

Bride of Mr. Billionaire

Chapter 131

Bella's POV: She was so young and beautiful, but she was seriously ill. Moreover, Caroline was always full of momentum and never showed weakness.

Perhaps everyone had their own troubles and difficulties.

God loved me very much. At least I was healthy and didn't suffer from illness. "So you've been taking care of her?" I asked. Herbert nodded. "She's in poor health and poor in financial, so I rented a house for her. Miranda has been taking care of her. I can give her good living conditions, find the best doctor to treat her, and give her all the money to take care of her. But I never thought of using my feelings to take care of her. I don't love her anymore, and I've told her about it." My emotions were a little complicated. Herbert was a kind person. But sometimes he was very confused. Why didn't he explain it to me? And why did he let me misunderstand him all the time? Was it because he didn't see his feelings for me clearly? If I had known about this before, perhaps we wouldn't have had any conflicts. The next moment, I raised my fist and pounded it on his chest. "Why are you telling me these now? Do you know that Caroline said that the person you love is not me, but her! I was very sad! She said that you married me because I was pregnant at that time."

Herbert did not fight back, but held me in his arms. He pressed his chin against my chin and said gently, "I'm sorry, Bella, it's all my fault. I did fall in love with Caroline once, but it's all in the past. I have to admit that ever since I saw you for the first time, I was attracted by you. I am a very stubborn and proud person. When I couldn't see you, I always missed you. When I saw you, I always liked to make trouble for you and quarreled with you. But please believe that I love you, I really love you." I looked up and tilted my head to look at him. I couldn't help laughing. "What are you laughing at?" He asked, pinching my chin. "In the past, I only knew that you were good at debating. I didn't expect you to learn to express your love now." I was very happy. At this moment, it seemed that the air was sweet. I thought it was a formal farewell, but I didn't expect to solve our contradiction. This was a brand new beginning between us. "That depends on whether I'm willing to say it or not." said Herbert. "You mean you didn't want to coax me in the past, did you?" I took the opportunity to push Herbert away.

Herbert immediately hugged me and said, "I wanted to coax you before, but you didn't give me a chance!"

"Nonsense!" I reached out to hit him.

He grabbed my hand first and then kissed me. This kiss was not fierce, wild, nor was there any punishment. It was soft, slow, and filled with love...

This feeling was too blissful and unreal. Did we love each other?

When I suspected the authenticity of all this, he held me even tighter.

His temperature, his heartbeat, and his kiss all reminded me that everything was true.

This feeling was really good. There was no longer any suspicion, complaints, or uncertainty in the past

When the temperature in my body kept rising and my desire was awakened, I quickly pushed him away.

“What’s wrong?” Herbert’s voice was hoarse.

“My period is not over yet,” I replied. Herbert touched his nose and asked, “How many days are there left?”

I chuckled. “Two or three more days.”

“Okay!” Herbert continued to hold me in his arms, stroking my hair with his warm hands.

It was already late at night. “Have you had dinner yet? Are you hungry?” I asked.

“Hungry.” Herbert hugged me even tighter. His body was very hot.

The reason why he said he was hungry was not only that he was hunger for food.

Also, I had not satisfied his physiological needs.

In fact, I also yearned for him. Two people who love each other always wanted to do something intimate with each other.

I pushed him away with a smile. “Not now!” “I’m going to prepare dinner.” ; I found the ingredients in the refrigerator. I was happy as I prepared the steak. It was like a dream today. Everything was so unreal.

But everything was true.

I was really in a good mood. It seemed that all the darkness and sadness in my heart were gone in an instant. I was occupied by happiness and joy. When I was cutting the vegetables, a pair of arms suddenly hugged my waist from behind. I smiled and said, “The dinner will be ready soon. You can have a rest first.” But the person behind her refused to leave. “I want to look at you.” | suddenly thought of something. I suddenly turned around and waved the kitchen knife at him a few times.

“Are you going to murder your dear husband?” Herbert was not angry, but still looked very happy “I warn you, don’t flirt with Caroline in the future! No! You can’t flirt with any woman, okay? If I find out that you are having an affair with a woman, I will cut you into two pieces! No, many pieces!” waved the kitchen knife in my hand. In fact, I didn’t really dare to stab him, but the warning must be in place. “Of course I won’t. I will never flirt with any woman in the future!” Herbert promised seriously. I was very satisfied with his attitude and added, “And you are not allowed to meet with Caroline in private in the future!”

“Okay! I’ll listen to you. If I meet her in the future, I’ll let you stay by my side, okay?” Herbert continued.

“Okay!” I turned around and continued to prepare dinner. The smile on my face had never disappeared. My heart was filled with joy. The kitchen was dimly lit, but it was full of warmth and happiness...

After dinner, we snuggled on the narrow sofa and watched TV. I occasionally put a grape into his mouth.

“What’s your plan for your future life?” Herbert suddenly asked. I chewed on the grapes and replied, “There’s still more than a month left. I’m going to take the CPA test. I don’t want to find a job first. I’ll try my best to take the test. I hope I can pass it this time. “A hard-working girl!” Herbert nodded. I took the bank card on the coffee table and said with a smile, “With these compensation, I won’t have much pressure on my finance. When I get the CPA certificate, I will find a job with a higher salary.”

“I support you.” said Herbert. “How are you going to support me?” I looked at him. “How do you want me to support you? Be it mentally, materially, or do you need me to sacrifice my body?” Herbert pressed me down on the sofa. I was not afraid of his actions at all, because I was still in my period.

He wouldn’t force me, so I h****d his neck and took the initiative to kiss him.

Chapter 132

Bella’s POV

“I feel like I’m selling myself!” Herbert reached out and touched his cheek.

I smiled and said, “If I were to sell you, many rich women would be willing to spend a lot of money on you.”

“Are you willing to sell me?” He frowned.

I continued to joke, "If I sell you, I will have a lot of money!" "You are too cruel. I will punish you!" Herbert kissed my lips. "Yes..." I wanted to push him away, but I couldn't. After struggling for a moment, I could only submit obediently Herbert's kissing skill was so good that I could hardly control my inner desire. This wonderful feeling was like walking on sweet and soft cotton candy.

When I felt that I was about to suffocate, he was willing to let me go.

I could finally catch a breath of fresh air. "Don't say that kind of thing in the future." Herbert smiled and warned me.

"Okay, I won't." I said,

Herbert let go of me, sat down on the sofa, and said, "For the exam, how can I help you? Do you want me to bribe the examiner, or do you want me to find someone to give you an answer?"

"Why didn't you tell me earlier when you were so capable? I don't need to work so hard studying." / deliberately echoed him.

"I want to tell you that I can't help you with these illegal things." Herbert smirked. I chuckled. "Actually, I don't have those thoughts. I just want you to help me with my studies. You've already passed the CPA test at the age of 25? You're also a top student at Austin? By the way, I remember you said that as long as you graduate from a professional major and as long as you work hard enough, you'll definitely pass the CPA test. I'm now a major in accounting, and I'm also very hardworking. If you can help me, I'll definitely pass the exam." I tilted my head and looked at him. I really wanted to get the guidance of Herbert. Herbert smiled. "It seems that I have no way to refuse?"

"If you don't give me guidance, I'll go find someone else. I'm very familiar with a professor in the department of accountancy!" I looked up at Herbert with a provocative look in my eyes. I was sure Herbert knew that the professor of this department was Hank!

I was not really going to find Hank. I was just joking. Herbert pulled me over and threatened, "If you dare to find Hank, I'll break his legs!" It was just a joke, but I found that the blue veins on Herbert's forehead were bulging, and the look in his eyes became scary.

I immediately realized that I couldn't make such a joke, because this man's possessiveness was too strong.

Therefore, the next moment, I immediately said, "I won't go find anyone else. I need your guidance."

Herbert's expression eased a lot. "In the future, read and review at home during the day, and I will come to tutor you on time at seven o'clock in the evening. You should be focused!"

"Okay." I nodded quickly and didn't dare to provoke this overbearing man anymore.

It was almost eleven o'clock in the evening. I pushed Herbert, who was still watching TV, and reminded him, "It's very late. Go back to rest quickly. You have to go to work tomorrow."

Herbert stood up and went straight to the bathroom. "I'll take a shower first."

Hearing this, I quickly ran over and stopped him. "I mean, you go back to your home!" Herbert pinched my chin and said gently, "Tonight, I want to sleep here." "How is that possible?" I widened my eyes.

He wanted to live here? God, he wanted to live here together with me? I was not used to it. I needed some time?

Herbert suggested, "It's fine if you don't want me to live here. Why don't you come with me to my house?"

After that, he took my hand and walked out.

"Oh, no, don't joke around, okay?" I shook off his hand.

"I'm not joking. I'm serious. I don't want to be separated from you anymore." With that, he reached out and held me in his arms.

I leaned on his warm chest, but in the end, I didn't refuse his request. "Okay! You can live here. But I have to tell you that you have to take care of the chores here. I'll c**k in the future. You can wash the dishes, dump garbage, and we'll clean up the house together on weekends."

The next moment, he picked me up. I stretched out my arms and wrapped them around his neck. "What are you doing?"

"I can still carry you to bed in the future." Herbert lowered his head and said to me. Then he turned and walked to the bedroom.

"You're so annoying!" I patted Herbert on the shoulder and laughed very happily. In the next few days, Herbert came to my apartment every day after work.

After dinner, he gave me some lessons.

This was his most serious moment. He was very serious and would not joke with me at all. He was very strict with me.

I didn't expect Mr. Wharton to be so professional. What's more, the professional and practical knowledge which Herbert had taught me was very professional. It didn't seem as though there were any problems that he didn't know about. Although I graduated from the Department of Accountancy and have a few more years of experience, I wasn't really not as good as Herbert. Therefore, in order to catch up with the rhythm of Herbert's lecture, I would study hard during the day to learn more knowledge. At night, I could only understand his guidance if I listened to his lectures.

I didn't dare to be careless. As long as I was a little distracted, I wouldn't be able to understand. From eight o'clock to ten o'clock in the evening, it was the class time. As long as it was ten o'clock, I couldn't continue to study.

Because he said that resting was the most important thing. He did not want me to sacrifice my healthy body, and the efficiency of studying late at night was not very high. Every night, he would hold me in his arms and sleep. Of course, he would kiss me before going to bed.

Then, my period was over. Herbert's physical strength was long-lasting and full of energy. If we had s*x every night, I wouldn't even be able to get up the next day. This would lower my learning progress. The time the exam was getting closer. I had to find a way to avoid this situation.

Chapter 133

Herbert's POV

The contradiction between Bella and I had been resolved.

We stopped quarreling and hugged each other. Finally, we could hug and kiss peacefully. It was so happy.

Bella was a hard-working girl. She asked me to help her with the CPA test.

I was willing to help Bella.

It was my greatest expectation to go back to Bella after work every day. So I got off work very early in the next few days.

I wanted to see Bella, hold hands with her, hug, and kiss her. Of course, what I wanted most is to sleep with her.

This might be an instinctive impulse in the face of my lover.

I calculated the time in my heart. Bella's period seemed to be coming to an end.

That night, at seven o'clock, I appeared at the door of Bella's house on time.

But the person who came to open the door was not Bella, but her good friend Joey. "Mr. Wharton, nice to meet you!" Joey said. I was stunned for a moment, and then responded politely, "Hello." "Come in. Bella is in the kitchen. Dinner will be ready soon." Joey turned around and went to the kitchen to help.

Why did Joey suddenly appear here?

I washed my hands and sat at the table, watching Bella and Joey put our dinner on the table.

My gaze followed Bella the entire time.

After everyone took their seats, Bella was the first to say, "Today, these dishes were bought by Joey. The main dish was made by me. This is our special invitation for you to become our teacher?" "Your... teacher?" I frowned.

Bella continued, "Yes, from now on, you are my teacher and Joey's teacher. You have to tutor us for the CPA exam every night. We have nothing else to do for you. We can only treat you to dinner every night in the future. We promise to c**k delicious dinner for you!" I was silent and didn't say anything. I was willing to tutor Bella because I hoped I could spend more time with Bella.

Without discussing it with me, Joey became my student. What was going on? Joey said, "Mr. Wharton, I heard that you were giving Bella a tutor, so I asked to join her. I also want to take the exam. My foundation is weak and my brain isn't smart, so I can only ask Bella to take me to your tutoring class. Can you accept me, a stupid student?" Oh? That was the reason? My intuition was telling me that it was definitely not that reason.

rea

I kept silent Bella smiled and said, "I didn't do it well. I wanted to tell you in advance, but I didn't know if you were in a meeting. I forgot to tell you just now when I was preparing dinner. Please accept my good friend as your student. Besides, Joey is an employee of your company. If she is very capable, it will be good for the company."

I didn't want anyone else to disturb our lives, even if they were Bella's good friends.

Just as I was hesitating, a pair of feet rubbed against my calf.

It was Bella!

She took the initiative to tease me, and I couldn't agree.

I frowned and looked at her. When I was about to say no, I saw a flattering smile.

Bella's smile was full of flattery and pleading.

I couldn't bear to reject her. After all, Bella rarely begged me. Finally, I looked at Joey and said seriously, "My requirements are very high, so you have to keep up with our progress. If you can't keep up with our progress, I won't continue to tutor you. Even if Bella begs me again, I won't agree." "Mr. Wharton, I will work very hard." Joey hurriedly nodded. "Let's have dinner!" I lowered my head and cut the steak, still in a bad mood. Joey's arrival made me lose the time I spent alone with Bella.

Bella's POV:

Herbert finally agreed to our request. This was good.

In fact, I deliberately didn't inform him in advance, because I knew that he would definitely not agree

The CPA exam was my goal. I must pass it.

If only I lived with Herbert, we would spend the rest of the night in bed.

I wouldn't have the energy to study during the day.

If it went on like this, I wouldn't pass the exam.

In order to ensure the success of the test, I had to let Herbert suffer a little first.

In fact, I was not ready to live with Herbert. He didn't even look at me during dinner.

It was very obvious that he was angry.

In order to appease his emotions, Joey and I were engaged in everything. In the past, it was Herbert's job to wash dishes. I even took the initiative to prepare fruits for him. My attitude was very good. Although Herbert was angry, he was very serious when he was teaching. Joey and I were also very serious. Time flew. The evening classes were over. Joey and I learned a lot. At ten o'clock in the evening, Herbert was still sitting on the sofa.

Llacunann and amid with a smile "I'm cleaning here tonight. There's only 30 days left before the exam. I must try my best to pass it.”

I quickly took a look at the expression on Herbert’s face, and then walked to him. “Herbert, it’s getting late. You should go home early to rest!” After that, I picked up his briefcase and was ready to send him away.

Herbert glanced at Joey, who was in my room, and then turned to leave with a terrible look on his face.

“I’ll send you out!” I quickly followed him with my briefcase in my arms. In the dark corridor, Herbert turned his head to look at me and said discontentedly, “Why did you do this?” “What? Why?” I lowered my head and didn’t dare to look at him. “I don’t mind if you ask Joey to come to class, but why didn’t you tell me in advance? And why is she staying in your house?” Herbert accused me. I rushed forward to hold his arm and comforted him, “It’s already 10 o’clock after class. It’s not safe for Joey to go home alone, and she often lives with me.” “Then what should I do?” Herbert asked. “Ah?” Looking at the angry Herbert, I could only say with a smile, “Go back to your home and sleep!” Herbert reached out and grabbed the briefcase in my hand, and then strode away. I quickly caught up with him and could only hold his back. “Don’t be angry, okay? I also want to successfully pass the CPA test this time. Can you bear with it? When the exam is over, I will definitely accompany you, okay?” I shook his arm behind him, and my soft voice made me feel that I couldn’t refuse. Herbert glanced at me and said, “I forgive you this time. If you play any more pranks in the future, won’t let you go!” “I won’t do it again!” Herbert’s attitude softened. I immediately turned to him and promised with a smile.

The next second, he held me in his arms. He kissed me. His kiss was overbearing, strong, and it felt like a punishment...

Chapter 134

Bella’s POV

Twenty minutes later, I returned to my room.

Just now, Herbert kissed me in the dark corridor and teased me.

Every movement of his made my cheeks burn and my heart beat faster

Herbert was not good at flirting, but his words made me excited for a long time.

I laughed at myself in my heart. I was obviously an adult woman, but now I was like a little girl who had just experienced her first love.

I stood by the door, recalling the feeling of the hug and kiss gave by Herbert just now.

Joey's voice came, "Baby, you and Boss have been intimate at the door for almost half an hour."

I said shyly, "It's not that long."

"I checked the time on the clock. What did you do in the corridor just now? How's Boss' kissing skill? Or, did you make love in the corridor?" Joey became more and more excited as she spoke.

Make love? Of course not!

But the kiss from Herbert, the touch... and his breathing...

Joey was even more excited. "Really? Your face is very red!"

"No, we're not as thirsty as you think!" I refused to continue communicating with Joey.

"Okay! I won't continue to inquire about your privacy. It's just that I'm very curious about something." Joey pulled me to the sofa. ;

"Don't ask anything particularly embarrassing." I said.

"Herbert is very serious every day, and his work is even more serious. He didn't smile when he gave us a lesson tonight. I've never seen him smile," Joey said while holding her cheek

"What do you want to say?" I frowned.

Joey came up to me and snickered. "He was also as serious as he was when he made love with you?"

"You can change the question! What are you thinking about?" I replied to Joey with a smile.

Joey laughed behind me.

I ran into the bathroom with my bathrobe and closed the bathroom door. I looked at the ceiling and couldn't help laughing. I covered my hot cheeks with my hands. What appeared in my mind was the scene when he and I were making love. At that time, he didn't seem to be very serious...

At noon the next day, after lunch, I wanted to rest for a while.

But at this moment, the doorbell rang.

Who would come at this time? I wore my slippers and opened the door. Seeing the person standing outside the door, I couldn't help frowning. "Why are you here?" Without saving a word, Herbert walked in and closed the door.

You..." I saw him staring at me, so I looked down at me in my pajamas. My pajamas were not ?xposed.

The next moment, he lowered his head and kissed my lips!

You... what... are you doing?" I struggled, but he held me so tightly that I couldn't get rid of him. When he pulled my clothes with his big hand, I finally understood why he came to my house at noon. Although I was a little annoyed that he had messed up my plan, I still felt sweet.

This should be the behavior of a man in love. He was reckless and impulsive. Even a calm man like Herbert could not control himself.

While we were kissing, he picked me up and walked to the bedroom. My clothes were also taken off by him. His wet lips kissed my earlobe, my neck, collarbone, chest... When I let his mouth hold the sensitive spot of my chest, I couldn't help groaning and grabbing his hair with both hands.

He sucked my b*****s harder and left a dark red mark on it. His tongue was flexible and powerful, and my body began to become very hot. His touch made me tremble. At this moment, we were very close to each other. I could clearly feel his body temperature as touched his skin.

Herbert was a very charming man, who was enough to make many women crazy for him. I was stubborn, not only in life, but also in bed. Since we had confirmed that we love each other, I had to take the initiative. I turned over and pressed him under my body. I gently bit his nipples. I could clearly feel that his body has become stiff. At the same time, my hand reached to his lower body, held his hard desire, and then slid up and down.

"Ah!" Herbert growled in my ear.

I was very proud that I let Herbert to shout for me, but this emotion didn't last long. The next second, he pressed me down on the bed and kissed me very aggressively. He was rubbing my chest with one hand, and the other hand was already in my secret forest. I couldn't help twisting back and forth, eager to get more touch. He stood by the bed and separated my legs. When he entered my body, my body couldn't help trembling and my body arched slightly. He sped up the collision, and I felt great pleasure in my hot sensitive parts. He seemed to have sensed something. His speed was getting faster and faster, and my hand held him tightly

When I was about to reach the peak of the tide, he suddenly stopped.

He said, "Who am I?" At this moment, my mind was blank, and my consciousness was like a cloud floating in the sky. I felt so empty I was extremely empty

"Who am I?" He continued to ask me.

"Herbert! Herbert! I want to... beg you..." I begged him.

"That's it. I like it when you call me by my name." He said, panting,

Then he continued to speed up his as he entered and exited my body,

Once again, I was overwhelmed by pleasure

"Herbert, Herbert..." I groaned and called his name.

He exerted more strength and speed.

Finally, there seemed to be a flash of white light in my brain.

My voice changed from a moan to a roar. "Herbert."

That finally reached the pinnacle of pleasure.

I felt a stream of liquid flowing out of my body.

I was satisfied, but Herbert was still very strong.

He held me in his arms and kissed me.

I heard him whispering into my ear, "Bella, I like you being so active. You drive me crazy."

His hot lower body was against my b**t. I regret that I shouldn't have taken the initiative.

I immediately moved away. "Herbert, I still need to study. Let's get up." I got up from the bed.

Before I could stand firm, he held me in his arms again.

I was pressed under him.

His voice rang in my ear. "Bella, we're not going to study today." After he finished his words, his lower body entered my body.

The battle began again.

My moans echoed throughout the room.

The whole afternoon, from the room to the bathroom, all the way to the living room, and even the kitchen, we left our markings.

By the time he was willing to come to an end, it was already evening.

I was already very tired.

Herbert hugged me behind me, and the warm breath sprayed between my face and neck.

“I feel itchy...” I kept pushing him, but it was useless. I had no strength to resist.

I turned around and rested my head on his arm.

My hand touched his chest and said with a smile, “Boss, why did you leave the company during working hours? How do you manage your employees?”

“Boss is now bringing a good start to those employees who are not married. Let them immediately get married. Only with a good emotional life can they serve the company better!” Herbert teased with a smile.

“You’re so annoying. You’ve messed up my plan. No, I have to get up as soon as possible. I haven’t understood many questions yet.” I got up from the bed. Herbert, however, pressed me back and said domineeringly, “If there are any problems, I can give you an all-round explanation in bed!”

“There’s no need for you to bother me with this. I’d better go and read my textbooks!” Right now, all I wanted to do was flee. If I continued to stay in bed, I probably wouldn’t be able to complete my review plan today. Herbert pressed me under his body and said, “I’m not afraid of trouble, and I like to be troubled by

you!”

“Let me go! Herbert, don’t make trouble, okay? You’ll affect my studies...” My voice became softer and softer. Herbert knew my body too well. As long as he simply touched me, I would submit.

However, I still felt very happy. I also began to enjoy the happiness that only we could understand.

Chapter 135

Bella's POV

In the following hours, I still didn't study. I had been pestered by a certain gentleman

But before Joey entered the door, we were done.

I cleaned up all the traces in the room and changed the sheets. Herbert was reading a document on the sofa

I cleaned up the room and went to the kitchen to prepare dinner. "Mr. Wharton, why did you get off work so early today?" Joey greeted Herbert politely. "I've just arrived." Herbert replied.

Hearing Herbert's words, I couldn't help laughing.

This man was still in my bed ten minutes ago, and now he was so calm.

"I'll go to the kitchen to help." Joey washed her hands and went to the kitchen.

We chatted while cooking in the kitchen. "Hey, why is Boss so early today?" Joey asked.

"I don't know either." I replied with a smile.

"There's something strange about you two." Joey glanced at me. "What's strange about it? Don't think too much!" I pretended to be serious.

In fact, I was very guilty at the moment, but it was not convenient for me to talk to Joey about such an intimate thing. '

Joey did not continue to ask.

After dinner, Joey began to clean up the rubbish in the kitchen and put it into the trash can.

I didn't pay attention to what she was doing. I only heard her say, "Wow!"

Hearing the voice, I looked around and saw Joey staring at the trash can with a mocking smile on her face.

Because there were condoms in the trash can.

Why was it here? I was a little embarrassed, but I still pretended to be calm.

It was normal for a couple. Joey said, "No wonder you changed the bed sheet and quilt in the room. When did BOSS come?"

"Keep your voice down!" I looked back at Herbert, who was sitting in the living room, and then closed the kitchen door.

Since Joey already found out, I was calm.

I said, "He came at noon."

Hearing this, Joey opened her eyes wide and came over. "You've been making love for the whole afternoon? Boss is so strong. Hurry up and serve the dishes. Boss must have been hungry for a long time after exercising for the whole afternoon."

I immediately retorted, "Are you jealous of me? Hurry up and find a boyfriend!" "You're so annoying. You deliberately poked my sore spot. I'm going to ignore you!" Joey finally quieted down. She didn't want to ask any more questions.

I didn't pay much attention to the class that night. I was really sleepy. After fighting for an entire afternoon, I cleaned up the house and made dinner. I really wanted to lie down and sleep now. At 9.20 p.m., Herbert looked down at the watch on his wrist and said in a low voice, "I have something to do tonight. After today's class is over, remember to review tomorrow. I will conduct a check-up." "Goodbye, Mr. Wharton!" Joey waved her hand. "Bella, come with me. I have something to tell you." When he walked to the door, he suddenly turned to me. "Ah? Oh." I quickly got up and followed Herbert out of the door. We walked out of the dark corridor. There were many stars in the sky. Only then did Herbert turn his head and speak to me with a cold face. "Tell Joey that if she speaks nonsense, I'll cancel her right to study." Seeing that he was so serious, I quickly said, "It's not that serious, is it? Joey didn't say anything." "Do you think I'm deaf? I heard everything she said to you in the kitchen. I don't like outsiders talking about us." Herbert looked serious. I went up to him and grabbed his arm. "All right. I'll remind her. It's all my fault. I was too careless. I threw the condoms into the trash can." Herbert seized the opportunity to hold my waist, and his expression eased a lot. "It's you who asked me to use condoms. We don't have to use it next time." "That won't do!" Bella immediately raised her chin.

I didn't want to get pregnant again before marriage. Next time I wanted to get married, get pregnant, and have a baby...

Chapter 136

Bella's POV

I stayed by the door for more than ten minutes before bidding Herbert farewell.

When I returned to my room, I heard Joey say, "Boss is worried about you. He's afraid that you'll work too hard, so he ended the tutoring early and asked you to rest early!"

I smiled but didn't say anything,

"Hey, I'm an extra person. I shouldn't be here." Joey continued with a smile,

"No, no, no, you must be here."

"Why?" Joey was puzzled.

"Because I need you to study with me." With that, I walked to the bathroom.

In fact, the real reason was that if Joey was not here, I would not be able to pass the test in a month.

In the end, our studies will become intimate or romantic.

Time flew. A month had passed.

Under the strict guidance of Herbert, Joey and I had greatly improved in both theory and profession,

After the first two exams, Joey and I both felt that our results were good. We were both excited and worried, waiting for the announcement of the results.

After the exam, I was relieved. Today, I was going to buy two sets of clothes in the mall.

When I went home, I saw a fashionable woman at the door of my house.

Caroline?

What was she doing here? Was she here to make trouble for me?

I took out the key from my purse and said, "Please get out of the way. I want to open the door."

Caroline refused to let go, and raised her hand to hit my face!

I reacted quickly and reached out to grab her wrist. I glared at her. "What do you want to do?" "What am I doing? I want to hit you despicable b*tch!" Caroline wanted to get rid of my hand. I pushed her hard, and she almost fell down.

I pointed at her and yelled, "If you insult me again, I'll teach you a lesson!"

To my surprise, Caroline suddenly began to cry and knelt down in front of me.

“What are you doing?” I couldn’t understand what she was doing, “Bella, I beg you, give Herbert back to me! I know I can’t compete with you, so you pity me. I really can’t live without him!” Caroline knelt on the ground, crying and begging me. She was totally different from the arrogant woman just now. “You... you can get up first, okay?” I suddenly felt that Caroline was very pitiful, especially when I knew that she was seriously ill.

“If you don’t promise me, I won’t get up.” said Caroline loudly. Caroline’s words reminded me that she was threatening me. Then, I said, “Herbert is a person, not a thing. It’s not like I could give him to you if I wanted to. You should know Herbert’s temper very well.”

Caroline continued to grab my clothes and begged, “Bella, as long as you don’t see Herbert, he will come back to me. Just say that the person you love is not him. He is a proud person and will definitely not look for you again!”

Hearing such a request, I took two steps back. It was hard to imagine why there was such a person like Caroline in the world,

Why should I give my lover to her? Did she think I was a fool? It was a pity that I was not a fool.

Then, I seriously refused her. “I’m sorry, I can’t promise you, because I also love Herbert, and he loves me. I know your past feelings for him. You and he once loved each other, but everything is over. I advise you not to continue to be entangled, and find someone who loves you in the future. If you continue to be entangled with him, you will never get happiness.”

After I finished my words, I bypassed Caroline and was about to open the door with the key.

Behind me, Caroline suddenly scolded, “Herbert loves me. I’m his first woman. What right do you have to compete with me? You should quit immediately, or I’ll have a thousand ways to deal with you!”

I turned around and saw an angry face. I didn’t want to argue with this irrational woman. I opened the door and was ready to go home.

“Ah...” At this time, a strange voice suddenly came from behind me.

I looked back and saw that Caroline had fallen to the ground, twitching all over and unable to move her limbs. Only her eyes seemed to be normal. "What's wrong with you?" I was so scared that I stepped forward and asked, not daring to touch her. "My... medicine... medicine!" Caroline said intermittently. "Where is the medicine?" I was already frightened. All of a sudden, I remembered that Herbert had mentioned that she had a serious asthma.

She must be really ill, so I immediately took out a small bottle of medicine from her bag and sprayed it on her nose. I didn't know if this medicine was used that way.

I called the emergency hotline anxiously, and the ambulance quickly took her away. For the sake of her safety, I had to accompany her to the hospital.

I was a little unlucky. After being threatened and pestered, I had to send her to the hospital.

Caroline was pushed into the emergency room. I had already informed Herbert on my way here.

This matter had to be dealt with by him.

Soon, Herbert arrived at the hospital, followed by Connor.

"What's going on? Where's Caroline?" Herbert frowned and asked me.

"She came to my house and wanted to hit me first, and then begged me to give you back to her. Of course I didn't agree. She got sick because she was agitated, so I called the emergency hotline. Now she is in the emergency room, but I found her medicine in her bag as soon as possible. I think there should be no big problem."

Herbert immediately asked me, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine." I shrugged.

At this time, the door of the emergency room opened and a doctor came out.

Bride of Mr. Billion

Chapter 137

Bella's POV:

When the doctor asked, Herbert walked over and said, "I'm her friend. How is she?"

The doctor glanced at Herbert and replied, "It's not a big deal. We saved her in time, but she has to be treated in time. Where is her family? Some documents have to be signed and she has to pay the hospitalization fee. The patient has been sent to the ward. Inform her family to take care of her.”

Hearing this, Herbert glanced at me and replied, “She has no family now. I can pay and sign for her.”

“Fine.” Only then did the doctor take out the document and let Herbert sign it. Herbert glanced at Connor, who immediately went to pay the bill. After signing, the doctor took the document and left.

Herbert walked up to me and explained to me, “I’m sorry. She has no relatives now. I have to take care of her.”

To be honest, I found it very strange. Since she’s already his ex-girlfriend, why did he still have to take care of her?

But after thinking about it carefully, Caroline had no relatives or other friends in the city. Herbert was her only friend, and they grew up together.

If I were in such a situation, I probably wouldn’t have been able to completely ignore it.

Although I did mind the existence of Caroline, I still chose to understand and be tolerant. I said, “I understand.”

“It’s getting late. Shall I send you back first?” asked Herbert. “No need. You’d better go to see Caroline first. I can go back by myself.” I said.

I could see that he was a little anxious.

Herbert said, “Be careful. Send me a message when you get home. I’ll go to the ward first.”

“Okay.” I nodded.

Then he turned around and walked to the ward.

Looking at the back of Herbert, I was disappointed. Until I couldn’t see his back, I turned around and slowly walked to the main door of the emergency room.

On my way home, my mood was very contradictory.

Why should I be so tolerant? I couldn’t believe that he had to take care of his ex-girlfriend.

Maybe I should have been a little more willful just now. I couldn't let him see Caroline.

What if he fell in love with her again? Even if that was not the case, everyone knew how much she loved Herbert. What if she took the initiative to seduce him?

When I walked out of the emergency room, I suddenly saw Connor running over in a hurry.

"Miss Stepanek, the hospital needs Miss Ewell's ID card in order to proceed with the formalities. This is the bill I paid for her just now. Please put this bill in the ward. There will be a nurse to fetch it." Connor stuffed a stack of bills into my hands.

And then. Connor turned and left. This just happened to give me a chance to go back to the ward to visit Herbert "Which ward?" I shouted at Connor's back.

Connor replied, "Room 32 ward on the 8th floor of the hospital!"

"Got it." I nodded at him.

A few minutes later, I found room 32.

The ward door was closed. I was about to knock when I heard someone talking inside.

"Herbert, don't blame me. I didn't go to see Bella on purpose." Caroline said while crying.

"You have to pay more attention to your body." Herbert's voice was gentle.

"Don't blame Bella. She was a little emotional at that time, so she had a conflict with me. She didn't mean to push me. I have to be blamed for falling down. In addition, I was so agitated that I suddenly got sick." Caroline continued to cry. I couldn't help frowning. Caroline really knew how to talk nonsense? She was accusing me of hitting her, that was why she suddenly got sick. When I saw that she was ill, I treated her with the medicine and called an ambulance to take her to the hospital. I saved her!

Caroline crossed the line!

I didn't immediately go in. Instead, I continued to stand at the door and listened to what Herbert would say to her.

Then, he asked, "I've made it clear to you about what happened between us. Why are you still looking for Bella?"

"... I can't live without you. Herbert, why can't we start over?" In the hospital bed, there was a pleading look in Caroline's eyes.

"Our relationship is in the past. I don't want to repeat this again. You must receive treatment now. I've already called Miranda to take care of you," said Herbert. At this time, Caroline suddenly grabbed Herbert's hand and begged him. "Herbert, don't leave me. I'm so scared!"

"Caroline, be strong. I've already communicated with the doctors in Europe. He said that your illness can be completely controlled. When your health is better, I'll send you to Europe to continue your treatment." Herbert encouraged her.

"No! I don't want to go to Europe. I don't want to leave you." The next moment, Caroline got out of bed barefoot and hugged Herbert.

With his back facing the door, I couldn't see the expression on his face. All I could see was that Caroline had thrown herself into his arms, but he didn't push her away. My hand grasped the bill in my hand. I felt very uncomfortable, and even my breathing became difficult.

The next second, I pushed the door open and knocked on it with my fingers! When they saw me, their expressions were full of surprise. Then Herbert pushed Caroline away, and she sat on the bed. "It seems that I've disturbed you." I walked into the room and said coldly.

Herbert walked quickly to me and lowered his voice. "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Was I talking nonsense?" I stared into Herbert's eyes and asked. "...". Without waiting for Herbert's explanation, I stuffed the bill into his hands. "This is what Connor told me to give you. I'm leaving!"

I glanced at Caroline and found that there was provocation in her eyes, which made me even angrier.

I turned and walked out of the ward. I didn't want to waste a second there.

Bride of Mr. Billion

Bella's POV:

I was very angry now!

D**n it, I had to leave the hospital as soon as possible, otherwise, I would not be able to control my brain from always remembering that Caroline hugged Herbert!

"Bella!" Herbert appeared from behind and grabbed my arm.

"Don't touch me." I shook off his hand.

"Give me an opportunity to explain." Herbert's tone was very urgent.

"I saw you hugging each other ambiguously. What else do you want to explain?" I said loudly.

"That's not the case." Herbert continued to explain.

I took a step back and yelled at him, "Don't come close to me!" I couldn't accept my boyfriend being intimate with other women, especially when that woman was Caroline!

I knew that at this moment, I might need to calm down. For my dignity, I should also calm down.

But I couldn't do it!

"Okay, I won't go over. But listen to my explanation? It really isn't what you see!" Herbert continued to try to explain.

"Will my eyes deceive me?" At this moment, I remembered the scene in the ward again, and my nose couldn't help but feel sore. — I thought he could handle this matter well, but I didn't expect that when I was in the hospital ward, I saw Caroline holding him in her arms. What's more, the most important thing was that he didn't push that woman away! Why didn't he push her away?

Was it because he still liked Caroline?

But this man told me yesterday that he loved me... The more I thought about it, the more aggrieved I felt. So I lowered my head and burst into tears. "Caroline was in a bad mood just now. She was still dreaming of reuniting with me. I didn't agree, but she is a patient now. I... can't bear to make things particularly tough for her." Hearing Herbert's anxious tone, I couldn't help but look up at him. Herbert continued, "Actually, my attitude is very clear. But I didn't expect that she... suddenly jumped out of bed and hugged me. I... I really wanted to push her away at that time, but I was afraid that she would get agitated... and fall ill again..." Herbert looked at me and didn't continue. He suddenly touched the hair on top of his head and said in a low mood, "It was my fault just now. I didn't push her away. But please believe me. I didn't push her away, not because I love her, but because I was worried that she would get sick. The doctor said that her physical condition is not very good. In the future, I will avoid such a thing from happening!" This was definitely the Herbert I had never seen before. Today, he not only explained it to me, but also couldn't speak clearly for the first time. He seemed to be very worried that I would not believe him, and he also made a promise to me.

Herbert was a very proud man. He didn't bother to explain it to anyone, let alone make a promise.

That was something I had never thought of.

The depressed Herbert, the nervous Herbert, and the thoughtful Herbert... were very cute.

My anger quickly dissipated. He changed for me, so I should change my attitude. I approached him and held his hand.

"You're not angry anymore?" Herbert was stunned.

"I didn't expect you to be so helpless and nervous." I looked up at him and smiled.

Herbert held me in his arms and touched the back of my head with his big hand. "I don't know why! was so nervous just now. I'm worried that you won't believe me and I'm even more worried that you will leave me."

This was probably the most beautiful love story I had ever heard here.

My head was buried in his neck, enjoying his scent!

As the misunderstanding was resolved, the atmosphere between us became relaxed.

I was also thinking about my future life.

I suddenly thought of something, so I raised my head in Herbert's arms. Then I grabbed his collar with my hands and said seriously, "Herbert, let's not see each other for half a month." "Didn't you say you're not angry anymore? You..." Herbert sounded nervous again. "I'm not angry. I'm serious." I said calmly. "What do you mean?" Herbert looked at me in confusion. I looked at the building of the hospital department behind him and replied, "I don't want to be angry with you because of what happened to Caroline. I'll give you half a month. You take care of her and we'll meet again."

I loved Herbert, so it was impossible that I didn't care about him taking care of Caroline.

This situation would definitely happen again. I didn't want these things to affect our relationship. That was why I gave him time to deal with his relationship with Caroline. Herbert thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay, I'll listen to you." "If half a month is not enough, I can give you more..." Before I could finish my words, Herbert interrupted me immediately. "You don't have to add it. Half a month is enough."

"Well, I don't want to hear or see any more ambiguous relationship between you and Caroline after that. Not one bit!" I looked at Herbert with a very serious expression, and my attitude was tough.

"I promise you!" Herbert nodded.

"See you in half a month." I reached out to hug him again and then turned to leave.

I turned around, but he hugged me again.

I was about to push him away when he said in my ear, "You're too cruel. I can't see you for half a month! It's too unbearable."

"If you handle it as soon as possible, maybe it won't take half a month." I smiled and pushed him away.

"Goodbye!"

"Goodbye!" I quickened my pace. I was really afraid that I would change my mind and be reluctant to leave him.

I loved Herbert, but this was my bottom line. I wanted a unique love, and I wanted to have a complete possession of Herbert. His love belonged to me. I couldn't give my love to anyone. I couldn't do that. I was sure he would be able to handle the relationship between him and Caroline.

I knew that I would be very sad if I didn't see him for half a month. I would miss him very much. But I had to persevere!

Chapter 139

Bella's POV:

After I said goodbye to Herbert, I happened to meet the landlady when I got home.

"Miss Stepanek, I have your parcel." she said.

I smiled and took it. "Thank you."

"You're welcome." the landlady returned to her room.

I opened the door with the key and looked down at the parcel in my hand. According to the shape and weight, it should be a document.

When I saw the delivery address on the parcel, I couldn't help but frown, because it was written with the title "QW Law Firm".

The parcel contained a termination contract. I thought back to what happened in the QW Law Firm and felt a little sorry.

After all, I was very hardworking when I was working in the QW Law Firm, and I had made some achievements. I even made a lot of detailed plans for my future work.

I didn't expect it to end in this way.

The next morning, I went to the QW Law Firm to get my things. When I walked into the finance department, I saw that Selina was arrogantly blaming Amy.

"Is this your report? Is this trash? If you don't want to continue working, get lost as soon as possible!" Selina threw the report in her hand onto Amy's desk. Amy's expression was very ugly. She did not speak, but just looked at the documents on the desk. Seeing this scene, I couldn't help frowning. In fact, I thought that it was very likely that Selina would take over the position of the finance manager after I resigned.

I also thought that Selina would treat Amy harshly. After all, Amy used to have a good relationship with me. But I didn't expect that she would be so excessive that she would scold people in public. It was so hateful!

At this time, Selina had already seen me. She said to me in a sarcastic tone, "Isn't this the former manager? I remember that your salary and compensation have been settled. What are you doing here today?"

"Manager..." Amy looked at me with surprise in her eyes. "Do you really want to be fired?" Selina shouted at Amy like a female tiger. Selina vented her anger on Amy. Although I was also very angry, I had already resigned. If I got angry with Selina, it would only make her more angry and she would vent her anger on Amy. "I should call you manager now. Your subordinates can help you with your work. Your attitude is not very good." I said calmly. However, Selina was even angrier. "Amy is now my subordinate. You have left the company and you are not qualified to command me. Do you want Vivian to give you another beating before you shut up?" Selina stared at me and said arrogantly. I didn't care too much about it, and I didn't want to continue to be entangled with her. I went straight to my office and said, "I don't have time to quarrel with you. I'm here to take my things away today!" At this moment, Selina stepped forward and blocked the door. "What's the meaning of this?" I questioned Selina. "This is my office, and my belongings are inside. What if you steal my things after you go in?" Selina's smile was sinister. "As for your stuff, I've already asked Amy to move it to the storage room. You go and get it yourself. I'm very busy now, so I don't have time to entertain you!" after saying that, she turned around, went into her office, and closed the door. At this time, Amy hurried over and whispered, "Manager, shall I take you to take your things? I've sorted them out for you." I knew that the storage room was very dirty and messy. It was used to store some cleaning tools. It could be seen how much Selina hated me. "You can call me Bella in the future." I didn't want to make trouble for Amy anymore. So I held back my anger and followed Amy to the storage room to get my things. When I entered the storage room, although it was very messy inside, my things were arranged neatly and placed in a box without any damage. It could be seen that the person who packed them was very careful and tidy. I was very grateful to Amy. I picked up the suitcase. Amy was very reluctant to leave. "Bella, are you really not going to stay in the company?" "My contract has been terminated. If I hadn't been busy with the exam, I would have come and collected my items a month ago." I held Amy's hand. "I really miss the days when I worked with you." Amy was very helpless. I also felt very uncomfortable, because I knew that Amy was an honest girl. She was no match for Selina.

In addition, Selina and Vivian were relatives, and now she was the financial manager. Amy would suffer in this company. So, I tried to persuade Amy. "Amy, in fact, you are a person with both working ability and a stable character. It would be better if you go to other companies." Amy was a smart girl. She should understand what I meant. "Bella, I also want to go to other places to work, but my family is in a difficult position. If I want to start a new job, I will have to wait a long time before I can get my current salary. I rent a house alone, and I have to send my living expenses home every month. I don't dare to change my job. In fact, she asked me to resign my job, but now no one can take over my job. If she wanted to find a newbie, it will take some time before the newbie can do well. Besides, Boss values me very much. Boss doesn't like Selina, and he won't completely believe her words." Amy spoke out her opinion.

Bride of Mr. Billion

Bella's POV:

I knew what Amy was thinking, so I patted her on the shoulder and comforted her. "With Boss here, your efforts will definitely be seen." "Okay, I understand." Amy nodded. "I'm leaving. Call me often if you have time." I carried the box and walked out of the storage room. As soon as I walked into the corridor, Selina walked over from the opposite side in high heels.

For Amy's sake, I didn't want to have a conflict with Selina, so I pretended not to see her and continued to walk forward.

However, Selina reached out to stop me.

"What do you want to do?" I stared at Selina.

Selina lowered her head and looked at the box in my arms. "You're no longer an employee of the QW Law Firm. If you take things out of the company like this, how can I know if you have taken anything from the company? If something is missing in the company, I would have to take the responsibility." "What do you want?" I raised my chin and asked. I didn't want to be entangled with her, but Selina deliberately made trouble for me today. It seemed that it was not enough! She had successfully aroused the anger in my heart. "I want to check your stuff. Please cooperate." Selina sneered. I stared at her angrily, and her eyes were also staring at me with great disdain. At this time, Amy quickly stepped forward and said, "Manager, I packed everything for Bella. I can testify that there is no company property in the box." Selina glanced at Amy and said, "Bella? It seems that your relationship is very good. How would I know if you have stolen the company's property together?" "You're slandering me..." Amy was so angry that her eyes turned red. I knew that Selina won't give up until she humiliated me. Okay, I would help her! The next moment, I poured everything in my arms onto the floor, and everything was scattered all over the floor. The noise was so loud that the other people in the office all looked in this direction. I tossed the paper box in my hand on the ground and pointed to Selina. "Didn't you suspect that I took the company's stuff? Now my stuff is here. Please look carefully one by one and see if there is any property of the company in these things! If not, please put my stuff back into the box, or I will sue you for slander!"

My counterattack made Selina lose her arrogance,

She glanced at the things on the ground and said, "I've already checked them. There shouldn't be anything from the company, but you scattered them on the ground. I'm not responsible for picking them up for you!" I stopped her. "Selina, it's fine if you don't pick it up today. You have to apologize to me!"

14:070 "Are you kidding me? Why should I apologize to you?" Selina's voice was very sharp. "Well, if you don't apologize, then I'll hire a lawyer to sue you for slander. Anyway, I got the compensation, and I can use it to sue you." I said very easily.

Didn't she just mock me for getting paid and compensated? I could use this money on her.

"You..." My words made her a little nervous. I knew that she didn't want to get involved in a lawsuit. After working in the lawyer firm for so many years, she certainly knew that it was very troublesome to get involved in a lawsuit, and it was her fault.

Selina's attitude had eased, and I didn't intend to be entangled with her.

At this time, Amy quickly squatted on the floor and helped me pick up the things. At this moment, Selina no longer had the arrogance she had earlier. She immediately turned around and left.

Soon, Amy picked up all the things in the box and handed them to me. "Bella, take the stuff and go back. Don't be too angry because of that kind of person."

I nodded, took the box, and said, "Be careful and take care of yourself."

"I know." Amy nodded. After saying goodbye to Amy, I went into the elevator with the box.

After walking out of this company that I had worked for nearly a year, I felt that everything in the past was like a puff of smoke, blown away by the wind.

It seemed that I had always lost my job in the past two years. I was going to start looking for a new job again.

I walked out of the building and suddenly saw a person in front of me. The person was obviously stunned. I didn't want to meet him, because today was Monday. Generally he had work to discuss on Mondays, so I specially chose Monday morning to avoid him.

But I didn't expect to meet him, Klein.

But since we've met, I didn't want to avoid. After all, I had nothing to do with him. "You.." Klein glanced at the box in my arms, just about to ask. I replied first, "I'm here to collect my items."

"Oh, I was too careless. I should have sent it over to you so you don't have to make a trip here." Klein said.

"There's no need. My home is very close to here anyway," I said. After standing there for a minute, I was about to say goodbye.

But then, Klein laughed and asked, "How... have you been recently?"

"Very good." My tone was cold.

I couldn't forget why I was beaten by Vivian last time. It was because I was too close to Klein. I should always pay attention to it in the future, "I apologize on behalf of Vivian for what happened last time." Klein's face was filled with guilt. "It's all over. I don't want to mention it anymore." I said calmly. Although I said so, it was fake to say that I didn't mind it at all. Until now, I still remembered the violence that Vivian had committed against me that day!

Bride of Mr. Billion

Chapter 141

Bella's POV:

"Right. It's all in the past. Actually, I've always wanted to visit you, but..." Klein suddenly came to a halt halfway through his words.

I didn't know what he wanted to say, so I wanted to end this conversation as soon as possible.

"I'm fine. You don't have to mind. I have something to do. I'll go first." After I said that, I was ready to leave with the box in my arms.

"Goodbye." Klein said.

After walking for some distance, I suddenly thought of something, and so I turned to look at the back of Klein and shouted, "Wait a minute!"

Klein turned. "What is it?" "There's something I have to tell you. After all, I used to be an employee of the QW Law Firm. I don't want there to be any incompetent employees in the company, and I don't want to watch the good employees of the company being bullied." I said seriously.

"Who are you talking about?" Klein asked.

I took out a small booklet from the suitcase, then handed it to Klein. "This record shows Selina using her authority to claim a large amount of overtime pay, business trip, and her meals while I was working in the company." Klein accepted the booklet, then said with a smile, "The records are very detailed. Time, personnel, and staff are all very clear. But why didn't you hand it over to me before? Was it because of the personal grudge with Selina?" I lowered my head and thought for a moment before I replied, "You're half right." "You are very frank, but I want to know what the other half is." Klein asked, holding the booklet. I replied, "Ever since I joined the company, Selina had always viewed me as her enemy. During that period of time, when I discovered that she had claimed more money, I thought she was just taking advantage, or she was jealous of me, so she deliberately found trouble with me. I didn't want to make her lose her job because of this, nor did I want to bring trouble to myself. But now I feel that she is not a good person, very narrow-minded and very vicious. She has already normal order of the finance department. No matter what the reason is, I think it is necessary to tell you about this. Of course, I am not afraid that she will retaliate against me in the future. If you want to confront her or if she asks who reported her, you can say it's me!"

Klein laughed.

“What are you laughing at?” I frowned and asked.

Immediately afterwards, Klein put away his smile and said, “You are still that Bella. You haven’t changed at all. This is what I admire the most about you.” “You admire me...what about me?” From the day I lived until now, my emotional problems seemed to have just been resolved, but there were still many difficulties ahead of me. There was no improvement in my career at all, and I even lost my job. What could I do to deserve the appreciation of this famous lawyer, Klein?

14:08 D “To be honest, you don’t have other women’s hypocrisy or pretentiousness. I’m especially natural and comfortable with you.” Klein replied.

Hearing this, I was stunned for a moment and replied with a smile, “Do you mean that I don’t look like a woman?”

Klein’s laughter grew even louder.

After laughing, Klein’s face returned to normal. He looked at me and asked, “Can we still be friends in the future?”

I raised my head and stared into Klein’s eyes. I noticed that his eyes were fixed on me, and there was a burning look in his eyes.

And I saw in his eyes that he seemed to be very careful with me, as if he was very worried that I would refuse him.

His feelings for me was no longer a pure boss’s feelings for an employee.

I already knew it.

Of course, I couldn’t answer that I could continue to be friends with him. I didn’t want to be misunderstood.

That already confirmed my relationship with Herbert. I had to consider his feelings.

Klein could be considered a good person. In the past, when I was working in the QW Law Firm, he had been very nice to me.

I hesitated for a moment, then smiled at Klein. “In the future, we’ll be relatives. Isn’t it closer than that of friends?”

“Relative? You and Herbert...” Klein asked with a frown.

“We’ve made up.” I replied.

"You are... getting married?" Klein was very nervous.

"It should be a second marriage. Although the date has not been decided yet, I feel that we will get married again." I nodded.

At the thought of Herbert, I felt very happy and satisfied. "...Congratulate you." Klein said. "Thank you. I still have some matters to attend to. I'm leaving now. Goodbye!" Naturally, I could see the disappointment on Klein's face. Thus, I quickly ended the conversation, hurriedly turned around, and left. After getting in the taxi, I didn't even turn around. I didn't want to see the disappointed look in Klein's eyes.

To be honest, I had heard of this chaotic private life of Klein.

It was said that he and Vivian had been in love for many years. However, Vivian valued art and refused to return to China to marry and have children with him. She had been wandering abroad all the time.

Thus, the relationship between Klein and Vivian was often interrupted.

During the break of their relationship, Klein had an ambiguous relationship with many women, but every time Vivian came back, he would return to her side. Thus, those women were just a seasoning for Klein's life. The person he loved the most was still Vivian. I only found out about these things after I was beaten. Fortunately, I didn't have an affair with Klein. Otherwise, I would have become the third party to destroy their relationship. But there was no way I would fall in love with him, because Herbert left a very deep mark in my heart. I simply couldn't get rid of his influence on me. I did something against my principles.

At that time, when I was working, I found that Selina was playing tricks on the claims. Although the amount was not big, she had done something evil. I always wanted to find an opportunity to tell Klein about it, but I was suddenly beaten by Vivian, and then I resigned. I should not have gotten involved in the previous company's matter since I resigned. But I still did that on impulse. I was really angry with Selina's attitude toward Amy! I didn't regret it, nor was I afraid that Selina would cause me trouble. It was originally her problem!
