you are not qualified to talk to me like this."

Ignorance led to fearlessness.

"You..." Ferne glared at Melissa. He had been in showbiz for some time. Everyone was respectful to him. It was the first time he had seen someone looking at him with sarcasm.

He was unwilling to be treated like this, and he coldly snorted at Melissa.

"You will be sorry." As he spoke, he directly turned and left.

However, as soon as Ferne stepped out of the office, he bumped into someone.

Ferne was already furious, and now his voice was even more indifferent. "Are you blind?"

"I'm sorry. I'm so sorry," the girl who bumped into Ferne lowered her head and apologized repeatedly.

"I'm so unlucky." Ferne patted his collar and left on his high horse.

Melissa did not see such a scene since she was in the office. Otherwise, she wouldn't have let Ferne off the hook easily.

Melissa asked her assistant to do some digging about Ferne.

She suspected that someone was supporting Ferne, which was the reason why Ferne was so cocky. If Ferne had no one, then he was simply a dumbass.

Sooner or later, someone would teach Ferne a lesson, even if that someone wasn't Melissa.

The girl standing at Melissa's door looked around. Just as she was about to knock on the door, a voice came from behind her, "Hey, why are you here?"

Shayna Heyton turned her head and was stunned.

"You shouldn't be here."

The manager glanced at the door of Melissa's office. He didn't hear anything coming from the office. Then he heaved a sigh of relief and looked at the girl reproachfully.

"Let's go." He wanted to take Shayna away.

Shayna hesitated for a moment before catching up with the manager. "Will those two songs I just sang do?"

"What songs?" The manager paused.

Shayna's face was a little pale. "I gave you two of my original songs. You told me you submitted them for review."

There was some grievance in Shayna's voice, but the manager wasn't moved.

He even frowned impatiently. "Oh, that. No, they won't do. They're too lame."

"How could it be? It's not supposed to be like this." Shayna blinked her eyes in disbelief. Her friends all thought that the two songs were great, so they encouraged her to be here and recommend herself. And this was the comment she received?

"What are you talking about? This is a big company. We can tell what kind of songs can hit it big at once. Just go!"

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 618

Chapter 618 A Poor Student

The supervisor impatiently ordered her to leave, but Shayna was still unwilling to do so. Shayna bit her lower lip and said, "Could you please give me another chance or let me meet the people of the Music Department?"

The supervisor glanced at her. "Who do you think you are? If you don't leave now, I will call the security guards to kick you out."

As he spoke, he snorted coldly and muttered in a low voice, "Who do you think you are? You are just a poor student."

Shayna was too shy and introverted, and she could not say anything to refute. She looked very depressed and said, "Then can you..."

However, before she could finish her words, the supervisor shoved her. "Get out of here!"

Just like that, shayna was brought out of Star Entertainment. She turned around to look at the towering building, and her eyes were red.

She thought, perhaps I'm not outstanding enough.

At the same time, Melissa received a call from Vivian. On the other side of the line, Vivian sounded very excited, and she chattered with joy.

Marvin had decided the list of actors and actresses, which would be announced tonight.

Vivian got the role of the second female leading role. Although she was not the protagonist, this film was full of famous stars. Even a small supporting role in it was played by a senior celebrity that Vivian respected very much.

Therefore, Vivian felt that it was a great honor to be able to get the second female leading role in this movie.

"Melissa, I'm going to be famous soon. Shouldn't we celebrate it?"

Hearing this, Melissa chuckled. "Why do you call me if you want to celebrate? You should call your boyfriend. Besides, you'll leave the city to shoot the film soon. Aren't you going to take this opportunity to be with him?"

Vivian's depressed voice came from the other side of the line. "Don't mention it. He went out for a business trip."

Vivian had already fixed a date with Arno at night. However, Arno suddenly received a call from the hospital and needed to go out for a business trip, and that made Vivian suddenly feel sad.

"I thought you would think of me first."

"Melissa, don't tell me you can't even satisfy my small wish? I'm begging you, Melissa, and I know a very good bar. The singer there is very handsome," Vivian said coquettishly.

Melissa raised her eyebrows. "Vivian, do you want to be on the trending search?"

“Melissa, please. I will stay in the mountains for three months.”

In the end, under Vivian’s pestering, Melissa had no choice but to agree to it.

Murray was also a little busy with the company recently. Sometimes, he came home very late. Otherwise, Melissa would not have agreed to go to the bar with Vivian.

Vivian chose a quiet bar. The environment was also very good, and Melissa liked it there. The two of them sat down, listening to the music quietly.

Seeing Vivian come back with a glass of wine, Melissa looked at her. “Are you very familiar with the owner of this bar?”

Get Bonus

The owner of the bar was a very beautiful woman, revealing elegance from every inch of her skin.

“Well, I met her a long time ago, even before I entered the entertainment industry.”

Vivian nodded. She remembered that she had encountered a sudden rain and got into the bar to hide from it, but it kept raining, so the owner gave her an umbrella.

After that, Vivian would often visit this bar.

“I didn’t expect your daily life to be so colorful. I thought you would only look for food,” Melissa teased.

Vivian puffed up her cheeks when she heard that. “Although I’m a foodie, I don’t eat all the time, okay?”

As she spoke, Vivian sat down. She looked around and finally sighed, “What a pity that the singer didn’t come today.”

“Vivian, you have a boyfriend. Pay attention to your words.” Melissa narrowed her eyes and looked at Vivian.

“What’s wrong with my words? We all love someone attractive. Don’t you also see handsome men coming in and going out of the company every day?” Vivian snorted.

Melissa didn’t want to argue with her.

At that moment, a gentle voice caught Melissa’s attention.

Melissa turned around and saw that the singer was a girl. The girl was holding a guitar and singing softly in front of the microphone.

It was a song that Melissa had never heard before, but the first lyric had already captured Melissa's heart.

However, the girl seemed to be a little nervous and did not dare to look up. She just stared at her toes.

After Melissa listened to the first song quietly, she still felt that she hadn't had enough.

However, the girl had already packed up her guitar and was about to leave. Seeing this, Melissa walked toward her in a hurry.

"Hello." Melissa smiled and looked at her.

Suddenly stopped by a stranger, Shayna was startled and took a few steps back, looking up at Melissa.

"Hello, hello." Shayna's voice was weak, and she did not know why such a beautiful person was speaking to her.

Melissa saw the girl's uneasiness and comforted her, "Don't be nervous. I just want to ask if the song was your original creation?"

When Shayna heard this, her eyes slightly lit up. She nodded heavily at Melissa and said with an embarrassed smile, "That song was my original creation."

Melissa smiled and praised from the bottom of her heart. "It's a great song."

Being encouraged, Shayna blushed and nodded at Melissa. "Thank you."

"Do you work in this bar?" Melissa asked curiously.

"No." The little girl shook her head. "I just sing here occasionally."

Seeing this, Melissa was delighted and said very seriously, "Have you ever thought about making an album?"

Melissa wanted to sign the girl to her company,

Such a pearl was not discovered by anyone, and Melissa felt regret.

Not expecting Melissa to ask this, Shayna was completely stunned, but Melissa did not hesitate at all. Melissa took out her business card from her bag and handed it to Shayna.

"If you have such a thought, please come to Star Entertainment to find me."

Melissa pursed her lips. Everyone knew about Star Entertainment. If others received such an offer, they would be very happy. However, to Melissa's surprise, Shayna's expression suddenly changed. Even her smile at Melissa had disappeared.

"I won't sell my songs to you!"

Shayna left immediately after saying that, but Melissa was confused to hear that. When Melissa realized what Shayna meant, she followed Shayna out and asked.

"Wait, what did you mean by that?" Melissa asked.

Selling songs? Melissa was very confused.

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 619

Chapter 619 Misunderstanding

Just as Melissa was still confused, Shayna shook off Melissa's hand and looked wronged.

"I know that your company is very good. Although I am just an ordinary person, you can't treat me like this... Those songs are all my efforts. What do you want me to do?"

Melissa was completely confused and even wondered if she had missed something because of her daze. She took a deep breath and tried her best to sound calm.

"Is there any misunderstanding between us?"

"Misunderstanding? Is there any other Star Entertainment company in Aldness? If you want to bully others, then I will, I will..."

Shayna's voice weakened, and she hemmed and hawed for a long time, but could not say another word. In the end, she could only stare at Melissa, and tears were about to pour out of her eyes.

"If you want to bully me, I will call the police. We are in a legal society..."

But the next second, Shayna had lost her courage, "Please let me go. I can't sell all my songs to you for 30 dollars."

Shayna slightly lowered her head. She wanted to try her luck so she went to Star Entertainment that day and handed over her original songs, but the result was discouraging. The manager gave her a contract.

It said that the company would buy all the copyrights of her songs for 30 dollars. What was even worse was that if the songs were published, Shayna's name could not appear in the lyrics.

How could Shayna agree to such conditions?

Although she wanted to grab the small chance to be famous, Shayna would never let her song fall into the hands of others.

She looked at Melissa in front of her and felt even more aggrieved.

Through Shayna's words, Melissa seemed to have guessed something. Melissa frowned and carefully asked, "Have you been to Star Entertainment?"

Shayna did not answer, but she also acquiesced to Melissa's question.

"Someone wants to buy all your songs in the name of our company?" Melissa blinked.

Shayna listened and nodded carefully. "If you really want to buy the copyrights of those songs, can you write my name after the release? Even if it is not a lyric, it can be... I only hope that others will know that I wrote these songs."

Hearing this, Melissa completely understood the problem. She frowned even harder.

"Are you saying that the person wanted to buy out your original songs?"

Melissa knew that the most important thing about a published song was who had written it.

Shayna continued to speak with a pitiful expression, "I thought that Star Entertainment was a big company, so I recommended myself with the attitude of trying. Now it seems that an ordinary person like me can't do it at all."

Melissa looked very bad. She turned to look at Vivian at the side. Both of them could see the doubt in each other's eyes.

"When did you come to my company?" Melissa asked.

Not to mention Shayna's singing ability, just based on the song she had just performed, Melissa felt that it was impossible for the people of their company's music department to not notice her excellence.

BONU

There must be some misunderstanding,

“This morning,” Shayna said gloomily.

Thinking of what had happened in Star Entertainment today, Shayna felt even worse. The depression all over Shayna’s body even startled Melissa.

Melissa’s eyebrows did not relax. It seemed that the Music Department did not mention anyone today.

“Who did you see? Who wanted to buy your copyrights? Do you still remember what he looks like?” Melissa asked.

Melissa didn’t quite believe that her own company would buy copyrights at such a cheap price,

Thinking of this, Melissa began to suspect that this innocent Ilule girl had been deceived by someone,

“He said that he is the manager of the Music Department. Well... He is probably in his thirties,” Shayna carefully recalled.

“Do you know what his surname is?” Melissa carefully recalled that every department in her company had a lot of managers.

“I don’t know. He didn’t tell me,” Shayna sighed.

Melissa could not help but narrow her eyes. She looked at Shayna with a puzzled expression and asked tentatively, “Are you sure you went to Star Entertainment instead of being cheated into some other studio?”

“I’m sure!” Shayna nodded fiercely, then pointed to the address on the business card, “The place I went to is here.”

Melissa’s expression was bad. How could such a thing happen in her company?

“When I first gave the original draft to the manager, he told me to wait. I waited for a long time, but there was no news. I couldn’t help but go to the CEO’s office.” Shayna carefully looked at Melissa’s face, and in her heart, she believed Melissa’s identity.

Moreover, Melissa was too good-looking to be a liar.

“Did you go to my office?” Hearing this, Melissa asked in surprise, “How come I have never seen you before?”

If it was what happened today, Melissa would never forget it, but the person in front of her had indeed never come to her office.

“Before I went in, the manager already took me away, and then he said he wanted to buy my songs.” Shayna shook her head.

“Melissa, what is going on?” Vivian glanced at Melissa and asked, full of doubt.

She listened for a long time but could not figure out what had happened.

How could a swindler be in Melissa’s company?

Melissa pinched the space between her eyebrows and said to Shayna, “How about this, I’ll take you directly to the company tomorrow. Can you find the manager for me?”

At this time, Melissa already had her ideas. She didn’t expect such a thing would happen in her company.

If she hadn’t encountered a night allack today, she wouldn’t know how many things had happened like this.

“I won’t believe you. You can lie to me once, but you can’t lie to me a second time,” Shayna muttered, looking cute.

Melissa looked at her helplessly. Did she look like a liar?

Git

Melissa couldn’t help but sigh. “Then what should I do to make you believe me?”

Shayna blinked hesitantly, but she did not know what to say.

Melissa looked at her and wondered where this innocent girl came from.

Seeing this, Vivian took a step forward and pointed at her cheek. “Do you know me?”

Shayna looked up at Vivian and pursed her lips. “I have the impression of seeing you somewhere.”

“I’m Vivian. Have you seen my movies?” Vivian blinked and then smiled.

Shayna knocked her head, pointed at Vivian, and said, “I know you! I’ve seen your photo.”

As she spoke, she opened her phone and seemed to be searching for something.

When Vivian saw this, she thought that Shayna had saved a picture of her on the phone.

“I didn’t expect you to be a fan of mine.”

The next second, when Shayna showed her the screen, Vivian’s smile disappeared in a second.

Mrs. Gibson Your identity is Exposed Chapter 620

Chapter 620 Can’t Smile Again

To Vivian’s surprise, what Shayna found was not a fan collection photo album, but a chat group of her and her friends. In the chat interface, there was a funny picture.

It was a photo of Vivian at an award party, with some text which read “Can’t Smile Again”.

Vivian was lost for words. That was not what she had expected

Seeing Vivian’s strange expression, Shayna realized something and immediately put her phone behind her.

After Shayna thought for a moment, her eyes lit up. “Right, I’ve read a trending topic about you. You’re that...”

“Stop.” Vivian raised her hand for Shayna to shut up. She figured the trending topic that Shayna had read wouldn’t be about anything good.

Vivian sighed and said, “Go online and Google me. I am an entertainer from Star Entertainment.”

Shayna shook her head. “Since you are a star, you wouldn’t help her lie. I believe you.”

Melissa and Vivian looked at each other and sighed in relief.

“Are you available tomorrow?” Melissa got down to the point.

“I have a part-time job tomorrow morning, but I’ll be available after 1:00 p.m.,” Shayna said slowly after thinking carefully.

“I will call you tomorrow afternoon and take you to Star Entertainment.”

“Trust me. I will help you get justice,” Melissa said in an earnest tone.

Shayna puffed her cheeks and did not say anything.

When Melissa and Vivian left the bar, their minds were preoccupied.

Melissa was thinking about the problem with the management of the company, while Vivian was sad about her public image

Vivian pursed her lips in frustration and suddenly turned to look at Melissa. "Melissa, is my public image so terrible?"

Melissa broke out of the trance and shook her head at Vivian. "That girl looks like a quiet girl. It makes sense that she doesn't know about these things."

"But I still feel frustrated," Vivian said sullenly.

"What you should do now is to perform well in the movie. Do you understand?" Melissa said.

"I understand." Vivian nodded vigorously and made up her mind to do her best.

Melissa thought about Shayna's words along the way. She dialed a number as soon as she returned to the villa.

"Hello, what's up?" The voice on the other end of the line sounded drowsy and irritably as if the person had just been woken up.

"Did anyone in the Music Department mention a girl named Shayna Heyton to you today?" Melissa asked.

"Can't it wait until tomorrow? I am sleeping now."

The person on the phone was impatient.

Get Bonus

"Calvin, it just occurred to me that you still owed me a few songs. Your salary payment will have to wait until next month."

Her threat snapped Calvin Faber out of his drowsy state instantly. "Ms. Eugen, don't do this. We can talk. What was the name you just said? Shayna Heyton, right? I don't think I've ever heard of her. Why asking? Is there a problem?"

"Are you sure you haven't heard of her? She went there with her original creation." Melissa wanted to be sure.

“Although I often sleep during the day, I wouldn’t forget a person who came to the company with her original creative songs. No one came to the Music Department today.”

Calvin said firmly.

“Calvin, I put you in charge of the Music Department, but you sleep at work every day, right?” Melissa demanded.

Calvin was stupefied for a moment and then complained, “Ms. Eugen, I told you I was just a music composer, but you insisted on making me the head of the Music Department. If you ask me questions about music, I might be able to give you answers right away. But if you want to find someone, you should go to the HR Department.”

Melissa listened to Calvin’s nagging and felt an intense pain in her temples. She sighed and said, “At 1:00 p.m. tomorrow, I will bring someone to meet you.”

“Who?” Calvin forced himself to be curious.

“You’ll know when we get there. She is the best singer-songwriter I have ever seen,” Melissa said softly.

Calvin snorted in doubt, “Better than me?”

Melissa raised her eyebrows slightly. “At least she is a hardworking person. She doesn’t sleep at work.”

“Ms. Eugen, can we not make it personal?” Calvin said sullenly.

“Enough. Anyway, you have to be at the office at 1:00 p.m. tomorrow, got it?” Melissa said.

“Yes, my evil boss. Can I go back to sleep now?” Calvin’s voice started to sound drowsy again.

“You still owe me a few songs. When are you going to submit them, my great composer?” Melissa said in a nice voice.

When Calvin heard this, he quickly hung up.

Melissa silently rolled her eyes. She heard the door open and turned around, only to find Murray walking in.

Putting the phone aside, Melissa reached out to take Murray’s suit and put it on the hanger.

“Calvin?” Murray asked. He had been back for a while, but when he heard that Melissa was on the phone, he did not come in to disturb her.

Melissa nodded but involuntarily let out a sigh.

Murray touched her forehead and fiddled with her hair with his fingers. “What’s wrong?”

After taking a deep breath, Melissa told Murray about the Shayna thing.

“I didn’t expect to find so many problems in the company in just a few months.”

At first, it was the employee who had secretly taken photos of the company’s confidential information, and now, it was the problem of management. Melissa felt a headache as soon as she thought of them. When she was behind the scenes, she didn’t know there were so many problems.

Did I upset someone by taking over the company? she wondered.

“Why doesn’t your company have these problems?” Melissa blinked and looked at Murray.

Murray said calmly, “Every company has such problems. It is only a matter of time before the problems are discovered.”

Melissa pouted.

“By the way, how did Adela connect to Quentin?”

Melissa had looked into the photo and found that Adela was led to the hotel that day.

Brady was just an accomplice, and he took Adela to the designated room. There was also something wrong with Murray’s drink
